"Bill Choules' Night" Features "Bum"-All Star Game

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

One month and one day ago today, on a dark and snowy Saturday afternoon, a 1949 sedan cruised along the highway between Coeur d'Alene and Sandpoint, Idaho. In the driver's seat sat a young wife, beside her husband, on their way to visit friends in Bonners Ferry. It was nearly 2:30 p.m. with 21 miles to go to Sandpoint, and then 30 more to Bonners, when a heavy slush on the road veered the car from its straight course. No sooner had control of the car been regained than another, heavier slush caught the wheels. This time the driver could not win in the fight against the pull of the melting snow on the wheels.

Basketball Stopped
The car careened off the highway, turning completely over, throwing both passengers out in the process.

Thus in a few short minutes ended for this year, and maybe much longer, the basketball career of Bill Choules, 6'2" sophomore forward from Preston, Idaho.

A passing motorist secured aid and the pair were taken to a hospital where it was learned that Bill had a severe spinal injury. Luckily his wife escaped with minor bruises.

Operation on Choules
An operation was necessary to straighten out the vertebrae in Choules's spine. The cost was extreme—over $1,000. Hospital expenses threatened to exceed that amount.

Friends knew that Bill had no insurance. They knew that he had just been married last July, and as a struggling married student had trouble making both ends meet without the added expense. Bob Linck came up with the idea of a benefit, and everyone pitched in. We've never seen cooperation of the kind that has been exhibited by all concerned in the preparations for this big night tonight.

Cast Removed
Bill is presently at the Veteran's hospital in Spokane where he was recently moved. The cast has been removed from his back, but he still has to manipulate in a wheel chair. He still has not the use of one of his legs. "We hope he will be home by Christmas," his wife, a secretary in the Agriculture Publications department told us today. But we don't know for sure.

The time Bill spends from now until, and if, he regains full use of his back and legs, will differ from the 23 year-old Air Force veteran. In Preston, where he grew up, Choules participated in various sports, culminating his efforts there as a starting member of Preston's 1946 state championship undefeated high school cage squad.

Starred as Frosh
After a little time out for the Air Force, Bill came to Idaho in 1948, to study agriculture and became a first stringer on an outstanding Vandal frosh team. He was held out last year to gain more experience. By this fall he had become quite accomplished as a forward and was heralded as a man to watch on the team which has been predicted to end the season among the nation's top 29 fives.

Persons attending the benefit for Choules tonight will get double their money's worth. Not only will they receive the satisfaction of having some of their money used for a very worthy cause, but the entertainment will be worth more than money could buy.

Executive . . . . . . . Board

AGENDA
Asst. chairman All University day.
Student-faculty committee report.
Pep Band discussion.
Activities discussion.
Review ASUI organizational form.

Make Reservations

Union Pacific Railroad "special" will leave Moscow December 20 for southern Idaho at 6:45 p.m. Four extra coaches will be added to the regular train.

Greyhound Bus will leave Moscow at 12:30 p.m. the same day for south Idaho, via Pendleton, Oregon.

The Railroad station and Bus line urge all students to make reservations early. This information is necessary in order to have enough space for those wishing to travel.

Recruitment Program Is Outlined

"The more students we can get to go here the better all-around school we will have," University Field Agent Guy Wicks told over 150 members of the student recruitment committee last night.

"You can help us get more students here," Wicks added. "Last year's committee helped keep the University of Idaho's drop in enrollment well above the national norm. It was not organized until later and did not have much time to formulate plans," he said. "This year the program should work even better."

Under the chairmanship of Pat Duffy, the student recruitment committee is composed of one student from each town in the state, plus several nearby towns. Duffy told the members last night that each would be responsible to organize a committee in their home town to contact all high school seniors in that town. Each was given a list of names of the seniors.

Starts Christmas
Christmas vacation will mark the beginning of the program during which the students are supposed to talk to high school seniors. Duffy pointed out that the entire student body, as well as committee members could help out in the program.

Cost sheets were handed out to all those attending showing costs at the University of Idaho as compared to those of other colleges and universities. Wicks explained the advantages of attending a university, such as Idaho with eight separate schools and colleges, over those of attending a school with one of few fields of instruction.

ASUI President Vern Bahr pointed out that participants in the program can expect no personal reward for their work in the program, but are doing so that we all may have as good or better university.

"You can help sell your university to others and talk them into coming here for their education better than anyone else," Wicks told the group.

ASUI's 1st Annual Leadership Confab Was Held Saturday

Idaho's first annual leadership training program was completed Saturday afternoon and campus leaders were given an opportunity to air their problems in organization and responsibility. Approximately 65 attended the sessions held in the Student Union.

Dean D. R. Theophilus was the featured speaker with his topic "Aspects of Leadership." Dean Theophilus stated that the country is greatly in need of well-trained leaders and too frequently that leaders when elected command or order instead of actually leading.

Procedure Shown
Following Dean Theophilus' talk a film entitled "Parliamentary Procedure" was shown. Members of the collegiate FFA chapter from WSC also gave a parliamentary procedure demonstration to the group.

Mr. Kenneth Dick gave pointers to those present on delegation of responsibility. He said after a leader designates persons to do certain jobs they must follow up their appointments by double-checking accomplishments.

Frank Noffke, director of the student activities center at WSC, spoke to the group on the evaluation of campus organizations and added comments on delegation of responsibility. Marvin Washburn, Service board chairman, led group discussion on organization evaluation.

A 13-page mimeographed booklet was issued which gave a parliamentary procedure guide. The training program was sponsored by the ASUI Service board and under the general chairmanship of Marvin Jagels.

Benefit Attractions Include Championship Contest, Dance

Tonight at 7:30 the lid comes off two of the hottest basketball teams in the Pacific Northwest.

It will be "Cheerful Chuck" Finley's heralded All-Stars vs. Preston Brimhall's Bums in the "Game of the year." The championship contest is the feature attraction of "Bill Choules' Night" on campus. In addition to the game a dance with music by the Pep Band orchestra will follow in the new Student Union building. The dance will be a stag affair. One ticket, on sale in all living groups, General Manager's office, and bookstore, plus downtown stations, will admit the holder to both the game and dance. Tickets will also be sold at the gate. All proceeds will be turned over to the benefit fund for Bill Choules, who was injured in an auto accident last month. (See Jason column for the Choules story.)

Talefit Grouped
Both teams are reported "ready" for the crucial contest and probably such an outstanding array of talent has never been grouped together as will appear in Memorial gymnasium tonight.

"We have size, and experience, in fact, we have everything," Finley confided today. Meanwhile Brimhall was keeping relatively quiet, mysteriously hinting at a "mystery five" which forms his second platoon. Whereas Finley has named many players, Brimhall has released the names of only five.

Players Weigh In
The rivals shape up something like this: Finley himself, a former two-time all-American a few years and pounds lighter, will play on and coach his team. Opposing coach Buck Bailey from Washington State college will play guard, weighing in around 250 and standing over 6 feet. At the other All-Star guard spot will be Lawrence Huff, Moscow attorney, who has spent the last week in training studying all Idaho statutes on mayhem. Huff is around 6 feet 4 inches and weighs 240. At center will be Mac MacCowan; Moscow food store proprietor, 6-foot 3-inch 300-pounder. Mac has been training throwing around potato sacks in his store, especially at peach baskets—which served as the first basketball hoop ever used.

Finley Will Play
While Finley is coaching, the forwards will be Eugene Slade, 5 feet 4 inches, 125 pounds, and John Ikeda, 5 feet 1 inch, 145. When he is not coaching, he will replace both, he said today.

Also signed up for Finley's team is Ken Hunter, ASUI publicity director, who will be used as running center. "It will be a change from my usual running job, which features only my vocal cords," Hunter said today. President J. E. Buchanan sent Coach Finley a note today saying: "Coach, if I can't be on the first team, I won't play." He has left for Boise "to take the matter up with the regents. Graduate Manager Gale L. Mix, who is in the best of shape, will suit up.

All-Coasters
Ben Cain and Oz Thompson, all-Coast players on the Vandals' championship '23 team, will leave their Moscow businesses to play for Finley, who announced today he had signed them up.

Latest development on the All-Stars' team is Pikey Steiner, 3-foot 75-pound manager who has developed into something sensational. "I'm out to take both the playing and coach job from Finley," he said here today, as he sank a basket from the shoulders of center Mac MacCowan. "I'm running around the barber shop three times a day for training," he added.

"We have such a line-up," said Finley, "that we may have to substitute in regiments instead of platoons, as originally planned after the signing of Head of Physical Education George Green and his entire South Korean company (P. E. department)."

Boxing Coach Frank Young said today he would go in and "throw some leather" if the going gets tough.

"There has been some dissension among the downtown coaches," All-Star Coach Finley said, "about not being on the starting five. But if the entire downtown quarterback club will come on out and suit up, they will go in."

"However," he said, "if they don't score, they will no longer rate as experts."

Among the disgruntled downtowners is Martin Huff, son and partner to Lawrence, Finley's first-line guard. "Dad made the starting five, and I didn't even get honorable mention," he sadly related.

The Idaho freshman basketball team will be on hand to substitute for Finley's team when they run out of reserves.

Besides Brimhall, the "Bums" will feature former Vandal stars George Rey, Robert and Dexter Linck, and Harold Jaussi.

Unique, Huh?
Brimhall, twice an all-northern division guard for the Vandals, and now after his law degree here, looked over Finley's practicing All-Stars and said, "I've never seen such a basketball team in all my life."

Referees for the crucial battle have not been decided on yet, but rumors have it that the women's P. E. department may furnish the answer.

A special regulation was passed today for the game. It requires that if at any time ASUI Publicity Director Ken Hunter and WSC's Buck Bailey, both All-Stars, are on the floor at the same time they be required to wear specially provided attire. Usually forced to wear them to keep from suffering sun burn, these two gentlemen will be required to wear hats this evening to "Keep from dazzling the opponents."

He's Ticked

A capacity crowd attended the University's first opera last Thursday. Here the leading lady, Bernice Bauer, looks on as Naomi Nokes, the flirt, makes eyes at John Jordan, the leading man. Gerald Goecke and Joyce Walsler, other actors, are not shown.

Pre-Yuletide Festivities Saluted With Serenade

Holly week festivities will begin tomorrow night when members of the sophomore class will serenade all campus living groups. Sophomores will assemble in front of the Administration building at 10 p. m.

Voting for Holly queen will be completed today in all men's living groups. The queen will reign over the semi-formal Holly dance Friday night.

Dancing at 8:30
The all-campus dance will begin at 8:30 p.m. and decorations will be centered around a Christmas theme.

Jack Lindsay and his orchestra will furnish music for the annual dance which will be held this year in the SUB ballroom. Geri is the featured vocalist with the band.

All Sophomores Sing
According to Duffy, all sophomores will sing at 8:30 p.m. (Cont. on page 3, col. 2)

Famous Last Words

"They'll never get me—I'm a four-point student."

What The Hell?

Some folks have the mistaken notion that Idaho males are the only ones who have that old "Don't Give a Damn" attitude. But a recent new light has been brought to bear on the subject. The women have it too (The boom-boom-boom). More and more women have been flocking to the WAC recruiting desk in the Bucket seeking information, good deals, and a way of escape. The enlistment officers were finally compelled to leave, after recruiting 28 more girls than are officially registered in school. (Don't ask us to verify those figures, they may be false!)

What is to become of these lovely charmers? Are they all planning on being hardened old-line sergeants? We hope not. They must be inspired to stay in school, get in and dig (gold) and not give up their studies in favor of a quiet beer at one of the local pubs. Why enlist, girls? Your services will be called for as needed. (We'll take three, one blond, one brunette, and one red-head, gift-wrapped.)
 And another thing—henceforth and forever, to-wit: we feel, girls, sure, that all those nasty letters about you in this very paper weren't ill-meant. So take heart and keep working. Don't develop that "Don't Give a Damn" attitude—we all know you do.

Throat Cutting On Campus

Once again the students are defeating their own cause. Stupid as it seems there are people on campus who seem to delight in cutting their own throats.

A favorite place for this suicide is the Dipper in the Student Union. Three offenses have been repeatedly committed in that place of recreation. They are: 1) cigarette filters on furniture, 2) Coke bottles taken out of the building, and 3) Coke spilled on the floor.

All three of these crimes are costing the students money. You will have to pay for it!

Several weeks ago an editorial appeared on these pages pleading with the students to be careful with their cigarettes. Evidently it did little good, which proves that the Argonaut editorials are not being read, or that the students don't give a damn. We prefer to choose the latter alternative, because a good many fiery controversies have taken place on this page which have aroused much student opinion.

Standing on that premise we wonder why the students who use the Dipper refuse to take care of their own property. If such abuses continue, the Bucket will deteriorate and students will be griping because their building looks shabby.

It was revealed today that if students did not commit these abuses, the doors to the large ballroom might be opened to allow more space for dancing. But in view of what has already been done, that action is impossible because the ballroom would soon be a wreck also.

In short, please take care of the Dipper and the rest of the building—after all, it does belong to you.
 D. H.

Dear Jason

Dear Jason:
 This is the first time I've ever written any journalistic establishment to comment on an article, but the letter of Bryce Johnson's that was published in today's paper was a credit to your column. It expressed the opinion of 99.9 per cent of the boys I've ever talked to.
 In closing all I have to say is "good work Jason!"

Naval Rifle Team Wins Nine Matches

Naval ROTC rifle team has won 9 of 15 rifle matches throughout November, unit headquarters announced this week.
 The matches were fired with other NROTC units at various colleges and universities.
 Recent scores are: Idaho 1761, Brown University 1760; Idaho 1753, Tufts College 1700; Idaho 1766, Vanderbilt 1763; and Idaho 1766, University of California 1861.

The worst property damage caused by a flood in the United States occurred in 1927 when the lower Mississippi broke its levees and spread over 20,000 square miles. The property loss exceeded $270,000,000.

Cigarettes Await Winning Bowlers

Four cartons of Chesterfield cigarettes are on hand at the desk in the bowling alleys for bowlers with the highest bowling scores acquired during the last two weeks' period.

Bob Waddell and Ruth Van Engelen won Chesterfield cartons for their high scores of 212, and 158, respectively, earned during the first week of the contest. Bill Nelson and Clara Croim are last week's winners with scores of 220 and 190, respectively.

Award Two Cartons Weekly
 Chesterfield campus representatives Herm McDevitt and Jan Fulton will award two cartons a week for the remainder of the contest; one carton for the men each week bowling the highest score, and a second carton for the woman with the highest score.

Announcement of each week's winners will be made in every Tuesday's Argonaut. Winners announced today should ask for their prize carton of Chesterfields at the desk in the Student Union bowling alleys.

Female Dominates Mail; Opera Lauded

Dear Jason:
 I read with indignation the rebellious attack made upon Idaho coeds as a result of unrepresentative answers given to one poll concerning our opinion of the Idaho male. As we see it, the poll was not meant to arouse antagonism, but rather as a big joke. Since, as a big joke it went over like a lead balloon we must defend ourselves. It must be remembered a similar poll was conducted a few weeks prior aimed at us with note (of) flattering remarks. We read it and laughed. If these men who wrote these unfair articles were what their name implies — men — such insignificant remarks would not strike so great an impact. Since these unrecruited, unmathematical, derogatory remarks were made in this week's Argonaut by a few (as shown by their literary genius) who are not a fair representation of Idaho men, may we defend ourselves?

Jerry Kinsey states "Any logical person should know that men at Idaho are on an even basis with men elsewhere. Well, maybe they are but they show it in a peculiar manner: Never have I seen the better men withdraw within themselves and show an indifferent attitude toward women in general using a ratio as an excuse, only to let their more aggressive brothers try to pursue their own ends with unorthodox methods wholly unappreciated by the Idaho coed. We see too much of the minority comprised solely of pappa's little play-boy. If the real men on the campus were to emerge on more than rare occasions, these opinions might be more favorable and representative in general.

I will admit the comparison of an Idaho coed to the hypothetical egg was quite cute, but isn't your reasoning still in the cackling stage, Mr. Kinsey? May we revise your statement "Multiply that spilage times 27 and you can figure how spoiled the Idaho coeds are" to read more appropriately "There are 27 spoiled coeds on the campus" who were probably that way before they arrived here and still don't know how to act.

Concerning Bryce Johnson's statement accusing us of being a drunken, sloppy, conceited, over-rated mass of hags—wow! As for being sloppy and conceited perhaps that is our fault, but the drunken status of the few is only a result of a continuous flow of liquor being placed before them by the so-called jet-propelled wolves. As for the rest of us—Please!

And did it ever occur to you B. J., that we also have academic interests (Take a look at grade averages in feminine domiciles). However, to measure up to the male's narrow concept that we are solely for a "man," maybe we should revise our academic ambitions to place us in the lower half of the class to put men in the upper half to keep them here to spoil us 27 times more.

I do not agree with the statements made in answer to the recent poll, nor do I think they are the general opinion among the girls. Surely these opinions were not heartfelt, but merely meant as a harmless pun—have you no sense of humor?

M. A. C.

Editor please note: Suggestion for next poll: "What do you think of the price of rotten eggs in China as compared to the price of rotten eggs in Moscow?"

(Editor's Note: Okay, we'll do it.)

Dear Jason:
 Everyone is worried about the present crisis in Korea. How far will the United Nations go? How far will Russia go? These problems and many others are of the utmost concern to us at the present time.

These questions cannot be answered now. But, when will they be answered? What will the answer be? What can we as college students do? Shall we lay down our books and take up arms?

Possibly, we do have an answer. We may not have to lay down our books. We may be able to do something and study at the same time.

We think that it will be well worth your time to hear Dr. John Brockelbank on "Could World Government Avoid Another Korea?" at the SUB conference room B at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, December 14.

High Food Prices Undergo Scrutiny

As a result of increased food prices and increased wages for food service personnel, an increase in cafe charges to prevent deficit operation has been placed under consideration.

Last summer, a decision was made to attempt to maintain the lower board charge for 1950-51 and the semester rate of $165.00 ($169.00 for freshmen) was set for the present semester. This was done in the hope that food prices would stabilize.

Wages Increased
 However, the operation experience through October 1950 has been a loss of 3.0 per cent on total income. The amount expended for raw foods for this period for example, was 69.3 per cent as compared to 62.6 per cent for the year of 1949-50. In keeping with current conditions, it has been found necessary this fall to increase the wages of the food service personnel.

In consideration of the facts, it has been recommended to the Board of Regents, that serious thought be given to raising the board rate for second semester unless there is a marked decline in price levels between now and February 1, 1951.

Santa To Highlight Dames Xmas Party

Santa Claus and a gift-laden tree will highlight the Dames club Christmas party for their children Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Moscow Community Recreation Center. Fathers are also invited to join the party.

Dames club pictures for the 1951 Gem of the Mountains will be taken during the party.

These operas on the University of Idaho campus are something new, but after tonight's performance, I'm sure that the Opera Workshop need not feel that their efforts were in vain.

I hope that I speak for the entire student body and faculty when I say that I hope that this opera will have been the first of many more successful performances.

ATO Honors 'Tin Can' Friday Eve; Kappa Sig Holds Annual Houseparty

The tin can reigned supreme at the Alpha Tau Omega house Friday night, where 6,000 tin cans decorated the dance. "Winter Wonderland" was the theme of the Kappa Sigma houseparty, which was held Saturday from noon 'till midnight.

Tau Kappa Epsilon sponsored their annual Apache dance Saturday, while Forney hall entertained at a "sock" fireside on Friday. Saturday afternoon Delta Delta Delta held a pledge tea dance, and on Sunday Kappa Kappa Gamma gave a Christmas party and fireside for pledges, alums, and their children.

Alpha Tau Omega
The annual ATO Tin Can dance Friday presented costumes from saints to French apache dancers. Over 6,000 tin cans decorated the chapter house, and Chuck LaFollette's orchestra furnished the music. Chaperones for the affair were James A. Masi, Ralph Sherman, and Roy M. McCullum.

Miss Marcia McFaddin, Twin Falls, was a Sunday dinner guest at the chapter house. Other recent dinner guests were Larry Johnson, Bev Gallup, Marietta Harris, Mary Briggs, Mary Kay Johnson, Marietta Cloos, James A. Masi, Ralph Sherman, Roy McCullum, and Bob Healthally.

Delta Delta Delta
The annual pledge tea dance was given Saturday afternoon. The theme was carried out in a seasonal spirit with a huge white snowman occupying one corner of the living room, while in the opposite corner stood a large decorated Christmas tree. Sprigs of holly, pine boughs and mistletoe completed the decorations. Louise Longo was in charge of decorations with refreshments under the direction of Diane Simpson. Mrs. John C. Graham was hostess of the dance.

A Christmas party for alums and their children was given Sunday afternoon. Each class gave skits and bridge and refreshments followed.

Marcia McFadden of Oregon State college was a weekend guest at the house. Wednesday dinner guests were, Naida Whybark, Delores Lindfors, Elaine Cope, Mary Steiner, and Margaret Sullivan. Betty Beckman, Pat Patton, Joyce Mostland, Marilyn Stoltz, Doreen Leppala, and Delores Lindfors were Sunday dinner guests.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

The Apache dance was held Saturday with the chapter house decorated as a French underground cafe. Entrance was through the basement and rock walls provided the desired atmosphere. Patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. James Masi, Lt. and Mrs. Malcolm Stewart, Mr. Ralph Sherman, and Mr. Roy McCullum. ## Gifts Announce Xmas Engagement

Gaily wrapped miniature Christmas gifts set the theme for the dinner engagement announcement of Miss Shirley Anne Churchill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Churchill, Finn Rock, Oregon, to William W. Briggs, Boise, last Sunday at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Tags attached to each Christmas gift served as place cards for the dinner. Found within every gift box was hard Christmas candy, and a tiny 1951 calendar bearing the words, "Shirley and Bill" inscribed on the month of June.

Music Major
Decorating the tables for the occasion were red Christmas candles set in holders of silver tinsel, and circled by sprigs of holly. Attention was centered, in the table decorations, on a centerpiece composed of Santa Claus and a miniature sleigh, pulled by reindeer. The sleigh, filled with white chrysanthemums, framed the diamond engagement ring.

Miss Churchill, formerly from Kellogg, is now a sophomore at the University. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and is majoring in music. Briggs graduated from the University last June in civil engineering, and is now residing in Boise. He is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Plans are being made for a June wedding.

Engagement Told By Boise Couple

The engagement of Bev Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burke, Boise, to Rich Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ceell Jordan, Boise, was announced at the Gamma Phi Beta house Friday night. "Scavenger Hunt" type notes, hidden in various parts of the house led the coeds finally to the living room where the ring was mounted on a sprig of holly placed on the mantel.

Ice cream and cookies were served at the fireside that followed, and the traditional tray of chocolates was passed. Miss Burke is a sophomore French major; Mr. Jordan is a senior majoring in architecture and a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

No definite wedding plans were announced.

Summer-Neumayer Set Wedding Date

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 9...THE MARSH HEN

“For a while they had me swamped!”

Seems like this confused fowl got mixed in a metaphor and was almost turned into a guinea pig. The story goes she got caught in a welter of quick-trick cigarette tests... one puff of this brand, then a puff of that... a sniff, a whiff—a fast inhale and exhale. And then she was supposed to know all about cigarette mildness! Is that the way to treat a lady? And is that the way to judge a cigarette? We think not. That's why we suggest:

The sensible test—The 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snappy judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) we believe you'll know why...

Phillips Oilers Dump Idaho 64-46 In Lake City Contest

Hartley Kruger High For Game With 12 Points

By Karl Klages

"Stratosphere" Bob Kurland, 7' center for the Phillips Oilers, tallied only two field goals and seven free throws but was the big difference in the Oilers' 64-46 victory over a defensively great University of Idaho basketball squad last night in Coeur d'Alene.

The ex-Oklahoma A & M great, shoved the 66'ers off to a good start by dropping a crippler and two foul shots through before Idaho's Dollinger was awarded a gift toss to make the score 4-1.

Although Finley's squad never headed the giants, they were hot on their heels throughout the first half. Halfway through the first period, the Oilers held a 14-8 margin and Kurland went to the bench for a rest. Idaho's Mather, Mead, White, and Kruger immediately hit the strings and pulled to within a 16-17 deficit. At this point Kurland went back in and his ability to play the key hole and set the offensive pattern for his teammates gave the Oilers a 24-17 halftime lead.

Vandal Defense Great

Idaho's game was defense. The Vandals played almost as tight a game as the Phillips crew, with Wheeler, Jenkins, Mead and Reed dominating the boards most of the evening. However, they could not master the effective screen set up by Kurland, Kleine, 6'10", and Whitehead, 6'9".

The Oilers were a rejuvenated ball club after intermission. They cut loose and midway through the second canto, they held a 49-26 lead. The Vandals, however, had a few ideas of their own and with eight minutes left big Hartley Kruger and teammate Bill Mather netted eight and six points respectively as the Vandals dumped 23 fast counters.

Big sophomore center Kruger who lacked only five inches of reaching Kurland was the individual gun in the Idaho attack. He netted 12 points to take both team and game honors for the evening.

His and his teammates' efforts could not match the fast break employed by the Oilers however, and the gun ended the game with the 66'ers pulling away.

Frosh Post 69-24 Win Over NIJC

Coach Art Smith's frosh aggregation ran away with NIJC last night in the curtain raiser, 69-24. The Vandal Babes hardly worked up a sweat as they ran and scored with ease over the Cardinals.

After posting a halftime lead of 39-10, the frosh made no effort to burn up the scoreboard. They could have tallied 100 points. Instead, they tried to hold NIJC to as low a score as possible. With the score 61-18 late in the contest, the Babes went into a freeze and worked on possession.

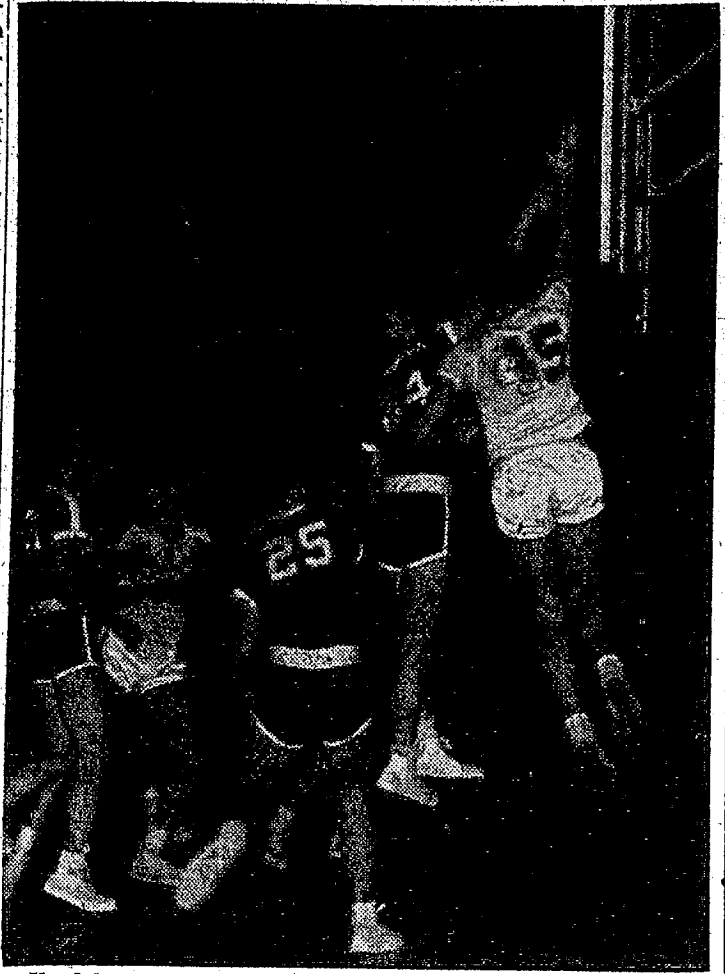

Tom Flynn and Stan Wilcox paced the frosh scorers with 11 counters each. Wilcox potted three field goals and five of nine charity tosses while Flynn flicked the nets for five baskets and a single free throw. High man for NIJC was Markuson with six points.

Vandal Quintet Stumbles Over Montana; Divide Two-Game Series With Silvertips

Two For Dollinger

Vandal guard Stip Dollinger contributes two to the Idaho cause as the local boys outlasted a torrid Montana fast break and barely managed to edge by the Grizzlies 47 to 43 in Friday evening's action. Nick Stallworth, starting forward who was high point man for the evening with 15, comes in to play the rebound.

Vandal Babes Grab NSPS Safety Board Two Over Weekend Warns Slat Wearers Of Skiing Dangers

The high-flying Idaho frosh basketball quintet continued to play outstanding ball during the past week-end and ran their win streak to three straight with victories over the Larsen Air Base five on Friday evening and the Gonzaga Junior Varsity on Saturday. The Babes showed plenty of improvement over their previous performances.

Saturday evening's performance on the Wallace Memorial court was by far the most outstanding to date as the Idahoans, led by Stan Wilcox and Tom Flynn, walked over a good Gonzaga outfit, 62-46. This same Bulldog team defeated Washington State College's frosh by a ten point margin.

Wilcox started the Saturday game rolling early in the contest as he scored eight of the first 12 points meshed by his team. By halftime the count had risen to 34-15, and at one time in the fourth period the winners held an undeniable 54-29 margin. Wilcox led the scoring with 13 counters followed by Flynn with 12. Febus, Smith and Mulchay led Gonzaga with seven points apiece.

Hard Pressed

On Friday evening the frosh got off to another fast start against Larsen Air Force Base, but they were hard pressed to come out with a 46-42 decision. Midway in the first half Idaho had a commanding 25-6 lead, but a determined last period drive by the Flyers brought them close to victory.

The Moses Lake outfit came up with the classiest man on the floor in the person of Bobby Clark, a 5'10" Negro lad who outplayed his bigger rivals in all phases of the game.

He led the scorers of both clubs with 17 points, most of which were made on driving lay-ups.

Idaho was led by Flynn who hit six of ten shots from the floor and two of four attempts from the foul line to account for 14 points. Wilcox was next in line with nine counters.

Tomorrow night the Frosh will again meet Gonzaga in an attempt to dump the Bullypups again. The contest is slated for 5:45 in Memorial Gym.

The Idaho hoopsters stumbled on the victory road Saturday night at Wallace and fell before Montana State university 60 to 52. The defeat gave Jiggs Dahlberg's Missoula crew an even split with the Vandals, making up for their 47 to 43 loss Friday night at Moscow. It was the first defeat for Idaho in four starts.

Idaho couldn't buy a basket in the mining city Saturday. They fired 93 shots at the hoop and connected on 21 of them. The scrappy Montana five hit 21 out of 58 attempts but drew 28 foul shots in the process.

The Vandals had control of both boards but when the Silvertips did get the ball they passed and moved it much better than they did Friday night. Montana wasn't good Saturday, they just drove hard for the basket and hit their layups. During the first half they had a 400 shooting mark from the field.

Idaho fell behind at the start and never did manage to overhaul the Grizzlies. They would pull within striking range and wham—Montana would take off for the races. Close to 1700 fans saw the Grizzlies increase an early six-point margin to a 32-24 halftime lead.

Whittle Lead

Idaho pulled back after the intermission and closed the count at 32-35 before Montana shot it up to 42-32. Idaho again closed fast and for awhile it looked as though the ball game might be theirs. They trailed 32-44 and 43-45 before Montana let go with another flurry and Idaho was through. No member on the club could hit consistently and it was just an overall bad night for the Vandals.

Friday night Idaho tipped the Silvertips at Memorial gym 47 to 43. The contest was a ragged pre-season mauler. Idaho ran with the racehorse Grizzlies and play on both outfits misfired and threw away the ball every other trip down the floor. Forty-two personals were whistled during the contest.

Stallworth High

Montana jumped to a 3-0 lead before Idaho knotted the count at 7-7 and 9-9. Montana tied it at 11-11 and that was the last time they threatened. By halftime Idaho held a 27-20 margin.

The ball game wasn't as close as the final score might indicate, in fact the final four point spread was the nearest Montana could pull during the second stanza. Idaho at one point was 10 points in front and the outcome was never in doubt.

Forward Nick Stallworth paced the Vandals with 15 counters. The double-digit total also gave him scoring honors for the evening.

Stallworth was followed by Sam Jenkins with nine and Herb Mead with six. Forward Chuck Davis led the losers with 14.

IM Volleyball

With the intramural volleyball race drawing to a rapid close, the league champions have been determined and await the play-offs. In League I Sigma Alpha Epsilon coasted through with a perfect 8-0 record. Their only tough contest of the campaign was against ATO, but SAE captured the last two games of the set after dropping the first encounter.

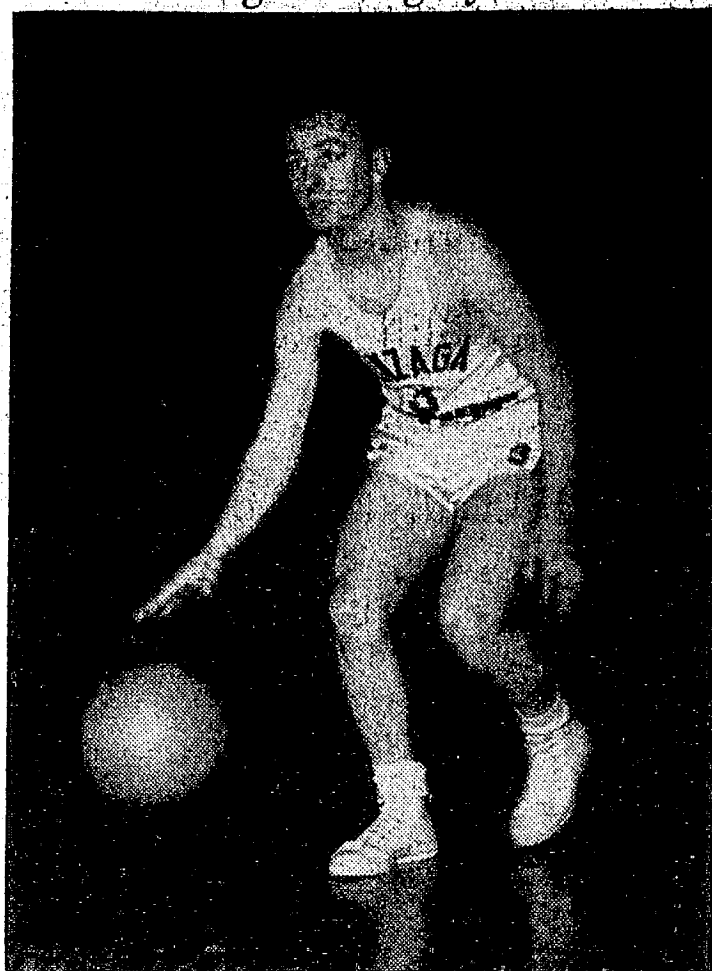

League II found Sigma Chi taking the honors with a 7-0 mark while Campus Club No. 1 upended Lindley hall No. 1 in the final encounter of the League III race to annex the crown. The League IV champion was Willis Sweet No. 2 with a record of 6-0.

Playoffs will find SAE and Sigma-Chi battling for the Greek championship while CC No. 1 and WSH No. 2 vie for the Independent crown.

Gonzaga's "Mighty Mite"

Five foot six inch Jimmy McCaughey, known by his teammates as "Mighty Mite," will be one of Coach Bill Underwood's starters Wednesday when the Bulldogs meet the Idaho Vandals in Memorial gymnasium. The Gonzaga guard is one of the fastest men on the Bulldogs' team.

Finley's Cagers Entertain Gonzaga Squad Tomorrow

Faced with the loss of last year's first six men, coach Bill Underwood will send an inexperienced Gonzaga University quintet against the University of Idaho Vandals 7:30 tomorrow night at Memorial gym.

Included among the missing Bulldogs are the three famous "G-Whiz Kids," Rich Evans, Frank Walter, and Jack Curran, who contributed a total of 1,193 points for the Zags last season. Rich (Mr. Points) Evans personally racked up 489 tallies, which boosted the Kansas flashe's four-year total to a sky-high 1,507 points.

Heading the list of returning lettermen are guards Jimmy McCaughey and Rollin Schauble, who are the only men with any appreciable experience on collegiate courts. McCaughey, a 5-6 senior from Butte, Mont., was valuable last season as a rescue artist for tiring starters. Schauble is a 5-9 junior, who like McCaughey is a hustler and an excellent ballhandler.
