The GOLDEN FLEECE

by Jason

As Jason was feeling particularly desperate the other day, a tiny, mean looking fellow came running in the office, pinching several women of the staff, and generally causing quite an uproar. He leaped on Jason's desk and glowered at him menacingly, and rasped;

"I want a job."
"What can you do?" Jason meekly inquired.
"Oh, I can do anything. I've had lots of experience. I have worked for writers of the Golden Fleece in past years. I just decided that you need a boost, so here I am," replied the obnoxious little man.

"I don't know about you. Aren't you the one that used to get past Jason into all kinds of hot water? I'm more of a meek fellow and would just as soon stay out of trouble."
"Don't know Nothing"

The odious little radical then tweaked Jason's nose and roared with laughter. "That's the trouble with you kids nowadays. You've got no guts. You're always afraid of getting into trouble. That's why I'm here to let you in on a few things. I'll bet you don't even know anything about 'behind the scene' stuff."
"Well, if I don't I am happy in my ignorance," Jason argued. "You don't get into trouble that way. Say, what's your name, anyway?"
"George," he replied with a sly smile.

"Hmmm. Hey, you've already seeped into the paper in some of the past issues this year. Well, I don't think I can use you and I wish you would go away 'cause I've got work to do," Jason hopefully said.
"He Hasn't Done Anything"

George laughed again and said, "Nope, I'm here to stay. Besides, you need something for a column today, don't you?"
"Yes, but—"
"Good. Now, why don't you blast the legislature. They—"
"Now wait a minute," Jason moaned. "The school is having a hard enough time getting appropriations without me sticking my big nose into the business."
"Well, how about Bahr?" George persisted. "ASUI presidents are usually good targets."
"Why should I take a crack at Bahr? He hasn't done anything. Besides, he is fairly honest."

George nearly fell off the desk in a fit of laughter as he said, "When are you going to learn that politicians are never honest. I can see I have a big job ahead of me to get you in shape or teach you anything. You are actually naive."
"Thief Also"

"Well, maybe so. It is better that way. Now please go away so I can write my column."
But George stayed on. As he lit his last cigarette he asked, "What's troubling you? I'll bet you feel like a draft-dodger."
"Well, yes and no."
"I know what you mean," said the all-knowing George. "You are just like a lot of college men all over the country. The defense department, the University administrators, and even the respective armed forces tell you to stay in college till you get a degree. But the thought of your countrymen in Korea bothers you."

"Yeh, I guess you're right. And then again people in your home towns give you that 'Aren't you in uniform' look. It makes you feel kind of funny."
"Ah foeey! You shouldn't pay any attention to them. They don't understand that the government would rather wait until you get a degree and would be more useful to them. You couldn't win a war, singlehandedly if you enlisted now, could you?"
"No, I suppose not, but—"
"But what," George interrupted. "You want to do the most good when you do get in, don't you? If you get a commission when you do get a degree, all the better. In this world you've got to look out for yourself, cause nobody else will. If all you college fellows enlisted and got an arm or leg shot off as so many guys did in the last war, how long do you think people would remember after it is all over? Not very long. Tell those people to go jump in the lake. You've got to live your own life."

"But I couldn't do that. Most of those people are parents and loved ones that I have known all my life."
"They Should Know You"

Then those are the people that understand your situation and are behind you all the way. Besides, once you get in the service—and don't worry, or get impatient, cause all you fellows will be in eventually—you will be in plenty long to satisfy even the most sadistic of the crying public. Once this thing really gets started, it will last for many, many moons. Till you do get in, however, remember that it is your life—so live it yourself. Now about the legislature, did you know—
"Please go away," Jason moaned. "I appreciate your advice, but I have still got a column to write and it's getting late."
"O.K. I'll leave, but I'll be back," George said. And a second later Jason heard one of the females in the outer office scream as George passed.
"Whew!"

Debate Team Contests In Oregon Meet

Ten Idaho students will participate in the largest intercollegiate forensic tournament in the nation when the university's debate team journeys to McMinnville, Oregon, this weekend.

Approximately 40 Western colleges will enter the tournament, which is to be held on the campus of Linfield College. An estimated 350 students are expected to compete in the three-day tourney.

The competition has been divided into junior and senior sections by tournament authorities. Both two man and individual teams are slated to appear before the judges.

Experience in Congress
Vandal performers will compete in the fields of extemporaneous speaking, after-dinner speeches, interpretive reading and impromptu speaking. Other divisions open to contestants include oratory, acting and interviewing.

A student congress will also attract the attention of Idaho debaters. Pattered after our federal legislatures, the congress will give the students experience in the problems concerned with the party organization and the committee system. The welfare state will be considered by the group.

Debators Listed
Dorothy Ennis, Richard Gibbs, Robert Gibbs, Marion Haggerty and Dean Holyoak will travel to McMinnville.

Marvin Jagala, Kenneth Kornher, Kent Lake, Charles McDevitt and Betty Westerberg will also make the trip.

Dr. E. A. Whitehead, head of the speech department at the university will accompany the group.

Frat Managers

The meeting of fraternity house managers scheduled for 7:30 on Wednesday will be held in the Student Union conference room instead of where originally planned. This meeting is IMPORTANT!

Audio-Visual Center Serves Organizations

Last month saw the Audio-visual center serve 17 University departments and 14 other campus organizations and individuals with 48 film bookings and 12 student operators.

These services required the use of equipment from miniature slide projectors to wire recorders. Most used piece of equipment was the motion picture projector with 37 being used on the campus last month. A total of 171 consultations and previews were staged by the center in the field of personal services.

Glamorous Soprano Appears In Pullman Tomorrow Night

Vivian Della Chiesa, often called "America's singing actress" by music critics, will appear in Community Concert tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in Pullman at Bohler gymnasium.

This blonde soprano has been featured soloist on the air for The Firestone Hour, Harvest of Stars, Standard Oil Broadcasts, American Album of Familiar Music, Carnation Hour, American Melody Hour, and the Bing Crosby show.

Miss Della Chiesa has starred in opera, radio, television, and numerous concert and recital tours. She began her musical career at the age of 16 when she was acclaimed winner in a CBS singing contest with 3,600 competitors.

Opera Began Early
Six months after winning this contest Vivian Della Chiesa made her debut with the Chicago Civic Opera company. In eight days she sang three different leading roles in "La Boheme," "L'Elisir d'Amore," and "La Juive."
America's leading designers have placed Miss Della Chiesa on the list of the "ten best dressed women" twice. American sculptors and painters name her as one of the "ten most glamorous women in the world."
In 1944 the singing beauty whose name literally means "Vivian of the Church" appeared in a record-breaking 90 concerts, plus opera, radio, war work, and benefits. Her recent performance in Chicago's Grant Park festival attracted a record audience of 190,000.

During the 1949-50 concert season, Miss Della Chiesa toured most of the important musical centers of the United States and Canada from east to west. She appeared as guest soloist with the Toronto Philharmonic and the Seattle Symphony orchestras, as well as others.

Terre Visits

Mlle. Helene Terre of Paris, France, was a guest of honor at the annual University of Idaho Home Economics club banquet last week. One of France's most versatile women, Mlle. Terre has been a concert violinist, Red Cross worker, teacher, author, politician, commanding officer of the Free French WACs and a lecturer around the world. Chatting with Mlle. Terre (third from right) before the banquet are (left to right) Barbara Heyer, Melba; Virginia Scheufele, Marsing; Maybelle Gardner, Boise; Caryl Ingerbjensen, Moscow, and Nadine Drake, Challis, all home economics students at the university.

Plot Summarized Of "Mad Woman"

"The Mad Woman of Chaillot" by Jean Giraudoux is to be presented at the University auditorium Friday and Saturday under the direction of Miss Jean Collette. Various crews have worked with the drama department to make the fantasy an outstanding production.

Air Force Reveals Operating Program To 2nd Lieutenants

The Air Force has announced an operating program for the fiscal year of 1951 which establishes a requirement of several thousand second lieutenants over and above scheduled gains and entries into active military service now and in progress.

These officers will be recruited largely from Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps graduates and all other second lieutenants in the USAF Reserve who wish to apply for active duty. The openings have been created by the current expansion of the Air Force authorized by Congress.

A program of effectiveness and stability will be realized both during the personnel build-up and thereafter. In this connection, second lieutenant reservists and AFROTC graduates who receive active duty will be encouraged to take advantage of flying training if qualified. Those officers who do not take advantage of flying training will be entered into technical training fields.

This procurement program will bring into the Air Force officers whose desires, background, and skills will fall into three general categories, namely: those desiring flying or technical training; those who are fully qualified in their military specialties; and those requesting on-the-job training in non-technical skill.

Current requirements for other officer grades and for enlisted personnel are being met through normal procurement procedures.

This announcement is released through the office of the Professor of Air Science and Tactics, Lt. Colonel O. J. Mosman, University of Idaho.

University Dedicates Plaque To Graduate

A plaque in memory of the late John R. Linnenkamp, second lieutenant, U.S. Marine Corps, was dedicated at Idaho this week. Lt. Linnenkamp, Harper, Iowa, has been the only casualty among post-war graduates of the university Navy ROTC program. He received his degree in 1949.

During the ceremony, Captain C. A. Chappell, professor of naval science, reviewed the sacrifices that Idaho graduates have made in the past and read a letter from Linnenkamp's commanding officer praising his devotion to duty and patriotism. Miss Frances Misson, the late Linnenkamp's fiancée, of Coleman, Alberta, Canada, unveiled the plaque. Miss Misson is a music student at the university.

Linnenkamp was killed in action September 21 near Yong Dong Po-Ri, Korea, while attempting to take a jeep load of supplies across a tributary to the Han river to an isolated company. Linnenkamp was student commanding officer of the NROTC unit during his last year at the university.

Stewart To Lecture

Dr. John M. Stewart of the Montana State University will speak on "The Chemistry of the Olefin Sulfides" at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. The lecture will be in Room 312 in the Science Hall.

Noted Religious Speakers To Conduct 'Week' Seminars Today And Tomorrow

Tickets for "The Mad Woman of Chaillot" will go on sale Wednesday morning at the Student Union Bookstore and Hodgins Drugstore.
Admission will be 50c for townspeople. Students will be admitted with their ASUI cards.

Funds Available From Committee For Student Loans

Loan funds are available to regularly enrolled and qualified students of the university. Student loans fall into two general categories, a short-term emergency and long term loans.

Short term loans are granted for short time periods usually not over 60 days or until the end of the semester in which the loan is made.

Long-term loans are usually limited to students nearing the completion of their degree program.

Apply With Counselor
These loans are administered by a Student Loan committee composed of the university business manager, director of student affairs, and the student counselor. Applications for loans are made through the Chief Counselor in the Student Counseling center.

An applicant must have a cumulative grade average of 2.00 or above. Loans are generally made only to cover the basic university expenses (tuition etc). Satisfactory plans for repayment of the loan must be indicated.

Other rules governing the granting of loans are available in the Counseling center.

Three Engineers Placed In N. West

Three 1950 graduates of the school of engineering have found positions in the Northwest.

Benard St. Clair is with the Natural Carbon Division of the Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation, Automotive Division. In New York at the present time, St. Clair expects to return to his job in Portland in April.

James Teague, former editor of The Idaho Engineer, is now assistant general foreman, Rod Mill, Anaconda Copper Company, Great Falls, Montana. Teague was a member of Sigma Tau and Sigma Delta Chi while at the university.

Raymond Von Alven has resigned his position with the Idaho Power company in Boise and is now associated with the Douglas Air Plant. He is working in air conditioning.

Religious Programs

In connection with Religious Emphasis week two programs will be presented over station KUOI this week, sponsored by the university Christian Science organization. Tonight at 7 o'clock "Strength and Refreshment," a 15-minute transcription will be presented. Thursday at 7 o'clock will be a 15-minute program of solos and hymns.

The 1400 Club is a regular feature of KRPL Sunday through Friday evenings every week, featuring songs as requested by penny post card, letter, or telephone number to 2283.

Allen Derr, who took over the program recently, has initiated the Wednesday night campus talent feature. A week ago the LDS quartette was featured. The Craigmont Valley Playboys, starring Snakey Riggers and crew, are scheduled for a week from Wednesday according to Derr.

Through the medium of these Wednesday evening programs campus musical talent can secure free advertising, thereby getting requests to perform before various civic and campus organizations continually requesting such talent.

Seminars with noted churchmen leading the meetings high-light the next two days of the 1951 Religious Emphasis Week. Today's groups include speakers Rev. Thomas Fattarusso, Rabbi Bernard Rosenberg, Dr. F. W. Werts, Dr. Lewis Corlett, Rev. Frank Sharp, Dr. John Clarke, and Rev. Thomas Hunter.

Honorary Celebrates 25th Year

Alpha Epsilon Delta, national premedical honor society, will soon celebrate 25 silver years of service to premedical students according to Bill Chetwood, president of the Idaho Alpha Chapter. The meeting to celebrate this silver anniversary will be in March, 1951, at the University of Alabama, home of the mother chapter.

This will be the Ninth National convention. The theme will be the importance of premedical education as an integral part of the training of the future physician.

Encourage Scholarship
The goal and achievement of AED has been and is its contribution and encouragement to students and to the advancement of premedical education. A number of national projects promote this goal.

Various occasions bringing educators in all areas of premedical education together through Alpha Epsilon Delta to discuss mutual problems reveal the development of the program of service by AED leaders in these recent years.

Established in 1926, Alpha Epsilon Delta is now a nationally recognized honor society of highest rank with a membership of nearly 10,000 in approximately 60 student chapters.

Presents Films
The Idaho Alpha Chapter was installed on this campus in 1939, and three of the original charter members still remain here. They are Dr. William H. Cone, department of biological sciences; Dr. H. Walter Steffens, department of biological sciences; and Dr. Howard B. Stough, department of biological sciences.

Members of Alpha Epsilon Delta receive The Scalpel, a magazine published by the organization bringing information to its members.

The Idaho Alpha chapter from time to time presents medical films for the premedical students and other students who are interested. Once a year the chapter awards a scholarship cup to the initiate outstanding in scholastic achievements.

Spurs Drill Saturday

Idaho's Spurs marched in their annual Spur Waddle Saturday night at the half-time of the Idaho-WSC game.

Dressed in their white uniforms with lights on their caps and tinging spurs on their feet the 23 Spurs went through a series of circle and star formations. Done in darkness, the drill culminated in the forming of the letters WSC and U. of I.

Visitor Wins 'Grand' Prize At Annual Lumberjack Ball

The annual Forester's ball provided the campus with some new champions. Miss Dolly Fox, Nez Perce, a visitor on the campus, won the cigarette rolling contest and was rewarded with a cigarette rolling machine. The "I Tried" prizes were given to Joyce Powers, who won second place and two corn-cob pipes, and Joann Jacobs who was presented with a plug of chewing tobacco.

The "Melody Men," popular night club entertainers from Spokane, provided musical background for "Paul Bunyan Land." Mr. W. C. Loney, professional caller, called both the square dances and the round dances. Latin-America was represented by several of her home dances to add variety to the evening.

Various departments contributed displays illustrating phases of forestry study to the decorations. The departments and their chair-

The Religious Emphasis week opened Sunday evening with an address by Dr. Paul Pitman, president of the College of Idaho, Caldwell. Speaking on "The Greatest Actor in the World," Dr. Pitman told the story of a prominent French actor who achieved great fame. He emphasized the fact that this actor needed something more stable to hold onto, however, when tragedy struck him.

Schedules for the seminars today and tomorrow include:
Tuesday, 3:15 p.m.
"Does Science Conflict with True Religion?" Fattarusso, Werts, Campus Christian Center.

"Does Our College Life Stack Up To A Christian Life?" Corlett, Room B, SUB.
Tuesday, 4:15 p.m.
"Courtship and Marriage," Clarke, Room B, SUB.

"What Can An Intelligent Student Believe About Religion?" Hunter, Werts, Campus Christian Center.

Curtain Communique

"This documentation of the I.U.S. (International Union of Students) Executive Committee meeting held in Berlin from the 13th to the 18th of January, 1951, is circulated in the belief that it is of great value to students and will be widely discussed by all student organizations."

Yes, this is the opening paragraph of a recent booklet. (The information is coming in bigger piles all the time) from our old friend behind the metal slats, I.U.S. And just to oblige them, we will discuss the booklet. This subject is an old gripe, but we will do our griping in a different vein today. Let's just peruse the material and have a laugh at it, not trying to take the thing to heart or get made about it. (Anyone who wants to get riled can come check our files—they are loaded with I.U.S. words of wisdom.)

First of all, we noticed the introduction. Probably this can be accounted for because it is the first page. But a point that we stressed was the good will and utmost cordiality which prevailed throughout the Executive Committee meeting. (This meeting was attended by Executive Committee members from 21 countries, the United States included. The U. S. representative must have been the joker who put the Argonaut on the I.U.S. mailing list.)

Different resolutions passed were all given a unanimous vote. Apparently those who didn't care for any proposals were not counted in the balloting, as from the figures, not all 21 nations were represented in the vote total on each issue. The group pointed to the brilliant success of the Winter Sports carnival, lamenting on the fact that more United States schools were not represented.

Possibly the most outstanding part of the document was the fact that no cries were issued damning the US actions in Korea. Our "bossism" and Wall-street dictatorships were left untouched, and our complete control of the United Nations was not bemoaned. All in all, a complete change of policy (or is it rather a change in tactics and strategy?) has been effected.

Just last Fall we printed statements taken from pamphlets of this same organization which really chewed Uncle Sam to pieces for his actions in Korea. In their Fall meeting, covered by representatives of NSA for America, demonstrations, rallies and complete lack of control were shown in the NSA reports. American onlookers, along with those from England, Australia and Canada were ridiculed by the Communist-affiliated members. But now, America's actions are not overly criticized. They are not praised, but the acrid complaints have simmered down.

The I.U.S. is now stressing sports, chess tournaments and other events in an effort to bring us into the fold. We hope they don't forget us when their next publication comes out. They consume our reading time, and are very humorous if a person is in a rather morbid mood. We commend their change in face toward us—it fits so well with some of "Uncle Joe's" most recent "about face" moves.

World Federalists Schedule Speaker

Speaking on the role of the Christian in today's international crisis, Samuel Levering will address Idaho students at public meetings Wednesday and Thursday. "Policies of the United World Federalists in the Present World Crisis," is scheduled for the SUB conference room A at 4 p.m. Wednesday. "The Way to Peace and Freedom," is slated for 4 p.m. Thursday in the Borah room, SUB.

Levering, present national chairman of the field committee of the United World Federalists, is a nationally known orchardist, economist and leader of the Quakers. He was elected to the World Federalists executive council in 1945.

Orchardists Protect Trees From Disease

With food becoming more vital in the nation's war effort, Idaho orchardists this spring will turn to even more rigid control for diseases that invade their trees.

J. M. Raeder, plant pathologist at the university, predicted this week that the home or "backyard" orchardist might be more than usually concerned over his orchard's production this year.

Couples Advised Not To Wed Outside Their Own Religion

By Lester Kirkendall
The number of inter-faith marriages is growing. Increasing freedom in travel, attendance at a cosmopolitan college or university, and frequent shifts of residents, provide the opportunity for young people to meet many persons from different communities and religious faiths. The result is more inter-faith marriages.

Vets Must Report On Farm Earnings

Veterans taking institutional on-the-farm training under the G. I. bill have been reminded by the Veterans administration that reports of their 1950 earnings must be submitted to the VA regional offices by March 1, 1951. Failure to submit the reports by the deadline may result in suspension of subsistence payments until such time as the reports reach the VA.

The earning reports, covering income from productive labor for the calendar year 1950, serve a double purpose, the VA explains. First, they are used by the Administration as the basis for adjusting each veteran's subsistence for the current year. Second, they are part of the veteran's course of instruction in farm accounting, thus giving him the opportunity to put into practice what he learns in the classroom.

Generally, farm trainees will receive assistance from their instructors in closing their books for the past year, and in transferring data to the VA form.

Four Living Groups Initiate; Hays And Forney Hold Dances

"Diary Dance" and "Blue Moon" were the themes of the dances given by Hays hall and Forney hall this weekend. Hearts and cupids and a large crescent moon created the atmosphere for the affairs.

Formal initiation was conducted by Phi Kappa Tau, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Chi Omega, and Alpha Tau Omega Sunday.

Delta Delta Delta

Delta week was concluded with a fireside last Tuesday evening. Barbara Pickett and Jean McGrath performed at the piano. Lee Graham sang two solos. Original themes on "What Tri-Delta Means to Me" were read by Louise Longo and Maizie Collett. Refreshments were served by the sophomore class.

Guests over the weekend were Mary Lou Cross, Theta from WSC, and Alice Paine, Delta Gamma from WSC.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Link, Mr. and Mrs. M. Glover, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Busch.

Rev. Frank A. Sharp, Director of University Pastor and Student Work, American Baptist Convention, New York City, is a house guest during Religious Emphasis Week.

Delta Chi

An exchange for both members and pledges is scheduled tonight with the WSC chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta in Pullman.

Marvin Hawthorne was a dinner guest of the chapter last Wednesday.

Hays Hall

Hearts and cupids furnished atmosphere for the Hays hall semi-formal Diary Dance Friday night.

Entrance was effected through a large diary page which enclosed the doorway.

Popular center of attraction during the evening was the gargantuan diary to which each girl contributed a verse mentioning her escort. Refreshments were served during intermission. A red spot light focused on a large silver heart added warmth and gaiety to the scene.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Herbert Samms, Miss Marco Killsgard, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Stahl, and Mr. and Mrs. Schooler.

Phi Kappa Tau

Formal initiation ceremonies were held in the chapter house Sunday for Boyd Caudill, Peter Snow, Calvin White, and Richard Westgate. Richard Westgate was named pledge of the year.

Wednesday dinner guest was Reverend Clayton of the Presbyterian church. Reverend Clayton spoke on "How we can meet the current world crisis."

Forney Hall

A large crescent blue moon highlighted the decorative scheme for Forney hall's "Blue Moon" ball Friday evening. Royal blue streamers with silver stars twined as decorations for the ceiling and walls.

Intermission entertainment featured the Forney vocal quartet.

French Students Remember Beattie

The French students — members of University French classes under the Army Special Training program during World War II — still remember their old teacher and leader, Arthur H. Beattie, head of the university language department.

Alpha Tau Omega

Sixteen men were initiated into the chapter last Sunday. They include Joe Tom, Bill Dore, Cleon Kunz, Ken Slusser, Jack Smiley, Roger Fitch, Jim Love, Bob Wallace, Joe Carter, Gary Hayer, Roy Colquitt, Todd Martin, Gary Stoor, Ray Alcock, Boyd Founds, and Ed Johnson.

Patron and patronesses for the dress dance were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Campbell and Mrs. Ord Chrisman. Marya Parkins, social chairman, was in charge of arrangements for the dance.

Guests over the weekend were Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Grief, Corrine Schumacher, and Donna Burch.

Plans are now underway for the initiation dance to be held March 9, at the chapter house and also for the coming Founder's Day celebration, which will include a banquet and a dance.

Delta Sigma Phi

A house guest this week is Frank D. Lloyd, national field representative, from the fraternity's headquarters in Denver, Colorado.

Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Van Kleek, Paul Littenecker and Ron Kelsay.

Gamma Phi Beta

Formally initiated Saturday, were: Beverly Alger, Jackie Baker, Peggy Cox, Hazel Dean, Sally Elison, Carrie Hague, Ellen Holbrook, Betty Judd, Doris Larson, Barbara Reeves, JoAnne Voiten, Terry Welley, and Mary Winterholer.

A formal initiation banquet was given for the new initiates Sunday, at the chapter house.

Refreshments were given to each initiate. Toastmistress was Margaret Williamson; freshman speaker, Peggy Cox; sophomore speaker, Sharon Osmundson; junior speaker, Joyce Becker; and senior speaker, Ann Keltenschach.

After the banquet Fred Leopold and Jarrell Callihan, representing SAE, presented the initiates with violet corsages.

Here for the initiation were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Winterholer, Twin Falls, and Eleanor Anderson, Spokane.

Mrs. Fred MacDonald, province director, was a recent guest and was honored at a fireside upon her arrival. Later on a dinner was given in her honor.

Mrs. James Crockett, the former Miss Patricia Hubbard, and Mrs. Robert Tolmie, the former Miss Marilyn Phillips, were honored guests at a shower preceding their weddings on February 17.

Alpha Chi Omega

In recent elections the following officers were chosen: president, Helen Church; vice president, Helen Daniels; second vice president, Dona Slavin; secretary, Beverly Wright; treasurer, Jean Whittimore; social chairman, Kate Church; rush chairman, Mary Patano; house manager, Lucille Shrom; scholarship chairman, Terry Carson.

Sunday initiation was held for Barbara Pennington, Geraldine Fritzley, Deloris Knight, Phyllis

Free Cigs Offered

Representatives of a nationally advertised cigarette are offering free cartons of cigarettes to the week's highest scoring bowlers. As an encouragement to inexperienced bowlers, Jim Aston, campus representative for Philip Morris cigarettes, announced that one free sample pack of Philip Morris fags will be awarded to each week's lowest scoring bowler.

IM Basketball

In intramural "A" basketball action last night Lindley Hall No. 2 beat Campus Club No. 1 54 to 29. Huntley of Lindley was high point man with 22 tallies.

Pine Hall No. 2 squeaked past Pine Hall No. 1 with 16 points. Idaho Club No. 2 topped Campus Club No. 1 52 to 48.

Phi Gamma Delta knocked over Phi Delta Theta 33 to 29. Foster of PGD and Fischer of PDT shared scoring honors with 12 markers each.

SAE topped PKT 42 to 37. Rayborn of SAE led the field with 20 points.

In the final game LDS tipped DSP 38 to 27. Albano led LDS with 12 counters.

Attention Vets

Veterans planning to change their course in September, should report to the Student Counseling Center for information and the proper V.A. forms. The request for change of course should be filed with the V.A. before the end of this semester.

ISC Negotiates Atomic Contract

The Atomic Energy commission is conducting negotiations with Idaho State College, for a contract covering radiological investigations at the AEC's reactor testing station in southeastern Idaho.

L. E. Johnson, manager of the AEC's Idaho Operations Office, announced that the proposed contract is based on a research proposal submitted by the college, which has been approved by the research committee of the Commission's division of biology and medicine.

This will involve determination of quantities of certain radioactive materials in ground water and the soil of areas in and adjacent to the reactor testing station.

The contract is part of a continuing program to determine natural radioactivity of the reactor testing station area, Mr. Johnston explained. Under a former contract, the college last summer gathered specimens of plant and animal life at the testing station, which were analyzed for content of radioactive substances.

Purpose of the program is to provide a yardstick against which similar future measurements can be checked, as a safety precaution, Mr. Johnston said.

Antipodes are animals without legs, such as snakes, etc.

Shuldberg, Susan Staley, Thomas Gentry, Margaret Pruet, Marilyn Doty, Ida Sample, Philip Weitz and Loren LaFoe have returned to classes.

Slatmen Finish 3rd In ND Meet At Emida

University of Washington skiers edged Idaho out of second place in the Northern Division ski meet at Emida last week. Washington State took top honors in the four event meet and Oregon State finished fourth.

Lutheran Students Elect Hattan Prexy

Marge Hattan was elected president of the Lutheran Students association at the regular Sunday meeting. Haakon Haga will serve as vice president.

Other officers chosen are Charlotte Solberg, secretary; Carol Erickson, historian; Roger Bay, treasurer; and Frank Gunn, Interchurch Council representative.

A report of the recent LSA workshop at Parkland, Wash., concluded the program.

Coach Gene Harlow announced yesterday that he may enter his slalom team in the Payette Lake combined championship at McCall this weekend.

The Idaho squad raced third in the 41 gate slalom at Emida Saturday. Competing for Idaho in the event were John Harrington, Muddy Numbers, Clark Hammon and Tor Lyshaug. The same team members also finished third in the giant slalom but pushed the Washington squad to the wire before yielding second place.

Kahre Reed, defending ND cross-country champion, led Idaho in the event and finished fifth. John Harrington, Averill Thayer, and Tor Lyshaug followed Reed and the squad finished second.

Washington protested the race because several members lost trail and the event was re-skied Sunday. Idaho finished third.

The Vandals also placed third in jumping, William Meyer soaring the greatest distance for Idaho. Clark Hammon and Muddy Numbers followed.

Deadline In March For Photograph

March 15 is the deadline for college photographers to submit entries in the Kappa Alpha Mu, national honorary fraternity in photo-journalism, photography contest March 22-24.

Any student enrolled in an accredited college is eligible to submit entries. Prints must be 8 by 10 inches or larger, and must be mounted on standard 16 by 20 inch photo-mounts. Each photographer may submit a maximum of ten prints.

Major prizes will be awarded in five classes: news, sports, feature, pictorial and industrial. Entry blanks may be secured by writing Louie L. Hulms, department of journalism, Baylor university, Waco, Texas.

Church News

Roger Williams Club
Dr. Frank Sharp of the American Baptist Convention of New York City will address the Roger Williams Club next Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church.

Infirmary

On February 19, the following people were admitted to the infirmary: Ida Sample, Irene Nieland, Dale Scott, Ernest Willis, Glen Stringham, Loren LaFoe, Keith Cookus, Marian Clift, Phillip Battaglia, Donald Wakefield, Harold Suchan, Genevieve Adam, Dora Gaudin, Lewis Ludwig, Bonnie Shuldberg, Thomas Glenn, Robert Beckwith, Janet Holmes, Ray Eastman, Phillip Weitz, Gordon Wimpenny, Robert Park, Frank Haglund, Marilyn McIlhargey, Rene Mathews, and Robert Mouser.

"Would breaking up big oil companies affect national defense?"

Mrs. Marie-Louise Auer, Pasadena housewife, writes: It seems to me like a bad time to be tampering with our industries, as the antitrust lawyers want to do. Or does it matter? Would breaking up big oil companies affect national defense?"

Here at Standard, one of the seven Western oil companies under attack, we see clear public benefit in having big companies in the business at all times. We believe we serve you well. But let's consider now just "bigness" and defense:

Today, military needs come first. Just recently, need for aviation gasolines jumped 275% in the West alone. Big oil companies supplied it.

Next: industry's demands. You know how industrial output keyed U.S. strength in World War II. It takes big companies to meet big needs.

Company bigness also means big-scale research, improved products. Example: oils developed by Standard which tripled range of U.S. subs.

For hard jobs, the U.S. uses our bigness and integration. Today, our U.S. projects include atomic research and a synthetic rubber plant.

Our taxes also aid defense. As one big company, we paid over $95,000,000 last year, more than we would pay as several smaller companies.

Meanwhile, bigness and integration enable us to keep on supplying products you need. Isn't that what you want from your oil company?

Boxers Battle Gonzaga At Spokane Tonight

NCAA Co-holders Pitch Mittens In 10-Bout Card At Armory

College boxing's two top teams of last season, Idaho and Gonzaga, co-holders of the NCAA fistic crown, renew their ring rivalry with a 10-card bout tonight in the Spokane Armory. Regarded annually as the highlight of Palouse area boxing, the meeting this year will feature the leather tossing talents of two national champions, Len Walker of Idaho and Eli Thomas of the Bulldogs.

Wheeler Top Scorer For Cage Season

Walker, national crown holder in the 145 and 135-pound bracket and boasting a knockout and a TKO in his last two outings, will meet newcomer Dave Smith. Smith, who hasn't lost a bout this season, is expected to provide Len with one of the toughest scraps of his ring career.

Lanky Eli Thomas in Gonzaga's claim to fame. The defending 155 pound title holder squares off against Verl King in the 165 pound division. Thomas is a heavy favorite despite King's decisive win over WSC's Carl Dahlin last week.

Norn Walker tangles with Jim Reilly at 135-pounds and the bout shapes up as another outstanding tussle. Reilly is Pacific coast champion, but Walker boasts a win over Ev Conley, WSC national champion. Reilly drew with the Cougar slugger earlier this year.

Frankie Echevarria, the "bounding Basque from Blackfoot" will be punching for his third win over Gordon Simanton in the 125 pound class. Last season Echevarria cut down his Zag opponent in short order, but coach Joey August reports that Simanton has improved, and should force the Vandal bantamweight all the way.

Al Poole and Bud Lawson make up the 145 pound entries. Both ring warriors held decisive decisions over Cougar Tom Hardwick. Lawson is expected to be in top shape for the tussle after a season marked with injuries.

The Tekoa "Tiger" is an aggressive who doesn't know how to give up. Herb Jee will make his second ring appearance for the Vandals against Arlen Gallagher at 130 pounds. Joe lost to Pacific coast champ Jackie Nelson last week after giving the classy Cougar a few bad moments in the early rounds.

Gallagher, however, is favored because of his experience and a disputed loss to Nelson. Idaho will gain a forfeit in the light-heavyweight class. An exhibition between Vandals Larry Moyer and Tom Keys will be staged instead.

A Zag newcomer, Joe Havlovick will be heavyweight opponent for John Ramos. Ramos last two ring outings have been disasterous.

Two freshman bouts will be held. At 155 pounds Idaho's Don Anderson will battle Dave Powell, and Bud Nichols meets John Luckovich.

Both teams have posted wins over WSC. Coach Frank Young's charges have dropped contests to Louisiana State, San Jose State, Minnesota, and tied Washington State in their first meet. The Zags have beaten the Cougars, but lost to Michigan State and Wisconsin.

Swimmers Thrash In WSC Tank Saturday

The Idaho swim team will be seeking revenge this Saturday when they face the defending champion WSC Cougars at Washington State. Last Saturday, the Cougar tankers topped the Vandals, 59-25, as Idaho swam without the services of breaststroke artist Tom Gentry.

Vandal firsts were chalked up by Bill Hoblet and Tom Moore. Hoblet edged the Cougar's Eldridge in the 50-yard free-style in 24.5 while Moore grabbed an ace in the diving event.

Cougar depth was the big factor as the veterans were never pressed after racking up a 5-0 lead in the 300-yard medley relay.

In the freshman preliminaries, the Couabes followed the wake of their varsity brothers in registering a 61-22 win over Coach Eric Kirkland's Vandals. Three Idaho Babes took honors as Richards splashed his way to victories in the 50 and 100-yard free style events, and teammate Lambert churned his way to first in the 220-yard free style.

Frish Coach Smith Leaves Idaho Post For Army Air Duty

The Korean war caught up with freshman coach Art Smith as his reserve unit, the 100th Fighter Squadron of the Army Air Force, has been recalled to duty. Smith will leave Idaho today to report at Gowen field, Boise.

Before joining the University staff, Smith was a member of the Boise high school coaching staff. His University freshman cagers just completed one of the most successful campaigns in Vandal history in winning 17 games and losing two. Short on touchdown punch, his scrappy-frosh turn team captured one victory in five starts.

Coach Smith graduated from Alma college in Michigan and completed graduate work at Idaho. Entering the service in 1942, Smith served until 1946 and spent much of his tour of duty in the South Pacific theater. He has been a member of the reserves since separation.

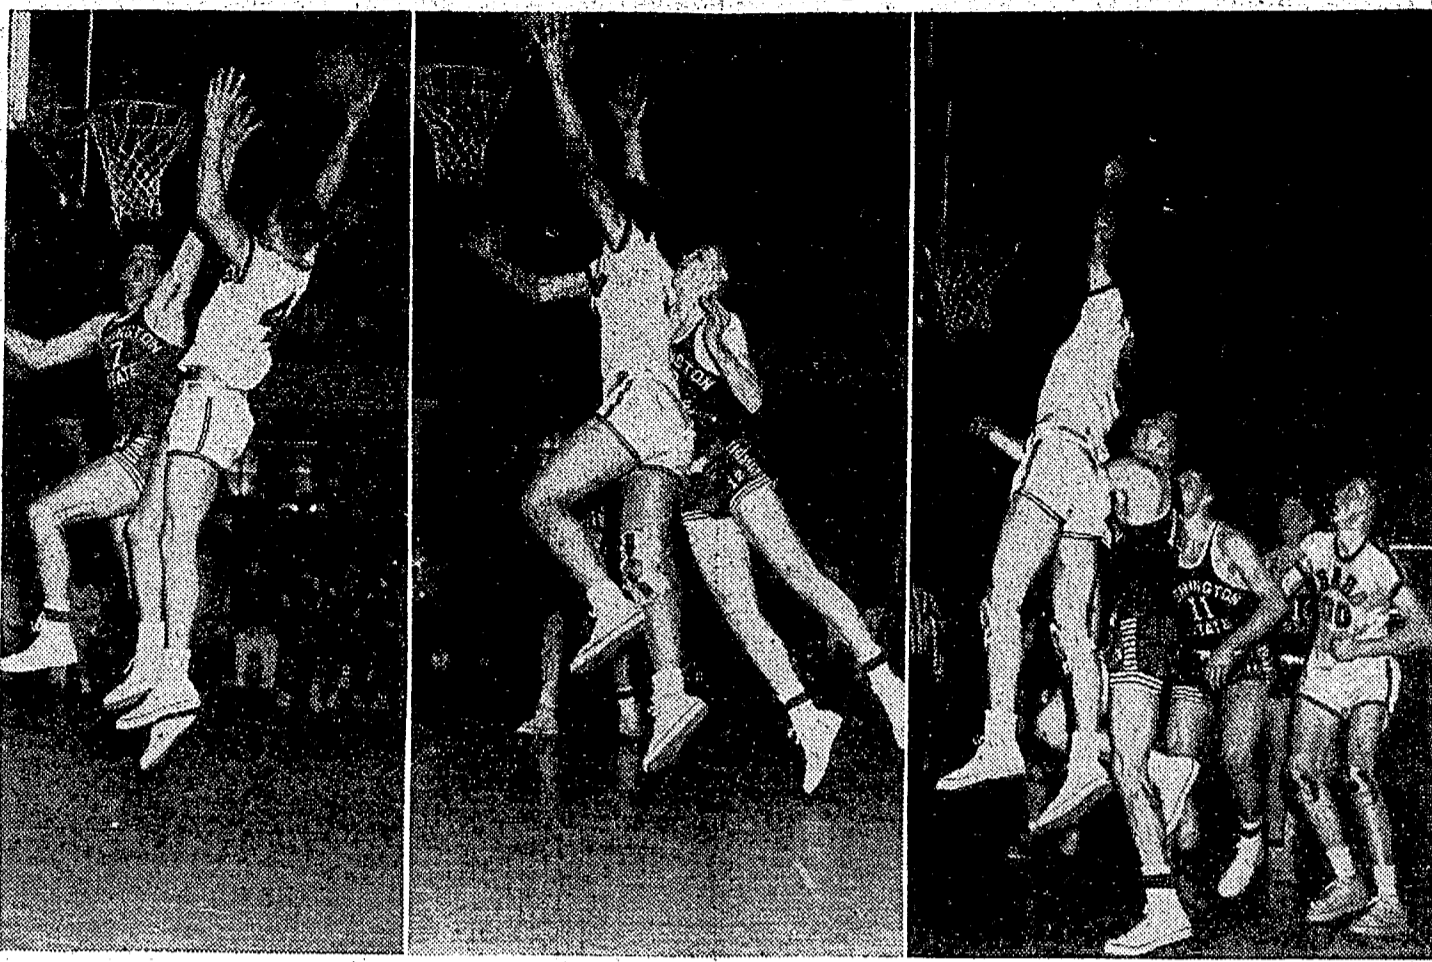

Attention All Baseballers

Coach Chuck Finley announced yesterday that baseball practice for varsity candidates only will begin this afternoon at 3:30 in Memorial gymnasium.

Freshman diamond men will open their practice in about two weeks.

Idaho Sophomores Cut Loose Against WSC Saturday

Forward Bill Mather (44), towering Hartley Kruger (center) and hard-driving guard Bruce McIntosh (right) loop in vital two-pointers for the Argonaut camera at Memorial gym Saturday. These three sophomores were key operatives in the Vandals' 48 to 46 win over Washington State and their action proved that the trio will provide the nucleus of next season's cage troop. The victory gave Coach Chuck Finley's crew a 6-10 conference record and a season total.

23 Northern Division 'Hoop Harrys' Named To Argonaut All-League Teams

Name	Pos.	Ht.	Year	School
Bob Peterson	F	6'5"	Soph.	Oregon
Bob Houbregs	F	6'7"	Soph.	Washington
Jim Luscotoff	C	6'5"	Junior	Oregon
Sam Jenkins	G	6'3"	Junior	Idaho
Frank Guiness	G	6'3"	Junior	Washington

Two unanimous choices in the names of Washington's Frank Guiness and Bob Peterson of Oregon highlight the Argonauts first annual Northern Division basketball squad for 1950-51. A total of 23 players received nominations. Both Peterson and Guiness received first place votes from every one of the eight sportswriters casting ballots.

Jim "Moose" Luscotoff, one of the better backboard men on the Coast, was named to the center post ahead of Washington's Bob Houbregs. Therefore, in an effort to achieve the strongest possible team, the Argonaut selectors took the license of shifting Houbregs from center to forward.

Sam Jenkins of Idaho was the favorite of every voter except one and got the nod of mention to the first team, The Denver, Colorado, athlete paced Idaho in nearly every department, and was definitely the spark behind the team.

The squad of five men mentioned to the first team averages slightly under the 6' 5" mark.

Gambold and Mangis

Bob Gambold and Leon Mangis, both playing their last year of basketball for Jack Friel at Washington State, team up as front line forwards to our second five. These two players co-captained the Cougars to a successful season on the only team able to defeat Washington twice during the 1950-1951 cage campaign.

Bob Wheeler, Idaho's 6'6" center, was the choice of the sportswriters to man the second team pivot post. Wheeler paced the Vandal scorers with 209 points during the course of the season — 109 in conference play.

Louis Soriano of Washington, Oregon State's Bob Payne and Jack Keller of Oregon round out the second five. Since two men, Keller and Mangis tied for the fifth spot it was necessary to enter both men as members of the second squad.

The third team was represented by two Washington men and one each from Oregon, Oregon State and Idaho. Bill Harper, an Oregon State lad, was named to the team as a guard as was LaDoh Henson from the University of Washington.

The third string center post went to 6'7" forward Doug McClary who played also for the University of Washington. One of the odd features to our selection was that every member of the Huskies first five managed to be placed on the first three teams.

Dick Reed of Idaho and Curt Barclay of Oregon hold down the third string forward posts. Barclay, Although Reed was only 5'9" tall, he was a thorn in the side to all opponents this season. Barclay is one of the reasons why Oregon is making a bid for Northern Division honors this season.

Honorable Mention

George Rossler, Peter Munch, Washington State; Duane Enochs, Washington; Jack Orr, Oregon State; Mel Krause, Oregon; Stuart Dollinger, Herb Millard, Idaho.

IM Basketball

Statistics list twelve net twingers as season pace setters. The totals exclude last night's IM action.

Joe Zavesky, WSH No. 1 has leads the scoring with 129 points in seven games for a hefty 18.3 average per game. The other leaders are:

Courtmen Conclude Cage Season With 48-46 Spine Tingler

Coach Chuck Finley's Idaho hoop aggregation wrote a happy ending to the final chapter of their 1950-51 court record book with a spine-tingling 48 to 46 triumph over Washington State Saturday night. The victory placed the Vandals in fourth spot in Division standings.

Idaho staved off a belated WSC flurry in the closing minutes to grab the win and knock WSC out of contention for the league championship. Idaho's second platoon — Bob White, Bill Mather, Hartley Kruger, Stu Dollinger and Herb Kruger outplayed every combination Coach Jack Friel shuffled into the game during the second half. They harassed the Cougars for over 16 minutes, then let the refreshed Idaho starting five finish their job. Idaho led 30 to 22 at halftime.

WSC outshot Idaho from the field but accuracy from the charity ribbon paid off tremendous dividends for the Vandals. The Cougars hit on 19 of 52 attempts for .365 from the floor. Idaho canned 18 out of 62 shots for a .290 percentage. At the foul line the Vandals sank 12 of 19 throws for .632. WSC made 8 of 17 attempts for a 47.0 mark. Idaho out-rebounded the Stater's 43 to 30.

Friday night at Bohler gymnasium Idaho hit the bottom of the barrel as far as statistics go for this season. They dropped a 51 to 40 decision to WSC which is a respectable score considering they failed to register a single field goal in 17 minutes and 40 seconds of play during the second half. They had a .149 mark for the floor in the last session — making but 4 of 27 shots. Idaho led 25 to 23 at the intermission period.

Individual marks show that Tom Flynn topped the squad with a .486 field goal percentage and Dwight Morrison led in free throws with a .677 average.

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF SMOKERS, who tried this test, report in signed statements that PHILIP MORRIS IS DEFINITELY LESS IRRITATING, DEFINITELY MILDER!

1. Light up a PHILIP MORRIS. Just take a puff—DON'T INHALE—and s-l-o-w-l-y let the smoke come through your nose. Easy, isn't it? And NOW...

2. Light up your present brand. Do exactly the same thing—DON'T INHALE. Notice that bite, that sting? Quite a difference from PHILIP MORRIS!

Other brands merely make claims—but PHILIP MORRIS invites you to compare, to judge, to decide for yourself. Try this simple test. We believe that you, too, will agree . . . PHILIP MORRIS is, indeed, America's FINEST Cigarette!
