Freshman Shindig Saturday Night Welcomes Spring

The GOLDEN FLEECE
by Jason

Richard Llewellyn Lectures Monday

"Are You Your Brother's Keeper?" will be the topic of an address to be delivered in the University auditorium Monday morning at 11 o'clock by Richard Llewellyn, author of many best-sellers including "How Green Was My Valley."

Llewellyn's talk will be based upon his experience as a writer, soldier, and journalist in various parts of the world. Since the publication of his first novel, "How Green Was My Valley," in 1940, the noted author has toured the world in these capacities.

"How Green Was My Valley" hit the best-seller lists in 1941 and became an Academy award winning motion picture in the same year. "None But the Lonely Heart," written while Llewellyn served as a captain in the Welsh guard during World War II, was also made into a hit movie.

Now on his first American lecture tour, Llewellyn has just returned from South America. The tour will take the Welsh author from coast-to-coast with public appearances in most of the nation's principal cities.

Llewellyn's appearance on the Idaho campus is part of the University's public events program. The public is invited.

The author has just completed his first novel since the war, titled, "A Few Flowers For Shiner."

Schools Accept Future Doctors For More Work

Twelve Idaho pre-medical and pre-dental students have been accepted for advanced work in colleges and universities throughout the nation, Dr. H. Walter Stefens, head of biological sciences, announced this week.

Pre-medical students and the schools at which they will study include Edwin Clizer, Washington university, St. Louis, Mo.; John Nave Lein, University of Washington Medical School, Seattle; Bruce Powell, Temple university, Philadelphia; David Sampson, Columbia university, New York City; Leon Smith, University of California, Berkeley, Calif.; Warren Sutton, Northwestern university, Chicago.

Enroll Next Fall
Pre-dental students and schools are William Chetwood, University of Oregon Dental School, Portland, Ore.; John Ghiglieri, Washington University School of Dentistry, St. Louis, Mo.; Laurance Johnson, University of Washington (Cont. page 4, col. 5)

ASUI Actors Prepare

Jerry Sperazzo as Woo Hoo Git places "the splipper of august victory" on the foot of Bonese Collins, Moy Fah Loi, while rehearsing for the coming ASUI play, "The Yellow Jacket," which will be presented in the university auditorium on April 13 and 14.

AWS Tells Rules For Late Hours

AWS rules for freshmen women concerning study table attendance for first and second semesters have been permanently set up for all women's living groups.

During the first semester of each year, all freshmen women and sorority pledges will attend study table between the hours of 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday with a 10 minute break at 8:30 p.m.

May Attend Libe
Exceptions are made for community concerts and plays, church nights, exchanges (study table must be held after exchanges from 8:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.), special school functions and library permissions.

Library permission are granted by the housemother, and the freshman coed must be accompanied by an upperclassman. Two 9:30 p.m. permissions are granted during the first semester and four 9:30 p.m. permissions second semester. These may be taken at any time.

Grant Late Hours
During the second semester, all freshmen coeds and pledges whose grades are under 2.5 will attend study table as above. Coeds with a 2.5 average at the end of the first nine weeks of second semester will have 8:30 permission on school nights.

Second nine weeks of second semester late permissions are:
3. and above—9:30 permission once a week.

2.7 to 2.999—one 9:30 permission every two weeks.

2.5 to 2.699—one 9:30 permission every month.

2.3 to 2.499—one 8:30 permission a week.

Late permissions do not accumulate.

Credit Expires

Veterans credit cards expire Saturday, April 7, reports Chet Kerr, bookstore manager.

Ten freshmen have been selected as finalists for the contest of 1951 freshman king and queen. Coronation of the newly elected royalty will take place during intermission of the annual frosh semi-formal dance tomorrow night.

Greek, Independent Caucuses Reveal ASUI Candidates For Spring Election

Politics are in the air again with both the United and Independent caucuses naming presidential candidates and nominees for the 1951-52 Executive board.

Gary Sessions, ATO, is the Greek candidate for president, opposed by Hyde Jacobs, LDS, as Independent nominee. Both men are juniors, active in campus affairs.

List Board Possibles
Slate of Executive board contestants for the Independent party include Naida Whybark, Ridgeway; Jerry Haegle, Christian; Jim DeLeve, TMA; Ken Korner, Willis Sweet; Virginia Orazem, Forney; Don Hardy, Campus club; Marilyn Evans, Hays; Dick Straw, Lindley; and Mich Kaku, Pine.

Striking Similarity
The ASUI spring elections are scheduled for April 25 with voting booths in the Ad building, Engineering building, and Student Union building. The three-way "catchall" in polling places will be tried this year for the first time. The ASUI executive board decided last Tuesday that this system might be easier for all students to cast their votes.

Both Sessions and Jacobs are currently serving on the Executive Board, they are both juniors, and they are both Agricultural majors. Jacobs is presently chairman of the student union committee. Sessions was a committee head for Homecoming and was publicity director for Little International last year.

Provide Touch of China
Authentic motifs are painted above the arches of the doors. A large round hole in the lower center of the back wall provides the place for the orchestra to perform, and a balcony in the upper center of the back wall provides an entrance for the spirits.

Chinese properties which have been collected by the drama department include a cane which has thirty figures carved upon it. Fly flickers have been duplicated and mustaches, beards and quees have been made from hemp rope. Twenty-six different styled head dresses have been made from va-

Vets Must Tell
Of Changes Soon
Veterans planning to change their course in September, 1951, should request the change from the VA regional office before the end of this semester.

Veterans graduating in June and planning to continue in graduate school in September must request their certificate of eligibility for graduate work before receiving their degree.

Current VA regulations provide that a veteran may only change course while in training. The Counseling center has the VA forms and will assist veterans in filing request for change of course or additional training.

Crowning Of King, Queen Ends Busy Annual Week

Parke Enders and his 10-piece orchestra from Washington State college, "The Starlighters," will provide music for the annual freshman class semi-formal dance tomorrow night. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom, with admission set at $1.50 per couple.

High School To Attend Press Meet

Newspapers from 45 Idaho high schools are being judged by members of the Idaho journalism staff, preparing for the fifth annual high school press conference here April 13 and 14.

Certificates of rating will be presented to the high schools following the annual conference. High school yearbooks will be rated later in the year, after a deadline for entries has been set at the conference.

Expect Large Number
Student newspapers are judged on a basis of news coverage, writing, layout, advertising and printing or mimeographing. During the annual conference, panel discussions and speakers aid teachers and students in the problems of putting out a high school newspaper.

"Since the conference this year is being held during the school year for the first time, a much larger group is expected to attend than usual," said Professor Wayne Young, head of the department of journalism at the University. "During past years when the meetings were held during the summer, many students and teachers were unable to attend."

Houses for Visitors
An added feature of the 1951 conference is discussion of journalism as a career by staff members of metropolitan newspapers and radio stations.

Idaho sororities and fraternities have agreed to supply housing facilities for high school student groups attending the two-day conference. The University journalism department has already received reports from groups in Rupert, Burley, Boise, Lapwai, Coeur d'Alene, Troy, Parma and Meridian.

Britons Hit At All Phases Of US Life

The American way of life was placed under the critical scrutiny of two visiting Englishmen last night in the Borah Room of the SUB, as Idaho's Chuck McDevitt and Dean Holyoak met the Cambridge debate team, Ronald Waterhouse and Jack Ashley.

The visitors questioned every phase of American life—political, educational and cultural, in the hour-long debate. Both teams employed sarcasm and humor in the course of the competition.

Travel To Pocatello
Dr. Boyd Martin of the Political Science department introduced the debaters to the audience.

Idaho is one of the 20 campuses which the English will visit during (Continued on page 2, col. 8)

Slate Preliminaries
Preliminaries for the men's groups are scheduled for Monday, April 30, and the women's groups are planned for Wednesday, May 2, announced John Schapolsky and Naomi Nokes, co-chairmen of the event.

Last year's winners were Kappa Kappa Gamma and Beta Theta Pi.

Vandaleers Leave On Tour; Sing Through Central Idaho

This morning the Vandaleers left on their annual spring concert tour which will last through April 13.

Popular selections from "Oklahoma" and "Carousel," as well as several operatic selections and favorite University songs, have been selected for the performances. During the tour through central and southwestern Idaho the group will appear at Orofino, Nezperce, Grangeville, New Plymouth, Parma, Weiser, Emmett, Payette, Caldwell, Meridian, Nampa, Donnelly, McCall, and Boise.

Featured soloists on the program will include Bernice Bauer, Shirley Fowler, Naomi Nokes, and Joanne Peters, sopranos; Gerald Goecke, baritone; Jack Gregory and Kenneth Pope, tenors.

List Vandaleers
Other members of the Vandaleers to make the trip include Donna Brown, Pat Cameron; Larry Hyer, Bruce Sweeney, Saylor Jepsen, Charles Weinman, Moena Glenn, Joann Jansen, Daisy Graham, Joanne Hopkins, Jackie Taylor, Robert Gossi, Margaret Mehl, Jack Pepper, Jean Whittemore, and Howard May.

Caldwell, Visser Undertake Study Of Tourist Service

A study of Idaho dude ranches, packers and guides in the big game country, and tourist airplane charter services will be undertaken this year as a special research project by two University staff members.

"Our objective will be to gather data on the specific nature of these tourist services, their distribution, seasonality and problems," explains Harry H. Caldwell, assistant professor of geology and geography in Idaho's school of mines. Working with him on the project will be Cornelius Visser, assistant professor in the school of business administration.

Compare Tourist Trade
This new project will be a continuation of an earlier study of Idaho tourist resources development that Professor Caldwell has been conducting the past two years for a doctorate thesis. In his previous work, he selected four sample areas to illustrate the diverse types of tourist resource development in the state.

In Fremont county, for example, he studied Yellowstone park travel and the influence of Utah and California tourists on Idaho business. In Blaine county he gathered data on the rise of surrounding tourist service industries influenced by Sun Valley.

The 1951 study on dude range and guide services will consider their relationship to other tourist service industries in Idaho from the viewpoint of their contribution to the gross income of the state as a whole.

IM Basketball

Yesterday afternoon marked an end to "B" basketball competition as a smooth working Kappa Sigma five lowered the boom on a on-again-off-again Sigma Nu team 25-13. The KS crew took things in hand from the opening whistle and kept up a steady pace, while the losers could only manage to find the hoop in erratic spurts.

Roy Mosman KS, set the pace with eight points for team honors along with game colors. Bill Gray, SN guard led his teammates by dropping six through the net, four of them in the last three minutes. A combination of bad passing and a poor shooting average from the floor plagued the SN squad, and never let them get within close range of the KS squad.

Sigma Nu got into the finals by virtue of a 22-7 rout over the ATO's Wednesday afternoon. They were an entirely different team during the semi-final as they hit from all over the floor, while playing a stellar defensive game.

Kappa Sigma won the right to vie for the championship by edging past Tau Kappa Epsilon in the semi-finals 14-16. Jim Powers big KS center sowed the game in the final seconds with a desperate long shot.

Poultry Research Brings Idaho Fame

Broiler producers throughout the Pacific Northwest are adopting the new high-energy, high-protein, low fiber broiler ration growing out of poultry research at the university agricultural experiment station, according to Charlie F. Peterson, associate poultry husbandman.

The view above showing our University golf course will cause many golfing fans to come down with itchy soles. Classes are longer than they were the first nine weeks. Tennis courts are full all afternoon, and the golf course busy setting a new record along the attendance line. Others, less athletically inclined, will just take off this afternoon on a picnic. That's the trouble with this country—Springtime is too pretty.

Back to the golf course, it is one to be proud of. At present it

Faculty Members Attend Conference

Five members of the music department faculty are taking part in the convention of the Northwest division, Music Educators' National Conference this week in Missoula. Professors Hall Macklin, Agnes Schuldt, Glen Lockery, Kermit Hogsch and Keith Forney are in attendance.

Yesterday evening the Vandaleers were scheduled to sing a one half hour program at the convention banquet. They traveled in two chartered buses Thursday morning and will return to the campus Friday afternoon.

Vandaleers Only Singers
The group was the only choral organization in the five state convention of Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington to be singled out for the honor of singing at the banquet.

Faculty members will return to the campus Saturday evening after the final sessions of the four day affair.

Exams For Civil Service Again

Examinations for several Civil Service positions have been announced recently by the US Civil Service Commission.

Applicants for the position of Engineering Aid in various Federal government agencies in Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington, should write immediately to the Director, 11th US Civil Service Region, 302 Fed. Office Bldg., Seattle, Wash.

Exams for the positions of patrol inspector in the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the Department of Justice, and for aeronautical research intern in science and engineering, have also been announced. Information on these positions may be obtained from the commission's local secretary, in the Moscow post office.

Elementary teachers are still urgently needed by the commission for work in the Indian service. These jobs pay $3100 a year. Applicants are not required to take a written examination; to qualify, they must have completed a full 4-year course leading to a degree, including or supplemented by 24 semester hours in education. Applications will be accepted from students who expect to complete the required courses within 90 days after filing their applications. Further information can be obtained from the Civil Service Commission office in the Moscow post office.

Drama And Music For High Schoolers In Summer Session

Idaho high school students will participate in two phases of the 1951 summer school session in the Drama Workshop and the summer Music Camp. Both sessions will run at the same time opening June 11 and closing June 30.

The Music Camp, will begin its seventh consecutive season and will be under the direction of Elwyn S. Schwartz and Clarence Sawhill. Schwartz is director of bands at Fresno State college and Sawhill is University of Southern California director of bands. Both men will be visiting professors during the three-week session.

Varied Programs Offered
Concerts, recitals, and other public appearances are scheduled for the three weeks to give high school musicians training under experts in the music field.

Miss Jean Collette, university chairman of dramatics, will train high school students in all phases of theater activity and choral reading at the fourth annual Drama Workshop. At the end of the three-week course every student will have appeared in at least one public performance.

Classes in acting, stagecraft, makeup, and choral reading will be part of the program. A stunt night is scheduled in conjunction with the music camp students. Both groups will entertain and prizes will be awarded for outstanding performances and originality.

Vandal Golfers Vie For Squad Berths

Varsity and freshman golf hopefuls will flock to the course this afternoon to begin playing off qualifying rounds for a berth on the varsity team. Anyone interested in competing in the matches should be at the club house this afternoon at four. Team contenders will play off for squad positions Saturday and Sunday.

Idaho's 1951 conference schedule opens with WSC here April 14. Following the Cougar match, the Vandals will head for the Willamette Valley to take on the University of Oregon at Eugene Friday, April 20, and Oregon State's Beaver's the next day, April 21. April 28 has been scheduled as the return date for the WSC match with the divot diggers journeying across the state line to play. The regular conference season will end May 11 when the Vandals play host to the Washington Huskies. The following week, the Northern Division playoffs will be held at the course in Eugene.

U. S. Highway 66 passes through an ancient lava flow in western New Mexico, between the cities of Albuquerque and Gallup. Scientists and engineers, mathematician and electronic scientists, interns in hospital administration, and training instructors in communications - radio equipment maintenance, are all needed by the Civil Service Commission. Examinations for the above positions are now being given. Information on examinations, qualifications, and applications, are available at the local commission office or by writing to the US Civil Service Commission, Washington, 25, D.C.

Spring Comes To Moscow

Isn't in price shape, but players are not being denied its use. Designed by Francis James, who also serves as golf pro, it is one of the best in the state—he designed most of the others in the state, too. Now for the picnics—just a few recommended spots. Spalding, out of Lewiston; Moscow mountain, any side of it; Emida ski area. Any place in between these will do nicely, just find a wooded area and spread the blanket . . . Spring is Here to Stay!! (Weather forecast—rain today, tomorrow and Sunday.)

Mitchell Champion Orator At Annual Ag Club Dinner

About 80 students and faculty members from the school of agriculture attended the annual Ag Club banquet Tuesday night in the North Ballroom of the SUB.

During the course of the banquet Dr. W. W. Smith delivered his idea of the four requisites to a better life. The prominent educator stated that he believed a balance of work, religion, play and social life to be essential to happy living.

Dean D. R. Theophilus, college of agriculture, presented awards to the ASUI judging teams for their work during the year. Many Awards Given
Those who won awards in the dairy cattle division included: Bill Choules, Wallace Taylor, Frank Gillette, and Floyd Gephart. The dairy cattle team won first place at the Pacific International Exposition this year.

Charles Bonar, Thomas Rowland, Jack Trautman and Harold Cottrell won ASUI awards for their participation in dairy production. The dairy production students took second place honors at Portland.

Animal husbandry members who received awards were Frank Morrison, John Weinman, Donald Wagoner, Ralph Hart, John Wester and John Long. Speech Competition
Don Mitchell won the Alpha Zeta extemporaneous speaking contest for his speech "Grassland Agriculture." Runner-up for the event was Bill Leatham whose topic was "The Essentials of Education."

Judges for the Ag club sponsored contest were Professor A. E. Whitehead, head of the University speech department, Dr. T. B.

Initiation Dance Held By Delta Gamma; Sigma Nus Plan Costume Ball Tonight; Six Campus Couples Tell Engagements

"Anchors Are Gleaming" was the theme of the Delta Gamma initiation dance in the Student Union ballroom last Friday night.

Sigma Nu is sponsoring its annual "Flesh and Fantasy" costume dance tonight in the chapter house at 9 o'clock.

Six Idaho coeds have announced their engagements during the past few weeks. Spring must be in the air, bringing its usual draughts of love.

Delta Delta Delta

Newly elected chapter officers are Maralee McReynolds, president; Carolyn Goodwin, vice president and pledge trainer; Mary Hansen, house manager; Gail Graham, head counselor; Iris Fish-er, treasurer. The annual officers' retreat will be held at Rocky Point, April 8 and 9. Mrs. James W. Bowby, alumna adviser, will accompany the officers.

Beta Theta Pi

Tuesday evening the chapter gave a reception for the members of the Boise high school A Cappella choir. Entertainment was provided by the visiting group and by the Beta chorus, each of whom sang a few numbers.

Overnight guests included Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Wilson and Bob McBrieny. Mr. Wilson is the director of the A Cappella choir.

Mrs. Lenore Scott, house mother, left yesterday for Spokane to attend a meeting of alums residing in Spokane.

Janice Moore was a dinner guest Wednesday.

Pi Beta Phi

Gary Sessions was a dinner guest Wednesday noon.

Sigma Nu

The annual "Flesh and Fantasy" costume dance will be given in the chapter house tonight beginning at 9 o'clock. Fred Willett, Gary Farmer, and Don Ringe are in charge of the decorations. Music will be furnished by records.

Bob Peterson and Gary Farmer were appointed the new social chairmen for the coming year.

Bob Goodwin of Boise has been a house guest for the past week.

Delta Gamma

"Anchors are Gleaming" was the theme of the initiation dance March 30 in the Student Union Building. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Vune Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Winegar, Mr. and Mrs. Richard LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mickey, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Klasen. Music was provided by Art Woodbury and his orchestra. General chairmen for the dance were Greta Beck and Marlene Foreman.

A yard party was held with Phi Delta Theta Wednesday evening. The pledges were engaged in a scavenger hunt while the members played baseball.

The annual April breakfast was sponsored Sunday morning. Jane Jenkins was in charge. Entertainment was provided by the pledge class.

Boise guests during the week were Marcia Nessen, Janice Burt, Maxine Fletcher, Winnie Bacon, and Beverly May.

Baxter-Chadband

The engagement of Connie Baxter to Jim Chadband was announced at the Pi Beta Phi house during dinner April 2.

The ring was displayed in a nosegay of pink roses surrounded by pink and white carnations. Spring bouquets were on the center of each table and a poem at each place revealed the couple's names.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Falt, Buhl, Miss Baxter is a sophomore English education major, presently serving as sophomore class treasurer and on recruitment committee.

Chadband, who went to high school in San Jose, Calif., is a senior majoring in educational guidance. He is a member of Blue Key and affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Vickery-Whitsell

A solitaire diamond ring nestled in a nosegay of violets and callisman rosebuds was presented to Phyllis Vickery during dessert Sunday, April 1, to announce her engagement to Louis Whitsell.

Cards engraved with the couple's names were brought in on the dessert plates. Bouquets of daffodils and pussy willows made up the centerpiece.

Miss Vickery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Vickery, Emmett, is a junior home economic major and member of Phi Epsilon Omicron and Pi Beta Phi.

Whitsell, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Whitsell, Emmett, is a junior business major, advanced Air ROTC student, and member of Arnold Society, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

No definite plans have been made for the wedding.

Expanded Program For Elementary Ed Ready In Summer

An expanded, realistic program in elementary education will be available at the University of Idaho in the 1951 summer school, stated Dean F. J. Weltzin, summer school director, recently.

Provisions are made for work leading to pre-professional, standard, and advanced elementary school teachers', supervisors' and administrators' credentials, and for bachelor's and master's degrees in elementary education.

Infirmary

On April 2 the following people were admitted to the infirmary: Eloise Pope, Melvin Dyer, James Wright, Burton Aimsworth, Robert Acharet, Joseph Rogers, Peter Byrnes, Bernard York, Hazel Howard, Terry Carson, Horace Nealy, Don Smith, Robert Lloyd, Terrence McMullan, Robert Vlack, Barbara Reeves, Kenneth Foucar, Bobby Webster, William Burchard, Richard Chamberlain, Thomas Lindstrom, Bradford Caffrey, Wendell Gladish, and George Chamberlain.

Church News

Roger Williams Club
The Roger Williams Club will meet Sunday at 5:30 p.m. at the First Baptist church.

Larry Riedesel and John Reik were elected to serve as refreshment co-chairmen at last Sunday's meeting.

A rummage sale will be held at the Washington Water Power Co. on April 19 and 20. The proceeds will be used to send delegates to the national Baptist Convention in June. Anyone wishing to donate rummage is asked to contact Rev. Holmes, tel. 2160.

Wesley Foundation
United States obligation in a war torn world will be discussed at Wesley Foundation next Sunday. Darrel Brock will lead the discussion. Assisting him are Lee Smith, Frank Morrison, and Ken Korner.

The meeting will begin at 5 p.m. All students are welcome. Cabinet meeting at 3:30 p.m.

Lutheran
The LSA will meet Sunday at 4:30 p.m. Rev. Al Dilleuth from Pullman will speak and show slides of recent LSA regional retreats and ashrams. There will be election of delegates to the regional retreat at Camp Wasowitz, April 13, 14 and 15.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship
Rev. Ed Dirison will be the featured speaker at the regular weekly meeting of IVCF, tonight at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Dirison will tell of his work in Germany with the youth of the land. He will emphasize their need for the Bible since the war when the Bible was largely destroyed. His talk will be based on his experiences of a couple of summers ago in Germany.

The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Alma Keeling, 1320 Deakin.

Westminster Forum
This afternoon and tomorrow morning Presbyterian students will leave for their annual spring retreat at Lutherhaven on Lake Coeur d'Alene. Students will return Sunday evening.

Frank Cochran is chairman of the retreat. Pat Kies and Vic DeVries are in charge of food. On the entertainment committee are Herb Dunsmoor and Betty Thompson. Chairman of transportation is George Hespelt.

Outdoor games and entertainment have been planned, weather permitting. On Sunday morning the group will attend church in Coeur d'Alene.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jensen, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Clayton and family will accompany the group.

Poultrymen Use Antibiotic Drugs
Penicillin, terramycin, streptomycin and aureomycin, the antibiotic drugs which save human lives every day, can make money for poultrymen, it is revealed by experiments recently reported by the University poultry department.

"All of the antibiotics studied have resulted in increased chick growth," explain C. E. Lampman, head of the poultry department, and C. F. Peterson, associate poultry husbandman at the Idaho experiment station.

"The use of antibiotics in rations for all chicks may prove of even more value for Idaho poultrymen," Lampman and Peterson explain. "Experimental work to date indicates that these supplements decrease mortality, improve general health, and reduce the number of slow-developing culms.

Phi Tau Quartet Heard On KRPL

Songs by the Phi Kappa Tau barbershop quartet were heard Wednesday night on radio station KRPL's 1400 club. Allen Derr is master of ceremonies for the program from 10:30 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Requests were sung by the quartet as they were phoned in to the station. Members of the group are Larry Hyer, baritone; Howard Humphrey, bass; Bill Brown, first tenor; and Bill Kinzert, second tenor.

McCormick, George Attend Convention Of AWS In Purdue

Janice McCormick and Yvonne George, respective past and present AWS presidents, recently returned from the Intercollegiate AWS Convention at Purdue university. The convention lasted from Thursday until Sunday afternoon of last week.

Dr. Lillian Glibreth of "Cheaper By the Dozen" fame was the principal speaker. She spoke on "American Womanhood." Marguerite Higgins, the famous woman war correspondent in Korea, spoke on "College Women in Today's World."

Slate Open Meetings
Entertainment was provided by the Purdueettes and the Purdue Varsity glee club. The glee club sang in the International Song Fest in Wales last year and toured several European countries.

Miss McCormick and Miss George will hold open meetings to discuss the conference during the next two weeks. The time and place will be announced later. Both men and women are invited to come, but women are especially urged to attend.

Graham-Davis Wed In Nevada
A single ring ceremony united Bonnie Graham, daughter of Robert James Graham, Osborne, and Bob Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Davis, Payette, Easter Sunday in the Methodist church at Winnemucca, Nevada.

For the wedding Mrs. Davis wore a white suit with black and white accessories and red roses. The groom's parents were attendants.

Mrs. Davis is a senior home economics major and affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. Her husband is a Sigma Nu and graduated from Idaho with a Master's degree in chemistry in 1948. He is now a chemist for the Arabian-American Oil Co. in Arabia.

Immediately following graduation exercises the Davises plan to spend a month in Texas followed by visits to Ireland and Italy and then go to Arabia where they will make their home.

Dean Donald Hart and Jim Lyle, alumni secretary also attended.

JUNGLE OVER GEORGETOWN

If all the telephone voices that ride together in one coaxial cable Traveled as they once did Over pairs of open wire, The sky above Georgetown University, In Washington, D. C., And over all the other points Along our extensive coaxial network, Would be a jungle of poles and wires.

In the old days, it would have taken a pole line over 700 feet high to carry all the conversations that can go through a 2 1/2-inch coaxial cable.

Coaxial cable, no thicker than a man's wrist— Can carry 1800 telephone conversations Or six television programs At the same time.

This cable is the product of Years of continuous research and development— And another example of the way we work, Day in and day out, to make the telephone An important and useful part of your life.
