

Polls Are Open Tomorrow Morning For ASUI Elections

LDS And Thetas Tops With Grades

Kappa Alpha Theta and LDS took top honors in first semester scholarships for the 1950-51 year, reported D. D. DuSault, registrar. LDS members topped all living groups with a 3.02 average out of a possible 4.00, and Theta placed first among women's living groups with a 2.93 average.

Since spring is really here Jason noticed several students (Oops, excuse me, Frank).

Today Idaho students will again rally to give blood to fighting men in Korea and to again garner the title of the "bloodiest school in the nation." (Idaho State now holds the honors).

Under the direction of "Bloody" Lloyd, 700 pints is the goal of the three-day drive. Last fall Idaho students proved that they had more blood than money. Seriously, if you signed up to give a pint, you should keep your appointment. The blood you give now may be returned to you with interest some day.

Tomorrow an old inherent right left us by our forefathers will be exercised by Idaho students — the right to vote. Yes, the treasured right to put the signature of free peoples on a ballot which elects the people that you want to represent you.

Even on this local level, the importance of casting a vote cannot be too greatly emphasized. By that action you are acting as a free person, not a puppet. Remember your ASUI activity cards.

Use, Not Abuse
Both ASUI presidential candidates are good men with a knowledge of the workings of ASUI. An interesting parallel is noticed with them. Both are ag majors, both are juniors, and both are members of the present ASUI Executive Board.

The people that you as students elect for your Executive Board members tomorrow will serve you next year. They will set policies, rules, regulations for the entire student body. Keep that in mind when you vote, but most of all vote for that is your right. Don't abuse it.

A very busy week happened at the Idaho campus last week and Jason believes that in spite of so many things being crowded in, it all went very well.

First, the Borah Conference was handled well and the people responsible and the people who participated should be commended. Dr. Boyd Martin as chairman did his usually excellent job.

Nothing But Consistent
The Aggies put on another exceptional Little International. You know, those Aggies do it every year. Don't they ever foul up?

The only thing that marred the entire show was when some scale model crawler and wheel tractors turned up missing after Saturday from the Ag Engineer's float. Jason thinks that it would be a nice tribute if the "tractors" would somehow turn up in the Ag Engineering Dept. They are almost irreplaceable to that group.

While we are on the subject of Little International we might give credit to the man at the top of the show. "Ralph Hart, who has worked on the Show since last year, traveling many miles during the summer showing films about the show, did an excellent job. It is men like Ralph that make up a successful University, yes, a successful nation. Men that can take responsibility and not shrug it off" (Cont. on page 2 Col. 4)

Students Elect Candidates For Campus Government

Tomorrow is election day to select the 1951-52 ASUI president and Executive board. Polls will be open from 8:45 a. m. until 4:15 p. m. in lobbies of the Administration, new Engineering, and Student Union buildings.

Three Plays Scheduled By Collette

The three one-act plays, "Boor, Bear, or Bore?" "The Devil and Daniel Webster," and "Hands Across the Border," will be presented in arena style in the north ballroom of the SUB May 5, 6 and 7 at 8 p. m. under the general direction of Miss Jean Collette, head of the dramatics department.

Tentative cast for "Boor, Bear, or Bore?" by Chekhov includes Hugh Burgess, Luke; Sharon Henderson, Elena; and Todd Frohman, Greg. Rod Greening is student director of the production.

Ken Goldsberry and Don Taylor are co-directors of "The Devil and Daniel Webster" by Benet. Tentative cast for the play includes Norm Green, Daniel Webster; Mary Alexander, Mr. Scratch—the Devil; Jerry Sperrazzo, Jebez Stone; Judy Coble, Mary Stone; Mort Grinker, Justice Hawthorne; Duane Ness, Fiddler; Tom Butera, the clerk.

Casts Named
Rex Hill, Walter Butler; Jim Costley, Simon Girty; Dale, King Phillip, and Teach, who have not been cast, are all members of the jury. The chorus is comprised of Mary Thompson, leader; Iris Fisher, Bonese Collins, Earl Mouton, and Clyde Winters.

"Hands Across the Border" by Noel Coward is being directed by Mona Rosenau. Members of the cast are Lorraine Cole, Lady Maureen Gilpin (Peggie); Ted Gallagher, Commander Peter Gilpin R. N. (her husband); Marian Davidson, The Honorable Clare Wedderburn; Paul Tobin, Lieut. Commander Alastair Corbett, R. N. (Ally); Larry Iyer, Major Gosling (Boger); Shirley Pettyjohn, Mrs. Wadhurst; Blair Allen, Mr. Wadhurst; and Doris Moore, Walters. The part of Mr. Beernham has not been cast.

Student directors are in charge of the plays in conjunction with a part of their dramatics course.

Each voter's ASUI activity card must be presented to obtain a ballot. These cards must be revalidated for second semester. This is a circular indenture on the back of the card that is stamped on by the Bursar's office. Students cannot vote unless the revalidated ASUI card is presented. No voting by proxy will be allowed.

Ballots must be marked with an X for the presidential choice, and figures as 1, 2, 3, etc. to be valid for counting. With the preferential system of voting, the voter should vote for nine candidates, numbering them according to his preference.

Qualifications Are:
Contending in the presidential race are Hyde Jacobs, Independent, and Gary Sessions, Greek. Qualifications for office for these two men are:

Sessions — Alpha Zeta, former president; Homecoming committee; Dad's Day general committee; Blue Key; Executive Board, and sub-committee for Pep Band; Alpha Tau Omega house offices; junior majoring in ag economics; from Shelley; AFROTIC Arnold Society executive; I. K.; representative to interfraternity council, 1950 national delegate to Alpha Zeta convocation; distinguished military student.

Jacobs — Independent Caucus three years; Executive Board; chairman, Student Union committee; freshman class treasurer; winner Alpha Zeta Ag club extemporaneous speech contest; president Lambda Delta Sigma and national delegate; Religious Emphasis week planning committee; offices in LDS house; junior majoring in solid and ag chemistry; member of Phi Eta Sigma; Alpha Zeta; distinguished advanced ROTC student; World War II veteran; from Declo.

Candidates for Executive board on both parties have been introduced. (Continued on page 2, Col. 1)

Idaho And WSC Plan Jam Session Sunday Afternoon

Idaho and WSC musicians will get together for an informal jam session Sunday, afternoon from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock. This jam session will be held in the SUB cafeteria. The cafeteria will open at 2:30 p. m. and will be served during the jam session.

A similar jam session was sponsored in the middle ballroom in February and one on the WSC campus two weeks ago. This is the first event scheduled for presentation in the SUB cafeteria.

All U. Day Brings 400 Seniors Here

Nearly 400 high school seniors from all over Idaho swarmed to the University campus Saturday for the 1951 All-University day, reports Bill Chetwood, general chairman. Registration in the Student Union building was handled by Mortar Board and Blue Key. Spurs and Intercollegiate Knights conducted tours for the guests to show them all around the campus.

GE Train On Display In Moscow

More than 1600 industrial, electrical, electric utility and civic leaders from Moscow and vicinity have been invited to inspect General Electric's "More Power to America Special" exhibit train which will be displayed here tomorrow, reported H. C. Glaze, manager of the G-E Apparatus department office in Spokane.

Weinman Wins High Honors In Little International Show

John Weinman, senior animal husbandry major, copped 1951 Little International honors by totaling 1,665 points in the six day contest. He was awarded the first place trophy during the Saturday night show which was witnessed by about 1,000 spectators.

High school students and visitors from throughout the state joined with students to fill the field house for the Saturday show. Following the 7 o'clock coronation of Bobby Hargis, 1951 queen, cups were awarded to first place winners and ribbons to second through fifth place winners.

Sigma Delta Chi

Sigma Delta Chi meets 4:10 p. m. in room 103, UCB. Members are requested to attend, as the spring football game sales and elections will be considered.

No Last Supper

Not meaning to be sacrilegious, but such strict rules are being enforced at the Lindley hall cafeteria that they didn't even allow Christ to eat.

Christ Massin (look it up in the directory) arrived 30 minutes late for Sunday dinner and found no food awaiting him. That is just further proof that it is later than you think.

Hell Divers To Display Form In 'Pacific Island'

"Pacific Island" is the theme for the annual Hell Divers' show which will be at 8 o'clock this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, in Memorial gymnasium swimming pool.

Jo Benschoter and Tom Gentry have the leads in the show. Chairmen of the event are Carol Shaffer and Bill Hobbelt, duet; Bryan Richards, solo; Jo Benschoter, native welcome; Jan Garber, four girl ballet; Shirley Vorous, hula; Tom Gentry and Jo Benschoter, duet; Pam Gaut, blackout number; Jody Getty, festival of the seas; Chuck Clark, shark act; and Tom Gentry, finale.

The Hell Divers have changed the arrangement of their show from those of previous years. All acts will be a part of a colorful water ballet fantasy, based upon modern musicals. The plot revolves around two sailors who are shipwrecked on a Pacific island.

One of the sailors falls in love with the princess of the island which aroused the wrath of the island gods and they take her away from him. The method by which the sailor regains happiness and the way in which he finally believes in an old sailor who is trying to counsel him form a surprise ending for the show.

May Fete Plans Get Under Way

According to Mary Louise Will, general chairman, plans are being formulated for the May Fete, May 12 and 13. Invitations have been sent out by AWS, stated Yvonne George, AWS President.

The May Fete is being handled by a committee composed of Mortar Board members Joan Rowberry, Carol Bowby, Helen Means, and faculty advisers Jean Collette and Margaret Coffey.

Cooperation has been assured the committee by the music and physical education departments. Spurs are practicing their Maypole dance which will be one of the highlights of the annual May Fete.

Little International Parade

Students, townspeople and visitors to the Idaho campus lined the streets of Moscow for the annual Little International parade last Saturday afternoon. Numerous animals, floats, and exhibits were shown by the College of Agriculture. Above the Air Force ROTC group (Col. Mosman, you need a PIO officer) files by, followed close behind by the traditional flower float.

Defend Your Rights

With the Kefauver committee investigation on crime, and all the wonderful (?) political investigations in mind, politics is a rather muddy subject. But instead of ignoring politics and passing it off as a bad job, we must instead give it more attention. It is because of the apathy of the American people that politics has become so rotten in some circles. Each year huge numbers of people do not take the trouble to go to the polls and vote. Whatever the reasons for not voting, they are not good enough excuses to ignore the right and privilege to vote. Now that we have you wondering what the devil the point is of this editorial, we will toss the main point at you. While the politics on campus are not muddy like those on the national level, there is nevertheless a reluctance to vote. We want to urge you to whip out your ASUI card and vote tomorrow. You have the privilege of voting for whomever you choose. That is a right that many people on this tired old earth would love to have. All you have to do is go to one of the three polling places and vote for the candidates of your choice. Give it your serious consideration, because the officers elected will be running your government on campus and, among other things, they are the ones who will be handling more than $200,000 of your money. There is no reason why every student at the university should not vote. You will be voting for people to run your affairs, so don't pass it up.

Placement Office

Announces More Opportunities

The Placement office announces three more job opportunities for graduating seniors. The U.S. National Bank of Portland will send a representative here May 1. He will see business majors about enrolling in their senior training program. Also, a man from the Weyerhaeuser Timber company in Longview, Washington, will interview students in the different fields of engineering.

Representatives of the Naval Laboratories in California will interview qualified students on April 26 and 27. To be considered for employment, the student must be in engineering, physics, electronics, chemistry, mathematics, biology, or meteorology.

Placement Office

A group meeting for interested students will take place at 4 p.m. in the Engineering building Thursday. Movies relating to research facilities and activities of the laboratories will be shown. General information regarding employment opportunities will be given.

Any student wishing an appointment for any of these interviews should see Mrs. H. M. Hale in the Placement office immediately.

Bailey Spoke At Forestry Banquet

Forestry week closed Saturday night with the annual banquet with approximately 140 attending in the SUB main ballroom. Dr. Reed Bailey, director of the Inter-mountain Range and Forest experiment station was the main speaker.

Bailey spoke on the importance of management of the forest for its watershed land and stated that the value of the water from the forest may in the future exceed the value of the lumber crop.

Forestry week, April 16 through 21, included movies, displays, and lectures on various forestry subjects.

Howard Heiner, editor of the Idaho Forester, was awarded the outstanding senior and was presented with his first year's membership in the Society of American Foresters.

Several professors were awarded gifts by the students including T. S. Buchanan, Virgil Pratt, and Dr. Merrill Deters.

Artists Play Cards At Party Friday

Bridge, canasta, and pinochle games will be played Friday night at the "Attic Club" card party in the Art building. Students, faculty, and townspeople are invited to attend the party from 7 to 10 p.m. Original art pieces will be awarded for card prizes and door prizes will be given. An admission of 50 cents is charged and tickets are on sale in the living groups by club members. Those desiring reservations should phone 3353.

Forestry students, faculty members, their guests and Potlatch Forests and Forest Service guests attended the banquet.

Open House Held

The new wing of the Ad building sponsored an open house Friday from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Students and faculty visited to inspect the modern furnishings and equipment. Punch and cookies were served in the upstairs lobby.

THANKS

We would like to thank everyone that so ably assisted us in the All-University day endeavor last Saturday. Especially to the University Departments, the Faculty, Blue Key, Mortar Board, Spurs, I.K.s and the persons who helped house the visitors, go our sincere appreciation.

Thanks,
 The All-University Day committee

Here's More About—

Jason

are the ones that later in life may go far.

A Good Day
 The Foresters also put on a good show last week. Their many exhibits marked them as one of the more aggressive schools in the University.

Last, but not least, no small amount of credit should be thrown in the way of Bill Chetwood and his All-University Day committee. Jason believes that many high school seniors found the campus much to their liking. Bill and his committee were largely responsible for that. Good work, Bill, the campus will miss you next year when you are at dental school.

There is an editorial on page 2 that Idaho students ought to take a look at if it concerns many futures. A quick rundown on how to come back to school next fall is given.

In the Jason column in last Friday's paper, Jason mentioned that three cents postage was due on a letter he received. Well, President Buchanan reimbursed Jason with a three-cent stamp. Thanks! Buy Bonds, give blood, and vote.

THANKS

On behalf of the ASUI Executive Board I wish to extend a hearty "thank you" to all students, staff and faculty who worked so hard to make All University day a success; especially to chairman Bill Chetwood and the hardworking students on his committee.

Through the excellent co-operation of student service groups, organizations, and University departments, I believe the University of Idaho was very favorably presented to the many high school seniors who were our guests on All University day.

Sincerely,
 Vern Bahr
 Pres., ASUI

Remsburg Assigned

Pvt. Homer D. Remsburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Remsburg, Caldwell, has been assigned to the Signal Replacement Training Center, Camp Gordon, Ga., for basic training after completing processing here at the 2653rd Reception Center. He attended the University of Idaho.

CLASSIFIED

Help Wanted

Summer work can be had in the thawing, stripping and dredge operations as laborers and point drivers at Fairbanks, Alaska. No previous experience required. Base rate $1.21 and $1.28 per hour. Sixty three hours a week. No transportation furnished. For further information see or write to Charles O. Fowler, Room 200 Savoy Hotel, Seattle, Washington — United States Smelting Refining and Mining Co.

Dear Jason

Dear Jason,
 This letter is in regards to the April 13, 1951, issue of The Idaho Argonaut, of which I was thoroughly displeased and disgusted.

I do not propose, or even pretend, to know about how a newspaper is, or should be run. All I know is that what I read in the last Friday's paper did not meet my eyes with much approval.

What I was most disgusted at was the way Jason took such special precautions to explain what the six Alpha Phi's were doing, and I'm sure that everyone was quite fulfilled in learning that. A beautiful black eye that Margaret Alley is supporting can also be attributed to spring? I was also surprised that Jason used a sarcastic rebuttal for that article that "Dixie Howell was supposedly to have put in the Lewiston Tribune. What an infantile sort of way to get back at someone, for a person who has been in college two or three years. Besides, why on earth does it have to be raked over the coals?"

Why, I have often wondered, must a newspaper or magazine always have to have lude jokes in it?

THANKS

Editor's Note:
 Well, Frank, you said that you "do not propose, or even pretend, to know about how a newspaper is, or should be run." Jason believes you are right. If you did, you would know that if we are forced to print either "ludicrous" jokes or other informative fillers. The lead just doesn't stretch otherwise. Take your choice between the two "evils."

Sincerely though, Jason welcomes "constructive" letter such as the above, for then he knows how he stands with his readers, even though they might be few in number.

As for Dixie Howell, have you heard the latest song hit? "Away Down South is Dixie, Hooray, Hooray."

Want To Remain In School?

To date not very many Idaho students have applied for the forthcoming aptitude test for eligible college students wishing draft deferment to finish their college careers, stated Dean of Men H. E. Lattig.

These tests, as the selective service pointed out recently, are "vitaly important for every college student under the age of 26."

Regardless of scholastic standings, students are requested to take the exam. The test is not one on factual information, but rather a three-hour test of ability to learn at the college level. A grade of 70 is sufficient to allow a student to remain in school.

Draft boards may defer students on results of the test or by their scholastic records. A student with a low scholastic record may be deferred if he makes a satisfactory score on the test.

Apply for Exam Now

Eligibility for the exam consists of (1) Registered under Selective Service and wish to request occupational deferment as a student; (2) Under 26 years; (3) Must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course leading to a degree; and (4) Must not previously have taken the test.

The consensus seems to be that it would be advisable for practically all eligible men to take the test, including frosh and sophomores who are currently in ROTC units.

Each student must apply for the exam at the LOCAL DRAFT BOARD OFFICE ABOVE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING. The test will be given on May 26, June 16, and June 30.

First come, first served is the rule for the exam. The first 300,000 applicants will be tested on May 26, the rest will wait. Get your application in NOW if you want to be here next year.

Forney Hall Dinner Dance Held Friday; 'Dream Girl' Chosen Soon

"Apple Blossom Time," theme of the Forney hall spring dinner dance, was held Friday night among apple blossoms, trees, and park benches.

Finalists for the Delta Sigma Phi "Dream Girl" contest will be announced soon.

A dinner exchange was held with Delta Tau Delta Thursday evening. An idea of the Sigma Chis, the purpose is to have dinner exchanges to better the relations among the men's living groups on campus.

Mack Flenniken Newest Addition To Grid Staff

The University of Idaho football coaching staff added another member yesterday as President J. E. Buchanan announced the appointment of Mack Flenniken, Filer high school coach, as an assistant to Head Coach Raymond "Babe" Curfman. Flenniken will tutor the ends.

A former professional star with the New York Giants, Flenniken comes to Idaho after several seasons of experience as both player and coach. He graduated from Geneva college in Pennsylvania where he also served as head coach for two years prior to his two-year stint with the pro New Yorkers.

Moving on from New York to the grid ranges of Texas, Flenniken assisted coach Dutch Meyer at Texas Christian while completing his college work. In 1934, he embarked upon a highly successful seven-year high school coaching career in Fort Worth, Texas.

With the start of World War II, Flenniken entered the Air Force where he served until 1946. Attaining the rank of major, he added to his tutoring experience by leading service teams in Utah and San Antonio, Texas.

Completing his tour of duty with Uncle Sam's airmen, Flenniken became a coach in the Jerome school system until 1948 when he commenced his mentorship at Filer.

Curfman expressed his great pleasure in the appointment of Mr. Flenniken and added, "His knowledge of fundamentals, his handling of players, and his ability to put his own knowledge across leave little to be desired."

Idaho General Manager Gale Mix stated that another assistant coach will be added soon to supplement the regular staff of Curfman, Nikevich, and Flenniken. Jerry Williams, pass defense specialist of the professional Los Angeles Rams, has been assisting with Idaho spring drills. Flenniken is expected to report sometime during the week.

Meanwhile spring practice for the Idaho griders entered the third week yesterday as Curfman's charges continued drilling on pass patterns, running plays, and blocking and tackling.

Last week's rugged drills left several squad members ailing from sprains, bruises, broken collar bones, and missing molars. Most serious of the injuries was a fractured collar bone received by sophomore halfback, Bob Lee, who is expected to witness the remaining sessions from the sidelines. Minus a molar was Joe Basile, who left the mealtime muncher wallowing in a feast of practice field sod.

Another scrimmage session is slated for this week-end with several more skirmishes scheduled before the windup intra-squad duel May 12.

Outstanding performers in recent drills have been center Bob Holder, guard Don Ringe, and tackle Steve Douglas. All three lettermen have distinguished themselves by their defensive work.

Also drawing praise from head lung-blower Curfman were several sophomores. Among those singled out were guards Darwin Brown of St. Anthony, Aldred Ames of Idaho Falls, Dee Reichstein and Don Wright of Buhl; tackle Tom Falash of Twin Falls; end Bruce West of Idaho Falls; and backs Bob Cruickshank of Emmett, Bud Fisher of Idaho Falls, and Walt Dell of Coeur d'Alene.

Tennis Team Drops Battle To Cougars

Coach Eric Kirkland's Vandal racquet wielders will face the defending Northern Division champions, Washington's Huskies, at Seattle Saturday. The Huskies copped their ND opener last week over the Oregon Ducks, 7-0.

Meanwhile, the Idaho team received a whitewashing at the hands of the Washington State netmen, 8-0, Saturday on the home courts.

In singles play, Powell defeated Bob Gleason, 6-4, 6-1; Towner blanked Fred Thompson, 6-0, 6-0; Brewer stopped Jack Scull, 6-2, 6-2; Gilliland routed Stu Dollinger, 6-1, 6-1; Munroe topped Bob Zimmerman, 6-2, 9-7; and Jamming tripped Bob Bolingbroke, 6-2, 6-3.

The Cougars also dominated doubles play as last season's ND duo-team champs, Towner and Gilliland, whipped Scull and Dollinger, 6-2, 6-3. In the other match, Powell and Brewer topped Gleason and Zimmerman, 6-2, 8-6.

Kirkland's freshman aggregation also bowed in defeat Saturday as John Rogers high school of Spokane defeated the frosh, 9-1. Joe Tom captured the lone Idaho win, and Jim Richardson, Jim Guthrie, and Bill Mahlik looked good even in defeat.

Divotdiggers Cop Victory In Opener

Coach Frank James' Vandal linksters started off their northern division season last Saturday afternoon by clubbing Washington State's divot diggers, 15½ to 11½, at Moscow.

Idaho golfers are now polishing their putters in preparation for a match with the Washington Huskies this weekend. The Seattle team recently upset Oregon State college, defending northern division champion.

Doubles matches were even at 4½ all, but the Vandals thumped the Cougars 11 to 7 in the singles. Medalist for the day was Idaho's John Dripps.

Results are: Doubles—Beeber and King, W-½ vs. Quackenbush and Stringfield, I-2½; Kinney and Williams, W-2½ vs. Drips and Rawlins, I-½; Sumner and Siminon, W-1½ vs. Faylor and Miller, I-1½; Singles—Beeber, W-3 vs. Quackenbush, I-0; Kinney, W-0 vs. Drips, I-3; King, W-0 vs. Stringfield, I-2½; Williams, W-0 vs. Faylor, I-3; Siminon, W-1 vs. Rawlins, I-2; Sumner, W-2½ vs. Miller, I-½.

Student Hurt In Air Wreck

Keith Bean received head and face injuries Sunday when his light plane struck a power line near the approach of the Moscow Sky ranch landing field.

Bean was knocked unconscious when his head struck the instrument panel as the plane pancaked to the ground.

The student, a hurdler on the university track squad, was removed to the university infirmary. Dr. Ralph Alley, university physician, said Bean suffered a fractured nose and mild concussion, but his condition was not believed serious. Bean is a member of the Vandal Flying club.

Taylor Is Chosen Head Of AIEE

Duane Taylor was elected chairman of the Idaho chapter of AIEE Monday.

Other officers include Raymond Weholt, vice chairman; Allen Marshall, secretary; Theodore Murphy, treasurer; George Hespelt, reporter. New associate engineers representatives are Arnold Bahl and Bryan Shubert.

The new officers will begin their duties following the AIEE spring picnic May 6.

Ouch! Steel Tape!

Sprinter Dick Newton shows signs of agony as he breaks the tape in the 100-yard dash. Right behind him in two-three fashion are Glen Christian and WSC's Richardson. Newton clocked the century dash in a slow 10.1. Two events later, the California lad racked up his second first of the day by going the distance in the 220-yard grind in 21.6. Richardson aced Christian out for second place honors in the event.

WSC Depth Sinks Thinclads; Vandals Visit Ducks Next

Coach Stan Hiserman and his cinder squad will leave early this week for the Willamette valley and their third Northern Division track meet with the University of Oregon Ducks.

The Vandals gave the Washington State cindermen a run for their money Saturday afternoon, but Cougar depth in the distance events was too much for the Idahoans to overcome. Almost twice as many Crimson and Gray aspirants reported at Rodger's field to have a hand in the 77-54 victory.

Idaho's Don Miller, ace 440 yard trotter, scored the upset of the day when he edged WSC's heralded Clem Eischen in the last lap of the mile relay.

The 5,280 foot jaunt had the crowd on its feet from the starting gun. Lorin LaFoe handled the first lap of the race for Idaho and pulled to the hand-off-lane in perfect stride with the WSC starter. A poor hand off cost Idaho ten yards but Hartman, second man on the relay team, kept the distance about the same for his run.

At the halfway mark, WSC had the same trouble with the hand off, but still held a five yard advantage when Nowak handed off to Miller for the anchor lap Miller, who had earlier clocked the 440 in "48.9 took after Eischen like a "rabbit." The Vandal work horse was a full stride behind until the last corner where he turned on the heat, to finish a half stride ahead.

"Scooter" Dick Newton, racked up ten points to lead the Idaho squad. The crowd offered remarks and showed signs of doubtfulness when the officials announced Newton the winner in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.1. Track conditions were near perfect and it appeared the runners made good time getting out of the blocks. Perhaps the timer got his finger stuck on the clock?

Christian grabbed second place in the century.

Newton doubled his point total two events later when he traversed the 220 yard course in 21.6. Richardson, WSC sprinter, edged Christian for second place honors in the final 20 yards, of the 220 race.

Idaho's Sweeney put on a one man show for the Vandal cause by grabbing a first in the low hurdles; third in the highs; and second in the high jump. Sweeney traveled the 220 barrier strip in :25 seconds flat.

Keith Bean, who had previously beat the Cougars' Peter Mullins in the high hurdles, lost to the decathlon titalist in a close race. Mullins gained the win in the last stretch with a yard to spare, in a 15.3 time.

Although the Cougars dominated the distance races, Idaho's John Allyson turned in a top performance in the two mile capper. Allyson set the pace from the opening whistle and kept the Cougars' ace distance man Bill Parnell, in trouble all the way. Chuck Weimann, who failed to place in the mile, took a third place in the two mile event.

Idaho's Dave Martindale, who has hovered consistently around the 13' mark in the pole vault,

Finley Men Lose Twice To OSC; Play Huskies Twin Bill Today

The University of Idaho fencebusters under the tutelage of "Cheerful Chuck" Finley dropped games number three and four on their trip through Willamette valley when they lost a pair to Oregon State last weekend by scores of 8-4 and 3-2.

Going to the hill for the Vandals in the opener and pitching the entire contest was sophomore flinger George McCarty. The Idaho lads at one time held a slim 4-3 lead, but

The Vandals dropped their second consecutive loss to the Beavers, Saturday, when Wayne Anderson, another sophomore chucker, lost the heartbreaker 3-2. The Orange scored first in the sixth inning. Two runs for the Vandals in the ninth looked fine for a short time—but a pair of tallies for the Beavers in the last half of the do-or-die ninth produced the winning runs for the hosts.

Following the two-game series with Washington in Seattle this afternoon—the Vandals will return home to begin preparations for the all-important series with rival Washington State. The two teams are to collide in an home and home series which will open in Pullman next Monday afternoon. Idaho's first home conference tilt will be staged a week from today on the McLean field diamond—again with defending champion Washington State.

The Vandals will be looking for revenge when they tangle with Oregon's Webfoots at home in a pair of crucial tilts to be played Monday and Tuesday, May 7 and 8. Oregon State will journey to Moscow for a set of games scheduled Friday and Saturday, the 11th and 12th of May.

Return games with the Cougars of Washington State will come the following Friday and Saturday, the first on called for McLean field and the second in Pullman on Bailey field. The conference windup will be staged on Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26 when the Huskies from the University of Washington move in to snarl at the Vandals.

Each entry, who registers and competes will receive two points regardless of his placing in the event. Preliminary winners will receive five points for first place, with three going to second; two to third; and one counter to fourth place.

In the finals first place holder will receive ten points, with eight

IM Standings

Intramural tracksters will dominate the weekends campus activities when they swing into action Saturday afternoon to run off the preliminary events of the track season.

The preliminary events will run through Saturday, with the finals scheduled for Monday afternoon. In case of holdover races or matches, intramural officials announced special run offs would be held Tuesday afternoon.

Any cinderman can enter competition who is not at present going out for freshman or varsity track. Intramural rules state that not more than two men can enter any one event except the distance relays. No one may compete in more than three events.

Each entry, who registers and competes will receive two points regardless of his placing in the event. Preliminary winners will receive five points for first place, with three going to second; two to third; and one counter to fourth place.

In the finals first place holder will receive ten points, with eight
