And finally, Jerry, you asked who are you to talk of the sins of prejudice? Your blasts against the Kappas, women, and the world in general would seem to merit you that select description."

Well, our only answer to that question is that we have tried hard not to leave anyone out.—We have tried not to be prejudicial.

Jason received a card from University Operations Council that he thought to pass on in part to the students. The card contained a recent motion passed by the state Board of Regents and we auote:

"It was mse that in all schools under the jurisdiction of the Board of Regents of the University of Idaho and the State Board of Education, smoking be limited to places and areas designated by institutional authorities, provided that smoking be prohibited in all student classrooms, laboratories and corridors."

Students could do well to heed a shame to burn down any of our old landmarks, let alone our new tics, has announced, buildings. Specifically this refers to places where "No Smoking" signs have been placed, such as the Ad building.

Fry Small Fry

Jason understands that a movement is being initiated to fill in campus chuckholes or "potholes," as they are sometimes referred to. He has mentioned these eyesores and carsores before and is glad to find out that other persons have worried about them also, probably before Jason.

Speaking of movements, Jason is in favor of one to oust small fry from Memorial gym and any of the other buildings on campus (Cont. on page 2, col. 6)

Close-Out WSC Series

Oregon State Wash. State

Tuesday game: Washington 11, Oregon State 1

If Coach Finley's diamond crew has a sweet tooth, they'll surely be putting the bit on the WSC Baileymen this weekend for nothing could be sweeter than a victory. A win over the Cougar would not only snap the Vandals Northern Division drought, but would dim any title aspirations Washington State might be harboring. The Staters, with a 7 and 5 record, are only one game out of the top spot held by Oregon State and Washington. They have won all six home appearances. Idaho and Washington State wind up their four game series with the Vandals playing at Bailey field in Pullman this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and at MacLean field tomorrow at 2 o'clock. The Cougars won the first brace of battles by 7-2 and 7-5 counts. Buck Schiller, a junior sidearm artist, will flip the pellet for Idaho this afternoon. He will probably face Rod Keogh, ace of the Staters hurling staff. Cless Hinckley will work the hill for Idaho Saturday. The batting order for Idaho in oday's contest is: Mel Brown, second base; Joe Zavetsky, third base; Bruce McIntosh, center field; and maskman Jerry Ogle in the clean-up spot. Rightfielder: Dick Merrill will bat fifth, followed by Don Harrison, leftfielder; Glen Darnell, shortstop, and Don't test one brand alone ... compare them all!

Unlike others, we never ask you to test our brand alone. We say... compare PHILIP MORRIS...match PHILIP MORRIS...judge PHILIP MORRIS against any other cigarette! Then make your own choice!

TRY THIS TEST!

Take a PHILIP MORRIS - and any other cigarette. Then, here's all you do:

Light up either cigarette. Take a puff-don't inhale-and s-l-o-w-l-y let the smoke come through your nose.

Now do exactly the same thing with the other cigarette. NOTICE THAT PHILIP MORRIS

IS DEFINITELY LESS IRRITATING, DEFINITELY MILDER!
