walk, where, believe it or not, we were treated almost humanly, Jason picked up a few interesting hits of information. (The Cougar outfit didn't quite stick to their outfit didn't quite stick to their end of the bargain. They had promised us that a car would be promised us that a car would be provided at the Moscow side of the viaduct. The "car" that we rode in was a replica of Henry's first and the SAE's "Paddy" wagon looked like a Town and Country convertible in comparison.)

In perusing (means looking at Jason hopes) a copy of the WSC Evergreen, a story stuck out like Hyde Jacobs' sore foot. It ran like

"Starting with the fall term next year the student union building fee will continue to be $5.00 but a new student union operating fee of $8.00 will be charged students each semester as a result of action profession, said Dr. W. J. Brockel- Student Union building. taken by the Board of Regents at a recent meeting.

...."Carl A. Pettibone, collegecomptroller, declared that the new fee is necessary to meet minimum operating expenses of the SUB when it is put into student use. He also stated that such a fee is common on college campuses where there are unions."

Thirteen dollars a semester for each student for the SUB fees alone. Tsk. tsk. Jason was led to believe that the Ag college carried out all that firing last year to cut down expenses to the students. Well, it does cost money to provide powerful football teams "that can score two touchdowns against any team in the nation." If fees like the above are "common on college campuses where there are unions, Jason is glad that we don't have a student union here at Idaho. Yuk, yuk.

In the same issue of the Nevergreen, two sportswriters lashed out against an Idaho stalwart and a game Idaho team. They said:

Without Larsen's able assistance, the tag match might have ended in a deadlock with broken bottles and rocks deciding the outcome.

"The Cougars seemed overawed in giant Neale stadium with its reversible, non-skid, puncture-proof turf and before its literally dozens of big league fans.

"Just see if we give you 42 points against Montana. So there."

These two wits write under the pen names of Hrothgar and Finn. If they are trying for unusual pen names, they might just as well use their real names - Orman Vertrees and Don Hannula. They are the lads that picked the Cougars to win by 42 points over Idaho last

They are also the boys who after the Stanford-WSC game, diagnosed that Cougar coach Evashevski intentionally threw the game. Consequently, the Evergreen sports staff is no longer welcome at the coach's office. Be honest and face the terrible reality men-WSC just isn't that good.

Of course the Evergreen claimed that Idaho got one bad break while WSC received many in Saturday's game. Keep up the excuses, lads, we love 'em.

Incidentally, WSC plays Montana this weekend for the last time. They dropped the Grizzlies from their schedule for "lack of competition." It would certainly be interesting to note the red faces and consequent hums and haws at Cougarville if Montana were to win this weekend.

National Award For F.F.A.

Castleford and Roberts FFA chapters were chosen the outstanding Idaho groups for competition in the national contest which presents awards in four groups for exceptional work. The four levels of achievement are Gold Emblem chapters, Silver Emblem, Bronze Emblem, and Honorable Mention chapters.

Castleford received the Silver Emblem award under Eddie Hudson, (above) now a University student, who served as president of the chapter last year. Clarence Beckman, (above) an Idaho graduate, was the group advisor. President this year is Marvin Cox.

The FFA chapter at Roberts received the Bronze Emblem rating. The Silver award is the highest that any chapter in Idaho has received during past years.

Back The Class Team

You've got the ball. Now run with it!

Class offices are positions of honor. The winners have been chosen from among their classmates because of respect and popularity. But in addition, and more important, they have been chosen for qualities of leadership.

DEAR JASON

I believe I am not alone in expressing the opinion that the boys from Willis Sweet hall deserved more recognition than they received for their clever and imaginative display in the Homecoming day parade. This is particularly true wher it is recognized that dormitory groups are not under the same compulsion to "produce" that the Greek living groups are.

If it was felt that their exhibition couldn't be considered for honors under the terms of the float competition, a special award might have been considered. However that may be, the men from Willis Sweet hall displayed a spirit and imagination of which the University may well be proud.

Sincerely, Stanley A. Shepard

Vandals Seek Third Win Of Season Against Cats

The University of Idaho Vandals go after their third victory of the 1951 season tomorrow night when they go up against the oft beaten University of Arizona Wildcats at Tucson. Babe Curfman, his staff, and 34 ball players left Moscow Tuesday for the Border State where they will attempt to bring home their first night game victory since 1941. Two weeks ago this writer made his first public attempt at picking as Western and Texas Tech by the pigskin winners. Since then he has considered several alternatives including flipping a coin Mexico. The southerners have split and the ever reliable Kappa ouija

However, since the ouija board has been definitely outlawed by this department, I shall resort to my hunches and see how well they stack up against the fortunes of a well-worn five-cent piece. That well-worn five-cent piece. That well-worn five-cent piece. That will bring both sets of predictions first week of the season while the vandals lost a narrow 14-13 thrilto approximately the same price

Idaho over Arizona. This is more than a hunch. The Vandals should skin the Wildcats by at least two touchdowns. Let's hope, however, that the boys play it cool in the Arizona night air.

Washington State over Montana. It's the Cougars versus the Grizzlies and it's bound to be a wild Cougars. Ken Larsen, the Wallace way back in 1890, that the Washington Water Power Co. Monroe Street Plant was placed in operation in Spokane. From its early pioneer birth, W.W.P. has worked to make possible the best in electric service at low cost.

IT WAS IN NOVEMBER,

THE MEETING'S UPSTAIRS

What happens to a high-flying enemy bomber when it meets the newest anti-aircraft guided. missile shouldn't happen to a low-flying duck. Radar "eyes" and electronic "brains" make sure the meeting takes place. They guide the pilotless missile to within lethal range of the plane, then explode it.

This teaming of intricate tracking and computing devices was made possible by teaming of another sort. The electronic control system was developed for Army Ordnance by the Bell Telephone Laboratories and the Western Electric Company, close-working research and manufacturing units of the Bell System. a It's just one of the many important military projects being entrusted to the Bell System.
