

State High School Musicians Flock To Idaho Campus

The first of approximately 3,400 musicians who are holding their annual Idaho State Music Festival this weekend arrived on the campus yesterday. The three-day festival is expected to bring to the campus the largest group ever to hold a meeting at the University of Idaho.

Francis Nonin, principal of Moscow high school, is manager of the state festival and Hall Macklin, head of the University music department, is co-manager. They will be aided by a committee from the University and Don Wilson, secretary of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce.

University officials were as busy lining up housing facilities this week as they would be if the University had suddenly become a war rehabilitation center.

Originally about 2,000 students were expected for the festival, but advance registrations have upped this figure another thousand. Approximately two-thirds of the students will be housed on the campus, and the rest in private Moscow residences.

Morrison-Knudsen Construction company is supplying 300 extra cots and 600 blankets from its Spokane headquarters. Washington State college is loaning the University more than 100 double-decker cots and other bedding equipment. For emergency use, the Clearwater and Potlatch Timber Protective association is supplying 300 sleeping bags.

Buildings Transformed

The men's and women's gymnasiums at the University are being transformed into huge dormitories. Pine hall, the Navy barracks building which was moved to the campus after World War II to care for the big influx of GI's, will be used to house 600 high school girls.

A general schedule of festival events follows:

Thursday, May 1—afternoon, piano solos; evening, class D and C bands from northern Idaho.

Friday, May 2—morning, boys' and girls' choruses, boys' and girls' vocal solos, brass, woodwind and percussion instrumental ensembles and solos, and small vocal ensembles; afternoon, mixed choirs, girls' vocal solos, piano solos, brass, woodwind and percussion solos, string solos and small ensembles; evening, orchestras and mixed choirs.

Saturday, May 3—all day, concert bands, all classes; afternoon, twirling solos and ensembles; evening, marching band contest, gala massed band performance of "The Star Spangled Banner" at conclusion of festival.

Dedication Tomorrow

Formal dedication of the new Music building will take place tomorrow at 1 p.m. The dedication will be made by Judge W. F. McNaughton, Coeur d'Alene, retiring member of the board of regents. His dedicatory address will be his last as a regent.

The evening events are open to the public with a general admission charge of 75 cents for adults, 50 cents for students. The marching band contest which will close the festival will be held in Moscow Recreation park, Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Five buildings which the music students will make use of, sometimes all at one time, are the Administration building, Student Union, Music building, LDS institute and the Idaho Institute of Christian education.

Emmett leads the group with the largest from one school attending. More than 230 students from Emmett will participate. Other schools running close behind include Burley with 205, and Caldwell, 165. A total of 28 high school bands will be on the campus. They range in size from 40 to 114 members.

Sixteen Bands

The sixteen bands which will participate in the Saturday evening show include those from Oakey, Filer, Salmon, Kimberly, Teton, Wendell, Payette, Buhl, Meridian, St. Anthony, Weiser, Burley, Emmett, Kellogg, Twin Falls, and Idaho Falls.

Forty high schools will be represented by students participating in the festival. A special Union Pacific train, with nearly 20 cars, will run from Idaho Falls across southern Idaho arriving in Moscow at 7 a.m., May 2, with more than 900 of the musicians.

Judging the events will be Wilbur Anders, Whitworth college, Spokane; Rodney Berg, Everett Junior college, Everett, Wash.; Edmund Cykler, University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore.; Alfred Boyington, Washington State college, Pullman, Wash.; David Lawson, Pacific Music camp, Stockton, Calif.; Lowell Little, University of Denver, Denver, Colo.; Walter Welke and Charles W. Lawrence, University of Washington, Seattle; Donald Walter, Western Washington college of Education, Bellingham, Wash., and Hall Macklin, Agnes C. Schuldt, Kermit Hosch, Glen Lockery, Norman Logan, S. Keith Forney, Elwyn Schwartz, and Carl Claus, University of Idaho.

Judging the inspection phase of the marching bands contest on May 3 will be two members of the University of Idaho ROTC staff.

Housing Problems

A separate staff to handle housing of the musical groups on the campus and in the town of Moscow is headed by Charles Bond of the University's Student Counseling center. Assisting Mr. Bond are members of the sophomore class at the University, together with members of Spurs, Intercollegiate Knights, and Blue Key.

Assisting in the general operation of the festival events will be the music staff of the University, graduate students, and advanced undergraduate students in the music department.

Special duties have been assigned to Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia, men's national music fraternity, Sigma Alpha Iota, women's national music sorority, and the Idaho student chapter of Music Educators National conference.

Arranging housing and eating facilities has been a major task. Lining up a big enough milk supply to take care of the high school students who are heavy consumers has been just one of the problems. It is estimated that besides the milk for meals, the visitors will put away an average of 1,500 milkshakes a day.

District festivals were held last week in Lewiston, Boise, Buhl, Pocatello, and St. Anthony. All large music groups, small ensembles, and soloists qualifying in the district event are eligible to attend the State festival.

COX ELECTED PRESIDENT ON THIRD PARTY TICKET

The smoke of the annual campaign and election has cleared and whadda' ya' know, new ASUI officers. The results of the election indicate, to us at least, that campus politics is in a pretty good state of health.

Any time that three parties split up an election and each have ASUI officers elected, it seems like a good indication that people are voting for individual candidates instead of political parties. Interest in this election ran higher than it has for several years. That type of interest should be encouraged on the part of both voters and candidates.

C'est la Guerre

In the main the campaign just past was well run by all parties. There was, however, a bit of mud-slinging done by a few individuals. Hot arguments are fine, but not hot mud. It seems that the person (or persons) in question saw the error of such ways and made with an apology.

Since the mud was probably whopped up during the heat of battle, and since it backfired, we will let it go at that and say C'est la Guerre. At any rate, those who mess with mud should keep a box of soap handy.

Jason wishes to extend congratulations to all the new ASUI officers. You have a tough job ahead of you. Do it well and with the conviction that you are working for those who elected you. Again, congratulations to you all.

To the present ASUI officers, who will be leaving office in a short time, we say thanks for a job well done.

Well, we have finally seen the first sure sign of spring. Some pore soul wuz (sob) dumped in Paradise creek yesterday. Sure, there have been other tubbings, but the creek is the official receptacle for engaged men.

We couldn't get close enough to recognize the tubbed one, but we offer many happy (ugh) returns of the day to him and all who will follow.

One of the greatest invasions in campus history began yesterday. Some 3,000 high school musicians are here for their state festival. Of course we don't mind—it's nice to have a break in the routine and to see some new faces.

Welcome to all of you people and have fun.

CARS NEEDED

Cars and drivers are needed to transport high school musicians to living quarters. If you can help call 2-5056.

Today

Creswell Commands Arnold Air Society

Arnold Air society elected officers for the coming year at its meeting Tuesday evening. Commander is Dan Creswell.

Other officers are Bill Luscher, executive officer; Odell Black, operations officer; Rich Orme, secretary-treasurer; and Bud Hagen, alumni secretary.

Major Butterfield was recommended for advisor of the group. A business meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 6, in conference room B.

BAND CONCERT SCHEDULED

The University band will present the first of two lawn concerts Wednesday, May 7, on the University lawn near the tennis courts across from the new home economics building.

The concert will begin at 6:45 p.m. and continue until 7:30 p.m. In case of inclement weather the concert will be postponed.

Dance Honoraries Schedule Program

Orchesis and Pre-orchesis, modern dance honoraries, have scheduled their annual spring dance program May 9 and 10. Directed by Miss Patricia Rowe, this year's theme for the modern program is "The West—1952." Choreography was arranged by the groups themselves.

With a western setting and theme, the spring show is slated to be longer than in past years, Miss Rowe commented. Former shows have tended to the abstract, she added, while the 1952 version of Orchesis and Pre-orchesis is of a more practical, down-to-earth nature.

Idaho Journalism Students To Issue "Daily Statesman"

Twenty journalism students at the University will put out the May 9 issue of the Idaho Daily Statesman at Boise at the invitation of Jim Brown, Statesman editor. The students will leave Moscow Wednesday on a chartered bus, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne F. Young.

The students will observe operations of a news room Wednesday night, then will return Thursday night to take over jobs of the regular Statesman news employees. The group of journalists will leave Boise Friday morning and return to Moscow that evening. All expenses of the trip are being paid by the Statesman.

Students making the trip are Eleanor Anderson, Gloria Badraun, Lois Bush, Conrad Christensen, Patricia Dyson, Don Hardy, Sheila Janssen, Bert Johnson and Andrew Tozier.

President Elect

Ray Cox, junior law student, has been elected president of the Associated Students. Along with the newly elected Executive Board, Ray will begin his official duties in three weeks. A married veteran, Ray is, as near as can be told, the first person running on a third party ticket to be elected to the presidency.

Executive Board Is Split With Greeks In Majority

Idaho students invaded the voting polls Wednesday numbering 1,954 strong to elect Ray Cox, Third party presidential candidate, to the ASUI president's position over Pat Duffy, United party presidential aspirant, and Ken Kornher, Independent candidate. Cox' election to the post for the coming year is the first time in at least ten years that a Third party candidate has been placed in an ASUI position.

Headlining the Executive board positions are three from the Independent slate of nine candidates, four United party members from a slate of seven, and two Third party candidates from a field of nine.

The new 1952-1953 Executive board members are Bob Allison, Pine Hall, Independent; Bonese Collins, Delta Gamma, Third party; Betty Ruth Westberg, Ridenbaugh hall, Independent; Bill Ringert, Phi Kappa Tau, Third party; Verl King, Lindley hall, Independent; Bob Holder, Tau Kappa Epsilon, United; Bruce McIntosh, Phi Gamma Delta, United; Bill Nixon, Sigma Chi, United; and John Bengston, Beta Theta Pi, United.

Ag Engineers Take Southern Field Trip

Eight senior agricultural engineering students from the University are on a field trip through southern Idaho this week visiting plants and projects to witness practical applications of their chosen profession.

The group will visit the Parma, Caldwell and Aberdeen experiment stations, chemical and fertilizer plants in Boise and Pocatello, and return to the University of Idaho through Missoula, Montana.

Seniors on the trip include Yoshinari Hosoda, Ernest Kraus, Larry Kerr, Dorrell Larsen, Martin Ourada, Wayne Robison, Wendell Styner, and Lamar Williams.

A Word Of Welcome

Welcome to the U of I, musicians! Congratulations on your good record in the district festivals that brings you here. We're glad to see you.

Of course you will be busy singing, playing, marching or twirling for a good part of the weekend. But if you have a few spare minutes, look over the campus and go through the new Music building and the Student Union building.

We who have been around the "Big I" for a few months or a few years are proud of the campus. We are proud of the new buildings and of the friendly spirit that is a part of campus life here at the University.

If you are planning to go on to college after you graduate we would all like to see you come back. If not, we would still like to see you come back—anytime.

Have a good time while you're here. Make yourself at home. And good luck in the contests. —K. L. K.

A Look At Drama

Last weekend saw the final ASUI dramatic offering for the year. It was the last of three ASUI major productions and one of five drama department offerings.

The year was a successful one—so far as type and quality of productions were concerned. But it was unsuccessful in that this year's drama budget was drastically cut, leaving the drama department with funds even less than adequate and facilities that hardly meet essential requirements.

The department, with its two highly capable instructors, is pitifully understaffed and overworked. The University auditorium, where major productions are aired, has but the slightest resemblance to what might be called convenience. Such a list could go on ad infinitum.

Is it not possible for a re-evaluation of drama department facilities to be taken and suitable budget readjustment made? We realize that funds are short all around—and expected to be shorter next year. But the quality of this year's dramatic offerings has certainly proven itself. Money oftentimes improves the best of quality. —K. K.

Mining Students Plan Week Trip

Eighteen seniors in the school of mines will make their final field trip beginning Sunday May 4 to Saturday, May 10. During the final two days of the trip the students will be guests of the Columbia section of the American Institute of Mining at Spokane for the meeting of the Northwest Industrial Minerals Conference. At the conference general problems related to mining will be discussed.

Prior to the conference the group will visit the Bunker Hill and Sunshine mines at Kellogg, the plant of the Northwest Magnesite company at Chewelah, Washington and mines near Metaline Falls, Washington where the group will study the mines and problems in metallurgy and geology.

Those making the trip include: Adrain Albertsen, Robert Hill, Alvan B. Brunelle, Charles Morton, Les Burrows, Joseph Rubble, Alex Nielson, Robert Worthington, Elmer Kassens, William Baines, Thomas Fife, David Apondaca, Louis Ringe, Clarence Bloomster, Samuel Elrod, Willis Wiedenman, Floyd Spraketes, and Gerald Miller.

Accompanying the seniors will be Dean A. W. Fahrenwald, Professor W. W. Staley, and Professor Earl Cook, head of the geology department.

Educator, Students To Hollywood

Hervon Snyder, professor of education, Elzo Mink, junior education major from Council, and Robert Carlson have been selected for all-expense paid air trips to Hollywood as winners in this year's annual air age education contest.

They are among the 22 teachers selected throughout the state for the Hollywood vacations. They will leave from Boise May 4 aboard a chartered Empire Airliner and return May 7. During their three days in Hollywood, where they will be guests at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, they will participate in two nation-wide radio programs and visit movie studios and various points of interest.

The air age education contest is sponsored each year by the state department of aeronautics to foster greater interest in the use of airplanes in Idaho. It is open to all public school teachers in Idaho and to student teachers at the University of Idaho and Idaho State College. Miss Mink and Mr. Carlson's entries were among the teaching units submitted through the Department of Education.

Files Of "Mirror" Added To Idaho Archivees

Added to the archives of the University of Idaho this week was a bit of Moscow older than the University. Turned over to the University library for safekeeping by William N. Buchanan, Jr., of Moscow, were files of the early Moscow Mirror newspaper.

The bound files include issues from July 3, 1885, to June 17, 1887, and from March 20, 1889, to June 24, 1892. The University was founded in 1889, and first opened for classes in 1892.

The papers deposited at the University for preservation and research use have been in the Buchanan family for almost a half-century. They are in good condition, but will be microfilmed for permanency and availability.

In 1905, William N. Buchanan, Sr., and John Stillingier operated a draying business in Moscow. They were engaged by the Jolly brothers, owners of the paper, to haul the files off to the dump. Buchanan asked, however, to keep the files.

The son, who farmed for many years near Moscow, said the price of wheat shown in the papers was always encouraging—except during the depression. The price in the early period hovered around 45 cents.

Music Students To Be Accommodated

University officials have been busy the past week in lining up housing facilities for the approximately 3,400 high school music students who will be visiting the campus this week-end for the Idaho State Music Festival. Neighboring concerns have aided greatly in providing sleeping necessities. Above is shown Memorial gym in its present role of dormitory.

Today's College Student Is Serious, Not Wild

Idaho isn't the only place where a major change is taking place in college hazing. Robert Stein, editor and author, so reports after surveying more than 100 colleges and universities and talking with college presidents, deans, professors, guidance counselors, and students. He describes his findings in an article on "How Wild Are College Students?" in the May issue of "USA, the Magazine of American Affairs." "Rah-rah exuberance is giving way to sober purposefulness and hazing is being replaced by acts of community service. Today's college student is more mature, responsible, and studious than his predecessors," writes Stein. "Unfortunately," he says, "an account of several dozen brawling, rioting students makes more dramatic reading than the story of two-and-one-half million young men and women quietly and efficiently going about the business of learning." That's the reason, he explains, why the big change sweeping over college campuses has gone almost unnoticed.

Here At Idaho Here at Idaho the ATO house really got into the spirit of "Work Week" instead of "Hell Week" when they camped the town for rooms for the Music Festival presently being held on the campus. Stein cites Willington college in Ohio, where students helped construct a dormitory. College authorities are in general agreement, he found, that despite headlines about campus disorders today's undergraduates are more serious, sober and hard-working, than earlier students. They have high ideals, level heads, and are solemnly preparing, with the confidence and courage of youth, for the "grave responsibilities which will soon be theirs," he concludes. Of course, here at Idaho the students do step out of their mausoleums once in a while. They go to basketball games, football games, and other contests and soberly cheer their heads off, all in academic interest. Distinct concentration is placed in political parties, candidates, and rallies on the campus. They seriously investigate all possibilities, and the various party members staidly attend their respective, quiet party rallies. Campus life is still lots of fun although it must not be such a riot as it was in Pop's day, according to Stein.

Air Force Needs Many Specialists Because of the critical need for specialists, the Fourth Air Force will grant direct commissions to approximately 300 college graduates possessing the necessary qualifications. The greatest need is for officer specialists in communications, procurement and production, special investigation, legal, weather, psychological warfare, engineering and scientific fields. Commissions will range from second lieutenant to lieutenant colonel, depending on age, education and experience. A bachelor's degree is required. Unlimited number of graduates with degrees in engineering, physics, chemistry or mathematics, or students who will receive such degrees this summer, will be appointed second lieutenants. Qualified applicants in the Fourth Air Force area, including Idaho should obtain details by writing to Commanding General, Headquarters Fourth Air Force, Hamilton Air Force Base, Hamilton, California.

Positions Offered In Highway Work

Positions in highway field work will be open both for June graduates and those interested in summer employment, according to C. R. Salmén, acting Idaho District Engineer of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads. A number of additional professional and sub-professional field employees are needed due to the especially heavy construction program planned for 1952. The following Civil Service ratings open for applications from under-graduates and the qualifications of each are: GS 5, three years of college in Civil Engineering and some experience; GS 4, 2 years of college in civil engineering and some experience; GS 3, 1 year of college, not necessarily civil engineering; and GS 2, high school graduates. Interested students are requested to contact Dean A. S. Janssen's office and leave their names as soon as possible. It will be possible to offer employment in GS 5 grade, highway engineer, for graduates who have qualified under the trainee examinations, or a temporary GS 6 rating as engineering aid without examination, but with some experience.

Concert Society Signs Up Members

The Moscow Community Concert Association will conclude its week campaign for membership tomorrow. This season the association is aiming for 1,000 members in order to enlarge its budget and bring the finest of artists to this region.

The fees for all concert musicians have been reported "going up." This is due to a rapidly increasing demand for artists in community music series throughout the country, and to other factors such as radio and television.

Those wishing to obtain memberships can get in touch with campaign headquarters, Moscow hotel, 2363, or contact Norman Logan in room 303, Music building.

Tickets Priced

Memberships, which also include admission to the three concerts of the Pullman artist series, are priced at $6 for adults and $3 for high school students. University students are admitted by ASUI activity cards.

The committee has already arranged for Fey and Gomez, the internationally known costume dance team, and plans to add a well-known orchestral group and a leading pianist or singer.

Faculty members are reminded that the membership campaign policy permits no sale of tickets after the close of the drive on May 3. Provision is made in the fall for those who are newcomers to Moscow during the summer.

FOR RESTORING GOLD

Students at the University of Kansas are a group of cynics, as noted in this brief item that appeared in the Daily Kansan: "A good way to restore glitter to your gold ring or fraternity pin is to rub the article with onion juice. Let it dry thoroughly and rub off with a soft cloth. You will find that all that is gold will glitter."

Daughter, your hair is all mussed up. Did that young man kiss you against your will?
He thinks he did, Mother.

Italian Production 'Open City' Combines Three Story Plots

"Open City," the most recent of the ASUI cinema series presentations, is the film which, in 1946, catapulted Roberto Rossellini to unparalleled fame as a director and Anna Magnani to world-wide acclaim as an actress, and which established post-war Italian as the unrivalled artistic achievement in contemporary picture-making.

The ingredients are simple—too simple for the five million dollar budget to comprehend. Reality is the recurring theme — reality of characters through the sparing use of professional actors, and only those gifted with the human touch; reality of setting which lends an aura of authenticity to the semi-documentary style; reality of ideas which exalts those concepts which men live by and for which they die; and reality of emotion whether developed in scenes of tenderness or of brutality.

"Open City" may be viewed on three levels, all of which are intricately interwoven. First, it is a story of people. There are the dedicated ones who hope to bring order and a brave new world out of the chaotic confusion of their times. There are those others, like the woman, Pina, powerfully enacted by Anna Magnani, who want nothing more than to live and love by established values in an atmosphere of peace. But they, like the weak ones who drift with the tide, torn by violence and conflict, fail to achieve their goals because of unrelenting circumstances.

Secondly, it is the story of Rome and the period of confusion which overtook it during that strange hiatus between the Italian surrender and the withdrawal of the occupying Germans, when ally became enemy, and enemy, friend. The entire city, with its material poverty and moral disintegration, became Rossellini's set, and a more effective one could not have been devised.

Finally, "Open City" is the story of an ideological struggle reduced to its simplest terms, Right versus Wrong. On this level, the picture is perhaps at its weakest. The idea that oppression and brutality are the exclusive property of a single political or nationality group seems a little naive in our day when friends and angels appear to have interchangeable parts.

There was a time in this country when the intellectuals had a similarly undeviating conviction regarding what mankind needed for its salvation and when that god failed, a good deal of the spark and drive disappeared from our intellectual and artistic life. No ideological phoenix has as yet made an appearance. So perhaps this film needed the fire of faith, misguided as it may seem to us today, to give it the unmistakable force it has.

Youthful American Pianist Entertains With Classics

By Sarah Hutchinson

William Kapell, young American pianist, who had won three major musical awards before he was 20, thrilled a couple of thousand Community Concert goers Wednesday night at Bohler gymnasium, Pullman, with his program of seldom heard classics.

"Just as Mozart might have played it" and "superb" were some of the remarks made at the conclusion of the Mozart sonata in C Major K 330. This was probably the best liked of the six numbers on the program.

Moussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition," played without inter-uption, proved the artist's deeply lyrical sense and technique. Beginning with the gnomus dragging himself along, then the mournful "Il Vecchio Castello," the light hearted children at the Tulleries, the ponderous Polish wagon, followed by the picking and cackling effects of the ballet of "Chickens in Their Shells," the pomposity and haggling of the two Polish Jews, the wild chatter of the market place, the old church music, the grotesque "Hut on Fowls Legs" and the finale at the great gate at Kieff, part two was something to remember.

The descriptive "Suite Bergamasque" by Claude Debussy, inspired by his stay in Italy at the age of 26 as the winner of the Prix de Rome, was followed by

Diamondmen Open Oregon State Series Today

High on the list of Coach Stan Hiserman's track performers are these three freshmen (left to right), Lou Gourley, two-miler; Garry Dixon, 440; and Walt Meukow, 880. Gourley and Dixon will be on hand for tomorrow's dual meet in Seattle with the University of Washington while Meukow will stay at home with a broken foot bone.

Cindermen Face Huskies In Dual Meet Tomorrow

Coach Stan Hiserman and 22 of Idaho's top track and field athletes left this morning for Seattle and a dual meet with the University of Washington tomorrow afternoon. The Huskies rate as 20 to 30 point favorites when you compare the best Northern Division times to date.

Vandal chances for an upset will be hampered by injuries to several top men. Bruce Sweeney, the squad's individual star, injured a leg muscle against Oregon last week and hasn't responded to treatment. As a result he will probably confine his efforts to only one or possibly two events.

Walt Meukow, freshman half-miler, broke a small bone in his foot in his last outing and will not make the trip. Glen Casebolt, veteran miler, also will be left home with a sore leg muscle.

Top quarter-miler Ted Nowak who has been out of action for the past two weeks has been hard pressed to get back in shape. At present he is on an engineering field trip to Seattle where he will meet the team. Hec Edmundson, Washington coach, has offered to help tutor Ted in his spare time.

Four and possibly five meet records may fall when the two schools clash. In the two-mile event Washington's Denny Meyer and Idaho's Lou Gourley will both be shooting at the 9:30.8 record held by Husky ace George Abbey.

Dave Martindale will be out to raise the pole vault record of 13 feet that he jointly holds with Bob Lattig, Idaho; and Charles Brigham from the Seattle school.

Intramural Golfers Tee-Off Tomorrow

The initial foursome will tee-off at 8:00 a.m. sharp, and the next groups will follow at seven minute intervals. Since there are nineteen groups to play the course, all entrants should make a special effort to BE THERE ON TIME! The foursomes and their starting times are as follows:

Fiji Softball Team Grabs Greek Title

Phi Gamma Delta's softball team hit harder and oftener in yesterday's Greek championship playoff with the Alpha Tau Omega nine to grab a 6-2 decision. The Fijis busted loose with three counters in the opening frame and were never headed.

ATO was able to count but two tallies, all coming in the third stanza. Meanwhile, Bud Nelson, Herb Millard, Tom Flynn, and Bob White wielded heavy sticks to add two in the second and one in the fourth to the first-inning Fiji production, thus obtaining their final score of six.

The Fijis will face the winners in the Independent league playoffs for the campus championship next week.

Intramural

The first four places in the bowling league have been decided. Delta Tau Delta walked off with top honors in the playoff Tuesday night with Delta Sigma Phi. TMA and Alpha Tau Omega took third and fourth spots respectively. The remainder of the teams are now playing off for the other positions.

Anderson And Dodel Receive Finley's Bid For Mound Duty

Coach Chuck Finley's Vandal diamond squad will be out to terminate a three game losing streak when the powerful Oregon State Beavers invade McLean field this afternoon for the first game of a two-game series. Wayne Anderson is slated to dish up the horsehide to the Beaver batters in today's tilt with Dick Dodel toeing the slab in tomorrow's finale.

The Vandals, after posting a favorable 3-3 record on their road trip, have found Coach Buck Bailey's Washington State Cougars somewhat disturbing as the kitens from Cougarville topped the Idahoans, 1-0 and 7-2, in contests last Monday and Tuesday. Weak Vandal hitting coupled with a dropsy epidemic in the field has been largely responsible for the team's downfall.

Nevertheless, the Idaho nine will be gunning for Beaver pelts when the umpire cries, "Play ball," this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Finley's picks for pitching chores in the series will be Anderson and Dodel, the two remaining pitchers on the staff with a perfect won-lost record. Both hurlers have posted single wins without a loss.

Four Vandal swatsmen are above the .300 mark in the hitting department. Two boast better than .400 marks as Bruce McIntosh paces the club with a .430 average, and Mel Brown has poked the pill for a .424 percentage. George Huffman is the No. 3 batter with .340 while Jerry Ogle has stroked the apple for a .333 mark.

Meanwhile, the visiting Beavers claim five batters above the .300 mark. Chuck Fisk, shortstop, tops the crew with a lusty .562 mark while Bud Shirliff and Cub Houck each boast .409 averages. Pete Goodbrod and Jim Ruggles round out the lineup with .382 and .333 marks.

The teams split in their recent two-game set at Corvallis. Vandal batting marks:—

PLAYER	AB	R	H	Pct.
McIntosh	30	10	13	.430
Brown	33	2	14	.424
G. Huffman	35	9	12	.340

Netmen Prepared For OSC, Oregon. The Vandal tennis squad left yesterday on a weekend jaunt to Oregon State and Oregon with Coach Erick Kirkland taking five men for his singles and doubles lineup.

Schober, Kuelpman, Nuenkamp, Zimmerman, and Rowles make up the traveling squad for the weekend meet—Oregon State Friday afternoon at Corvallis and University of Oregon at Eugene Saturday.

After losing to a strong WSC squad last week and again to Whitworth the next day, coach Kirkland hopes to turn the tide and make a better showing against the Oregon and Oregon State squads.

A favorable week plus some energetic playing has found the Idaho squad in better condition; and coupled with the squad's ambition, it should help the squad to do favorably in this weekend's matches.

Hell Divers Prepare For Show

By AL LEWIS

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of next week, May 8, 9, 10, will find Idaho's swimming club, the Hell-Divers, taking to the water in their annual water show. This year's show will be built around the theme, "Around the World," with a nine-act ensemble bringing out the highlights of the world.

Tickets for the show are on sale by the members of the club, but can be purchased at the door of the Memorial gymnasium pool the nights of the show.

The starting point for this year's show will be New Orleans. The spectators will go from there to Hong Kong, China; Africa; France; Spain; Hawaii; and finally back to the United States to witness Jim Moore and Byron Richards in a diving exhibition. This will be followed by Jack Ewason in his own type of diving—helling.

Last year's show was a large success, and it is expected that this year's will equal or surpass it in the acts and the way they are put on. At least, the work the actors in the ballets have put in will warrant it, and should show it.
