Donald D. (Pug) Ellis, killed June 13, while serving with the armed forces in Korea, has been awarded the Bronze Star medal posthumously. Corporal Ellis graduated from the

The University has shown in the past that it can play the part of the gracious host. Dad's Day, Homecoming, Idaho State Music Festival, Mother's Day — you name it and we've put it across. The success of these events was largely the result of a student body bent on putting its best face for all to see.

Saturday we're going to find out if Idaho students can behave themselves away from home. We're going to see if the spectacle of a Vandal football team kicking the stuffings out of the Statesiders is going to be too much for a victory starved school.

It'll be interesting to know if our gang can give the team the support it'll deserve or if most of the efforts will be devoted to refereeing from the stands.

And you can swallow that remark before you make it. We don't like rough decisions either but there were some tonsils that jumped the gun when North Dakota was here.

Both the teams will probably spend the greater part of the game in WSC's end of the field so there won't be too much chance to play "50 yards" right out where a stadium full of critical eyes can look you over.

Maybe some of you have forgotten that little accident on the Moscow Pullman highway a little while back. That's all we need this Saturday along with a few of the boys rolling down over the grandstand seats.

We'll win the ball game all right but remember who won the "moral victory" last year. It'd be nice to win them both.

And speaking of spirits, (we say laughingly in our best heavy handed style) there was a recent blood drive.

It's a fine thing to have spirit in any individual, it's healthy to have drive and determination in a group or club, but we have never seen anything to compare with the mass determination and co-operation shown in our last drive.

All you had to do was to watch the anxious looks on the faces as they scanned the bulletin board. Students who wouldn't bother to speak to each other (or didn't have the nerve) on other occasions would walk up and ask each other, "Are we going to make it?"

And incidentally, this drive was a three-day drive where last spring we held a four-day one. The bloodmobile set a record for number of pints drawn in one day, so although we didn't make it . . .

Naval Spokesman To Visit Campus

Lt. J. F. Fox from the Naval Air Station, Spokane, will be on the University campus Monday and Tuesday of next week to interview anyone interested in the Naval Aviation Cadet program.

The program is limited to unmarried men between 18 and 27 years of age who have completed at least two full academic years at an accredited college or university.

Approximately 16 months training is provided at Pensacola, Fla., and Corpus Christi, Texas. During the first year of training cadets receive $110 per month plus food, lodging and uniforms. Upon reaching advanced training they are commissioned as Ensign, USNR, or Second Lt., USMCR, and are paid $439 a month.

Lt. Fox urges any eligible student interested in this training program to contact him for an interview.

NOTICE
Homecoming and Dad's Day committee heads please meet Monday at 12:30 p.m. in the SUB lounge for Gem pictures. Important.

University of Idaho in 1951.

The citation received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lin Ellis of Moro, Oregon, reads:

"Corporal Donald D. Ellis, US 56089325, Infantry, United States Army, while a member of Company A, 179th Infantry Regiment, 45th Infantry Division, displayed heroism in action against an armed enemy, on 13 June 1952, near Pokkae, Korea.

In company strength, allied forces deployed into a skirmish line at the base of Hill 191 and moved up the slope firing furiously at Communist bunkers near the crest. When the enemy blanketed the hillside with mortar and rifle fire, it was deemed advisable to withdraw and regroup for a second assault.

Ready to Help

Corporal Ellis, an automatic rifleman, served with a rear security force which covered the movement of the men when the order to disengage was received. Told that the radioman with the platoon was hit by shell fragments, Corporal Ellis unhesitatingly moved back through the exploding missiles toward the top of the hill in order to assist his companion.

Reaching his side, however, Corporal Ellis discovered that the radioman had been fatally wounded. In order to save a valuable piece of equipment from the enemy, he then removed his protective vest and improvised a sling for transporting the radio back to the security of friendly lines. While thus exposed, Corporal Ellis was himself struck by enemy fire and mortally wounded.

The heroism and selfless devotion to the mission of his unit displayed on this occasion reflect high credit on Corporal Ellis and the military service. He entered the federal service from Idaho county.

Col. Ellis attended high school in Kooskia and graduated from the University of Idaho with a BA degree in physical education.

Bonfire To Blaze At WSC Game

A "bonfire to end bonfires" will blaze behind the SAE house tonight as students rally for the Idaho-WSC game. The rally will begin at 6:30 p.m. Original plans included the pep band truck, but it has broken down. If a truck cannot be obtained by tonight, the pep band will march down the regular rally route and the students are requested to fall in along the way.

An attempt is being made to have Kay Connolly, WSC student body president, present at the rally.

All living groups are encouraged to bring along noise makers, signs, and torches.

Artist Lauds Audience

"Idaho students are one of the most attentive audiences I have played for," said pianist Gina Buchauer at the conclusion of her concert in Memorial gym Wednesday night. The large crowd of students and townspeople were warmly enthusiastic about the playing of the famous musician.

At the close of each number Madame Buchauer received prolonged and sincere applause. When she had finished her original program she was called back for three encores. Following the concert SAI held a reception for the pianist at the music building.

Joint Rally

A joint rally of the United and Independent Parties will be held Tuesday night at 7 p.m. in the Central Ballroom of the SUB.

The purpose of this rally is to further acquaint all voters with the qualifications of the Independent and United Party candidates for class offices. These candidates have previously visited all living groups on campus in an effort to become better known to the students.

The candidates of each party will be introduced and the presidents of both caucuses will give a short talk. Dancing will terminate the rally. Late permission has been obtained for freshman women.

Queen Of Violets

Clara Armstrong, Forney hall, Friday became the SAE Queen of Violets for 1953 at the annual Violet ball given in honor of the pledge class. Red Burton's dance band played for the ball which climaxed two weeks of fraternity activities including a semi-formal dinner and moonlight serenade for the queen candidates. In her place on the velvet throne, Queen Clara was crowned by social chairman Ted McDaniels. Jan Morgan and Kay Morse were honored guests.

Students May Register In City's 8th Precinct

Mrs. O. B. Richardson, registrar for Moscow's eighth precinct, who had refused to register some University of Idaho students for the forthcoming general election, will now register them, according to a report from Chester Graham, president of the campus Young Democrat club.

The decision on the part of Mrs. Richardson, came after a telephone call from District Judge Jack McQuade at Orofino. Judge McQuade had been presented a petition for a writ of mandate by Graham to force Mrs. Richardson to register Lavere Gasser, sophomore business administration student. Judge McQuade did not sign the writ, but received the assent of Mrs. Richardson by telephone that she would register Gasser.

Met. Qualifications
It was alleged in the writ of mandate that Mrs. Richardson had refused to register Gasser last Thursday. Gasser claimed he met all qualifications for registration. He stated he was 21 years old, a citizen of the United States, a resident of Idaho for the past six months and a resident of Latah county for 30 days.

Mrs. Richardson has agreed to register all students who meet these requirements, even those she has refused in the past, Graham said. Verification of this was received by telephone from Judge McQuade.

Attorney Satisfied
Gasser's attorney in the writ was Melvin Alsager of Moscow. He reported this morning, "We are quite satisfied with the situation as it now stands. Students who meet the requirements under the state law now may register."

"The registrar of any precinct is only a ministerial officer," Alsager continued, "She has no right to pass judgment on the qualifications of an elector, except in the limited sense."

"If a person meets the minimum requirements, the registrar cannot refuse him. A voter may be challenged at the polls by the election judges, however."

The state law provides that anyone swearing falsely on registration may be convicted of perjury and given a prison sentence from one to 14 years.

Hancock To Speak To Young GOP's

The University of Idaho Young Republicans will present A. E. Hancock to speak to the students this afternoon at 4 o'clock in conference rooms A and B in the Student Union. Hancock will talk on "The UN in action."
All students and faculty members are invited to attend.

Blood Total Climbs To 5538 Pints

University of Idaho students have donated a grand total of 5538 pints of whole blood in five campus-wide blood drives, according to figures reported yesterday by Don Mitchell, blood drive chairman.

This makes an average donation of 1107 pints per drive with an average of 37.7 per cent of the student body giving blood each time. Average enrollment for the five semesters since the first drive is 3003 students.

Figures for each drive follow:
Fall, 1950 — 499 pints collected, 3273 enrollment, 15 per cent.

Spring, 1951 — 767 pints collected, 3059 enrollment, 25 per cent.

Fall, 1951 — 1014 pints collected, 3044 enrollment, 33 per cent.

Spring, 1952 — 1658 pints collected, 2830 enrollment, 58.5 per cent.

Fall, 1952 — 1600 pints collected, 2810 enrollment, 57 per cent.

Campus Activities To Be Broadcast

"Here We Have Idaho", a radio program giving campus news, activity highlights, and entertainment can be heard locally on at least two stations.

KRRL in Lewiston, 1350 on your radio dial, carries the program at 11:30 on Saturday morning. This time is especially convenient for those who are otherwise occupied at 8 p.m. Wednesday, when KRPL carries the program (1400 on dial).

Election Poll Report Given By Political Parties Class

As many students already know, Doctor Martin's political parties class has undertaken the task of running a poll of the coming national election. The class was divided into various committees responsible for interview methods, questionnaire, dividing the campus into polling sections, and tabulating and reporting.

With the results of their work just coming in, we have a sort of a "behind-the-curtain" look at the poll. As of Thursday morning, 317 students had been questioned, 111 of whom are eligible, and intending, to vote.

For the presidential preferences only, here are the results to date:

All-campus
Eisenhower	71.0%
Stevenson	24.3%
Undecided	4.7%
Eligible (intending to vote)
Eisenhower	65.8%
Stevenson	25.2%
Undecided	9.0%

This is just the beginning, and there is much more work to be done, including a final report which will attempt to break down the campus into county, living group, occupational, educational "major", and other divisions.

When the poll-takers come to you (if they haven't already) please give them a few minutes of your time. The final report will be published in Tuesday's Arg.

Idaho To Thump Washington State In Football Game At Pullman Saturday

One of modern football's major college winning streaks will be placed on the line Saturday. Washington State college's long-time dominance over University of Idaho elevens gets the strength test for the 26th time in a ball game at Pullman. Idaho hasn't tripped WSC squire in 1925, 7 to 6.

The Vandals have come close in the past two and a half decades, but Idaho has never delivered the winning punch. The Vandals tied WSC 7 to 7 in 1927 and again deadlocked the issue at 7-all in 1950—but they've never won.

Rutgers bested Princeton in 1930, the Queensmen's first victory over Tiger teams in 36 contests. In 1944, Kansas clipped Nebraska, the Jayhawk's first decision from Nebraska in 28 contests. Proof that a jinx can eventually be snapped, Idaho thinks the Cougar's non-losing string will reach the breaking-point Saturday.

Neither Idaho nor Washington State have impressive records on paper this fall. The Cougars, gloriously painted with pre-season glory, only found themselves last week when they registered their first win of the campaign, a 33 to 20 win from Oregon State. Prior to the Homecoming victory, WSC had dropped games to USC, Stanford, Baylor, and Ohio State.

Idaho, dogged by the whistle-blowers, has wins from Utah State and North Dakota State, and a tie with Utah. The Vandals were tumbled by Washington, Oregon and Santa Clara.

Final scores, however, didn't indicate the play of individual players, and in this department, Idaho and WSC have outstanding performers.

Cougar Coach Alton Kircher is expected to call upon his reliable "B&B" combination to halt the Vandals — Bob Burkhardt passing and Ed Barber receiving.

Jim Head, junior fullback from Spokane, has proved to be the most consistent ground gainer for the WSC squad this season with an average of more than five yards a carry.

Two sophomores, Duke Washington and Mert Purnell each averaged nearly five yards a carry against OSC.

The rugged WSC lines—both offense and defense—are expected to be "keyed" for the big game. Elmer Messenger, senior from Centralia is the standout on both platoons.

Coach Babe Curfman will use such stars as passer Wayne Anderson, end Jerry Ogle and jack-rabbit halfback Jay Buhler for Idaho.

On the line Ray Lewis, Pete Hester and others will attempt to halt the Cougar drives.

Neutral observers feel that the Vandals have their best chance in the last 10 seasons for winning from Washington State.

Advance ticket sales indicate that a large crowd will attend the annual Palouse classic.

Dr. Farr To Speak At WSC Monday

Dr. Lee E. Farr, chairman of the medical department of the Brookhaven national laboratory in New York will speak on "The Impact of Nuclear Science in Medicine" Monday in the WSC student union building. There will be a dinner at 6:30 p.m. and the lecture at 7:45 in room 213.

Dr. Farr will also conduct an informal seminar Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at Idaho. It will be held in conference room A of the SUB. Both the lecture and the seminar are free for all who wish to attend. There is no charge.

In his lecture, Dr. Farr says "The advances in nuclear physics over the past several years have revolutionized our knowledge in all fields of science. Nuclear reactors and radio-isotope techniques are now available for research in medicine and the biological sciences."

"Radioactive isotopes are playing an increasingly important role in the diagnosis and treatment of disease. By using these isotopes, the metabolic pathways of many compounds can be studied rapidly."

University of Oslo To Hold Seventh Summer School

The University of Oslo will hold its seventh summer school from June 27 to August 8, 1953.

While designed for American and Canadian students who have completed at least their freshman year in an accredited college or university, the summer session is open to English speaking students of other nationalities. A feature of the 1953 session will be an institute for English-speaking teachers (open to all nationalities) similar to the ones held in 1951 and 1952.

Outstanding lecturers are provided and the highest educational standards are maintained. All classes are conducted in English and an American dean of students is on the administrative staff. Students may choose courses in four fields: general survey of Norwegian culture, the humanities, social studies, and education system of Norway.

Living Quarters Provided
Single students will live in the Blindern Students hall and married couples in private homes.

Meals are served in the campus cafeteria. Afternoon field trips, museum visits, and weekend excursions are arranged. Six semester-hour credits may be earned in the six weeks course and the session is approved by the Veterans Administration. Applicants should have completed their freshman year by June 1953. A limited number of scholarships are available.

Students of the summer school will leave New York on the SS Stavangerfjord June 16, 1953. Reservations for return trips are available for August 12 and 25 and September 8 and 22, 1953.

For information write: Oslo Summer School Admissions Office, in care of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota.

Collette Tells Of Cast Production

Jean Collette, head of the University drama department, has announced the cast for the forthcoming production of Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit."

The cast will include Mary Lou LaFors as "Edith", Sharon Henderson as "Ruth", Gary Leaverton as "Charles", Stowell Johnson as "Dr. Bradman", Rosemary Rowell as "Mrs. Bradman", Shirley Lent as "Madame Arcati", and Leah Jensen as "Elvira."

The play will be given December 5 and 6.

BlueKeyHonorary Taps 14 Candidates

Idaho chapter of Blue Key, National honor fraternity, increased its ranks yesterday by tapping 14 candidates for membership in the organization.

Those tapped include Bob Holder, Bruce McIntosh, Bob Huntley, Bill Ringert, Bob Foley, Bill Nixon, and Bob Fuller.

Bill Parsons, John Thomas, Don Mitchell, Gordon Cook, Dave Lau, Dell Naser, and Ted Torok.

Moscow Attorneys Discuss

You know, as far as the Argonaut goes, we don't give one little damn who Idaho students vote for. If you decide that "You Go Pogo" that's perfectly alright with us.

But this business of students voting has given us the hottest potato to handle yet. Maybe it's our own fault that the issue has become such an issue. Frankly, we doubt it.

But we went down town today to talk to a couple of prominent attorneys as well as the prosecutor. Being a number of things exclusive of the term lawyer, we didn't pretend to be able to tell you what that legal opinion in the last Arg boils down to.

We do know this. We're confused. We presume a lot of you are too. But we did find out something that carries a sting and we're going to pass it on.

I had the following quoted to me: "Every person who, upon his right to vote being challenged at any election held under the laws of this state, wilfully, corruptly and falsely swears touching his qualifications as a voter, is guilty of perjury."

(There was no mention of the moral wrong involved.)
Secondly, "Perjury is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one or more than fourteen years."

All the attorneys had this to say also. Students living in Moscow or on the campus who had little more than "intent to take up residence here" had best forget it.

The students who were obviously settled here would certainly be able to vote and were asked to do so.

The students who are on the borderline will have to have their cases decided individually by the election judges. (If challenged.)
It was one attorney's opinion on these lines that the election judges will have to base their judgment of wilful wrong on opinions or conclusions rather than on facts. We wouldn't know. The following examples may prove of value in determining your qualifications:
John Jones of Burley is a student at the college who will be twenty-one for the election. He is single, his father pays most of the bills, and after he graduates he will return to Burley. He shouldn't be allowed to vote.
Bill Smith, married student and veteran, two children, living in Moscow and on his own since the war, has been attending school under the GI bill. He doesn't know where he will go after he graduates but Moscow is home to him. He should be allowed to vote. Have we helped??—Ed.

Drink-Drive-Die

Attention car owners: You all are probably aware of the fact that the WSC-Idaho game this weekend is going to be at Pullman. This means there is going to be a lot of traffic on the road between here and there, and traffic always means accidents.

Only a few weeks ago there was a death on that road because of alcohol and every person traveling that road this weekend should keep this fact in mind. It may be hard to go to a football game on a crisp autumn day without a jug, but it's still harder to recover from injuries received in an accident because of a jug.

There are going to be lots of people in the stadium over there avoiding the cold through use of artificial means, but if you have a car parked in the lot over there, just remember when you get ready to take that drink that the people who are with you are your responsibility when they are in that car.

Another thing to keep in mind is that you are not going to be the only car on the road with freedom to tear around at 75 or 80 miles per. With the traffic the way it is going to be, moderate speeds should be observed and anyone who has had a few nips from the flask is always addicted to speed.

Remember that drinking and driving don't mix and be careful coming and going to that game. There are going to be many cars on that road during the day and a death hanging over your head because you were not capable of handling a car is something hard to forget.

Remember: If you drink don't drive—If you drive don't drink. —BMOC

Hallow'en To Be Improved By New "Thrill" Equipment

This Hallow'en promises to be something different because word has been received that the Horrible Hags society has issued new equipment.

First on the list are the new jet-propelled broom sticks. Larger and lighter, they are equipped with parachutes and contour chairs for safety and comfort. Also, broom sticks of the chief goblins will have bloody band aids attached to the straw end for identification purposes.

Phonograph recordings of blood-curdling screams have been made at Idaho football games and a fine collection of death shrieks has been recorded from the sound immediately following decisions wherein the officials used their "judgment."

Odorous, chlorophyll-treated jack-o-lanterns are on the market and, since these have been remodeled, you may see them sporting either Ike's or Adlai's features. The Hags Society, incidentally, is non-committal as to its chance.

New Style Capes Negligee style black capes are in vogue for all hauntings this season. They are equipped with zippers so that they can all be featured together and held up in front of the moon to cut off its rays. This makes for a darker night for devilment. Also, since many members of the society came up with shot arms in spring training, sling-shot pockets have been added to the capes, thereby saving badly needed throwing arms.

From the cauldron department comes a new recipe which promises to be a killer. It is called strange sauce, and is applied to apples intended for ducking games. Upon touching an apple treated with the new strange sauce, the contestant's lips are held fast by some invisible power and the apple sinks, taking the contestant with it.

It looks like a grim evening is in store for us.

VAN FLEET FIRED President Truman has relieved General James Van Fleet of his command according to a report from "The Daily News," a New York newspaper. In a Washington dispatch, the News says, "The official orders are to be kept secret until after the voting next Tuesday."

General Van Fleet, Korean Eighth army commander, was quoted by candidate Dwight Eisenhower as stating in a letter that South Koreans should be trained for front-line duty in Korea. The letter had been written to a former chief of staff in Washington.

The first study of logic in the Western world is believed to have been developed in ancient Greece.

Band Has Big Program For WSC-Idaho Game

The University of Idaho band is likely to steal the half-time show at tomorrow's much-discussed WSC-Idaho game, according to Director Warren T. Bellis' description of the plan which the band will use.

The marching pattern devised by Director Bellis will be as follows: The Idaho band has been given the first number at the half. They will march onto the field from the south, forming two blocks which will face one another, then face about and march to opposite ends of the field where one will form a "W" and the other an "I".

The "I" does an about face and plays part of "Go, Vandals, Go," and the "W" will turn and play the Washington fight song. Since the "I" will be formed by the brass and the "W" by the woodwinds, the majority of the noise will probably come from the "I" end of the field.

Both units will then march to the center of the field and mingle, rearranging themselves to form a much larger "I" and a very small "W", the latter of which will hobble feebly off the field.

The climax of the piece is reached as the band forms a question mark, followed by an I-K-E and an A-D.

KUNZ STUDIES DENTISTRY Cleon Kunz, 1952 University graduate, is registered for the fall term at the Loyola University Dental school in Chicago, where he has been accepted for a four year course in dentistry.

THANK

I would like to thank all of the people who made the past campus blood drive so successful. I have never worked with any project in which people have been so eager to help.

I would like to extend special thanks to my committee, Don McCabe, assistant chairman; Hazel Tomlinson, secretary; Harriet Holton, scheduling; Phyllis Gestron, typists; Lois Bush, publicity; Mrs. McGee, nurses' aides; Mrs. Buchanan, volunteer nurses; and the various living group representatives.

Thanks, also, to the Spurs, I.K.s, Dames club, Faculty Women's club, and other groups who helped.

And last, but absolutely not least, thanks to the 1785 students who donated blood or attempted to do so.

Sincerely,
Don Mitchell

Frank Barton, a law school graduate of the University who has just been discharged from the army, recently visited Dean Stimson.

Barton served in Korea as a Judge Advocate General, officiating at trials at the command post, only six miles from the front line. It was often necessary, said Barton, to carry out investigations in the trenches.

Before being recalled into the army, Barton was associated with Parry, Kernan, Robertson and Daly law firm of Twin Falls.

Audience Moved By "Moon And Sixpence"

The ASUI movie, "Moon and Sixpence", was viewed yesterday with mixed emotions as the audience saw Charles Strickland, as portrayed by George Sanders, create and then destroy his greatest masterpiece with which he sought to express his soul. The dramatic presentation of the fictionalized life of Paul Gauguin left the parting crowds in deep thought.

Strickland believed that it was preposterous that women should have a soul, and he smashes the woman he knew much as he had his greatest creation in art burned.

Finally in primitive Tahiti he found the atmosphere and color which he had long sought to fulfill the expression of his soul in his painting. Here, too, he found a young Tahitian woman whom he finally realized he loved.

Herbert Marshall as the young novelist friend of Strickland narrated the story of the artist's life. A select group of character actors highlighted the various incidents in Strickland's life. Contrary to Hollywood's usual policy the Somerset Maugham book was quite closely followed by the movie plot.

The next feature in the ASUI cinema series will be the German Patronize Argonaut Advertisers

Document Shows Palouse Feud Isn't New

Unearthed from deep in the Army ROTC archives this week was a document which would indicate that Idaho-WSC rivalry is not a thing of recent origin.

The document, dated June 16, 1897, is a hand-written "annual report of the military department, University of Idaho" executed in brilliant penmanship by First Lt. Edward R. Chrisman, (later General Chrisman for whom the dormitory is named).

Item number 129 of the annual report asks the question, "Is it practicable for military organizations of neighboring colleges to encamp together?"

Lieut. Chrisman's answer to this question was phrased thusly: "It was intended to have a joint encampment with the battalion Washington Agriculture College, Pullman, but it was prevented by the fact that amicable relations did not exist between the two athletic organizations."

It was intended to have a joint encampment with the battalion Washington Agriculture College, Pullman, but it was prevented by the fact that amicable relations did not exist between the two athletic organizations."

New sound equipment is being purchased for the Borah theater and should be here for the next film.

DEAR JASON

Dear Jason,

To qualify ourselves, we must first state that we are merely two more of the many thousands of university students in the United States. We are not perfect or infallible but we are learning. We do feel, however, that there are certain basic fundamentals that should be pointed out to those who will be voting for the first time.

The majority of the students do not fully understand or appreciate the extent of power of their one vote. In a large proportion of cases they will, no doubt, vote as their fathers voted before them, giving little thought to the fact that each human is an individual, giving less thought to the issues at hand and giving no thought to the fact that each human, as an individual, has no ties of blood or friendship upon the political thinking of that individual.

We would like to ask these new voters to seriously consider the situation at hand. If these voters will realize that the right to vote is not merely an item of patriotism or another chance to wave the flag but a serious obligation, which when used without discretion, can have dire consequences, then we feel that "thinking vote" will be well placed.

Each and every intelligent vote is important. It is "the grain of sand that with its brothers, goes to make up the beach."

It makes no difference to us whether that one vote is of any particular political belief, so long as that vote is cast. We feel that if each voter will think before casting his vote, that vote will be to the best interest of the entire nation. To analyze that statement: Any vote cast following the prejudices of family ties or the emotional "pull" of any candidate, without serious thinking, will possibly elect a man which later analysis will prove to be unfit. (Editor's note: At my request Ernie Olson and Bill Clark, co-sports editors for the WSC campus paper, Evergreen, have written a guest column for today's Arg. The subject is of course the big game.) Well, it looks like the annual battle for the championship of the Palouse country tomorrow has all the earmarks of a rough, do-or-die contest for the Cougars from Pullman.

Those nasty Vandals have been giving the impression that they are out to beat the boys from across the state line, and it appears that they just might have the team to do it. After 25 years of defeating Idaho eleven, we hate to think of what would happen on the Cougar campus if the Vandals came out on the long end of the score!

All kinds of rumors have been circulating concerning the Cougars' dismal showing up to this point, and we would like to clarify some of these remarks and also give a few reasons why we think the Crimson and Gray squad has lost four out of five ball games so far this season.

One of the worst things that can happen to any football team is too much publicity. And, as everyone can plainly see, that's exactly what the Cougars got. Before the season started several of the sportswriters and broadcasters bally-hooed the WSC eleven into the Pacific Coast Conference championship and into a bed of roses. This was supposed to be one of the greatest Cougar teams in the history of the school.

But what they forgot to mention was the fact that the squad would be minus several of its most dependable ball players! Guys like Gene Reiger, wirey guard; Landy James, bulldozer tackle; "Bread and Butter" Byron Bailey; and Bud Roffler, the backfield handyman, were the big boys on last season's ball club and they are pretty hard to replace. Sure, it looked like the Cougars were going to be a strong, well-balanced team, but its pretty hard to smell roses with the inexperienced reserves that came up from last year's frosh squad to fill the empty spots on the bench.

To most fans this has been a disappointing season so far. But a quick look at what has actually been happening behind those lopsided scores will reveal the fact that a gentleman named Al Kircher isn't doing bad at all.

The Cougars were beaten by USC in their opener 35 to 7. The Trojans last week convinced even the most die-hard doubters that they have one of the best teams in the nation, when they white-washed California 10 to 0. And, according to most observers, USC wasn't four touchdowns better than the Cougars.

This loss took a lot out of Kircher's men. One of the biggest things was their spirit. They showed it the next Saturday when they came home to play host to Stanford. For one quarter that Saturday, there was only one football team on the field—and it wasn't Stanford. But it takes four full quarters of good football to win from Stanford, so the Indians went home with a 14 to 13 victory. The stock in spirit among the Cougars, meanwhile, went down several more points.

Against Baylor, Washington State suffered their worst defeat of the year. The score was 31 to 7. WSC has been beaten by bigger scores than that in two other games, but in this one the Cougars lost the game in every respect. Another look at the football scores, however, will indicate that Baylor is having a good year. WSC was beaten by a good ball club.

In their next game, the deflated Cougars went to Columbus, Ohio, to get knocked over by Ohio State. The week before, the Buckeyes had upset what had been the nation's number one team, Wisconsin. They weren't going to let any thrice-defeated west coast team get in their way, and they didn't. The final score read 35 to 7. WSC's coaching staff reviewed the movies of this game and concluded that Ohio State was lucky to get away with a win. Washington State played even ball with the Buckeyes on all except five plays. Those five capitalized on the Cougar's weak pass defense to give the Ohioans five touchdowns via passing.

Last Saturday, 14,000 homecoming fans watched the Cougars play loggy ball for three quarters against Oregon State. Then the monster came to life and in one quarter WSC scored four times to give them a 33 to 20 win over the Beavers. The team showed the spirit, the precision, the fight that has been expected of them all season. At the end of the game the players carried Al Kircher across the field to the Oregon State bench. This was a symbol of the faith that the team has in Kircher. A lot of people have questioned the Cougar mentor's ability, but when he got that free trip across the gridiron Saturday, the skeptics knew that there was no question about the way Kircher's players feel.

And now it's Idaho. The Vandals, who outplayed Oregon but lost. The Vandals, who have beaten Utah State. The Vandals, who lost to Santa Clara by a very thin hair last week. Will they be able to break a jinx that has been hovering over the Idaho campus for 25 long years and roll over the mighty Cougar? Olson and Clark don't think so.

Challenge
OLSON AND CLARK, IN FACT, ARE BETTING ALL THEIR HARD-EARNED REUBALS THAT THE VANDALS WILL ONCE AGAIN BOW TO BUTCH, AND THIS TIME BY TWO TOUCH-DOWNS.

WE BELIEVE THAT THE COUGARS WILL WIN, AND WE BELIEVE IT STRONGLY ENOUGH TO EXTEND A LITTLE WAGER TO DON THEOPHILUS, OUR COLLEAGUE, TO THE EFFECT THAT, IF THE VANDALS SHOULD TURN AWAY THE HANDS OF FATE AND DEFEAT WSC, WE WILL JOIN THE CROWD THAT MAKES THE ANNUAL WALK BETWEEN MOSCOW AND PULLMAN.

Challenge Accepted
A new fad has hit the WSC campus. Followers of Butch have taken a sudden and insane interest in hiking. It's a good thing too, since the sport should bring them more fame than their football team.

Clark and Olson—of course the challenge is accepted, with pride and a thumping of the Vandal chest. This year IS the year. Idaho will humble the Cougar by seven points and shame and humiliation will sadden the most ardent of Pullman Rose Bowl followers.

Take comfort in the fact that you are going to be beaten by a better team (again). It won't be easy for the Cougars have a better club and coach than the scores indicate. But Babe Curfman's eleven has the spirit, determination and ability to do what hasn't been done in 26 years.

WHEN THE FINAL WHISTLE SOUNDS THE IDAHO FANS, AND THERE WILL BE HUNDREDS, WILL STORM FROM THE STANDS AND SURROUND THE TEAM THAT HAS FINALLY BROKEN THE JINX.

The only "walk over" for you, Olson and Clark, will be a walk over to Idaho. See ya!

Many Injuries Hurt Chances For Frosh Football Victory

Football rivalry between WSC and Idaho gets underway this afternoon when frosh squads from both schools battle at Neale stadium starting at 1:45 p.m.

The game will be a preview of the varsity clash tomorrow. Idaho students will be admitted on their activity cards. Others will be charged admission.

Two weeks ago the Vandal Babes traveled to Pullman and lost a high-scoring contest, 20-33. This time they hope to be as good hosts. Idaho's chances for a victory are dark. Coach Mack Flenniken has no less than ten men on the injured or doubtful starter list. Eddie Allison, Del Lewis, Bill Haxton and Stan Potts are all on the shelf with sprained ankles.

Gerry Rohwein still has a hurt kidney; Pete DeLong has a bum knee, Paul Hanson has been sick all week and Dick Fray is out for the year with a concussion.

Bill Reed, kickoff specialist who looked so good the first game, has dropped out of school. Chuck Schoonover is limping badly and hasn't had any scrimmage for two weeks.

Backfield and linemen have been learning two positions in case anybody else gets hurt. Flenniken will use a semi-platoon when possible.

The frosh mentor says the squad's morale is high and all abedded morales are itching to go. "It's hard to say how we'll do with so many men gone," he said.

Defense and tackling have been emphasized all week. It was the hard-charging WSC backs that caused so much trouble at Pullman.

Big stars for the Cou-Babes are Jim Bauer, halfback from Wapato; and Caughan Hitchcock, 6 foot, 195-pound fullback from Hayward, California.

Here is the probable starting lineup for Idaho:

And All Of Them From Idaho

Frosh footballers are looking for win number one and revenge when they play the Cougar Babes today. Pictured are 12 of the Vandal yearlings. Some are injured and won't play but the rest will be in the thick of it. (Front: left to right) Bill Haxton, Genesee; Gene White, Moscow; Keith Jensen, Twin Falls; Wally Simpson, Ketchum; Dick Lamphier, Genesee; and Paul Hanson of Potlatch. (Back) Eddie Allison, Twin Falls; Jerry Mushlitz, Hansen; Elmer Filler, Coeur d'Alene; Del Lewis, St. Anthony; Larry Gorrell, Gooding; and Ray Bittner of Buhl.

THEFT RASH
A wave of petty theft has swept the publications' offices at the University of Minnesota. The campus police force threatened three suspects with a lie detector test, then took it all back and apologized. The mystery is unsolved.

Tennis
Barry Rust of Eagle and Anchor took the tennis championship Monday by defeating Francis Schultz of DTD.

Final points in the tennis play offs show DTD leading with 100 points, WSH second with 97, Eagle and Anchor and PDT third with 92.5 points.

HAVING TROUBLE WITH YOUR FAMILY BUDGET?

Maybe this will help explain why...
Total 1952 tax bill for average American family with income of:

	$3,500 PER YEAR ($67.30 per week)	$4,500 PER YEAR ($86.54 per week)	$7,500 PER YEAR ($144.23 per week)	$15,000 PER YEAR ($288.46 per week)
Federal income tax.	$295	$446	$839	$2,516
State and local income tax.	4	9	30	90
State and Federal corporation income taxes which average family pays indirectly in the prices of the products it buys.	249	354	769	1,584
Sales and excise taxes. (Retail sales taxes; taxes on cigarettes, liquor, cosmetics, gasoline, leather goods, etc.)	302	378	634	1,202
Contributions for social insurance.	140	159	207	294
Property taxes. (If a family rents its home, farm or apartment, it may not pay all these taxes directly. But it pays them indirectly, for the landlord has to include them when he sets the rental price.)	104	144	285	808
Estate, gift and inheritance taxes.	4	4	37	124
AVERAGE FAMILY'S TOTAL TAX BILL THIS YEAR	$1,098	$1,494	$2,801	$6,618

DO YOU KNOW?

That more than 3 dollars in taxes of all kinds will be collected this year for every 2 dollars that were collected in 1949.
That almost 10 dollars in taxes of all kinds will be collected this year for every 6 dollars that were collected in 1945—the peak year of World War II.
That almost 4 dollars in taxes of all kinds will be collected this year for every 1 dollar that was collected in 1942.
That, on the average, approximately 1 dollar out of every 4 dollars you pay for gasoline in the West goes for State and Federal taxes.
