New Stanford Tradition

(Editor's note: The following was borrowed from the Stanford Daily.)

For a long time now we've heard a lot of shouting about tradition on this campus. From your first wing meeting in Encina to that last little get-together in Frost Amphitheater, all you hear is "tradition." "Tradition is the bond that unites the Stanford Family."

You hear about the Doodles Weaver tradition, and the No Butts on Quad tradition, the Little Dog on the Football Field tradition, the Never Give the Axe Yell tradition.

There's the Say Hello to Every body tradition, the Reg Dances Are Lousy tradition, and the Nine Out of Ten Girls in the State Are Good Looking and the Tenth One Goes to Stanford tradition.

Traditionally, Speeches Made - Nothing but people making speeches, about tradition, people working on Traditions Week, people working to avoid Traditions Week . . . AND YOU NEVER HEARD A WORD ABOUT THE GREATEST TRADITION OF ALL! - the one that has made Stanford what it is today (bankrupt) - the one that always sent Stanford men to the front (St. Mihiel, Iowa Jima, Korea) . . . THE BIG GAME NIGHT IS DUTCH TRADITION!!!!

Being that Big Game Night is now exactly one month away, and being that I'm a real wheel around here (I'm the only guy that's ever been rejected by Rally Com seven different times), I now proclaim the time from October 11 to November 11 shall henceforth be celebrated with fasting and prayer as SEGDOG Month . . . (She Either Goes Dutch or Gets Ditched).

Only Ry-krisp and Bach Beer shall be eaten during this period in honor of the Stanford men of yesteryear who gave their lives to start this holy tradition.

Don't fail them, men!

"Make SEGDOG Success" - Let's make SEGDOG Month a success and show the world we respect our Stanford heritage, and its sacred traditions.

Speaking of traditions, I notice Stanford women are taking their annual beating. Every year when school opens and the roughs come back sleek and fat from their green home pastures, it's the same story here! "gee! what spooks we got around here!"

Walk into any tong on the Row and you'll think you've stumbled on a bunch of 4-H clubbers, the way the conversation runs to "pigs!" But the worst are the freshmen. They moan so loud the first few weeks, you'd think they were trapped in a monastery.

But it always tickles an old-timer like me to hear how their tune changes about the middle of the quarter. About that time, of course, the malcontents are beginning to resemble unicorns. Their summer recollections don't make such good company on Saturday nights any more, and the stock of Stanford women starts a steady soar that lasts till June.

Of course, by the time you've been here a decade or so nothing matters. You stand at Engineering Corner when you're a freshman and watch them go by and you'll swear there aren't five cute ones in the school. Then as a sophomore, you'll be surprised to see quite a few winsome little numbers go by. By the time you're a junior

Shelf Of Career Information Added To University Library

By Joan Welsh

Recently added to the numerous services offered students by the University library is the career alcove, located on the second floor directly adjacent to the magazine racks.

Hundreds of occupations are described between the covers of the books, pamphlets, and leaflets that are here made available to students.

Career, this is a book title year-book for 1953, is probably one of the most up to date available. It contains information concerning the broad business fields, naming specific large companies and what they have to say concerning their personnel.

It also contains two special types of indexes—one which tells the types of work that are available in the states in which a person may wish to secure a position.

The second type, a scholastic index, tells the companies that may be interested in your particular major field of study. For instance, one who majors in business can look that up in the index and find the page references of the companies that need someone who has had training along that line.

The brown pamphlets published by The Institute for Research give a complete description of almost any career that one could name. The topics covered in them are: a definition of the occupation, its history, the advantages, disadvantages, qualifications, salaries, and the variety of jobs that are open within that career.

DRINKING
By Unanimous

People grasping
Cocktail glasses
Stand in grasping
Teeming masses.
People smoking,
People drinking,
Coughing, choking,
Getting stinking,
Some discreetly
Boiled or fried;
Some completely
Ossified.
Liquor spilling,
Trousers sopping,
Steady swilling,
Bodies drooping,
Glasses falling
On the floor,
People calling,
"Drop some more."
Bodies steaming,
Morals stretching,
Women screaming,
Freshmen retching.
Heavy smoking,
Air gets thicker,
Someone croaking,
"No more liquor!"
What! What!!!
No.
More
Liquor. . . .
People snicker,
Unbelieving,
"No more liquor!"
Let's be leaving.
No more drinking,
Groans and hisses!
What a stinking
Party this is.

1-Arm Driving Frowned Upon

The state traffic safety education office at Boise frowns on the common practice of one-armed driving. Here's what they have to say about it:

"To many people the term 'one-arm driving' means romantic distraction while driving. But there's another form of one arm driving that is also dangerous.

"It's the too common practice of driving with the right hand alone at the wheel, while the left arm rests idly on the ledge of the open window with the hand dangling uselessly or perhaps clutching the top of the window.

"There's no romance here—just false confidence in that right hand — or, as most often the case, just plain laziness. Any driver should realize that he cannot control his vehicle as well with one hand as with two and that trouble can sometimes strike before there is time to get that other hand working.

"The safest car is no safer than its driver makes it on the road or street. Left-handed or right-handed, one arm driving gives safety only half a chance."

Requirements For Korean Vets Listed By Local VA Office

Korean veterans on the G.I. bill must comply with requirements laid down by the bill or delays will occur in the issuance of eligibility and payment of monthly education allowances, announced the Veterans Administration recently.

Veterans must supply all information requested on the VA application form. Applications must specify the degree or objective sought, and include a list of courses required to meet the course objective and the name of the school the veteran plans to attend.

The enrollment certification submitted by the school to the VA, listing the veteran's courses, must conform with the courses listed on the certificate issued to the veteran.

The monthly joint certification by the school and veteran as to his presence in training must be completed and submitted to the VA promptly at the end of each month.

The VA cautioned veterans to make a definite decision about the training they desire before obtaining a certificate of eligibility and entering a school, because the new law permits only one change of course after training has started.

Under the Korean G.I. training program veterans receive an educational allowance from the VA, from which he pays tuition and other expenses. Certifications received by the 10th of the succeeding month, usually will permit payment of training allowances by the 20th.

Idaho Forester On Committee

Representing the University of Idaho on the newly created Inland Empire Forest Research advisory committee is Ernest Wohletz, associate director of the Idaho Forest, Wildlife and Range Experiment station. At the first meeting of the advisory committee at Spokane recently, Wohletz was selected vice-chairman. The committee represents federal agencies, universities, state agencies and private lumbering interests.

The University forester is one of six Idahoans named by George M. Jemison of Missoula, director of the Northern Rocky Mountain Forest and Range Experiment station to the advisory group.

He: "There's a long tunnel ahead. Are you afraid?"
She: "Not if you take the cigar out of your mouth."

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste and LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

Be Happy-GO LUCKY!

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges, reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

From coast to coast in campus votes, We've found what students like—For cleaner, fresher, smoother taste, They go for Lucky Strike!

Four-H Activities In State Benefit From Many Gifts

Four-H activities in the state will benefit from a variety of gifts to the University of Idaho, President J. E. Buchanan announced today following formal acceptance by the board of regents.

Donated by the Sears Roebuck Foundation for 4-H livestock projects are 25 head of purebred Southdown sheep to be placed in Latah and Nez Perce counties, and $925 for the purchase of four head of purebred heifers.

The foundation will also provide $1,500 for a sheep project in eastern Idaho, pending approval of the program and location of animals by extension agents.

Other 4-H gifts: $500 from the State Forester for prizes in the "Keep Idaho Green" project; jelly making equipment and a $100 college scholarship to the state champion, General Foods Corp.; $140 for scholarships to contest winners, Idaho State Florist association.

Trip to national 4-H Club congress for state winner in junior leadership contest, J. C. Penny Company, Inc.; 10 copies of "Weeds of California" for reference texts for club leaders.

Also the Pritchard pledge scholarship award was presented to Jim Koecker by Mr. Pritchard of the Art department. Guest speaker was Mr. Frank Young.

The highlight of the week at Phi Kappa Tau was a fireside held Friday night following the Idaho-Washington game. Attending were some twenty-five couples who danced to some of the top bands of the nation as provided by records of president Bill Brown.

Last night the girls houses in which a Phi Tau pin resides were serenaded by the house in its annual sweetheart serenade. Guests for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. William Logan.

An electric sign now shining at night in the front of the house was the new improvement added to the house during the past week. HAYS HALL

Trudy Harvey and LoVonne Wilson are candidates for the hall for the Esquire Girl title.

Sunday dinner guests were Iris Fisher, Dale Robertson, Bill Exworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pearson, Emmett Nordlund and Jesse Osier.

Wednesday's exchange was with Delta Tau Delta.

Weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Duffy, parents of Darlene Duffy, and Mary Leigh from Spokane.

DeForest Tovey was the Sunday dinner guest. Wednesday's exchange was with the Campus club.

Shirley Anderson and Arlene Cooper who are nurses in training at Deaconess in Spokane, were weekend guests of Carol Rojan.

Plans are being made for moving into the new dormitory, Steel house, soon.

ENGAGEMENTS McCabe-Crossley The engagement of Maxine McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCabe, Ellensburg, Wash., and Ron Crossley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Crossley, Rigby, was announced Sunday at a candle-light dinner at Hays hall.

The ring was in a nosegay of daffodils and tulips on the guest table. Daffodils and tulips made up the table centerpiece.

The announcements were in the form of tiny kites with a verse on each ending in "... through all our days and all kinds of weather." The tail of the kites were printed with "Max and Ron."

Maxine is majoring in English education and Crossley is majoring in agriculture. He lives at the LDS house.

The couple plans a June wedding. Guests were Joann Jacobs, Gen

Dr. R. E. Hosack will moderate the panel made up of Dr. H. H. Caldwell, department of geography and geology, and Commander Horace Ayres, NROTC.

Mary Zaehringer Is New Appointee Mary Zaehringer of Philadelphia has been named home economist for the University agriculture experiment station to conduct research in home economics, President J. E. Buchanan announced today following regent approval of the appointment.

Miss Zaehringer will replace Dr. Ella Woods, retired. The appointment has been made effective July 15, so that Miss Zaehringer can complete her doctorate work at Cornell university.

Coming to the University July 1 under a research fellowship sponsored by the Ogden Grain exchange will be Hyrum G. Johnson, who is now studying at Utah State Agricultural college. Service assistants named were Z. L. Pearson, Jr., Nampa, in social science, and George A. Poulos, in education, both University alumni.

Resignations include those of Evelyn Akkerman, instructor in secretarial studies; Carl R. Burns, journalism instructor; Althea Hammargren, home demonstration agent of Boundary county, and Earl V. Horning and Charles A. Simkins, assistant agronomists.

Still a Chance Those who feel there is still a chance for peace, tend to pin their hopes on: a revolution in the USSR and its satellites; Soviet fear of Western power; U.S. "patience and diplomacy"; Eisenhower; and "A turning back," as one student puts it, "to religion and God."

But a coed at Trinity college, D. C., sums up the feeling of many students when, having granted there's a chance for peace, she adds, "But it will take a miracle."

SYRIA: A SCHOOL SHORTAGE Syria, with a population of about four million, has one state university, with a 2,400 enrollment, — and an engineering college with an enrollment of 86. The state University of Damascus is located in former military barracks which the French abandoned in 1943.

IRAN: THERE ARE WAYS When the law school at Teheran university admitted only 250 out of 1,500 applicants, law students went on a protest strike. Other students joined them. After several days of the strike, the law school gave in, upped its acceptance quota from 250 to 800.

CLASSIFIED DRIVING TO BOISE Friday, will take a party of 3 or 4. Lew Kinzelberger, 106 S. Lilly Street. Phone: 5345.

When Grover talks to his dreamboat — something clicks

A call from Dreamboat always clicks with Grover. And an Automatic Message Accounting machine has been clicking too — down in the telephone office — busily punching impressions on a paper tape.

You may be interested in what this ingenious recorder does. It keeps track of what telephone number you called, how long you talked, and records this information in such a way that another machine can automatically prepare a monthly bill.

The development of this new automatic accounting machine is the result of teamwork by Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and the telephone companies. Telephone people working on this and other interesting and important projects were in college just a short time ago. Perhaps you'd like to join them.

Your Placement Officer can give you details about employment opportunities in the Bell System. Or write to American Telephone & Telegraph Company, College Relations Section, 195 Broadway, New York 7, N. Y., for a copy of the booklet, "Looking Ahead."
