Student Charged With Bribe Attempt By Attorney In Criminal Complaint

Richard Shoup, University student who last week filed a complaint of battery against Moscow attorney Murray Estes, was arrested by city police yesterday on a criminal complaint signed by the Moscow attorney.

Shoup is charged with attempting to compound a crime, a felony. The complaint alleges that the student "did solicit the payment to him by Murray Estes . . . a sum of money ranging between a maximum of $6,000 and a minimum of $2,500 in return for the . . . abstain from filing or prosecuting" a criminal charge.

Shoup Levels Third Charge At Attorney

A third complaint against Moscow attorney Murray Estes was filed last week in another round of legal proceedings growing out of an alleged altercation between Estes and Richard Shoup, University student, last December. Two previous charges against Estes, alleging assault with a deadly weapon, were dismissed by Justice of the Peace John Borg last January.

The new complaint, the second filed by Shoup, alleges that Estes "did . . . batter the person of one Richard Shoup by the use of force and violence by . . . striking the said Richard Shoup a blow on the face."

The complaint charges the offense was committed about 8 p.m. in the Perch, campus restaurant. Estes pleaded not guilty in the court of Justice of the Peace Kent Power and the case was transferred to the court of Probate Judge Martinson on an affidavit of prejudice. A defendant may file one affidavit of prejudice against a Justice of the Peace if he does not desire to have his case heard by that court.

The original charge was by Shoup January 12 charging assault with a deadly weapon. The charge was dismissed by Justice of the Peace John Borg when the prosecutor and witnesses appeared in one court while the Justice, Estes and his attorney appeared in another.

The second charge claiming assault with a deadly weapon against E. G. Greene of the Perch was filed a week later by county prosecutor Alsager but was dismissed by Justice Borg on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

Shoup was brought to the court of Justice of the Peace Kent Power Saturday and asked time to obtain legal advice. A preliminary hearing has been set for next Saturday at the Moscow police station. Shoup was released without bond on his "own recognizance" which means in essence that the defendant recognizes the charge against his person and will appear in court at the time specified.

Captain T. W. Thomas, commandant of the navy ROTC at the University, has said that he is "backing this boy (Shoup) to the limit. His parents live in the East and I am going to see that he has the best possible defense." Shoup is an NROTC student from McKeesport, Pa.

The complaint goes on to charge that "defendant stated the fact to be that he was advised by law students at the University of Idaho law school, and by an advisor of his college fraternity, that such sum would be paid." The "sum" here refers to the amount of money that the complaint charges Shoup tried to collect.

It says further that . . . "thereafter, and following the refusal of the said Murray Estes to pay any sum whatsoever in return for such promise by the defendant to abstain from such prosecution, said defendant did in fact sign and swear under oath to a complaint in Latah County, Idaho, charging the said Murray Estes with a felony, which charge was false and unfounded in fact."

ASCE To Meet In SUB Thursday

The ASCE will hold a meeting Thursday April 16 at 7 p.m. in the Borah room of the SUB.

"Tic and Toc," campus comedians, will present one of their acts and a film about the Alva B. Adams diversion tunnel will follow a short business meeting. The spring picnic will be discussed.

All civil engineers are invited whether they are affiliated with ASCE or not.

Stern To Be Featured On Community Concert

Violinist Isaac Stern will appear at Pullman Wednesday, April 15, at 8 p. m., as one of a series of Moscow-Pullman community concerts. The concert will be held in Bohler gym on the WSC campus. No admission will be charged.

Stern is credited with the presentation of some of the most important new works in the violin repertoire.

Two seasons ago he world-premiered the violin concerto of William Schuman with the Boston Symphony and is also responsible for the first performance of the Hindemith "Sonata-1939."

Stern is the only American violinist in the last decade who has risen from the ranks to the exclusive hierarchy of top-flight fiddlers. His itinerary lists more than 123 concerts and covers at least three continents per season. He has been acclaimed in Europe, South America, and Israel as well as the United States.

Stern says he has no difficulty including a variety of music in a program. "I like music's many facets. The classics, because they are great and universal; the moderns, because they say something to me and our times."

Alexander Zakin, pianist, will assist Stern with his program.

Other seniors elected to Phi Beta Kappa were Richard Bower, Bill Boyden, Jr., James Briggs, James Costley, Thomas Hearn, Ruth Dimond, Sheila Janssen, Clarice Sampson, Mary Rae Thompson, Herman Rosse, and William Taylor, Jr.

Four juniors also elected to the honorary included John Rond, Rex Eikum, Don McCabe, and David Thompson.

Our managing editor advises us that a round object rolling into the office with a piece of smoking string attached should be viewed with alarm. He might have a point there but we think he's kidding.

We ran across a coed in the Bucket the other day who apparently wasn't kidding, that is. Before our shocked eyes she methodically tore the paper she was reading, to shreds. Now, we understand that certain issues will make a firebrand out of the most stable of people, but that was practically sacrilege. Even if our views on dark-horse candidates and hero worship don't coincide, she shouldn't have done it. We might have come out of the encounter with a complex.

Speaking of candidates and strangers in town, it was cast up to us that our present managing editor is a transfer from a junior college. That's right. He is. He was selected by the publications council because it was felt that he stood head and shoulders above other juniors competing for the office both in aptitude and newspaper know-how.

If you think that newspaper technique and political qualifications can be compared, you may have a point. For our money, they are two different fields and no comparison is possible. And if you think that it's right to try and promote a candidate or candidates that have not put in their tour of duty in the field of underclass endeavor, you have our permission to go ahead and vote for them.

Due to space limitations, we have chosen to answer a letter in the Political Forum here, rather than try to squeeze it in on page two.

"It would take too much space to go into all the ramifications of the voting system used, but here briefly is the way the system operates, as we understand it.

The ASUI president is chosen by a simple plurality. In other words, the presidential candidate receiving the highest number of votes is elected no matter how many votes are tallied by his opponents as a group.

The Executive Board is chosen by the preferential system. You mark your ballot for the candidates in order of your preference, the one you think is the best man receiving your first place vote, your next choice receiving your second place vote and so on. YOU MUST VOTE FOR NINE CANDIDATES OR YOUR BALLOT WILL NOT COUNT.

In tallying the votes, each candidate's first place votes are recorded. The man on the ballot receiving the least number of first place votes, (this year there will be twenty-seven candidates) is dropped and his SECOND PLACE votes are then distributed among the other candidates. For example, the last man may have received seven first place votes. When he is dropped, the candidates listed as second choice on those seven ballots receive those votes.

This is continued until nine people are elected. Incidentally, the number of votes required for election of candidates is figured by dividing the number of offices (9) into the number of votes cast by the student body. —Ed"

Official Notice

The Selective Service examinations scheduled for Thursday, April 23 will be given in University classroom building room 101. Students should report for the examination at 8:30 a.m. The tests will not be completed until about 12:15.

Students now in residence in the University who plan on attending the 1953 summer school should apply to the Registrar's office for a Permit to Register before June 1. This will avoid their having to wait at registration time to have their permits prepared. D. D. DuSault, Registrar

L'il International Directors And Friend

Board of directors for Little International week are, left to right, Howard Shepherd, Ken Farner, Rich Westgate, Don Mitchell, Bob Thornton, Woody Bernard, Farrell Buxton, Glen Taylor, Ray Behrman, Chuck Schroeder, and Clyde Murphy. Annual Forestry Week Set For April 19-26

This year's Idaho State Forestry Week has been set for the week of April 19 to 26. It is sponsored by the Associated Foresters of the University of Idaho.

Purpose of this week is to acquaint the people of the state with the value of their forest, range, and wildlife resources, and to make them aware of problems involved in their management. It is hoped that with awareness will come a desire to cooperate in working toward the conservation of these natural resources.

The people of Idaho can hunt and fish a greater variety of wildlife than the residents of any other state in the Union. Prospects of filling their bag limit are also greater than in most states. The state has a vast area of forested and primitive regions, which, with proper management, will produce a sustained yield of game for the sportsmen of the state.

The field of range management is undergoing a period of intensification throughout the West. Increased development of irrigated pasture lands in Idaho promises to add more wealth to the state from its range resource. As the stockmen lean more and more to the development of these permanent pasture lands, it is going to mean a greater carrying capacity than was ever possible under strictly open range grazing.

To present this picture to the people of Idaho, Forestry week workers use several means. To reach the young people, forestry students from the University will give talks to the high school students in the northern part of the state, and foresters from Idaho State college will contact the high schools in the southern part. These talks will present the value and problems of forestry, and will include forestry films.

During Forestry week a number of activities on campus will emphasize wise use of our natural resources. Main feature of the week will be the annual convocation of the Association of Western Forestry clubs. This week will climax in a Paul Bunyon contest on the Ad. building lawn and a faculty-student baseball game.

Martin Is Chosen By Ag Group

Professor J. W. Martin, head of agricultural engineering, has been named vice president of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, it was learned here today.

Professor Martin is the "only Westerner elected among the top officers of the society, which numbers about 5,000 members throughout the nation. Edwin W. Tanquary, International Harvester company, Chicago, was named president.

The Idaho professor has previously served on various committees of the society. He came here from Kansas State college in 1946. Prior to turning to academic work, he was on the administrative staff of the John Deere Plow company, with headquarters at Wichita, Kan.

Ag Speech Contest Won by Jessup

Jim Jessup won the Alpha Zeta speaking contest at the Ag club banquet Thursday night, speaking on "Marketing the Idaho Potato."

Little International Queen Lorna Hobbey was crowned by show manager Don Mitchell at the banquet, and eight Idaho ag students were awarded for representing the University of Idaho in the Dairy Products and Dairy Cattle judging divisions at the Portland Pacific International Livestock show last October.

Receiving the awards were Mac Porter, Bill Choules, Bill Monroe and Bert Wohlschlegel, who judged in the Dairy products division.

Students who judged in the Dairy cattle division were Don Greenwall, Don Mitchell, Ralph Wilder and Harold Johnson.

Bill Monroe and Bill Choules won first and second places respectively in the Dairy products division last fall, and were awarded lifetime passes to the shows.

Choules won first place in the Dairy Cattle judging contest the year before.

Education Confab To Be Held Here

The Pacific Northwest Conference on Higher Education has accepted the invitation of the University of Idaho to hold its 1954 meeting here, it was announced today by Dean H. Walter Steffens.

The graduate school dean, who was the University's official representative at the group's meeting in Eugene, Ore., was named chairman of the conference's steering committee. Also attending the Eugene sessions from the University were President J. E. Buchanan and Dr. Boyd A. Martin.

Final Drama Production By ASUI To Feature Group Of O'Neill's Plays

The final ASUI drama production, a group of Eugene O'Neill's one-act plays, will be presented April 14, 15, and 17, on the University Hut stage at 8 p. m. Reservations can be had by calling the University Hut.

Cow Milking Coeds Listed

Once again, University of Idaho coeds will show that they're not all above the "finer things in life." Coeds will participate in the coed cow milking contest in the Little International show April 25.

Last year, Alpha Chi Omega challenged any other women's living group to see "who could get the mostest the fastest." They won.

Committee men to ramrod the Little International show this year are headed by Don Mitchell with his two assistant managers, Howard Shepard and Woody Bernard.

Other committee members are Gordon McMay, features; Rich Westgate, publicity; Glen Taylor, properties; and Ray Behrman add Chuck Schroeder, programs.

Motto for this year's Little International show is "Students Today, Farmers Tomorrow."

Trevis Wins New Zealand Study Award

Trevis will begin his study next "fall"—the first of July—in the below-the-equator country. Trevis will study at the University of Otago in New Zealand until July 1954.

Trevis' scholarship includes payment of all expenses, board, room, travel, books and tuition. He will study the geological formation of rocks.

The Fulbright program is designed to promote better understanding between the people of the United States and those of other countries.

The fund money for the New Zealand scholarship is obtained through the sale of war material in New Zealand. The government granted scholarships to take the place of payment for the sale of the material.

Leading The Charge

Your Political Forum

An Open Letter to Students:

This year the Independent Party is supporting a "Student Leadership Platform." Many considerations have prompted the endorsement of this type of platform: The Executive Board's scope of actions, although considerably rigid and laden with routine duties, is a powerful student group which can add considerable impetus to whatever projects they may deem desirable to support. Therefore, it is of the utmost importance to elect the best possible student leaders to serve on this board—students who are most capable of handling the powers delegated them and who can make the Board function to the full extent of its ability to promote student interests.

If the best student leaders and most capable candidates are elected it will naturally follow that the action they take will be the best possible, also; that the activities they promote will be the most deserving, and that the new ideas for campus improvement they offer will be some of the best anyone can produce. Thus, the first and major consideration in a campus election should be WHO CAN DO WHAT SHOULD BE DONE!

We feel it is much more pertinent to the situation to campaign upon candidate qualifications as the major issue and leave the policies and ideas as a secondary consideration to follow as a natural consequence of electing the strongest student: The voters have never made the ASUI election a contest to decide policy and so the parties should not campaign upon this premise and in so doing, place themselves on a plane of interest which the voter does not reach. We feel an obligation to insure the wise choice of the voter by campaigning in his area of concern, by placing before him as the foremost issue the candidates themselves.

The administration of the past year has proven conclusively that the best high-level student government will occur as a result of having the most active, most vigorous, and most interested students in office—not as a result of an elected group promoting proposed campaign platforms!

Unlike national elections, there are no major issues represented in campus political parties upon which a stand must be taken and a policy statement issued in the form of a party platform. And so we find that the platforms which are issued consist either of a fine-sounding generalization devised merely for the sake of having a platform, or else are genuinely sound ideas for campus improvement to which no party can take exception. It is illogical for parties to duplicate each other by constructing separate platforms consisting of the same or similar recognized needs, and it is also illogical for the parties to search for and devise petty differences for the sake of taking issue with the opposing parties. All candidates, regardless of party affiliation, will support moves and projects for betterment of the student organization and campus. The only difference between these candidates, then is the degree of ability to do this. So the situation resolves itself to this area.

In promoting this platform of "Student Leadership" we do not attempt to ride along on any other party's platform, nor do we attempt to evade issues and avoid the task of devising new and different areas of proposed action. Rather, we are attempting to move from an unrealistic and theoretical plane into a realistic acceptance of the nature of campus politics!

We support our candidates because of their experience in campus and student activities, their interest in such activities, their executive experience, ingenuity and adaptability. They do have definite projects in mind and goals to actively strive for if elected, but we sincerely and firmly believe that these goals must be our secondary consideration. For, if the students elected are not the enthusiastic leaders capable of action, platforms and goals of any sort are completely useless.

Betty Ruth Westerberg,
Campaign Manager

Dear Jason:

During the past two years I have heard many people point to the preferential system of voting as a strong point in Idaho's form of campus government. To show the lack of interest in student affairs by the students themselves, many have pointed out the fact that very few students know how this system of casting votes works. I, not wanting to admit to myself or to anyone else that I am one of those not in the "know", have never asked about it. Last week my curiosity got the best of my pride, and I approached one of the members of the Election Board and asked him to explain the system to me. His answer was that this is his first year on the Board and that he frankly didn't know the answer to my question.

I don't want to discredit the Election Board, but I would like to ask you to put an article in your paper to clarify the situation, thereby helping students who like myself are interested, but are still doubtful about the effect their vote has in a campus election.

Thank you,
John J. Sheridan

Radio Show Aired Over Two Stations

Campus radio station KUOI last evening began originating the Radio Television guild show, heard Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at seven p.m. over KRPL. KUOI station director Gene Hamblin said that arrangements were completed last night with Bert McAllister, KRPL manager, for both stations to air the nightly show simultaneously at 7 p.m.

The shows produced by members of the Guild are broadcast to KRPL by direct broadcast line from the Student Union studios of KUOI. The airing of the programs is another step toward bringing campus radio programs to many area listeners.

KUOI, by arrangement with the Eastern States Radio Corporation, recently secured more than $300 of classical records which are now being featured on Lee Hinckley's 5:30 p.m. "Classic" program. The RCA Victor long playing Red Seal records will be aired nightly Monday through Friday from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. over KUOI, dial 660.

Plane Trip Taken By Student Pilots

Tom Collins, president of the Vandal Flying club, and student pilot Harry Ehoodin made good use of the Easter vacation to fly to Reno and San Francisco. Bad weather, however, forced them to leave the new Cessna 140 at La Grands, Oregon.

Phil Soulen, Rich Orme, Bud Lawson, Ken Brown, and Vern Thomas have recently earned their solo wings. Corky Vaught has completed the prescribed number of hours to qualify for a private pilot's license.

Over 100 hours have been spent in the air by the members of the club during the past month, and good weather will probably double that amount.

Any person interested in joining the flying club can contact Tom Collins, Willis Sweet hall, room 212. The club requires $50 membership fee upon joining, and the rates are $2 an hour for flying.

Lambda Chis To Name Crescent Girl; Hays Schedules Annual Dinner Dance

Crescent Girl for 1953 will be named at the Lambda Chi Alpha dance on April 25. For the same weekend on April 24 Hays hall has an Oriental Night Club dance theme planned. Phi Kappa Tau was host over the weekend to the Northwest Regional convale of the fraternity. "Penthouse Serenade" was the theme of the recent formal.

DELTA DELTA DELTA
Wednesday lunch guests were Bill Parsons, SAE, and Jim Saad, Sigma Chi, of the United Party. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barlow were lunch and dinner guests Wednesday and Thursday.

Monday lunch guests were Tom Mitchell and Keith Jergensen of the U. and I. party.

Mrs. Harry T. Davenport of Spokane was a special guest last night, giving a book review on "Gown of Glory" by Alice Turnbull.

Other guests included Mrs. Charles L. Thompson, Mrs. Elizabeth Fanning, and alumnae of Moscow.

RIDENBAUGH HALL
"Penthouse Serenade" was the theme of the Ridenbaugh spring formal which danced to the band of Stan Blackwell.

During intermission Kim Kinnerling gave a modern dance interpretation and Phyllis Boling sang "That's My Desire."

Host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins from Chrisman. Recently Mrs. Belle Gwinn entertained guests in her apartment. They were Mrs. Bernice Rhodes, DG; Mrs. Myrtle Holmes, KKG; and Mrs. Ord Chrisman, Forney.

HAYS HALL
An Oriental Night Club theme will highlight the hall dinner dance scheduled for April 24. Theme will be a large dragon and pictures will be taken on a Chinese bridge.

Anita Boss is in charge of programs, Norma Hunt, table decorations, Rosie Bergdorf, co-chairman, and Pauline Peterson, chairman.

If weather permits, Saturday afternoon, April 18, the hall will play a softball game with the Idaho club for the possession of hall trophies. The game rules will be made up by Hays hall. Sonja Holsath was appointed to make arrangements for the game.

Sunday dinner guests were Jean McGrath and Loreen Schmelzel. Ralph Townsend and Bob Parsons were Monday luncheon guests.

PHI KAPPA TAU

Beta Gamma chapter played host to the Northwest Regional convale here Friday, through Sunday. Delegates came from WSC, Idaho State college, University of Washington and Oregon State college.

In the evening the Founders Day banquet was held at the Hotel Moscow. The main address was given by the visiting national field secretary Al Heuser. Master of ceremonies for the dinner was Lt. Don Moore of the Army ROTC.

Other speakers included Dick Wallace, district Domain Chief; Charles Decker of the student counseling service; Dr. George Woodbury, head of horticulture; and Jim Newsome. A dance for the delegates was held following the banquet.

ALPHA PHI

Meredith Latta and Hazel Jacoby were recently nominated as candidates for Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl. Saturday the Lambda Chi's were defeated at their annual tug-o-war at Paradise creek. Peace offerings of coffee and flowers followed later that day.

May Pappenhagen and Jody Keith were tapped for the freshman honorary Alpha Lambda Delta at Tuesday's dinner.

Carol Swanson and La Vonne Kallusky, both from Spokane, were week-end house guests, and Jim Saad and Bill Parsons were dinner guests Tuesday evening.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Members of the pledge class gave their "big sisters" paddles at the annual Paddle Party Wednesday night before Easter vacation. Entertainment was furnished by the "big sisters."

Sunday morning the seniors served the girls breakfast in bed, according to a custom of the seniors. The house was presented with two gifts for the new guest room to be built next fall.

Admitted to the infirmary this week were Darlene Frost, Joan Redford, John Hamilton, Don Sova, LaVonne Willson, Howard May, Guy Allen, Clair Hollingsworth, Darrell Rudd, and Don Mills.

Discharged were Dixie Lee Waters, Joan Redford, John Ready, LaVonne Willson, Norman Starr, Donald Sova, and Guy Allen.

Sonia Angell, Delta Gamma from Whitman college, spent the weekend at the Theta house as a guest of Jane Querna.

Myrna Martin, Betty Hill, and Francis Hall of Culdesac stayed at the house during the Future Business Leaders of America convention.

Wednesday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Westfall. Dinner guests Sunday were Sonia Angell and Nancy Lyle.

Denise Darwin was tapped for women's "I" club. Ann Pool was tapped for Alpha Lambda Delta.

FORNEY HALL

Sixty couples attended the dinner dance Saturday night. The theme was "Peppermint Palace." The dinner decorations were candles, lollipop place cards and a "Peppermint Palace" of flowers and candy canes.

The walls were decorated with pink and white streamers and paper candy canes hung from the ceiling. A replica of a palace was centered on the north wall. Two huge candy canes furnished the background for the orchestra.

Jean Weston was chairman of the dance. Intermission entertainment was provided by Betty Hall, Jean Weston, Margaret Tears, Norma Stralovich and Mary Lou Davis. Cookies and punch were served during intermission.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Ord Chrisman, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Hopkins, and Dr. and Mrs. Darwin Mayfield.

Dinner guest this week was Lillian Johanson.

Kappa Phi Elects Sharon Paulus

Sharon Paulus was elected president of the Kappa Phi cabinet last Tuesday evening.

Shirley Robson was chosen vice-president; Dorothy Dalke, treasurer; Arlene Hyde, secretary; JoAnn Brown, program chairman, and Carol Covert, chaplain.

Mrs. Paul Dalke was unanimously re-elected sponsor.

Formal pledging was held for Kathleen Crawford, Dorothy Milke, Judy Swim, and Pat Johnson.

Installation of officers and initiation of new members is scheduled for Tuesday, April 21, at the Methodist church.

Alum News

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schutt are the parents of a daughter born April 4th. Schutt was a '52 graduate, majoring in mechanical engineering. He is working for Conair Co. in San Diego. Their address is 3388 Apache, San Diego, 11, Calif.

America's Future Business Leaders Hold Meeting Here

Future Business Leaders of America held their annual meeting here last Thursday and Friday, to discuss the value of business and commercial training and to become acquainted with the University of Idaho. The session was sponsored by the University's department of business education and the Lewiston high school commercial club.

The FBLA, a state organization for high school commercial students, operated the meeting on the theme "Occupational Intelligence" while hosting high schoolers from Lapwai, Grangeville, Lewiston, Bonners Ferry, Moscow, and Genesee.

During their conference, the FBLA toured the campus and listened to talks by Jean Trowbridge, president of Pan-Hellenic; Colleen Hinchey, president of AWS; and Ralph Hartwell, past president of the Interfraternity council.

The conferees also passed a resolution calling for a scholarship to be awarded a student intending to major in business education.

Idaho Potatoes Studied By Brazilian

The fame of Idaho's seed potatoes has spread to Brazil. Jorge Bierrenbach De Castro, head of the division of tuber and root crops at the institute of agronomy, Campinas, Brazil, will come to Idaho this spring to study seed potato selection and harvesting.

The Idaho study will be one of several De Castro is making in the United States. Purpose of the tour, sponsored jointly by Brazil, the department of state, the department of agriculture, and land grant colleges, is to learn methods of production and distribution that may be adapted to Brazil. At Aberdeen the visitor will work to major in business education. FBLA is sponsored by the national council for business education.

ISC Outpoints Vandals In NCAA Boxing Meet

The Champ Gets Hit

(Right) Don Anderson, Idaho's 165-pound entry to the NCAA boxing tourney at Pocatello over the weekend, slips a right hand into the mid-section of Michigan State's Tom Hickey in a semi-final bout. Don lost the decision while Hickey went on to defeat Fred Shleman of California for the national crown. Anderson placed third.

Anderson Is Third In NCAA Tourney At 165 Pounds

By Don Theophilus Jr.
Idaho State's boxing Bengals grabbed the lion's share of the honors over the weekend as they hosted the NCAA boxing tournament at Pocatello. University of Idaho mittmen were forced to take a back seat to their southern cousins for the second year in a row in a sport that perennially has been the Vandals' best.

Coach Dubby Holt's club won the national team title from defending champion Wisconsin with 25 points. Three of their men, Vic Kobe, 119 pounds; Paddy Garver, 132, and the great Ellsworth "Spider" Webb, 156, captured individual crowns.

The best Idaho could manage was a Don Anderson's creditable third place showing in the 165-pound bracket for one point.

Anderson, junior battler from Pasco was the big gun for Idaho. He upset all odds as he decided to fight Chuck Morgan of WSC in an afternoon quarterfinal bout. Morgan, the 1953 PCI champ who had beaten Don three times this season, was knocked to the canvas by a powerful right in the second round. After that he never caught up. The judges gave it to Anderson 29-26, 29-27 and 28-27.

In the semi-finals Don met powerfully-muscled, hard hitting Tom Hickey of Michigan State who had won seven straight fights this season. Hickey outpointed Don but only after a tough bout in which he had a healthy respect for Don's right. Hickey went on to take the 165-pound weight while Anderson placed third.

Nichols, Bowen Lose
Captain Lynn (Sam) Nichols at 147 pounds and light-heavyweight Fred Bowen lost in evening quarterfinal bouts but gave a good showing nevertheless.

Sam met South Carolina's undefeated Emmett Gurney and could never seem to score consistently against the quicker southerner. The crowd booed the decision but the judges had seen it unanimously 30-28, 30-28 and 30-25. Gurney went on to lose a narrow decision in the finals to Wisconsin's Pat Sreenan and became an NCAA runnerup for the second straight year.

Hard-luck Fred Bowen was the round-about victim of the sickness that sidelined him at the PCI tourney. He had missed too many workouts fighting off a near case of scarlet fever and was out of his best form when he met Adam Kois, Penn State's eastern intercollegiate champ.

Fred staggered Kois in the first round twice and was ahead on points on at least one judge's card until he began to run out of gas in the latter part of the second round. Referee Joey August stopped the bout at 1:10 of the third round.

Golf Squad Hampered By Weather

Old man weather made a belated return to the Palouse region Saturday with enough intensity to hold qualifying for the varsity golf team to a minimum. A 54-hole tourney had been planned, but 18 holes were all that could be played.

Winds up to 40 miles an hour and a driving sleet stopped play in the afternoon. Nineteen men, dressed in sweaters, wind-breakers, gloves and scarfs, battled the wind for three and one-half hours. Phil Weitz, Bob Campbell, Tom Miller, and Jack Perry were the only men to break 80. Their scores were 74, 75, 76 and 78 respectively. It was great golf considering the weather.

Perry came up with the shot of the day on the 220 yard seventh hole. With a treacherous gale blowing across the course, Jack sunk his tee shot for a hole in one. The ace was the first made on the course this year. Perry used a two wood for the shot.

This Friday at noon the Vandals open the 1953 season meeting Whitworth at the Moscow course. The match will be played over 18 holes. Idaho will start its two returning lettermen, Weitz and Campbell, plus two newcomers Tom Miller and Jack Perry.

Tennis Coach Picks Team; Five Juniors Are Listed

A tentative starting lineup for Idaho's 1953 tennis team was announced today by Captain Henry H. Burnett, new coach for Vandal net prospects.

Burnett, who replaces Eric Kirkland as tennis mentor, is an assistant professor on the Army ROTC staff. He listed five probable starters for the Vandals' opening dual meet against strong Washington State at Pullman on April 25.

Named on the squad are five juniors. Leading the pack are one year lettermen Max Nunenkamp, Caldwell; Ted Thorhaug, San Clemente, California, and Fred Thompson, Burley.

Others are intramural champ Jim Richardson of Medicine Hat, Alberta, and Barry Rust of Coeur d'Alene. Both men lettered four years in high school.

All other events are planned for today and tomorrow.

ND Baseball Play Opens For Idaho With Road Trip

Idaho's baseball squad, victorious in seven out of nine pre-season games, leaves today for the Willamette Valley and the first games of the Northern Division season.

The Vandals will play six games in seven days, all of them away. The annual road trip to rival fields is usually scheduled early in the season to take advantage of the better weather that prevails near the coast.

Coach Chuck Finley's nine starts league play against Oregon at Eugene tomorrow and Thursday. They follow with a brace of contests with the defending Northern Division champion OSC Beavers at Corvallis on Friday and Saturday.

The road trip ends at Seattle with a pair of diamond tilts against the Washington Huskies on Monday and Tuesday.

Travelling Squad
Finley said the following men would make the trip:

Catchers — Jerry Ogle, Coeur d'Alene, and Jim Howard, Idaho Falls.
Pitchers—Wayne Patrick, Boise; Ken Hallett, Spokane; Dick Dodel, Tom Flynn and Ed McComas, all of Lewiston; Harlan Melton, Middleton; and Mel Reynolds, Castleford.

Infielders—Bruce McIntosh and Bud Nelson, Lewiston; Earl Huffman, Coeur d'Alene, and Mike Cycler; Rahway, N. J.

Outfielders—Flip Kleffner, Boise; Bob Falash, Twin Falls, and Bill Stellman, Lewiston.
Student Manager Dan Tibbitts and Coach Art Smith.

Unknown Quantity
Not much is known about the Webfeet's ballclub. Oregon will apparently field a rather green squad. Graduation and professional baseball claimed 10 of 17 men on last season's first string. Gone are such fine players as all-Northern Division second baseman Daryle Nelson and right fielder Joe Sugura.

Coach Don Kirsch faced the problem earlier this season of replacing his entire infield. He also stated his pitching staff would be weak unless junior hurler Don Siegmund is eligible to play. Siegmund was the ace of last year's mound staff.

LOSE TO BRONCOS
In Saturday's abbreviated game the Lewiston Broncos of the Class A Western International League took the rubber game of a three-game series with the Vandals by winning a 7-3 decision on McLean field.

The weather was cold and windy and the umpire called the game

Keith Bean Dies At Early Age

Keith Bean, 1951 graduate from Idaho and a noted football and track athlete for the Vandals, died last week at Veteran's Administration hospital in Portland.

Bean had been hospitalized almost continuously for the past nine months by a lingering illness. He was only 27 when he died.

While at Idaho Keith was an outstanding hurdler and played quarterback on the gridiron. He still holds the intramural 120-yard high hurdle record at 15.8 that he set in 1948. His best years as an athlete were in 1950 and 1951.

Many Frosh Out For Diamond Sport

Baseball fortunes at Idaho are looking brighter and brighter. Not only is the varsity moving in high gear with a 7-2 record but freshman prospects are excellent if numbers indicate anything.

No less than 33 men are now out for the freshman diamond sport. First game for the yearlings is tentatively set for April 25 here against WSC.

It's not too late to turn out, Coach Don Harrison indicates. Anyone interested can draw equipment up to Wednesday providing he has a physical at the infirmary first. Practices are from 3:30 to 5:30 night.

ARE YOU TOUGH ENOUGH FOR THIS JOB?

If you can make the grade, the U. S. Air Force will award you a commission, your wings and pay you over $5,000 a year!

CAN YOU "take it" 6 days a week? For 52 weeks? Can you meet the high standards required to be an Aviation Cadet? If you can—then here's a man-size opportunity! An opportunity to serve your country and build a personal career that will fit you for responsible positions both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?
To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Where to get more details: Visit your nearest Air Force Base or Air Force Recruiting Officer. OR WRITE TO: AVIATION CADET HEADQUARTERS, U. S. AIR FORCE, WASHINGTON 25, D. C.
