Estes-Shoup Case Series Ends In Fine, Dismissal

Charges of attempting to compound a felony placed against Richard Shoup, a student from McKeesport, Pa., were dismissed Wednesday afternoon by Justice Kent Day. The action was taken after Shoup's attorney, Abe Goff, had filed a motion Tuesday for dismissal of the charges which had been lodged against Shoup on April 12 by Murray Estes, Moscow attorney.

Dismissal of the charge was on the ground that there was no proof of the commission of a felony. At yesterday's hearing, Goff promised that Shoup would not bring any other civil or criminal suits against Estes if the motion for dismissal was favorably acted upon.

It seemed that the legal maneuvers which had characterized the case since mid-December were at an end with the dismissal action, but a group of about 40 persons descended upon District Judge Jack McQuade immediately after the hearing and engaged the judge in discussion for nearly an hour.

The group, which urged formation of a grand jury, was composed of members of the Council of Church Women, the Ministerial association, the Grange and patriotic organizations. A public meeting has been scheduled for Monday at 8 p.m. in the Presbyterian church.

Capt. T. C. Thomas of the University NROTC staff said that 1072 names had been collected on petitions requesting a grand jury and that these petitions had been submitted to Judge McQuade.

Judge McQuade is quoted in the Daily Idahoan as replying, "If you are not satisfied with the decisions handed down by the courts, I suggest you take up the matter with the prosecuting attorney. He has the facilities to make investigations."

Women's Dorm To Be Dedicated By Namesake

The newest dormitory on campus, will be dedicated Sunday — the Ethel Steel house cooperative women's dormitory — but it will have to give more than 50 years of service to outdo the dormitory it replaces—Ridenbaugh hall, the first dormitory of the University of Idaho.

Ethel Steel house will be dedicated at 2:30 p.m. Sunday by the former Idaho regent it was named for.

Mrs. Ethel Steel, Parma, will be introduced by President Buchanan and will present a silver tea service to Betty Ruth Westerberg, representing the residents of Ridenbaugh.

President Buchanan will present the dormitory with a plaque to be hung in the hallway of the new dormitory after a short history of the dormitory system at Idaho. He will then present Mrs. Steel.

Mrs. Steel will then dedicate the building to the use of women students.

Ridenbaugh girls will sing "Here We Have Idaho" to end the dedication ceremonies.

NROTC Dance Slated Tonight

Blue and white decorations along with Navy signal flags will set the scene for the annual Eagle and Anchor spring formal. The dance will be held tonight at 9 o'clock in the main ballroom of the SUB.

Rod Burton and his "Solid Eight" will be on hand for the music.

General chairman of the dance is Dick Erhardt, assisted by Ron Siple, decorations; Bob Hanson, invitations; E. R. Shafer, refreshments; Tom Jackson, publicity; and Roger Gross, clean up. Faculty advisor for the dance is Major Jones of the University NROTC unit.

Board Elects Don McCabe Vice-Prexy

Don McCabe was elected vice president of the ASUI and Liz Winegar, secretary, at the last meeting of the Executive board. The board decided to take in applications for various activity chairmanships and their respective committees. The list is being sent to all living groups and students interested in the committees should submit their applications to any Executive board member or leave them in the ASUI president's office. Committees open are: Student Events council, chairman and committee; Student Services council, Student Activities council, NSA, and Homecoming.

The Student Events council will have eight members and the chairman appointed by the ASUI president subject to approval by the board. Its primary function is to supervise student activities.

The Student Activities council is responsible for committees for Dad's day, all University day, Rally committee, Freshman committee, Recruitment committee, half-time entertainment and special projects.

NSA serves as coordinator between the ASUI and the Regional and National Student associations of which the ASUI is a member, and as advisory group and information center to the Executive board and other ASUI committees and campus organizations. NSA also aids the ASUI president in maintaining inter-school relationships and collection information of campus problems.

WSC Plans To Stop Fire

The people who are pushing the campaign for fire-prevention at WSC will be handling a hose with two nozzles if recommendations of fraternities and sororities are carried out.

At a recent meeting of WSC house presidents, advisors, fire-chiefs, and college officials, it was decided that each living group should appoint fire-wardens who would be responsible for daily inspections and periodic fire-prevention drills in their house.

In addition, college fire station personnel plan to make a compulsory inspection of possible hazardous conditions in the living groups.

The living groups and officials agreed to take into consideration the financial condition of every living group asked to make preventative repairs but it is expected that priority will be given to fire prevention steps rather than to other structural changes.

Two fraternities on the WSC campus were recent victims of fires. Phi Delta Theta suffered smoke damage only while Pi Kappa Alpha was hit for 25 to 40 thousand dollars in damages.

Military Unit Review Set

The annual formal review of the Air Force ROTC cadet wing and the awarding of medals to outstanding air science students will be held at Neale stadium at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 14, it was announced today by Lt. Col. O. J. Mosman, professor of air science and tactics.

In past years it has been customary to hold these activities concurrently with the annual general inspection, but since the inspection was early this year, the formal review will be staged as part of Armed Forces week activities.

Captain T. H. Thomas, professor of naval science at the University, will be the reviewing officer who will take the salute of the Air Force cadet wing.

Guests will include President J. E. Buchanan, Dean T. S. Kerr, Lt. Colonel A. E. Blewett, professor of military science and tactics, and Everett Will, Moscow's newly elected mayor. Marching music will be provided by the joint Army, Navy and Air Force band, with members wearing their new dress uniforms. Visitors are invited to attend.

Graduation Speaker Is Named

Dr. Frank F. Warren, president of Whitworth college, Spokane, will give the baccalaureate commencement address at the University of Idaho's 68th graduation exercises Sunday, June 7, President J. E. Buchanan announced today.

So that more parents can attend both the baccalaureate and commencement exercises, the two programs will be held this year for the first time on the same day. Dr. Warren will give the one major address of the day at 9:30 a.m., and degrees will be awarded at 2 p.m.

Saturday, June 6, as in the past, will be devoted primarily to alumni activities, with a luncheon at noon and a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Also scheduled for Saturday are dedication ceremonies for the Home Economics building at 3:30 p.m.; a band concert, 4 p.m., and a musicale, 8 p.m. From 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. open house will be held in Science hall, the Art building and Administration building for a flower show, art exhibit and library exhibit, respectively.

Widely known throughout the Northwest as a leader of youth and as a speaker before business, educational and church groups, Dr. Warren is now in his 13th year as president of Whitworth college. He holds degrees from Seattle Pacific college and Drew university, and also did advanced study at the Biblical Seminary of New York.

From 1925 to 1932 he was engaged in missionary and educational work in Japan, and from 1933 to 1940 he was dean of the department of religion at Seattle Pacific college. For the last 12 years he has been the speaker on a religious radio program known as "The Whitworth Chapel Hour." During the summer of 1950 he traveled throughout Europe and addressed an international gathering of youth in London.

His address to University of Idaho graduates will be on "Serving One's Generation."

For A Tough Job Well Done, Thanks

he tells you about the antics of his offspring.

He gave a lot in time and effort and personal sacrifice. No casual friend will ever know just what rewards he reaped out of his year of balancing studies against the job the students asked him to do.

And now we suspect he sits and thinks a little, remembers the good times with the bad, lives again the driving urge that made him one of Idaho's greatest.

Certainly we have no reservations when calling him the greatest since we first came to Idaho.

As we knew him, he was a sensitive man. Sensitive to criticism, sensitive to any suggestion that the job he had chosen for himself was not run according to the fullest approval of every single individual. He realized the difficulty of even at-

Student Injured In Hop Scotch

Spring has hit the Idaho campus alright, and it has also hit Bill Boardman, Bill hobbled into the infirmary the first of the week with a sprained ankle from playing hopscotch.

Spring? Hopscotch? Well, O.K., there was a gal involved too. In fact one from WSC. It seems that they were off on a picnic last weekend and he had a strange desire to play this fabulous game of hopscotch. Bill couldn't make it to any of the early morning drills this week. Maybe this will start a hopscotch craze!

Sweeney Elected Vandaleer Prexy

Bruce Sweeney was elected incoming Vandaleer president at a meeting of the group Thursday afternoon. Other officers are secretary, Marg Trefren; librarian, Ernie Gorband; women's robe chairman, Caroline Bailey; men's robe chairman, Bob Wells; social chairman, Donna Bray and historian, Sally Landers.

Deadline Set For Selective Service Test

Applications for the May 21 Selective Service College Qualification test must be submitted to the Educational Test Service, Princeton, New Jersey, not later than midnight May 11 according to major-General Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service.

In order to be considered for deferment a student must receive either a score of 70 or better on the test OR have a class standing among the male members in the upper half of the freshman class, upper two-thirds of the sophomore class, or upper three-fourths of the junior class.

Seniors accepted for admission to a graduate school must be in the upper half of the male members of their senior class OR make a score of 75 or better. The criteria are merely guides for local boards. Classification of local boards is subject to appeal. Appeals must be filed with the local board within 30 days of the mailing date of 1-A classification.

The May 21 test is for students who were unable to take the test April 23, because of illness or emergencies. General Hershey stressed that students who have a certificate of admission for the April 23 test which they failed to use must submit new applications if they wish to take the May 21 test. Certificates will not admit a student to the May 21 test.

Applications may be obtained from any Selective Service local board.

Prejudice Goes On

The last dance depicts one way in which racial prejudice is passed on to a new generation, showing that the prejudice is not born in one, but is learned. This story is symbolic of a greater tragedy — of the mistrust, resentment and intolerance of one group for another that seems to stem from over-indulgent parents.

Accompanist for the dancers will be Geneva Sarvis. Costumes are being made by Wanda Gray, Virginia Wagner, Colleen Hinchey, LaVerna Lawrence, and members of pre-Orchosis.

Joan Dittmer is planning the program cover and in charge of stage effects will be Hugh Burgess, Joan Dittmer, Barbara Higgins and Wanda Gray. Publicity chairman is Parke Garrard.

Dance Groups To Present Final Program Tomorrow

Members of Orchosis and pre-Orchosis, University dance organization, will present their final dance program of the year, in cooperation with the Mother's day festivities tomorrow night at 8 p.m., in the University auditorium.

The program will be in three parts. It will last approximately an hour and a half, according to Patricia Rowe, dance instructor.

Part one is composed of dances based upon the drawings of Abner Dean and William Steig. The first dance in this section is "Man in Search of His Soul", portrayed by Don Rydrych and Fred Scheibe. Following are three satires: "Everybody Has His Own Ideas," Barbara Higgins and Betty Westenberg; "Indisputable Possession," Denise Darwin, and "Courtship," Fred Scheibe.

Dance for Mothers

A Mother's Day theme is followed in part two. The first dance entitled "Mother Mine" is a lyrical dance based on the idealization of the mother's role in life. Members of Orchosis will be participants. "What Is Home Without a Mother?" is the second number in this section and is done by Rita Barker and Mary Harding.

The last series of dances is based on a story, "You Have to be Taught," concerning the white and black racial prejudice in Africa and a preacher's search for his son. In the story the preacher sets out fearing the worst for his wayward son, because of the tale of corruption, bad companions and licentiousness he has gathered.

The preacher in this dance is Don Rydrych. Other characters are Madge Foster, Kim Kimer-

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Second Semester 1952-53

(Two and one-half hour examinations—three examination periods per day)

March 4, 1953

Regular classrooms will be used for the examinations unless instructors make special arrangements through the Registrar's office. Examinations in courses not included in the schedule will be arranged by the individual instructors during scheduled examination week. Examinations in courses comprised of lectures and laboratory periods may in most instances be scheduled according to the sequence of either. Announcement of time and room should be made by the instructor. Rooms should be reserved in the Registrar's office for "arranged" examinations in order to avoid conflicts with scheduled examinations. For those courses in which a two and one-half hour examination period is not considered adequate, the final class hour or laboratory period could be used for additional examination purposes.

No Recognition?

There's a recently-coined saying to the effect that, "Old soldiers never die, they just fade away." The same might be said of outgoing student body presidents here at the University of Idaho.

It is certainly a sad commentary on the attitude of the students when a colleague of theirs has served them for 10 months and then is allowed to merely "fade away" without any kind of recognition. Even a simple "gavel-passing" ceremony would serve somewhat to give some weight to the occasion.

Instead, we have a sort of flat announcement that "... now pitching for Idaho, number 47, John Doe..." But even the pitcher who has been knocked out of the box is given a big hand by the crowd. And we think our departing ASUI presidents deserve a big hand because many of them have served us well and, far from being knocked out of the box, have done much constructive work in guiding the student body.

We are not speaking of any particular president and we are not in any way attempting to play politics. We grant that an ASUI president is given publicity and honors due him by reason of his high place, but are we so callous and ungracious that we cannot afford the time or the spirit commensurate with bringing to a fitting end the term of office to which we have elected a president?

Kindly note the ceremonies attendant upon the inauguration in Washington, D.D. Would a small touch of this be so very out of place in Moscow, Idaho? After all, the ASUI president is the choice of the majority of students and the present manner of handling changes in administration does not, in our opinion, reflect the attitude of the same students who chose the incumbent.

—A. G. D.

Keith and Becky Boyington (former Becky Barline) were Tuesday night dinner guests.

PHI DELTA THETA
The spring dance, the "Storybook Ball", will be held tonight at the chapter house. Costumes depicting fictional characters will be worn.

The decorations are taken from storybook scenes. Chaperones will be Dr. and Mrs. Alley, Dr. Church and Capt. and Mrs. Stewart. Music will be furnished by Dale Rurak.

Sunday dinner guest was Ed Lodge.

Idaho Beta
We wish to commend all Latah county residents (excluding students) for their tremendous support on the blood drive.

The anatomy class will meet for the remainder of the semester on the Sigma Nu lawn.

Idaho Beta has volunteered was the annual sister-daughter dinner held at the chapter house last Sunday. Guests at the dinner were Jody Ebnis, Nancy Zimmerman, Pat Farmer, Marilyn Doty, Sue Gillis, Jean Weston and Mary Cornelson. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cornelson, Moscow, were honored guests.

Planned for this Sunday is open house and a dinner for more than 25 Sigma Nu mothers.

The chapter is now making plans for the all day cruise on Coeur d'Alene Lake on Saturday, May 16.

Wednesday evening the second in a continuing series of clean up days was staged on the front lawn with the Alpha Chis getting scrubbed, rather tubbed down. Jim Hanzel, clean up chairman, said another occasion is planned soon — and all coeds are invited to participate in one form or another.

HAYS HALL
Ann Wyckoff was a dinner guest Saturday night and Bob Barber a guest for Sunday dinner.

Miss Celeste Jones recently spent the week-end at the hall.

Marion Wilson and Norma Ring were co-chairmen of the May Day float.

SIGMA CHI
Last Sunday Sigma Chi had a dinner honoring the parents of the town men. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dalke, Mr. and Mrs. Rhanson, and Mr. and Mrs. Hagan.

Tonight Sigma Chi is holding the annual Mexican dance. Steve Jordan is the head of the decoration committee. Special guests attending are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Young, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Patterson, and Mrs. Edith Magnuson.

WILLIS SWEET
Willis Sweet hall was the scene last Friday morning of a rather unusual breakfast. Served at 9 o'clock instead of the usual 6:45, with flowers on the tables and coats and ties on the 190 inhabitants of the hall, the breakfast was a highlight by the presence of a number of special guests.

Among these were President and Mrs. J. E. Buchanan, Hollywood movie stars Coleen Gray and Touch Connors, Congressional Medal of Honor winner Lt. Col. Reginald Myers and Mrs. Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ellsworth.

Plans for the annual Spring formal scheduled for May 15, and this year to follow the theme, "Sweet's Candy Shop," are proceeding rapidly under the direction of Stan Sorenson, general chairman.

Guests for Thursday lunch were Mr. Robert F. Greene and Mr. C. O. Decker.

Special entertainment is being supplied daily to members of the hall immediately following lunch and dinner. This entertainment is, however, strictly incidental to the feverish practice of Willis Sweet's entry in the Songfest.

Students Select Wrong Courses
(L.P.)—More than one-third of the students entering college today are selecting the wrong course of study due to an overestimation of their own aptitudes and abilities or because of parental influence, according to Edward R. Quinn, director of the department of testing and guidance at the University of Notre Dame.

"We find this particularly true of students planning to enter the colleges of engineering and science," Quinn explained, "since many freshmen mistake an interest in mechanical tinkering for engineering aptitude and because of the glamour presently associated with the science and engineering professions by students, parents, and high school teachers."

Seaborg To Speak At Chemical Meet
Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Nobel Prize winner and professor of chemistry at the University of California, will speak during the sessions of the Northwest Regional meeting of the American Chemical Society to be held on June 12 and 13 on the campuses of WSC and the University of Idaho. The time and place of Dr. Seaborg's address will be announced later.

University of Idaho faculty members from the chemistry department assisting with the preparations for the meeting are: Dr. William H. Cone, member of the arrangements committee; Dr. J. Irving Jolley, member of the program committee; Dr. Darwin L. Mayfield, chairman of the finance committee; Dr. Elmer K. Rautio, member of the arrangements committee; and Dr. D. A. # Senior Engineers See Canadian Plant To Hold Banquet

Senior chemical engineering students visited the metallurgical and chemical works of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting company at Trail, B. C., last week on their annual field trip.

Making the trip, along with chemical engineering seniors from WSC, were Godfrey Martin, Dick Warren, Dick Merrill, and Dale Waters. L. A. Jobe accompanied the group.

The Consolidated Mining and Smelting company refines about 10 per cent of the world's lead and zinc, half of Canada's silver and important quantities of gold, cadmium and other metals. The world's largest fertilizer plant, which produces 1500 tons of concentrated fertilizer daily, was also toured by the group.

Howard Bayley, 1929 Idaho chemical engineering graduate now employed by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting company, helped arrange the tour.

OSC Horsehide Squad Here For Two Games

Idaho Could Climb To Second With Sweep; Dump Oregon 16-6

NORTHERN DIVISION STANDINGS

Members of Idaho's baseball squad will be seeking a second place berth in the Northern Division standings this weekend when they meet the Oregon State Beavers at McLean field today and tomorrow. Game time this afternoon is 2:30 o'clock.

Oregon State, who defeated the Cougars from WSC 8-3 yesterday, are now resting in second place, but if the Vandals can come up with two wins in the current series they will oust the Beavers from their position and move into the number two spot in the division.

Win Over Ducks

Avenging a defeat at the hands of the University of Oregon Ducks last Monday the Vandals took the field in the Tuesday afternoon play here with fire in their eyes and power in their bats. In a slug fest from the powerful bats of the Idaho squad, the Oregon crew fell 16-6. Ken Hallett went the distance for the Vandals and with the exception of a bad third inning kept the Ducks in check at all times.

Starting off in the first two innings with nine runs, the Vandals continued to harrass Duck outfielders with long blows bouncing off the bank in left and center field. An array of walks from the pitching of Norm Forbes and Stan Domchowsky also put several Idaho runs across home plate.

Five runs crossed the plate in the third for the Ducks as a result of four hits, but were held scoreless in every other inning except the sixth when the Oregon team put two hits together to push across a lone run.

The Vandals hit or scored in every inning but the third, when Stan Domchowsky put them down in one-two-three order.

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Oregon 0 0 5 0 1 0 0 0 0

Sports On Radio

Campus radio KJUI, dial 660, will carry the exclusive play by play description of Friday and Saturday's Idaho-Oregon State ND baseball game. The broadcasts, direct from McLean Field, will be aired at 3 p.m.

Hard To Beat

Sophomore whiz Lou Gourley from Idaho Falls has lost only two out of six dual meet two-mile races in his varsity career. Lou, beaten two weeks ago by PCC champ Al Fisher of Washington State, is expected to pick up his winning ways against Oregon State tomorrow on his home track. Lou's best time is 9:27.4 or just three seconds off Vic Drygall's Idaho varsity record.

College Cowboys Leave For Another Big Rodeo Show

A smaller Vandal Riders rodeo team will leave this afternoon to contest in a WSC Cougar rodeo club-sponsored intercollegiate rodeo at Kennewick, Wash., tomorrow and Sunday.

The show is being held under the auspices of the Benton County Sheriff's Posse and will feature Harley Tucker's rough, tough rodeo stock. Contesting college teams will represent WSC, Eastern Washington College of Education, Utah State college, and Idaho.

Events scheduled are bareback and saddle bronc riding, calf roping, bulldogging, wild cow milking, and bull riding, plus two coed events. Clowns for the show will be Idaho's Arizona Vandervort and Dave Shepherd.

Golfers To Play Two Link Teams

A do or die attempt will be made on the part of the Idaho golf team today as they take on the Oregon Ducks on the local course. Oregon, undefeated in three straight years of season play will pit a well-rounded six man club against the Vandals in the 36 hole match. Oregon has displayed power in defeating the ND Champs from the University of Washington two weeks ago. Last Saturday they trampled Oregon State 26-1.

Hopes For An Upset
The Idaho club is in high spirits and will give the Ducks a battle over familiar ground. Bob Campbell and Phil Weitz will once again be relied on to carry the weight. The double teams will be Campbell and Tom Miller, Phil Weitz and either Lefty Melton or Gary Farmer, and Dave Powell with either Bob Rawlings or Jack Perry. The singles will be Campbell, Weitz, Powell and Miller for sure. A play-off late Thursday evening between Melton, Rawlings, Perry and Farmer was set to determine the other two positions.

If the Vandals win from Oregon today it will put them in a tie with Oregon and Washington for first place in division standings. Oregon State over the same course. Coach Snyder has hopes of an easy victory over the Beavers.

Lake Pend Oreille, home of the famous Kamloop, has more than 500 miles of shoreline and is 1100 feet deep in places.

Thinclads Will Host OSC Netmen Play Team Tomorrow Afternoon Two Matches On Weekend

For the first time this season Idaho's track and field squad will be rated a shaky favorite to break into the dual meet win column when it hosts Oregon State tomorrow at the Neale stadium track. Field contests are set for 1 p.m. with the running events at 1:30 in this, the first home meet of the season for the Silver and Gold. The meet will end around 2:45 p.m. so that fans will be able to see almost all of the Idaho-Oregon State-baseball game at nearby McLean field.

Last year the Vandal thinclads spanked the Beavers at Corvallis 74 1/6 to 56 1/6 with Bruce Sweeney getting three firsts and a second place tie. This season their common opponent Washington State has won over Idaho 97-33 and OSC 96-34.

Both schools are shy on depth and experience and are building for future years. Several of the Vandal distance men will likely double in some events tomorrow in an effort to get valuable seconds and thirds.

Last Race Might Decide
Idaho Coach Stan Hiserman rates the meet a close one with the mile relay possibly being the deciding race. "We have a good chance if all the boys come through. A lot will depend on the boys who double up and how they run their second race."

Several new faces will give the Vandals added over-all strength. Pat Duffy, senior sprinter from Nampa, is apparently ready to go after a three week forced layoff due to a pulled thigh muscle. Pat's been working out lightly the last week and a half.

Also suited up will be Bill Crookham who last week won both sprints and the broad jump in the intramural meet for the Phi Delt. Bill will enter those three events against the Orange and Black team from Corvallis.

Mentor Hiserman held stiff workouts and time trials the first three days of this week under a hot sun. This afternoon the squad will have a light turnout and tomorrow are slated for one big meal of steak and potatoes, plus the trimmings, around 9:30 a.m. before rolling into action.

The Neale stadium cinder path is in fair condition after yesterday's rain.

OSC Strong in Field Events
Oregon State will be strongest in the sprints, pole vault, shot put, discus and javelin with possible points coming in the quarter-mile.

Merv Brock last week won the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds flat and the 220-yard sprint in a creditable 22.4 for OSC against Washington. Brock was third and second in those races in the Pacific Coast championship meet.

Beaver spear tosser Ralph Sutton is currently sixth in the nation with a throw of better than 206 feet. He is ably backed up by teammate Church in this event.

In the pole vault Jim Holmes soared 13 feet 3 inches and was followed by OSC's Siegrist to take one-two against the Huskies. This is more than six inches better than Idaho's Francis Schulz has done this season.

The Ironman Again
Bruce Sweeney will pace the Vandal attack with prospects of four firsts. No Oregon State man has come close to his time in both hurdles but he will be harder pressed in the high jump and broad jump. Against the Beavers last year Bruce settled for a second place tie in the high jump but won the other three events.

Chop-striding Lou Gourley will be gunning to break his dual meet record of 9:36.8 set in last year's Idaho win. He isn't expected to have much competition nor is Emerson Clark or Walt Meukow in the mile and half-mile for the home squad.

Ever heard of Victor (Vic) Drygall? He was the first American to finish the marathon in the Olympics at Helsinki last year. The track and cross country record books now have him listed as running for the Millrose Athletic club of New York City but he once wore the Silver and Gold colors of Idaho in his college days.

This quiet, unassuming Brooklyn, New Yorker, came to Idaho in 1939 because he liked cross country. The season before he had captured the AAU ten mile road race with a blistering time that has only been bettered twice in the 64 year history of the event.

At Idaho under capable Coach Mike Ryan and led by Drygall, Idaho hill-and-dale artists won the PCC cross country crown from 1939 through 1941.

Most fanatic about his training Vic ran in all kinds of weather. The accompanying photo shows him striding in ankle deep snow. One of his favorite conditioning tricks was to run to Pullman and back again.

During track season leather-lunged Drygall naturally chose the two-mile event, the longest available race. He was so good that this race fell before his long stride in same season Vic was chosen by teammates as the varsity track man, whose competitive achievement, sportsmanship, and high character was the most outstanding on the Idaho squad.

During the war the wirey distance runner spent a long hitch in the armed forces but came back to Idaho in 1946 to finish up his school work. He was here just long enough to win the PCC cross country race that fall.

At mid-year in the spring of 1947 Vic graduated in business (a good student by the way) and went back home. Not many people heard of Drygall again in these parts but he had taken up where he had left off before coming to Idaho and was making a name for himself in AAU road racing.

What a Year
In 1948 his muscled legs brought him victory in the AAU ten-mile, fifteen-mile, fifteen-kilometer and twenty-mile runs. In 1949 he beat the field again in the ten-mile and fifteen-kilometer races and added his first AAU marathon crown to his growing trophy collection.

The 1952 Olympics year rolled around and Vic placed second in both the Boston and Yonker's marathon to gram number one spot on Uncle Sam's Helsinki bound team.

At the capital city of Finland last summer Drygall ran one of the best races of his life to place thirteenth in a field of international marathon aces. The race was won in record time by the Czechoslovakian wonder, Emil Zatopek.

Vic's time of two hours, 32 minutes and 54 seconds for the 26-mile marathon was the best any American had run for the event in any past Olympic Games.

Still in New York
Currently he's working in the home office of a big insurance company in his home city. Graduate Manager Gale Mix has seen him on several occasions in the last few years.

Whether Vic Drygall has hung up his running shoes after his great season last year is unknown, but regardless of any future honors he might win he stands as one of the greatest distance runners to ever represent Idaho.

His 9:25.4 dual meet clocking set in 1942 is still the Vandal varsity two-mile standard that current athletes such as Lou Gourley are shooting to break. That
