

Steel House Dedicated As New Co-op Dorm

From what we saw of the Mother's Day festivities, a lot of happy parents should be settling down for a week's rest after the fun of seeing the "wee ones" do their stuff on the campus.

From the way everybody dug in, very much must be thought of those fine people with the streaks of grey beginning to show in their hair. A gold star for all the living groups on their display of the welcome mat.

We hear too much about the zany and thoughtlessness of the average college kid. Certainly last weekend should go a long way towards squelching such talk.

Our congratulations also to those people who barefaced their way about the Ad lawn in a bitter wind last Saturday afternoon. We didn't see the show but we heard it was a wonder to behold. And in the words of one of our instructors, "Ya know what I mean?"

There's a vicious rumor going around the campus that Glen Lockery might direct the Vandaleers in next year's song fest competition. We would like to spike those rumors here and now and say they are absolutely without foundation.

Word has it that the Kappas are building better and bigger fire escapes. Well, new ones anyway. And incidentally, rumors in connection with this are without foundation, too.

While we're on the subject, they say that sales of women's apparel and such have dropped. How's that for a story lacking foundation?

By the way, with all that's been going on in the way of news on the campus, a lot of good stories have been sidetracked for want of space or put on page three. Now that things are slackening off, we'd like to ask you to keep the news coming in. We can use it.

Fellowship Granted To Robert Mall

Robert H. Mall, who receives his master's degree in agriculture at the June commencement, has accepted a fellowship in plant breeding at North Carolina State college, Raleigh. There he will work toward his doctor's degree under Dr. W. E. Colwell, formerly a member of the college of agriculture staff at the University of Idaho.

Moll, who did his undergraduate work at Cornell university, came to Idaho under a fellowship provided by the Bureau of Plant Industry. During his two years at Idaho he worked on hybrid onion studies in the Department of Horticulture, dividing his time between the campus and the Parma branch station.

Cadet Corps Inspection To Be Held Tomorrow

Nearly 500 Army ROTC cadets will pass in a giant review tomorrow afternoon at Neale Stadium in the annual inspection of Idaho's corps of army cadets.

Representatives of Lt. Gen. Joseph L. Swing, Sixth Army commander, will check the military proficiency of the corps and the entire operation of the Army unit at the University.

Commanded by Cadet Col. Peter Stickney, senior forestry major from Long Beach, Calif., the corps will conduct a ceremonial army retreat parade to the music of the ROTC band, followed by presentation of awards to 17 outstanding cadets.

Lt. Col. Aaron E. Blewett, Idaho's professor of military science, who is leaving for Korean duty this summer, said that this year's army cadet corps was the "finest" he had seen, in his three years at the institution, and he expected an "outstanding" showing at the annual inspection.

Stickney Best Man
First award, $25 cash donated by the Moscow VFW post, will go to Stickney as the "outstanding advanced army ROTC student for the academic year 1952-53."

A complete set of officer insignia will be awarded Cadet Lt. Col. Richard Warren by the American Legion Dudley Loomis post of Moscow for his leadership and achievement.

The newest building on the University of Idaho campus became officially known Sunday as the Ethel Steel house, following dedication ceremonies.

The four-story structure, designed to house 58 women students, is a cooperative dormitory, which will replace Ridenbaugh hall. The half-century-old Ridenbaugh will now provide music practice rooms. The new building is named after Mrs. Ethel Steel of Parma, who, as a member of the board of regents from 1933 to 1946, was a leader in the movement to provide cooperative dormitories at the University.

Senior Recital To Be Given This Evening

Corrine Lauriente will be presented by the University music department in her senior recital tonight at 8 p.m. at the recital hall.

Throughout her studies Miss Lauriente has been prominent in musical activities. She is a member of SAI, women's national music honorary, and has participated in several Blue Key Talent shows.

Included on the program will be Romance by Mozart, Fantasia in C by Haydn, Sonata, Op. 31, No. 2 by Beethoven, Rhapsody, Op. 11, No. 4 by Dohnanyi, Song Without Words by Mendelssohn, Mazurka by Chopin, Intermezzo from "Fascinating Schwan Aus Wien" by Schumann, and Prelude from "Suite Pour le Piano" by Debussy.

The public is invited to attend.

Pat Harris Wins Award

Recipient of the Women's Recreational association senior award at the May Fete Saturday was Pat Harris, Theta, senior education major from San Carlos, Calif.

Pat received the cup in recognition of her participation in WRA and women's sports on campus. Pat was WRA president last year, a member of the Women's "T" club, and former member of Hell Divers.

Two other cups are presented each year by WRA. One is given to the house with the most people participating during the year, and one to the house winning the most tournaments. These trophies are presented each spring at the annual WRA banquet. Hays hall won the tournament cup last year and Gamma Phi the participation cup.

WRA is an organization to which all coeds automatically belong. Organized about 1922, its purpose has been to stimulate interest in women's athletics on campus.

WRA competes — for fun — in tournaments with WSC, EWCE, and others. Girls participating are chosen on ability and support of WRA activities.

During the year, intramural baseball, tennis, badminton, golf, swimming, bowling and volleyball tournaments are organized by WRA.

"The depression years, bad as they were, brought forth some good ideas, and the cooperative dormitory program established at the University of Idaho in 1933 was one of them," said President J. E. Buchanan at the dedication ceremonies. "The charter establishing the University in 1889 took cognizance of the principle that higher education should be for the many — not the few — when it decreed that no tuition should be charged any son or daughter of Idaho. The cooperative dormitory program took further cognizance of that same principle."

Ridenbaugh became the first cooperative, but, at that time, housed men. Commenting in her dedication remarks on the making of Ridenbaugh a cooperative, Mrs. Steele said: "When President M. G. Neale first suggested the plan to the board of regents during the depth of the depression, we were a bit skeptical as to how it would work out. But, when we were told that many young men would be enabled to attend the University if they were given this means of living on the campus, we decided to go ahead with it. The decision proved to be a wise one."

Mrs. Steele presented a gift of silver tea service to the house. The gift was accepted on behalf of the students who will use the house by Betty Ruth Westerberg, president of Ridenbaugh hall.

The body was recovered by Corvallis fire department rescue workers. The victim was Louis Foon Lum of Suisan, Calif. Another companion, Frank Chan, who was in the canoe with Lum, was saved.

Student Spirits Are Dimmed By Draft Official's Remarks Regarding Present Policy

(ACP) — Editors of Student Life, Washington University, Mo., asked a Selective Service official some jackpot questions about the draft and got some unpleasant answers. The officer was Lt. Col. Irving W. Hart, chief information officer for Maj Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the U. S. Selective Service System.

Question: Is any change likely to be necessary in the student-deferment policy?

Answer: Nearly all eligible men in the older age group have already been inducted and we are now starting to take 19-year-olds in many states. The manpower supply is running short. We cannot, therefore, afford to be as liberal with student deferments in the future as we have in the past.

Question: If drafting of students is found necessary, what consideration, if any, will be given students who are married or are fathers?

Answer: Under current regulations a student who is drafted at the end of an academic year receives no consideration for deferment on account of a wife. Under current regulations fathers cannot be inducted.

Question: Is any change likely to be made in the policy of deferring students enrolled in Reserve Officer Training Corps units?

Answer: Students enrolled in ROTC units are deferred by law. Question: Speculation has been that if the need for draftees increases, the government will be forced to begin drafting either students or fathers. Which group is likely to be called upon first?

Answer: The office has no way of knowing.

Question: How many men are now being drafted and what changes in the number are likely?

Answer: The secretary of defense has announced publicly that he expects to call approximately 50,000 men per month for the balance of the fiscal year. Should it be decided to increase the size of the monthly calls, that decision will be made by the department of defense.

Question: How many students are now being deferred on the basis of the Selective Service qualification test and on ROTC enrollment?

Answer: "On Dec. 1, 1952, Selective Service had deferred approximately 185,000 college students on the basis of class standing or test scores, while upward to 330,000 ROTC students were deferred. In addition, there were many more students who had not yet reached the age of liability (18½) or who were rejected for service."

Two Pass Bar Exam

James Junior May and John Hale Dick have passed the Idaho State Bar examination recently, Dean E. S. Stimson of the college of law announced today.

May graduated from the University of Idaho law school in 1951, and was in Washington for the past few months. He is originally from Bonners Ferry, and is now in Twin Falls.

Dick will receive his law degree at the commencement exercises in June, after having finished at the semester. He is now in Chandler, Arizona, and plans to take the bar examination in that state also. Name is Dick's home town.

Fourteen persons, including both in and out-of-state aspirants, took the exam. A different exam is given each year, and the next one is scheduled for September.

USC Students Riot

A heat wave hit Los Angeles early last week and 800 shirtless, barefooted students at USC started a riot at midnight, tearing caps off fire hydrants, starting bonfires and including a small panty raid.

Twenty-five police cars were rushed to the scene and students filled an old car with lumber and ignited it in the middle of an intersection. As they danced around the blazing auto, they sang "Fight on for Old USC."

Washington Plants Seen by Foresters During Field Trip

Mitch Steffensen, Bill Gleaves and Dallas Wood, seniors in wood utilization, and Everett Ellis, assistant professor in the school of forestry, made field trip visits last week end to 18 manufacturing plants in Washington.

The different types of plants visited included those making furniture, ships, plywood and pulp. The group viewed construction of a wooden minesweeper used in defense. It takes two years to complete construction and each one costs three million dollars. They are non-magnetic, using only brass, aluminum, stainless steel and wood.

The cities visited included Omak, Twist, Everett, Anacortes, Seattle, Tacoma, Olympia and Shelton.

ATO's Purge Song Leader

ATO's song group, "The Muttering Monotones," have recently begun work on their song for next year's song fest, according to word received in the Arg office from that living group.

"Onward Christian Soldiers" in two-part harmony is being considered.

Confronted with an administrative purge, their song leader disappeared mysteriously last night. A clearly audible flushing sound at the time of his disappearance is the only clue.

Italian Film, "Angelo," To Be Shown Thursday

On Thursday at 3:30, 7 and 9 p. m. the last ASUI movie for this semester will be shown at the Borah theatre. It is the powerfully poignant Italian film, "Angelo."

This is a story of human frailty and human bitterness. Yet, there is the essence of decency, gentleness, and understanding which seems to echo through the whole picture, say many critics. Adds Walter Winchell, "A poignant import came from Italy. Its name is 'Angelo.' Its destination is your heart."

The theme of "Angelo" is rather delicate for people used to American movies and movie code, however the Legion of Decency gives the film a clean bill of health. Only the Italian movie makers dared touch a plot as this.

A Touching Tale
They have thrown themselves into the spirit of it with simple good heart, warm sympathy and open-minded laughter. "Angelo" emerges as a touching and friendly and attractive little tale.

After serving a five year prison term for stealing a loaf of bread, a young Italian returns home and finds that his wife has died more than four years before in childbirth. He sees the son that she bore for the first time and discovers that this youngster is golden haired, but with black skin. Little Angelo is the son of a Negro GI and of the wife of the Italian. The Negro soldier is now dead and the returned prisoner

You Too Can Be A "Wheel"

Ever hear that famous statement, "I sure could have improved that thing"? Then someone else will say, "Yea, but we'd never get in on any big thing like that."

Whether it was a blood drive, dance or rally someone always has some different ideas. Now we're not saying that person is in the wrong because maybe he could have handled the affair better than it was handled.

This year the new ASUI president, Bill Parsons, has come up with a new method of picking chairmen for big events. You probably have seen the bulletin that was sent around to living groups telling about the various committees and chairmanships open for next year. Well, here is your chance to exercise some of your ideas.

Today is the deadline for submitting applications to be on various committees for next year. Committees open are: Student Events Council chairman and committee, Student Services Council chairman and committee, Student Activities Council chairman and committee, NSA chairman, Homecoming chairman.

You can submit these applications to any executive board member or leave them in the ASUI president's office in the SUB. The application should have your name and qualifications for the job. TODAY is the deadline, set now. This is your chance to get into student government. F.W.

Ain't We Got Culture!!

In wandering from coffee to class and about the campus, we have detected among a percentage of students that seems far too large, an attitude best described as "pseudo sophistication." This group is vitally concerned with being "cultured," "reserved," "regular" collegians.

If a negative description is appropriate, this pseudo-sophisticate group does NOT include such people as might be found leading a constructive twist on the panty-raid craze or squeezing an accordion in a talent show.

Many of the p.-s. group are severely aware of the foreign criticisms that Americans aren't really cultured (perhaps subconsciously). They are therefore concerned with demonstrating their culture at every opportunity. Of course they understand modern art (and look askance at anyone who admits a blank in the field). They are connoisseurs of classical music (and deride anyone who happens to like Hank Thompson).

These comments must not be construed to criticize those who genuinely appreciate modern art or classical music (though toleration for the tastes of others must be included as a mark of culture).

Still, the very exuberance with which the p.-s.'s condemn Hank Thompson sometimes leads one to wonder at their sincerity in praising Bach. Perhaps they are more worried about appearances than about culture.

If we, as American collegians, be uncultured, let us spend more time exposing ourselves to culture, and less in vociferous insistence that we really are cultured. If, in the end, we find that we really prefer Thompson to Bach, where lies the shame? K.L.K.

University School Named Counselor Training Agency

The University of Idaho school of education has been designated by the State Board of Vocational Education as a counselor training institution, President J. E. Buchanan announced today.

"This action is the final step assuring federal approval by the U. S. Office of Education," added Dean J. Frederick Weltzin of the University's school of education. "The University program on counselor training meets all standards set up by the federal office."

Already officially designated by the U. S. Office of Education as an approved counselor trainer is Dr. Eugene Giles, associate professor of education at the University.

Under the counselor training program, students learn how to use the tools and techniques of vocational guidance. These include administering tests, conducting case studies, making community surveys, using occupational information for selection of vocation or profession, and conducting school guidance programs.

A student at Idaho can develop a major in this field at either the undergraduate or graduate level.

Alum News

Weekend visitors on campus were Lou (Carlson) Greely, Home Ec '52, and Llewella Sifton, Home Ec '52. The graduates stayed at Ridenbaugh hall.

Lou's husband, Glen Greely, ex-'53 stayed at Lindley hall.

Air Force Requirements Undergo Major Changes

Major changes in the criteria for selection of AFROTC students for the advanced course are to be placed into effect immediately, it was announced by Lt. Col. O. J. Mosman, professor of air science & tactics.

These changes are a direct result of the Air Force requirements which include an expansion from ninety-five to one hundred forty-three wings with a relatively small increase in personnel. Such an expansion will require a much larger percentage of flying officers and a corresponding reduction in the percentage of non-flying officers to be graduated from the AFROTC program.

The advanced course enrollment quotas which have been recently received placed no restriction on the number of cadets who are qualified for flying and who desire flying upon graduation from college.

In addition, a total of 17 cadets who are not qualified for flying training will be admitted into the advanced course giving first priority to those students in the fields of engineering, mathematics, chemistry, or physics. The balance of the 17 cadets will be accepted from the best qualified students regardless of their academic majors.

At this time there are approximately 62 Air Science II students who have passed the physical examination for flying and indicated a desire to apply for flying training upon graduation.

Now Three Years

One recent change in Air Force policy which is resulting in increased number of applicants for flying training is a reduction from four to three years total service for those officers applying for flying training upon graduation.

Other incentives for enrolling in flying training upon graduation are that the officers may be married whereas aviation cadets must be single, and while going through flying training as an officer the student will receive pay of approximately $450 per month compared with $104 for aviation cadets.

Through a mutual agreement between the Department of Military

Mothers Honored By Many Activities; Mrs. Ethel Steel Visits At Ridenbaugh

The campus was overwhelmed with mothers here to celebrate their day with their college-age sons and daughters. Many mothers were made happy to see their daughters tapped for Spurs and Mortar Board and to see them participating in the Song Fest. Here for the weekend was Mrs. Ethel Steel. TRIPLE THREAT MAN!

The Brains of the Team

Teamwork can work miracles. In a football game the man who sparks these miracles is the quarterback. He's the man who calls the signals. There's a man who calls the signals for an Air Force flying team, too! They call him an Aircraft Observer.

Do YOU have what it takes to become an Aircraft Observer?
It isn't easy. It's tough. You have to be a MAN to qualify as an Aircraft Observer. But when you are one, brother, you're SOMEBODY! The success or failure of a mission involving over a million dollars worth of flight equipment depends on you.

THE AIRCRAFT OBSERVER IS THE SOMEBODY WHO:
As Bombardment Officer, is number one man on a bombing run, the man who controls the plane in the target area!
As Navigation Officer, is the pilot's guiding hand on every flight!
As Radar Officer, is master of a new science and operator of the device that sees beyond human sight!
As Aircraft Performance Engineer Officer, is the one who "keeps the plane flying"; the man who knows his plane inside and out, who keeps it fit for the skies and sees that it stays there!

If YOU can accept a challenge like this, you'll take your place beside the best—you'll find your future in the clouds!

TO BE QUALIFIED you must be single, a citizen, between 19 and 26½ years old, have had at least 2 years of college and be in tip top physical shape. If this describes you, then YOU, too, can qualify. Today!

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL GET! The world's best training. Good food and plenty of it. Uniforms, flight clothes, equipment. Medical and dental care. Free insurance. Flight training in Uncle Sam's greatest aircraft.

AND THEN, AFTER GRADUATION, you'll win your silver wings, and earn more than $5000 a year as an Air Force Lieutenant. You'll enjoy an adventurous, exciting career with a hand-picked crew of real men. You'll be THE BRAINS OF THE TEAM, A TRIPLE THREAT MAN... as a Bombardment Officer, as a Navigation Officer, as a Radar Officer, as an Aircraft Performance Engineer.

THE SOONER YOU APPLY, THE SOONER YOU FLY!

Sweeney Gets Four Ribbons Again; Clark Takes Pair

Over-all depth and experience with emphasis on the field events gave the visiting Oregon State track and field squad a 74 to 57 Northern Division win Saturday over Idaho on a windy Neale stadium cinder path.

The Vandals took no back seat in first places, however, as they rolled up seven blue ribbons in the individual events, including four victories by veteran Bruce Sweeney and a pair by junior distance ace Emerson Clark.

That Sweeney, who has taken at least three firsts in every meet this year, claimed top honors in his specialties the low and high hurdles, the high jump and broad jump. In the latter Bruce topped his own Idaho varsity record by one inch when he sailed 23 feet 5 inches. On that particular jump Sweeney would have had well over 24 feet except that he fell backwards and officials were forced to measure from where his hand hit.

In spite of a painful sore throat which he kept wrapped with a towel during the meet, Emerson Clark came from behind to win both the mile and half-mile. In the four-lap event Clark pulled past Sophomore Lou Gourley in the last 220 yards to lead the Vandals in a sweep of the event. Later over the shorter distance Emerson caught teammate Walt Meukow in the final yards for the win. Meukow, in a desperate attempt to stave off Clark's sprint, fell at the tape and was edged out of second by OSC's Whiteman.

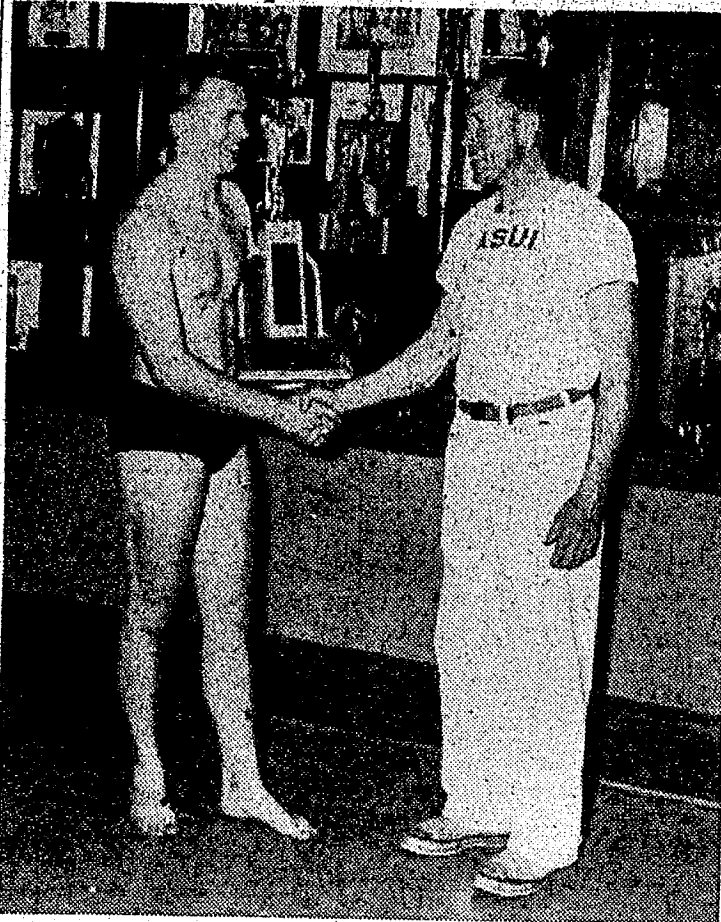

Lou Gourley took an early commanding lead in the two-mile run and never let up as he won Idaho's only other first place. Hampered by wind Lou's time was far off his best.

Strong in Field
The Beavers captured four out of six field events and were picking two places in most races to one for Idaho as they picked up their first ND victory. Hawk faced Mervin Brock doubled for the winners in the sprints. His 100 yard dash clocking with the wind was a good 9.7.

One record was posted during the day as OSC's Ralph Sutton tossed the javelin 207 feet 6 inches with the wind. The toss bettered his own mark, set last year, of 201 feet 8 inches.

Linksters At WSC Today; Pound Oregon State 21-6

The Vandal golf team, fresh from a one-sided victory over Oregon State, meets the Washington State Cougars today at Pullman in a 36-hole match. Tee-off time was slated for 8:30 this morning.

Idaho, after losing to Oregon Friday 17-10, came back strong Saturday to defeat Oregon State 21-6 to give the University its only win of the day out of four sports.

It was a tough day Friday as the Silver and Gold battled the Oregon Ducks for 36 holes. Idaho's first double team of Bob Campbell and Tom Miller played top golf as they shot a 33-33 66 to tie Atkinson and Strelbel from Oregon who had a 32-34-66.

Tom Miller was medalist in the singles as he shot a 70 to take 2 1/2 points from Don Krieger. In the No. 1 match, Idaho's Campbell edged out the long hitting Bob Atkinson to take 2 points.

OSC Finally Loses
Saturday the Vandals literally walked away from Oregon State as they took the doubles 7-2 and the singles 14-4. Idaho's two guns, Phil Weitz and Campbell, led the way as Weitz shot a 32-38-70 and Campbell had a 34-38-72 to sweep their matches. Campbell also teamed with Tom Miller in the doubles to score a 36-32-68 for low best ball. It was a cold, windy day and scores were higher than usual.

Oregon State's improving Beavers moved into first place last week in Northern Division baseball by sweeping all four games from Idaho and WSC in their Palouse invasion.

Idaho, beaten 13-9 and 3-2 by the Orangemen, face the Cougars in a single game at Pullman Friday and a Moscow doubleheader Saturday. The Vandals now rest in fourth place, and must whip Buck Bailey's gang twice to regain the third spot.

Six Run Lead
The Vandals blew an 8-2 lead in the first game to lose, 13-9. Flip Kleffner's three-run homer in the first gave the home team the lead, and when the Vandals hopped on OSC's Nierman for five more runs in the third and fourth, the ball game seemed safely tucked away. However, a walk, three hits, two errors and a wild pitch in the fifth tied the score. In the seventh Coach Coleman's crew put the game on ice with a five run outburst.

Saturday's game under sullen skies with a stiff breeze blowing was a tight one but the Vandals again lapsed and let in the tying and winning runs in the bottom of the ninth with two out and the Beavers won 3-2.

The Vandals opened scoring in the fourth stanza on a pair of hits off Bailey Brem, ace of the Beaver mound staff. The Corvallis invaders tied it up with one run off Ken Hallett in the fifth and it stood that way until the Vandals collected a lone score in the eighth.

The Terrible Ninth
Ruggles opened the ninth frame for the Beavers but died on second on a fielder's choice which put Jack Pinion, Beaver pinch-hitter at first. Brem got his second single of the day putting Pinion's pinch-runner Jack Bowen at third. Coach Ralph Coleman stirred up some beefing on the part of the Beavers and the incidents seemed to unnerve Hallett who delivered a single to shortstop Chuck Fisk which scored his two teammates.
