English Comedy Comes To Screen On Thursday

By Joe Corless

Alec Guinness, top English comedian, comes to the screen of the Borah theatre this Thursday playing eight distinct roles in the hilarious film, "Kind Hearts and Coronets." The movie will be shown at 4, 7 and 8:30 p. m.

Class officer elections are coming up tomorrow. We ask you to get out and vote so we don't go near that miserable 1600-vote yawner that was last year's election.

We don't care if you think class officers are worthwhile or not. We don't care if they're asked to do much or little during the school year. We don't care if you'd like to see class officers put in charge of planning picnics or field days or reefer parties.

We don't care if you think class elections should be complete with platforms. We don't care if you think a platform is silly or even if you feel that no issues exist in a class officer election.

We don't care if you pick 'em on past performance, good looks, living group or who's carrying top weight. Use your own system. But get out and vote, you'll need the practice when you reach 21. And bring your ASUI card.

About that walk to Pullman Saturday: THANKS to all you guys and dolls who padded to the Cougar den with us. Too bad we got mixed up with some "Muscle Rub" just before all the fun started over there.

But we never saw such a great bunch of walkers. Like a parade it was, already. And that WSC bunch was OK, too.

We would also like to thank the various merchants and Theodore Smith for their thoughtfulness. We were presented with a football from the Coast-to-Coast store; snails from the Moscow Bakery; flowers from Moscow Florists; balloons from Benny Olson of the Sanitary market; a harmonica from the Mezzanine Music shop; hot dogs from Dickinson's; and notebooks and pencils from Moscow Office Equipment company.

Also received were "vitamins" from Carter's Drug store; a "pig" sundae from Roger's Ice Cream; a carton of Coke from Rolfe's; a bunch of all day suckers from Owl Drug; hankies from the Parisian; liniment and corn plasters from Hodgins' Drug; and a week's free washing at the Washerette.

To all of you kind people and the proprietor of the Moscow Home News a big THANK YOU from Bill Parsons, John, and ourselves.

Libel Actions Dismissed In First Round Battle

Round one in former Justice of the Peace John Borg's libel actions ended in dismissal Friday. Federal Judge Chase A. Clark dismissed the suits on grounds that they were filed in the wrong district. Murray Estes, attorney for the plaintiff, contended that a secretarial error placed the action in the wrong venue and said that he would refile in the right one.

The three libel actions, totaling $200,000, name the Idahoian, the Lewiston Tribune, Prosecutor Melvin Alsager of Latah county, and Capt. T. C. Thomas, professor of Naval science at the University as defendants. Borg, who is now employed as a hotel clerk in Pullman, filed the suits Sept. 18. He claimed that statements made by Capt. Thomas and printed in the defendant newspapers damaged his reputation.

The Friday session in Coeur d'Alene was a preliminary debate of lawyers as to the legal merits of the case.

Defense attorneys asked dismissal on grounds the northern district has no jurisdiction in the matter. Estes asked for a transfer, but Judge Clark said he couldn't do so unless the defense would agree. Defense attorneys claimed that a transfer would jeopardize some of their legal rights.

Judge Clark said, "Because there has been no showing of hardship, I shall dismiss all three suits regardless of the fact that they will be refiled."

The present actions grew out of last winter's altercation at the University Perch involving attorney Murray Estes and NROTC student Richard Shoup. Shoup, as complaining witness, showed up at the local police station where Justice Borg customarily held court. Borg, however, had moved to the county court house. Estes was present at Borg's court and, when complainant Shoup failed to appear, Borg dismissed the case. In a discussion of the action, Capt. Thomas made statements that Borg claimed damaged him.

It is not known whether the libel suits will be refiled in federal court here or in the Latah county court.

University Students See Mining District

Forty-five University of Idaho mining and geology students left here Friday for the Coeur d'Alene mining district where they will obtain first-hand information on their respective fields at mines in that area.

The group led by Professor W. W. Staley of the metallurgy department were shown the Star mine of the Hecla Mining company at Burke by engineering and geology staff members. The group later visited the Star mill.

Eight geology students stayed in the district until Saturday to visit the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine at Kellogg. Accompanying this group was Professor E. F. Cook, associate professor in the geology department.

Executive . . . . . Board

Agenda:— Captain Thomas and committee on ROTC participation. Eligibility resolution drawn up by Don McCabe, Liz Winegar, and Bill Parsons. Questionnaire on Student Facilities fee projects. Town Men's room and its use. KUOI staff report. Disturbance in the library. Delegates to Reed college conference.

Vandal Plodders Make Trip

Approximately 78 pairs of assorted male and female hooves pounded the state-owned pavement between Moscow and Pullman Saturday in Idaho's annual walkathon. The hikers were accompanied by Bill Parsons, ASUI president; Al Dieffenbach, Argonaut editor, and John McDermott, Argonaut sports editor.

To the Hiker to Pullman

On behalf of Al, John and myself, I would like to thank all of you for your support in the long hike across the border into Cougarville. It truly reflected the Vandal Spirit in time of defeat.

Yours with sore feet,
Bill Parsons,
ASUI President.

Military Counselors To Be Here

These will be in the uniforms of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force.

Honor Court Head Chosen

Best Banner To Win Prizes At Rally

Plans for Dad's Day, November 14, are taking form with the announcement of contests for the day and for the rally the evening before, according to Gordon McLeod, publicity chairman for the weekend.

Design Important

Design is important in the show. The play is expressionistic, and the sets have to express this theme also. The use of numbers and blood on the walls is one of the symbols referred to many times in connection with the murder of the protagonist, Mr. Zero. The painted numbers are used to continually remind Zero of his work with numbers throughout his life.

Light Cues

About 50 or 60 light cues are included in this play. Mobile or fluid lights are arranged in such a manner that the audience's attention is shifted from one part of the stage to another as the lights change position.

Oil Conservation To Be Subject Of Essay Contest

The Association of Petroleum Refiners of Washington D. C. are sponsoring their second annual essay contest. This year the subject will be "Oil Conservation for National Defense."

Idaho Dairy Boys Win First Again In Judging Contest

Baby Girl Gives Rafe Gibbs A Full House

A five pound 14 ounce baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rafe Gibbs at Gritman Memorial hospital Saturday morning. The new addition, Constance Mary is the fifth child. She has two sisters and two brothers.

Boys' Pants Worn By BYU Girls

Girls are switching to men's apparel at Brigham Young university. This appears to be an economical fad. Shirts and levis are, in the long run, much cheaper than the more formal-looking dresses.

Trick Or Treat?

Local authorities put a stop to a 17 year old youth's Halloween activities here on campus when he was apprehended peeking into a window of Hays hall.

Hot Two-Party Battle Looms At Polls In Annual Class Officer Balloting

Voting for class officers will begin at 8:45 a. m. Wednesday, November 4. Voting booths will be set up inside the main entrance of the Ad building, first floor of the Engineering building, and in the lobby of the SUB.

Representing the Greeks on the Election board are Cal Bosse, Paul Scholtz, Bill Etter, Jim Townsend and Barbara Anderson. Independents on the board include Charles Pierce, Hugh Burgess, Ruth Johannesen, Don O'Neill and Ray Kranchies. Members at large are John Hansen, William Stott and Robert Newhouse.

The U and I party, active in last two year's elections removed their party from the slate this year to become a "committee for political observation."

Last year the United party candidates took 14 of the 16 seats when 1608 votes were cast. Last year's presidents were Wayne Anderson, senior; Bill Parsons, junior; Stanton Tate, sophomore and John Mix, freshmen. All were members of the United party. The other two offices were filled by the Independent and the U and I party.

Last year's election also carried an amendment to make the station master of KUOI an ex-officio member of the executive board.

"Machine" Coming Friday And Saturday

"It is a challenge to produce a show with seven different sets," remarked Edmund Chavez, technical drama advisor, speaking of "The Adding Machine," to be given Friday and Saturday at 8 p. m. in the University auditorium.

The crew as well as the cast have been rehearsing many hours each night. On the small University auditorium stage there is no extra space to store the 14-foot flats; sets which have to be shifted for each scene. The crew has been working on the scene shifts trying to cut them to one and a half minutes between scenes.

Each set is different from the other, so most sets and properties have to be moved off the stage and completely changed for the next scene. This, of course, makes "The Adding Machine" an especially hard play to stage.

Campus Accidents Present Problem

A two-car accident at Seventh and Elm streets Saturday night points up the fact that maybe the Arg isn't "talking through its hat" in an editorial attempt to instill a little caution in campus drivers.

It does get tiresome to keep harping on the same old theme and probably boring for Arg readers, but a serious traffic problem faces University authorities. Maybe, in some small measure, we are aiding in minimizing injuries and property damage. However, some campus drivers are still driving so as to menace the safety of others in spite of frequent editorial comment on the subject of safe motor practices.

It might be well for campus drivers to remember that there are many ways to make darn fools of yourselves without endangering others. None of these ways should be attempted while sitting behind the wheel.

Just a word to thank those of you who realize the importance of safe driving practices, read these editorials, and cooperate fully on campus streets. You will never get your names in the paper for accidents that don't happen. Thanks again, safe drivers. H.A.S.

Political Forum

There have been many traditions here in the 50 years since our alma mater was founded. However, it seems to us that opportunities for exhibiting our spirit have become fewer, and it is our fear that the school feeling, which we deem so essential, will decrease proportionally.

We of the United party sponsored a rather spontaneous all-campus street dance last Tuesday night. We were encouraged by the swell response as an indication of the potential spirit of our fellow students. And judging by the good time had by all, we need more such events.

Another idea for getting together as a student body is the class days program spoken of by the United party candidates in their campus tour. It is our firm belief that such programs will unite the student body, will be a chance to bring out our dormant spirit, and most of all, will be a source of a lot of fun.

So it is with this idea that the United party arrives at class elections this fall. We would like to follow through with many similar programs, and with your support our candidates will be striving to bring about this goal.

Paul Field, Tom Dolson, United Party Campaign Mgrs.

As was pointed out to you in your living groups, the Independent party is not going to make a lot of new campaign promises. However, your candidates from the Independent party have, and do, pledge themselves to fulfill the promises made to you and not carried out in the past.

Your candidates, in conjunction with the Executive Board, will have certain functions and duties to perform for you. And, if student days, etc., are your desire, you can rest assured that the candidates on the Independent party ticket will be responsive to your wishes. As for voting for the best man regardless of party, the Independent party has, does and will support the idea fully. In conjunction with this, we of the Independent caucus feel that we have some of the best men and women and that they will work for all the students of the U of I.

Jim Kruger, Chairman, Independent Campaign.

Dr. W. H. Cone, head of the physical science department, attended the meeting of the representatives of the physical science departments at the College of Idaho in Boise Friday and Saturday.

The principal topic was the importance of a general course in the physical sciences in the liberal arts curriculum. Other schools represented were Idaho State college, Boise Junior college, North Idaho Junior college, Northwest Nazarene college, Ricks college and the College of Idaho.

DEAR JASON

Dear Jason, The results of last week's blood drive are hardly the kind designed to induce wild jubilation among the members of the blood committee. We had hoped desperately that this drive would be a success, but instead it faltered and died to a point where our most extravagant claims can only be that the amount of blood donated was far greater than in our very first drive — but that's all.

There were many reasons for these disappointing results. It is undeniable that the influenza epidemic had its effect. Also, with the end of Korean hostilities we could no longer point to the American soldier spilling his blood onto a frozen battlefield. We tried to point to this same man, now confined to a hospital somewhere, but still needing your blood. Evidently our pointing was not effective.

I willingly take the blame for a lot of mistakes which we can now see pretty clearly—all except one. This one, the most unfortunate of all, was made when we sadly overestimated a certain "Idaho Spirit" which we thought would push the drive, even without competition, over the top.

Aside from all this, there were many people who contributed their best efforts in an attempt to make the drive successful. Maurice Johnson, Hazel Tomlinson, Jane Querna, Phyllis Gestrin, Harriet Houghton, Liz Winegar, Lucy and Blair, Mrs. J. E. Buchanan, Mrs. Erwin Graue and the Faculty Women's club, the Spurs, and the IKS gave valuable and appreciated assistance.

To these people, to 655 donors, and to others who are unnamed, go my very sincere thanks, with the one real regret that their efforts were not rewarded with at least the satisfaction of success. Don McCabe

SAEs Choose Dixie Kroush As Queen; Welker Gives Flag To Sigma Chis

The Pi Phis recall Friday as a memorable night, for following their pajama pledge dance, the "Sleepy Time Gals" welcomed home Dixie Kroush, the SAE Queen of Violets. Congratulations, Dixie!

Senator Herman Welker, Sigma Chi alum, was an honored guest at the chapter house recently, at which time he made several presentations.

Reports of Halloween exchanges are still in the news, but the Betas are leading the parade as socialites in number for the week.

WILLIS SWEET

Hallowe'en was ushered in somewhat prematurely Thursday evening as Willis Sweet hall hosted Forney in a combination dinner exchange and Hallowe'en party. Wearing masks to look their spookiest, everybody danced until the apple-bobbing commenced. After this rather humid floor show, Darlene Kilborn presented a vocal solo.

We were so confused after our Confusion dance last month that we didn't even get the news in on it, but we're getting back in shape now. The prize for the best man's costume went to Jim Richardson, the Wandering Minstrel. Ernie Gohrband won first in the gal's division. Po Ping Wong and Alfredo Garvens took honors for the most confused couple—boy, they were really mixed up! Some 60 couples attended and danced as Joe Wheeler provided the down-beat.

December 5 has been set as the date for the annual Cabaret dance, but the theme has not yet been chosen. Chairman for the Cabaret this year is Stan Sorensen. He will be assisted by Dick Denny.

Guests at Sunday dinner were Joyce Johnson, Vonda Jackson, John Denny, Mae Pappenhagen and Kathy Howe.

PI BETA PHI

The Pi Phis were hostesses for a house exchange and Hallowe'en party with the ATOs Saturday. The girls set up an obstacle course and served chili afterward.

Numerous "Sleepy Time Gals" and their dates attended the Pi Phi pajama pledge dance Friday night. The chapter house was decorated with pink and white streamers and stuffed animals on blanket-covered furniture. Eddie Aliverti and his orchestra furnished the music.

The committee chairmen for the dance were Jo Murelaga, chairman; Lucy Spencer and Cathy Fitzgerald, decorations; Carolyn Harper, Ginger Jones, programs; Glenmar Hoke and Harriet Kruse, patrons and patronesses, and Helen West and Peggy Lou Horn, refreshments.

The chaperones included Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Alley, Rev. and Mrs. David Seaman, Mrs. Mary Clark, Dean Louise Carter, Dean and Mrs. Donald Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boas.

Dixie Kroush was crowned SAE Violet queen Friday night.

Recent dinner guests were Bonese Collins, Fritz Hoover, Dorothy Wahl and Mrs. Charles Geier and Nicholas.

Janet Kirk, WSC, and Betty Jo Molchan, Spokane, were weekend guests.

SIGMA CHI

Last Thursday evening at a formal dinner, alum Herman Welker presented us with a flag that has flown over the capitol and a gavel that was made from the wood of the original White House. Special guests at the dinner were alums Rafe Gibbs, John Luedke, Louis Boas, Jess Buchanan, A. E. Hagan, Allan Perry, Chris Hagan, Leonard Thorp, Bill Hansen and Wade Patterson.

As a climax to the evening, Senator Welker presided over the formal pledging of Bill Burleigh of Moscow and Bob Cochran of Indianapolis, Ind.

Last Friday evening a Hallowe'en fireside was held.

During the past week two Sigs have announced their engagements—Dick Rodgers of Moscow to Delores Anderson of Boise, and student from Mecca, was awarded the door prize.

John Einan has just returned from a successful week end hunting trip in southern Idaho.

Former Lambda-Chis Ambrose Slesinski and Larry Feigamaker are currently in the US Marines.

PHI KAPPA TAU

The week's social whirl was too much for the house prexy Cal White. Saturday night Cal was taken to Critman Memorial hospital suffering from an attack of appendicitis. He was immediately operated upon. Cal expects to be hospitalized a few days and would appreciate visitors.

ENGAGEMENTS
Murelaga-Schnurr

The engagement of Jo Murelaga to Bill Schnurr was revealed at a fireside at the Pi Phi house Thursday night.

An anchor of light and deep pink carnations was to a sail boat by a white satin ribbon. Written in gold letters on the ribbon was "Shipmates Forever." The diamond was centered in a deep pink carnation on the anchor. The traditional box of chocolates was passed.

No wedding date has been set.

Attie Club Will Observe Art Week

American Art week will be observed this coming week at the University of Idaho with a display at the Art building. The display will be sponsored by the Attie club, and will be held from November 2 through November 14. ## Greenhouse Added At North Station

Addition of a small greenhouse, now nearing completion, will put many research lines at the Sandpoint branch station on a year-round basis and open new fields of investigation, explains C. T. Brackney, superintendent of the northernmost of the University of Idaho field research centers.

The greenhouse is part of an L-shaped structure which will provide a work room, seed cleaning and treating facilities and office quarters for the superintendent.

Starting this fall, several lines of research which have stopped with the approach of winter will be shifted into the greenhouse. One of the first studies to benefit from the addition will be that exploring factors involved in the establishment and maintenance of alfalfa on some of the well-drained soils of the panhandle.

Soil samples from different areas will be brought into the greenhouse. Other studies to be shifted to the greenhouse during the winter months will include testing of herbicides for weed control and grass breeding to secure better varieties for northern Idaho.

Just Chatter

By JOHN McDERMOTT

Well, it wasn't such a bad walk after all. We had the biggest turnout in the history of the affair, and there were no reports of anyone suffering from blisters or overly sore muscles.

One of the things we learned Saturday was to never wear white sweat socks while climbing in coal piles chasing after a football. This reporter had the unfortunate opportunity to have to chase a football through a very large coal pile, only to have his shoes removed by a pretty WSC coed in front of some 150 people. The white socks looked a little worse than scaly Sam the garbage man's socks much to the embarrassment of himself and the delight of the audience.

The WSC'ers gave us a very cordial welcome with a small band and several variety acts. They also presented us with some presents that will be cherished forever. Excluding a little episode with some "Muscle Rub" which we will not go into, the trip was one of sheer pleasure and merrymaking.

To put the few who rode back and forth past us in your shiny little automobiles to shame, it might be well to note that Luther Fitch, who ran and won the all campus' cross country Saturday morning was loyal enough to make the trip with us. Not only that, but he was in the group that covered the nine miles in one hour and a half, which is really traveling.

Jeers from a few of the capitalistic car owners who buzzed past us every three minutes were not too well received by the walkers, but those who provided refreshments for the 70-some hikers were of the utmost value in making the walk much easier.

We might add that had Babe Curfman been along on our little trip he would undoubtedly have found some excellent material for next year's grid squad. We completed better than 50 per cent of our passes and gained 15,840 yards rushing. Outstanding passes from the arm of Bill Parsons to your reporter and crashing line backs by Al Dieffenbach gave us a long series of first downs. All in all we gained nine miles, going deeper and deeper into enemy territory with every play. Dazzling end runs by Bev Gallup and Diane Chester will long be remembered.

Considering the loss which WSC suffered Saturday at the hands of Stanford, the welcoming committee was in good spirits and more than surprised at the turnout we had. They had to phone to the CUB and order more food when they saw what we had brought along with us.

We'd like to express our thanks to all those who went. It really shows we have a lot of spirit here at Idaho. They were in wonderful voice too as they serenaded the Cougars with a selection of Idaho songs.

Again we say THANKS.

We had a headline in the paper last week that caused a bit of a stir among a few people. It concerned a story about Eddie Cole from Caldwell denying he was after Babe Curfman's coaching job here. The head read "Cole not after Curfman's job," and a score of people were wondering if Jan Cole had changed her major and was interested in coaching football. To the wonderers we say, no. Through some mixup when the names were handed out the moniker of Cole seemed to have been doled out to two families in the United States. It's confusing, but that's the way it goes sometimes.

Alpha Tau Omega is currently leading in the race to see what house will have possession of the intramural championship plaque next year. The fraternity has compiled 365 1/2 points in three sports to lead second place Willis Sweet Hall by 11 points.

Standings include points received for touch football, cross country and tennis.

The team totals:

ATO, 365 1/2

Lindley Hall, 335 1/2

Sigma Chi, 335

Beta Theta Pi, 315

Sigma Nu, 314

Campus Club, 300

Chrisman Hall, 285 1/2

Tau Kappa Epsilon, 280

Delta Tau Delta, 260

Eagle and Anchor, 248

Kappa Sigma, 240 1/2

Phi Gamma Delta, 240

Delta Chi, 239 1/2

Idaho Club, 183 1/2

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 148 1/2

Delta Sigma Phi, 140

Phi Kappa Tau, 135

Lambda Chi Alpha, 129 1/2

Hoop Men Turn Out

Sweat and groans prevailed yesterday afternoon at the official turnout for varsity basketball, with 18 men reporting to coach Chuck Finley in preparation for coming hoop season.

"It should be a good team," said Finley of his charges. "We have 18 men out and although its too early to tell who is going to make the nucleus of the squad we should do okay."

Four senior lettermen are back this year. They are Dwight Morrison, Tom Flynn, Roger Lillibridge and Charles Totten. Juniors are Bob Falash, Lefty Melton, Allen Sather, Bill Mahlick and Orin Fulton. Sophomores out for their first crack at the varsity are Jay Webb, Bud Nelson, Digger Dodel, Hugh Swanstrom, Bill Bauscher and Bob Garrison.

Finley said that although the team should shape up pretty well, the preseason schedule may not be enough to bring them along the way it should.

There will be a meeting of the Vandal Ski club this Thursday at 6:45 p.m. in conference room B. Business for the evening will include the tentative plans for a Thanksgiving ski trip, collection of dues, and plans for the Viola Ski area.

A short film on skiing will be shown. All persons interested are invited to attend.

Lack of Jumpers, Cross Country Men Slow Ski Team

In addition to five lettermen returning to coach Capt. Henry Burnett's varsity ski team, he is also looking forward to using the jumping ability of Reidar Ullevaalseter from Oslo, Norway.

Ullevaalseter plans to be here for three years according to Burnett, and he has a very good competition record from Norway as a junior jumper there. Burnett feels that he should be able to help the Vandal skiing squad a great deal this year.

Burnett said that there were still vacancies to be filled in cross-country and jumping. He stated the cross country skiers were needed more than jumpers and the field was wide open for prospective candidates.

Cross country training should begin in the near future, he said, if the snow falls according to plans. However, a long range weather forecast predicts a mild winter. Unless the forecast proves wrong, the Neale stadium jump will probably not be constructed this year. Training will begin on Viola hill, Moscow mountain or Emida Ski bowl as soon as enough snow has fallen to permit the skiers to start regular workouts.

Manager Tells Problems Of Equipping Athletes

A football player turned in his used gear recently and immediately drew fresh equipment—an operation that was done in a matter of a few seconds at the athletic equipment managers room in the gym.

This systematic operation is the result of some careful tedious loans made by athletic equipment Manager Marv Glasscock.

Marv took your reporter through the equipment rooms pointing out all of the new changes and additions made over the past few years.

To the right of the entrance Marv and assistants hand out complete "white gear" which includes towel, socks, and other skin wear. White gear is handed out each night of practice.

New Laundry Room

With pride Marv displays the gear room and laundry room. The latter has not been completed as yet, however washer, extractor, and drier have arrived and need only to be installed.

In the equipment room, space is mainly consumed by football gear. Marv built equipment bins where all of the players have individual compartments where their game uniforms and shoes are stored. Shoes take up one side of the room and game pants, jerseys and helmets are stored along another wall.

Personalized Traveling

The morning before the squad leaves on a trip each player gets his own gear from these bins and his practice locker and packs it individually in a duffel bag. Marv points out here, that most schools pack their team wear in a centralized system, helmets in one trunk, pants in another, etc., but the Vandals travel personalized, each with his own gear.

All other squads travel in the same manner, Glasscock said, with basketball players issued two traveling bags to each two men. They put playing clothes one bag and personal equipment in another.

When the laundry system is ready for operation, it will end sending out any equipment to be washed for athletes can assist in the operations of the system. This will provide for faster service as well as an expense savings. PE equipment will also be handled in the 50 pound system.

Expensive Game

Glasscock estimated that it cost "$340 to keep a football player equipped, on the Saturday grid-iron and on the practice field. A game uniform ranges about $190 and the practice outfit $150.

Breaking these items down, Glasscock commented "pants are $36, jerseys $10, shoes $27, shoulder pads $32, hip pads $16, helmets $14 and white gear $3.50; New brushed-wool warmup jackets are priced at $22."

"In keeping track of all this equipment each bin, shoes and uniforms, and the practice equipment correspond with the number each player is assigned. Before they used a system of three different numbers and gear was being lost frequently."

Other new additions to Glasscock's equipment center is a darning machine which is used on all jerseys and pants. In the past similar repairs have run to $350. Leather and sewing machines are also handy.

The only sewing sent out is that needed on grid shoes where binding on the shoe and sole have to be repaired.
