

National Dream Girl

JERRY EMISON

Tri Delta Selected As Dream Girl

We found it awfully quiet in two places on the campus upon returning from the annual interlude. One place was the football coach's office from which Curfman and Co. departed during the Yule rest. And, whenever anyone dies, quits or is removed, there is a void. No doubt exists in our mind that the football coaching staff had a bushel of friends among the students and faculty. All we can do is wish the Babe and his staff good luck wherever they may go. The ASUI office was also tomblike. Gale Mix was in Cincinnati for a convention, and Marv Washburn, chief troubleshooter, was on leave of absence to Indiana. That office usually buzzes. Now only Bill Bowley is buzzing—with the assistance of Jean and Joyce.

Jerry Emison, Tri Delta, was selected by Delta Sigma Phi fraternity as its National Dream Girl. Word of her selection was received December 18 by the local chapter.

She was chosen from the entries of 77 Delta Sig chapters throughout the nation. Miss Emison was chosen by the Idaho chapter as their Dream Girl last spring, and she was crowned at their annual Carnation Ball, May 16. Miss Emison is the first national fraternity queen to be selected from the Idaho campus. She graduates from the University last spring, and she now holds a secretarial position with an insurance company in Boise. Before coming to the University, she attended Boise Junior college where she was on the honor roll and was a member of the Valkyries. At the University, she was a member of the Tri Delta sorority and was its assistant treasurer. She was also a member of Phi Chi Theta, WRA, and the University Singers.

Theta To Compete In Mag. Contest

Jane Querna, Theta, has been selected as a member of the Mademoiselle magazine college board. Her criticism of the August issue of the magazine was chosen as one of the winning manuscripts. She will now compete for a guest editorship with the magazine by submitting three article assignments.

Dates Set For One-Acts

The Borah room in the SUB will be the site of the annual one-act plays, presented and directed by members of the advanced play production class of the University of Idaho. Dates for these plays are Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 13, 14 and 15. Curtain time is 8 p.m. The three-act plays are taken this year from the writing of continental playwrights. They include Emil Ougier's "The Postscript," which will be directed by June Adams; "On the Highway," by Anton Chekov, directed by Mary Lou LaFors; and August Strindberg's "Miss Julie," directed by Jim Madison. No admission will be charged for the plays, but those interested in attending the performances are requested to call Jean Collette's office, phone 8452, as soon as possible for seat reservations.

Replies List Ice Rink, Pool As Top Requests

A University ice rink and swimming pool ranked high as favorites among students, it was brought out in tabulations of the Student Facilities Fee questionnaires. Final tabulations were given at Tuesday's Executive Board meeting. It was pointed out that percentages still have to be worked out. Improvement of the Pollatch winter area also came in for discussion by the Board.

Use of fee funds to hire a football coach and team was suggested. Acting Dean of Men Charles O. Decker said there are no legal objections to the plan. It has been rumored that some students do not plan to pay the facilities fee next semester. An invitation to participate in the annual Idaho Outlaw Basketball tournament in Twin Falls was turned down by the Board. Intramural teams participate in this event.

Jim Saad and Ruth Brede's names were submitted by the Student Activities board for chairman and assistant chairman of freshman orientation.

Recruitment

Flip Kleffner has been receiving information from high schools throughout the state as a result of questionnaires sent out recently. The annual recruitment by Guy Wicks, field agent, is scheduled for February.

A letter was read to the Board from the Moscow Chamber of Commerce congratulating the University on an excellent start and showing of the basketball team in games this season. The chamber also commented on the students' enthusiastic "college spirit."

The Board heard a letter from the Children's Home of North Idaho in which they requested funds for their Christmas drive. A letter was sent explaining that it was the Board's policy to make donations from the Campus Chest.

Delores Anderson is scheduled to appear before the next Board session to discuss the Campus Chest drive committee's plans for the coming drive in April.

Ted Torok offered the suggestion to the Board that letters be awarded to University Band members. Torok suggested that a point system could be set up by which band members could receive points for a semester's work. It was pointed out that students participating in band activities receive no award for their work.

The suggestion was made that the annual get-together between Idaho and WSC Executive Boards be scheduled for a regular Board meeting night.

Researchers Confer Here This Week

The annual conference of staff members of the University of Idaho agricultural experiment station is being held the week of January 4-9. Dr. James E. Kraus, associate director, has announced.

The conference is a joint meeting with field specialists of the Idaho agricultural extension service. The University agricultural research men meet once a year to evaluate present objectives and plan new projects. Extension service workers meet with them to discuss problems and the needs of major importance in Idaho agriculture.

Special attention is being given this year to points stressed by Secretary of Agriculture Benson in his reorganization plan for the U. S. department of agriculture. These include marketing of farm products, production and marketing efficiency, new and wider uses of farm products.

Special speakers at this year's conference include Dr. C. E. Terrill, director of the U. S. sheep experiment station at Dubois, Idaho; Dr. Gerald Thorne, memalogist with the U. S. bureau of plant industry, Salt Lake City; F. L. Ballard, director of the Oregon agricultural extension service, and C. M. Ferguson, director of the federal extension service.

Idaho Plays Host To String Quartet

The Juilliard string quartet, hailed by music critics as one of America's greatest contributions to quartet history, will appear on the stage of the University Recital hall in the Music building at 8 p.m. Sunday, January 24.

The Juilliard String Quartet is made up of four young Americans, Robert Mann, Robert Koff, Raphael Hillyear and Arthur Winograd. ## Companies Make Awards To Students

Dean of Men Charles O. Decker has announced that 169 Idaho students were awarded scholarships totaling $30,262.50.

Some of the major contributors are Potlatch Forests foundation, Union Pacific railway, Hecla-Bunker Hill, Sears-Roebuck, Standard Oil Company of California, International General Electric, Carnation Milk Co., Davis Brothers of Burley, Moscow branch of the First Security Bank of Idaho, government of Guam, and the Idaho chapter of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

The University of Idaho also awards scholarships to some students. George S. Eccles, president of the First Security corporation of Salt Lake City has announced that Idaho students will receive two scholarships of $500 each from the corporation.

It was also announced that educational benefits were received from the First Security foundation. It consists of a $300 library grant to be used for the purchase of books and periodicals on economics and finance.

"Engineer" Starts 30th Year In May

"The Idaho Engineer," official publication of the University of Idaho Associated Engineers, will enter its 30th year of publication this coming May.

The magazine is edited and managed by student engineers under the guidance of Professors N. F. Hindle and F. H. Hall. Now issued as a quarterly, the magazine seeks to advance the trend of all engineering functions in the state of Idaho.

"For the undergraduate student, the magazine will strive to illustrate certain phases of the work which he will be expected to do upon his graduation," the magazine's first editor wrote.

He added, "It is an organ for the use of the engineering profession in Idaho, bringing practice engineers in closer touch with the work being done at the state institution, and keeping its graduates in closer union among themselves.

Closer Organization "It is hoped that it will act as a catalyst for closer organization of University of Idaho engineers." A list of the men who have held important positions on the staff of "The Idaho Engineer" reads like a roll call of "Who's Who" for Idaho engineering graduates.

Idaho Band To Present A Concert

The 65-piece University of Idaho concert band, under the direction of Warren T. Bellis, will present a concert of American music in the University Auditorium at 8 p.m. on Friday, January 8. The concert will honor the Province convention of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national honorary music fraternity, being held on campus January 8 and 9.

The program will consist of "A New Day Overture", Akers; "The French Quarter", a suite by Morrissey; "Kindergarten March Fantasy", Goldman; "King John", Moehlmann; "Four American Folk Songs", arranged for band by Slagmeister; "Ballad for Band", Gould, and "The Black Horse Troop" by Sousa.

Bellis attributes the shortness of the program to the short period since the end of the football season for rehearsals. No rehearsals are held until after the marching band activities are ended.

The concert is open to the public and no admission fee is charged.

Board Considers Funds For Coed

Members of the Executive Board and the Pi Beta Phi house are currently seeking to promote a special event the proceeds of which will be donated entirely to the parents of Nancy Benfer, Pi Phi, who was severely burned at a rush party in September.

It was reported that Nancy had had a relapse over the Christmas holidays and was in serious condition in an Idaho Falls hospital. She has been in the hospital since the accident and has had to have numerous skin grafts. However, her condition is still serious and she is not expected to be released for some time.

The plan to help defray part of the expenses of the costly skin grafting procedure was brought up at Tuesday's Executive Board meeting. Joyce Killsgaard, Ted Torok and Bill Parsons are working on the project along with Sylvia Moore.

Some of the first suggestions were to donate part of the Campus Chest proceeds, run a benefit dance, have a white elephant sale, or a box social. Other details will be published as soon as they are definite.

University Doctors Attend Boise Meet

Doctors Virgil Pratt and C. W. Hungerford from the Wildlife Research unit, and Dr. E. Tisdale, Assistant Director of the Forest, Wildlife, and Range Experiment station, will attend the annual meeting of the state Wildlife Federation at Boise, January 8, 9, and 10.

At this meeting sportsmen make recommendations for setting seasons and bag limits for the various species of big game animals and upland game birds and fish. Both Dr. Hungerford and Dr. Pratt will serve on several committees.

The annual report on the progress and activities of the Wildlife Research unit will be presented by Dr. Tisdale.

Here's The Scheme of Things

Registrar Reports Fewer Drop-Outs

To a world seeking signs of stability for the new year, 1954, the University of Idaho has one indication to offer. Registrar D. D. DuSault reports that withdrawals of students during the first 13 weeks of the current session were the lowest in number of any post-World War II year. They have totaled only 60 compared with 160 for the same period of the high year—1946-47.

One of the major causes of this recent decline in withdrawals, according to DuSault, is the termination of the Korean War and less uncertainty as to what the future may hold for draft-age students.

Army To Nab 3 Students Next Month

Early active service is in store for Army ROTC students who receive commissions the end of this semester, it was learned today from Lt. Col. James A. Moore, Idaho professor of military science.

Active service status of those graduating in June has not yet been resolved. A telegram was received yesterday from Washington, according to Moore, indicating that those commissioned at mid-term would all be in uniform by June. Only four men are affected at Idaho and one of those, Robert G. Mitchell, will be deferred to attend the University of Washington Medical school.

The three who will enter active service are Charles W. "Pat" Duffy, Bruce G. Gordon and Jack D. Perry.

"Due to an impending cut in the army's strength," Moore said, "it will not be known for another month or so what procedure will be followed in the case of the 75 cadets graduating in June."

The colonel pointed out that the entire active duty program for ROTC graduates is now under study at the Pentagon, and indications are that a curtailment of active duty tours may be put into effect. "However," Moore continued, "no definite information is presently available regarding this group."

Phi Mu Alpha To Host Province Sinfonia Meet

Beta Sigma chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is host to Province No. 18 Sinfonia Convention January 8 and 9 on the University of Idaho campus. Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is a men's honorary and professional music fraternity consisting of 132 chapters in 21 provinces.

Chapters in province No. 18 are: WSC at Pullman; EWCE at Cheney; MSU at Missoula, and U of I at Moscow. National President of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is Archie Jones, former head of the music department here.

Among the objectives of Sinfonia are the advancement of the cause of music in America and encouragement of loyalty to the alma mater. On our own campus Phi Mu Alpha and Sigma Alpha Iota jointly sponsor three annual music attractions: the reception for new music students, a concert of American music, and the all-campus Song Fest on Mother's day.

Part of the purpose for the convention is to aid the province governor Elwyn Schwartz in selection of the best chapter in province No. 18. The national office will in turn select the most outstanding chapter from all of the province winners and present that chapter with a special award at the national convention in July. The award will be donated by Mr. Balfour of the Balfour Co.

Conferences and sessions start at 4 p.m. January 8 in the Recital hall of the Music building. At 6 p.m. is a Sinfonia banquet in the north ballroom of the SUB. Guest speaker is Beta Sigma's own chapter honorary member J. F. Weltzin, Dean of the College of Education.

Warren T. Bellis will present the University concert band in a program of American music at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Ad building.

It's Coffee Time Saturday sessions begin with coffee-time in Music 102 at 9:30 a.m. Next is a series of panel discussions on the organization of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Subjects of the discussions are: the president and Phi Mu Alpha, the secretary and Phi Mu Alpha, and the faculty sponsor and Phi Mu Alpha.

Following a noon luncheon in the Spryng room of the SUB Marian Frykman, of the music department, will present a short organ recital in the Recital hall of the Music building beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Climaxing the convention sessions will be alumni Sinfonians Rev. W. W. Prall, Presbyterian minister at Moscow, and Edmund Chavez, technical director for dramatics here. The title of Reverend Prall's talk is "Music and the Church." Chavez's topic is "Music and the Theater." The convention closes at 3:30 p.m.

KUOI Plans, Changes Told

KUOI will carry a special preview to the University Singers concert Tuesday and Wednesday. The half hour program will be broadcast on Tuesday, transcribed, at 5 p.m.

Plans are also being made, according to production director Donald Bundy, to transcribe the University Singers concert Wednesday night for a rebroadcast on the following Saturday afternoon. The time of the show will be announced next week, he said.

A new music-filled program, Dipper Downbeat, has been scheduled for Saturday nights from 8 until midnight. A request show, the four-hour program will include the latest news at 9, plus sports results and weather news. All students are welcome to phone in requests at that time.

Extension in broadcasting time on Friday and Saturday nights was announced this week by the KUOI executive staff. Friday programming will be lengthened from 7:30 until 11:15 and Saturday broadcasting will be done from 1:30 until midnight.

Tonight at 7:45 over Campus Radio, the intra-squad Vandal boxing smoker will be carried exclusive on KUOI. Sportscasters John Hughes and Steve Emerine assisted by Duane Greer and Paul Cooper, will handle the broadcast of the matches. The sports staff will also broadcast Idaho's two home bouts in February and March.

Assistant Station Manager Charles White announced earlier this week that a meeting of all staff members will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1. Following the meeting, announcers will do air work on Saturday programming. The meeting will include explanation of several revisions in programming, and engineering.

Foreign nations represented are Afghanistan, India, Brazil and Canada. Traveling the greatest distance to attend their parents' University are Rajinder Singh Dhillon, son of Hardit Singh Dillon of Pepsu, India; Mary Katherine Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. ## Danforth Foundation Invites Graduate Study Applications

Seniors who are preparing for a University teaching career and who are planning to enter graduate school in September, 1954, have been invited by the Danforth foundation of St. Louis, Mo., to apply for a graduate fellowship.

Charles O. Decker, acting director of student affairs and dean officer to work with the foundation of men, has been named liaison on the selection of two candidates from the University. The foundation welcomes applicants from natural and social sciences, humanities, and other fields of study at the University.

Qualifications of candidates must include evidence of superior intellectual ability, good health and emotional stability, "outgoing" personality and a concern for people, and deep religious convictions and growing religious perspectives. Fellowship appointments are primarily "a relationship of encouragement," carrying a promise of financial aid with prescribed conditions as there may be need. Danforth fellows are allowed to carry other scholarship appointments, such as the Fulbright. All Danforth fellows will participate in the annual Danforth Foundation Conference on Teaching next September at Camp Minnow, Mich.

Gerald Leigh Attends Cadet AROTC Meet

Cadet Col. Gerald Leigh, commander of the Idaho wing, Air Force Reserve. Officers training corps returned last week from a seven-day trip to Washington, D.C. He attended a conference of AF-ROTC officers.

Cadet Colonel Leigh is commander of Area I of the Arnold Air Society which he represented at the meetings. Area I includes Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Montana and Wyoming, with 13 chapters of the society.

Two main items on the agenda of the conference—December 28 were first, a general discussion of problems concerning all cadets. Several of the most prominent were lack of interest in flight training, a certification of program for those not qualified for light training, and the general feeling by the cadets that the Air Force has broken its obligation to them through the new Cut Back program.

The second consisted of briefings by top Air Force officers on new developments in the Air Force.

Also discussed was a possible working organization between the Arnold Air Society and the Air Force association.

Attending the conference were seven national ASA officers, ten area commanders and three representatives from the Omaha conclave to be held April 17-18 at Omaha, Nebraska.

Many of the same problems discussed in the Washington meeting will be discussed at the national conclave.

Cadet Col. Leigh traveled by plane furnished by the Military Air Transport service. He traveled nonstop between Washington and Travis, Calif., and then took another plane between Travis and Salt Lake.

Several days were spent in Washington, D. C. sightseeing while waiting for transportation home.

ROTC Rifle Team To Enter Match

Idaho's Army ROTC riflemen will begin competition Thursday in the Sixth Army Intercollegiate Rifle matches, competing against 31 teams from the western part of the US for top marksmanship honors, according to M-Sgt. Rufus J. Salyer, coach of the Vandal squad.

Idaho's 15-man entry last year finished fifth.

Salyer said that the team would feel the loss of the four top men from last year, Larry Smith, Joe Helle, Phil Ourada and Glen Mortensen. All are still in school, but ineligible to compete.

Bright spot in the picture is the addition this year of Bob Playfair, who Salyer says "might win national individual honors." Playfair competed last year for Washington State.

The firing will continue until January 22.

Wolfe Attends Meet

Dr. Warren J. Wolfe, associate professor and chairman of languages here, was just returning from a meeting of the Modern Language Association of America in Chicago, when his train was derailed by a landslide near Paradise, Montana.

However, no one on the train was injured, and the train was safely rerouted via another line to Spokane.

Dr. Wolfe presented a paper to the Comparative Literature group, which later chose him as its secretary. The group is studying Franco-American literary relations.

Official Notice

Permits to register for the second semester will be ready Thursday, January 21. Students will have to pick up their own permits at the Registrar's office in the Ad building lobby.

Delta Sigs Set 'Sailor Ball'; Several Elect New Officers

The Christmas activities and goodies didn't completely drain all of their social enthusiasm, for the Delta Sigs are already making plans for their annual Sailors' ball, scheduled for January 16.

The ATOS, Lambda Chis, and Delta Chis are beginning the New Year on a new footing with the election of new officers.

DELTA GAMMA

Everyone was pleasantly surprised Sunday night when they discovered Anne Wyckoff's Fiji pin. Parker Compau was tubbed Monday and Anne was on hand to untie the ropes.

GAMMA PHI BETA

The pinning of Polly Jo Frosten to Jerry Riggers, TKE, was announced Sunday evening. Wednesday evening a pledge exchange was held with the Sigma Chis. This was a very successful exchange, but it was a surprise to find out that we have 21 pledges by the name of "Sue Brown."

Peggy Varley was a luncheon guest Wednesday noon. She is the former Peggy Densow who graduated from the University last spring.

TKE

Dinner guests recently were Al Coombes, Jerry Botts, Larry Wyman, Jerry Hill, Jim Young and Bob Donnemworth.

Several Tekes spent New Year's Eve in San Francisco with Stan Riggers, '52, now a lieutenant in the air force. They reported having had quite a gay time while there.

DELTA CHI

The newly elected house officers at the Delta Chi fraternity for the coming semester will be: Don Anderson, president; John Foshett, vice president; Larry Moss, secretary; Mike Collier, corresponding secretary; Ted Jones, pledge master; Lyle Hicks, rush chairman; Tom Cromwell, scholastic chairman and Mike Hemovich, social chairman.

Recent dinner guests included Ron Robinson and Lynn Williamson. Jim O'Brian from Gooding, is spending a few days visiting his many friends on the Idaho campus.

Last Wednesday the Delta Chi pledges had a very delightful exchange with the Tri-Delta pledges.

Don Eaton reports the skiing at Magic Mountain, in southern Idaho, is quite good. All you have to do to enjoy yourself is have one pair of skis, one inch of snow, one body packed with intestinal fortitude, and one pair of crutches!

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Ken Fox, junior geology major, was recently elected president of Lambda Chi Alpha for the current year. Fox is in the Navy program and has served on the Inter-Fraternity council. The vice-presidency went to Bill Haxton.

Other elected include George Kronmiller, treasurer; Donald Romaniuk, secretary; Wayne Caruhn, social chairman; Jerry Dalas, rush chairman; Dick Ormsby, ritual chairman; and Jerry Eley, pledge trainer.

Jerry Dallas and James Langbecker will serve as representatives to the Inter-Fraternity council.

BETA THETA PI

The Thursday night before vacation was the date for the Betas' annual Christmas time exchange with the Alpha Chis. Aided by wonderfully-cooked vittles in the dining rooms of both houses, the exchange was a great success. The Alpha Chi pledges put on one of the most talented and entertaining skits the Betas have ever seen. Star of the skit was "Gordon," the red-nosed reindeer.

Quiet again reigns on the campus as the Betas have taken down their loud-speaker which, before vacation, spread the strains of Christmas music all the way to Genesee.

KAPPA SIGMA

Millard Blackburn was recently pledged to Kappa Sigma. Ed Parsons was elected to the assistant house manager's position at a recent chapter meeting.

We are wondering who paid for our house manager's trip to California to see the Rose Bowl game and other activities this vacation. We understand he saw several pictures of Hawaii also.

It's good to have McAlister back after his long Christmas vacation. But we do wonder where he spent it—in Texas?

An exchange was held with the Alpha Chis last Wednesday.

ALPHA CHI

Janet Campbell and Judy Swim, co-chairmen, are heading plans for the annual Upper Classmen's dinner-dance to be given by freshmen and sophomores January 16. Plans are being made by pledges for a sleighride soon after the semester exams.

Dinner guests Wednesday were Mrs. C. W. Daigh, Twin Falls; Larry Daigh, Beta Theta Pi and Doug Thorpe, Moscow.

Pledges held an exchange with the Kappa Sigs Wednesday. Entertainment was furnished by Billinell Pool, Virginia Nelson, Charlyne Hale, Connie Webb and Larry Davis.

ATO

Robert Wheeler was called home indefinitely because of family sickness. His home town is Wallace. Bill Davis had an operation during the holidays at Sandpoint and won't return to school until next week.

House officers were elected this week—Ken Slusser, president; Dal Pence, vice president and Hubert Stein, house manager. Other chapter officers are Bill Buckley, Paul Ackerman, Joe Tom, Jack Simley and Dick Rice.

The executive board includes Joe Edgett, president; Bob Heatherly, Gary Heyer, Jack Smiley and Gary Cuthbert. The exchange this week was at Ethel Steel house.

The Sailors' ball, an annual affair, is to be held on Saturday the 16th in the chapter house. Committee chairman is Dave Armstrong.

THEY STARTED OUT EVEN AT GRADUATION:

Why is one doing better now?

You may not see it in their outward appearances — but there's a big difference between these young men. One has held three jobs in the five years since graduation. He's still looking for a job that offers him a lifetime career. The other has been with a Bell Telephone Company during that time. He's on his way up!

Seventy-five per cent of college men hired by the Bell Companies since World War II are still with these telephone companies after five years! Here's why:

You Grow with a Growing Business—The Bell System is one of the fastest growing businesses in the world. Since the end of World War II, it has spent about nine billion dollars for new construction. The past five years have seen the introduction of network TV transmission, dialing of Long Distance calls and the development of the remarkable transistor. And the next five years will bring many more changes. In addition, each year the number of college people hired is related to estimates of the number of future management positions to be available.

No matter what your military status, it's worth inquiring about Bell System employment opportunities. Your Placement Officer has the details. See him soon. And be sure to talk to our employment representatives when they visit the campus. The time to plan your future is now!

Telephone Work Is Interesting—You may train to supervise forces engaged in constructing, installing or maintaining telephone facilities; or to manage groups of people handling customer contact, accounting or statistical work. You may work on engineering problems or be engaged in planning or other important staff activities, such as personnel relations, public relations, or revenue studies.

After 13 years of pooling new ideas, they formed their own band. It clicked!

Oratorio 'Elijah' To Be Given Next Week By U. Singers

The famous oratorio "Elijah" will be presented on January 12 and 13 by the University Singers under the direction of Norman Logan. Duplicate performances are being given at 8 p.m., Tuesday and Wednesday, January 12-13, to satisfy the anticipated demand for seats.

Recital hall in the Music building, considerably smaller in capacity than the University auditorium, is being utilized for the presentation in order to make use of the Margaret Weyerhaeuser Jewett memorial pipe organ. Featured organist for "Elijah" will be Mariah Frykman of the music staff.

Probably next in popularity and fame to Handel's "Messiah," Mendelssohn's "Elijah" is one of half-a-dozen ranking works in the oratorio category. Professor Logan aims at presenting the great choral composition at least once in every college generation. It was last performed on the Idaho campus in January, 1950.

Vocal soloists for "Elijah" will be Margaret Fox, soprano, Karen Hurdstrom and Joanne Poitevin, contraltos, Rex Eklum, tenor, and William Herr, baritone. Margaret Johnson is regular accompanist for the University Singers.

In order to help distribute audiences for the two nights, students are requested to attend Tuesday night's performance, while all

When Is A Scientist Not?

Professor Maurice A. Unger spoke on December 29 to Social Northwest Scientific Association on his paper "Social Scientists on the Horns Of."

The present-day social scientist "more and more finds himself sitting on the horns of dilemma," Unger said.

The painfulness of his situation is not in the least alleviated when upon discovering vis-a-vis on the second horn, is he who professes the humanities.

"The existence of profound disagreement among economists; however, does not refute our thesis about the subjectivity of economics as a science. It can be traced to disagreement about social objectives, facts or failure to abide by the rules of logic, identification and of verification."

Unger concluded that he was saying in effect that "the social scientist is not a scientist — he is a purveyor of the truth and of the imagination — akin to the artist and to the poet."

"He wastes pages upon pages, hour upon hour, trying to prove himself a scientist, and when the chips are down, his ability to predict is shifted from a medium of his theories or laws," Unger said.

"It is my opinion that he (social scientist) desires to be called a 'scientist' in order that he may rub into himself some of the glamor attached to those whom he thinks more fortunate — those in the physical sciences."

Short Story Contest Is Announced

What's the biggest, most exciting adventure job have ever had? Or have ever heard about? Tell us to SAGA. One of the leading men's magazines of true adventure stories, SAGA has $5,000 burning a hole in its pocket, ready to be paid out for top notch action-adventure stories. SAGA editor Ed Fitzgerald announces:

You don't have to be a professional writer, either, to win the first prize of $1,000 or any of the 21 other big cash awards. All you have to do is sit down and write an account of the one adventure you'll never forget. It may have happened to you or to someone you know.

SAGA is wide open for all kinds of adventures — on land, on sea, or in the air. Maybe you've had a rugged war experience. Maybe you've enforced the law — and tangled with it, or know someone who has. Whatever the experience, it may mean big money to you.

Rules and story suggestions for the contest, which closes March 31, 1954, are in the February issue of SAGA magazine, now at newstands.

Campus Cigarette Representatives Start Contest

Something new has been added to the campus hangouts, the Perch, the Nest, and the Bucket. You've probably noticed the large Chesterfield posters displayed prominently in each establishment. Campus representatives for Chesterfield cigarettes, Fred Williams and Jane Querna, are running a contest, and every two weeks will award two students a carton of Chesterfield cigarettes.

Rules for the contest are simple. On each poster is written a limerick describing some well-known student on campus. Anyone wishing to enter the contest need only write the name of the student described in the limerick on a Chesterfield wrapper and place his entry in the ballot box below the poster.

In two weeks the person described in the limerick will draw from each ballot box in the SUB lobby. The first Chesterfield wrapper bearing the correct name will win a carton of Chesterfields, and another carton of Chesterfields will be given to the person the limerick is written about.

Students must remember when entering the contest, to put their names and phone numbers on a Chesterfield wrapper with the limerick name. Students may enter as many times as they wish and need not be at the drawing to win the Chesterfields.

A new mystery student will be chosen every two weeks. Here's a clue: this week's mystery student is a girl.

Officers Nominated In Radio-TV

Nominations for second series of officers of the Radio-TV guild were made Tuesday night at the regular meeting. Election is slated for the guild meeting on January 12. Guild proxy, Fred Williams, urged all guild members to attend the next meeting to cast their votes.

For the office of president, Warren Peterson, Don Broughtman and Arizona Vandervort were named. Chuck White, Joe Corless and Arizona Vandervort were listed for the job of vice president. Nominated for treasurer were Tom Warner, Don Bundy and Jim New.

Two former officers of the Radio-TV guild, corresponding and recording secretary, have been combined into one job. Named for this position were Joan Welsh and Jean Moran.

Five men were listed as nominees for the position of program director. They are Jim New, Tom Warner, Warren Peterson, Don Bundy and Don Broughtman.

Only one office will be voted upon at a time. If a person wins for one office he will become ineligible in nominations made for any office following. Voting will start with the president.

Also recently announced at guild meetings was the nomination of a television board to have over-all supervision of guild TV productions. Members of the board are Joe Corless, Arizona Vandervort and Joan Welsh.

Fred Williams, president, issued a call for more women to join the organization. Women's voices are desperately needed to fill radio parts.

Ghost Towns Of Nevada Professor Shown In 'News Magazine'

Students of schools in this area will see the educational motion picture, The News Magazine of the Screen, sponsored as a public service in Utah and Idaho by a refining company.

The ghost towns of Nevada, weatherbeaten reminders of a vivid page in American history, are honored in this special film essay in the January issue of The News Magazine of the Screen.

This month, students will be taken on a movie tour of Virginia City, Thymite and Belmont. Once three of the nation's most spectacular mining towns, they played an important role in the winning of the West. More than $9,000,000 worth of gold and silver was taken from Virginia City's famous Comstock Lode.

Big Three Meeting

Besides showing these ghost towns, the film will feature the Bermuda Big Three conference, spectacular scenes of the wreckage in tornado-whipped Vicksburg, Miss., and a disastrous fire in Pusan—the worst in Korea's history.

Latest pictures of the submarine Nautilus, the nation's first atomic-powered undersea craft, were filmed while workmen put finishing touches on its hull.

The camera records a tense moment at Oslo, Norway, when Communist agitators interrupted the presentation of the Nobel Peace Prize to General C. Marshall.

Aviation Developments

Aviation developments are reported in graphic pictures of the Douglas Skyrocket research plane streaking to a new world's speed record of 1,327 miles an hour, twice the speed of sound.

Students will also see in this issue of The News Magazine the world's newest and fastest electronic calculator. Its mechanical brain multiplies and divides more than 2,000 times a second.

On the other side of the world, the camera inspects a vast hydroelectric project underway in Canada.

The U.S. Bureau of Mines says major coal mine disasters — in which five or more men are killed — account for only seven per cent of all coal mine fatalities.

Student Aid Exams To Be Given By The Civil Service

Student Aid Trainee examinations for students in the fields of engineering and the physical sciences have been announced by the U S Civil Service commission for the purpose of filling positions in various establishments of the Potomac river naval command in Washington, D.C., and vicinity.

These positions, which pay from $2,750 to $3,175 a year, are for employment during the school vacation periods and during the periods for employment of students in cooperative courses.

To qualify, applicants must pass a written test and have completed courses of study in an appropriate field. Full details concerning the requirements to be met are given in announcement No. 4-34-1 (53), which may be obtained from the school placement office.

Applications will be accepted until further notice and must be filed with the Board of US Civil Service Examiners for Scientific and Technical Personnel of the Potomac River Naval Command, Building 37, Naval Research Laboratory, Washington 25, D.C. Application forms may be obtained from your Placement office, from most cities, or direct from the U.S. Civil Service commission, Washington 25, D.C.

Modern Jericho in Jordan, 840 feet below sea level, is the world's lowest lying town, says the National Geographic Society.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

First Semester 1953-54

(Two and one-half hour examinations—three examination periods each day)

Regular class rooms will be used for the examinations unless instructors make special arrangements through the Registrar's Office. Examinations in courses not included in the schedule will be arranged by the individual instructors during scheduled examination week. Examinations in courses comprised of lecture and laboratory periods may in most instances be scheduled according to the sequence of either. Announcement of time and room should be made by the instructor. Rooms should be reserved in the Registrar's Office for "arranged" examinations in order to avoid conflicts with scheduled examinations. For those courses in which a two and one-half hour examination period is not considered adequate, the final class hour or laboratory period could be used for additional examination purposes.

Engineers

See Growth Of Society

Phenomenal growth in the membership of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, particularly during the last decade, is an index of the intensified mechanization of agriculture and the concentrated attention on farm machinery developments, according to J. W. Martin, head of Agricultural Engineering at the University of Idaho.

Martin points out that the number of agricultural engineers has quadrupled during the last 13 years.

The field of agricultural engineering, Martin explains, is divided into four major divisions: farm power and machinery; farm structures; rural electrification; soil and water control and conservation.

"Actually," he adds, "it is the application of all branches of engineering to agriculture."

One of the current objectives of the national society is to interest more high school graduates in the study of agricultural engineering. "Outstanding opportunities exist in this field for capable young men," Martin declares.

Forestry Staffers Report At Confab

The Northwest Scientific association and the Northwest Wildlife conference held a joint meeting at the Davenport hotel in Spokane, Dec. 29 and 30 for the purpose of the dissemination of their research results.

Several members of Idaho's College of Forestry attended specific conferences during the meeting. Dr. K. Hungerford was general chairman of the Northwest Wildlife conference. Dr. E. Tisdale, assistant director of Idaho's Forest, Wildlife, and Range Experiment Station, presided over the range meeting and also attended the botany-zoology sessions.

Papers were presented by other Idaho members present to their respective sections: Dr. W. Ferrell talked on the use of radioactive calcium in studying the physiology of diseased trees; Fred Johnson, research associate, gave a paper on the anatomy of Western white pine trees; Lee Sharp's paper was on Salt Desert Shrub Vegetation which he presented to the botany-zoology section.

Charles Whitt, a graduate student of the College of Forestry, was a speaker in a symposium on Anadromous Fishes of the Pacific Northwest which consisted of speakers from Idaho, Washington, Oregon, and British Columbia.

Mystery Sickness Limited To Already Stricken Area

Pole blight, the mystery sickness which has hit middle-aged white pine stands throughout northern Idaho and western Montana, has not extended its boundaries but the blighted acreage within those limits has increased substantially. This point is brought out in the latest pole blight research progress report, assembled by Dr. E. E. Hubert, research forest pathologist in the University of Idaho's forest, wildlife and range experiment station.

During the past field season, survey crews spent several weeks in the Cascade and coastal portion of forest service region six. No pole blight has been found in the white pine stands of that region, the division of forest pathology reports.

'Forest researchers at the University of Idaho are using radioactive isotopes in an attempt to get at the cause of white pine pole blight through a study of trees north of Clarkia and those south of that point. An almost straight east-west line through Clarkia appears to be the pole blight southern boundary. Although white pine stands south of that line are similar to those of the panhandle, no pole blight has been reported from the main Clearwater drainage.

Idaho Splits With Oregon Ducks In Two Tilts

Washington State

Idaho's Vandals, who lost their first conference tilt of the season to University of Oregon Ducks 81-63 Tuesday bounced back Wednesday night in the second game of the series to grab a 60-53 win before traveling to Corvallis to face a tall and tough Oregon State crew tonight and tomorrow.

The Vandals, who couldn't keep the pace with the sharpshooting Ducks during the second half displayed some sharp ball handling and had control of the contest most of the first half of the tilt. A free throw by Ed Halberg gave the Ducks a one point edge at the end of the first half, 37-36.

Oregon, who was listed as an underdog for the contest, began to move in the fourth period of play and several times worked the lead to 20 points over the Vandals.

Halberg, who replaced sharpshooter Ken Wegner, who was held back with a band ankle, led the Duck attack totaling 25 points during the game, while Dwight Morrison led Idaho's scoring column ringing up 21 counters.

The Ducks were overly accurate in their shooting making better than 60 per cent of their shots in the first half and ended with an overall 39.4 average compared to Idaho's 29.6.

Come Back In Second
In Wednesday's game, the Vandals sought their revenge with Bob Garrison and Harlan Melton sparking the quintet to its 60-53 victory.

Idaho took the lead early and held it all through the first half although it was by a slim one point when the half ended. Midway score was 27-26. The end of the first quarter saw the two teams deadlocked at 9-9.

The contest which was a rough one most of the way prevented the Vandals from grabbing a healthy lead at any time because of numerous walking calls against them.

Couldn't Hold Lead
Idaho went ahead and forged an 8 point lead during the third period but the Ducks weren't going to be left out and cut the lead to one point margin to end the third quarter at 40-39.

A wild fourth quarter saw the score see-saw back and forth between the two squads several times before the Vandals finally moved out front to stay under the attack led by Bob Garrison, Tom Falash and Dwight Morrison.

Harlan Melton, Idaho forward, hit the deck late in the fourth period and had to be taken from the game, but trainer Joe Glander reported yesterday that Melton was not hurt although he may be slowed up by stiffness when the Vandals clash with OSC tonight and tomorrow.

Idaho nabbed a .367 shooting percentage while Oregon followed close with .260 for the evening.

Idaho Splits At Montana; Beat Loyola Here

Montana State's lowly Grizzlies rose up from a previously miserable basketball record to snap Idaho's unbeaten skein of six successive wins in pre-conference action by shading the Vandals 60-57 December 29 at Missoula in the fourth game against the Idahoans. The Vandals ran to a 66-57 victory the night before to keep their win streak intact.

The Grizzlies used a ball-control type of play to hold Idaho in check. Before the loss, the Vandals were rated as the number 17 team in the nation in an Associated Press poll.

On Dec. 19 the Vandals whipped Loyola of Los Angeles by a 74-48 count at Memorial Gym. The Idaho cagers got their biggest scare of the season when the Lions from LA led at halftime 30-26 but rallied to run wild in the second half and overwhelm the visitors. Big Dwight Morrison and sophomore Bob Garrison set the pace for the winners in the last game. Morrison scored 17 and Garrison had 12.

The floor work of Tommy Flynn aided the Vandals in their conquest of Loyola. Flynn proved effective on defense and potted 13 points.

Idaho had to cope with a red hot Loyola quintet the first half as they fired 66 per cent of their shots through the hoop while the Vandals had a low mark of 27 per cent.

In the Montana series Idaho was behind in both games at the three-quarter mark and could overcome the Grizzly stalling game but once that being partly on the efforts of Morrison and Flynn who hit for 20 and 23 points, respectively.

Harlan "Lefty" Melton scored 26 points in the shadow of Idaho's first defeat by nearing his top effort of the young season when he countered for 31 tallies against Gonzaga in the Vandals' opener. Co-captains Rich Johnson, guard, and Eddie Anderson, 6-2 forward, paced the Grizzlies in both frays. Johnson teamed with fellow guard Eddie Argenbright to score 16 points in Montana's victory. Argenbright scored the same to share honors.

Here is a rundown of Idaho scoring for the Loyola and Montana games.

One Of Holbrook's Helpers

Tony Vlastella, 6-6 Oregon State stalwart, goes up for one in practice preparatory to OSC's clash with Idaho's Vandals tonight and tomorrow at Corvallis. It will be the third and fourth conference tilts for the Vandals who played Oregon and split Tuesday and Wednesday. Vlastella will be aiding Wade Holbrook, Beaver 7-3 center in the fight to keep Idaho from first place in the Northern Division.

Skiers Place Fifth At Rossland

The Vandal varsity skiers saw action during the holidays in a seven-school contest at Rossland, B.C.

Because of illness, Muddy Numbers was unable to participate in the meet. Norm Geertsens, another key man, was also lost to the skiers scoring power. Consequently Capt. Henry Burnett was unable to enter a satisfactory number of participants in the events and the team emerged with a fifth place.

Scoring for the team were Reidar Ullevolstetter who won the jumping with an attempt of 130 feet. Torre Kristoffersen who placed tenth in the slalom, and Olaf Stavick and Ullevolstetter who placed third and fourth respectively in cross-country to give the Vandals a second place. Ullevolstetter tied for high man in all four events.

An outstanding example of team spirit was displayed by two members of the squad. Harvey Hoff and Torleiv Flatebo entered the jumping competition in the place of the two absent jumpers and gave a terrific account of themselves. Hoff, who jumped for the first time in his life, after two practice jumps, attempted three jumps, stood up on all three attempts, and placed 27th of 35 participants, his longest jump being 90 feet. Flatebo who had not jumped since 1948, placed 30.

Hoff will probably be the regular fourth jumper as a result of his surprise showing.

The next outing is at Whitman on Jan. 16 and 17.

Memorial Gymnasium will be open for public use every Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. until the end of winter, according to Leon Green, head of the department of physical education.

The swimming pool and basketball court will be available to those wishing to use it between those hours on Sundays.

Green said this would be in effect as long as weather outside did not permit outdoor athletics.
