All Around The Mulberry Bush

America Is Truly A Free Country

Idaho Radio Will Carry Talks, Music

By SALLY DYER
"I've never been so independent in my life as I've been since I came to America. I've really done what I wanted for the first time," said Elfreida Garvons, who came to the University of Idaho this year from Germany.
Elfreida, a freshman education, said she was very favorably impressed with the United States. She said she believes that America is "truly a country of democracy and independence."
She said the German people there had a rather unfavorable impression of Americans. "There are many objections to Americans, based on the actions of soldiers and tourists," remarked Elfreida.
Universities Specialized
"High school in Germany is more or less built up like university classes," explained Elfreida. The German universities have much more specialized classes than do the American universities. Wednesday is a day when the German student is free to go to any class he chooses, said Elfreida.
"In our schools, if the professor says something the students like or agree with, all the students stamp their feet. If they don't like what the professor says, they start shuffling their feet back and forth, making quite a lot of noise," related Elfreida.
Shocked at Profs
She said she was quite shocked the first time she walked into a class at the U. of I. and found the professor slumped down in his chair, his feet stretched way out in front of him, and his hands folded behind his head. "I think it's terrible!" she exclaimed.
She said she thinks the professors and students are much closer here in America than they are in Germany. There is more of a class system between the two groups in Germany.
"In Germany, education is much more scientific or theoretical. There, scholastic success is emphasized, while the Americans seem to place more emphasis on social life and athletic success."
"We don't have as many hobbies—music, drawing, and so forth—as the American university students do. There is much more recreation in America and I think it is good," said Elfreida, who is here on a Fulbright scholarship.
Elfreida said that all the cheap jewelry for sale in America and the sight of girls sprawled out on the floor in blue jeans were among the things that most surprised and impressed her.
No German Jeans
"My father has never seen me wear anything but a nice dress. I couldn't think of wearing jeans or sitting on the floor in front of him, but I like the American customs very much."
"One thing I do get tired of here, though," she remarked, "is hearing the girls talking about diets and vitamin pills all the time. In Germany we don't worry much about diets and we have less artificial food, like colored ice cream, than the Americans do. However, I think the Americans eat healthier foods and the American girls have better figures than most of the German girls."
Elfreida will return to Germany this summer.

Air Drillers Down WSC In First Go

The Air Force ROTC drill team marched to their first victory last Thursday when they out drilled the WSC AFROTC squad on the Idaho Ad Lawn.
Idaho was host to the WSC team which tallied up over 300 points. This was not enough to top the Idaho score. Competition was judged by Marine, Army and Air Force officers.
Visiting dignitaries from WSC were Pres. C. Clement French, Dean Sloan and Captain Blair. Those from Idaho included Col. O. J. Mosman, Lt. Col. Moore, Dean Steffens and Clara Armstrong, drill team guardian angel.
Idaho AFROTC drillers under the direction of Team Captain Ray Behrman, and staff advisor, Capt. Malcolm Stewart; wore standard class A uniforms with white hat trim, gloves, silver gun belts and leggings.
Members of the WSC team wore white gloves, hat trim, scarves and leggings. Also representing WSC were standard bearers and a member of the girls' sponsor corps.
Both teams performed precision marching with Idaho taking an edge in close-order drill and intricate maneuvers. Some of the formations included forming a circle, tossing arms and column and flanking movements.

2 p.m. Prom Permission Granted

Two o'clock permission has been granted college women for the Junior-Senior Dance April 30.
Harry James, who is acclaimed as the nation's number one trumpeter, and his band are planning to play varied numbers for the dance. In addition to the current popular hits, they will play some of the old favorites such as "Blues in the Night," "You Made Me Love You," "Ciri Ciri Bin," "I've Heard That Song Before," and "Sleepy Lagoon."
Arrangements for the dance are being made by Gordon McLeod, senior class president, and Jack Knodle, junior class president.
Tickets may be obtained through the ASUI office, Hodgins Drug Store or from McLeod or Knodle for $3.50 per couple or $1 per person for spectators.

Campus Hosts Debaters

Approximately 50 Idaho high school student debaters from five of seven Idaho debate districts began debating here yesterday at 2 p.m. on the question: "Resolved, that the (United States) presidents should be elected by direct vote of the people."
Competition is to decide winners of the Idaho State High School Debate Tourney.
University students judging some of the 50-minute debates will be Fred Williams, Sally Landers, Hugh Burgess. Other judges will be University of Idaho professors and Moscow High School instructors.
Debating in Class A will be Kellogg, Nampa, Blackfoot, Idaho Falls and Lewiston, all division winners, and runner-ups Pocatello and Sugar City teams.
Debating in the Class B division will be Kuna and Hailey teams.
In the Women's division will be Kellogg, Nampa, Sugar City, Lewiston and Blackfoot teams. Class B debaters will also vie with debaters in the women's division on a non-competitive basis.
Director of the debate tournament will be Francis Nonini, Moscow High School principal.

Debate Team To Missoula

Four members of the University debate team will represent the University at the Annual Northwest Speech Tournament to be held April 8 to 10 in Missoula.
Coach Dr. A. E. Whitehead will accompany the teams. Debating for Idaho will be Lee Anderson, James Kruger, Charles Oldham and Paul Schultz.
They will debate the question: "Resolved, That the United States Should Adopt a Policy of Free Trade."

NOTICE

Students who have lost their ASUI cards can get a certificate to vote from the University Business Office on Monday and Tuesday April 12 and 13. These certificates will be issued ONLY ON THESE TWO DATES.
Those students having neither their ASUI card nor a certificate to vote will not be able to vote. These certificates can not be used to vote twice. The Business Office is on the 1st floor of the Ad Office Building.

Gale Mix Asks Relief From Athletic Duties

The Lighter Touch

Tickets Now Available For Moliere Farce

Visitor Ban Now Raised

Visitors are welcome again at the University Infirmary announced Dr. Ralph Alley, University physician.
The "no visitor" sign was put up last week when an epidemic of flu started to get out of hand. Dr. Alley reported that over 75 students have been in and out of the infirmary throughout the latest war with the flu germ.
"Two years ago the flu epidemic was the largest that this University has seen, but this year's tussle has run a close second," Dr. Alley remarked.
The annual flu and cold germs usually appear each year during March. Last year there was no epidemic, Dr. Alley pointed out.

IRC Panel Will Discuss Neighbors

Three University students and a professor will participate in the International Relations Club panel discussion on "How Friendly are Our Good Neighbors" this afternoon at 4:10 in Conference Room A of the SUB.
IRC president Charles Oldham said that Kay Reed, two-year resident of Rio de Janeiro; Frank Muller-Karger, Caracas, Venezuela; and Shirley Karau, Troy, receiver of a Mexican government scholarship to the University of Mexico; are the three students in the group.
He added that Professor Arthur Howe, associate professor of languages, is the faculty panelist. Professor Siegfried Rolland, associate professor in social science, will be the moderator.
Students, faculty, and townspeople are invited to come and hear the discussion and contribute their own views.

Gale L. Mix, general manager of the Associated Students and athletics at the University of Idaho, has, on physician's advice, requested relief from his athletic manager duties, it was revealed today by President J. E. Buchanan of the University.
Mix made the request following his return from Seattle where he has spent the last week undergoing a physical checkup.
"Results of the checkup were encouraging," said Mix, "but, with them, came the warning that there should be less strain in daily work. The duties of manager of athletics, which I was asked to take on in 1950 in addition to my duties as general manager of the ASUI, must now be relinquished."
President Buchanan said that "we will, of course, accede to Mr. Mix's request. Details of working out the designation of a new director of athletics and reassignment of duties will be taken care of as soon as possible with the idea of going into effect next July 1."
"The Faculty Athletic Committee has been making a study of all phases of the athletic program at the University, and will be asked to take cognizance of Mr. Mix's request."
Mix, who was graduated from the University of Idaho in 1927, has been a member of the staff since 1939. While a student, he organized the present student manager system in athletics, and served as assistant to the general manager of the Associated Students (then known as graduate manager) and as freshman basketball coach. Later he coached at Delco and Moscow High Schools with outstanding records.
Becoming general manager of the Associated Students in 1939, Mix has served continuously in that position except for three years during World War II when he was on leave with the armed forces. For the last four years he has also been manager of athletics.

Perkins Leaves

M/Sgt Wesley Y. Perkins, sergeant-major of the University's Army ROTC unit, left here Friday to take on a new assignment. Perkins had served on the staff here for two years. He has gone to the office of G-2 in the Pentagon, Washington, D.C., for orientation before leaving for Taipei, Formosa.
Sergeant Perkins has served over nine years with the Army. Part of his service was in the South Pacific during World War II, and part of it was spent in Europe. He was primarily engaged in work for the Public Information Office.
On or about June 27, Sergeant Perkins will sail from San Francisco, according to his orders. He will report to the Office of the Army Military Attache at Taipei. The new job is under the State Department. Perkins' wife, Kathryn, is authorized to accompany him.

Thomas Out As Defendant In One Borg Libel Action

Captain T. C. Thomas, professor of naval science and tactics, was dismissed as a defendant in one action when hearings on two libel suits brought by former Justice of the Peace John K. Borg opened yesterday in Federal District Court.
The courtroom was crowded and extra chairs had to be brought in to accommodate the overflow. Federal Judge Chase A. Clark presided.
A 12-member jury and two alternate jurors was picked in the morning. Witnesses' testimony was taken during the afternoon as the plaintiff's side of the case was begun.
Testifying were Louis A. Boas, editor of the Daily Idahonian; former Justice Borg; A. L. Alford, publisher of the Lewiston Tribune; William Johnston, managing editor of the Tribune, and Probate Judge Lloyd G. Martinson.
Borg had filed two libel actions of $75,000 each. In one suit he named Captain T. C. Thomas and the Tribune Publishing Company. In the other, he named Louis A. Boas, Thomas, and the News-Review Publishing Company, publishers of the Idahonian.
Thomas was dismissed as a co-defendant in the suit involving the Tribune Publishing Company under a "motion to elect" which states that no person shall have two suits against him as a result of one utterance.
The libel cases grew out of a case involving Richard Shoup, a University student, and Murray Estes, Moscow attorney. Borg charges Thomas with damaging his reputation in statements made at a public meeting on May 12, 1953. The Idahonian and the Tribune were involved when they reported the meeting the following day.
The cases are scheduled to continue again today.

The GOLDEN FLEECE
by Jason

We were thoroughly disgusted by a display of dirty politics last week during one of those ho-hum raids at dinner hour. One of the parties, obviously seeking support from co-op members, made a statement calculated to prove that they are buddies if the co-op residents.
They had the goodness to say they would fight any attempt to remove co-ops from the campus when the new halls (Gault and Upham) are finished.
Damn white of 'em, we say. Especially when the director of dormitories only a few days before had said the co-ops would stay regardless of the new dorms. Audacious, we call it.
Doubly disgusting was the applause given this slinking statement by residents of the CO-OP where the speech was made.
Heard a lot of gripes about the 50-cent admission charge made by the Gymnasts for their show Saturday night. People were asking, "What's wrong with our ASUI card?"
We called Coach Smith last night and he told us that the charge had to be made to meet expenses on the show. As it was, the act went into the red anyway. The Gymnasts do not have a part of the ASUI budget. Heavy equipment is given them by the athletic department. For shows of last week's variety, they must charge or go in the red.
Last year's show was viewed by some 1500 people. Since people seemed interested in it, the show was put on again this year.
It is a pity that the ASUI budget will not support or cannot afford a few hundred clams for these worthy men. Perhaps the keepers of the purse strings can find it in their hearts to kick a little loot toward the Gymnasts when the time comes. It could very well be done since ASUI stands to profit some $12,000 by the excise tax cut.

Do Students Deny Stereotype Idea?

We heard a word the other day which college students should be familiar with. The dictionary defines stereotype as "fixed firmly or unalterably as in stereotyped ideas." A stereotyped idea includes such things as negro, communist, socialist, or even student.

But, what does it mean to the average student on this campus? If you accused him of having "stereotyped ideas" about such items as the above named, he would either not know what you were talking about or he would emphatically deny that he had such ideas.

When men such as McCarthy start throwing "communist, red, leftist," and other such words at people we immediately form a mental picture of what a communist or red is. And it isn't a very nice picture, either. But, what is worse, we tend to call people communists who deviate from the average or norm of the population — particularly in academic fields.

A dangerous threat is the communist-leftist stereotype. It is as dangerous as communism itself. Many people are inclined to call deviationists communists. And this retards invention.

Inventors of new things or ideas usually think differently from the general class of people, even in specialized fields. If people are driven to fear being called communist, and the tendency is to call many deviationists (and hence inventors) communists, invention of new objects and ideas will come to a standstill.

Men in government, science, education, and other fields are afraid to express themselves fully.

If the people learn to understand that such terms as communist do not apply to all deviationists, then men like McCarthy will use the term more carefully and perhaps more accurately.

—J. C.

Out Of The Past

25 Years Ago

April 5, 1929—A parade, an assembly, an informal party, the formal prom, a cabaret, and a serenade are six events scheduled for Junior Week which starts Wednesday.

For the first time, a week set aside for two-hour exams will be tried by the University. This system, if successful, will replace the old method of giving finals during regular classes.

10 Years Ago
April 6, 1944—The Interchurch Council will sponsor its annual Easter Sunrise Services in the University Auditorium for those who do not go home for the vacation.

5 Years Ago
April 5, 1949—Four boxers left yesterday for East Lansing, Mich., where they will enter the NCAA championship tournament. They are Herb Carlson, Ted Diehl and Norm and Len Walker.

1 Year Ago
March 31, 1953—Bette Jean Hall was announced as winner of the ATO-sponsored Esquire Girl contest this weekend. Runnersup were Janet Campbell, Adele Thomas, Jackie Thorson and La Yonne Willson.

YOU NAME IT by REDDY

This island saved the settlers. Before the days of rail. Named for a Spokane founder. It's the river isle of...

HAVERMALE Island in the Spokane River gave refuge to early Spokane settlers during the Indian raids. Ingenuity prompted its use as a "fortress" and this same foresight led the early citizens of the Washington Water Power Co. to develop the water power of the Falls below the island—further proving that free enterprise creates the best opportunities for each generation.

Idaho Listeners Hear Of University Happenings

Over 5300 tape-recorded radio programs are sent out to northwest radio stations annually by the University Radio Center in the University's effort to accomplish publicity, public interest and entertainment programs for interested listeners.

Originating regularly on campus are one daily program and three weekly programs. In addition, there are various special radio shows, as well as some television presentations by the University.

Between 100,000 and 200,000 persons listen daily to the University's oldest production, "Topics Agricultural," a 6.5 minute program started over five years ago and now carried by 17 Idaho stations.

Here's Idaho
The most listened-to production of the University is "Here We Have Idaho," carried over 16 to 20 stations. This 30-minute variety show varies in contents from musical numbers to research discussions and has received listener response from Washington, Oregon, Utah, Wyoming and Montana.

John and Gubby Mix produce a five-minute, weekly sports program, "Athletic Highlights," which is carried on 17 Idaho stations and a 30-station Washington network, reaching an estimated half million listeners.

Rounding out the weekly features is the "Farm Question Box." Nearly 90 different stations in Idaho and other states carry this written program of questions and answers in conjunction with appearances of local county agents.

Occasionally making the national networks, the "Christmas Candlelight Service" of the Vandaleers is the most popular of the special productions. "Old MacDonald Had a Farm," the dramatization of farm problems and their solutions, is another special program.

Up to 64 stations air Idaho football and basketball games and recently a few games have been televised on both Pacific coast and national networks.

The Radio Center through its mailing of these 5300 tapes is doing its job—to publicize the University and provide entertainment for thousands of Idaho and Northwest listeners.

OSC Students Get Prof All Shaken Up

(ACP)—Now absent-minded can a professor be?

A class at Oregon State College organized one day to find out. By prearrangement, they protested to a professor that he had failed to announce a test he was scheduled to give them.

Startled—and clearly confused—by the mass argument, the professor postponed his test.

Michigan Students Censor Themselves

MICHIGAN (ACP) — Fearing their spring show would become "nothing but a girly revue," student planners of a campus production at Michigan State College have banned "scanty attire."

Leotards, men's tights and adagio costumes were prohibited from the college's annual "Spartacade" show. One piece bathing suits were accepted, but two piece suits were not; men's bathing trunks were banned unless they were the boxer type.

"Several acts had to be completely revised," according to Jim Buchanan, one of the planners who helped ban scanty clothing. "Many times, groups forget their themes and dress some girl up in a sexy costume just to get attention."

Twenty of the 29 participating groups had designed costumes declared "to scant" by the Spartacade chairman.

"All we're trying to do is consider the future of Spartacade," Buchanan told reporters. "The spirit of the regulations is good taste."

Student Is Out To See The World

JAPAN (ACP) — A 20-year-old German student has arrived in Japan, after hitch-hiking one third of his way around the globe.

Timn Nolte, an architect student, left Germany to see the world a year ago. On March 7, 1953, he left his home in Duesseldorf and, with no money in his pockets, toured Switzerland, the South of France and Italy.

Then he made his way to Greece, Turkey, Syria and Iraq, and from Iraq he worked his passage across the Persian gulf to Pakistan. From there he went to India, and then to Japan.

Next on his list are North and South America, South Africa and finally back home to Germany.

Democrats To Hear Ricks College Prof.

Claude Burtenshaw, political science professor from Ricks College, will speak to the University Young Democrats Thursday at 4:10 p.m.

Burtenshaw is a candidate for Democratic nomination for United States Senator from Idaho.

All those interested in the University Young Democrats are especially invited to attend.

Official Notice

Easter Recess period is Friday, April 16, through Monday, April 19. All classes are to be conducted on regular schedule through Thursday, April 15, and are to start on regular schedule at 8 a.m., Tuesday, April 20.

It is to be expected that student attendance will conform to these dates and that instructors will meet classes as scheduled. Students who miss classes before or after the recess do so upon their own responsibility, and instructors are not required to provide make-up arrangements.

Regents Approve Projects

Additions to teaching and service facilities at the University approved by the Board of Regents at its last meeting include a machine shed at the forestry nursery and a process control demonstration unit in chemical engineering.

Total cost of the two projects is estimated at approximately $10,000.

The forestry nursery machine shed is to be a 30 by 40 structure, reports Dean Ernest Wohletz of the college of forestry. It will house tractors, plows, a cone thresher and other machinery necessary in the production of some 750,000 seedling trees and shrubs every year for farm, wildlife, big game and erosion control plantings throughout the state.

As a cooperator in the forestry nursery, the United States Forest Service will contribute approximately a third of the cost of the $8,580 structure.

Construction of a process control demonstration panel will bring a new phase of education in instrumentation, into the chemical engineering field, announces Dean Allen S. Janssen of the college of engineering.

This unit, which will be assembled by university personnel, will enable chemical engineering instructors to demonstrate on a small scale various chemical engineering processes in connection with their lectures.

Radar Tower Erected

The miniature tower located behind Kirtley Engineering Lab will serve as part of the Electrical Engineering radar system, according to Lloyd Craine, assistant professor of electrical engineering.

The topmost part of the tower will house a radar antenna which will be operated by remote control. It will rotate at a speed of approximately 180 rotations per minute.

Costs of the projects are relatively light because the equipment was supplied by war surplus as a gift to the University. The radar set is a Navy Mark 16.

Engineering instructors will use the set to demonstrate radar methods and techniques to their students.

Initial work of the project is being conducted by Jim Moody and Ken Wohlhab, electrical engineering students. Their assistants include Bob Graham, Paul Littenecker and other EE students.

Meteorological Exam Scheduled

An examination for Meteorological Aid has been announced by the US Civil Service Commission for filling positions principally in the United States Weather Bureau, Department of Commerce. The salaries are $2,950 to $3,410 a year.

To qualify, competitors must pass a written test and, in addition, must have had appropriate education or experience.

Full information regarding the requirements, and instructions on applying, may be obtained at many post offices throughout the country, and from the US Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, DC.

Applications will be accepted until further notice; however, interested persons are urged to apply at once.

Pre-med Student Attends Confab

Ralph Litton, recently returned from the University of Indiana where he attended the Tenth National Convention of the Alpha Epsilon Delta, pre-med honorary, March 25, 26 and 27. Litton is president of the Idaho chapter.

Borah Theatre To Present "The Browning Version"

By JOE CORLESS

A study of a defeated man in "The Browning Version" comes to the Borah theater this Thursday at 4, 7, and 8:30 p.m. Michael Redgrave plays almost a solo lead in this English picture about an embittered Mr. Chips type of character.

Hailed with mixed emotions by the highly critical New Republic, "The Browning Version" is a tale about a "Mr. Chips in reverse," according to Time. This is the story of "an unloved, dried up, academic tyrant on the way out of an English public school after 18 years."

Starring the noted actor Michael Redgrave, who is familiar to both Hollywood and London, the film is written by playwright Terence Rattigan from an adaptation of his own one act play. Time calls it a "moving story."

Unheroic Hero
Teacher Andrew Crocker-Harris is "probably one of the most 'unheroic heroes of the year.'" He is a failure as a teacher, husband, and friend. His heart is failing, too, so he is forced to leave his job (to no one's regret). The middle-aged man is stuffy and cold, and his shrewish wife has been going out with another man for quite some time.

Much to Crocker-Harris's disgust, his wife keeps him thoroughly informed of her adulterous relationships. Besides all this, she henpecks the poor man to abstraction and annoys him with her petty jealousy.

Agamemnon Is Gift
Nearly half the picture goes by before a ray of light appears in Crocker-Harris's life. The parting gift of a book, "Agamemnon," by a young student cracks the old man's crust. The crack widens to a fissure and then a torrent as the teacher gushes forth his pent-up emotions. What happens from there on in is a sugar-coated story of revenge.

Commonweal points to the excellent portrayal of an English school with its class distinctions, sports, and other activities. To American moviegoers, this may not mean too much. But in England, this type of "English Boy's School" is deeply rooted in tradition.

"The film inclines," says Time, "to daub life with greasepaint... but it lends British support to the Hollywood slogan that movies are better than ever."

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

A man who smokes a Lucky Strike is really on the ball. So round, so firm, so fully packed—The cigarette for all!

Bob Vickery, Jr.
University of Missouri

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason... enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco...light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

What brand is grand throughout the land From Maine to old Kentucky— With smoothness, mildness, better taste? Why, yes, you're right, it's Lucky!

April Fool Fakes A Few; More Officers Visit Here

Dinner under the dining room table and a mock engagement were two scenes resulting from April 1 rolling around last week.

National officers are still on the college scene, with Delta Sig playing host to their national secretary.

Eight Sigma Nus left the campus last weekend to attend a Northwest convale of their fraternity. Sigma Nus are also busy planning their annual Sweetheart dinner, to be held next Sunday.

PI BETA PHI

Delta Tau Delta serenaded Shirley Holden last week in honor of her recent pinning to Stan Bray.

April Fool's Day turned the Pi Phi house into an uproar when the hushers served a backwards dinner. After dinner, Bud Durkee entertained with the uke.

Virginia Harris has been appointed AWS representative for the coming year.

Recent dinner guests have been Mrs. Len Jordan, Margaret Coffey and Becky Hill.

HAYS HALL

Harlene Ahrentz was serenaded by ATQ recently; now she is awaiting the day when she rescues Doug Ripley from the tubbing.

Cherrie Wood recently announced her pinning to Howard Tankersley, Sigma Nu.

Congratulations go to Geneva Sarvis and Blair Allen, who won the instrumental contest in the Blue Key talent show. Best wishes also go to other Hays girls who participated in the competition.

The juniors spent the dinner hour on the floor last Tuesday, eating with big serving spoons and cocktail forks — compliments of a dinner planned by the seniors.

Caroline Lillian Bailey Ponds, of the "She's Engaged" Ponds family, announced her engagement to Lord Snouppdale McCarthy of the McCarthy Committee in Washington last week. No definite wedding date was set, but it is rumored that the wedding took place last Thursday. It could be that they were only fooling!

Sunday dinner guests were Marjorie Kirby, Cathy Mariett and Blanche Pellegrin.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA
Brother Larry Stark is now marching for Uncle Sam in California.

Jack Kidd, Dave Holmes, Jay Nelson and Glen Kaster took a recent weekend trip into Oregon. Their report stated that spring has finally arrived in the Oregon Country.

Mr. Kuka, Twin Falls, was a visitor at the house this week.

An LCA get-together was staged at the Memorial Gym swimming pool last Friday night. Reports say that all had a good time, particularly watching the rooster fight.

ALPHA PHI
Janice Jolly took over the reins at the Alpha Phi house recently, as a result of annual elections.

Officers who will help guide the group are Nan Nelson, vice president and pledge trainer; Harriette Duckworth, scholarship chairman; Dorothy Dalke, social chairman; Mae Pappenhagen, treasurer; Doris Kooch, house manager; Caroleigh Gittens, rush chairman; Lavonne Klusky, hostess; Nancy Buchanan, standards chairman; Carol Lyle, publicity chairman; Jody Keith, corresponding secretary; Doris Condon, quarterly secretary; Carol Amsbaugh, stewardess; Jeanie Gill, efficiency chairman; Jeanne Ludke, song leader, and Joy Chilcott, historian.

Maureen Maxwell and Jody Keith were appointed co-chairmen for the annual initiation dance.

Robin Hood Lives Again In Indiana

INDIANA (ACP)—It was a brisk breeze that blew the month of March onto the University of Indiana campus, and tiny bits of green fluttered smartly in the wind.

Buttons, leaflets and hundreds of green feathers proclaimed the arrival of "Robin Hood's Merry Men"—a group of five students with definite ideas about Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

For months the Merry Men had plotted their attack. It began when Mrs. Thomas J. White, a member of Indiana's textbook commission, demanded the removal of "Robin Hood" from state textbooks because "he robbed the rich and gave it to the poor. That's the Communist line."

The Merry Men conceived their plan over coffee cups, and this month flooded the campus with green. Students were urged to wear buttons that said, "They are your books; don't let McCarthyism burn them."

One pamphlet asked students to "Join Robin Hood's Merry Men, who are concerned about both Communism and the McCarthyism threat to American freedom." Another suggested that Army Secretary Robert Stevens "take extra long arrows and use the long bow."

Said the Daily Student, campus paper: "When it's over the McCarthy era will leave a bad taste in the mouth. Maybe the Hoods will save some of their chlorophyll green for the occasion."

And commented a group of 12 psychology professors: "We are glad to have this enterprise rather than a panty raid or a goldfish swallowing contest associated with Indiana undergraduates."

IN A PIG'S EYE
(ACP)—Students at the University of Rhode Island were touched when they spotted a little piggy bank in front of the cash register at the student canteen.

In front of the bank was a sign saying, "Save your Piggery! Donate to the Piggery Reclamation Fund!" Though there is no such fund—at least not at the University of Rhode—students contributed $2.

DAMES TO MEET
The University Dames will hold their regular business meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Faculty Club. Guest speaker will be Professor Ada Lewis, of the Home Economics department, of the University of Idaho.

Miss Lewis will discuss and answer question on food preparation.

INFIRMARY

Admitted to the infirmary were Joyce Latham, Frances Herre, Carl Swanstrom, Teddy Ciesielski, Larry Fellows, James Seeley, Carolyn Bailey, Lynn Mills, Ralph Provençal, Kenneth Deal, LaForest Twitchell, Bernard Hendersey, Russell Whitney and Warren Martin.

Dismissed from the infirmary were Tore Kristofferson, Donald Schmidt, Harry Platt, Leo Muller, John Scheloske, Leland Kime, John Speth, Robert Pearson, Leroy Clomons, Gary Piestich, Blanche Pearson, Nancy Gordon, Mary Briggs, Charles Murren, Bernice Ransom, Rebecca Ruby.

Billy Busch, Avery Floyd, Marilyn Robbins, James Seeley, Larry Fellows, Larry Gorrell, Carl Goebel, Marilyn Miels, Jean Teutsch, Yvonne Cleveland, Po Ping Wong, Carolyn Bailoy, Ted Ciesielski, Frances Herre, Frances Breon, Carl Swanstrom, Edwin Mattern, Nathan Yost and Martin Higley.

DREAM GIRL contestants have been on the guest list for recent dinners. Wednesday evening Nancy Leek and Billie Hanchey, Tri-Delt; Sally Jo Miller and Mary McLeod, Hays; and Martha Davis and Jan Cole, Delta Gamma, were dinner guests. Col. and Mrs. Charles Hudson were chaperones.

Pat Berry and Kathy Howe, Alpha Phi, and Madeline Meltvedt and Maggie Krauss, Gamma Phi, were Sunday dinner guests. Chaperoning were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stamm.

SIGMA NU
On the Sigma Nu social calendar for next Sunday evening will be the annual sweetheart dinner to be held in the chapter house. A fireside and entertainment will follow the evening meal.

Guests during the week have been members of the Independent caucus, here for after dinner campaign sessions.

Eight members were in Tacoma over the weekend to attend the Northwest regional convale of Sigma Nu Fraternity which was held at the College of Puget Sound. Attending were Bud Durkee, Dean Wendle, Chuck Alford, Jim Hanzel, Howard Tankersley, Dean Bent, Ken Putzier and Fred Magee.

NOTICE
No Forney Hall spring formal will be held this Friday night, due to the inability of Shirley Palmer to get dates with fellows she called April 1.

Out of 10 phone calls, Shirley had 8 acceptances, one coke date, and one "maybe." But Shirley's non-existent status hereby cancels all dates.

NOTICE
Palm Sunday sunrise services for Methodist and Presbyterian students will be held at the First Methodist Church. Breakfast will be served at 7:30 following the service. The breakfast is 25 cents per plate. All students planning to attend should contact: Norman Walker, 25071 for Presbyterians and Dale Christensen, 6501 for Methodists.

NOTICE
The University Dames will hold their regular business meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Faculty Club. Guest speaker will be Professor Ada Lewis, of the Home Economics department, of the University of Idaho.

Miss Lewis will discuss and answer question on food preparation.

Investment Fails, Econ Teacher Pales

(ACP)—A Yale University economics instructor who tried to teach investment procedures by example has flunked his own course on the stock market.

It began when instructor Robert E. Will decided to give his freshmen class a practical demonstration on the workings of stock. Will passed on a tip that New Bristol Oils, Ltd., was on the way up and "a good investment."

Within no time the freshmen had given Will money to invest in Canadian oil, and Prof. Lloyd G. Reynolds, head of the economics department, was censuring the action as "rather imprudent."

The Yale Daily News, student paper, reported the size of the transaction to be 16,000 shares, but Prof. Reynolds said only 1,600 shares were bought.

Reynolds said Will has been ordered to reimburse his students for the venture. Since the stock has fallen slightly instead of rising, Will stands to lose five cents a share—plus brokerage fees—if he sells it immediately.

Coe, Cebull To Spokane

Planning to attend meetings of the Inland Empire Council of Teachers of English in Spokane April 7 and 8 are two members of the University, Dr. C. Norton Coe, acting head of the humanities department, and Edward A. Cebull, assistant professor of English.

Dr. Coe will attend a luncheon meeting Wednesday, while Cebull will present at the college group meeting at the Lewis and Clark high school Thursday.

This year's council meetings will be devoted to extending the organization's influence in the Northwest. At the present time, the council is the only regional organization that draws its membership from all the states in the area and from all levels of educational institutions, from the elementary school through the university.

Wohletz Talks To BJC Foresters

Dean Ernest Wohletz, Dean of the College of Forestry, visited Idaho State College and Boise Junior College where he talked to forestry students interested in transferring to the University of Idaho.

While in southern Idaho on his two-day trip, Wohletz addressed the biological science class at BJC and attended two meetings concerning possible research projects.

One was on the State Fish and Game Commission and the other was a meeting of the Co-operative Board of Forestry.

Program Initiated

Golden, Colo.—(IP)—Aimed at providing mineral engineering leaders of the future a fellowship program between the Colorado School of Mines and the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration has been established to give mines graduates the opportunity to add a business administration background to their well-rounded mineral engineering education.

Details of the Mineral Engineering Fellowship Program, supported financially by twelve leading executives of the mineral industry interested in the School of Mines, have been announced jointly by President John W. Vanderwilt of Colorado Mines and Dean Donald K. David of the Harvard Business School.

The Mineral Engineering Fellowship Program is designed to produce future leaders for the mineral industries, to provide additional training for mines graduates responsible for the development of the nation's mineral resources. It is the first time such an outstanding program for individual progress has been offered to graduates of the Mines School.

Diamondmen Win Battle With Pirates But Lose To Weather

Whits Succumb To Vandals For Second Straight Time

Pitching seven hit ball, Idaho's Ed Barton hurled the Vandals to their second straight win over Whitworth's Pirates by defeating them 8-2 before a sparse crowd at McLean Field Friday afternoon.

Mike Cygler, senior second sacker, carried the big stick for the Vandals booming out five for five off of the offerings of Don Gum and Phil Nienhuis. Cygler rapped out a pair of doubles and three singles scoring twice and getting one RBI to his credit.

Whitworth's Tony Radnitch was the big hitter for the Pirates with a single and double in five trips to the plate. Pirate Shortstop, Wayne Buchert displayed a bit of gymnastics when he made a diving catch of Reg Frazier's screamer over the edge of the mound.

Make Three Bobbles

Sporting three errors for the afternoon, the Vandals managed to hang onto the ball when it counted and none of the mistakes were costly. Idaho also racked up its sixth double play of the season Friday.

Idaho's double play choked a threat by the Whits in the first stanza after Barton gave a free pass to Marshal. Pocklington lined one to Bud Nelson. Vandal third sacker who threw the Pirate third baseman out at first. Marshal attempted to make third on the throw but Flip Kleffner's peg was in time to make the double out ending scoring chances for the Pirates.

Morrison Gets 3 RBIs

With two away in the bottom of the first, Idaho put on their first scoring move when Cygler doubled and went to third on Kleffner's single. Larry Morrison drove Cygler in. Morrison got three RBIs in the game.

Barton had his bad inning in the second when Jones and Howard singled to bring Bozarth across.

Idaho's big inning came in the fourth when Frank Teverbaugh started it off with a single, followed by Quane's walk and a bunt by Barton advancing the runners. Tom Falash lined out but Nelson dropped one into short center to chalk up a pair of RBIs. Nelson took second when Jones tried to pick him off first and threw into right field moving the third sacker to second. Cygler out his second double of the afternoon to score Nelson.

Whitworth scored its second and final tally in the sixth with the aid of a pair of miscues by Nelson and Morrison.

Morrison scored the longest hit of the afternoon with a triple and was brought in on Teverbaugh's single. Frazier crossed the plate in the seventh after getting on an error by Wall.

That writer is Steve Lamoreux, sports editor for the Mindoka County News. Mr. Lamoreux, in a recent column in his paper, answered our reply to his first article by saying, and we quote, "We're not convinced that Idaho should

ISC Steve Belko Is Negotiating

President J. E. Buchanan of the University of Idaho this morning confirmed reports that the University has been negotiating with Steve Belko, head basketball coach at Idaho State college, to take over the head basketball coach position here.

"Belko has advised that he is not in a position to give a definite answer at this time," said President Buchanan, "but further discussions will be held at a later date. Meanwhile, we will begin to canvass the field for other possibilities."

Good Relations
Buchanan added that the discussions with Belko regarding the possibility of his taking the coaching position here have been "on a friendly basis between the two institutions, and is indicative of the fine relationship that exists."

In 1950, Belko left the University of Idaho with his good wishes to become head basketball coach at Idaho State. He had been freshman basketball and football coach at the University. At that time, President Buchanan said that "we regret seeing Belko leave, but we are proud of the fact that his University record was instrumental in his advancing to a head college coaching position."

Impressive Record
At Idaho State, Belko's basketball teams have set outstanding records. This year his team won the Rocky Mountain title, and was selected as one of the teams-at-large to compete for the NCAA championships in which team reached the finals of the eighth

A native of Gary, Ind., Belko was graduated from the University of Idaho in 1939, after winning three letters in basketball and three in football. In basketball, he was an all-northern division Pacific Coast conference forward in 1938. In football, he starred as a back. Following graduation, he coached high school sports at St. Maries and Lewiston.

Belko started guiding the Vandal Babes in 1946. His University of Idaho freshman basketball record for four years was 33 games won and 12 lost. Belko-coached teams at the University proved a major headache for Washington State college. During his last season, the University frosh defeated the WSC frosh in basketball four out of five games.

Rodeo Riders Set Schedule
The 1954 Vandal Rider's schedule was announced yesterday by Arizona Vandervort, publicity chairman for the rodeo riders and includes five rodeo events with the first coming April 17 and 18 at Milton-Freewater, Oregon.

Other events for the year are April 24 and 25 at Pomeroy, Wash.; May 1 and 2 at Tannaska, Wash.; May 8 and 9, Kennewick, Wash. This meet will be the Pacific Coast Conference championships. May 14, 15 and 16 at Coeur d'Alene which will be the Pacific Northwest meet.

Howard Harris, former president of the group and top rider last fall has been rodeoing in Texas the past week, according to Vandervort.
