Action-Packed Two-Day Schedule Will Honor Grads And Visitors

Six hundred and twenty-two seniors will parade to the traditional "Grand March" Sunday, June 6, to receive their coveted graduation degrees.

The academic procession will begin at 1:45 p.m. at the Administration Building. Graduates will march into the Memorial Gymnasium for commencement exercises at 2, climaxing the two-day graduation festivities.

Alumni Day at the University will be held Saturday, June 5. The program for all alums will begin at noon with a luncheon and the annual association business meeting at the Moscow Hotel.

At 4 p.m., the University Band will give a concert on the Ad lawn. A dinner at the SUB and class reunions are scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Alumni Day will close with a vespers recital at the Music Building at 8 p.m.

The program for Baccalaureate and Commencement Day will begin at 9:30 a.m. at Memorial Gymnasium when The Right Rev. Russell S. Hubbard, Episcopal Bishop of Spokane, will read baccalaureate services.

A cafeteria luncheon for parents and visitors at the SUB is planned from 11:45 to 1 p.m. A special luncheon for Regents and their official guests will also be held in the SUB at 12 p.m. Following the commencement exercises, an informal reception of the class of 1954, their parents, the Board of Regents, the faculty, and alumni will be held in the SUB. Exhibitions on campus Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. include a flower show in the botany department of Science hall, an art exhibition in the department of art and architecture and a library exhibit.

After the students presented farewell gifts to President Buchanan last Friday, speculators were buzzing with all kinds of ideas as to who will replace the departing leader.

Prominent among the rumors was one mentioning Dean Theophilus as a top contender. But the prize rumor was one hoisting Governor Jordan for the presidency. Then someone got out the wet blankets and said that Jordan was headed for a power commission job.

So, that's about where we stand right now. Speaking of that "sendoff" ceremony, we'd like to ask, where was the Pep Band? Someone told us that they wouldn't play because they "couldn't get excused from class."

When you cannot risk one unexcused absence to help say goodbye to your president, it is certainly a tough situation. Chicken, anyone?

People who think we gripe too much over "minor" things ought to go to (no, not there) BYU where the editor of the paper is complaining about a "temporary building put up in 1947."

The guy should come up here and see Idaho Club and Campus Club which were erected, so we hear, "temporarily" around 1938.

The Administration's polite murmur a few weeks back about a "check on off-campus housing" shouldn't worry as many people as it has. We talked to Dean Decker about it and asked for an official statement.

Let us say here that getting official statements on topics such as this is as hard as hatching eggs in a blizzard. Anyhow, the good Dean replied that people were becoming unduly disturbed. And we didn't see his tongue in his cheek, either.

He said that the announcement was merely a part of a "braking" action, not the beginning of a major crackdown. However, this news does not give carte blanche to flip your lids.

White Says KUOI Needs Equipment

By FRED WILLIAMS

If KUOI cannot be improved as far as coverage and equipment are concerned it should probably be dropped," said Station Manager, Chuck White, at a recent Executive Board meeting. White said that the coverage and equipment problem has nearly "ruined" the moral of the station's staff.

According to White the station needs:

1) An FCC license for a five-watt station employing "free radiation." Free radiation stations use an antenna to radiate their signal. At the present time KUOI uses Washington Water Power lines for an antenna which makes them a "carrier current" station.

2) A general replacement of station equipment plus some extra facilities. This would include a new console, tape recorder and remote equipment for the station. White estimated the cost to be in the neighborhood of $2400.

The station cannot directly apply for the new five-watt license, but has to obtain permission through "political sources" since under the present rules a five-watt station would not be allowed in this area. The area is restricted because of the broadcasting range of near-by stations.

Originally, said White, KUOI had sufficient coverage because it was located in an ideal location for signal transmission. But since the station moved into the Student Union Building the coverage has decreased.

White says that the present equipment is nearly "inoperative" and that the best of it is personally owned by the students themselves.

In contrast with WSC, Idaho is sadly lacking in broadcasting facilities, according to White. Station KWSC operates with a staff of hired students and has a signal of 5000 watts. This, said White, gives the radio student an excellent background in his field. WSC also operates a small station JKUGR, similar to KUOI for beginning students.

With the recent addition of a course for radio majors White believes that improvement of the station will be beneficial both in student recruitment and training, plus more entertainment for campus listeners.

Air Force Dept. Takes New Title

The departmental designation for each AFROTC unit has been changed from Department of Air Science and Tactics to "Department of Air Science" and the title of Professor of Air Science and Tactics has been changed to "Professor of Air Science" according to orders received by Colonel O. J. Mosman.

Doc Alley Says 'White Excuses Now Void'

Those white excuses won't go any more! It appears that more infirmity excuses are in circulation than are being issued by the Health Service staff. Possibly this is due to a supply of excuse blanks being in the hands of unauthorized persons.

Therefore, Dr. Ralph M. Alley has announced that for the remainder of this academic year, the Infirmity will issue only PINK excuse blanks. As of May 20, the WHITE Infirmity excuse blanks were no longer valid.

ROTC Warblers Praised

Following is a letter received by Captain J. E. Burchfield of the University AFROTC detachment concerning a program recently put on at Fairchild AFB by the AFROTC choir under the direction of Bruce Sweeney.

Dear Sir,
I wish to personally thank you and all the members of the AFROTC choral group who presented such a fine evening of entertainment with their wonderful song renditions. I had several telephone calls from people who wanted to know when the group could be obtained again for possibly an entire choral program. They have nothing but praise for the entire group.

Hoping that future arrangements can be worked out to present the choral group. I remain
Sincerely,
EUGENE J. PLATEK,
Capt., USAF.

ASUI President Flip Klefner presses the flesh with President J. E. Buchanan who will leave the campus shortly to join the Asphalt Institute in New York. At Buchanan's left hand stands the luggage set presented him at the farewell rally held Friday just before noon. Onlookers include Mrs. Buchanan, ex-ASUI President Bill Parsons and Executive board member Jack Knodle.

Suit Filed On Thomas

Captain T. C. Thomas, Professor of Naval Science at the University, was named defendant Friday in a $50,000 damage suit filed here by Moscow attorney Murray Estes.

Estes charged that he has "been deprived of public confidence, has suffered embarrassment and humiliation" as a result of statements made by Thomas at a gathering at Moscow High School May 12, 1953.

Thomas allegedly described the charges against Richard Shoup, University student, as "a phoney." "It won't stand up in any court," Thomas reportedly added. "I'm sure he (Estes) knew that," Thomas allegedly concluded.

Bride-To-Be Gets Extra Gift

Eleanor Anderson, Spokane, received another wedding present when she learned that she has been chosen as the outstanding Idaho woman journalism graduate of 1954.

The announcement was made by Mrs. Jane Cantrell of Kellogg, president of the Idaho Press Women's organization.

Miss Anderson is planning to be married May 30 to Norm Laur, a student at Gonzaga University. While at Idaho, Eleanor was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She completed her work for a bachelor's degree at the University's 1953 summer school and will receive her degree at the June 6 commencement exercises.

While at the University, she worked on the Argonaut for four years and served as its business manager. She also served as president of the Radio-TV Guild. She is presently employed by the Virgil A. Warren Advertising agency in Spokane.

This is the third consecutive year that a University of Idaho graduate has won the top award for women journalism students.

Other recent University of Idaho winners were Maribel Schupfer, Kendrick, who is presently employed as a reporter for the Daily Idahoian, and Sheila Jansson Klages, Moscow, currently working as assistant production manager of the Texas Livestock Journal.

Buchanan Bids Last Goodbye

Sporting a brand new "I" cap and a set of luggage presented to him by the University of Idaho student body, President J. E. Buchanan bade "goodbye" to the students last Friday at a farewell rally held on the Ad lawn.

Students were dismissed from their fourth period classes 15 minutes early to attend the surprise rally.

"Severing 31 years of connection with the University of Idaho is not an easy thing for me," said Buchanan. He spoke from the Ad Building steps near the office he has used for the past eight years. "This is a very heartwarming occasion . . . the University of Idaho will always occupy spots in the hearts of the Buchanan family," he added.

Speaking for the students, ASUI President Flip Klefner expressed "warm thanks" for the president's years of service. "You (Buchanan) have brought the University a long way forward, and we only hope that we can continue in the patterns you have set for us," the ASUI President said.

Buchanan recently resigned from the University, effective June 30. With two exceptions, 1938-38 and 1942-46, his association with the institution has been continuous for 31 years, commencing with his enrollment as an engineering student in the fall of 1923.

He is leaving the University to become president of the Asphalt Institute with headquarters in New York City.

KUOI To Broadcast Graduation Exercises

KUOI will broadcast commencement and graduation exercises, according to Chuck White, station manager.

KUOI plans to end regular scheduled broadcast Friday, May 28.

"Dance Of The Nations" Draws Enthusiastic Crowd

The Cosmopolitan club presented its "Dance of the Nations" Saturday night in the three SUB ballrooms to wind up its activities for the year. Music was furnished by Gary Thomas and his orchestra. They played music characteristic of the different countries.

elia Lemondis, treasurer, junior majoring in home economics; Ron Tan, corresponding secretary, majoring in architecture from Singapore and Sa-Ard Boonkird, historian, Siam.

Foreign students were dressed in the national costume of their country. Patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Hopkins, advisors of the club, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hosack. Hosack is the foreign student advisor.

Other faculty members present were Dean and Professor of Law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Stinson; head of the department of Social Sciences, Dr. and Mrs. Boyd A. Martin; visiting associate professor of Law, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Berman; assistant director of forestry, wildlife, and range experiment station, Dr. Edwin W. Tisdale; professor of Law, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brocklebank; instructor in English, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Haislip; and professor in English, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Banks.

Several members of the WSC Cosmopolitan Club were also present at the dance.

Certificates of Achievement recently were awarded to the members of the Women's Rifle Team. Lt. Col. James A. Moore (far left) did the honors. Coach Sgt. Rufus Sawyer stands in the middle of the group. Team members include Darlene Frost, Jean Teutsch, Jean Weston, Marge Drapper, Mary Vorborg, Joyce Merrill.

The Idaho Argonaut

Official publication of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho issued every Tuesday and Friday of the college year. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Moscow, Idaho.

Buchanan Says:

To The Students:

I would like to use the medium of your newspaper to thank all you students for the fine gifts of luggage and golf cap which you so thoughtfully presented at your surprise rally Friday. It will be a pleasure for me to carry a bit of Idaho with me when I travel on my new job. And the cap will always be a reminder to me not only of the special significance of the letter "I" but that man was not intended to devote all his hours to work.

What pleased me most at the rally was the singing of my favorite song, "Here We Have Idaho." I know that I will think of the words often in future years, and it will be heart-warming to think of them as they came across the campus green at your rally.

The University of Idaho throughout the years has had a continuing fine group of students. For all the spirit, cooperation and understanding that have been shown I would like to extend my appreciation and thanks.

Sincerely,
J. E. BUCHANAN,
President.

Southern Revolt Doomed

A salute is due the members of the United States Supreme Court for their recent action in deciding 9-0 that racial segregation in public schools is not kosher.

Their action was another in the series of moves which have been going on for almost 100 years. These side actions have gradually worn away most of the South's racially intolerant concepts.

But, people like the Talmadges and the Byrneses continue to shout defiance. Talmadge declared that the Supreme Court's move was another political move by the Eisenhower administration. If such is the case, Mr. Talmadge, this country needs more political moves—the South particularly.

And Mr. Byrnes, anti-racism leader No. 2, threatens to put into operation a South Carolina law which could abolish public schools. The implication is that Negroes will be unable to attend the state's "private schools" for lack of funds.

It is not highly probable that the United States government will be buffaloeled by these Civil War relics who represent the South. Look for Byrnes and Talmadge to get slapped down in the future—but good! —A.G.D.

DEAR JASON

Open Letter to Flip Kleffner:

Flip, I would like to offer my congratulations and wish you the best of luck for the coming school year as ASUJ President. I know that you will do a job that will deserve a big round of applause for a "job well done" when this time comes around next year and a new man takes over your place behind the wheel.

You have won yourself a big job and a job that is filled with many trials and tribulations of an elected leader. You have a good student body and a capable Executive Board with which to work with in making this coming year one of the best Idaho has seen in its history. Keep up the good work you have been doing since you took over and I know that you will build "A Better Idaho."

As the 1953-54 school year is rapidly drawing to a close amid dances, picnics, water fights, and tests, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the student body and all those people who served on committees for their fine support and cooperation in making this school year a most pleasant and one well remembered.

As your new officers take over, continue to give them your whole hearted support in the coming year.

Bill Parsons.

Dear Jason:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you, the members of your staff, and Gale Mix, ASUJ general manager, for inviting us to the annual Argonaut banquet last night.

In the memory of the oldest members of us, it was the first time we had ever been invited to the banquet.

Wayne Young your journalism instructor, said that in reality it was probably we who put out the paper. But believe us, we were sincere when our spokesman said that the last couple of years we had the best copy to work with that we had ever had.

Thanks again, Al.

Idahonian Backshop Staff

Dear Jason:

After having read your comments in Friday's Argonaut concerning the "inadequacy" of the Moscow Fire Department in extinguishing the Hays Hall blaze, I am convinced that there has been a serious misunderstanding. Believe me, the girls at Hays Hall think the Moscow Fire Department is just about the best in the world. They arrived in a matter of minutes, they worked swiftly, they confined the blaze to one room, and they even cleaned up the debris. There was, however, a complaint from some of us about the lack of equipment in the hall. As far as I know, the only fire-fighting equipment in the hall are several carbon-dioxide fire extinguishers. We do not have a hose or an ax. The night watchman who discovered the blaze had no way to turn in an alarm. Our doorbell can be heard only on first floor, and the girls were on the fourth floor sleeping porches. There should be a firebox outside the hall. I hope this will clear up any misconceptions about the Moscow Fire Department. In our opinion, they're tops!!!

Faculty Plans Ice Cream 'Bust'

Soft drinks and ice cream free for the faculty!

The Faculty Club picnic will be held in Laird Park May 29 from 2-6 p.m., Edith Betts has announced.

Everyone who plans to attend is requested to sign in the Faculty Club.

Those who want milk or coffee are asked to bring their own. The entire faculty and their families are invited.

Querna Feted In Contest

Jane Querna, junior journalism major in the January-April Mademoiselle, was named one of 50 runner-up in the January-April Mademoiselle Contest.

The Boise co-ed completed one article assignment about campus life each month. Twenty guest editors were chosen from all over the United States to edit the August issue of the magazine in New York during June.

Jane will automatically be a member of the College Board Contest next year, as will the other Idaho entrant, Ruth Brede, also a junior journalism major. Jody Ennis, Alpha Phi senior, was a second-year Board member, this year.

Dear Jason:

We would like to remind you that fire insurance inspectors are a rough lot. If Hays Hall was not adequately protected from fire, you wouldn't be living there.

The hall was built on the premise that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of fire hoses. You might check on how well the fire was contained—by preventative construction—in one room, even though it had been burning for hours and was called a "vrey hot blaze."

Sincerely,
Shirley Lent.

Labor Secretary Says Job Openings Adequate

"The time has come for you young men and women to leave the institutional world of theory and to enter a different world," said James P. Mitchell, secretary of the United States Department of Labor in an open letter to graduating seniors.

In his letter he made an analysis which shows that young people are needed most in the American economy where the opportunities are best.

"Opportunities in engineering are good for both new graduates and experienced men and women. Chemical, electrical, and mechanical engineers will continue to find employment mainly in manufacturing industries, while federal, state and local governments will employ the largest number of civil engineers," he asserted.

Demand for personnel is high in most of the natural sciences, especially in activities related to defense production and research and development, said Mitchell. Employment opportunities for chemists are greatest in such manufacturing industries as chemicals, petroleum, rubber, food and paper.

Educational institutions and government also employ substantial numbers of chemists. The defense program has greatly increased the need for physicists, particularly for those with advanced training, and a continuing high demand for personnel is indicated.

Experienced geologists and geophysicists are needed in the petroleum and mining industries.

In the field of teaching, the demand for elementary school teachers continues to be greater than the supply. The supply of new teachers is far below the number needed for new positions resulting from increased enrollments and for replacement of experienced teachers leaving the profession.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission reports that the pressing needs of Federal agencies are in scientific and technical positions such as engineer, physicist, metallurgist, cartographer, and cartographic draftsmen, chemist, mathematician, geologist, and oceanographer, as well as in medical, dietetic, and library specialties.

Thomas Low Man In Repair Bid

John E. Thomas, Moscow, was the low bidder today for repair and renovation work on the Memorial gymnasium including sky-light repairs and installation of heating ducts and acoustical tile. The bid was $32,240. Commercial Builders, Inc., Moscow, bid $34,939.

The long-needed project will provide two major improvements for the gymnasium—eliminating of condensation on the ceiling with drippage on the floor endangering basketball players, and improving the sound in the building so that speakers can be better heard.

Also opened were bids on a machine shed for the Forestry nursery, with R. H. Haley, Moscow, entering the low bid of $5,945. Other bidders were Thomas, $6,307; Commercial Builders, $6,820, and Dix Steel Building company, Spokane, $6,090.

Bids now go to the regents for review.

Med Admissions Are Discussed

Dr. Irving Jolley, chairman of pre-medical and pre-dental studies, returned from a regional conference of pre-medical advisors of the University of Utah Medical School held recently.

The problems discussed were procedures followed for admitting students to medical school. The counseling and advising of pre-medical students was also a topic of discussion.

Turner was driven to the University Infirmary. He is expected to be released today.

He added that he will say a few words, however. His son, Richard, is one of the grads.

Far-Flung Campuses Hold Some Student Advantages

If you have that typical spring attitude of being fed up with school in general, and you are ready to stop your studies at the University in search of the better things in life, here is a rundown on some conditions in colleges around the country which may entice you on to greater fields of study.

Students interested in a career of selling toothpaste should transfer to the USC campus, reports Mary Wilson, where their campus paper reported a boost in local toothpaste sales after a successful "Hello and Smile" week.

Santa Barbara College is moving to a new site by the sea. Students may frolic in the sun on more than a mile of sandy beach—all part of the campus.

At Trinity College, Mass., the student senate passed a motion to allow drinking of beer and wine in dormitories.

Girls seeking a M.R.S. degree might be attracted by the University of Oklahoma's ratio of five men to every available woman.

Presenting the honors to Forbes was Colonel Thomas M. Brinkley of Boise, chief of the Idaho military district, who was making his final inspection of the University's ROTC cadets.

Vandals Ruin Husky Hopes For Division Diamond Flag

Fireman Barton Salvages Opener Giving One Hit

Fireman Gary Barton came on with the chips down Friday afternoon and set the Washington Huskies down on one hit the rest of the way as his teammates knocked the rawhide all over the confines of McLean field. Barton, who's curve couldn't be touched, came on for starter Dick Dodel in the fifth facing a deficit of 6-2.

Larry Morrison and Flip Kleffner fixed that, however, as each unloaded triples high on the left banks with three men and two runners aboard, respectively.

Dodel got into trouble in the first three innings and he allowed a tally per frame until the fourth when the Huskies pounced on his speedy offerings for three runs.

Dodel went out in the bottom of the fourth and Barton came in the following inning to stop the flood-gates but good. The sophomore righthander gave up one hit for no runs, walked three and fanned two in his relief stint. The win was his first against three setbacks. Ken Hallett holds the other Vandal win in ND play.

Idaho got their insurance runs in the eighth frame as Bob Haines singled, Frank Teverbaugh drew a base on balls and Morrison got on a bunt single. Reggie Frazier connected for a bases-loaded single that scored Haines and Teverbaugh.

Top Vandal clubbers, who figured in the 12-hit attack, were Morrison with two for three; Kleffner, three for four; and Frazier, three for five. The win knocked Washington's mathematical chances of winning the Northern Division flag right out the back door.

The summary:

Idaho Slams Third, Oregon Captures Sixth Links Flag

EUGENE—University of Oregon golfers, paced by team Captain Don Kreiger, copped their sixth Northern Division link crown Saturday here at the Eugene country club course.

Oregon State followed second, with Beaver swinger, Bob Donnelly capturing medalist honors up the rear with a 661 carding for par 142 shooting two rounds of 71 golf. University of Idaho golfers pulled an upset and moved in for third place honors leaving the last two spots to Washington and Washington State respectively.

Oregon's winning score was 606, Oregon State had 621. Idaho had 625. University of Washington golfers totaled a 627 and WSC brought up two rounds at 76 for 152, the day's rounds.

Shuffled Husky Lineup Works For 4-1 Win

Increasing his tempo with each pitch, Washington Husky moundsman Bill Reams, led his teammates to a 4-1 victory over the Vandal baseball nine Saturday afternoon at MacLean field in the final encounter of the 1954 season for the Vandals. Washington winds up its season tomorrow following a two game series with Washington State College for the number three position in the Northern Division standings.

Reams, pitching with the support of a shuffled lineup behind him following the Husky defeat at the hands of the Vandals Friday afternoon, allowed but four safeties during the contest.

Coach Bill Marx' shuffling strategy paid off with three new men in the game coming up with five of the eleven hits given by Ken Hallett who had mound duties for the Idaho nine. Jack Ballard, Husky backstop blasted out a round-tripper in the fourth scoring Ralph Morris ahead of him giving the Husky squad a 3-0 lead.

Washington got their first run in the second frame when Dave McClary tripled and scored on an error on the relay from the outfield to the plate. The fourth tally of the day came for the Washington crew in the seventh when Ed Sage, center gardner, came up with a double and crossed the plate on Reams' single.

The Vandals managed to push a single run across in the fourth without the aid of a hit when they capitalized on Husky miscues. Flip Kleffner was hit by a pitched ball putting him on first. The Vandal third-sacker stole second and came the distance on a passed ball through Catcher Ballard.

Ducks Edge Husky Runners In ND Cinder Meet

PULLMAN—The Oregon Ducks lived up to their names and favorites role in nosing out the Washington Husky cinder squad Saturday for the Northern Division track and field championships. Oregon piled up 49 1/2 points to Washington's 48 1/2. The Idaho Vandal track team scored 12 points for fifth place.

The margin of victory came in the mile relay event. The Huskies held a one-point advantage going into the relay but lost out to the fleet Webfeet quartette.

Defending champions WSC were third with 34 and OSC placed fourth with 20 1/2.

The big upset of the afternoon was turned in by Oregon's Ken Reiser as he put on a brilliant down-the-wire kick to outdo two-mile record holder Denny Meyer of Washington. In his effort he was slower than the Meyer record by .022, but Meyer couldn't keep up with the fast pacing of Reiser.

Bob Gary, Cougar dash man, was first in his specialties, the 100 and 200 yard dashes, for the only double winner of the day.

The Vandals picked up two second places in the javelin and 400-yard dash. Bruce West hurled the javelin toss behind first place Jerry Church, OSC, who threw it for 216 feet, 11 inches. Henning Olsen ran second in the dash.

Save up to 4¢ a pack - 40¢ a carton!

Since L&M Filters were put on sale across the country they have gained a nation-wide demand never before equalled by any other cigarette in so short a time.

Already, thousands of big-city dealers report — L&M their largest selling filter cigarette!

Why have L&M Filters rolled up sales records like this? Because for the first time filter tip smokers are getting what they want . . . much more flavor and aroma with much less nicotine.
