

Magician Will Disclose Famed Feats Of Illusion

Lee Grabel, world famous magician, will perform his amazing feats of illusion for the students of the University of Idaho Friday evening, October 15, at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Gymnasium.

At press time last night 81 per cent of the students polled through the Student Facilities Fee Questionnaire voted against the construction of a $150,000 ice skating rink. Total number of ballots received were 383.

High on the list of preferences on how to use the money was the suggestion of a new swimming pool. Thirty-six per cent of the ballots opposing the rink indicated this.

A complete report of the Argonaut Facilities Fee Questionnaire results will be presented to the Executive Board at their weekly meeting tonight. The Argonaut will form an editorial committee to investigate the possibilities of a swimming pool. A full report of the findings will be published in the editorial section of the Argonaut, Friday, October 15.

On the subject of Executive Board, not one of the ballots received carried the name of a current Board member. The ASUI president and one Board member were out of town, but eight supposedly informed University of Idaho leaders failed to indicate their wishes.

With a thanks to the athletic department, we made it down to Stockton this weekend for the game—and a mighty good game too. ASUI proxy Flip Kleffner and Board member Terrell Davis took the long trip, too.

You probably heard the cheering for Idaho over the radio. A high school band called the "Marching 100" turned out to cheer Idaho. The students were from nearby Merced High School. Between Merced High and the Idaho alumni we were heard.

Talk about alumni! We sure saw some. Bonese Collins, Maizie Collett, Phyllis Payne, Jody Ennis, Senator Don McCabe and ex-Argonaut editor Bert Johnson kept the Idaho tales flowing at the alumni meeting following the game. Plenty of others were on hand for the game and reunion afterwards.

We had a great time travelling with Stanley and Co. They are a great bunch and a fighting bunch. If anybody is out there working for the U of I these boys are—and don't forget it.

The noble vine is swaying once more. It relates a tale of complaint from the Independent Caucus. They say this year's "Gem of the Mountains" favored the Greek side of the campus picture.

We're not squawking—just relating.

Prof. Macklin Announces Students In University Orchestra And Band

Membership in two University of Idaho musical organizations was announced by Professor Hall M. Macklin, head of the music department.

Students named to the University orchestra for the first semester include Shirley Ann Brandvold, Janet Louise Moser, Wayne Crathorne, Barbara Joan Hamlet, Mary Ann Counsell Johnson, D. Mary Ellen Bennett, Edward Schmith, Virginia Elaine Sturgess and Elizabeth Ann Ould.

"The Master," as he is called, with his lovely assistant, Helen, and a cast of over twenty, will disclose to the University audience what is said by many to be the most fabulous act in show business.

Featuring the famous "Floating Piano" trick, in a background of costumes, music and 25 tons of equipment. Grabel will make an upright grand piano, bench and pianist seem to float into the air, and then disappear. Originated by Grabel, it is considered to be one of the most difficult of all stunts.

Another stunt in the over two-hour long review will be when Grabel will shoot an assistant into the audience with the "human cannon." Also included are such stunts as the Oriental Sedan Chair, The Real Houdini Escape, Pipe Smoker's Dream and The Pin-Up Girl.

"The Master" has toured the United States and abroad, appearing in Hollywood, Broadway, Chicago, Paris, the London Music Hall, Boston and many other cities to capacity and sell out crowds.

Duffy Named Gem Editor

Darlene Duffy, Associate Editor of last year's Gem, has been officially appointed Editor of the 1955 Gem of the Mountains by the ASUI Publication Board.

Jim Steele and Keith MacPhee will be the Associate Editors. Other appointments that were made at the same time were Kay Kaufman as circulation manager for the Argonaut. Joan Welsh as Program Director of KUOI, Jerry Chandler as production director and Scott Peters as Publicity Director of KUOI.

Still to be appointed are the Feature Editor and Managing Editor of the Arg, and the Assistant Station Manger of KUOI. They will be appointed at a later meeting.

Four KUOI Men Seen Prowling On Roofs

Four men were seen prowling on roofs of some of the women's living groups Saturday morning.

However scandal was averted when it was discovered that the men were Chuck White, Jerry Chandler, Scott Peters and Jim Foley. These men were found to be stringing wires for KUOI. The wires were extended from Kappa Kappa Gamma south to Hays Hall.

Rod Hoioos Captures "Forester of Day" Title

Rod C. Hoioos, Lewiston, with first places in the birling and double-bucking contests, topped over a hundred foresters vying for the "Forester of the Day" title at the annual Foresters' Steak Fry Saturday.

Spencer Miller, McCall, was a close second to Hoioos; Dewey Almas, Spokane, took third place on the day marked with seven contests. The Associated Foresters held their first event of the school year at Meadow Creek in the University forest.

Dr. Kenneth Hungerford and Everett Ellis brought a faculty sharpened saw and managed to top all students' with more square inches per second in the log-bucking contest.

Dormitory Given Name Of Dean Jane French

The new women's dormitory, now under construction at the University of Idaho, will be named after Dean Permeal Jane French, who died at 87 in Seattle, Sunday, it was announced today by Acting President D. R. Theophilus.

Dr. Theophilus explained that the Board of Regents had planned to act formally at its next meeting October 21-23 on the University recommendation that the dormitory be named after Miss French, who served the University for 28 years as dean of women.

Last week, upon learning of Miss French's illness, he contacted the Board of Regents by telephone and telegraph, and received their advance approval. He then sent a telegram to Miss French Saturday advising her of the action.

A native of Idaho, Miss French was born at Idaho City, May 8, 1867. Educated in the public schools of Idaho, she then attended the College of Notre Dame at San Francisco, where she was graduated in 1887.

She also held M.A. degrees from the University of Idaho and George Washington University at Washington, D. C. An honorary doctorate degree was awarded her by the University of Idaho in 1948.

Miss French started her teaching career in Idaho in 1887 while the state was still a territory. She taught at Hailey, Bradford and Silver City until 1898. She then became State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and held that position for four years.

Coming to the University of Idaho in 1901, she served as dean of women.

Voice Of Students Heard Thru NSA

This is the first in a series of articles on the National Student Association authored by Jim Saad, ASUI vice president and chairman of NSA here. The articles will be published to explain the University of Idaho's connection with this organization.—Ed.

NSA is the strongest voice American students have in National, international and student affairs on the national level. Examples of instances when NSA has presented student's views can be reflected in legislation concerning Fulbright scholarships, tax deductions for students, and Air Force commissions for AFROTC cadets.

NSA is currently exerting pressure for a definite manpower policy, concerning college students and the Armed Forces. On the campus level the association is organized to encompass national affairs, international affairs and student affairs programs. Coordinators for these respective levels are: Wayne Glidden, Roger McPike and Don O'Neil.

Idaho-WSC Clubs Will Play Soccer

It may be as rough as football, it may look somewhat like football, and it will be played against Idaho's top opponents in football—WSC—but it's soccer next Saturday.

The contenders will be soccer teams from the University of Idaho and Washington State College Cosmopolitan Clubs.

According to Olaf Stavik, Idaho Cosmo Club president, Saturday's game, set for 2 p.m. in the Moscow Recreation Park, should be a hot contest.

Last year's game was won by WSC on their own field, and was attended by 300 students.

"Washington State has a strong team, and we can expect a hard game," Stavik said.

Than Johnson, Cosmopolitan Club member, set Saturday's game odds at 5-1 in favor of Idaho, and remarked that he would be out of town Sunday.

In a game Sunday against the Moscow Jay-Cees, the Norwegian Vikings won with a 7-1 score. The Vikings are members of the Cosmo Club team.

The game was said to be the first soccer game held in Moscow.

Stavik said he expected Roar Mogerud, who starred in Sunday's game, would be good team insurance in the coming WSC-Idaho game. Mogerud played with the top-Norwegian soccer team before coming to the University, Stavik said.

A 25-cent admission will be charged to spectators. Proceeds from the game will be divided between the two clubs to benefit them in their organizational activities.

Usually played in two 45-minute halves, Stavik said Saturday's game would be played in two halves of 40 and 30 minutes each.

Rudiments of soccer, not native to the United States, are that two 11-man teams attempt to get the soccer ball to their end of the field for a point. To do this, they may kick the ball or hit it with their heads or bodies, but must not touch it with their hands.

In commenting about the game, Stavik said that soccer is a game "which requires a good head," but added that he meant strategy.

Soccer is played on a football field, and almost anything goes, as anyone could testify who saw Sunday's game.

A practice for all team members will be held at Recreation Park Friday at 4 p.m., Stavik added.

Gus Laskaris Is Awarded $500 Metallurgy Scholarship

Constantinos (Gus) Laskaris, a native of Greece who now calls Rathdrum, Idaho, his home, has been awarded a $500 scholarship for the 1954-55 school year by the American Smelting and Refining company of New York, it was announced today by Charles O. Decker, director of student affairs.

A senior in metallurgy, Laskaris has been in the United States for the past three years after completing one year of college work in Greece.

Following his graduation he hopes to obtain a position and experience in some Northwest metallurgical plant before continuing his world travels.

A past president of the Cosmopolitan Club, an organization composed of American and foreign students, Laskaris received a surprise when arriving at the University three years ago. "I was amazed that so many students knew the Greek alphabet," he said. The explanation is that fraternity and sorority houses on the campus use Greek letters for identification purposes.

"I'm an Independent Greek, myself," quipped Laskaris, meaning that he does not belong to a fraternity.

The ASARCO scholarships are awarded to stimulate young men to go into the engineering profession. Awards are based on scholastic standing, and the student's ability for leadership in his chosen field.

Intramural Debate Tourney Planned For Late October

October 23 and 30 are the dates of the Delta Sigma Rho intramural debate tournament, announced Roger McPike, president of the Idaho chapter of the national speech honorary yesterday.

The resolution this year, same as the national inter-collegiate topic, is: "That the United States Should Extend Diplomatic Recognition to Communist China."

Competition in the men's division is slated for the first week and the women's the following Saturday. Living groups usually appoint pledges or freshmen to compete for the DSR trophy and several groups have started practice already.

The National Intercollegiate Debate question is: "That the United States Should Extend Diplomatic Recognition to Communist China." Idaho debaters will also take part in other contests in oratory, extemporaneous speaking, oral reading, discussion, after-dinner speaking and impromptu speaking.

Experienced debaters returning for another season of competition include Dean Holt, James Kruger, Charles McDevitt, Roger McPike, Jody Keith, Drew Field, Lee Anderson, Charles Oldham, and Joy Chilcott.

Others turning out for the Idaho squad include Ann Reading, Linda Lou Williams, William Albano, Jim Duncan, Don Lawrence, Leslyn Rogers, David Cripe, Melvin Madson, Cherie Bacon, and William Peterson.

CANDIDATES TO TALK
Nell Robinson, Democratic candidate for superintendent of Public Instruction, will speak Thursday, October 14 at 4:10 p.m. in the Borah Room. Clark Hamilton, Democratic candidate for governor, will speak on October 19, there also.

Miss Thompson To Talk Friday

"The Crisis of the West" has been chosen by Dorothy Thompson, internationally known author, columnist and radio commentator, as the subject of her talk in the University of Idaho's Memorial Gymnasium at 11 a.m. Friday, October 15.

Called by John Gunther "the greatest living American reporter, male or female," Miss Thompson is the first of four major public events speakers to appear at the University this year.

Later in the school year Shakespearean actress Margaret Webster, explorer Paul E. Victor and photographer Margaret Bourke-White will give addresses at the University.

Miss Thompson has addressed the British House of Commons, the American Bar Association and the Annual Convention of the Governors of all states.

In each case she was the first woman, or the first woman not directly engaged in the legal profession or in politics; to be accorded that honor.

The schedule for the morning classes on Friday, October 15, will be as follows:

First period 8:00 to 8:35
Second period 8:45 to 9:20
Third period 9:30 to 10:05
Fourth period 10:15 to 10:50

Miss Thompson makes an annual journey to Europe and the Middle East, reporting her findings to her vast American audience. Winston Churchill once remarked that "her advocacy is worth a regiment of soldiers."

A distinguished political commentator, Miss Thompson's syndicated column, "On the Record," is distributed three times weekly to more than 160 newspapers. She holds seven honorary degrees from American universities including Dartmouth, which is a rare honor since it is exclusively a college for men.

She is the author of numerous books including "I Saw Hitler," "The New Russia," "Dorothy Thompson's Political Guide," "Refugees: Anarchy or Organization" and "Let the Record Speak."

Moonlight Song Fest Is Feature

Tonight, from 8:15 p.m. to 7 p.m. an all campus "Moonlight Sing" will be held at the newly constructed council fire pit behind the field house.

The "Sing," sponsored by the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and the Sigma Alpha Iota, music honoraries, was originated in 1946 when the first one was held.

A sing was held the next year and another was planned for 1948, but the weather forced it to be cancelled, and the idea dropped out of sight.

Norman Logan, professor of music, led the affair when they were held at the old site, on which stands the present Music Building. The popular music which is the plan for the evening, will be accompanied by Bill Exworthy on his accordion.

Students from living groups which are still serving dinner at 6:15 p.m. may come as soon as they are through, and still get in on most of the vocalizing.

First French Club Program Features Matz, Ex Prexy

The French Club will present its first program of the year this evening, announced President Edwin Gardner. It will be held in Conference Rooms A and B of the SUB at 7:30 p.m.

Featured speaker for the evening's entertainment will be Sue Matz. Mrs. Matz was the holder of a Fulbright Grant to France last year for studies in Contemporary French Literature.

Mrs. Matz will talk on University Life in France and will show her slides of Paris, the French Riviera and Poitiers, where she studied.

Dr. Warren J. Wolfe, head of the language department, and foreign scholarship program advisor will tell of opportunities for foreign study and travel under the Rhodes, Fulbright, Ford and Mexican Government Foundations.

Mrs. McThing Offers New Ideas In Stage Sets

The first ASUI production, "Mrs. McThing," to be put on October 29 and 30, will have something new to offer in an unusual set design and lighting arrangement; according to Edmund Chavez, dramatics instructor.

Larry Hyer is in charge of building the sets while Charles Lent is in charge of lighting.

The play offers two major problems; first, it calls for two completely different sets which have to be changed quickly between acts, and second, it needs a mood of fantasy and illusion, to be created through lighting effects.

These problems will be overcome by the out-of-the-ordinary set construction, Chavez said.

The first set, the home of a wealthy widow, is luxurious in its furnishings; two life-size portraits are being painted for this by Norma Rees, to add to the costly effect.

In the background there are 10 large columns which are being

DEAR JASON

Dear Jason: I'm sure most of us have heard, by now, of the terrific crowd support given our football team at Stockton Saturday night by a high school rooting section. These players came back differing on one point only—how much better than the Idaho cheering section this group was.

In the good old days (four or five years ago) student participation in everything was approximately 80 per cent according to the ASUI office. Now our students support ASUI activities in only about 60 per cent of total. This fact is proven by the over 500 ASUI cards which still lie in the office unclaimed.

In addition to the students non-appearance at the games, there is the non-participation factor, which amounts to the "art" of keeping the mouth shut during yells. As has been brought to light in anatomy class, it is somewhat hard to yell with one's mouth closed. Even with these facts it is still a mystery that a 600 student high school section, having no personal interest in the team, can out perform our college section.

Maybe the team isn't a world beater, but it still needs all the support our students can muster at its WSC game in Pullman October 23, the Dad's Day game here and the Brigham Young game in Boise, along with letting the team know that we still are backing them on their trips. Could we take a hint from a high school section that knows how to yell when their team is behind.

Dale Carlisle.

Dear Jason: For some reason this year's sport coverage on the intramural level has been one continuous erroneous scramble of inaccurate info to blame. I can only assume that fore direct this small note in his direction.

It seems to me that on a campus the size of the University of Idaho, a person whose job it is to cover our sports should have little difficulty in obtaining an accurate and complete coverage of our athletic events. Such has obviously not been carried out so far this year, and when it gets so bad that even a league champion is misplaced, as well as several other league standings, game scores, and small things such as last year's leaders and winners are completely fouled up, I believe it is time for some action to be taken on the part of the Arg Staff.

On behalf of myself and several others, I would like to offer the suggestion that who ever holds down the job of covering intramurals try to do a slight justice to their job, and exert the tremendous energy required to cross the prodigious expanse of our campus and check the game results which are turned in promptly after each contest to the Intramural Office.

Above mentioned reporter might also find out that there are interesting happenings in conjunction with the games. Some people might be interested in the outcome of the protests which are turned in on many of the games. Intramurals are participated in more than any other activity on campus, and should warrant an equivalent and competent coverage.

Jerry Dougherty, Willis Sweet Hall.

Dear Jason, "All the King's Men" probably won't be able to get even one half of interested University students into the 190-seat Borah theatre when that movie will be presented as an ASUI movie October 21.

Thursday's "Falsan" production crowded the Borah Theatre until students had to be turned away—and told to come back to the 9 p.m. showing, which could not be attended by coeds wishing to be in their living groups by closing hours.

Why, why, we ask can't students use the huge Ag Science Auditorium for the showing of these movies?

This auditorium has been used a few times in the past, but obtaining permission is quite difficult.

University students pay for the Student Union Building, and have the use of all its rooms.

The state of Idaho taxpayers paid for the Ag Science Building, and any citizen of the state has the right to use it. Agricultural groups, "educational groups" and home economics clubs use the student-paid-for SUB rooms, but even students can't use the Ag Science auditorium, except for occasional classes, without getting tangled up in that red ribbon.

Adequate ventilation, staggered seat rows and a regular projection booth in the large Ag Science Auditorium would seem to make this place very appropriate for the show of the ASUI movies.

But the film committee must show their films in the poorly ventilated Borah Theatre, with its buzz of the projector ringing above the words from the sound track.

Faculty members attend these crowded ASUI movies, also. All we need is some extra long scissors to cut the red tape, and perhaps in some not too distant (?) future, students will be allowed to enjoy movies which we believe are among the world's best.

We make this plea for the benefit of the students.

Who Can Solve The Lost Bag Mystery?

It's not often that students are as excited to get back to school as they were this year.

Seems as though somebody picked up an old, brown imitation leather suitcase, or it just disappeared, from the Union Pacific Depot during the mad rush to get back. The Union Pacific Depot is anxious to get hold of it, however, not quite as anxious as the owner, a University student.

The suitcase contains miscellaneous men's clothing, two pairs of work pants, one pair slacks, three dress shirts, socks, ties, etc. The missing suitcase has probably been laid away in somebody's closet, unclaimed. The Union Pacific Depot would be very happy if a close check were made around the living groups to find said suitcase. If you should find it notify the Union Pacific depot, Phone 2231.

Here's More About—Dormitory

Idaho in 1908 as dean of women, Miss French was the first woman to hold that title at the university. Her predecessor was known as "preceptress."

Not only coeds, but many men students came to seek her counsel. Gracious and kindly, she sent each student away feeling he had been helped. She was also noted for her remarkable memory, seldom forgetting the name of a student, past or present.

It was this attribute that made her a popular dinner guest at dormitories and fraternity and sorority houses. She dined at them all many times, and, on the second visit, could call most of the students by their names.

Miss French retired in 1936 with the title of Dean of Women Emeritus, but no one ever considered that she had left the university. Until failing health the last couple of years confined her to her Seattle home, she regularly visited the University at Homecoming and Commencement.

She was on call as a speaker at alumni banquets throughout the West Coast area. She could not walk into such a gathering without receiving a standing ovation. Alumni considered her a University legend long before her death.

Pledge Dances, Waffle Breakfast, Is Slated

The fall agenda is presenting a variety of social events for University students on all sides of the campus. Kappa Sigma pledges will present their annual Waffle Breakfast Sunday, with their pledge dance following, October 29.

Gamma Phi from Idaho held pledging exercises for 32 girls a week ago, as the national sorority began colonization at WSC.

Tri-Delta, Beta and Sigma Chi pledges have announced their pledge officers for the coming school year.

Two weeks of entertainment by the ATOs will be climaxed with the announcement of ATO Esquire girl, who will be chosen from the representative group of girls from all living groups on campus.

HAYS HALL

Congratulations to Linda Williams, tapped Tuesday night for Pre-Orchisis and Fran Duke, who was chosen by the Hays freshmen to represent them at the hall's executive meetings.

The exchange held with the Sigma Chi Wednesday night seemed to be quite profitable as well as enjoyable, for many of the girls returned with dates for the Sigma Chi Barn Dance.

Surprise dinner guests Tuesday night was Keith Jergenson. Keith, it's a good thing everyone doesn't eat as much as you... our cooks would be looking for new jobs!

Belated thanks to the Singing Sigs for their serenade... also to the Idaho Club for their more recent one.

CAMPUS CLUB

Elected to Independent Caucus were Hap Ferree, Jim Rock and Peter Van Houten.

Recent dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Moisey, Irene Bratton, Beth Spaulding and Phyllis Hall.

The football game with the Alpha Chis ended in a 2 to 0 defeat for the Campus Flubbers. Good game, girls... only next time, have your referee use a whistle.

KAPPA SIGMA

The annual Pledge Waffle Breakfast, sponsored for all sorority pledges, is planned for this Sunday morning, under the chairmanship of Chuck Fries.

Also on the chapter social agenda is the pledge dance, to be held October 29, with the chapter at WSC as co-hosts. The dance, to be held at the Legion Hall in Moscow, is expected by the house to be one of the "great" Kappa Sigma functions.

Ike Blackburn will head the pledges this semester as president of the pledge class. Other officers will be Jack Wilson, vice-president; Ken Green, sergeant-at-arms; Gary Murphy, secretary-treasurer; and Kay Vinson, song leader.

The annual House Party, planned for December 4, will feature music by Eddy Alvoerti's band, now led by Len Johnson. John Tall is chairman of the 12 hour function.

Jerry Marshall has been appointed chairman for Dad's Day activities in the house.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Doris Jerome was elected president of the pledge class recently, with Coleen Watson helping her as vice-president. Other officers are Carol Solum, secretary; Sue Brabb, treasurer; Margaret Sullivan, social chairman; Arleen Zaring, historian; and Jean Boyd, song leader.

Formal initiation was held for Billie Hanchey Tuesday and Thursday. Sharon Cromwell and Waverly as a dinner guest Tuesday evening.

Show time in the Beta house was Friday night before the Nickel Hop when the Delta Gamma warbler sang a few numbers. You were great Gus... come again.

Pledge officers elected were Gary Westergren, president; David Maxey, vice-president; Joe Aldana, secretary; Jack Little, treasurer; Kenneth Arnold, a social chairman; Don Mendola, sergeant-at-arms; and Mike Patton, song leader.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Last Sunday afternoon, the Gamma Phis began a colonization of a Gamma Phi Beta chapter at WSC by pledging 32 girls. Officers that attended the ceremony were Miss Mary Jane Hipp, National Secretary, Mrs. Heslock, Assistant Expansion Director and Mrs. Carl Koppe, Province Director. Mrs. Koppe has been our guest for the week.

Wednesday night guests were Nancy Sisty, Dorey Newman, SAE, and Ray Miller, Delta Sig. SIGMA CHI

A very successful open house was held during Homecoming with 125 guests for the buffet dinner. Entertainment was provided by the "Singing Sigs."

The first stocking was held Thursday noon. Molasses and feathers covered Stan Neely, who is now pinned to Phyllis Castator, Alpha Phi.

The pledge class officers for the following year were recently chosen. Wade Patterson was elected pledge king; Dave Esser, secretary-treasurer; and Dale Brandt, song leader.

Judy Garwood, Seattle, was a house guest of Julie Whitney for several days.

Formal pledging was held Thursday night for the eighteen pledges who now wear the white shield of Delta Gamma.

Praises to the house for collecting the most nickels at the Friday night Nickel Hop.

Delta Tau Delta and Delta Gamma pledges pitched in to clean both chapter houses at a joint work party Saturday. After the clean-up, dinner was served at the Delt house.

Dinner guests Sunday were Diane Billings, Nancy Lee, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Spalding and Joanie, Boise; and Cole Sherwood.

Thanks go to Cole Sherwood, Ron Martini and Clyde Rawley for their help on the Homecoming float.

BETA THETA PI

After two weeks of intramural football, the Beta team stands with four wins and one loss. Monday, October 4, the Betas defeated the Deltas, 8 to 0. Tuesday saw the Tekes bow to the team by losing on penetrations. Wednesday, the Phi Deltas defeated the boys, 7 to 0.

Alpha Phi serenaders invaded the Beta lawn Wednesday evening to entertain the house with harmony. Many thanks, girls! Gerry Stubbs was entertained

Home Ec. Club To Hold 1st Meeting

The Home Ec Club will meet today at 4 p.m. in the lounge of the Home Economics Building, to begin the year's meetings.

The first meeting is to welcome all new home economics students. Faculty members will be introduced to the students at this meeting, and a general get-acquainted session will be held.

The Home Ec Club will meet once a month the remainder of the year. All home economics majors are urged to attend.

Date For Ag Ball Was Main Topic At Ag Club Meeting

The Ag Club Ball, to be held Friday, October 29, was a main topic of discussion at the Ag Club meeting held Thursday.

Another meeting was set for the near future to discuss the ball, which is an annual affair. There was some discussion about letting the FFA hold a barbeque before the dance.

Ag Club President Jim Corbett introduced the officers of the Ag Club, Dean D. A. Marshall of the College of Agriculture introduced the acting University President, D. R. Theophilus. Also presented to the students were members of the College of Agriculture faculty.

A movie on last year's Little International was shown at the meeting.

Matz and Irene West, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Jolene Williams and Jane Soeur, Pi Beta Phi.

Bill Erwin announced his pinning to Marilyn Irvine of Kellogg at the chapter house on Wednesday.

The Army has run the ATO house the past week since Bob Dawson, Bob Cowen and Roy Alcock have returned home on leave.

STEEL HOUSE

Most Steel House girls assumed new duties Monday in either the kitchen or the janitor department. Midge Robinson and Janice Crisp, directors, have been working overtime to get the various shifts going.

Greta Eldred, Bernice Ransom, Wilma Packard, and Carol Montague all had birthdays during the past week.

Exchanges with Lindley and the Phi Deltas are on the social agenda. Plans for a tea honoring Mrs. Skatlabol, housemother, are progressing. Nadine Stanley, chairman of the formal dance committee, said the annual formal dance has been scheduled for the early part of December.

Barbara Simons and Janet Daigh, Alpha Chi Omega; Arlene Wood and Rita Lee McCracken, Alpha Phi; Bev Carlson and Jean Boyd, Tri-Delt; Vivian Vagaan and Pat Parsons, Delta Gamma; Janene Taylor and Shirley Byrne, Gamma Phi Beta; Ann Pool and Barbara Joseph, Kappa Alpha Theta; Joan

"Nickel Hop" Earns Profit

Delta Gamma drew the most nickels from campus men at the Spur "Nickel Hop" Friday night. Alpha Phi and Alpha Chi Omega ran a few cents behind with second and third places, respectively in the house competition.

Total receipts were $287.50, indicating much more participation than in last year's "Hop" which netted $204.00.

The Delta Gamma's won the contest with $31.50 over Alpha Phi's $30.80. Alpha Chi followed with a close $30.25 for third place. Pi Beta Phi was fourth with $27 and Kappa Kappa Gamma totaled $25.15. The remainder were as follows: Kappa Alpha Theta, $25; Hays Hall, $22.45; Forney Hall, $20.70; Gamma Phi, $20.50 Delta Delta Delta, $17; and Steel House, $16.05.

Engineers Have Saturday Picnic

Touch football and an after-eats song fest were the features of the Mechanical Engineers' fall picnic Saturday afternoon at the University picnic grounds behind the field house.

Thirteen student couples attended the affair, according to ASME president Roy Merrill.

Special guests were members of the mechanical engineering staff and their families, including Prof. and Mrs. C. D. King, Prof. and Mrs. H. W. Silha, Prof. and Mrs. H. F. Gauss and Prof. J. T. Nordgard.

Whitman Smith was in charge of refreshments with Jim Richardson and Pete Woelfel in charge of general picnic arrangements.

642 Students Use University Course

Since September 18, 642 golfers have taken advantage of the nine-hole golf course offered the University students. This is an average of about 36.5 per day.

On September 19 the largest turnout of the year was recorded with 91 using the course.

According to golf pro Dick Snyder it is much cheaper to buy a semester ticket for the course, than to pay regular green fees. A semester ticket permits a golfer to play as often as he likes all semester for only $4.00, while green fees are $1.00 on Saturday and Sundays, and $.75 on weekdays.

145 have purchased semester tickets.

If you drive for the sheer zest of it you owe yourself this hour!

If your hands rejoice in the precise balance of a fine gun or the sweet response of a racing sloop... then you owe yourself an hour with the Chevrolet Corvette.

You'll find it is, quite literally, like no other car in the world—a heart-lifting blend of the true sports car with all that is best in American engineering.

There is the velvet smoothness of a Powerglide automatic transmission (but with the classic floor selector-lever).

The trouble-free durability of a Chevrolet "Blue-Flame" engine (but with three side draft carburetors to unleash its flashing 150 horsepower).

The ruggedness of an X-braced box girder frame (but with the astonishing impact resistance of a glass-fiber-and-plastic body).

Luxurious seating for driver and passenger in deep foam rubber (but cradled in the traditional security of bucket seats).

Generous luggage room, the panoramic sweep of a deeply curved windshield, the flair of tomorrow's styling (but within the polo-pony compactness of a real road car).

The Corvette blends all this and more. For it is a driver's car... a low-slung torpedo with a center of gravity only 18 inches above the concrete... with outrigger rear springs that make it hold to the road like a stripe of paint... with a 16 to 1 steering ratio that puts needle-threading accuracy at your finger tips.

Frankly, the Corvette is a "limited edition," made only in small numbers. It is intended only for the man or woman to whom driving is not just transportation but an exhilarating adventure, a sparkling challenge to skill and judgment. If you are one of these, then you owe yourself an hour with a Chevrolet Corvette.

Call us now and let us set up a demonstration run... for in a short 60 minutes you can discover that motoring has a whole new dimension of delight.

Stahley Commends Hard Hitting Team

"It is the first sign of encouragement that I have felt this season," Coach Skip Stahley said yesterday in referring to Idaho's recent football tussle at College of Pacific.

"We hit harder as a unit Stahley commented, "and we were a little more alert and were tackling harder."

The Vandals will this week correct mistakes that cropped up in the COP game, Stahley indicated, stressing pass protection for the passer.

Last night the team worked out in cold, windy weather loosening up and working on general offense and defense work. The team was at full strength after the game except for two men shaken up slightly—halfback Ray Bittner and signal caller George Eidam.

Vandals Praised

Ralph Kendley, junior college transfer of Santa Clara, Calif., received the head coach's praises for his hard running. Kendley carried five times for a 10-yard-pertry-average.

Idaho pounced on two of its own three fumbles, Stahley said and retrieved two of the opponents four bobbles. In its previous two games Idaho lost a total of 13 fumbles.

The coaching staff agreed that COP possibly had the fastest team Idaho has met. One coach said their backs outplayed the Vandal secondary easily. The Tiger line gave quarterback George Eidam little time to get his passes away.

Idaho's ends were slowed up as they went out for passes also, said one coach, and when they got in the clear were in good defensive hands.

"I'm proud of the team for their fine spirit. They came back in the second half and wouldn't be licked. They didn't give out but kept plodding along right down to the wire," Stahley commented.

The head coach also inferred that if COP hadn't intercepted a couple passes, slowed an Idaho offensive at the key point and hadn't booted a lucky kick roll in the game to the Idaho foot line, the score might have been turned a little.

Betas-Phi Delts Tied; SN-KS In Crucial Tilt

Monday Scores
Sigma Nu 21, Delta Chi 6
Tau Kappa E 32, DSP 0
Phi Delt on penetrations over Delta Tau

ATO won by forfeit
Kappa Sig won by forfeit
BTP won by forfeit

Intramural action in the Fraternity Division football leagues has hit a rapid pace as a result of games played yesterday.

Beta Theta Pi and Phi Delta Theta are knotted up with five wins and one loss apiece in League 1 at the end of the regular playing slate. Sigma Nu and Kappa Sigma are undefeated in League two and will play in the division's crucial game today.

Winners in the Independent Division were decided last week with Chrisman Hall 1 copping league four honors and Willis Sweet league three.

The Betas won by forfeit over the SAE's yesterday afternoon and Phi Delt's edged Delta Taus on one penetration in a hard fought defensive battle.

All of yesterday's games were played in severe cold with high winds hampering desirable play.

Kappa Sigma had previously lost to Delta Chi but the Intramural manager's board upheld a protest issued by the K Sigs and called for the game to be replayed on Wednesday. Two other protested games will be played today.

A 20 yard pass play with two minutes left in the game gave Phi Delta Theta a slim win by penetration over Delta Tau Delta.

The game was completely dominated by fine defensive play and came to a climax as Dave Cripe took the ball from center with just two minutes left on the clock and threw to Jim Howard on the ten yard line. Giving the Phi Delt's the only penetration of the game and the right to meet Beta Theta Pi for the championship. The Phi's tried four plays attempting to score.

Today's game between the Sig

Nus and K Sigs will feature primarily the tough Sig Nu offense based around the passing arm of steady Jim Rees and the hard charging defensive unit of K Sig. A Sig Nu win would clinch for them the League two title. K Sig must beat Sig Nu and then Delta Chi to earn a tie.

The K Sigs will pass a lot too, according to Capt. Pete DeLong. DeLong will base his attack around quarterback Wally Brown and halfback Roger Stoker, the club's two passers.

The K Sig defensive line will include Jim Lind, Jack Gardner, Marty Rust, Frayne McAthe and Jim Brya. Larry Looney and Spider Cranston are the linebackers and Bill Shaw and Bone Herringfield will play safety positions.

For Sigma Nu, Coach Dave Powell said his team would base an attack in the air from Rees to tall Bob Wheeler, end standing 6-7.

In the line will be Wheeler, Jim Hanzel, Dick Symms, Dave Anderson and Gary Barton, in the backfield will be Rees at quarter, Kent Church and elusive Dean Bent at halfbacks and Rich "The Tub" Maggard, at fullback.

Phi Delt and TKE will play a rematch today at field four, west of the Ad lawn. The TKE's asked the game be forfeited to them in view of the pact the PDT's played a man who had received a varsity letter as a freshman at a nearby private school. The managers decided to have the game replayed banning the said player.

Should Phi Delt lose the contest, Betas would have a clearer shot at the title, Willis Sweet 1 and Campus Club 1 will play a protested game today at field two. CCI had protested the game when at one time in the game the referee blew his whistle calling offside and in so doing the CCI players stopped playing.

Run For TD

In the meantime the Willis team ran for a score and won the game 6-0. The game will have no effect on standings but the winner will

INTRAMURAL CORRECTION

The winner of the Independent Division League 4 touch football championship was incorrectly reported to and in the Argonaut last Friday. The intramural winner was Chrisman Hall 1, who wound up the season with Lindley Hall 1 placing second.

Also standings in the League 1 of the Fraternity Division were incorrect. Beta Theta Pi, Phi Delta Theta and Delta Tau Delta were tied after Friday's action with four wins and a single loss.

Three Favorites Take Early Round ASUI Golf Leads

Bob Campbell, Dick Sheppard and Tom Miller won second round matches in the semi-finals of the championship flight of the ASUI golf tournament.

Sheppard edged out Lefty Melton 1 up on the 20th hole with a neat chip in shot. In other matches Campbell stopped Benjamin Miller beat Elnsey and Adamson and Steele have not played their match to date.

The annual tourney is a sponsored event of the ASUI and the winner is awarded the Francis L. James memorial trophy.

take over third spot in the League in the KS-DC case the official clock had gone out of order and the final quarter of play was played under protest by the K Sigs as they asked the official to have the clock repaired or a new one obtained. The Delta Chis scored the winning (13-12) score in the late stages of the game and the K Sigs said the time had run out.

The board upheld their protest as there was no official second hand to determine this correctly. The game will be played on field one and is the only slated game for that day.

Tigers Slow Idaho Pass Game 13-0

STOCKTON—The Idaho Vandals found it rough going Saturday night when they faced the winless College of Pacific Tigers and fell 13-0 before 9,500 fans. The Vandals' passing attack completely bogged down after a successful performance a week earlier.

The COP club took advantage of two big breaks and score in each of the first two quarters. Both scores came after interception of Idaho passes.

The hard hitting Vandals help COP scoreless in the second half but could not start a scoring threat of their own. Quarterback George Eidam, second in the PCC for Idaho last week, connected for only four passes and had four of 16 attempts intercepted.

The COP rushing lines gave Eidam little time to connect.

Both Tiger scores came within six minutes of each other in the first two periods. Halfback Ken Swearingen went 18 yards around end for the first score, which climaxed a 35-yard drive in seven plays. The conversion attempt was no good.

Halfback Don Cornell powered over guard from the one to climax a 49-yard drive in 12 plays for the second COP score.

The win was COP's first in four tries.

Sophomore tackle Dick Foster of New Meadows has started the last three Idaho football games and has been counted on to hold up the middle of the Vandal right line.

Archers To Meet; Target Field Range Near Completion

The Moscow Field Archers will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the American Legion cabin at 317 south Howard.

This group was organized during the past summer for archers interested in hunting and roving.

They have nearly completed a 14 target field course in a wooded area five miles north of town. An indoor range may be set up in the near future.

"This would provide an excellent opportunity for the beginner to learn the sport before trying his skill on an outdoor range and also keep the experienced archers in trim during the winter months," said Merrill Conitz, a member.

Several members of the local club took part in the special archery hunt which opened last Saturday in the Deary-Bovill area.

Tomorrow night they will all have a chance to explain why they didn't bring home an elk or deer.

Forty-Six Frosh Report For Opening Workouts

TAKE FIVE
WITH JOHN B. HUGHES

Some songwriter once penned a tune called, "Look for the Silver Lining" and that's what the boosters, both alums and students, of the Idaho football team ought to be singing this season.

Even the most loyal Vandal booster would have a hard time finding something to keep his football morale above zero were it not for the fact that Idaho is at the start of a building program under Coach Skip Stahley.

When a school has been in the doldrums football-wise, the results of the program can't be seen overnight. Evidences of improvement may appear towards the latter part of the season. A new coach doesn't mean a winning season. The coach is as good as the material.

And material is what Idaho lacks this season. With a squad numbering below 40, the coaching staff at Idaho can't be expected to tear the opposition into little pieces.

Ah yes, but here comes that silver lining—the freshmen.

Reports from the Vandal staff are enthusiastic about the frosh team. Earlier this year Frank Young, the assistant athletic director, was quoted as saying Idaho "picked up the cream of the state's high school crop."

The frosh line is supposed to average 210 pounds with several candidates going over 225 pounds. This is more proof of the building program, the results of which will be seen on varsity squads in the next few years.

Intramural Department — It seems that our little mishaps in reporting intramurals stems from three points. The key point is not at the Argonaut office. Games are reported by officials to the director's office, but are not always marked down on the standing sheet, thus the unavoidable mistake last week.

Our deep, humble apologies to Chrisman Hall 1, who has won the League four championship.

Forty-six Idaho frosh reported for opening drills yesterday amidst the wind and cold of Neale Stadium to begin a five-week football grind.

The squad worked out under the guidance of Clem Parberry, King Block and Flip Kleffner with special instruction from the head coaching staff.

Lineman specialized in stance procedures while backs worked through fundamentals of ball carrying, defense patterns and play making.

Coach Parberry said the club would not have much contact until at least the end of the week.

The Vandal Babes open the 1954 campaign here Oct. 30 against the University of Washington.

Expect More

Parberry expects a few more stragglers to report today or tomorrow. Equipment was issued yesterday and drills began at 4:00 last for over an hour.

The squad also received books of basic plays the Vandal varsity uses and will learn the plays direct from the mimeograph sheets.

Equipment manager Tom Falash said yesterday that about 55 were reported to have been set to draw equipment but only 46 showed up.

NOTICE

Intramural Director Larry Golding asked all managers and team members of touch football teams to check the bulletin board outside of room 201 each day this and next week to see when their team will play in the playoffs. The schedule will be posted day by day, Golding said.

Also last year the Independent teams were numbered so-and-so 1 and so-and-so 2, while this year the teams are so-and-so and so-and-so 1, which confuses some of the team members and followers.

Willis Sweet and Chrisman Hall 1 will fight it out for the right to the playoff finals.

And, as Director Larry Golding pointed out yesterday, football is the hardest to keep tab of, since there are many protests and reporting failures that cause much confusion during that season.

Hockey Practice

Wednesday, Oct. 13 at 4:00, open field hockey practice will be held in the field across from the Memorial Gym. Thursday at 4:00, games will be held between the freshmen and juniors and between the sophomores and seniors.

The I Club will hold a tea in the I Club room in the basement of the Women's Gym on Thursday, Oct. 14. The tea will be from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and everyone in any of the P.E. classes is invited.

Hodges To Handle Distance Harriers

Harlan Hodges has been named temporary cross-country coach this fall, replacing Stan Hiserman, who resigned his track coaching position at Idaho to accept a similar position at the University of Washington.

Athletic Director Bob Gibb said Hodges would handle the cross country team in addition to the basketball club. Cross-country work outs will be for conditioning purposes for basketball players and track men. Two meets are planned with Washington State college for late October or early November.

Lou Gourley will head this year's squad.

DAVIDS'

JACK WEBB AND BEN ALEXANDER

You know them best as Sgt. Joe Friday and Officer Frank Smith—stars of Chesterfield's award-winning "Dragnet" on TV and Radio. They're now starred in the movies, too, in Warner Bros.' great new picture, "Dragnet."

WHAT A PAIR!

WHAT A BUY! Chesterfield regular and king-size. (Both at the same price in most places).

Jack Webb and Ben Alexander want what you want from a cigarette. Relaxation, comfort, satisfaction. They know where to find it—because in the whole wide world, no cigarette satisfies like a Chesterfield.

Chesterfields are best to smoke because they alone have the right combination of the world's best tobaccos. Chesterfields are best for you because they're highest in quality, low in nicotine.
