Debates Start This Saturday

Men's intramural debate will begin Saturday morning at 9 a.m. in the conference room of the SUB, according to Roger McPike, chairman.

"We protest." This is becoming a popular statement in the intramural circles today. In the Independent League Willis Sweet and Christian played a league championship game. Christian won. But Sweet lodged a protest because Christian had imported a player. Sweet's protest went through, giving them the Independent intramural football championship and a chance to fight it out with Sigma Nu, Greek champs.

Sweet played Sigma Nu and came out on top with a score of 18 to 6.

Now the noble vine relates that Sigma Nu has protested because (they say) Willis Sweet had an imported player.

We did some leg work and found out that the much discussed team member was a social member of Sweet but did not live there.

How the whole race will end we won't attempt to say—but we will add one suggestion.

A closer check should be made of each team before they start fighting it out for championships. This check should be followed up at each contest before the game is played.

Then, possibly, intramural football competition will be back on the gridiron and off the protest list.

We guess that you've already heard about the coming Blood Drive with its "slave for a day" and slogans.

Here's a winning slogan for the contest we picked up in military class the other day:

"You might get to Indo-China before your blood does!"

Speaking of the military and of blood we hope all flipped lids are again in place over military challenges. If anybody is interested we'll try and find out the donor percentages of each of the three ROTC branches here, if they let us see them.

Student Evaluates Robt. Shaw Program

By HERB PENDERGAST

The Moscow-Pullman Community Concert Series for 1954-55 began last Tuesday night when a near capacity audience huddled into the Memorial Gym to hear the Robert Shaw Chorale. Despite the hard seats, few people in that audience left before the end of the last encore.

The Shaw Chorale was not a mammoth chorus but a small, highly-trained group of singers with an accompanying chamber orchestra. Though few in number, the singers under Shaw's direction showed that flexibility and precision for which are justly famous. A group of enormous virtuosity, they sang with a command of musical dynamics, a subtlety of tonal coloring, a mastery of choral articulation that will long be remembered by those who heard the concert.

Robert Shaw's interpretative mastery of every conceivable type of choral composition from Bach's "B Minor Mass" to "Home Sweet Home" was well-illustrated by the diverse program of this concert. He conducted the varied works with a versatile control that provided equal—but purposely no more than equal—to the musical demands of each.

The first half of the concert was devoted to works of some of the earliest, greatest composers of choral music and culminated with the beautiful "Three Psalms" of Mozart and the Motet "Jesus, Dearest Master" of Bach. It was this last piece which demanded the most intense concentration by conductor, chorus and audience. "Never forget," Shaw said later in

The eight teams presently entered will debate the question, "Resolved; that the United States should extend diplomatic recognition to the Communist Government of China."

Due to the football game, the debate will begin at 9 a.m. Two rounds, with four debates per round, are scheduled with the remaining rounds to be run off Saturday, October 30, preceding the women's intramural debate.

Judges for the debate will be members of Delta Sigma Rho, national debate honorary.

McPike urged that all men's living groups not now entered in intramural debate who wish to do so, to contact him at the Delta Tau Delta House or Dr. A. E. Whitehead, before tonight.

Women's intramural debate will be held Saturday, October 30, followed the next Saturday by an inter-collegiate intramural debate with Washington State College.

Awards To Be Given

Scholastic winners will be announced at the annual awards assembly Tuesday at 11 a.m. Glen Lockery will lead the Vandalers in their first appearance of the school year.

Classes will be shortened as follows:

First Period—8:00-8:45 a.m.
Second Period—8:45-9:20 a.m.
Third Period—9:30-10:05 a.m.
Fourth Period—10:15-10:50 a.m.

Living groups having the highest grade-point average will be announced, and winners of individual scholarships will be in the program.

FIFE IS IMPROVING

Ray Fife, who was burned in a fire at the ATO house Saturday morning, is reported improving at the Gritman Memorial Hospital. The doctors report that the extent of his burns will not be known until the bandages are removed Saturday.

Part Of The UN Week Planners

Left—Tom Hopkins, Cosmopolitan club advisor, rips out with a smile along with Miss Ramalingam Kanthimathi, teacher from India, and Olaf Stavik, Cosmopolitan club president. Right—Chankaur Singh Brar, Jagat Singh, and Bhupindar Singh Dhillon round out the UN week committee.

Exec Board Postpones Elections

Top on the list of Executive Board action this week was the postponement of class elections from November 3 to the 8. The motion was made at the Tuesday Board meeting by Reid Lau.

Besides class election dates, the Board heard reports on the coming blood drive, the ATO fire and the Athletic Board of Control.

Plans on the Blood Drive were presented by Dennis Thompson, drive co-chairman, who stated that this year's drive goal is 2000 pints. He also reported that the slogan contest prize will be awarded at a dance to be held Monday, October 25, from 7 to 9 p.m. Freshman women will have 9 p.m. permission, said Thompson.

The report on the ATO fire stated that Raymond Fifer, the burn victim, had no personal insurance. It estimated his hospital bills to be around $2000. Jack Parker, board representative to the Athletic Board of Control, reported that the Idaho Basketball team will travel to Southern Idaho during next year's schedule. He added that a three game series will be added with games played in Boise, Twin Falls and Idaho Falls.

Chucklers To Furnish Music

Music for the Ag Bawl on October 29, is going to be furnished by Chuck's Chucklers western band from WSC. The group is headed by Chuck Snyder.

Carol Boyd will sing and yodel. She has appeared with Jimmy Wakely in several personal appearances around the country.

Perhaps the oddest man in the group is "Dude" Harrison. Besides playing bass fiddle in the band, Harrison is a full-time English professor. Other members of the band are Dick Heil, and Jim Calvert.

The dance will last from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight. Immediately preceding the dance is a barbecue. Tickets are $3 for the dance and barbecue, $1.50 for the dance or barbecue. Individual tickets are available at 90 cents each.

The dance, which will be held in the SUB, will have all the flavor of an old-time barn dance. Chan Atchley, decorations chairman, said "that we are going to make this one of the biggest and best dances of the year."

Jim Corbett, president, stated that "everybody is invited to attend. Wear the most comfortable clothes you've got—Levis, slacks, skirts, sweaters. This is the most informal dance there is."

SCHOLARSHIPS GIVEN

Two more Business College scholarships of $100 each have been awarded. They were awarded to John Gillis, junior of Priest River and Frances Duke, freshman of Toppish, Wash. The scholarships were given by Davis Brothers.

Indians Plan UN Observance

United Nations Week will be observed this weekend on the University of Idaho campus with movies, talks and exhibits presented by the Indian students on campus and by Mrs. Ramalingam Kanthimathi, an Indian visitor to the United States from Madras State.

A talk and discussion period with Mrs. Kanthimathi, a history instructor at Clarkston grade and high schools, will be held in the Student Union Building conference rooms A and B tonight at 8 p.m.

A film on India will be shown Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Borah theatre at the SUB. Mrs. Kanthimathi will display paintings and other exhibits of her native land in International House, 807 Deakin Ave., Saturday afternoon.

A traveler of all the Western European nations but Spain; of the British Isles and now of America, Mrs. Kanthimathi will discuss methods of education in India in her talk tonight.

This will be her first trip away from Lewiston and Clarkston since her arrival there August 28, to begin her teaching career. The petite Indian woman said "I like teaching here," in an interview Wednesday.

Broadway Production Hit Presented By University

The University production, "Mrs. McThing," written by Mary Chase, author of "Harvey," is rehearsing for presentation, October 29 and 30 in the University Auditorium.

"Mrs. McThing" opened on Broadway February 20, 1952, starring Helen Hayes and Brandon de Wilde. The play had an exceedingly long run and it was not until this year that it was released for amateur production.

Mary Chase began her work on the play with one aim, that of writing a full-length play for the professional theatre which would hold the attention of children between the ages of 7 and 14. Nobody anticipated the chance that adults—including drama critics—might find charm in this play.

"Mrs. McThing" is a comical fantasy which is half romantic, half hard-boiled, as seen through the eyes of a child. The story follows a make-believe pattern. The rich Mrs. Larue lives at Larue Towers with her son, Howay, and numerous and gardeners.

Students Urged To Vote In November Elections

"We want to encourage everyone to vote," urged Melvin Alsager, Latah County Prosecuting Attorney. Students who are of age must register to vote in the November elections before 9 p.m. October 30.

There has been some confusion in past elections about whether students may register to vote in Latah county. Students living on campus in the area south of 6th street and east of Main may register with Mrs. O. B. Richardson, 609 Deakin.

Alsager explained that on-campus students may vote in one of two ways: by registration in Latah

Scales, Trills Aid In Feud During Show

Madame Goldentrill and Miss Silverpearl will battle it out to the finish, using words, notes and sung scales and trills as ammunition. Where? When?

In the Recital Hall of the Music Building on November 4, 5 and 6 in the Opera Workshop production of Mozart's "The Impresario."

The two prima donnas, Mari-gay Nelson and Margaret Fox, have many musical arguments over which is the greater singer, which shall get top billing in the opera season, and which shall get the larger salary.

The music department-ASUI chamber opera will be preceded by the bright, gay curtain-raiser, "Sunday Excursion," written by Alec Wilder. Performances start at 8 p.m. and are directed by S. Keith Forney, of the music department, and Edmund M. Chavez, of the dramatics department.

The "Sunday Excursion" into New York City starts out to be a dull affair and most disappointing to the two young couples taking it; but all ends well as they get better acquainted and the very nature of boy meets girl takes its course.

ASI tickets will admit students to the dress rehearsal only on Thursday, November 4, while the general public and students will be admitted to the performances on November 5 and 6.

Big Vandal Rally Tonight

In tonight's football rally Idaho burns the Cougar!

Dale Carlisle, head hollerer of the cheerleaders, announces that the rally will begin at 6:30 p.m. at Willis Sweet Hall, tour the campus and will terminate back of the SAE house where the burning of the cougar will take place and the rally will be held.

"WE NEED POSTERS," said Carlisle, while telling about the rally. The posters should depict something about Idaho firmly trouncing the Cougars. "If everybody would turn out for this rally, I'm sure we could show the team we are behind them," he further stated.

The rally will follow the route of the previous one, passing all of the living groups possible where the students can fall in with the parade.

Due to yesterday's adverse weather conditions, the stadium rally was unsuccessful, according to Carlisle. However, he said, today's rally will "come off," rain or shine.

SPEEDING CHECKED

Moscow city patrolmen have started a crack-down campaign against speeders in the West Sixth Village, according to Bob Sequist, resident manager. "The speed limit through the area is posted at 10 miles per hour," Sequist reminds motorists. Speeds in excess of the limit endanger lives of children who also must use the village streets, he said.

Please Read! Heed! Bleed!

"Don't be a drip, give a drop!" "A painless donation to the Nation."

Two similar slogans for the 1954 Vandal Blood Drive will be chosen tonight from over 800 entries. Students may enter slogans until 5 p.m. For the prizes, some male will have Homecoming Queen Clara Armstrong as his slave for a day. And to equal matters, some female will have Flip Kieffner, ASUI president, as her slave.

The slogan winners will be announced at the Kickoff dance Monday in the SUB. Special permission has been granted freshman women for the dance which will be from 7-9 p.m. Bob Burton's orchestra will provide the music.

Blood releases were made available to each student this week through the house blood drive representatives. "Get those releases signed," urges Dale Carlisle, publicity chairman. For those under 21 years of age, the release must be signed by the parents.

Committees for the drive include Dale Carlisle, Pat Gustafson, Jane Querna, Virginia Ward and Jerry Chandler, publicity; Jim Russell, Sue McMann, Ted Kuga, facilities; Janet Biker, entertainment; Dick Thornock and Bob Scrieber, military.

In past years Idaho students have won national recognition with the success of their blood drives. Quota for this year's campaign is 2,000 pints or 80 per cent of those eligible.

Students Appointed
Thirty-one students have been appointed to serve as living groups representatives for the blood drive which will run October 26-29.

Distributing blood releases to campus groups has been their job for the past week. Many of the representatives have volunteered to work in various capacities during the four-day drive in the SUB ballrooms.

Representatives will meet Tuesday, November 2, at 4:45 in conference room A of the Student Union Building. Any representative unable to attend the meeting should contact Dennis Thompson at 2-5031.

Representatives include Lexy Gill, Pat Stewart, Alice Rae De-Shazer, Joanne Brown, Gretchen Holmes, Billie Haney, Carrie Chartrand, Lou Ann Olson, Mike Black, Dick Erhardt, Dick Weeks and Pete DeLong.

Judges Plan Criteria For Arg Contest

Judges in the Argonaut short story contest met Monday to plan a judging criteria for the contest started October 15.

Judging will be left to the discretion of the six judges, but they will evaluate manuscripts on plot effectiveness, concrete point of view, action and conflict, selection of characterization, reader interest and followthrough, originality of plot and climax and neatness and grammar.

Final date for the contest is November 15; manuscripts must be typewritten on one side of the paper only, and must be under 1200 words. Manuscripts may be turned into the Argonaut office or ASUI office.

They must be in sealed envelopes, and marked "short story contest" on the outside of the envelope, it was announced by the contest chairman, Ruth Brede.

Manuscripts must be original, unpublished works of fiction, according to the contest rules. Neither the Argonaut nor the ASUI will be responsible for lost manuscripts.

Faculty judges for the contest are Milton Volt, English instructor, William Banks, instructor in English and Creative writing and Maurice Unger, fiction and feature writer. Student judges are Darlene Duffy, Gem editor, Larry Hyer, president of Curtain Club and Fred Williams, Argonaut editor.

The authors of the manuscripts will be unknown to the judges and the manuscripts will be returned at the end of the contest, said the contest chairman.

Dr. Weltzin Discusses Norwegian Education

"Norway has many of the same problems we have here in Idaho," Dr. J. F. Weltzin, dean of the College of Education here, said upon his return following a two-month study tour in Europe.

An authority on educational law, Weltzin spent part of his sabbatical leave conferring with Norwegian educational leaders and assembling data on that nation's school laws.

Pointing out similar educational problems of the two nations, Weltzin said that "a large increase in child population has resulted in a shortage of school buildings and elementary teachers in Norway."

He added that there is currently a "national" debate in that country regarding the merits of a newly-passed law requiring equality of salaries for rural and urban school teachers. Prior to passage of the law, city schools generally paid bonuses in order to fill their teaching staffs.

The dean said that there is now a great deal of school construction in Norway to meet the building shortage. He added that economic conditions are generally quite good in all the Scandinavian countries.

Individual Rights On Trial

Political and civil rights of the individual have never been on trial before as they are today in the face of increased trends toward the doctrines of mass 'ism, warns the historian, West.

By use of the implied powers in the Constitution, the government is gradually whittling away the personal liberties granted in the Bill of Rights. Atlantic Monthly, some years ago, showed that there is a decided trend by recent appointees to the Supreme Court to favor the government of the mass idea and to trample the civil rights of the individual citizen.

It is impossible to ignore the fact that all our advertising appeal is being directed to the masses rather than the individual. And opponents to individualism cry loudly that "rugged individualism" of the early nineteenth century nearly destroyed our way of life.

Yet, Americans tend to take our freedoms for granted. Until those individual freedoms are lost from the sight of twentieth century men, they will not complain. "Freedom and Americanism are synonymous," said the late James Farley, "freedom is the very breath of America, its very life. It is the underlying force, the inner power, the spirit which is singular to our nation."

Student Urged To Register

Latah county recorder's office in the court house and send them to the precinct or county seat where they are registered.

Ballots Will Be Mailed

Ballots will be mailed to the student, which must be filled out and must arrive in the home precinct by November 1.

Alasger estimated that absentee ballots mailed from the campus by Friday, October 29 will arrive in time to be counted.

Students have had trouble registering in the past, but Alasger emphasized that all students who are not registered to vote in any other precinct are entitled to register if they will sign the elector's oath. This oath simply states that the signer is not registered anywhere else.

West 6th

Residents of the West 6th Village, West of Line St. and South of 6th, should register with Mrs. Charles Vietmeier, 610 W. A.

North Main Village residents are in the third precinct, and their registrar is Mrs. Lloyd Southworth 113 N. Jefferson.

Residents of the pre-fab units east of Line St. and north of 6th St., must register with Dorothy Wethered, 201 S. Almon.

Students who live outside of these areas may call Alasger to find out where to register.

Alasger urged all students to vote. He cited the apathetic vote in the Latah county primaries held in August, when 4323 of 9359 registered voters actually cast ballots.

Geology Museum Has One Of Best Exhibits

By MOLLIE GODBOLD

Do you know that on the University of Idaho campus there is one of the best mineral collections in the state? Just one of the many museums here, the Geology Museum, has specimens from scores of old abandoned mining towns; rocks that perhaps have a history that sounds as though it's taken right out of a blood-and-guts western.

Many of the towns are only a memory now... some were in England, New Mexico, Idaho, Montana, Colorado... about any place you could name.

There is one exhibit, new this year, of Idaho minerals. It includes a set of garnet crystals from Shoshone county that range in size from that of a marble to that of a golf ball.

Some other new additions that were put in this last summer, when the museum was remodeled for the first time in over a decade, are a radio-active collection, fluorescent lighting to bring out the beauty of the rocks, repainted cases, some more showy stones and a collection of fossils and petrified substances in which there are turtles, petrified bones, a huge tooth and a mammoth snail-like shell.

Speaking of new additions, this year the geology department has the first woman assistant in its history. She is Miss Alice Vrbsky, assistant curator of the museum. The next big plan, which it is hoped can be carried out in the next year or so, is to add a display of fluorescent rocks in a darkened room so that the stones would show all of their brilliance. They also hope to put in a case of non-metallic minerals used in industry.

As Dr. Harry Caldwell, who is in charge of the museum, pointed out, it's a strange thing, but it seems that more out-of-state people know more about the museum than students do. Each summer over a hundred visiting rock collectors come to study the specimens, talk over rock hunting experiences and trade various minerals.

Even if you aren't a geological genius, the museum could prove to be a very interesting place to spend a few minutes some day. Its located in the Geology Building. From the art standpoint there are many things worth looking at... a piece of catclite that looks like an abstract painting of a honey comb; beautifully colored turquoise, agate, amethyst, mica, and other stones; fantastic tree-like shapes of copper; white quartz crystals that resemble a fairy city sparkling at night; other crystals that look like a fabulous collection of precious stones glued all over a rock.

Acceptance

TO: Impotent potentate of the Ag Club

FROM: The Associated Foresters. We, the lusty and mighty Associated Foresters of the University of Idaho, being in need of a light workout, do herewith accept your challenge to a tug-of-war to be held on the Ad Building lawn at 4:45 p.m., Monday, October 25. Being in a benevolent mood, we therefore concede not to wear our calked boots provided teams are squared off man for man, and provided that sufficient numbers of your group can drop their plows that long.

We request the (ugh!) Aggies to select a judge who will cooperate with one selected by the (ah!) foresters to prevent any infraction of the agreed-upon rules. Their services should not be required, however, to arbit the outcome since the amount of barnyard fertilizer upon the team should separate the losers from the winners.

We also wish to remind the Aggies of one point overlooked in a wild flight of optimistic imagination. After you have been hauled through the (phew!) pile, you may have the honor of cleaning up after the Foresters Ball in February when all free jockeys should be relatively free from clod-kicking duties.

It is hard to imagine that the dignified foresters will even get close to the Aggie-provided mound of manure; but, should this happen, the Associated Foresters will bend backs to clean up the SUB after the Ag Bawl being held next Saturday night.

Also at stake is the farm-forest pitch-axe trophy held presently by the Associated Foresters

Signed,

Ralph D. Kizer, President, Associated Foresters.

Council Favors Dry Rushing

SAN JOSE STATE — The President's Council last night agreed to support a Fraternity-Sorority Governing Board recommendation that no beer or alcoholic beverages be served at fraternity rush functions.

Acceptance of the governing board's recommendation ends a two-week old dispute which arose when a beer restricting clause appeared in the Interfraternity Council Constitution which officially had not been put into the document.

Though IFC favors a dry rushing rule, the clause which prohibited beer at rush functions was stricken from its constitution in emergency action by President Bob Go-forth, when it was learned that the clause legally was not part of the constitution.

In the three-point governing board recommendation accepted by the council the board asked that "No wine, distilled spirits or beer shall be served at any open house or rushing function held on the premises of the organization. If the function is held off the premises no special arrangements for serving alcoholic beverages shall be made."

When the woman filling out an application came to the square marked "age" she didn't hesitate. She simply wrote: "Atomic."

The meeting at Eugene was devoted to hearing progress reports on these studies and to planning a program for the remaining two years during which the grant will be available, Berry said. Dr. Berry is the only member from Idaho on both the Policy and Executive Committees of the NCEA.

On Campus with Max Shulman

(Author of "Barfoot Boy With Cheek," etc.)

WHAT EVERY YOUNG COED SHOULD WEAR

Gather round, girls. Snap open a pack of Philip Morris, light up, relax and enjoy that mild fragrant vintage tobacco while Old Dad tells you about the latest campus fashions.

The key word this year is casual. Be slaphash. Be rakish. Improvise. Invent your own ensembles—like ski pants with a peck-a-bow blouse, like jama bottoms with an ermine stole, like a hockey sweater with a dirndl. (Dirndl, incidentally, is one of the truly fascinating words in the English language. Etymologists have quarreled over its origin for years. Some hold with Professor Manley Ek that Dirndl is a corruption of Dardanelle and is so named because it resembles the skirts worn by the women of that region. This theory is at first glance plausible, but begins to fall apart when you consider that there are no women in the Dardanelle region because of the loathsome local custom of female infanticide.)

(Another theory is advanced by Dr. Clyde P.H. Dirndl, says he is a contraction of "dairy in the dell" and refers to the milkmaidish appearance of the skirt. But again close examination causes one to abandon a plausible hypothesis. As every child knows, it is not "dairy in the dell" but "farmer in the dell", in which case the skirt should be called not dirndl but farmer.)

(There are some who contend we will never know the true origins of dirndl. To those faint hearted Cassandras I say, remember how everyone laughed at Edison and Franklin and Fulton and Marconi and Sigafos. (Sigafos, in case you have forgotten, invented the nostril, with that which breaking, as we know it today, would not be possible.) The origins of dirndl will be found, say I, and anyone who believes the contrary is a lily-livered churl and if he'll step outside for a minute, I'll give him a thrashing he won't soon forget.)

But I digress. We were smoking a Philip Morris and talking about the latest campus styles. Casual, we agree, is the key word. But casual need not mean drab. Liven up your outfits with a touch of glamor. Even the lowly dungaree and man-shirt combination can be made exciting if you'll adorn it with a simple necklace of 120 matched diamonds. With Bermuda shorts, wear gold knee-cymbals. Be guided by the famous poet Cosmo Sigafos (whose brother Sam it was who invented the nostril) who wrote:

Sparkle, my beauty,
Shimmer and shine,
The night is young,
The air is like wine,
Cling to a leaf,
Hang on a vine,
Crawl on your belly,
It's time to dine.

(Mr. Sigafos, it should be explained, was writing about a glow-worm. Insects, as everyone knows, are among Mr. Sigafos' favorite subjects for poems. Who can ever forget his immortal Ode to a Boll Weevil? Or his Tumbling Along With the Tumbling Tumblebug? Or his Fly Gently, Sweet Aphid! Mr. Sigafos has been inactive since the invention of DDT.)

But I digress. We were smoking a Philip Morris and discussing fashions. Let us turn now to headwear. The motif in hats this year will be familiar American scenes. There will be models to fit every head—for example, the "Empire State Building" for tall thin heads; the "Hofferson Memorial" for squatty ones; "Niagara Falls" for dry scalps. Feature of the collection is the "Statue of Liberty," complete with a torch that actually burns. This is very handy for lighting your Philip Morris, which is very important because no matter how good Philip Morris are, they're nowhere unless you light them.

We come now to the highlight of this year's fashion parade—a mad fad that's sweeping the chic set at high tone campuses all over the country. All the gals who are in the van, in the swim, and in the know are doing it. Doing what, you ask? Getting tattooed, of course! You just don't rate these days unless you've got at least an anchor on your biceps. If you really want to be the envy of the campus, get yourself a four masted schooner, or a heart with FATHER printed inside of it, or a—

I interrupt this column to bring you a special announcement. A runner has just handed me the following bulletin:

"The origin of the word dirndl has at long last been discovered. On June 27, 1846, Dusty Schwartz, the famous scout and Indian fighter, went into the Golden Nugget Saloon in Cheyenne, Wyoming. The Golden Nugget had just imported a new entertainer from the East. She came out and did her dance in pink tights. Dusty Schwartz was impressed. He watched with keen interest as she did her numbers, and he thought about her all the way home. When he got home, his wife Feldspar was waiting to show him a new skirt she had made for herself. 'How do you like my new skirt, Dusty?' said Feldspar. He looked at the large voluminous garment, then thought of the pink tights on the dancing girl. 'Your skirt is darn dull,' said Dusty. 'Darn dull' was later shortened to 'dirndl' which is how dirndls got their name."

Pledge Dances, Teas Top Social Calendar

Saturday will find the Sigma Nus on a "Street of Dreams" as they present their pledge dance. Three other houses having their pledge dances this weekend are the Pi Phis, the Alpha Chis and the Delta Chis. Thetas and Steel houses were hostesses to teas Sunday honoring the district president and housemother, respectively. The Gamma Phis will hold their annual faculty tea this Sunday.

Idaho Club has chosen Gordon Roberts as president, and Lindsey elected Dwayne Savage as its leader for the semester.

DELTA CHI

The theme of the Delta Chi pledge dance is a deep, dark secret—even from the members. But all will find out at the pledge and initiation dance tonight in the chapter house.

Bill Paul has been elected pledge class president. Other officers are Jim Wright, secretary-treasurer and Don Farrar, song leader. The news is late, and the pledges are threatening silence if some pledge news isn't announced.

An all house dinner exchange with the Alpha Chis was followed by dancing and the freshman exchange, which had been scheduled with the Alpha Chis. Speaking for the Delta Chis, the boys had a very enjoyable time.

Jerry Kinsey, Delta Chi field secretary and Idaho chapter alum, is visiting here this week.

Lay low, wenchies! The priates are going to be sailing the campus in the not to distant future.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Weekend guests of Marilyn Marvel were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Marvel.

Gamma Phi pledges from the new WSC chapter were feted Saturday at a picnic on the Gamma Phi lawn.

Sue Walter announced her engagement to Chuck Chehey, TKE, at Sunday dinner. The theme was "Sailing to Happiness."

An eventful evening was reported by the pledges after their return from Monday's sneak to Pullman.

The faculty tea is scheduled for Sunday, October 24.

An annual Halloween exchange with the Phi Deltas next Wednesday is anticipated by the Gamma Phis.

LINDLEY HALL

Goblins and witches will haunt Lindley next Friday at their first dance of the year. Costumes will be worn for the Halloween dance.

Dwayne Savage has been elected hall president for this semester. Assisting him will be Dick Gaskins, vice president; Merle Craner, secretary; Lawrence Kniggs, treasurer; Glen Hals, social chairman; Ralph Hale, sergeant-at-arms; Jim Russell, intramural manager; Jim Christensen, senior representative; Bill Nicholas, junior representative; John Kroiss, sophomore representative, and Charles Rau, freshman representative.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

The pledge dance will be held tonight, at 9 in the south ballroom of the SUB, under the chairmanship of Ro Jeanne Coyle.

Dinner guests Sunday were Connie Harding, Nezerpce, and Linda Williams and Helen Ellsworth, Hays Hall.

Audrey Montgomery was elected as house representative to Greek Caucus. Other members of the caucus are Verna Sattgast and Jo Ann Brown, caucus treasurer.

PINE HALL

Pine Hall was host to the Thetas at the Wednesday exchange. Because of the "Black Wolf" seen wandering around the hall after dark the boys thought it would be better to hold the exchange in the SUB Dipper.

Senior representatives to caucus are Keith Spencer and Roy Pleticha. Smitty Smith and Bill Hillman are junior members.

PI BETA PHI

Members are killing themselves decorating for the pledge dance to be held tonight. Pajama clad couples will fit over the dance floor to the strains of Bill Isotalo and his band.

Mrs. Hitzel, housemother, was honored Tuesday at a dessert and card party which the other housemothers attended.

A shock was in store for any wandered who happened to view the situation in the Pi Phi backyard Wednesday night. Two firemen were focusing their orbs on the fire escape as the 52 young females came tripping down the stairs. Halfway down, Sandy had to stop and wave, and Barb Brewer must have gotten tired of climbing, so she casually jumped—and landed.

SIGMA NU

Sigma Nus and their dates will dance in a "Street of Dreams," Saturday, from 9 to 12. General chairman for the event is Skip Nelson.

Chapter advisors Harold Cornelison and Vic Casebolt were lunch guests at the house Monday. John J. Lucy, Sigma Nu division commander from Missoula, Montana, was here that day on his annual inspection tour.

PHI DELTA THETA

Recent guests included Torre Kristofferson, Larry McCulloch and Andy Anderson.

Phi Deltas and their dates danced to the music of Mezzetto's Orchestra from Spokane last Friday at the annual pajama dance held at the Legion Cabin. "Favors were in the form of paddles made from wallboard. The pledges were forced to "assume the position" while their dates broke the paddles on them. The girls who failed to break their paddles had to give the boys a kiss. During the intermission Mick McCarty put on an impromptu exhibition of flagpole sitting. Other humorous stunts were put on by "daring" Jim Bonnett and "Fabulous" Fink Howard.

"Thanks go to Bonzo for planning the dance and special thanks to Dr. Church, our chaperone. A hayride is being scheduled for this Saturday night. There is a rumor that organizer Bonzo Davies will pull the hayrack.

The Phi Delt boys are very proud of Dwight Morrison, Vandal basketball star, who is now playing for the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association. In a letter received recently, Dwight informed us that he had made the team and is seeing a lot of action. We are looking forward to seeing Dwight on TV later this season.

The Phi Delt pledges were hosts to Ethel Steel House for Wednesday's exchange.

IDAHO CLUB

Guests at Wednesday dinner were Dr. Harry C. Harnsworth and Dr. Mhyra Minnis, faculty members in the sociology department.

Plans are underway for the club dance, to be held November 12.

Gordon Roberts was elected president at a recent house meeting. Other officers are Hal Sollinski, vice president; Dayle Carlson, treasurer, and Kick Kamlin, secretary.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Mrs. Raymond Bell, district president, visited the house this week. Sunday evening a formal team was held in her honor, and presidents and house mothers from the campus living groups were invited. Tuesday evening Mrs. Bell was given a fireside. Refreshments were served and an entertainment each class learned a new song and attempted to teach it to the rest of the house. Thanks loads to the Fijis from the juniors, for all your help.

Last weekend Arlene Brown announced her pinning to Bill Conroy, Fiji. Sure enough, Monday noon saw Bill tied to the Fiji flag pole with Arlene doing her duty and freeing him. Everything ended as usual—with a big kiss.

It's hard to say who got the best of whom at Saturday's football game between the Theta pledges and the Kappa Sigs. The gals won the game but had a run-in with some green paint before they got home.

ETHEL STEEL

Mrs. Scattaboe, Steel House housemother, was honored at a tea Sunday afternoon.

An all house Halloween exchange between Steel House and Campus Club is being planned for next Wednesday.

SIGMA CHI

Formal initiation for Jack Talbot was held Sunday, October 17. The annual member-pledge football game will be played Sunday, weather permitting. Rumor has it that the pledges are expecting to suffer heavy losses.

Serenades from the Gamma Phi, Delta Gamma, and Tri Delta pledges were enjoyed by the Sigma Chis this week. They were all part of pledge sneak events.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

The SAE's really hit the jackpot last Thursday evening when they received three serenades. The Tri-Delt came first, followed later by their pledges. Both were in search of shoes. The Pi Phi pledges then recovered a dinner gong and a small menagerie of Teddy bears. The Sig-Alphas and their dates went on a big hayride Saturday night out by Robinson Lake. Everyone returned to the house afterwards for a fireside complete with fire, coffee, doughnuts, TV and dancing.

Monty Mathie set an all-time record Tuesday when he got twelve letters in the mail. Don't you ever consider the postman, Monty?

Guests at dinner Wednesday evening were Queen of Violets candi-

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy has been conferred on Malcolm T. Jollie, assistant professor of zoology at the University, by Stanford University.

On leave of absence from the Idaho faculty last year, Dr. Jollie attended the California University one national science foundation fellowship. His thesis was devoted to the study of the anatomy of a particular kind of fish, and the significance of its anatomical parts to other kinds of fish.

A graduate of Adelbert College in Western Reserve University, Jollie has been on the Idaho faculty since 1947. He earned his master's degree at the University of Colorado, and taught for two years at Western New Mexico State Teachers College prior to joining the Idaho staff.

Fellowships To Be Given By Danforth Foundations

The Danforth Foundation, an educational trust fund in St. Louis, Missouri, invites applications for the fourth class (1955) of Graduate Fellowships from college senior men and recent graduates who are preparing themselves for a career in college teaching, and are planning to enter graduate school in September, 1955, for their first year of graduate study.

The Foundation welcomes applicants from the areas of natural and biological sciences, social sciences, humanities and all fields of specialization to be found in the undergraduate college.

Acting University President D. R. Theophilus has named C. O. Decker, director of student affairs, as the Liaison Officer to nominate to the Danforth Foundation two or not to exceed three candidates for these fellowships.

These appointments are fundamentally "a relationship of encouragement" throughout the years of graduate study, carrying a promise of financial aid within prescribed conditions as there may be need. The maximum annual grant for single men is $1800; for married men, $2400. Students with or without financial need are invited to apply.

If a man receives the Danforth appointment, together with a Rhodes Scholarship, Fulbright Scholarship or Woodrow Wilson Fellowship, he becomes a Danforth Fellow without stipend, until these other relationships are completed.

The qualifications of the candidates as listed in the announcement from the Foundation are: men of outstanding academic ability, personality congenial to the classroom, and integrity and character, including faith and commitment within the Christian tradition.

All applications, including the recommendations, must be completed by Feb. 15, 1955. Any student wishing further information should get in touch with Decker.

Faculty Proposals Result In Action To Stop Cheating

MARIETTA, O. (I.P.)—Proposals by a Faculty-Student Committee at Marietta College have resulted in a definite action being taken by the faculty to eliminate cheating during examinations. Specific rules have been formulated by the faculty committee which handled this problem. The committee proposed the following measures to become effective immediately:

Adoption of an alternate seating plan, or equivalent spacing, and the refusal of professors to permit students to leave the classroom at any time or for any reason during an examination, unless he is prepared to turn in his examination paper.

Students will not be permitted to carry any books or examination notes into the classroom unless they have been instructed to do so by the instructor. A statement explaining these and all other rules that have been adopted concerning examination etiquette will be printed on the back of examination schedules to avoid unnecessary controversy between professors and students.

Father to daughter: "Your young man approached me and asked me for your hand, and I consented."

Daughter: "But father, I don't wish to leave mother."

Father: "Such feeling displayed by a child is admirable. Take your mother with you."

Fellowships Have Been Announced

"A total of 150 fellowships has been announced by the National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Program," announced Boyd A. Martin, assistant dean of Letters and Science, Monday.

These fellowships are open to any interested persons in the fields of humanities or social science, specifically to those graduating seniors who would like to do graduate work in these fields. Some subjects coming under this classification are art, music, language, economics and political science.

The fellowship for an unmarried student amounts to $1,250 in addition to the amount needed for tuition at the school where he is placed.

These fellowships are awarded upon invitation or nomination only. Nomination may be made by any instructor in the fields relating to the scholarships.

Interested persons are urged to contact Dr. Martin at the earliest possible date in order that they may be given full consideration. The final date for nomination is December 15, 1954.

The National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Program is designed to attract to the teaching profession at the college or university level, young men or women who entail the highest in scholastic ability, character and personality, he said.

Persons qualifying from Idaho will compete with students from 12 other states or districts.

Candidates who are selected for these fellowships will be notified by February, 1955, at the latest. Students who qualify and are selected, yet are taken into military service will still receive their fellowship at the termination of their military service.

More Scholarships Being Awarded

The First Security Bank of Idaho awarded $500 scholarships to Edward Clayburn, junior, and Stanley Swanson, senior.

The $200 McCargar Scholarship for real estate, awarded by Northern Idaho real estate concerns, was given to Kuenten Erwin.

The Idaho Insurance Agent Association gave $100 to Barry Rust, senior. The total of $1,825 given in scholarships was larger than any amount given previously.

Foreign Study Grants Competition Closes Soon

Nov. 1, 1954, is the closing date of competitions for United States Government Educational Exchange Grants for graduate study abroad, it was announced today by Kenneth Holland, President of the Institute of International Education.

Three weeks remain in which to apply for awards under the Fulbright and Buenos Aires Convention Programs for the 1955-56 academic year.

An exception is the program for New Zealand, for which October 15 is the closing date.

Scholarship application blanks are available at the Institute or in the offices of Fulbright advisers on college and university campuses. A brochure describing the overseas study awards may be obtained from the Institute.

The programs under the Fulbright Act and the Buenos Aires Convention for the Promotion of Inter-American Cultural Relations are part of the international educational exchange activities of the Department of State. They will give almost 1000 American citizens the chance to study abroad during the 1955-56 academic year.

Countries where U.S. graduate students may study under the Fulbright Program are Australia, Austria, Belgium and Luxembourg, Burma, Ceylon, Denmark, Egypt, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, India, Italy, Japan, the

DEAR JASON

Dear Jason,
Far be it from me to appear as a crusader but when I consistently notice old posters tacked on every pole, tree and wall on the campus I think that it is high time for someone to complain.

There should be some way to impress on the minds of the individuals who tack these posters, notices and criteria of information.

the President of the United States.

Foreign Comments
Fulbright awards are made entirely in the currencies of participating countries abroad. The Fulbright Act authorizes the use of certain foreign currencies and credits acquired through the sale of surplus property abroad for educational exchanges.

The awards cover transportation, expenses of a language refresher or orientation course abroad, tuition, books and maintenance for one academic year. Awards under the Buenos Aires Convention include transportation provided by the United States Government, and tuition and maintenance allowances provided by the host governments.

Preliminary selections for other Fulbright awards, those for teaching, lecturing or advanced research abroad, are made by the U.S. Office of Education and the Conference Board of Associated Research Councils.

Eligibility requirements for these foreign study fellowships are:
(1) United States citizenship.
(2) A college degree or equivalent at the time the award is to be taken up.
(3) Knowledge of the language of the country sufficient to carry on the proposed study.
(4) Good health.

Final selection of Fulbright grants is made by the Board of Foreign Scholarships appointed by tion all over the campus to remove their material after it is no longer timely.

Walking past bulleting boards and up "Hello Walk" one is confronted with announcements and posters representing week-old material.

Please, wouldn't somebody see that these posters are kept up to date. My suggestion is that the people who put them up will kindly take them down.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THERE?

A new gasoline, maybe. A better motor oil, or an improved grease. It's Union Oil's department of calculated discontent where we tear apart the very best we and our competitors have been able to do. Our premium gasoline—Union 7600—is a good example. We adapted this super-fuel from high octane aviation gasoline and introduced it in the West shortly after the end of World War II. The product was so successful that it's only in the last two years that we have been able to make enough 7600 to satisfy demand. Yet all the time 7600 was in short supply we constantly improved it. This called for countless advances through the years. Why—when our customers wanted more than we could make as it was? Why—when we had to plow back hard-earned money into the improvements? Why? Simply because we wanted the finest possible product to keep our present customers satisfied—and help us win new ones. This illustrates again the basic difference between America's free economy and any other. By furnishing the opportunity for a reasonable profit, the American system creates intense competition for your favor. As a result, you enjoy constantly improving products...and the highest standard of living yet achieved by man.

Theme Chosen For Yearbook

Plans for the 1955 "Gem of the Mountains" are well underway according to Darlene Duffy, editor. The theme has been chosen and several of the staff heads have been appointed.

The theme of this year's Gem will be Mr. Magoo. It will feature cartoons of the nearsighted fellow and depict campus life as seen by him.

Staff heads on the yearbook include Lorna Hobdy, administration; Carolyn Sanderson, social; Judy Crookham, living groups; Suzanne Delphin, Art and Louise Tatko, business manager.

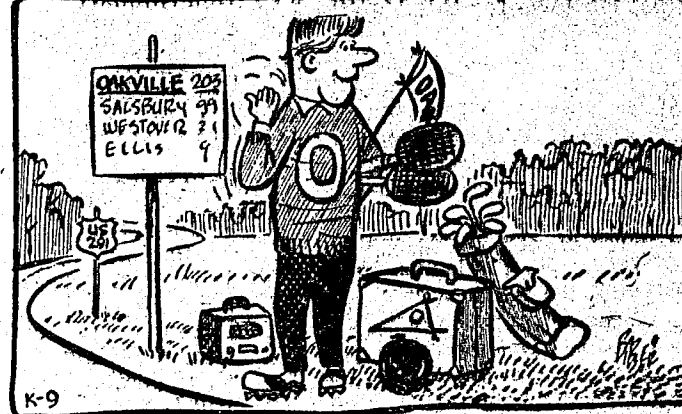

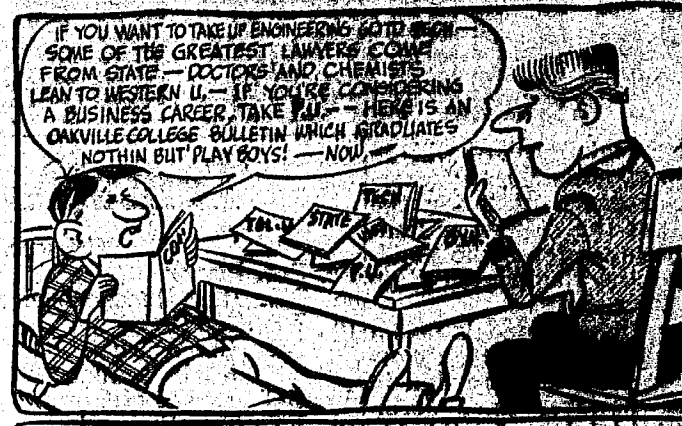

Darlene Duffy is editor and Jamie Steele and Keith McPhee are associate editors. The remaining section heads will be appointed in the near future. According to Darlene there are representatives from nearly every living group working on the staff this year.

The members of women's living groups are asked to have the proofs turned in to the photographer by November 1. No Gem pictures will be accepted after that date.

Each men's living group is asked to turn one informal snapshot in to the Gem office by October 27.

The 1955 Gem will again carry the activities of the entire school year from rush in the fall all the way through to spring semester finals. This year's Gem will be 320 pages, 20 pages more than last year's book.

Closing Date Is Extended For Essays

That students interested in international affairs now have up until December 15 to submit essays in the Foreign Service Journal Prize Essay Contest, was announced recently.

The essays, to be written on "The Organization of American Representation Abroad," may win for a student up to $1,000 or a full fellowship, amounting to $1,750, at The School of Advanced International Studies of the John Hopkins University in Washington.

Essays submitted will be judged by a committee of six nationally known men including John Sloan Dickey, President of Dartmouth College; Robert D. Murphy, Deputy Under Secretary of State, and Lt. Gen. Harold R. Bull, former commandant of the National War College.

Secretary of State Dulles, in a statement which accompanied the contest announcement said: "I hope this contest will produce constructive and helpful public thinking on a matter of importance to all Americans."

"What did you say this morning, Professor?"

"Nothing."

"Of course. But how did you express it this time?"

Free Fifth Period Goes Into Effect At U of Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Pa., (I.P.)—Deans of the undergraduate schools at the University of Pittsburgh have agreed to the proposal for a free fifth hour every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The free period will go into effect this fall and will include all classes in undergraduate schools with two exceptions: Classes in military engineering may, of necessity, be scheduled for the fifth hour, and military students will be called on for fall drill during this period.

Class schedules have been set up for as few fifth classes as possible on Tuesdays and Thursday. When speaking of the decision to leave the fifth hour open, Dean of Men Theodore W. Biddle said, "It should prove a great boon to student activities."

This is the first time since pre-war days that students here have had a free period. During the war the practice was discontinued due to an insufficient number of class rooms. The fight for a free fifth hour has been going on for years. The undergraduate deans feel that the war-time difficulty of inadequate facilities has been overcome. As a result, this semester's class schedule will list only those fifth hour classes which are absolutely necessary.

Dean Biddle expressed the possibility that fraternities might again begin to serve lunch, as well as dinner, thus bringing together more frequently the commuters and those students who room at the fraternity houses. Both faculty and students will be free for such meetings as they wish to hold, he continued. The Chapel services might also be conducted during this hour thus reaching a greater number of students.

Many Named To Committee

The Student Union Committee appointments have recently been made official by Flip Kleffner, ASU president. Faculty members are Guy Anderson, chairman; Mabel Locke, Charles Marshall and non voting members, James Bowlby, student union manager, and Kenneth Dick, Bursar.

Student members of the SUB committee are Jane Remsburg, student chairman; Lee Anderson, Executive Board representative; Mollie Goldbold, secretary; Bill Emaclo, Les Walker, Ed Schmith and Tom West.

At the meeting held last Thursday the Blood Drive Committee was given free use of the three ballrooms for the Kickoff Dance to be held October 25. Other problems, such as foul lights for the bowling alley and screens for the ballrooms so that banquets can be held there, are under consideration.

Any constructive suggestions which students may have in regard to the Student Union building, the way it is run, or possible improvements will be appreciated by the committee.

The suggestions can be given to one of the members or placed in the SUB committee box in the Student Union Building.

PALOUSE BATTLE ON TAP

Nine Idaho seniors will be in the starting lineup tomorrow afternoon at 2 for the battle of the Palouse at Pullman between the Idaho Vandals and the Washington State Cougars.

The winless Vandals face a tough, seasoned football eleven tomorrow and are thin in ranks—however have definitely not let down for this big one.

Not since 1925 has Idaho beaten the Cougars.

Coach Skip Staley will use but one of his junior college transfers in the starting lineup, that being feet footed Wilbur Gary at full-back.

The return of Ray Bittner and Ted Frostenson to the halfbacks has bolstered the backfield some, Staley added, but the Vandals will be missing Ivan Resa, outstanding sophomore guard, who will not dress for the game.

Resa suffered a mild concussion in the Saturday game at Arizona and has been under doctor's care all this week. The staff does not want to take any added chance in reinjuring the center-guard.

Moving in to fill the shoes of Resa will be senior John Armata, who has seen little action this season. Charley Fries will provide the depth in that position along with Fred Magee, recently switched to guard from the end slot.

Vandals to Pass
The Vandals will partly rely on the aerial attack based around senior George Eidam, quarterback and ends Paul Giles and Frank Teverbaugh.

The Cougars boast big Duke Washington, spinning fullback, who leads the Pacific Coast Conference in rush offense by carrying the ball for 5.8 yards per try.

The WSC club runs from a varied straight T formation into a single wing to a strong line side. The Vandal coaching staff expects their opponents to throw as well as run tomorrow.

Quarterback Frank Sarno, a junior from Massachusetts, will probably do the throwing from the T formation to ends Russ Quackenbush and Bob Peringer and halfbacks Dennis Rath and Milt Purnell. Bob Iverson of Spokane will see action at the quarterback slot.

Hark! An Arrow Yet To Take Thou Ball

Something new was seen on the U of I Golf course for the first time in history last Friday. A bow and arrow replaced the golf clubs and ball.

Ken Wright, using a bow and arrow, played Bob Campbell, who was using regulation golf clubs. The match ended in tie with both archer and golfer posting a 39 on nine holes.

Campbell won most of the long holes by out driving the bow, and Wright picked up ground on the short holes with accuracy.

According to golf pro, Dick Snyder, this is the first time that this has been done one the University course, although it has been used on other courses throughout the nation.

Willis Sweet Captures Football Championship

A razor-sharp Willis Sweet hall team captured the 1954 Campus Intramural Football Championship Wednesday by downing the fraternity champion Sigma Nu 18-6 on McLean iField.

Sweet scored first in the opening minutes of the game as they kicked off and held SN to five yards in three plays forcing them to punt. On the opening play from scrimmage Jerry Dougherty threw 20 yards to Gene Lofdahl and the big end hustled down the sidelines for 28 more and six points. The conversion was no good. "Sigma Nu took the kickoff and Jim Rees passed the Nus deep into Sweet territory on just four aerials. The drive was stopped on the 10 though as Dougherty intercepted in the end zone. The quarterback then ran for six yards and threw for a first down. On the next play Rees intercepted for Sigma Nu and two plays later Jerry Dyer did the same for Willis. Plays later Dougherty started around end and threw 35 yards to Lofdahl for touchdown number two. The conversion failed.

The second half started as Willis took the kickoff and went nowhere. They punted and then got the ball right back at Dougherty intercepted, his second of the day. SN Score

Doug Randall intercepted for the Nus and ran to the 25. Four plays later Rees threw to Jim Hanzel in the end zone for the only Sig score of the game. It was in this drive that the Frat champs showed a little of the zip and fire that won them the Greek championship. Undaunted, the Independents charged right back up the field, and through the passing of Dougherty and superb line play powered to touchdown number three to end scoring and all chance of a Sigma Nu win. The drive ended as Dougherty threw to Tom Vopat from four yards out for the T.D.

No one person excelled for Willis Sweet unless it might have been Dougherty. It was this fact that made the Independents so tough to deal with. The line play on both defense and offense was superb but it was pass defense which was the major difference in the score.

Willis intercepted time and again while Sigma Nu could find no way to stop the Sweet air attack. As for the Nus they were a little shocked at the sudden scoring of their opponents.

Washington Frosh Need Quarterback For Idaho Opener

SEATTLE — The University of Washington frosh are looking for a quarterback as the Husky Pups begin this week to prepare for its season opener at Moscow with the University of Idaho freshman Oct. 30.

Frosh coach Bill Marx appeared to have this worry as his main headache when it comes to material. Seventy-five prospects answered the first call a week ago.

Eddie Rosane, Pasco, Wash., and John Wamba, Franklin High of Seattle, have shown the best to date.

While only seven of the 75 men on hand turned out for the tackle position, Marx is not concerned about power in that department. Heading the tackle positions are Dick Day of Longview, Jim Matthews, Foster, Fred Mtrak, Los Angeles, Calif., and Bill Austin, Stanwood.

Babes Stress Basic Rules First Week

The Idaho frosh football players have two weeks of fundamentals behind them prior to their season opener against the Washington Pups slated for October 30.

Coach Clem Parberry feels his team is well rounded at present. For the first two weeks of practice, fundamentals have been the main thing the squad has worked on, Parberry said.

Three injuries have cropped up in the Idaho line. Two tackles, Robert Prestel, Indianapolis, Ind., and Dick Nearents, Pasco, Wash., have a sprained ankle and a cracked rib and Rod Payne, an Idaho Falls guard, has a bad ankle that has sidelined him this week.

Parberry will work the frosh charges next week on offense and defense in preparation for the opener.

Joe Glander Is Named Vandal Track Coach

The University of Idaho Board of Regents have approved the appointment of Joseph Glander to the position of head track coach for the Vandals, according to word received yesterday by Acting President D. R. Theophilus.

Glander succeeds Stan Hiserman, who left this summer to take a similar position at the University of Washington.

Glander returns to his first love—track. Glander was a member of the Ohio university track team and served as track coach at Bowling Green State university.

A new trainer will be selected soon to fill the vacancy left by Glander.

Glander ran the 440 yard dash, cross-country and mile relay at Ohio U. In 1926 he was a member of the Ohio university relay team which took first place in the college division of the Ohio relays conducted annually at Columbus.

Ohio U. Grade

He returned to Ohio to graduate in 1935 and was freshmen track coach and trainer during his senior year. He later became assistant track coach and trainer at Bowling Green, and in 1945 was also made head track coach at the institution from which he received his master's degree.

In 1946 the new coach became trainer at the University of Oklahoma and held that position until he joined the University of Idaho as trainer. He never lost his interest in track, however, for in 1948 he authored an article in the Athletic Journal on "Training in Track."

In 1946, Glander was one of eight coaches sent by the Army to Europe to organize track and swimming meets for the inter-Allied games at Rome and Florence, Italy.

He served as trainer for the U.S. Olympic team at Helsinki, Finland, in 1952.

Fund Returns Slow For Olympic Drive

October 15, a collection was taken among the various living groups on campus to raise money for the 1956 Olympics.

The money collected is to be sent to the National Olympic Fund which was set up to send the United States Olympic team to the next Olympics, scheduled for Melbourne, Australia in 1956.

To date 13 living groups have turned in their collections, according to the Olympic coordinating chairman at the University, Joe Glander. However, the collections to date total $90.36 and according to Glander the fund should reach $200.

Glander urged the 18 remaining living groups which have not handed in their collections as yet to do so as soon as possible so that the funds may be forwarded to the national fund.

Coach

Joe Glander, for the past two years trainer at the U. of I., has been named head track coach replacing Stan Hiserman. Glander was the Olympic trainer in 1952 at Helsinki, Finland.
