The Blood Center Director stated definitely that no blood taken under the Red Cross program is sold.

That ought to squelch the oscilating mouth.

We'd like to thank everyone who had a hand in the big welcome ceremony last Tuesday. From this corner Idaho had a chance to show some spirit and that they did. One little detail looked a little lacking-that of the Idaho band: A hearty thanks to the members that did make it to the show. But it did look a little lacking when WSC brought two bands nine miles on only 24 hours notice and we ended up with an 11 piece outfit. Coach Skip Stahley poured it on the Vandals this week in practice in preparation for tomorrow's meeting at Salt Lake with the Utah Redskins. The Vandals, victors over WSC a week ago, "came down out of the clouds to get ready for Utah" this past week with three scrimmage sessions and individual positions meetings. Bob Myers, reserve end, and Stahley said the Vandals will Ralph Kendley, halfback, will not have to buckle down Saturday to make the trip. Muors is win. Utah dumped Oregon earlier make the trip. Otherwise the Vandals will be the same as against the Cougars.

Jerry Leigh, tackle, Burdette Hess and John Armitage, guards and Ed Barton, center, are senior line starters. George Eidam will go at quarterback and Bill Lawr, alfback and Wilbur Gary, fullback, round out the backfield. Stahley said Ted Frostenson will see plenty of action at left halfback slot. The coach gives Schmidt the nod on offense and Frostenson on defense.

Utah runs from a T formation with wing flankers and have stuck to the ground most of the season. Stahley says scouting reports show Utah has run about 75 per cent of he time against their opponents.
