The Idaho Argonaut

VOL. 59, NO. 36 THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1955

Word Battles Start Today

More than 50 students from five Idaho colleges will compete with words here today and Saturday. Speech contests began at 9 a.m. in the SUB. Entries for the annual All-Idaho speech tournament have been received from Idaho State College, College of Idaho, Boise Junior College, Northwest Nazarene College and the University of Idaho, Albert E. Whitehead, chairman of speech, announced. The question is "Should the United States Recognize Communist China?"

The Golden Fleece by Jason

The Argonaut Student Union Building Moscow, Idaho Dear Jason: In the Golden Fleece (the latter word being fully descriptive of the column's purpose) of Tuesday the 15th, thou madest an offer pursuant to which, if the Bench and Bar accepted, the Arg staff would buy us coffee should we lose the coming tiff with the Aggies, and vice versa should we win.

Therefore, we of the Bench and Bar, in keeping with the high principles of our calling and proudly following the naive and elemental, but honest, example of the animal kingdom, do hereby make a counter offer to buy coffee for thee and thine should our team lose, and humbly accept thy reciprocation should it win.

In passing, let it be recognized that thy betting sense, be it subconscious and inadvertent, or conscious and immoral, is nonetheless shrewd.

Sincerely, Jason

P.S. Where did you monkeys pick up that Chaucerian lisp?

Traditional Chinese Plot Has Its Share Of Pathos

University actors are busy learning how to bow properly, to dance to Oriental music, and to correctly wear the colorful dress of the Chinese for the next ASUI drama production entitled "Lute Song." The popular Chinese play will be presented March 4 and 5 at 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium by the University of Idaho Drama department. A young scholar, Tsai-Yong, is convinced by his father, a lowly magistrate, to seek the honorable position of a mandarin in the Imperial service. He leaves his beautiful young bride, Tchai-Ou-Niang, to care for his aged parents until

All Is Set For Religious Emphasis Week

Displays are up in University buildings and living groups for Religious Emphasis Week, which starts Sunday at 5:30 p.m. with a banquet in the SUB Ballroom. An estimated 350 people are expected at the kickoff banquet according to Karen Lee Krauss and John Thornock, ticket chairman. Monday morning classes will be shortened to provide time for a public events assembly at 11 a.m. featuring Msgr. Daniel B. Harrington's speech on "Religion Answers the Campus." Classes will be shortened as second period 8:45-9:20; third period 9:30-10:05; fourth period 10:15-10:50. Fifteen seminars have been planned for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. Seminars will be at 3:10 and 4:10. Attendance slips will be passed around for students who have class conflicts but wish to attend seminars. Speakers are available to living groups for discussions at dinner and at 9:30 p.m. Speakers beside Harrington are Dr. Myron C. Cole, Dr. John E. Riley, Rev. Earl Anderson, Dr. Wendell Rich and Rev. Earl Toevs.

Two From Idaho Gain High Offices In Regional IRC

Dennis Thompson and Ann Popma were elected president and secretary respectively of the Pacific-northwest Regional Conference of International Relations Clubs at a recent meeting at the College of Puget Sound at Tacoma. John Atkinson, Dick Cook and Thompson officially represented the University of Idaho at the conference. They were accompanied by Dr. Robert Hosack, chairman of political science, Olaf Stavik, president of Cosmopolitan Club, and Bernard Henderson. According to Thompson, next year's regional meeting will be held at the University of Idaho. At last Tuesday's meeting the following officers were elected: Dennis L. Thompson, president; John Atkinson, vice president; Ann Popma, secretary; Dick Cook, program director and Sally Spence, corresponding secretary. Retiring president Charles Oldham gave a report on the activities and progress of the club during the past year. Dr. Robert Hosack is advisor to the organization.

The SUB's "Campus Life" Photo Contest came to a close Tuesday with 11 pictures entered. These pictures will be judged tomorrow morning by Roy Bell, Dr. Darwin Mayfield, and Carl Gotsch, who will decide the winners of the three prizes. The prizes are, first place, $15; second place, $10, and third place, $5. The names of the winners will be posted in the SUB at about 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Treemen Swing Saturday Night

The Foresters Ball, the dance that last year got so lively that it cracked the cafeteria ceiling in the SUB, will start tomorrow night at 9 p.m. The annual loggers fling will again be held in all three SUB ballrooms and the Dipper. Associate Foresters members have cut more than 250 trees to use as decorations and "are going to keep using them until you can't see a wall or a ceiling," said dance chairman Joe Olson. Region One of the U.S. Forest Service has sent near a score of prepared, lighted, three dimensional displays, for the dance, Olson added. Sherman Finch, assigned to decorate the Dipper, announced that Bill Exworthy will play a "tin can" piano throughout the evening in the "Old Stump Inn," the Dipper alias for the evening. Finch added that foresters and "other people, too," should be made to feel at home in the back woods' salon atmosphere. Soft drinks will be sold over the bar by costumed tenders, swinging doors will provide the entrance and Exworthy the rinky-tink music.

- Eddie Alverti and Collegians will play for the ball. The Foresterettes, club of forestry students' wives, will provide a song and dance routine during the intermission. "One of our numbers will be 'Cigarettes and Whiskey' and we're going to knock 'em over," said Dixie Kizer, member of the chorus line. Tickets are $1.50 at the door and dress is forester style.
- WEDNESDAY
12 p.m.—Luncheon, Canterbury House: Guest speakers, RE committee, local pastors and advisors.
3:10 p.m.—Seminar, CCC: "Should the Church be in Politics," Toevs. Seminar, LDS: "How Can Students Best Serve Religion," Anderson. Seminar, LDS: "Is Church Membership Necessary," Rich.
4:10 p.m.—Closing Panel: Borah room, SUB: "Is Religion Replacing Religion," Rev. Seaman, moderator; Tom Hopkins, Msgr. Harrington, Dean Holt, Dr. Harry Caldwell.

Child Federation Fund To Receive Chest Money

A portion of the money donated this year to the Campus Chest will be given to the Save the Children Federation, an organization whose purpose is aiding children in need both in the United States and abroad, said chairman Jim Kruger. The organization provides the basic necessities of food, clothing and shelter to children in war-torn countries such as Korea and China. It also works with refugee children in Europe and Asia, with underprivileged children in most of the countries of the free world and in the United States. Besides providing the basic necessities of food and shelter, SCF also attempts to provide as much aid to their education as its funds will allow. In the United States, help is chiefly made to Indian reservations, particularly those in the Southwest. Here young children, existing on a bare subsistence level, are given food, clothing, books and other articles which will help them live a normal life. In Asia, the SCF provides the children of the war torn countries with food, which is a great problem in those countries. Also a pronounced lack of proper clothing, textbooks and other articles are cared for by the SCF. The Campus Chest committee feels that the portion of its funds donated to the SCF is wisely placed, particularly when one considers that by this donation young children are given the opportunity to lead normal useful lives and to contribute whatever talent they have to the advance of civilization.

95 Per Cent Are Placed

About 95 percent of University graduates who seek jobs upon graduation through the University Placement Service get job opportunities, H. H. Campbell, placement official reports. "In some fields the requests of employers are so abundant that we don't have enough graduates to fill the job openings," he said in an interview. "Schools are suffering from a lack of graduates in science because industries are picking them up," he said. Job openings in engineering, mathematics, physics and mining engineering are too numerous to be filled by University of Idaho graduates in these fields: "There is also a demand for salespeople, especially in insurance," he added. The University does not graduate enough teachers or women in physical education, to fill the job openings, Campbell said. The majority of the 5 percent not placed by the service are those who have not trained themselves for a specific job. These graduates do not know what type of employment they want, nor what they can do, he said. Besides students in this classification, Campbell said a few agriculture majors were not employed last year. The Placement Service acts as a liaison between the employer and the colleges of the University. It arranges and locates interviews for interested parties. Any graduate is entitled to placement service, which is offered with no initial charge to the student.

Recruitment Of Seniors Is Statewide

High school seniors from Blackfoot to Wallace will receive firsthand information about the University of Idaho next week from Guy Wicks, field agent; William Baker, acting chairman of botany, Edith Betts, women's PE instructor, Flip Klefner, ASUI instructor and Karen Hinkley, AWS president. The annual student recruitment trip began Tuesday, Feb. 15, in Gooding High School. William Banks, English professor, Shirley Newcombe, Home Economics professor, Darlene Duffy, Gem editor, Klefner and Wicks visited high schools in Gooding, Twin Falls, Burley, Rupert, Preston, Malad and Pocatello this week. The University's representatives hold a round table discussion in which the high school seniors take part. Guy Wicks first presents a large colored photograph of the University and the panel answers all questions asked by the prospective students. Next week's tour proceeds from Blackfoot to Idaho Falls, Rexburg, Rigby, Salmon, Wallace and Kellogg.

Freedom Drive Gets Flying Start

A plane is scheduled to fly over Moscow at noon next Tuesday, showering leaflets and colorful freedom bell medallions. These medallions are souvenir replicas of those which will be dropped behind the Iron Curtain this week in a Freedom Sky-Drop campaign. Finders are asked to turn them in at the Chamber of Commerce office before 3 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 24, for a surprise reward. The program, endorsed by Mayor Everett Will of Moscow, is to provide emphasis for the current observance of Freedom Week now underway, and is part of a national activity in which over 100 CAP planes will take part.

MSU Trip To Set Fate Of Idaho's Skating Rink

A visit to Montana State University may decide whether University of Idaho students get an ice skating rink. Montana State University recently built a $50,000 rink which is now in use. At Wednesday's meeting members voted to send a delegation to view the Montana rink located at Missoula. Should the rink seem favorable the Board will go ahead with similar plans on the Idaho campus. The trip is yet to be approved by Acting President Theophilus. The Board voted to delete the name of Salvation Army from the list of Campus Chest donations. The move came after Board members decided that the bulk of Campus Chest donations should go to students or young people. Jim Kruger, Campus Chest chairman, gave a running report on chest activities up to date. March 12 has been set for the Campus Chest dance date. Kruger also reported that the chest committee has donated $15 from their continuing fund for the Happy Mountain Orphanage in Korea. The Board elected Dennis Thompson to replace Ray Miller as orientation chairman. Miller will leave school next year. Additions and changes to the ASUI Constitution were also discussed. Gene Dickey is in charge of the Constitution revisions. Upon completion and approval of the changes the Argonaut will carry a listing of the revisions. ASUI Vice President Jim Saad presided at the meeting in Flip Klefner's absence.

33 June Graduates To Be Presented Army Commissions

Thirty-three men will be granted reserve commissions in the US Army upon graduation in June, according to officials of the Army ROTC unit at the University of Idaho. Three more men will be granted commissions upon completion of summer school or ROTC summer camp. Those receiving commissions will be required to spend eight years in the Army Reserve, two of the eight years on active duty. Upon special permission, commissioned officers may be given up to two years from the time they graduate until the time they will be required to go on active duty, according to Capt. William T. King, adjutant. New officers may apply for active duty immediately if they prefer. Each graduating cadet is given the opportunity to select the branch of service he desires. Summer camp facilities for the 49 juniors registered in Army ROTC will be at Fort Lewis, Wash., June 25 to August 5, according to Capt. King.

COMING EVENTS

SATURDAY
All women interested in working for KUOI meet in the KUOI studio at 1:30 p.m.

NOTICE

According to D. D. DuSault, registrar, foreign students are required to fill out a form for the Immigration Service at the beginning of each semester. Forms are available at the Registrar's office and students who haven't filled out a form are requested to get in touch with that office as soon as possible. Graduate students have until February 25 to turn their pictures into the Gem office. The Gem can also use any campus snap shots students might have.

DEAR JASON

Dear Jason:

I hope with considerable interest and not a little nostalgia that the matter of proportional representation (PR) as used in ASUT student elections is again a matter of discussion. I thought perhaps those who complain of its complexities might like to know whom to blame for it all. In 1934-35, while editor of The Argonaut, I championed the cause of PR. I felt it was best of all methods devised to provide representation for all factions and groups in direct proportion to their voting strength.

I plead guilty. In a virtual one-man campaign I favored the system and the newspaper file for that year will show that an editorial advocating a switch to PR appeared in about every third issue.

I think it is the best election system for selecting a board or commission of governors. I certainly concede, however, that it can be confusing to voters and election officials alike. Since it is quite a departure from usual election practice, it requires that a continuing program of voter-education be organized. Perhaps it would be well to take another look at the form of the ballot or your instructions to voters. I note you mention a number of disqualified ballots.

It is human to be suspicious of anything that is not understood. By all means, if the complications of PR elections are discouraging voters then it should go. Our democratic processes are threatened because of disinterest. We should not sow seeds of discouragement at a time when attitudes about such things are being formed. A vigorous interest at the college level in student politics and student affairs is healthy and necessary.

I cannot let pass, however, the objection which seems to have been raised that one's ballot does not count if his first choice already is elected. That voter is fortunate. His first choice is "in" and his ballot is going to be cast according to his second choice. This means it is likely that two persons he favors for positions on the board may make it.

The voter should remember that he will be represented in exact proportion to the number of persons who feel the same way he does about who should compose the board.

I know study and careful consideration will govern your decision.

One can never contend that PR was not given a fair test. It has always been a source of pardonable pride that the system has survived these 20 years.

It takes me back to college days to be addressing these remarks to "Jason" of "The Golden Fleecce" first inaugurated during my regime by the chap who was to follow me as Argonaut editor, Hugh W. Eldridge, now, I believe, with the Veterans Administration in southern Idaho.

Best regards and good wishes to all the Argonaut staff.

Very sincerely,
Harold R. Boyd, Class of '35
Manager Newspaper
Reference Library
The Spokesman Review
The Spokane Daily Chronicle.

Dear Mr. Pendergast:

I realize, of course, that the dissertations on various subjects, which you manage to get inserted in each addition of the Argonaut, are the budding of a great literary talent. However, I do wish that you would curb, somewhat, your desire to enlighten the masses on the finer arts, for I fear that you may become so emotionally stimulated that you may crowd the interesting articles out of the paper entirely. This evolution takes place in an unattended flower garden. Slowly the weeds encircle the spot, craftily they formulate an attack and suddenly they converge until all that resembles beauty is overrun.

I enjoy reading newspapers, and I like to see flowers flourish; but like most people I'm not fond of weeds, nor do I think they are worth study unless it is to determine a scientific way to rid society of them.

Dave Clements, Sn.

THE BULL SESSION

I wonder if they still make bull sessions the way they used to. Well do I remember the bull sessions of my own undergraduate days. How cogent they were! How informative! How the good talk crackled and our young hearts leaped and the hours sped by as swiftly as minutes!

Our discussions were always led by Jack Femur. (Good old Jack! I hear he's in the extruded aluminum game now.) We would sit cross-legged in a circle around Jack and he would fill his pipe with his own private blend — burley, latakia, and shredded coconut. The rest of us preferred tobacco, so we would light up Philip Morris. This is a procedure I recommend without qualification to everyone who prefers tobacco because Philip Morris has the tobacco that tobacco-prefers prefer the most — mild vintage leaf with a clean, cool flavor that soothes and steadies, that gladdens and enlivens and refreshes.

Jack would puff on his pipe and we would puff on our Philip Morris and the bull-session would begin its meandering journey. The talk would touch on every subject known to man, on every conceivable thing beneath the sun, but no matter how far the conversation wandered, it would always return to "Topic A." I refer, of course, to gardening.

But, as I say, the discussion would cover many subjects before it came to the inevitable gardening. Jack would open each session with a provocative question of a general nature, like: "What's the most important thing a man can get out of college?"

"Girls," Harold Clavicle would reply promptly. (Good old Harold! I hear he's in the frozen lobster tail game now.)

"No, I don't think so," Ben Fibula would say. "I think education is the most important thing you get out of college." (Good old Ben! He's still in school.)

"Listen, guys, I've got a question," Clyde Ilium would say. "If you could spend a week either with Ava Gardner or with Albert Einstein, which would you choose?" (Good old Clyde! I hear he's in the unclaimed freight game now.)

"Albert Einstein, of course," Will Mandible would say. (Good old Will! I hear he's in the jack handle game now.)

"What?" Cleath Patella would cry, astonished. "You would rather spend a week with Albert Einstein than with Ava Gardner?" (Good old Cleath! I hear he's in the unclaimed freight game with Clyde Ilium.)

"Natch!" Will Mandible would answer.

"But why?" Sol Sacrum would ask. (Good old Sol! I hear he's a parking meter in Deal, New Jersey.)

"Because," Will Mandible would cry, "if I spent a week with Albert Einstein, maybe I would get so smart that I would be able to figure out a way to spend more than a week with Ava Gardner!"

Well sir, we laughed until our little uvulas were sore and then we went on to a host of other topics. "Do you think it's important to join a fraternity?" Murray Tarsus would ask. (Good old Murray! I hear he's in the mica game now.)

"Only if you are a boy," Bob Turbinute would answer. (Good old Bob! I hear he's in the sheared raccoon game now. The raccoon, incidentally, was invented by Milton Raccoon, whose career should be a source of guidance and inspiration to us all. Mr. Raccoon arrived in this country in 1907, penniless and not speaking a word of English. Today he is the Mayor of four of our principal cities.)

But to get back to the bull session — "What's the best thing to do when the girl you are dancing with insists on leading?" Eric Una would ask. (Good old Eric! I hear he's in the flutter valve game now.)

"Hit her with a folded newspaper," George Vertebra would answer. "Never hit a girl with your hand. They learn to associate the hand with food, and you must not confuse them." (Good old George! I hear he's in the folded newspaper game now.)

And so it went — the talk ranging the worlds of the arts and the sciences and the social graces, until we would climb, spent but happy, into our little hammocks... I wonder if they still make bull sessions the way they used to.

Sigma Nus To Honor Initiates At Formal

Nineteen newly-initiated Sigma Nus will be honored tonight at the White Rose Formal which will be held at the chapter house.

Gamma Phis who made three points last semester were honored by their alums last week at a "smarty party." "Rummy dummys" spent the evening planning their own entertainment.

Happy Week at the Phi Delt house found all the pledges especially happy that it was over.

SIGMA NU
Initiation of 19 men and the annual White Rose Dance spotlight the week's activities at Sigma Nu. Men honored tonight include Douglas Randall, Jerry O'Connell, Sherm Snow, Roger Williams, Kenneth Emerson, George Pugh, Frank Nusek, Thomas Requist, Kent Church, William Winters, John Carbon, Ronald Kloepfer, Butch Shaffer, Philip Nelson, Michael Cygler, Gordon Tieg, Gerald Kramer, Robert Robson and Kelvin Thomason. (And Butch).

Initiation for these men was held Sunday afternoon. Special alumni guests included brothers James Pieroni and O. B. Parker, and from Moscow Harold Cornelison, Harold Snow, Ken Hunter, Guy Wicks and Otto Schroeder. Keith (Hubie) Robinson was rewarded Tuesday as the pledges bound him over packed in ice to Charlene Hale, Alpha Chi. Robinson complained the day was too warm for a tubbing.

GAMMA PHI BETA
Gamma Phis spent an evening of hilarity last night when Alice Rae DeShazer was voted the Most Obnoxious Senior of the Week.

Last Sunday night in a ritual ceremony, the pledges awarded their big sisters paddles. Following the program, the pledges gave a fireside where they served punch and Valentine cookies. It is the hope of the pledges that the paddles remain hung on the wall.

Plans are underway for the Brother-Son banquet given in honor of all the boys on campus who are sons or brothers of Gamma Phis. The dinner will be held Sunday.

Tuesday night the 25 Gamma Phis who made about a three point were honored by the alums at a "smarty party," while the rest of the girls held a "rummy dummy party" at Pullman with a Chinese dinner.

DELTA GAMMA
Excitement reigned last week when Jane Blomquist and Betty Johnsmeyer rescued Bob Tidd and Chuck Canfield from the hands of the Fiji pledges.

Pot-Luck Supper At Wesley Sunday

MARRIED STUDENTS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND A POT-LUCK SUPPER WHICH WILL BE GIVEN BY THE WESLEY FOUNDATION FRIDAY.

WESTMINSTER FORUM IS PLANNING A SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR BROTHERHOOD WEEK.

WESLEY FOUNDATION
Methodist students are reminded that the Wesley Foundation meeting this Sunday will take the form of participation in the Kick-Off Banquet for Religious Emphasis Week.

All married students are invited to a pot-luck supper at the First Methodist Church this Friday starting at 6:30. They are asked to bring a main dish and a salad or dessert. This is the first program this semester. It will last until 8 p.m. There will also be a short movie and community singing.

The College Forum, a college student discussion group, will meet in Epworth Hall at 9:30 this Sunday to discuss Part II of the topic: "Measuring Religious Maturity."

ROGER WILLIAMS
There will be no Sunday evening meeting of the Baptist youth this Sunday.

The officers of Roger Williams met Tuesday for an executive meeting. A report on this meeting will be given at our next Sunday night meeting, February 27.

WESTMINSTER FORUM
A special program for Brotherhood Week is being planned. It will be given on the evening of February 27 in the Presbyterian church, starting at 5 p.m. Next week's Arg will give more details of the program.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS' ASSN.
Sunday's meeting will start at 4:30 p.m. There will be a short program for "Universal Student Day of Prayer." No evening meal will be served, but those planning to attend the Religious Emphasis Week kickoff banquet will go up together from the church.

There will be a coffee hour with the WSC chapter after the game Tuesday night. Coffee and cookies will be served at Our Savior's Church after the game.

CANTERBURY CLUB
Tickets are available for the pancake dinner in all the houses. If you cannot obtain tickets there, call Julie Whitney, 2117. Tickets will also be sold at the door. For adults, the price is $1.75 and for children, $1.45. Marcia Ellis is chairman of the dinner, and Allyn Dingle is in charge of publicity.

LUCKY DROODLES! WE'VE GOT 'EM!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.

IT'S EASY TO SEE that the Doodle above is titled: Tired anthropologist relaxing with better-tasting Lucky behind freshly dug-up fossil. No bones about it, Luckies taste better to all sorts of people. College smokers, for instance, prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the latest, greatest coast-to-coastest college survey. Again, the No. 1 reason for Luckies' wide lead: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted" — the famous Lucky Strike process — tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette... Lucky Strike.

Intramural Point Lead Threatened By Phi Delt

By DON SMITH

Phi Delta Theta this week emerged as a definite contender for the overall intramural points leader. The Phi Delt captured two trophies in the last two nights, winning both 'A' basketball and bowling. Beta Theta Pi is the present total point leader, 61 points ahead of the Phis who are in sixth place.

The rebounding and sharp shooting of Jim Howard and Wayne Walker paced the Phi Delta Theta team to the University 'A' basketball championship Wednesday night. Phi Delt defeated Chrisman Hall 2, the independent champs, 37 to 27.

The Phis jumped off to an early lead, scoring 11 points to Chrisman's 6 in the first quarter. With big Jim Howard controlling the backboards and scoring six points the Phi Delt upped their lead to 19 to 9 at half time.

Chrisman was never closer than ten points.

Phi Delt's Wayne Walker topped all scorers with 13 points, eight of them coming in the second half. He was closely followed by Howard with 12. Bob Rackham and Dick Cooke split the scoring honors for Chrisman potting eight points each. Six of Cooke's points came on free throws and all of Rackham's were scored from the field.

The Phi Delt gained the right to enter the University finals by downing Beta Theta Pi 36 to 25 in the fraternity finals. Howard paced the winners scoring 17 points, while Aubrey Stephens was high man for BTP with 13.

Chrisman won over Idaho Club 1 24 to 22, in a hard fought ball game for their spot in the finals. Idaho Club held a 10 to 0 lead at one point in the game, however, they fell apart at the seams, and Chrisman came on strong to win the game. Dick Cooke, Chrisman center, topped scorers potting 15 points, the majority of them coming in the second half after IC's Roger Hanson, 6-6 pivot man, had fouled out of the game.

Sinks Clincher
With ten seconds remaining in play and the score tied at 22-all Max Watt, Idaho Club guard drove in for a lay-up and was whistled for charging. Elmer Neu of Chrisman sank the second of his two free throws to insure the win.

Jim Cothorn of Sigma Chi turned in the highest individual point total of the playoffs scoring 25 points to lead his Sigma Chi team to a 53 to 34 victory over Delta Tau Delta in the battle for fifth place among the fraternities.

Phi Delt captured the bowling trophy Tuesday night defeating Sigma Alpha Epsilon 2 games to 1 in the University championship. The Phi Delt were unbeaten throughout the entire season.

Idaho Faces Top Skiers In NW Meet

A five-man Idaho ski team will make its bid for the Northwest Intercollegiate championships this weekend when they travel to Stevens, Pass, Washington, to enter the University of Washington sponsored meet.

Coach Ron Byers said the team will comprise of Bryan Ringheim, slalom; Reider Ullvalseter, slalom, cross-country and jumping; John Harrington, slalom; Helge Gagnum, jumping and cross-country, and Eric Berggren, slalom and cross-country.

Byers said this week that Idaho's chances lie primarily in its cross-country and jumping teams. At the WSC Invitational last weekend Idaho placed men third, fifth and sixth in jumping and first, second and fourth in cross-country.

Ringheim is the top slalom skier. Other entries in the meet will include Washington, the host, WSC, Wenatchee Junior College and Whitman College. Winners in the Northwest meet this weekend will be eligible for the National event held in Vermont in March.

Buhler Puts Heat On Leading Scorer

Jay Buhler, shortest regular on the Vandals' basketball team has moved to within four points of the team's leading scorer, Lefty Melton, according to figures released today including the Oregon State series of this week.

Buhler has 161 points in orthodox Division play, Melton 165. Melton leads in field goals with 58 and the number of personal fouls, 46. Center Jim Sather leads in rebounds with 99 and free throws made with 63. Bill Bauscher is the number three scorer with 140. Bob Falash has 130 and Sather rounds out the iron-man five of defense with 113.

Howard Scores

Jim Howard, (light shirt) Phi Delt center, drops in a bucket for his team as they raced to a 37-27 win over Chrisman Hall for the campus championship in Intramural A basketball. Howard poured in 12 points in the Wednesday game. Chrisman player Dick Cooke (dark shirt left) attempts to stop the 6-4 shooter. Leroy Clemons (light shirt right of Howard) and another Chrisman player are in on the action.

UW Invades Vandal Tank

The Vandal swimming team takes on a mighty task this afternoon at 3:30 when they attempt to upend high riding University of Washington Huskies. The Huskies are recently on top of the Northern Division swim stake and bring with them a record of having no setbacks in dual meets since 1942. The freshmen swimmers meet in a preliminary match.

The Huskies, winners of twelve ND titles and winner every year since 1946, sport a squad as strong this year as in any past year. Led by Dan Kramer, and John Goode, sprints and Dale Jewette in the breaststroke the Huskies seem well on their way to their 13th division championship and their tenth straight.

Coach Eric Kirkland of the Vandals will attempt to combat these Husky aces with his stalwarts as Fritz Holz, distance; Jerry Jones, sprints; Byron Richards, diving;

Dale Carlisle, backstroke; Jack Helle, breaststroke; Bruce Buckman, individual medley, and Dennis Jensen, distance. Holz, Jones, and Richards will carry the main load and are expected to hold their own against the swift moving Huskies.

Last week the Vandals lost to Oregon State by two points while two weeks ago the Huskies dropped the Beavers 64-20 in a display of their power. Another meet scheduled for Saturday against University of British Columbia has been canceled due to a split among the UCB squad.

All men were born free, but only athletes can go through college that way.

CHEERLEADERS ASK STUDENT SUPPORT

The Idaho cheerleaders urge Idaho students to join the crowd at Spokane tomorrow night and support the Idaho basketball team. A cheering section will set up with some 50 engineers as the nucleus. Students will be admitted with activity card and 75 cents. Game-time is 8 p.m. at the Spokane Coliseum.

Frosh Meet BYU Cagers

The Idaho frosh left here by plane yesterday and this morning for Twin Falls where they face Brigham Young University freshmen tonight and tomorrow. Coach Clem Parberry carried a 12-man travelling team, including two players yet to see action—Hubert Hill and Charlie Capps, recent enrollees.

Regular Center Bob Goold missed practice Wednesday due to a sprained ankle and knee bruise which he sustained in a P.E. class, but should see action this weekend. Trainer Packey Boyle termed the injury as not serious.

Making the trips with Parberry were Forwards Brent Thomson, Capps, Jerry Jorgenson, Jim Brannon and Bob Prestel; Centers Mark Cole and Goold; Guards Hill, Gary Simmons, Jack Mitchell, Bill Wilson and Gary Sather.

Simmons of Twin Falls and Jorgenson of Idaho Falls will be familiar faces to Twin Falls fans as they played most of their high school basketball in that area.

HELLDIVER TRYOUTS SUCCESSFUL

Last Monday 26 women and 6 men were judged by Helledivers on their ability and grace in the water. Russ Whitney, president of the club, stated that he was well pleased with the material and was sure that many of the swimmers would be of great help to Helledivers for the annual spring aquatic show.

Monday at 8:00 members will meet to decide on initiates. The tapping will take place during the week. Also to be discussed at the meeting is a possible theme for the water show.

GO FARTHER WITH SIGNAL GAS from Land's Signal Service

A tired band of Idaho Vandals returned here Wednesday following a four game jaunt through Oregon. Coach Harlan Hodges told reporters as he stepped from the plane "It was a rough pair of series, but the boys never let up. They gave it all they had all the way."

The Vandals played Oregon Friday and Saturday, splitting that series, then dropped a pair to Oregon State, the Northern Division champs, Monday and Tuesday. The wins by OSC gave them the crown and their eleventh and twelfth conference victories without setback.

The Beavers won 80-65 and 67-56 over the smaller Vandals.

Coach Hodges had high praise for his 6-4 center, Jim Sather, who scored 25 points in Tuesday's game, making 13 out of 14 free throw attempts.

"Jim had the big task of handling the big boy (Wade Halbrook) on defense and that's a big enough job. But when you can score 25 points and do that, then my hat's off to the guy. On defense Jim seldom let Halbrook in position to shoot and OSC had to get it over our defense to him."

The Vandal second five, who saw little action on the Oregon trip, scrimmaged the Vandals Frosh Wednesday afternoon after stepping from the plane and the iron-

IDAHO TESTS ZAGS TOMORROW

Coach Harlan Hodges takes his 12-man ball club to make its initial appearance in Spokane's new coliseum tomorrow night. The Vandals face Gonzaga, a team that beat them earlier in the season at Moscow.

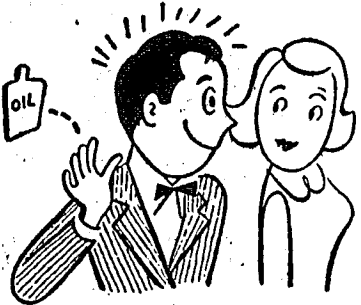

This will be Spokane's first look at the Vandals this season, Gonzaga has been one of the Northwest's top independent teams this season.

night ran in a pair of subs, guard Jay Webb and forward Tom Hoos. In capturing the Division title, the Beavers gave Coach Stals Gill his eighth in 27 years of coaching. The title qualified Oregon State to play in the Pacific Coast Conference playoffs at Corvallis beginning March 4.

The Vandals have three conference games remaining. Tuesday they host Washington State, next Friday and Saturday, Washington.
