Panels Conclude Religious Week

"It's 'deep purple' to go to church," said Dean Holt in Wednesday's RE Week closing panel, but he doesn't think this means that religiosity is replacing religion. The meaning of today's upswing in religious membership was discussed by a panel composed of Tom Hopkins, Msgr. Harrington, Dean Holt and Dr. Francis Seaman who represented faculty, students and church.

Preferential voting hit the fan up at Board meeting Wednesday night. Both caucus representatives seemed to be against the present system. Neither of them, however, were in favor of our suggestion of using a simple "X" type ballot.

They are in favor and will probably get a "weighted preferential system." Under this students list their choices in preferential order. When the votes are counted the top man on each ballot gets nine points, the second man gets eight and so on down the line. This system probably would work but we're still thinking the simple "X" way is the best.

It's too bad the Executive Board lost Parker. We heard that he only needs a few credits to graduate so he's taking them by correspondence while he attends a General Motors Sales School.

Parker has been one of the more active members of the Board so far this year. You who voted for him got your ballot's worth even if he was only here for one semester.

The three coeds nominated to take his place are all about equally qualified for the job. Their appointment will put one strong plank in the Board, some more representation for the Idaho coeds.

Three Universities Offer Fellowships In Public Affairs

Students interested in public affairs and public service careers who will receive their B.A. in June have been offered an opportunity to apply for fellowships to study at three different universities. The fellowships grant $1,200 a year plus college fees.

Beginning this June students will serve with a public agency such as TVA or a department in a city or state government. In the 1955-56 school session they will take graduate courses at the Universities of Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky.

Completion of the twelve-month training period entitles fellows to a certificate in public administration. They can be awarded a master's degree at either of the three universities upon completing a thesis and passing examinations.

Clinic Goal Is Better

A leadership and human relations clinic will be conducted Monday and Thursday evenings at the Moscow High School Auditorium March 7-12, according to Del McPherson, secretary of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce.

Charles M. Simmons, nationally known human relations consultant will conduct the clinic. The clinic is designed to help the individual obtain success through proper leadership and human relations training, said McPherson.

"College students are urged to attend, since the clinic offers valuable information useful to them," McPherson said. Tuition for the course is $15 per person, or $12.50 per person if a group of five or more attend. Married couples can take the course for a joint fee of $25. Classes begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday and Thursday evenings for a two and a half week period. To make reservations for the course contact Jim Melville, 919 West A or the Chamber of Commerce office in the Moscow Hotel.

Dr. Francis Seaman of the philosophy department, moderator of the panel, disagreed with Holt. He said that by inserting the words "under God" into the pledge of allegiance, Congress put the stamp of religion on the state.

Seaman accused the church of equating communism and atheism and making religion and democracy mean the same thing. "Nothing in communism contradicts Christianity," he said.

Msgr. Daniel Harrington denied that the church was identifying atheism and communism. He said that instead the church objected to communism's method of setting up an all-powerful state to replace God.

The Rev. Monsignor Daniel B. Harrington formally opened Religious Emphasis week activities with an address in the University auditorium Monday morning. He spoke on the subject of "God's Natural Law."

Other speakers that conducted seminars and ball sessions were Dr. Myron C. Cole, Dr. John E. Riley, Rev. Earl Anderson, Dr. Wendell Rich and Rev. Edgar Toews. These seminars were held in the Campus Christian Center and the LDS Institute.

Good Attendance
The 15 seminars in the RE week program had an average attendance of about 30, according to Dr. Weiss, director of the Institute of Christian Education. About 190

Musicians To Perform On March 3

Advanced students in the department of music will be heard in a varied program of vocal and instrumental numbers Thursday evening, March 3 in the Music Building.

Featured performers will be Margaret Johnson and Beverly Gregerson, pianists; Margaret Fox, soprano; LaVonne Willson, Karen Hurdstrom and Rochelle Henderson, contraltos; John Eikum, tenor; Bill Herr, baritone and Betty Burke Sanders, organist.

Accompanists will be Shirley Danielson, Nan Soden and S. Keith Forney of the music faculty.

Four of the singers will combine their talents in a performance of the song-cycle, "In a Persian Garden," by Lehman. Mrs. Sanders will be featured in a group of numbers on the organ.

The concert, which is open to the public, will begin at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

day and Thursday evenings for a two and a half week period. To make reservations for the course contact Jim Melville, 919 West A or the Chamber of Commerce office in the Moscow Hotel.
Charles Simmons has been in the human relations and leadership field since his sophomore year in college at Central College, McPherson, Kan. He studied further at Columbia University, New York University and Washington University.
Simmons has conducted human relations and leadership courses all over the West Coast and also conducted a television program in the San Francisco Bay area, entitled, "Human Relations on Parade." The course is being sponsored by the Moscow Chamber of Commerce.

Pros Will Shine Saturday Night

Shined shoes should prevail at the International dance scheduled for 9 p. m. Saturday. In charge of shine instruction is a local professional, George Bellos on the far left. Either taking instruction or shining are Dr. Boyd Martin, Helge Gagnum, Siv Bergstrom, Dr. E. W. Tisdale and Robert Tracy.

Mapping out plans for the International dance are Abdul Kamal, vice president of Cosmopolitan Club; Helge Gagnum and Sally Spence, dance co-chairmen; Jose Cabrera, publicity; Darlene Thomas, decorations; Siv Bergstrom, entertainment; (rear row) Thane Johnson, publicity; Bob Tracy, faculty adviser and Olaf Stavik, Cosmopolitan president.

WSC's Butch Turns Out To Be A Beatrice

By GARY PIETSCH

Since the 10-0 victory over Washington State College last fall, our friends across the state line haven't been able to get anything right.

They thought that they had a Butch but it turned out they've got a Beatrice.

Veterinarians at the WSC clinic Monday stated that it has been determined that Butch really is a female, although for some time previous to being brought to the campus from central Idaho his sex was in doubt. So once again, as during the reign of Butch IV, our neighbors will be forced to say Beatrice if they want to be strictly correct in referring to their mascot.

To ward off possible panleucopenia virus, a disease peculiar to the cat family, Butch received an inoculation. This was done by four senior vet students, who managed to get the cat's tail through the wire in the cage to give it the shot.

When it came time for the examination to determine the cat's sex, the vets didn't find the going too easy. According to reports received from WSC, old "putty tail" got a little fussy and tore up four broom handles and a one by four inch board.

At the conclusion of the examination, Beatrice returned to the undisturbed life of her cage, content to play with a big rubber tire provided for her enjoyment.

For the ultra-utmost in big cats diets, WSC vets are feeding the feline the usual diet of horse-meat enriched with antibiotics, "to make it grow bigger and faster."

Maybe they should feed some of this "groom" stuff to the WSC football team as well as the vets who will be caring for Beatrice, so they can keep up this "armament" race.

In presenting Butch V to the WSC student body last Saturday night during the half-time ceremonies of the Oregon State College game, Governor Arthur B. Langlie theorized that his predecessor had died of a broken heart as a result of the Cougar's defeat at the hands of the Vandal football squad.

Governor Langlie stated that it was only appropriate that Butch IV should be replaced by the fightingest cougar the entire state of Idaho could provide.

Snow Comes But Leaves Early

An early morning storm dropped some four inches of heavy snow on the Moscow area yesterday, but mild temperature throughout the day helped to quickly dissipate the snow blanket before nightfall.

The snowfall, heaviest of the winter season, apparently was taken in stride by University students. The highway department urged motorists to drive cautiously. The snow was generally in the northern sections of Idaho and extended to the Panhandle.

Six inches of new snow was reported at Podtatch and eight to 10 inches at Harvard. Genesee's fall was slight.

Motorists in the Panhandle were advised to carry chains east of Coeur d'Alene. There are 14 inches of new snow on Lookout Pass.

Other sections of the state were having slightly less snow with Riggins reporting two inches of new snow and a wind which caused drifts. In southeastern Idaho, there was eight inches of snow at Macks Inn. Temperatures in the southern part of the state remained below normal.

Voting Methods Viewed; Parker Leaves Board

Preferential voting and a resignation were top items at Wednesday's ASUI Executive Board meeting. Jack Parker officially resigned since he will leave the University to study at the General Motors Sales School this semester.

Drew Field and John Thornock, representing the United and Independent groups respectively, gave their views on the University voting system.

Field told the Board that at the present time he couldn't give the United Caucus' opinion of the voting system, however, he expressed a few of his own ideas. Drew told of his personal dissatisfaction in the present system but he still thought any voting system should be one based on proportional representation.

Other Systems Explained
Thornock explained two other voting systems to the Board. He too, expressed dissatisfaction with the present system and was in favor of some proportional representation plan.

The Board shelved the issue until the next meeting. If the system is greatly changed it will call for revision in the ASUI constitution, but if the new plan is within the Constitution phrase, "to a rule of proportional representation as ad-

Musicians' Ball Six Bands Small

Have you ever had a secret desire to dance to six bands in one evening?

The Musicians' Ball March 11 at WSC in the CUB ballroom is your answer.

Wheeler Kelly, Bill Isotalo, Jim Purcell & Trio, Dale Ruark, Jim Watson and "The Pastels", Phil Johnson and his "Collegians" will provide dance music at half hour intervals.

The Chi Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Simfonia is sponsoring the dancing from 9 to 12. A limit of 300 tickets goes on sale for $1.50 Monday, Feb. 28, in Pullman at the CUB, Corner Drug and the WSC bookstore.

Mick McCarty presented the Board with a report on the Vandal Riders Organization. The Vandal Riders are seeking a tie with the University either through the ASUI organization or through a University department.

After reading a tentative Vandal Rider constitution the Board passed a recommendation that the Vandal Riders be made an agency accountable to the ASUI.

Reid Lau told the Board that Kappa Sigma was having difficulties with a foreign student finance

500-year-old 'Lute Song' To Show At Idaho

The Chinese play "Lute Song," which has been acted for 500 years by strolling players, troupers and Chinese acting groups, has had the longest continuous run of any play in stage history, according to publicity releases. University audiences will have an opportunity to see this classic when it is presented March 4 and 5 in the University Auditorium by the University of Idaho drama department.

The Chinese classic, adapted for the Occidental stage by Will Irwin and Sidney Howard, has been acclaimed as one of Broadway's outstanding plays and is included in the Burns Mantle edition, "Best Plays of 1945-46."

Starring Mary Martin and Yul Brunner, "Lute Song" opened on Broadway Feb. 6, 1946, at the Plymouth theatre. A hit with American audiences from the very beginning, it has even been more popular than "Lady Precious Stream," and "Yellow Jacket," both of which have been produced by the University of Idaho drama department.

As a young enthusiast of the Chinese theatre in San Francisco in the 1890s, Will Irwin was attracted to the play "Pi-Pa-Ki" and saw in it many possibilities for production in English. Working in collaboration with Broadway playwright Sidney Howard, who is remembered for his many contributions to the American theatre, Irwin realized his ambition when "Lute Song" emerged in 1920.

Before its Broadway opening "Lute Song" was presented in Stockbridge, Mass., in 1930. Following that it played at a number of colleges and universities, notable the University of Hawaii, where the actors were young American citizens of Chinese parentage.

When Broadway producer Michael Myerberg wanted the play as a starring vehicle for versatile Mary Martin, a musical score was desired. New research by the two authors uncovered songs interspersed with the Chinese text which had been written in 1404 by a scholar named Kao Tong Kia.

New York theatre goers were intrigued by the folk-tale simplicity and timeless appeal of this classic Chinese drama. However, the Broadway version of "Lute Song" was more strongly flavored with musical comedy techniques than with China's classical tradition.

Designer Robert Edmon Jones was given an opportunity to provide a dozen exotic settings and at least 50 original costumes. Musical scores were handled by Raymond Scott with dances by Nimura.

Mary Martin gave a sensitive portrayal of Tchae-ou-niang, the devoted wife, and Yul Brunner, himself a quarter Chinese, was outstanding in the role of the scholar-husband, Tsai Yong.

The Irwin-Howard adaptation of "Lute Song," without musical interpolations, will be presented by the Idaho cast. Dramatic interpretation is under the direction of Prof. Jean Collette. She will be assisted by Prof. Edmund Chavez, technical director.

Heading the large cast will be Sue McMahon and Gary Hudson. Ronald Tan will be featured in the dance sequences which contribute to the symbolism and artistry of this Chinese classic.

See The World Saturday Night

Cosmopolitan Club's all-campus "Dance of the Nations" will be held Saturday in the SUB ball rooms from 9-12 p. m. with the dance music of Chuck Clauser, fortune telling, academic shoe shines, a balloon dance and bingo sparking the evening's activity.

Approximately 20 University professors will shine—for a price—their students' shoes.
Among the professors will be Harry Caldwell, professor of geography; Clifford Döbler, professor of political science; Clem Parberry, baseball coach; Archey R. Harney, extension editor; Lt. Col. James A. Moore, professor of military science; Francis Seaman, professor of philosophy; Warren J. Wolfe, chairman of languages.
E. W. Tisdale, assistant director of wildlife; Thomas F. Hopkins, speech instructor; Darwin L. Mayfield, professor of physical sciences; Robert Tracy, professor of radio.

Ernest Wohletz, dean of forestry; Leon G. Green, head of men's physical education; Robert S. Gibb, director of athletics; Everett Ellis, professor of wood utilization; Robert Hosack, professor of political science; Boyd A. Martin, head of social sciences and William Banks, professor of English.

Larry Larson, Moscow Junior Chamber of Commerce member, will also be shining shoes.

The "bootblacks" and their wives will be patrons and patronesses for the dance.

Mortar Board members will run a bingo concession during the dance. Abdul Kamal and Mrs. Bob Tracy will read palms, "if you cross our palms first—with silver," Kamal said.

Intermission entertainment will be dancing by club members in

Game Goers To See Gals In 'Waddle'

Spurs, sophomore women's honorary at the University of Idaho, will present their annual "Spir Waddle" at Saturday night's basketball game in the Memorial gym.

Between halves of the Washington-Idaho game these sophomore women will march through their tradition drill. The "Waddle" has been presented by the Spurs since 1939, usually toward the close of basketball season.

A new drill is made up and directed each year by Mrs. William H. Boyer, Spur sponsor.

Other annual projects of the girls' service group are the "Nickel Hop," a mixer dance put on in the fall, an exchange with the WSC Spur chapter, the maypole dance at the Mother's Day program, tapping and initiation and a spring picnic with the Intercollegiate Knights.

Spurs serve by ushering at ASUI functions, athletics and helping campus organizations.

Peace Meet Scheduled For March

March 16 and 17 marks the date for the eighth annual conference of the Borah Foundation Conference on "The Causes of War and the Conditions of Peace." The theme of the conference this year will be "The United Nations—Is It the Road to Peace?"

The William Edgar Borah Foundation for the Outlawry of War was created in April, 1929 by Samuel O. Levinson of Chicago. The foundation was established at the University of Idaho through a gift of $55,000.

The donor, Samuel O. Levinson, was the originator of a plan for the outlawry of war which Senator Borah championed in the United States Senate for many years. This plan for the outlawry of war served as a basis for the Kellogg Peace Pact, which was ratified in January 15, 1929.

When the late Levinson, a prominent Chicago attorney, created this foundation he stated it was "in recognition of the contribution of William Edgar Borah, United States Senator from Idaho to the cause of World Peace and his advocacy of Outlawry of War and also out of deep admiration and friendship for him."

The purpose of the Borah Foundation is to establish at the University of Idaho a channel for the promotion and better understanding of International Relations.

Dr. Boyd A. Martin, chairman of social sciences, is the Chairman of the Borah Foundation Committee.

The conference this year marks eight continuous years of conferences since and including 1948.

Ricky Jones Wins Photo Competition

Ricky Jones, with his first-place photography, "Twenty Seconds to Victory," won the $15 prize money from the SUB photography contest. Judging was completed yesterday. The winners will be posted in the SUB cafeteria.

Second prize of $10 went to Maurice Clements and third prize of $5 went to Glen Gruler. Judges for the contest were Dr. Darwin Mayfield, assistant professor of physical sciences, Prof. Roy A. Bell of photography and Karl Gotsch, junior in agriculture.

The "Campus Life" photo contest was to be judged last Saturday, but due to injury of one of the judges, it was postponed.

ASUI Dance Committee Sponsors Mixer Tonight

Come one, come all to the mixer tonight after the game, says the ASUI Dance Committee. Music will be furnished by the John Baker orchestra and admission is free. It's stag or drag in the central ballroom from the end of the game until 11.

The Samba will be the featured dance at today's dance class held in the central ballroom. Teachers will be Helen Hanford and George Heber.

"Instead of going for coffee, come up and learn a new samba step," said Jan Avery, dance committee publicity chairman. The class will be held this afternoon from 4 to 5:15 p.m. and the Theta social chairman said that the Thetas will be well represented at this class.

More girls are still asked to turn out for the dance class, and according to Miss Avery, "We like to see the boys come even if no girls are present."

The program for the dance class now schedules the teaching of the mambo on March 11.

On Racial Discrimination

"End Discrimination, Fraternities Told" headed a recent article in the Spokesman-Review. "Burlington, Vt., Feb. 19, (AP)—University of Vermont trustees voted today all fraternities and sororities on the campus must remove all discriminatory clauses from their constitutions within seven years.

"Failure to do so within that period will result in revocation of the society's charter. "Action of the board came after the students voted solidly in favor of such a move."

And so it has begun to run all over the nation as a result of the recent Supreme Court decision on desegregation which reverses the 1896 "equal but separate" ruling. At last Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation of 1863 is being fulfilled.

The Supreme Court has definitely made it a violation of the laws guaranteed by the 14th Amendment to permit any segregation in any part of the American system, and this is as true on the campus as anywhere. The Justices wrote, "We conclude that in the field of public education the doctrine of 'separate but equal' has no place."

In the words of Mr. Justice Harlan, appointee to the Supreme Court, we will have integration only to the extent that students, teachers and school officials become "color blind." This makes it emphatic that for students a start must be made in the living facilities on a campus. It would seem necessary to end discrimination in the fraternities and sororities to "develop more understanding, confidence and tolerance," according to Ernest V. Hollis, Chief of College Administration of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

He concludes, "Education is running its greatest race with catastrophe. If we lose, the catastrophe is not ours alone in the South. It will weaken the moral fabric of the whole nation. Our religion, our democracy, the whole American way of life will be judged in part by our behavior on the educational desegregation issue."

DEAR JASON

Dear Jason:

You would think that by this time the University could have made arrangements to have channel 2 or KREMTV placed on the antenna system which now feeds most of the campus living groups.

This station began operation in December but the University has for some reason either neglected to make arrangements to have facilities placed on the tower antenna or want to soak these living groups some more. (However the line fee has been very reasonable for past hookups.)

Many of the living groups, I feel, would like a chance to see Channel 2 and I believe they should be on that line in an equal manner as the other two television stations.

Informal garb or native clothing will be dance dress, according to the dance co-chairman, Sally Spence. "If we have informal dress" she said, "students can come right from the ballgame to the dance."

George Bellos, Greek immigrant who has been shining shoes in Moscow for 36 years, will be at the dance to help the pros "polish up" their talents.

Bellos has financed schooling for his three children by shining shoes and now, in a way, will be helping another through school—the refugee student who will be sponsored by the club.

Drag Or... The dance will be stag or date, dance co-chairman Helge Gagnum said, to satisfy the many people who want to see the Cosmopolitan exhibits and have their shoes shined. Single admission is 75 cents. Per couple admission is 1.50 "rask-buckknicks."

Proceeds from the dance and concessions will help the club sponsor a refugee student scholarship to the University next year, club president Olaf Stavik said.

Making Plans... On the dance committee are Tony Dumhart, Roger McPike, Thane Johnson and Darlene Thomas.

Club members are asked to meet at International House tonight at 7 and tomorrow night at 6 to help decorate for the dance.

ing plan they supported this year. Lau explained that the fraternity had understood that if they sponsored a foreign student's room and board the University could make arrangements for a tuition scholarship.

He said that the student had enrolled here with that in mind and now has had to borrow money to pay the tuition. The difference in currency between the United States and foreign countries makes it quite difficult to bring money out of some countries, Lau said, and the student has encountered this difficulty.

The Board will make plans to use some of the Campus Chest money to help out in situation as this. The latter motion was made by Board member Terrell Davis.

THE CARE AND FEEDING OF BOOKS

You busy college people—you with your classes and your studying and your social activities and your three-legged races—it is no wonder that you have so little time for reading. I mean reading for the pure pleasure of it, not to cram for exams. It is a sad omission, and my heart goes out to you. I do, however, take comfort from the fact that the graduation season approaches. Many of you will soon leave the hurly-burly of college for the tranquility of the outside world. Oh, you'll love it on the outside! It is a quiet life, a gracious and contemplative life, a life of ease and relaxation, of plenty of time to enjoy the treasures of literature.

It is with you in mind that I sit now in my cane-bottomed rocker and close my kindly gray eyes and smoke a mellow Philip Morris cigarette and remember books that made me laugh and books that made me cry and, remembering, laugh and cry again. It is, I say, with you in mind that I sit thus and rock thus and close my kindly gray eyes and smoke a Philip Morris thus and laugh and cry thus, for I wish to recommend these lovely and affecting books to you so that you too may someday sit in your cane-bottomed rockers and close your kindly gray eyes and smoke a mellow Philip Morris and remember books that made you laugh and books that made you cry and, remembering, laugh and cry again.

Sitting and rocking, my limpid brown eyes closed in reverie, a plume of white smoke curling lazily upward from my excellent Philip Morris cigarette, I remember a lovely and affecting book called Blood on the Grits by that most talented young Southerner, Richard Membrane Haw. It is a tender and poignant story of a sensitive Alabama boy who passes safely through puberty only to be devoured by boll weevils... A lovely and affecting book.

I puff my splendid Philip Morris cigarette and close my dancing blue eyes and recall another book, a thrilling true adventure, lovely and affecting, called I Climbed Everest the Hard Way by Cliff Sherpa. Mr. Sherpa, as everyone knows, was the first man to reach the peak of Mt. Everest by tunneling from below. In his book he gives a lovely and affecting account of his trip, which was not as easy as it sounds, you may be sure.

I light another merry Philip Morris cigarette and close my lambent hazel eyes and recollect another book—Life on the Farm by Dick Woolly. This is a short book—only 55 words—and rather a dull one. It would not be worth mentioning here were it not for the fact that the author is a sheep.

I exhale a cloud of snowy white smoke from my bracing Philip Morris cigarette and shut my laughing green eyes and think of the vast, vast array of historical novels that have given me pleasure.

There is Blood on the Visor by Richard Membrane Haw (he who wrote the lovely and affecting Blood on the Grits). There is Cold Steel and Hot Flashes by Emmaline Prentiss Moulting. There is The Black Shield of Sigafos by Wruth Wright. There is Four Quarts in a Galleon by William Makepiece Clambroth. There are many, many others, all lovely, all affecting.

But sitting here, drawing on my matchless Philip Morris cigarette, my saucy amber eyes closed tightly, I am thinking that the loveliest, most affecting of all historical novels is May Fuster's classic, I Was a Serf for the F.B.I. Mrs. Fuster, justly famed for her rich historical tapestries, has outdone herself in this tempestuous romance of Angela Bodice, fiery daughter of an entailed fief, who after a great struggle rises to the lofty position of head-lineman to the Emperor of Bosnia and then throws it all away to lead the downtrodden peasants in a revolt against the mackerel tax. She later becomes Ferdinand Magellan. But the list of fine books is endless, as you will soon discover who are about to leave the turmoil of the campus and enter into the serene world outside, where a man has time to read and rock and close his rakish taupe eyes and smoke good Philip Morris cigarettes.

Religious Speakers Visit Living Groups

Religious Emphasis Week was actively observed by several living groups on campus this week when they entertained guest speakers at dinner and "bull sessions." Initiation and costume dances are playing a large part in campus social life. Sigma Chi held their annual waterfront dance, and Phi Phi went to Sun Valley for their annual ski dance. Sigma Nus held their annual White Rose Formal.

"Turn about is fair play" at the Theta house as members donned pledge pins and did housework. It is rumored that the Sigma Chis had the same treatment.

The upperclassmen's dinner-dance was a success again with Rod Burton's Collegians providing the music. The Juniors, who decorated for the dance, carried out the waterfront theme, complete with a sandy beach and footprints covering the walls, ceiling, and dance floor. The dainty footprints are accredited to Dick Moore and Kenny Wright.

When the pledges "snook" Friday, all the members were overjoyed at the idea of letting them clean up after the dance when they returned. Some members even helped the pledges by tearing the decorations into small bits.

Surprise! The pledges announced that reversal day will begin with a housework party for members.

Many thanks to the Tri Deltas for the use of the silverware. Even at the waterfront dance, potato salad is hard to eat with the fingers!

DELTA TAU DELTA
A fireside has been planned for tomorrow night with the house quartet scheduled to supply entertainment. Jerry Zimmerman is general chairman.

Last night the Deltas serenaded Irene Coulter, Alpha Chi, in honor of her pinning to Bill Herr. A mattress ride is expected while the snow is still on the ground.

A beard-growing contest between members and the pledges starts this weekend in preparation for the Russian Ball. The bet is based on the number of beards and the healthiest beards. Judging will be done by a group of impartial (?) members.

Another Delt car careened over one of the many surrounding hills. This time, however, the car was stopped by a tree on the Sigma Chi lawn.

PI BETA PHI
The Pi-Phi Chalet was a backdrop for the Sun Valley Serenade Ski Dance, put on last Friday by the darlings of the pledge class. Great would-be skiers cavorted through a make-believe Sun Valley, complete with Ram's Head Inn.

Wednesday night the neat pledges had a fun type exchange with the Ace Gams.

Shirley Turner, Lewiston, was an overnight guest this week.

Please note all the slender people fitting out of the Pi Phi house—yes, Lent has begun and so have the diets.

"Sammy" Weitz, Phi Delt, was recently tubbed for his pinning to Helen West. He was picked on while on leave—what a vacation!

ALPHA TAU OMEGA
The successful ATO-Pi Phi exchange was a week ago last Saturday. Lunch was served at the two houses and entertainment was provided afterward at the ATO

Swimming Group Plans Initiations For New Pledges

Wednesday noon 18 new Hell-divers were tapped as the result of a recent tryout. This will bring total membership in the club up to 46.

The 18 were: Julie Whitney, Alyce Sweeney and Connie Spaulding, DGs; Jan Williams and Shirley Byrne, Gamma Phis; Ann Beardmore and Helen West, Pi Phis; Dick Shern, Delt.

Sandy Fuller, Dot Drayton, Helen Handford, and Karen Wilson, Alpha Phis; Chet Hall, town; Jackie Wainwright, Pat Morgan, Carol Reicher, and Margaret Sullivan, Tri-Deltas; and Pat Rojan, Ethel Steel.

Informal initiation will be held next Monday evening at 7:30 in the gym. Swimming suits will be worn.

Iron Angels Club Receives Advice From Car Dealers

I. E. Clary, C. Cunningham, local car dealers, and Assistant Police Chief G. Mendenhall were present at the last meeting of the Iron Angels Rod and Cycle Club held Tuesday in the SUB. They were present to ask questions about helping the new club, according to Bob Merritt, club president.

Plans for a club run to be held during the middle of March were discussed. About 15 prospective members from town were present.

An invitation will be extended to the students of WSC to attend the next meeting.

A delegation from the club met yesterday with Dean Decker to talk over the question of school sponsorship. Both Decker and the club delegation came to the general conclusion that school sponsorship might not be the best at this time.

No definite decision was made waiting discussion by the club.

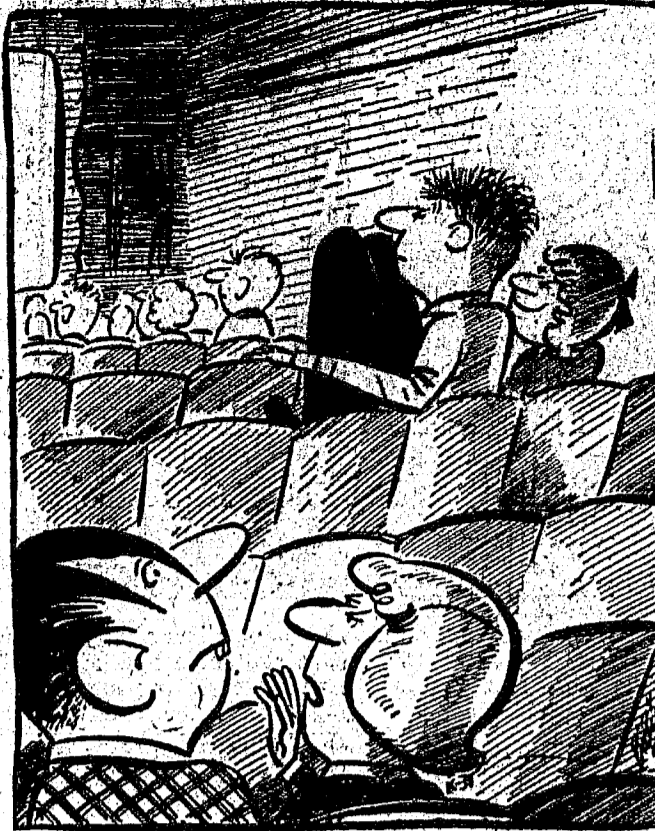

An invitation is extended to students to attend the next meeting which will be Tuesday, March 8 in conference room B of the SUB.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA
Thetas started the week off with a Kappa Sig house exchange. K Sigs and Thetas ate at both houses and then danced at the fellows' house.

Tuesday evening the house was informally addressed by Dr. Myron C. Cole, Portland. The coeds, over coffee and cookies, enjoyed asking questions and discussing different phases of religion with Dr. Cole.

Not to forget something important—yesterday the Theta pledges wore paper pins as members and the members wore grotesque paper pledge pins. Perhaps the pledges are anticipating initiation, Sunday, but all had fun.

Foreign Students Invited To Dinner

A fellowship dinner will be sponsored by the Westminster Forum Sunday for campus foreign students. Monsignor Harrington will be the guest speaker the retreat to be held this week-end in connection with Newman Day.

Roger Williams Club will feature an "at home" night each Saturday night.

DISCIPLES STUDENT FELLOWSHIP
The regular Disciples Student Fellowship will meet from 5 to 7:20 p.m. Sunday at the First Christian Church, Third and Jefferson Streets. There will be fun, recreation, supper and devotions.

Students wishing transportation to Bible school at 9:45 a.m., church services at 11 a.m. or Disciples Student Fellowship at 5 p.m., call either Mrs. Harold Thoreson, 4471, 4471; Jim Nakano, 2-8951, or Marion Fisk, 2-5031.

NEWMAN CLUB
Monsignor Harrington will be the guest speaker this week-end at a retreat in connection with Newman Day, which is Sunday, Feb. 27.

The retreat will begin Friday at 7 p.m. with services, followed by Stations of the Cross and Benediction. Mass will be held at 6:30 and 8 a.m. Saturday. Services will be held again at 7 p.m.

The Catholic students are asked to attend communion as a group at the 9:30 a.m. mass Sunday. Monsignor Harrington will speak at that mass and also at the communion breakfast, which will be held in the Parish Hall after the mass.

The retreat will be concluded by a supper and social gathering beginning at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Parish Hall.

All students are urged to attend the events throughout the week-end, and are invited to bring friends.

ROGER WILLIAMS
Roger Williams' regular Sunday night meeting will be at 5:30 p.m. in the basement of the church. Ron Leppke is in charge of the meeting and Jeri Kuka is in charge of the supper.

OVERHOLSUR-HENRIKSSON
The wedding of Sonia Henriks-son, Pi Beta Phi, and Wif Over-holsur, Sigma Nu, took place Feb-ruary 5 in the Sandpoint Lutheran Church. Sorority sisters of the bride assisted at the reception and sang "Pi Phi Honeymoon."

Sonia and Wif are residing in Colfax where Wif is teaching in the Colfax Elementary School.

Eight Will Speak On Idaho Program

"Here We Have Idaho," heard 6:30 p.m. on Mondays over KRFL, will feature Ruth Erbe and Harvey Scott who will talk on the high school journalism conference.

Warren Petersen will tell the radio audience about the forth-coming drama production "Lute Song" and Charles Oldham will discuss the proceedings of the International Relations Club.

Sports enthusiasts will be inter-ested in hearing John Mix inter-view Larry Golding in connection with Inter-Mural Sports and Bob Stalley talk to Ron Byers, ski team advisor. Music will be by the Un-iversity Band.

Bilingual School Offers Program

For the third consecutive sum-mer, the accredited bilingual school sponsored by the University Autonoma de Guadalajara, and members of the faculty of Stanford University will offer a varied pro-gram from July 3 to Aug. 13.

Courses will be given in art, creative writing, folklore, geogra-phy, history, language and litera-ture. Tuition and board and room will cost $225. For more informa-tion students may write to Prof. Juan B. Rael, Box K, Stanford Un-iversity, Calif.

It's highway robbery!

For sheer fun out on the road, Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars!

Up to this year, maybe there were reasons for wanting one of the higher-priced cars. If you demanded something really special in the way of driving fun, you simply had to pay a premium to get it.

Not any more! The Motoramic Chevrolet has changed all that. Who could wish for more excitement than the new 162-h.p. "Turbo-Fire V8" delivers? (For those who do, 180-h.p. is optional at extra cost in all V8 models.) Chevrolet also offers the two highest powered sizes in its field.

Come in and see how the Motoramic Chevrolet is stealing the thunder from the high-priced cats!

Graduate's Survey Helps Grocermen

A graduate student at the University of Idaho who earned his college money by working in a grocery store now plans to do something for grocermen—help them by providing information on the storing, displaying and selling of frozen foods.

"In recent years, frozen foods have become big business, but can become bigger," said Fred Cockrill of Great Falls, Mont.

"Frozen food sales in 1952 totaled 300 million pounds and in 1953, 600 million pounds. By sending out questionnaires to every retail groceryman in Idaho, I hope to compile information which will be of value to those same grocers. Each one answering the questionnaire will receive a copy of the results."

Cockrill, who is doing his graduate work in the College of Business Administration, also hopes to get enough information to write a thesis necessary for the master's degree he is to receive in June.

Cockrill said, that as far as he had been able to determine similar studies had been conducted in only three other states—Oregon, California and Louisiana.

30 Cadets Are Pledges In Honorary

Last night 30 freshman and sophomore cadets were formally pledged into the Idaho Chapter of Pershing Rifles. Don Omans, first lieutenant of the local chapter, said the new group of pledges will be initiated within the next two weeks.

Omans also stated that the formal initiation would last for a whole week with pledges wearing drill team uniforms. These uniforms consist of a regular ROTC uniform with the addition of white helmets, white scarves, white leggings and rifles.

Cadets tapped in last night's pledging were Sophomores Curtis E. Anderson, Keith A. Barrick, Henry R. Biecha, Philip O. Edwards, William J. Emacio, John A. Neal, Lynn E. Robertson, Theodore A. Tate, Thomas F. Trail and Frank M. VanBrunst.

The Pershing Rifles chapter is planning a formal dinner in March. Officers of the local chapter are: John Kaku, captain; Don Omans, first lieutenant; Richard Cook, Charles Lents and Robert Sewell, second lieutenants.

"You know why I'm noxious," said Holman, "And why I keep jumpin' and squimmin'." "I'd stop if I could, But what is the good? Because it ain't me, it's the voimin'."

Young Is Far East Clinic Spark

Frank Young, associate professor of physical education and assistant director of athletics at the U. of I., has been named a leader in a Boxing Coaches and Officials Clinic for the Far East Command during the month of June.

Official Board of Regents' approval for Young's leave of absence was announced today by Dr. D. R. Theophilus, acting president of the University.

A member of the Idaho faculty since 1947, Young made a similar trip to the Far East in 1951. Purpose of the clinic is to assist referees boxing teams, giving them the latest training methods, boxing techniques and other new factors related to the sport. Young earned his master's degree at the University of Oregon, and taught and coached eight years in North Dakota before joining the Idaho faculty.

Interviews To Be Held

Robert L. Thompson and Thomas T. Turner of the United States Department of State, will be here Monday Feb. 28 to present the new career opportunities in the foreign service of the United States.

Thompson, chief of the division of publications, was appointed to the Department of State in 1946. The interviews are open to all students or faculty interested in the Foreign Service. The interviews will be held at 9 a.m. in Ad 336.

'Formosan Tangle' To Be Considered At IRC Meeting

"The Formosan Tangle" is the topic for a panel discussion at the next meeting of the International Relations Club, Tuesday, March 1, at 4 p.m. in SUB conference room A.

The panel discussion will concern American foreign policy in regard to Formosan and Asian policy and the significance of recent Russian and Chinese moves in regard to the shaping of United States' policy.

Dr. Robert Hosack, chairman of political science, will serve as moderator for the panel with Dr. Harry Caldwell, assistant professor of geography, Dr. Malcolm Hause, associate professor of political science and history, Lt. Leroy Ort, assistant professor of air science and Dr. Bernard Borning, assistant professor of political science will serve as panel members.

After the panel has discussed the problem there will be an open discussion.

Highway Officials Here For Clinic

More than 60 highway officials from northern Idaho arrived at the University of Idaho yesterday and today for the fourth annual Department of Highways' Materials Clinic sponsored here by the civil engineering department.

William Boughton, district materials technician from Coeur d'Alene, opened Thursday's program with a talk on "Subsurface Drainage, Investigation and Correction."

Other speakers Thursday included L. F. Erickson, state materials engineer at Boise; Jack Slove, testing engineer in the Boise laboratory; Phil Marsh, assistant state materials engineer at Shoshone. Don Herak of Spokane, district engineer for the Portland Cement Association, will be the main speaker this morning. Others on the program included Gib Schuster of Seattle, Portland Cement Association engineer; James G. Mecham, assistant professor of civil engineering at the University and Dwight Crofford, safety director for the state highway department in Boise.

Contests, Panels, Prizes To Highlight Conference

Writing contests, panels lead by journalism students, two speakers and five winners' plaques are some new ideas Dr. Granville Price has combined with the regular program for the annual High School Journalism Conference, March 25-26.

"The conference is not only for high schools offering a course in journalism, but also for those with a publication," said Price, chairman of journalism. Every high school in Idaho has been invited to the meetings which will be held in the Student Union.

Friday students will hear two speakers, John Corlett of the Boise Statesman and Dorothy Rochan Power of the Spokesman-Review. Corlett's subject, "Politicians and Newsmen," will be heard at 10 a.m. Miss Power, who will speak at the 6 p.m. banquet, has selected the topic, "We'll Never Regret It!"

Panels led by eight students are scheduled for both conference days. Gary Pietsch, Fred Williams, Jane Querna, Ruth Brede, John Hughes, Steve Emerine, Ricky Jones and Darlene Duffy will present different phases of journalism.

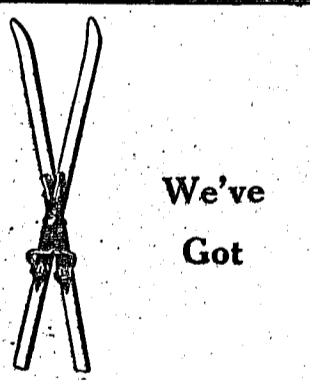

Suggestions for improvement and criticism of the high school newspapers will be discussed in groups led by Harvey Scott, Marie Ingebrigtson, Betty Brooks, Ray Sipes, Tom Neal and Marilyn Melis.

One delegate from each high school will enter the news and editorial writing contests. Judges will be Ruth Brede, Jane Querna, Julie Temple, David Lange, Warren Peterson and Mollie Godbold.

Theta Sigma, women's journalism honorary, is in charge of registration and housing. Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary, is providing entertainment and special newspaper sections for the delegates.

Plaques for the winning students and newspapers are being presented by The Daily Idahoan, Lewis

GI Benefits Increased, VA Says

Two Korean GI Bill training amendments increased educational benefits for hundreds of Idaho veterans having less than two years service as of Jan. 31, 1955, Leon Fields, manager, Veterans' Administration Regional office, Boise, said today.

Public Law 7, passed by Congress and signed by the President last month, provides for extension of education benefits for servicemen on active duty by Jan. 31.

In addition, the law extended the deadline for these veterans to complete their training to Jan. 31, 1955, or eight years after discharge or release, whichever comes first.

A Presidential proclamation issued early last month set January 31 as the cut-off date for a serviceman to qualify for Korean GI bill benefits. As a result of Public Law 7, however, veterans who entered military service on or before January 31 will continue to build up GI training entitlement after that date, Fields pointed out.

Korean GI education and training rights accrue at the rate of one-and-one-half times a veteran's period of active duty. The maximum is 36 months of training—enough for four nine-month years of college work.

The new law specifies that veterans may not earn entitlement following their first discharge or release from active service occurring after January 31, 1955.

Public Law 7 does not apply to those entering military service after Jan. 31, 1955, Fields pointed out. The Presidential proclamation terminated right to earn eligibility for a number of benefits in addition to training, including mustering-out pay, loan guarantee, wartime compensation rates, as well as rights to certain medical and dental care.

HE'S HAPPY THE WAY THINGS HAPPENED

"I've heard it said that in this country everybody has a chance to become President."

"Me, I don't think I'll make it. I retired last December after 36 years on the job. Started with Union Oil as a roustabout back in 1918."

FORD PYLE, JUST BEFORE HE RETIRED FROM UNION OIL, AFTER 36 YEARS ON THE JOB.

"I ended up a Senior Mechanic in charge of Union Oil's Rosecrans Plant—working 8 hours a day, 5 days a week, and getting lots more done. Making over 5 times more, too."

"Put my two boys through college. Got my house all paid for and a tidy sum set aside. And I'm getting retirement pay long as I live."

"President? Nope, not Ford Pyle. But that's not important. The big thing is I'm plenty happy just the way things happened. After all, where else but in this country could I get so much back just for doing the job well?"

Ford Pyle's hard work is the first reason for his success, obviously. But better tools did help.

And in the 36 years since Ford joined Union Oil, our investment in tools has increased from $17,000 to $77,000 per worker. That's why he was able to produce more in less time and make more money.

Because America's free competitive economy forces better tools and new techniques every

IDAHO VANDALS SEEK WAY OUT OF ND CELLAR

Husky Split Gives Idaho Basement Tie With Cougs

Idaho must win both ends of a basketball twinbill this weekend to get-out of the Northern Division cellar. A split would put them in a tie with Washington State College.

Another team who has its mind set on second place in the same conference—Washington's Huskies—arrived here yesterday afternoon. The two teams meet tonight and tomorrow at 8 p. m. in Memorial Gym.

Perked up by their 77 to 59 victory Tuesday night over Washington State, Idaho is looking forward Friday and Saturday to the wind-up basketball series of the season with Washington. Both teams will have something on the line as Washington is in the thick of the scrap with Oregon for second place in the Northern Division standings. Idaho is fighting it out right down to the end to gain at least a tie with Washington State for the cellar. A double win for the Vandals on their home court could hoist them out of the cellar and settle the second place honors as well.

Idaho opened the Northern Division season in Seattle by breaking even in the two game series. Since that time both clubs have shown improvement and while Washington rates as the two game favorite, yet much could happen.

For Idaho it will mark the final intercollegiate contests for four lettermen on the squad—Harlan Melton, Jim Sather, Bob Falash and Don Monson. For the Huskies it will be the last for Dean Parsons and Jerry Johnson.

Jay Buhler, junior forward, was the outstanding star Tuesday night as the Vandals evened their four game series with the Washington State Cougars. Buhler gathered in 26 points to assume the lead among the Vandals in Northern Division scoring with 187 points. Melton dropped into the second spot with 171 while the junior Bill Bauscher is third with 155.

The Saturday night session will be enlivened by a preliminary game in which the Idaho freshmen will be seeking revenge. They will meet the Whitworth College jayvees. The Whitworth squad has been the only team except the University of Washington yearlings to defeat the Vandal Babes. Tuesday night the Vandal frosh defeated the WSC for the fourth straight time, thus making it nine victories in a row this season and 12 wins in 14 starts.

Despite the fact the Vandals have clung cellar-wise all during the Northern Division season the ticket demands for the final series here with Washington has been stimulating. Del Klaus, ticket manager, said there are still a few good reserve seats left for Friday contest. General admission tickets will be on sale at the door each night, he said.

ARG ALL-STARS UPCOMING
The Argonaut all-star intramural basketball team will be announced soon, according to intramural editor Don Smith. Smith said games for the team have been difficult to arrange due to several intercollegiate rules.

He explained that 13 players will be selected from the A Basketball program teams.

High Riding Babes Shoot For No. 15

Idaho's high riding freshman basketball team meets Whitworth Jayvees Saturday night to windup one of the best seasons a yearling club has had at this school.

The Babes tangled Whitworth at 6 p. m. Saturday in a prelim to the second Idaho-Washington game. Whitworth is one of the two teams to stop the frosh this season. The other was the Husky Pups.

The frosh currently have won 12 and dropped two.

Tuesday the Babes walloped WSC Couabes 93-71 for their fourth in a row over the Palouse Tigers. Jack Mitchell poured in 29 points, Gary Simmons and Jerry Jorgenson 20 each to lead the Idaho scoring attack.

Idaho held a halftime merging of 47-35. The WSC scoring ace, Bob Reichert, scored 18, most of those coming after Idaho has secured the win. Dennis Rask and Paul Ronhaar left the game on fouls to hurt the Couabes cause.

The four wins this season by Idaho is the first time that either of the freshman teams has won all the season's encounters.

Mitchell is currently the frosh top scorer with 249 points in the 14 games for a 17.8 per game average. The bespectacled 6-5 guard has held the scoring lead most of the season. Bob Gould, 6-6 center, trails Mitchell with 141 and Gary Simmons is the number three scorer with 148.

The Babes have a field goal percentage of .373 as a team and a free throw percentage of .593.

Gymnasts Tangle Here With Cougars Tomorrow at 1:30

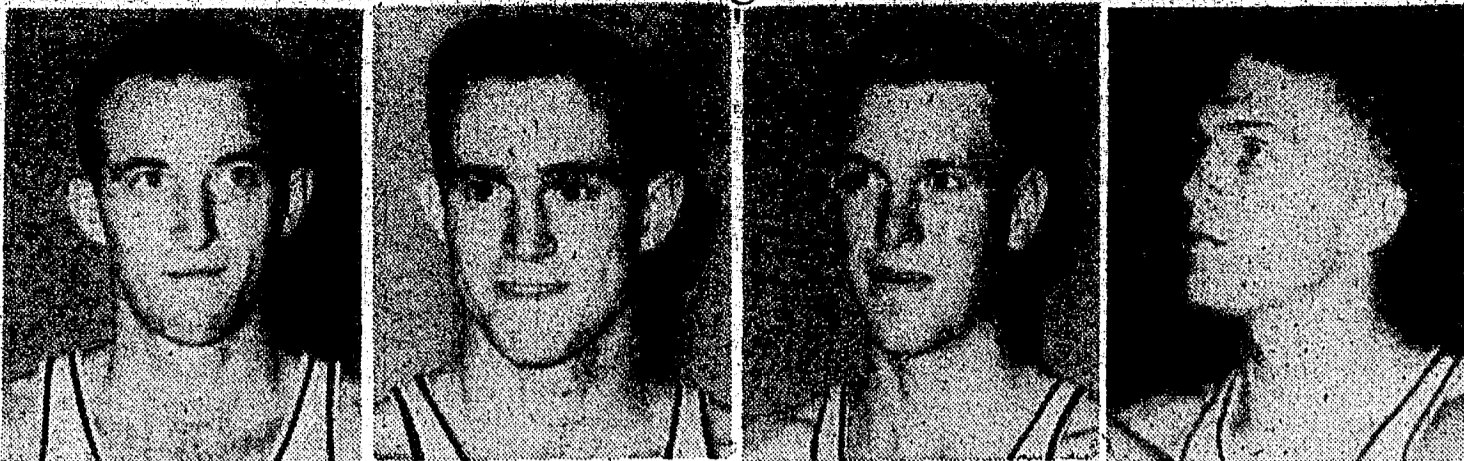

First dual meet competition for the Idaho gymnastics team is on tap tomorrow afternoon in Memorial Gym at 1:30 according to its coach, Dick Smith.

The Vandals face strong Washington State College.

Smith said intercollegiate competition will include events in trampoline, parallel bars, side horse, flying rings, tumbling, long horse leaping, and free hand calisthenics work.

The Idaho team is led by Capt. Norm Radford and top competitor Ralph Provencal. Provencal participates in five events, Radford in three. Additional performers include Floyd Lydum on the side horse, Jack Mount and Pete DeLong on the trampoline, Phil Pool in free hand calisthenics and flying rings and Gene Bryan and Frank Brenner on parallel bars.

Last Collegiate Series

These Idaho senior basketball players wind up their collegiate career this weekend when the Vandals face the University of Washington Huskies in the team's final series of the 1955 season. Left to right—Harlan (Lefty) Melton, Bob Falash, Jim Sather and Don Monson. The first three are regulars and Melton and Monson have lettered four years for Idaho.

WSC Cougars Stumped 77-59

Idaho evened up a basketball series with Washington State Tuesday to keep alive hopes of climbing from the bottom rung of the Northern Division. The Vandals outplayed an "ice-cold" Cougar outfit to even up the season's account for the two teams at two apiece.

Jay Buhler led the attack for Idaho pouring in 26 points to lead the 77-59 onslaught over the team that ruined Oregon State's marless record the Saturday before in Pullman. Bob Falash played a fine defensive ball game holding the Cougars big scoring threat—Ron Bennick—to 14 points, four of these scored from the field.

Buhler's 26 point effort was his best of the season. Besides in scoring the junior forward proved to be the best Vandal ball hawk and Board man, especially in the clinches.

Bennick, who had hit 85 per cent of his field goal tries Saturday against OSC, hit only two out of 12 tries from the floor. Center Bill Rehder was as cold as his teammate, making only three out of 17 shots.

Bill Bauscher and Jim Sather added 15 points each to the Idaho scoring parade.

The Cougars trailed throughout the entire contest and at one time in the closing minutes of the final half the Vandals enjoyed a 24 point lead.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used an intricate system of weaves and blocks on offense and the Vandals took care of themselves on defense with a man-to-man system. Hodges' change of tactics caught the Cougars off guard in the first half and they never recovered from the 41-26 halftime deficit.

With three minutes to go in the first half, Idaho held a 15-point bulge over the Cougs, then Bob Kloek and Larry Beck hit jump shots and Bennick added a pair of free throws to narrow the margin to nine.

At Full Steam
Hodges didn't call off his Idaho team at that point in hopes of holding a large halftime margin but turned them loose with Buhler leading the way and they built the lead right back to fifteen within a minute to a minute to enjoy the halftime 15 point bulge.

Bennick was the top scorer for WSC with 14 and Rehder ended up with 11. Cougar coach Jack Friel ran in his second platoon for most field goals and moved into third place in the rebound department with 70 behind Center Jim Sather, 112, and Guard Bob Falash, 97.

Bill Bauscher has connected for 50 out of 51 free throw attempts for the best percentage in that department at .775.

In the "Peck's Bad Boy" department Lefty Melton and Bob Falash are tied with 48 fouls apiece. The Idaho starting five that has played the most in the season's game constitutes most of the scoring and the second five, comprised of Don Monson, Tom Hoots, Bud Nelson, Jay Webb and Carl Swanstrom has accounted for 60 points. Vandal opponents have outscored them 917 to 836.

BRUINS LEAD STATISTICS
LOS ANGELES — UCLA's champion Bruins lead every team department of the weekly statistics released today by the Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner's office.

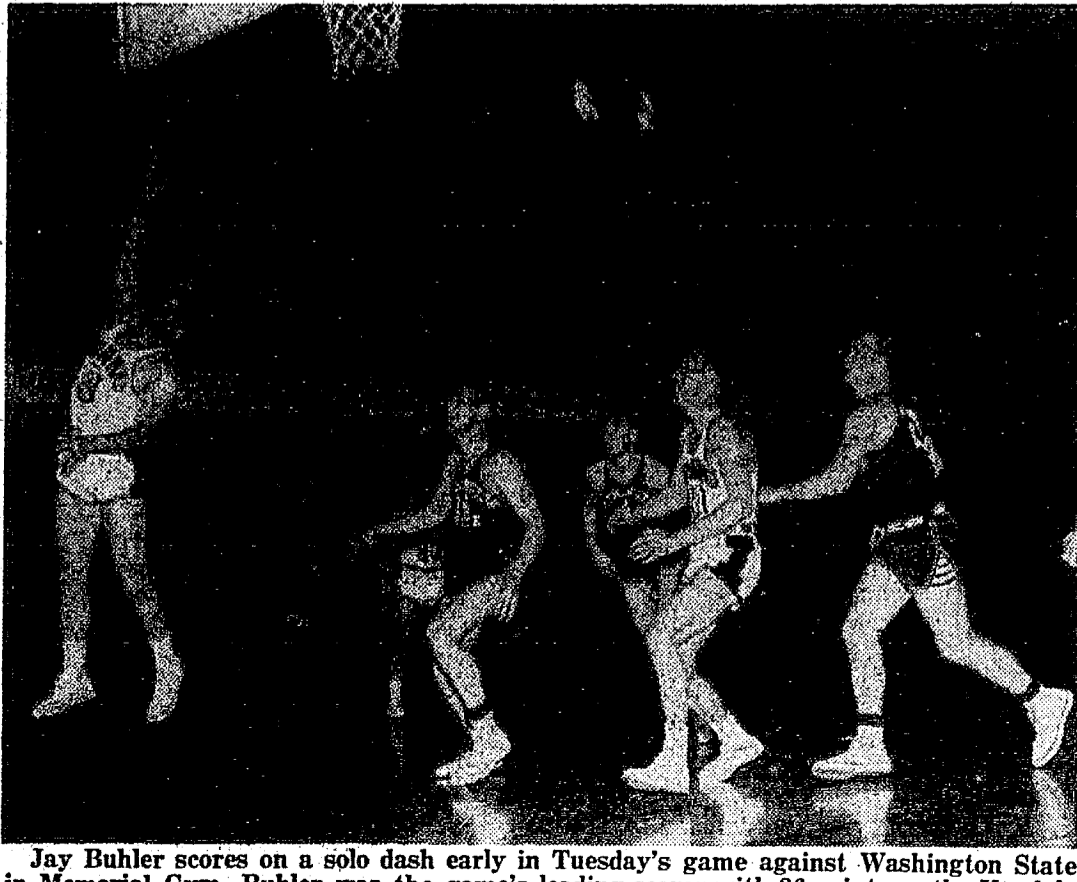

The figures also showed California's Bob McKeen and Ron Tomsic of Stanford within easy range of smashing the Division scoring record.

Goold Drives Against BYU

Freshman center Bob Goold drives in against a Brigham Young University player but is fouled in the process in Saturday's action at Twin Falls. The Idaho team took easy victories in a weekend series 82-50 Friday and 71-61 Saturday. Goold scored 16 and 20 points in the tilts. Herb Hill (00) is the other Idaho player.

Two Of 26 For Buhler

Jay Buhler scores on a solo dash early in Tuesday's game against Washington State in Memorial Gym. Buhler was the game's leading scorer with 26 points as the Vandals romped over the ice-cold Cougars 77-59 in the final meeting of the two schools this season. Bob Falash (17) and Jim Sather (11) are other Idaho players pictured.
