

China's 'Lute Song' Starts Run Tonight In The Auditorium

BY GARY PIETSCH

Tickets are still available for the University of Idaho Drama department production "Lute Song." Students with ASUI cards will be admitted free. Tickets are on sale for 50c at the ASUI General Manager's Office for tonight and Saturday's performances. The curtain rises at 8 p. m. in the University Auditorium both nights.

The Chinese classic which was first presented in the Imperial Court of Peking in 1404 and has enjoyed a continuous stage life for 500 years, will be presented in all its Oriental splendor by University students.

The plot concerns a young scholar, Esai-Yong, played by Gary Hudson who is required to leave his peasant home to seek the position of mandarin at the Emperor's capital. While he is gone, a great famine strikes his homeland, and in spite of the struggle of his young and beautiful bride, Tchao-Ou-Niang, his parents die.

Royal Marriage
Tchai-Yong meets with success in the capital and the Emperor forces him to marry his daughter, Princess Nieon Chi.

Tchao-Ou-Niang, hearing no word from her husband, comes to the Emperor's palace only to learn of his royal marriage. When the Princess learns of her husband's former marriage to Tchao-Ou-Niang, she consents to ask for an annulment of her marriage and Tchai-Yong and his wife are reunited.

Sue McMahon plays Tchao-Ou-Niang, Larry Hyer plays Prince Nieon, and Nancy Leek portrays Princess Nieon Chi.

According to Miss Collette, Chinese presentations are delightfully different from what American audiences are accustomed to. "Chinese make no pretense to be realistic in staging a production but leave it up to the audience's imagination to fill in the complete scene," said Ed Chavez, designer of the sets and costumes.

Contrary to American theatrical techniques where elaborate attempts are made to achieve realism, Chavez explained that Chinese plays often use simple

Hamilton To Be At Conference

BY JULIE TEMPLE

Thomas Jefferson Hamilton, chief correspondent for the New York Times to the United Nations, will be a principal speaker at this year's Borah Conference on the "Causes of War and the Conditions of Peace," March 16 and 17.

Hamilton, who will speak on "Traditional Diplomacy v. Collective Security in the Contemporary World," will address faculty, students and representatives from schools in Oregon, Utah, Montana, Washington and Idaho Thursday afternoon at 1 p. m.

Hamilton, who comes from Georgia where his father was editor and publisher of the Augusta Chronicle for many years, graduated magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Georgia. He began his career as a reporter on the Atlanta Journal, after spending three years at Oxford as a Rhodes Scholar.

When Hamilton joined the staff of the Associated Press in 1934, he was assigned first to Washington and later to London.

It was in London that he became associated with the Times, and after two years with the London Bureau became the Madrid correspondent for the Times.

Just before World War II, Hamilton spent three months in Chile as an "exchange" newspaperman after Chilean newspapers had sent several of their men to the United States to study American methods of journalism.

His journalism career was interrupted when he served four years as a lieutenant in the navy in both the Atlantic and Pacific theatres.

After the war, he returned to the Washington Bureau of the Times, and in 1946 he was transferred to the United Nations Bureau of which he is now chief.

Folk Dance Festival Set For Tonight

Ten women's living groups of the University of Idaho will compete in the third Folk Dance Festival tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Women's Gym.

Dances representing countries all over the world will be presented by coed living groups.

Dances to be performed are "Tarentella," Italy; Kappa Kappa Gamma; "Bean Setting," England; Alpha Phi; "Kolomyka," Ukraine; Tri Delta; "Oxen Dance," Sweden; Hays Hall; "Varsouviana," American; Delta Gamma; "Tantoli," Norway; Kappa Alpha Theta; "Irish Selt," Ireland; Steel House; "El Jarabe-Tlaicalteca," Mexican; Pi Phi; "The Mill Dance," Lithuanian; Alpha Chi and the "Weggis Dance," Swiss; Forney Hall.

The dances will be judged on the spirit of the dance, the execution and originality of costume. The judges are Mrs. Ray Berry, Mrs. A. W. Fahrwald, Dean Louise Carter, Margaret Ritchie and Mrs. L. Schuldt.

After the competition, there will be dancing for those who wish to participate, according to Margaret Coffey, director of the festival.

Foreign Visas Are Due Now

Foreign students are required to fill in forms in the Registrar's office to be forwarded to the Information Service. This must be done at the beginning of each semester so students may remain in this country, according to D. D. DuSault, registrar.

Capt Thomas To Mark 30 Years Of Service

At the end of this school year Captain Thomas C. Thomas will complete four years as Professor of Naval Science here as well as thirty years service with the U. S. Navy.

Over the last thirty years Captain Thomas has travelled all over the world; Japan, Great Britain, Europe, Africa, Australia, South America and Asia. He has made cruises with two presidents (Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt). On these cruises he, along with the other officers, dined with the presidents.

In 1953 Captain Thomas was nominated for mayor of Moscow. Campaign announcements and advertisements were published in the local paper before the surprised captain could put a stop to the procedure. Surprisingly enough he placed a close second to Moscow's present mayor. This nomination was a result of Thomas' going to bat for a student midshipman involved in an assault charge.

From 1945 until 1949 he was professor of naval science at Villanova, Pa., after which he spent a year in the Office of Naval Research in Pasadena, Calif. When the Korean War broke out in 1950 he was sent to Pearl Harbor where he was Chief of Staff for the Trust Territory for the Pacific Islands.

His superior at that time was Admiral Arthur W. Radford, now High Commissioner for the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington, D. C. In September, 1951, Thomas joined the staff of the University of Idaho.

Idaho Students Take Bids At WSC Auction

"We were just biddin' em' up and they dropped it on us," said Ron Manser, in explaining how he and a party of six Idaho students ended up with three WSC faculty members in a Campus Chest Auction last Saturday night in Pullman.

Idaho Kappa Kappa Gamma captured ASSCW President Dale Boose, Vice President Barry Jones and Bert Underwood in a similar situation. The three must make their second forced trip of the year to Moscow. In accordance with the auction rules, the only way they can regain their freedom is to serve as houseboys during an evening meal for their captors.

Dean of Women Lulu Holmes, Sara Lou Mather and Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson are the prize of the Vandal raiding party composed of members of Kappa Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternities. They must also perform slave labor before they will be liberated.

The Idaho students were Jim Kruger, Dewey Newman, Manser, Skip Clemens and Tom Lindsey.

When Marcia Nessen, WSC Campus Chest chairman, asked WSC students attending the auction whether they should let Idaho students get away with the bid and prizes, WSCers hollered back a hearty "take 'em away."

300 Expected At Confab; Contests Are New Angle

More than 300 student delegates and sponsors are expected to attend the ninth Idaho High School Journalism Conference, according to Dr. Granville Price, chairman of journalism here.

The conference, which will be held in Moscow March 25 and 26, will feature guest speakers, panels led by University journalism students and writing contests for the delegates.

Guest speakers at sessions the opening day will be John Corlett of the Boise Statesman and Dorothy R. Powers of the Spokane Spokesman-Review. Corlett will discuss "Politicians and News-men," while Mrs. Powers' topic is "We'll Never Regret It!"

Panel topics for the two day conference are: "What's News," led by Gary Pietsch; "What's Your Policy," headed by Fred Williams; "Is Your Sportsmanship Showing," by John Hughes; "Feature That!" Ruth Brede; "Advertising," Jane Querna; "Annals," Darlene Duffy; "What's In a Column?" Steve Emerine and "Is A Picture Worth 10,000 Words?" headed by Ricky Jones.

Louis J. Schroyer, journalism adviser at Twin Falls High School, will supervise the group discussions.

Four Idaho dailies will present plaques to high school students and newspapers winning various writing and editorial contests. They are the Moscow Daily Idahonian, Lewiston Tribune, Twin Falls Times-News and the Idaho Falls Post Register.

Criticism of high school newspapers will be discussed in groups led by Ray Sipes, Marie Ingebritsen, Betty Brooks, Marilyn Meils, Harvey Scott and Thomas Neal.

Judges for the news and editorial writing contests will be Julie Temple, Joe Corless, Jane Remsburg, James Kruger, Arthur Schmauder, Emerine, Pietsch, Miss Brede and Miss Querna.

Idaho Team Will Debate In Oregon

The University of Idaho Debate team left yesterday for their sixth Linfield College Debate Tournament, to be held today and Saturday at McMinnville, Ore.

Contests are to be held in extemporaneous, oratory, impromptu, and after-dinner speaking, radio, interview, salesmanship and interpretative acting and speaking. Debaters will participate in a student congress.

Students from Washington, Oregon, California, Utah, Colorado and Idaho will participate in the tournament which is the biggest tournament of its kind in the country, according to a former varsity debater.

Debaters entered from the University of Idaho are Joy Chilcott, Chuck McDevitt, Charles Oldham, Jim Kruger, Roger McPike and Mel Madsen.

Merrill Is Elected Arnold Air Society Squadron Leader

Roy Merrill was elected Squadron Commander of the Eugene H. Beebe squadron of the Arnold Air Society at the University of Idaho at a recent meeting. His term of office will include the remainder of the second semester as well as first semester of the 1955-56 school year.

Other officers elected were Ed Parsons, executive officer; Chuck Fellows, operations officer; Ken Deal, adjutant recorder; Steve Harrop, comptroller and Wesley Rash, public information officer.

Retiring officers were Ed Clairborn, Ernie Bedke, Dave Powell, Steve Peebles, Duane Sharp and Clyde Wilson.

Campus Drive Goal Is $2000

The Campus Chest Committee hopes that competition between living groups for the highest donations and carnival-day proceeds will reach a goal of $2,000 for the Campus Chest drive which will run from March 7 to 12.

The purpose of the annual drive is to arouse student interest in beneficial organizations by a series of concentrated events. The recipients of the Campus Chest funds are chosen on the basis of the worth of their work and its relation to college students.

The living group with the highest per capita donation will have a KRPL Late Date show dedicated to them. As in the past, each living group will have a poster placed in the SUB to show its percentage of donation and its total donation.

The carnival dance and Chinese auction will be held in the SUB ballrooms Saturday, March 12. Carnival booths sponsored by groups of living groups will compete for a trophy. The auction will feature such sales as campus personalities as dates, and pledge classes as dates. To dance with a girl, a man must present a ticket for each dance.

A solicitor at each hall and house will ask for contributions. For those persons living off campus, the sophomore class will maintain donation booths in the Ad Building and the SUB.

Song Leaders Are To Meet

Living group song leaders are asked to meet in the Recital Hall of the Music Building, Friday at 12:30 p. m., according to Bill Herr, Song Fest chairman.

Purpose of the meeting is to formulate ideas and plans for the spring Song Fest jointly sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, music honoraries.

Participation May Be Cut

The recently organized Activities Control Board will meet again next Tuesday to discuss the possibilities of limiting the amount of extracurricular activities of an individual.

According to Keith Jergensen, the committee has two views in mind: To limit activities of a person so that everyone will be able to participate in at least one activity and, to limit activities to promote higher academic standing and better health among students.

Members of the board are Keith Jergensen, chairman, Patti Bartlett, Jane Bonham, Molly Godbold, Joe Subia and Newt Westergren.

Sculptured Products Decorate Lawns

Maybe the winds have been blowing and dry snow flying, but it hasn't stopped Vandal snow sculptors. A big, yellow cat at the Theta house, a 12 foot map of Idaho at the ATO house, a white owl on the lawn of Phi Gamma Delta, along with an angel in front of the Pi Beta Phi, are the latest additions to the masterpiece.

The Theta's big yellow cat with the black and gold ribbon around its neck is built in a sitting position and is about 7 feet tall. This snow cat and the ATO's statue of the state of Idaho are both made of ice. The ATOs have used water colors to paint Idaho brown and have used paper letters to point out Moscow and the U. of I. A small state of Washington with "Poor Cougars" written on it is the next job planned by the house.

Chrisman Hall, under constant fire from Willis Sweet, made a statue of a man with a cloak made of gunny sacks and a dagger to advertise their "Cloak and Dagger" dance tonight. Only thing wrong was that the wind blew waist too small and it tumbled to the ground. The Pi Phi's haven't given up because they have the beginnings of a Vandal head on front lawn.

The Kappa Sigs and Phi Taus are changing the patterns of the snow design. The Kappa Sigs are building a miniature portrait of their house complete with pillars and windows. Phi Taus have an 8 foot pink beer mug.

More Initiations, Dances Planned

Initiation still continues in many of the campus sororities and fraternities as the new semester grows older. Initiating the past week were Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Sigma, Gamma Phi Beta, Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Phi.

The weather seems to have produced "winter fever" as the men and co-eds spend hours building status and throwing snowballs. However, some indication of the coming spring is in the air as numerous pinning shows signs of "spring fever."

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Highlighting the Thetas' week was the Sunday initiation. The 14 kite-bearers include Margaret Cook, Judy Dobson, Mary Gilderoy, Barbara Joseph, Sally Newhouse, Lorraine Langdon, Ginny Nelson, Margaret Peckerit, Jo Carol Bicket, Mary Lu Querna, Mary Snow, Marilyn Stewart and Karen Warner. Both Kay and Ginny now have pins. Kay's is the pin of Dave Hoge, SAE and Ginny is pinned to Fiji, Bob Schoenwald.

Monday night Leah Nanninga surprised the girls by wearing the Phi Tau pin of Byron Gage.

Gayle Horwarth was a dinner guest, Wednesday. Gayle is a transfer student from Hanover College, Hanover, Ind.

Theta is proud to announce the tapping for Alpha Lambda Delta of Mary Snow, Mary Gilderoy and Karen Warner.

Thank you, Sig Chi pledges, for your "shoe serenade." Also the Thetas wish to thank all who "helped" with the building of the Kitten.

PI BETA PHI

Guests at Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Pugh from St. Maries, and Billie Wolf. The Pughs showed several pictures of their recent trip to the Far East.

Pledges took advantage of the snow Wednesday night as their exchange with the Phi Taus consisted mainly of playing fox and geese. Margaret Costello's hidden talent was brought to the limelight as she played "Melody of Love."

SIGMA CHI

Timely ski togs lent an informal atmosphere to the exchange with Alpha Phi Wednesday evening. But we have one question: Does Sharon Helander always jump into a snow bank before she goes into a house?

Dinner guest Wednesday was Jack Naylor.

Ron Leppke was recently tapped for Phi Delta Kappa, national professional education fraternity.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Two recent pinnings announced at the house are Peggy Paulson to Jack Little, Beta Theta Pi, and Vanessa McGowan to George Pugh, Sigma Nu. The girls are anxiously awaiting tubbings.

The annual initiation banquet was held Sunday. Mary Ellen Daly received the scholarship honorary Wavary Williams, Tri-Delt, in honor of her pinning to Jim Hill. Some of the Russian Ball beads are beginning to reach the visibility point after one week's growth—then there are others.

PINE HALL

Tuesday evening at "Tooth Pick Manor" tears of sorrow were wept and sincere feelings of regret were felt by all. Yes, tragedy had struck. It was on that eventful eve when Stuart, "Body Beautiful," Hill moved that the "Turn-Down Shack," by the railroad track be disorganized and within seconds the motion was passed. Tears were shed as the "Filthy Fifty" left the meeting and traversed through the gloomy quiet halls to their dimly lit stalls.

CAMPUS CLUB

The most photographed girl on campus, Miss Venus de Dagmar, is still guarding the front entrance to the club after the combined efforts of Hugh Aitken, Eric Peto, Hap Ferree and Bruce Lorenz last Saturday. Bruce did a very outstanding job on the design.

Dinner guests last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nogle and their children, Mary Ann, Dale, and Gary. Nogle is the brother of Lois McMullen, Campus Club hostess.

Plans are being made for the spring formal. The tentative date is April 2. Committee chairmen are Gary Freeland, entertainment, Hap Ferree, program, Bob McKeever, decorations and Bill Bickford, theme.

Second semester club officers are Charlie Starr, president; John Miller, vice president; R. J. Newman, secretary - treasurer and Executive Board members are Wayne Crosby, Bud Duffy, Dave Kohli and Henry Eyrich.

KAPPA SIGMA

Initiation was held last Sunday morning and eleven new men joined the ranks. The initiates are John Hoch, Dick Roberge, Charles Fries, Wallace Brown, Bernard Murphy, Jerry Matsen, Lee Townsend, Jack Gardner, Jack Personius, Martin Rust, II and Roger Stoker. The house was honored to have Martin W. Rust present during the initiation. Rust is an alum of the Gamma Psi chapter at Oklahoma A and M.

Mr. and Mrs. Rust were also present for dinner Sunday afternoon. Recent dinner guests have

Bishop's Banquet Will Be Saturday

A "Bishop's Banquet" will be held by the Methodist students for Bishop A. Raymond Grant of the Portland area Methodist Church. Saturday afternoon, the Methodist students will hold a "Toboggan Party," drink coffee around the fire and play games at the Roger Williams "at home" night each Saturday.

Newman Club will serve supper at 6:30 Sunday evening in Parish Hall.

Bob Prestel and Jerry Haller will begin instructions on the serving of Mass. The instructions will begin Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in the church. Students are asked to bring their missals.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

The coffee hour will be at 4 p.m. today in the CCC. Anyone planning to go roller skating at Lewiston tonight should come to arrange transportation.

The meeting Sunday will be at 5 p.m., and will include dinner, devotions and a program.

ROGER WILLIAMS CLUB

Saturday night, from 8 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. there will be an "at home" in the basement of the Baptist Church. There will be coffee to drink around the fire and games to play.

Roger Williams will meet Sunday at 5:30 p.m. Jeri Kuka is in charge of the devotional and Jim Eggeston will be in charge of the evening supper.

Each Monday at 4 p.m. Roger Williams sponsors a coffee hour at the CCC.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Bishop A. Raymond Grant of the Portland area Methodist church will be honored by Methodist students at a banquet Saturday, March 12, starting at 6 p.m. Tickets to the "Bishop's Banquet" may be purchased from your living group representative or at the Wesley Foundation office.

Merry Weds will meet this Friday for a pot-luck supper and program starting at 6:30 in Epworth Hall of the Methodist Church. For a baby-sitter, students may call the Wesley office, 28343.

"Open House" at the Thomases this Friday will feature music and poetry between 9 and 12 p.m.

Methodist students will hold a "Toboggan Party" Saturday afternoon. Cars will leave from the Campus Christian Center about 1:30. Students are asked to bring cars and/or toboggans.

Students are invited to participate in the "College Forum" Sunday at 9:30 a.m. This is a discussion group where everyone gets a chance to speak. College Forum is followed by a coffee hour at 10:30.

This Sunday at 2:30 p.m. the first meeting of the Bible Study Seminar will be held at the Campus Christian Center. The course schedule will be set up at this meeting.

The regular meeting of Wesley Foundation this week, 5-7 p.m. Sunday, will feature a student discussion on the topic: "Speak Your Mind About Wesley."

Is your daddy home, sonny? No sir, he hasn't been home since Mommy caught Santa Claus kissing the maid.

Here's More About— Formosa

Dr. Hause pointed out that the Red Chinese weren't told that Malenkow was being replaced because the USSR didn't want to let China know how unstable their government was.

Nationalist China is strong for its size, said Lt. Obrt, and it can possibly protect Formosa. The panel agreed that Chiang's chances of getting the Chinese mainland back were practically zero.

"Chiang is through and he knows it," said Dr. Hause.

"Chiang Kai-shek is the only one that has anything to gain from having the U. S. in an all-out war," agreed Caldwell.

"U. S. policy in the Far East is, on the whole, good but too late," Boring concluded. These IBC panel discussions are open to the public. They will be held once a month, according to Dick Cook.

Here's More About— Sculptured

When the Phi Delta Thetas got through making faces on their eight foot totem pole, they had an unaccountable number of noses. The pole is in the backyard where no one, not even the wind, can touch it.

The SAE's Minerva and lion is no longer with us. They fell when winds and snow ball fights gave too much competition for survival.

Dance Is Planned By Military Men

Co-sponsors Scabbard and Blade, Arnold Air Society and Eagle and Anchor have set April 29 as the date for Idaho's annual Military Ball. Preliminary plans and committee appointments are under way for the all-campus dance.

Bill Erwin has been appointed general chairman of the dance. Committee heads include Dick Cook, decorations; Eddie Hudson, programs; Hubert Stein, band chairman; Dick Cooke, refreshments; Joe Edgett, tickets and invitations and Joe Corviss, publicity chairman.

On the first day of school, the teacher was explaining to the kindergarten class that if anyone had to go to the washroom, they should hold up two fingers. The noise of a little girl came from the back of the room.

How's that gonna help? The dirtiest lights often have the highest scandal power.
