Idaho Receives Grant For Research On Cancer

Continuation of cancer research at the University of Idaho for the third year was assured today with the awarding of a $5,195 grant by the National Cancer Institute, a division of the U.S. Public Health Service.

Under the grant, Dr. Sidney M. Beck of the department of bacteriology will continue to study the mechanism of purine metabolism in special purine decomposing bacteria.

Purine are important constituents of all living cells. They are involved in systems which liberate energy in the cell, systems which carry the genetic mechanism of the cell, and also in some excretory systems.

"This work is a study in normal metabolism," explains Dr. V. A. Cherrington, head of the department. "In many problems dealing with living systems, the knowledge of normal cell function is not well enough known for research workers to fully understand abnormal growth and function."

"Since cancer is an abnormal cell development, research in problems dealing with cancer often delayed until the normal function of the cell is more fully understood."

Skating Is Closer To Reality; Tour Is Now Planned

Deciding to tour all possible sites for the University's proposed skating rink and then make a definite recommendation to acting president D. R. Theophilus for presentation to the Board of Regents, the skating rink committee Monday moved closer to construction of an ice rink.

The Executive Board set the wheels in motion last week when it unanimously approved the plan for a rink and gave the signal to the committee to start making definite plans for its construction. ASUI general manager, Gale Mix, a committee member, said Monday that Sunday night's snowfall delayed the group's plans to tour all the possible sites yesterday. He added that the tour would definitely be held later this week.

"If the final approval for this project is given by the Board of Regents at its meeting later this month," Mix said, "we hope to have the rink ready for operation next winter."

The U. N. And Peace

Man has long attempted to meet and settle his differences on common ground. However, this usually turns out to be a battleground. We have tried and failed over the years to make and enforce the peace over the conference table instead of with the bayonet. Today the United Nations is our latest attempt at peaceful peace-making.

This year's Borah Conference is concerned with the vital question, "The United Nations—Is It The Road To Peace?" And this is a vital question for us, too. As Wendell Wilkie remarked, "Other peoples are waiting for us to accept the most challenging opportunity of all history—the chance to create a new society in which men and women the world around can live and grow, invigorated by freedom."

In 1955 the founders of the United Nations decided that the time would be ripe for a look at the UN charter for possible revision, if needed. The world has seen the weaknesses of the UN, and wonders if it will go the way of the old League of Nations, which collapsed because it mainly had "no teeth."

Twenty-six nations in 1942 bound together to fight the Axis. In 1944 at the Yalta Conference much of the foundation of the UN was laid. It is known that most of the current weaknesses in the charter originated at that Yalta Conference. Then, on April 26, 1945, at San Francisco, 50 nations met to "build on indestructible foundations," said Brazil's Leao Veloso, "a civilization in which wars will be placed outside the law."

So, shall the world keep the UN? Will it work with the present charter? Are there better roads to peace? All these questions are being asked and discussed at this year's Borah Conference on Wednesday and Thursday. Men who have worked with the UN, with regional organizations such as OAS in the military will try to give some answers. It is in this technological age a matter of life and death importance to find the right answer.

As atomic scientist and magazine editor, John W. Campbell has written, "Nature is ruthlessly final in rejecting false answers. It was the men who ruled in the field of human relationships who decided to enmesh human affairs in the forces of science. They now have their choice—to accept and apply the cold logic of 'righter' and 'wronger'—or the well-worn, heart-warming fallacies of eternal right and everlasting wrong. Heart-warming—and now at its heart glows the 10,000,000 degrees of nuclear fission."

Milton To Receive $2,700 Fulbright

John Milton, February graduate in French here, has been named to receive a $2,700 Fulbright scholarship in Liege, Belgium, for nine months' study starting in October. Milton, who is doing graduate work in modern language and literature at Gonzaga University in Spokane, said he will attend a 10 day's orientation in Brussels before he goes to what is called "the center of French culture in Belgium."

Milton traveled in Germany and France during the summer of 1953, and hopes to tour Spain and Portugal before entering school at Liege, he said.

His program of studies will "the Belgian Influences on, and Contributions to, the Symbolic Movement in Poetry."

What young people are doing at General Electric

Young engineer is responsible for design analysis of $3,000,000 turbine-generators

The average large steam turbine-generator costs $3,000,000 and takes two years to build. It is one of the biggest pieces of electrical equipment made. Yet its thousands of parts are put together as carefully as a fine watch. Even a small change in design can affect the stresses and vibration of the turbine, and the way it performs. At General Electric, several men share the responsibility of predicting those effects before the turbine is built. One of them is 29-year-old E. E. Zwicky, Jr.

His job: analytical engineer

Here's what Ted Zwicky does. He takes a proposed mechanical design feature, describes it mathematically, breaks it down into digestible bits, modifies it, and feeds it to electronic computers. (It may take two months to set up a problem; the computers usually solve it in twenty minutes.) Then Zwicky takes the answers from the computers, translates and interprets them so they can be followed by design engineers.

23,000 college graduates at General Electric

This is a responsible job. Zwicky was readied for it in a careful program of development. Like Zwicky, each of our 23,000 college-graduate employees is given a chance to find the work he does best and to realize his full potential. For General Electric believes this: When young minds are given freedom to make progress, everybody benefits—the individual, the company, and the country.

Progress Is Our Most Important Product

LUCKY DROODLES! GET 'EM HERE!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below. Droodle suggested by Norman Gerber, C. C. N. Y.

HAVE A LITTLE FUN when you smoke. Enjoy yourself. Give yourself the pleasure of a better-tasting Lucky Strike. The enthusiasm often inspired by Luckies' famous better taste is illustrated in the Droodle (right) titled: Alphabet soup for Lucky smoker. So why stew over what cigarette to smoke? Luckies' taste is letter-perfect. After all, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. When you light up, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette... Lucky Strike.

Victims To Work; Dances Are Planned

Victims of the Chinese Auction at the Campus Chest Carnival are now busy making plans to visit other living groups to pay off their debts. From all indications, houses will be sparkling clean, and some of the men will be clean-shaven after the work is over.

Delta Gammas and Tri Deltas are planning initiation dances.

HAYS HALL
Hays Hall lost Helen Ellsworth to Drew Field, Beta, last week. Best of luck to you. Thank you, SAEs for Sid Curtis' serenade Sunday night. Sunday night was the tubbing for Earlene Lund in honor of her pining to Harry Ray, TKE. Last week's dinner guests were Ketch Warner and Margaret Cook, Theta; Mrs. Lester Renstrom, Boise; Judy Hodgins, Alpha Phi; Jack Knodle, SAE; and Linda Staley, Dolly Beeler and Helen Jacobs from Kellogg and Lewiston.

We are looking forward to a visit from Willis Sweet's 200 men and orchestra before too long. Everyone will be around to send you off on your morning's work at the Delta Chi House, seniors.

IDAHO CLUB
A total of $66.50 was contributed to the Campus Chest drive by the Idaho Club. This total was tops on campus and ranked Idaho Club fifth percentage wise with 135 per cent. The Club also combined with the Delta Gammas and ATOs to take in the second highest amount of money with their booth at the Chinese Carnival.

The Club also did a little bidding at the Chinese Auction and are now anxiously awaiting the Alpha Phi queen candidates who will hash and provide other entertainment at a Saturday meal.

Thirty members of the Club attended an exchange with Regents' Hall at WSC Friday night. Dancing and games filled in the evening's entertainment, and a very enjoyable time was reported by all the men who attended. The new theme song of the Club is "On To Regents." A picnic with Regents is also planned for the spring.

DELTA DELTA DELTA
Special dinner guests Sunday were Allyn Dingel and Mr. and Mrs. Lem Wilson.

Workmen, paint, no curtains and turned-over furniture are the features of our house now—the results of furnace smoke everywhere the last week.

About smoke, it is rumored by the pledges that the theme of the dance in their honor next Saturday night is "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes." Won't the house be sparkling by then?

We welcome our new cook, Mrs. Sandquest, who is doing a very fine job.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON
Honored by serenades last Sunday night were Sid Curtis, Hays, who is pinned to Marv Michaels; Carol Rojan, Ethel Steel, who is engaged to Gary Pietsch, and Bernice Ransom, Ethel Steel, who is engaged to Leon Stone.

Jim Townsend and Mike Day were honored by the pledges on their birthday Sunday night. How are the bilsters, brothers?

A new mystery in the house is the new fad of crew cuts. How come fellas?

Congratulations to Dave Hogge on his pinning to Kay Pettygrove, Theta, and Gary Asker on his pinning to Jeannie Hodnett, Lewiston.

The house welcomes three new pledges—Gene Marker, Bill Curry and Miles Johnston. Congratulations.

DELTA THETA PI
Beta Theta Pi wishes to congratulate Erik Berggren, one of its members, who won points in the National Collegiate Ski Meet held last week in Vermont.

An informal Vandaler rehearsal was held in the Beta House Saturday afternoon.

Guests during the week included Jim Pieratt and Denny Hague, Coeur d'Alene, Karen Hincley, Margaret Trefren, John McClusky, Sally Newhouse, Darlene Duffy, Mickey Hammer, Virginia Nelson and Barbara Joseph.

DELTA GAMMA
It looks like the pledges will be mightily busy in the kitchen of Chrisman Hall—good luck, kids and have fun.

Delta Gamma is happy to welcome 17 initiates: Judy Archibald, Beverly Bolingbroke, Jane Bonham, Marlan DeKay, Dale Evans, Gretchen Holmes, Betty Johnson, Shirley Long, Charlotte McDowell, Mary Jane Milbrath, Connie Spaulding, Alyce Sweeney, Julie Whitney, Margaret Woodard and Renae Wright. Congrats, gals!

Preparations are being made for the initiation dance March 26. By the way, TKE pledges, we have plenty of work for you to do, so be prepared.

Weekend guests were Mrs. Mary Minster, Mrs. Karl Bonham, Mrs. Kathleen Sweeney, Mrs. L. L. Long and Mrs. Roy Maxey.

Universities Pick Idaho's Pre-Dents For 1955 Term

For the third consecutive year, the University of Idaho has attained a 100 per cent placement record for pre-dental students meeting the minimum qualifications for admission to dental schools, it was announced today by Dr. J. Irving Jolley, chairman of pre-medical and pre-dental studies.

Six different universities have admitted Idaho students to classes convening in September of 1955. Leaving for Northwestern University will be Donald Davis, Jack Stoor, John Harrigfeld. The University of Minnesota will have John Nelson and Aubrey Stephens.

James Lynn and Hiram Fry will enroll at Washington University in St. Louis. Others admitted to dental schools include Bradford Gauss, Creighton University; Eddie Allison, University of Louisville and Richard Rice, University of Oregon.

Two-Miler Heads Eight Returning Lettermen

Lou Gourley, third last season in both the Northern Division and Pacific Coast conference two-mile track run, heads a list of eight returning lettermen this season.

The Idaho thinclads open competition in an abbreviated indoor meet Saturday at Washington State's field house.

Working the Idaho track team this year is former trainer, Joe Glander, who succeeds Stan Hiserman at the post. Hiserman resigned last fall to take a similar spot at the University of Washington.

Glander this season loses the services of last season's ace miler, Emerson Clark, but back to fill in the fleet miler's shoes is Warren Johansen, back from the service with a year's eligibility left.

Johansen, while at Idaho, ran one of the fastest miles in the Vandals' history and has placed high for the

Vandals Begin Workouts; Kleffner Named Captain

The Idaho baseball team this week announced its team captain and conference schedule for the coming season. Flip Kleffner, a three-year letterman will captain the team. He was an all-Northern Division selection at third base last year.

Kleffner has held down the third base slot for the past three seasons and has been one of the Vandals' long ball hitters, counted upon this year for more plate punch.

Idaho will play 16 conference contests this season opening the conference play April 18-19 against Washington here in Moscow. The other four schools open conference action April 15-16 with Washington at Washington State College and Oregon at Oregon State.

The University of Oregon Ducks are the defending Northern Division champs.

Coach Clem Parberry has estimated that some 75 men are turning out for varsity and freshman baseball. The head coach was out of town this week and unavailable for further information concerning the start of spring practice.

Early Workouts

Many of the pitchers and catchers have been throwing in the gymnasium the past few weeks. Saturday the varsity and frosh candidates will travel to Lewiston where they will hold hitting and fielding workouts. The coach had planned to go to Lewiston last Saturday but bad weather prevented the trip.

Last through graduation this year will be Larry Morrison and Mike Cygler. Morrison at shortstop and Cygler at second base made up Parberry's keystone combination

Several important games are on tap in 'B' basketball for the next few days as the sport moves into its final week of play.

Campus Club 2 met Kapa Sigma 2, Phi Delta Theta 4 met Beta Theta Pi 3 and Alpha Tau Omega played Idaho Club 3 yesterday in matches which would decide three league winners. However, due to an early deadline, results were unavailable for print in the Argonaut.

Regular league play will wind up on Thursday at 7 p.m. with two games, LH4 vs. PGD3 and SN6 vs. WSH5.

Playoffs will get underway next Monday with all teams competing.

First place team in League 1 will play-off with the first place finisher in League 2 and so on down to the last place teams. Leagues 3 and 4, 5 and 6, and 7 and 8 will play-off on the same principle with the winners advancing to the semi-finals of the play-offs.

The winners in Leagues 1 and 2 will meet the winners of leagues 3 and 4 and the winners in leagues 5 and 6 and 7 and 8 will play-off for the right to enter the finals. After all these games the teams will be arranged in their final standings ranking from first to fifty-first.

Take Five

John B. Hughes

Flipping back through last year's Argo we find that the Idaho Vandals and Washington Huskies wound up the Cage season here at Moscow, but oddly enough the Vandals won the last game of each series by a single point.

In 1954 Coach Bob Garrison's last-second layup gave Idaho a 77-76 win and a tie for second spot in the Northern Division. In 1955 John L. Sullivan sank a closing Seconds free throw that gave the Vandals an 81-80 win and a tie for fourth spot in the conference.

And exploiting this oddity further, the two games were played before the Vandal Boosters, school athletic alums.

Skip Stahley came up with a gem the other day. He and Athletic Director Bob Gibb were walking through the gym when they came upon a sharply attired ROTC cadet coming towards them holding his nose with a handkerchief.

Stahley stopped him — "say, you better start working out pretty soon, Spring practice isn't too far away."

The cadet was one of his football prospects. The fellow's nose continued to bleed. They conversed a few moments more about football when the prospect went about his way, nose still running.

"Hey, you better go down to the trainer and have him fix that up," Stahley told him.

Speaking to this reporter, the coach continued—"I just couldn't help myself about what I said next, maybe it wasn't the best thing to say, but—"

"What are you, a hemophiliac, son?"

The reply.

"No, sir, Army ROTC."

In the line of statistics, we figured the other day that some 250 men will compete in college athletics this spring. Over 400 campus gents have played in intramural B basketball this winter. Spring intramural sports will attract men to softball, track, and golf.

Intramural director Larry Golding last year figured that 3,106 participants took part in all sports and some 1,409 individuals took part in all college sports. Seventy-two per cent of the University's men were active in intramurals last year.

Independent Cagers Dominate All-Stars

Phi Delta Theta, campus intramural A basketball champs, and Chrisman Hall, independent kinds, have dominated the 2nd Annual Argonaut all-star squad. Phi Delt's placed two team.

Jim Howard, Phi Delt center and leading scorer, Mel Schmidt, Willis Sweet; Bill Lawr, Kappa Sigma; Sonny Long, Chrisman; and Max Watt, Idaho Club comprise the all-star's first unit.

The 15-man team was picked from the cream of the crop of the A basketball teams. Selections were made by the Argonaut Sports staff.

Independent teams placed nine men on the squad, Greeks had six. Last season the tables were reversed.

The Arg staff made several attempts to obtain teams to play against but were unsuccessful in each bid. A challenge was made to Washington State's intramural program, but no answer was received.

A local town team would have played the all-star team as a pre-

Spring Grid Drills Open April 13

Spring football practice will begin April 13, more than a month later than last season, according to head coach Skip Stahley. Stahley made the announcement yesterday after glancing out of his office window and spotting seven inches of fresh snow.

The second team includes Jim Cothorn, Sigma Chi and DeYoung at forwards; Lofdahl center; Kent Church, Sigma Nu and Jim Russell, Lindley Hall, guards.

The third team is comprised of Walker and Barry Rust, Chrisman Hall, forwards; Cooke, center; Stephens and Jim Eggleston, Idaho Club, guards.

Stahley earlier this winter had hinted the practices might start April 4 and last through the Spring vacation, but postponed the session until the 13th.

The Vandals will lose ten seniors from the club that slapped Washington State 10-0 for the first time in 29 grid years. Expected out for the spring workout will be 25 varsity holdovers, 25 frosh and 15 newcomers.

Assisting Stahley with the workouts will be coaches Earl Klappstein, line; Gene Stauber, centers and ends, and Jay Pattee, backfield.
