

FIVE WEEKS TO GO---ACTIVITIES MULTIPLY

Song Fest Will Be Sunday

By DON NELSON
The Song Fest will be presented Sunday, May 8, as part of the Mother's Day celebration on the U of I campus. The Song Fest will be held in the Gym at 3 p.m. under the auspices of Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, national music fraternities.

S. Keith Forney, assistant professor of music, will direct the masses choruses in three numbers, "Fighting Vandals," "Our Idaho" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." It was voted by the Song Fest Committee to make these songs traditional. Each group is asked to learn the songs on their own. Copies of the Idaho songs can be obtained from Bill Herr, Delta Tau Delta. Songleaders are responsible for obtaining the music for the Battle Hymn.

Two massed practices will be held in the Gym. One Thursday, May 5 at 9 p.m. and the other Saturday, May 7, at 9 a.m.

The Darrell Callihan Memorial

Trophy will be presented by Chuck McDevitt as a traveling trophy to the winning men's and women's living groups. There will also be two permanent cups presented by Judy Crookham and Bill Herr on behalf of Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, to the winning living groups.

Song leaders are asked to bring three copies of their music to Carolyn Sanderson at the massed practice Thursday night. Any changes in the music should be marked.

Individual living groups can arrange for practices in the Gym this week by signing up at the office in the Music Building. The seating arrangement can also be obtained from the office.

Judges for the Song Fest will be Glen Lockery, Norman Logan and Keith Forney of the music department, Mrs. Alice Bell, Moscow, Mrs. Keith Forney, Moscow and Charles Davis, WSC. The groups will be judged on presentation and quality of their programs, including: intonation, phrasing, accuracy, interpretation and the closing musical effect.

Chairman of the affair, sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, music honoraries, are Judy Crookham and Bill Herr. Program chairman is Janice Radovich. Charles Lentz is assistant chairman.

Lists of houses in order of appearance are:

Pi Phi, "I Would Weave a Song for You;" Delta Tau, "De Gospel Train;" Alpha Chi, "I Heard a Forest Praying;" ATO, "Stout Hearted Men;" Alpha Phi, "Sing Again;" SAE, "The Birth of the Beguine;" Tri Delta, "Begin the Beguine;" Sigma Chi, "You Do Something To Me."

Theta, "A Tribute to Romberg;" Willis Sweet, "Goin' Home;" Ethel Steel, "Where But in America;" Chrisman, "Songs My Mother Taught Me;" Gamma Phi, "Younger Than Springtime;" Phi Delta, (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

SUB To Have 'D' Day

"Spring will fling," and "profs at the Spring Fling Friday at 9 p.m. in the SUB ballrooms. The dress for the informal dance is sport coats and slacks for men and cottons and heels for coeds.

Intermission door prizes of a radio-phonograph, a radio and a pen and pencil set will be awarded. Tickets will be sold at the door for 75 cents per couple.

On the publicity committee for the week are Jan Warner, Joy Simmac, Pat George, Steve Boyle, Lee Backstrom, Joyce Hall, Pat Brawns, Mary Snow and Shirley Long.

Prof's mixing up milkshakes and pouring coffee Thursday and Friday will be James Berris and Darwin Mayfield, chemistry professors; Emmett Spiker, physics professor; Harry Caldwell, geography professor; Ted Sherman, English professor; Ed Moore, philosophy department head; Roger Harder, agronomy professor; Don Marshall, agriculture professor and Dean of Men C. O. Decker.

May Fete Is Set For Sunday

Mothers will be honored guests at the annual May Fete to be held May 8. Chuck McDevitt, newly elected ASUI President, will be master of ceremonies at the Fete to be held on the Ad lawn at 2 p.m., announced Pat Bartlett and Nancy Winters, co-chairmen of the Fete.

The crowning of Karen Hinkley as May Queen by Flip Kleffner, out-going ASUI President, will be the highlight of a weekend of festivities in honor of Mothers.

The University Band, under the direction of Warren T. Bellis, will lead the May Fete procession across the Ad lawn to the Queen's throne. The band will be followed by members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, Silver Lance, senior men's honorary, and Spurs, sophomore women's honorary.

The Queen will be preceded by her court, consisting of Dixie Kroush, page, Janet Campbell, and Hallie Seaman, flower girls, Charles Hart and Kimmie Kirkland, train bearers.

Those participating in the May program are asked to attend a practice at 4 p.m. Friday on the Ad lawn.

Flip Kleffner will open the program with the crowning of the Queen, followed by the winding of the May Pole by the Spurs.

Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen women's scholastic honorary, will present an award to the outstanding coed with a 3.5 grade point average. The Intercollegiate Knights' Holy Grail and the special IK award will be followed by the presentation of the WRA cup to the outstanding out-going senior girl in Physical Education, and the Navy award.

University Singers will then present selections from the Student Prince by Sigmund Romberg, directed by music Professor Norman Logan. The new Spurs will be introduced, followed by a performance by Orchestria, modern dance honorary.

The pledging of new Silver Lance and Mortar Board members will close the program.

The University Band will play and lead the recessional, as the May Queen leaves her throne.

Other weekend activities are the Hell Divers show, to be presented Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. Orchestria will present its Spring Concert Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m.

Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. is the time for the Song Fest. The living groups will compete in the Memorial Gymnasium for the Darrell Callihan Memorial Trophy, a traveling trophy, and two permanent cups presented by Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, national music honoraries.

THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

TUESDAY, MAY 3, 1955

Clean Up And Chow Up--All In One Day

The job was worth 4,000 hot dogs, that is.

Saturday's all campus clean-up proved one thing besides getting the campus slicked up. It proved that the University of Idaho student body can push any function over the top.

Hats off to the man with the idea, Flip Kleffner, and to the work chairman, Terrell Davis.

Tonight will mark the last business meeting of the 1954-55 ASUI Executive Board. Next Tuesday the old and new Boards will have a joint dinner meeting. On the following Tuesday, McDevitt, his four Independents, three Uniteds and two Student Government legislators will swing into action.

Queried on his plans, McDevitt commented on the following items:

THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES INTERVIEW policy is in the planning with Board member-elect John Gillis at the helm. Gillis organized the Social Coordination Council this year and did a top job of it. We predict success for the new "activities policy."

The re-founded TOWN MEN'S ASSOCIATION will have their first meeting next week.

The VOTING ISSUE will probably come up. McDevitt said that he thought the parties would be responsible for their proposed platforms. He said that the new Board would examine all the platform ideas and find the best solutions or make compromises. He had no prediction as to the outcome of the voting issue.

McDevitt opposes the SUGGESTION BOX since he believes that under the house president system it will not be needed in obtaining ideas.

On EXECUTIVE BOARD PUBLICITY, McDevitt said he hoped that the 1955-56 Argonaut would publish everything the Board would do including the record of all its members and the president. He said "that students are entitled to know what the Board members are doing on an individual basis."

McDevitt can't see expending any ASUI money on Executive Board-PAMPHLETS. He is "still convinced that the Argonaut is the best means of voicing any issue."

As for the future of his GOVERNMENT PARTY, Chuck said that the party would probably run candidates next year, but it would have to be decided by assemblies of Student Government Party members. Dean Holt is campaign chairman and will plan the party's meetings next year.

Don't be shocked Friday when a slightly different Argonaut hits the stands. The WSC Dairy Evergreen staff is loading their guns for a "special" Argonaut. The outside will be a concoction of their journalistic humor and the inside will carry regular Idaho news written and edited by the WSC staff.

As for us, we're off for WSC with the joke file.

Four thousand hot dogs went down the drain Saturday noon as Idaho students sat down on a clean Ad lawn and ate their free picnic lunch. The big feed followed an all campus clean up promoted by the ASUI Executive Board and Blue Key. The chow hounds are unidentified but the busy Pi Phis are Loyce Hall, Kristine Anderson, Barbara Brewer, Punky Pugh, Mary Costello and Nancy Benfer.

Marcia Is New Queen Of Military

"If any social activity on the Idaho campus rates a queen, it's certainly the Military Ball. I've never understood why the cadets in the past 50 years haven't done something before this," said Col. James A. Moore, PMS&T, as he crowned Marcia Jensch, Delta Gamma, as Idaho ROTC's first Military Ball Queen last Friday evening in the SUB ballroom.

After walking through the sabre arch, the queen was presented with a crown of rosebuds, a personal trophy and a traveling trophy for the DG House.

The four princesses were Suzie Oberg, Ellie Horsman, Kappas; Shirley Byrne, Gamma Phi and Serie Fox, Alpha Phi. They were each presented with personal trophies. They were chosen from 18 nominees by Scabbard and Blade, service honorary. The queen was voted on by all ROTC cadets.

Decorations

Decorations for the Military Ball were prepared by Dick Cook and his committee. Three large emblems representing the Army, Navy and Air Force were featured. The three military honoraries, Arnold Air, Eagle and Anchor and Pershing Rifles were represented with emblem replicas.

The Air Force showed a drone plane and a "Power for Peace" display, sent by the Fairchild Air Force Base ground school. The Navy showed signal flags, knots and ship model exhibits. The Army featured mortars, machine guns and army field packs and equipment.

Dance Chairmen

Bill Erwin was general chairman of the dance, with committee chairmen Dick Cook, decorations; Eddie Hudson, programs; Hubert Stein, band; Dick Cook, refreshments; Joe Edgett, tickets and invitations; Joe Corless, publicity and Bill Baucher, entertainment.

Music was provided by Eddie Aliverti and his band. Besides the crowning of the queen, halftime entertainment was furnished by the Air Force Choir, directed by John Herrett, and Alyce Sweeney, soprano.

Estes-Shoup Case On Trial Today

Trial on a $138,243 damage suit, brought by University student Richard Shoup against Murray Estes, a former Moscow attorney, opened this morning in U.S. District court here.

The action stems from an alleged assault by the attorney on Shoup in 1952. Shoup asks damages for alleged false and defamatory remarks made by Estes on December 14 of that year.

Judge Fred M. Taylor, of Boise, is on the bench. Ray Cox, an attorney from Coeur d'Alene, and is Shoup's attorney.

'Want Lost' Plea Of Phi Tau's Saturday

Is it possible to get lost on Moscow Mountain? Strange as it may seem, it may have happened, but the two forestry students claim "NO."

The students, Gene Day and Bob Kindsch, Phi Kappa Tau, claimed they didn't get lost when they went on a hike on Moscow Mountain and didn't return that night.

They said that it got dark and they had a long way to go before they would get home so they went on to the lookout on the mountain and stayed there for the night.

They came back to civilization next day at 10 a.m. when the sheriff and a "posse" of Ag students came across them.

The two lost foresters did do a good deed when they cleaned up the lookout while they were there.

Summer Theatre Plans To Produce 'The Moon Is Blue'

The comedy that laughed its way into the hearts of audiences all over the United States, "The Moon Is Blue," will be staged by the University of Idaho Summer Theatre when the "New England Bar Theatre" moved into the Field House.

Cecil Matson, director of dramatics at Lake Oswego High School, Oswego, Ore., will direct the three act play written by F. U. Herbert.

The play is about a very charming and innocently fresh young girl, Patty O'Neill, who meets a young architect, Don Gresham, on the top of the Empire State Building in New York.

Don picks her up and as a result they finally end up at his apartment. He invites her out to dinner, but instead she is determined to cook the meal for him.

Everything progresses nicely until it is discovered that Don has until the day before been, more or less, satisfactorily engaged to the daughter of his friend and neighbor, David Slate.

Slate shows up at the party and is attracted to Patty, and when he gets too friendly, Don shows unmistakable signs of masculine jealousy. Matters come to a climax when Patty's father, an irate and puritanical policeman, directs his anger at Don in the form of a black eye.

Ultimately it turns out that Don is not to blame as Patty's father imagined, and at the conclusion of the play, the scene reverts to the top of the Empire State Building, and ends with Don and Patty happily united.

1800 Students Clean Campus

One of the finest days of the year was celebrated in a general campus cleanup and picnic Saturday. After sprucing up the Idaho campus for Mother's Day, an estimated 1,800 students turned out for the picnic on the Ad Lawn—to eat 4,000 hot dogs and drink 100 gallons of lemonade while sitting in the sun.

Spurs and Intercollegiate Knights, who served at the picnic, handed out the food, which included two thousand ice cream cups.

This was the first time that such a function has been held on the campus for the whole student body, but judging by the results and the general atmosphere of friendliness, the affair may be made annual, stated Gale Mix, ASUI General Manager.

Food was furnished by the ASUI and the living groups, as no lunch was served in the separate houses.

As early as 8:30 Saturday morning, students could be seen with hoses, brooms, rakes, baskets and other tools as they prepared the campus for the Mother's Day week-end which comes next week. The cleanup a Blue Key event preceded the picnic and covered the entire campus, with Keith Jergenson, Dewey Newman, John Gillis, Jack Knodle and John Bahr in charge. Each living group was assigned its special area and worked on it from 8:30 to 11 a.m. some of them even continuing into the afternoon in fixing up the lawns.

Mix said that he thought that this cleanup accomplished more than any of the past ones, and commended Gene Dickey, general chairman; Terrell Davis, work chairman; Flip Kleffner, ASUI president and the staff who worked on the whole affair for their hard work.

Foresters Award Outstanding Sr.

Carl J. Goebel was presented the award of "Outstanding Senior of the year" at the Associated Foresters annual Forester's Banquet April 23.

Earlier that day Carl had made a presentation to the Society of American Foresters meeting (Inland Empire Section) at Pullman concerning "Radioisotope Studies Influence in Forestry." He is presently treasurer of the Associated Foresters and president of Xi Sigma Pi, national forestry honorary here.

The banquet was attended by approximately 120 members and guests including officials of the U.S. Forest Service, Potlatch Foresters, Inc., and other forestry organizations. Awards presented following the dinner included a trophy to the forestry faculty bowling team.

Paving of Sweet Is Not Included In Appropriations

Queried today on whether the University had plans for paving Sweet Ave., President D. R. Theophilus said that "the University is very sympathetic toward the need for improvements on Sweet Ave., but funds for such work were not included in appropriations granted the University for the next biennium."

The street in question runs from the Music Building past the SAE House and on to Main.

Business Manager Kenneth A. Dick added, "More than a year ago the University asked Harvey Smith, city engineer of Moscow, to give an estimate of the cost of paving Sweet Ave. from Blake to Main street. Mr. Smith's estimate for the project, including sidewalk, curbs and drainage, was $64,000.

"As the University's share of such a project would be heavy, it was felt that the work should be done in sections during different bienniums, and $10,000 was requested for paving part of the stretch during the next biennium. However, as Dr. Theophilus has explained, funds for this work were not included in the appropriations."

Scott And Williams Given SDX Awards

Harvey Scott was presented the Sigma Delta Chi outstanding scholarship award in journalism, and Fred Williams received the SDX award for the outstanding male journalism student at a luncheon held in the Student Union building Monday noon.

Bill Johnson, managing editor of the Lewiston Morning Tribune, made the presentation.

WSC Staff Will Evergreen Arg

Students reading their Args Friday may be in for a shock. And WSC students reading the Evergreens may be in for a shock.

The whole deal is that the staffs of the two papers are going to exchange typewriters Thursday.

Censored Argonaut jokes and material from the April Fool's Horronaut will appear on the WSC campus. Evergreen editor Bunny Hunter will lead her staff in retaliation with an April Fool Evergreen in four pages of the Arg, while two pages will be left to serious writing.

Those going from the Arg staff are editor Fred Williams; Gary Pietsch, managing editor; Ruth Brede, news editor; Betty Brooks, copy editor; John Hughes, sports editor; Marie Brammen, social editor; Ricky Jones, photographer and Joe Corless, editorial writer. Reporters and copy desk people will be Don Smith, Phyllis Isaak, Don Nelson, Don Ingle, Steve Emmerine, Marilyn Meils and Jo Carol Bicket.

Cars will leave at 12:30, 2 and 3 p.m.

"Please return my picture of Frankenstein," says Fred.

ENGINEER TO SPEAK

Pictures of the dramatic collapse of the old Tacoma Narrows bridge will be shown by Prof. F. Burt Farquharson of the University of Washington faculty as part of his address at the Sigma Xi initiation. The banquet will be here Tuesday, May 10, at 7:45 p.m. in the Borah Theatre. The director of the Washington Engineering Experiment Station has chosen "Aerodynamics of Bridge Construction" as the subject of his talk.

Teenage Gals Too

Sunday, a feature article came over the wires of the Associated Press which read as follows:

"A bunch of the girls were whooping it up in New York City's Prospect Park last night. And it took a detachment of Brooklyn police to break it up.

"After the fist-swinging, shrieking gang fight by some 50 TEENAGE girls was settled, police were unable to find what had caused the battle. . . Although several of the girls said it was over a boy.

"When police appeared on the scene, the girls took to their heels, but the fleet-footed cops captured 10 of them. The female sluggers admitted the fight was between two Brooklyn girl gangs. But that's all they'd say. So, eight of the girls, who are ONLY 15 YEARS OLD, were given warnings and released for sterner treatment by their parents. But the other two girls, who are 16, have been charged with unlawful assembly."

Despite the humorous vein in which this wire story was written, it seems almost fantastic and certainly somewhat frightening. And consider the case awhile back of the south Idaho girls who jumped and lewdly mistreated another girl.

Yes, young, "sweet," teenage girls committing acts of violence—seems improbable, doesn't it? It's possible to visualize boys' activity. . . But . . . how can a picture be presented of the wide-spread infection of the social disease of juvenile delinquency? It would seem as if it is reaching epidemic proportions.

DEAR JASON

Dear Jason:

I like to thank all the Cosmopolitan Club members who helped make the banquet and the show in Sandpoint a success. A special thanks to the Sandpoint Kiwanis Club who sponsored the banquet, and to the Elks Club for letting us use their lodge.

The chairman deserving special thanks were: cooking, Gurcharan Singh Dhullon and Vaselia Lemonidis (assisted by Darlene Thomas, Jean Parr and Bob Thyberg), serving, Jean Weston and Darlene Malkum; entertainment, Bernard Henderson and Siv Bergstrom and emcee, Gus Laskares.

Bernard Henderson did an outstanding job as general chairman of the banquet, thanks a lot Bernie.

Olaf Stavik, President
Cosmopolitan Club

Dear Jason,

We would like to take this opportunity to extend our appreciation to the University of Idaho for permitting the Cosmopolitan Club to come to Sandpoint under the auspices of the Sandpoint Kiwanis Club. The banquet prepared by the student was sponsored by Kiwanis and they were assisted by the student was sponsored by Kiwanis was most certainly a resounding success—exceeding by far our highest expectations.

You will be interested to know that approximately five hundred meals were served and that all remained to see the program staged by the foreign students. Obviously, if that many people can be reached through one of these functions, the Cosmopolitan Club is indirectly doing a wonderful public relations job for the university. Interest in the University has been aroused where there was none before and stimulated where it already existed.

The food was well prepared, the program was well organized, and the students conducted themselves most admirably. Please accept our congratulations on behalf of a fine university organization and rest assured that the people of Sandpoint are anxious to entertain the group again.

Sincerely yours,
The Sandpoint Lions Club

Six Are Pledged Into Ed Honorary

Pledged Thursday into the Beta Zeta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national education honorary, were five women and one man.

Cleora Andres, president, and Norma Borden, vice president, conducted the pledging ceremonies for Jodi Keith, Mary Pappenhagen, Scott Stewart, Judy Hodgins, Barbara Tibbets and Rosemary Holinger. Initiation will be in three weeks, according to Louise Mix, historian-reporter.

Satire On Socialism Screened Thursday

By JOE CORLESS

One of the noisiest, most unusual duels ever depicted will delight viewers of "The Titfield Thunderbolt" showing Thursday in the Borah theatre at 7 and 8:30 p.m. This English comedy satire on socialism is hailed by critics as the funniest of the year.

Produced in technicolor in 1953, "The Titfield Thunderbolt" tells the hilarious story of a little English village's attempts to keep their private railroad in the face of nationalization. Screenplay, by T. E. B. Clarke who wrote Guinness' "Lavender Hill Mob."

The government decides the 50 year old obsolete train must be replaced because it is inefficient and unprofitable. A bus company of dubious local origin is slated to take over the service which connects the branch to the mainline through-train. However, the proud and stubborn local people, who even set their watches by the regularity of "their" train, rebel.

Through the efforts of the vicar, who is a model railroad fan, the government ministry is persuaded into permitting the people to show that their train can be efficient and profitable. The town's man of wealth who likes to spend his time in the local pub is talked into financing the improved train by pointing out that a bar in the railroad car can open an hour earlier than the one in town. Comments Commonwealth, "The whole cast seems to be having fun."

"The spree gets out of hand, though, when the villainous bus operators cause a train wreck," says Commonwealth. Describes Newsweek, a "mechanical jousting match this is out of the Middle-Ages" occurs when the bus operators drive a steam roller straight down the track at the oncoming train. "The final story of how Titfield citizens save the day is improbable, naive and slightly wonderful," adds Newsweek.

The photograph is one of the outstanding features of the film. At times it almost subordinates the script and the actors, points out Time. The moviegoer sometimes gets the impression that this is merely "an ancient toy railroad running through an equally quaint countryside." However, even if the picture sometimes has an almost dreamy aspect, its humor is said by critics to keep anyone's sides splitting with laughter.

Freshman student gazing at curvaceous coed in a tight skirt who is walking away from him: "Man, doesn't that look like two cats fighting in a gunny sack."

Two attempts have been made in the last four years to gain affiliation. Finances held the group back until this fall when Theta Sigma, with the help of a local merchant, conducted a project which earned the initiation money.

Theta Sigma honored Dorothy Thompson, noted columnist, at a banquet this fall. The members took charge of the housing and registration for the high school press conference held here in March.

Jane Querna is president of the group. Other officers are Patty Bartlett, vice president, Phyllis Gestrin, secretary, Joan Welsh, treasurer and Nancy Leek, historian. Members are Marie Ingebritsen and Marilyn Meils.

The group will honor Argonaut workers and underclassmen interested in journalism at a breakfast May 14. Tapping for new members will be Monday, May 16.

Forestry Files Favorable For Award

The American Forest History Foundation will present an award to the U of I "for its meritorious contributions in the collecting, preserving and disseminating of North American forest and forest industries history," it was learned here today.

Elwood R. Mauder, executive secretary of the AFHF, will present the certificate officially at the Pacific Northwest History conference in Spokane May 7. Librarian Lee Zimmerman said that Charles A. Webber, reference librarian, has been designated as the University representative to receive the award.

The certificate designate the University as an "approved repository" of manuscripts and other materials relating to forest history.

Staff Sees Gem In Editing Process

Four representatives from the Gem staff recently went to Seattle for the purpose of learning how the Gem is put together. The representatives were Darlene Duffy, editor; Jamie Steele, assistant editor; Keith McPhee, assistant editor; and Lorna Hobbey, women's organizations editor.

At Seattle they saw dummy cuts being made, and saw part of the putting together of the Gem. During their three-day visit, they had a chance to meet with the year book staff of the University of Washington.

According to Gale Mix, ASUJ General Manager, the Gem is well under way. In fact, he said, it is ahead of schedule. This has not happened in the past three years. He also stated that the Gem will be out in the middle of September.

Three Events Won At WRA Playday

Idaho placed first in three out of six events at the Women's Recreational Association playday Saturday. Winning participants were Peggy Brink, Joan Baldwin, Margaret Sullivan, Betsy Dregnie, and Julie Whitney, swimming; Jean Charbulak, Pat Farmer and Gail Waring, bowling, and LaVonne Wilson, tennis singles.

Washington State College, Whitworth and Idaho WRA students competed. Others representing Idaho were Darlene Frost and Mary Murray, archery; Janice Crisp and Barbara Larsen, badminton, and Shirley Keough and Betty Hutchison, tennis doubles.

$2,700 Accepted In Scholarships

Scholarships totaling more than $2,700 have been formally accepted by the Board of Regents of the University, it was announced today.

Standard Oil Company of California has provided $1,350 in scholarships for Future Farmers of America, and $1,350 for 4-H Club members.

The Altrusa Club of Pullman and Moscow provided a $57.50 scholarship for Evelyn Anne Evans, an education student from Parma. Irene West, also an education student from Sandpoint, was awarded $25 by the Idaho State Federation of Labor.

THE GREAT CAP and GOWN CONTROVERSY

The cap and gown season is upon us, and with it comes the perennial question: which side of the cap should the tassel hang on?

This is an argument that arises every year to roil the academic world, and it is, alas, no closer to solution today than it was in 1604 when Fred Tassel invented the troublesome ornament.

Fred Tassel, incidentally, never made a penny from his invention. The sad fact is he never took out a patent on it. This tragic oversight becomes understandable, however, when one considers that patents were not invented till 1851 by Fred Patent, himself a pitiable figure. A compulsive handwasher, he died in his fourteenth year, leaving behind a wife and five spotless children.

But I digress. We were discussing which side of the cap the tassel should hang on.

For many years the universally accepted practice was to hang the tassel over the front of the cap. This practice was abandoned in 1942 when the entire graduating class of Northwestern University, blinded by tassels hanging in their eyes, made a wrong turn during commencement exercises and ended up at the Great Lakes Training Center where, all unwitting, they were inducted into the Navy for five year hitch.

There is one school of thought—large and growing daily larger—which holds that the tassel should be worn on the same side you carry your Philip Morris cigarettes. Thus a quick glance will show you where your Philip Morris are and save much time and fumbling.

This makes a good deal of sense because when one wants a Philip Morris, one wants one with a minimum of delay. One does not relish being kept, even for a second, from the clean, delicate flavor of Philip Morris, so artfully blended, so subtly concocted to please the keen and alert taste buds of young smokers. One chafes at any obstacle, however small, that is put in the way of enjoying this most edifying of cigarettes, so pleasing to the perceptive palate. Here, in king size or regular, at prices that do no violence to the slimmest of budgets, is a firm white cylinder of balm and pure, abiding content.

There is another group, small but vocal, that insists the tassel should hang over the back of the cap. The tassel, they say, is a symbol like the bullfighter's pigtail, signifying honor and courage.

They are wrong. Bullfighters wear pigtails for only one reason: to keep the backs of their necks warm. Do you have any idea what a draft a bull makes when he rushes past you? A plenty big one, you may be sure.

In fact, upper respiratory infections, contracted in the wake of passing bulls, are the largest single cause of bullring fatalities. I have this interesting statistic from the Bullfighters Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut, one of the few insurance companies in Hartford, Connecticut, which writes insurance exclusively for bullfighters. Incidentally, Hartford, the insurance capital of America, is a most interesting city and well worth a visit if you are ever in New England, as northeastern United States is, for some reason, called. Hartford can be reached by bus, train, plane, and the Humboldt Current. Try to make your visit in spring, when the actuaries are in bloom.

But I digress. We were talking about what side to wear the tassel on. An ingenious solution to this troubling problem was proposed a few years ago by Fred Sigafos, perhaps better known as "The Quoit King of Delaware." An early forerunner of Mr. Sigafos, Humboldt Sigafos (who later invented the current which bears his name) was granted a monopoly by King George III on all quoits manufactured in Delaware. Somehow the royal appointment was never rescinded and from that day to this, every quoit made in Delaware has been a Sigafos Quoit.

Well, sir, Fred Sigafos once suggested that an equitable settlement to the great tassel controversy would be to starch the tassels so they stood upright and hung on no side of the cap at all. Mr. Sigafos was, of course, only seeking to broaden his market, because after graduation, what can you do with an upright tassel but hurl quoits at it?

The makers of PHILIP MORRIS who bring you this column make no recommendation about what side to hang the tassel on. But with cigarettes they say: Stay on the gentle, tasty, vintage side—with PHILIP MORRIS, of course.

Starr Wins Ag Trophy With Points

Charles Starr, after leading most of the week in the Little International contests, edged out Ken Jenkins by 14 points to win the High Man Trophy in the 29th Agricultural show. Starr had 738 points, Jenkins 724 points, followed by John Moore, Duane Sharp, Charles Clark and Keith Hinkley.

Walker Butcher, manager of the show, said he thought the show was one of the biggest in recent years. He also said about 350 people attended the evening show Saturday night in the Field House.

The Saturday night show featured the presentation of awards by Queen Gretchen Holmes and her two attendants, Judy Crookham and Barbara Tiegs.

Ken Jenkins was the winner of a Carnation Award for high man in judging of dairy cattle and dairy products and Charles Starr won the Idaho Dairymen's Association Award for overall high dairyman.

In the finals of fitting and showing of livestock Harvey Jensen won the championship dairy showing award. Jensen also won the Jersey cattle showing while Phil Edwards was second and Charles Starr was third. LaMar Escott won the Holstein cattle showing with Alvia Carver second and Bill Irwin third.

Contests
Champion beef showman was Don Wamstad who also won first in the Hereford showing and fitting. Doyle Allen was second and Jay Garret was third in the Hereford contest. John Moore won both the Shorthorn and Aberdeen, Angus showing contest. Ken Jenkins and third in Shorthorns and Ed Parsons and Doyle Allen were second and third in the Aberdeen Angus contest.

Don Walker won the Champion showman in Sheep and the Rambouillet sheep showing contest. Charles Clark and Duane Sharp placed second in the Rambouillet contest. Charles Clark, Ladd Mitchell and Ralph Bain placed first, second and third in the Suffolk sheep showing.

Keith Hinkley, Hinkley beat Art Misner and Don Ingle in the Duroc swine showing and placed second behind Charles Starr in the Poland China showing. Tom Trail placed third in the Poland China contest.

Glen Horning won the heavy cockerel contest in the Poultry fitting and showing and the championship in the total Poultry contest. John Moore and Charles Starr placed second and third in the heavy cockerels. Charles Starr, Glen Horning and Ken Jenkins placed in the light cockerel contest.

Results in other contests were: Vegetable seed identification—first, Charles Starr; second, Duane Sharp; and third Lawrence Knigge. Horticulture transplanting—John Moore first, and Tom Trail and Charles Starr tied for second; Plant identification—John Moore first, Bill Yarber second, and Duane Sharp third. Plant pathology—Duane Sharp first, John Moore second and Rich Schmidt third. Farm management—Dale Carlsson first, Ken Farmer second, Don Walker third, Duane Sharp fourth and Jim Bryan fifth. Dairy cattle judging—Chuck Dunham first, Ken Jenkins second and LaMar Escott and Glen Knutson tied for fourth.

In the special contests Hays Hall won the purple cow in the cow milking contest. Betty Wiswall, Steel House, won the individual first prize. Glen Horning won the pie-eating contest by eating the chocolate pie the fastest.

Hays Plans Dance With Cuban Setting

A Cuban atmosphere will prevail at the Hays Hall dinner-dance, May 14. The theme chosen for the dance is "Heat Wave."

Alpha Phi held their Rose Dinner Wednesday night to honor the girls with 3 point grade averages.

Fred Magee was chosen eminent commander of Sigma Nu at their elections April 26. The new officers were chosen for the 1955-56 school year.

HAYS HALL

A Cuban atmosphere is planned for the dinner-dance which Hays will hold May 14. The theme for the dance is "Heat Wave." Chairman of the dance is Sonja Holsath. Other committee members are Joyce Armitage, co-chairman; Gloria Keller, program chairman; Erlen Lund and Lavell Carter, refreshments; Nancy Mulberry, table decorations, and Maxine Fletcher, entertainment.

Hays was honored to have a number of faculty members as Sunday dinner guests. Guests during the week were Mrs. Elmer Ties and daughter, Bonnie, and Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Clements and daughter, Karen, from Nampa, Idaho.

Alpha Phi held their annual Rose Dinner Wednesday night to honor all the girls having a 3 point or above.

ALPHA PHI

Shirley Blick rescued John Mix, Phi Delt, from a watery grave in a wooden crate last Tuesday. The way she got him out of that crate, she must have thought he was going to be shipped to Timbuktu.

The Alpha Phis held their annual Rose Dinner Wednesday night to honor all the girls having a 3 point or above. It seems that some of the Alpha Phis, along with other misled people on campus, have taken to running to the golf course at 6 a.m. Why? To run back again, of course. Maybe the University can sponsor an Olympic team.

Jody Ennis, young alum, and former Alpha Phi president, is a house guest this week. It is good to see you again, Jody.

SIGMA NU

Fred Magee was elected eminent commander of Sigma Nu fraternity for the 1955-56 school year. Other officers elected in the April 25 election were John Hechtner, vice president; Doug Randall, recorder; Pete Woeffel, treasurer; Gary Wescott, assistant treasurer; Dick Symms, marshal; Frank Nosek, chaplain; Bob Robson, sentinel; Gordon Ties, historian; Jim Hanzel, alumni contact officer, and Skip Nelson, reporter.

Studies will be forgotten by Sigma Nus and their dates May 21, for that day they will go to Coeur were members for a day. The new pledges did their house work and then had to stay in the library until 4 o'clock. (But did they study?) At 10:30 they were given a fireside and the girls with the most black marks were given prizes.

DELTA DELTA DELTA
The officers for the coming year spent the weekend swimming in freezing water, playing practical jokes, and determining plans for the next year while on the annual officer retreat to Lake Chatcolet.

Proof of the visit is apparently the number of bruises, sunburns, sun burns and well-filled notebooks which were brought home. Margaret Sullivan returned from the Kappa Sig spring formal wearing the pin of Jack Wilson to prove that their five year friendship will continue for a long time to come.

WILLIS SWEET
With less than a week to go, the chorus is practicing diligently for the Song Fest. Norman Helgeson is chorus director, and Jury Crookham is accompanist.

Congratulations to the boys who made 4 points the first semester. They are Al Stubberud, Tom Warner, Danny George, Terrell Davis, and James Mahlik.

Plans are rapidly progressing for the spring picnic and dance which will be held at Chatcolet.

BATE THETA PI
The Beta frosh sponsored a double tubing Friday noon for Ron Siple and Bruce Curtis. The boys were entertained all morning, and placed in a wooden cage which was dumped in the water at noon. Vivian Vaagen, pinned to Ron, and Rose Harper, engaged to Bruce, quickly came to the rescue.

Guests during the week were Ann Pool, Dave Hargrave, visiting from Pasadena, and Stuart McCormick, Beta from Spokane.

Two wins over Sigma Nu and Phi Tau, and one loss to the Deltas started the Betas in its first week of intramural football.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA
Guests for Wednesday evening dinner were Jane Querna, Maxine Parks and Charlotte Campbell, who is an Alpha Chi from Whitman.

A picnic was held with the Delta Chis last Sunday at Kamiak Butte. Everyone seemed to have a good time singing and eating hot dogs, but may be next time the weather will be better.

Sophomores and seniors gave a "Bohemian Party" fireside for the freshmen and juniors last weekend. Delicacies and root beer were served. It is no wonder that the girls were so tired the next day—the fireside ended with an all night work party.

Last Tuesday all the pledges

Dance Program To Honor Mothers

As part of the Mother's Day activities, Orchestras will present an evening program Friday and Saturday, May 6-8, at 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium. Pre-Orchestra will dance to three songs by George Gerstlwin — "Summer-time," "It Ain't Necessarily So" and "I Got Plenty of Nothing."

Beginning dance will enact a children's fairytale, "The Lost Note."

A humorous portrayal of problems and types of people in the world will be danced by Orchestras. A dance for four people entitled "Before You Love," choreographed to two choric dances by Paul Creston will be danced by Ellie Horsman, Rochelle Henderson, Brenda Lister and Ron Tan. Ron Tan, Dan True and Layne Hahn will do dance movement in a style of boxing.

Each dance will have original costumes. Mrs. Jean Corbett is in charge of costume production. Sets were designed by the Orchestras group and lighting is under the direction of Margaret Coffey.

Members of Orchestras are Ellie Horsman, Nancy Castee, Ron Tan, Dan True, Layne Hahn, Joann Dittmer, Joan Matz, Rochelle Henderson and Roberta Hassler. Patricia Rowe is director of the dance group.

During the May Fete activities on Saturday afternoon Orchestras and Pre-Orchestras will present several numbers.

Admission for Friday and Saturday evening will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students with activity cards. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

HALBROOK SUSPENDED
Oregon State College's high scoring center, 7-3 Wade (Swede) Halbbrook has been suspended from school for the second time. The star of Pacific Coast Conference was also declared ineligible last fall due to scholastic difficulties, but was reinstated in time for PCC basketball play.

Coach A. T. (Slats) Gill was notified that Halbbrook was suspended because of his refusal to attend classes and low grades. The Swede has one year of basketball eligibility remaining.

Sgt. "Jones, your out of step." Pvt. Jones: "Well do something about it, you're running things."

HOLT HITS
Charles Holt '56 was awarded a top honor and a check for $20 for his merchandising and promotion plans. Holt was one of hundreds of collegians taking part in a Business-Education program for the American Tobacco Company.

Post-Song Fest Coffee Hours Set

A social hour will be held after the song fest for students and their parents at Canterbury Club. "Comparative Views of God, Christian, Hindu and Moslem" will be the topic for discussion at the Methodist coffee hour Wednesday.

CANTERBURY CLUB
Tonight the coffee and discussion hour at Canterbury House will feature Dr. Harold McVaine who will speak on the subject "Scientific Language and Religious Faith," by G. E. Hutchinson, a professor at Yale University.

There will be no meeting of Canterbury this Sunday, but there will be a social hour after the Song Fest for students and their parents.

NEWMAN CLUB
A meeting will be held tonight at 8:30 after novena devotions in conference room B. There will be a short discussion on Christian principles in the care of the sick.

This is the third day of the Solomna Novena, which will last until May 10. Mass is said each morning at 6:25 a.m. and 8 a.m. Devotions are at 7 each evening.

WESLEY FUNDATION
The topic for discussion at the Methodist coffee hour this week will be "Comparative Views of God, Christian, Hindu, and Moslem." Free coffee will be served at this discussion on Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the OCC.

The church membership seminar led by Rev. Dave Seaman will be held Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Methodist students are invited to bring their mothers to the Wesley Foundation program this Sunday night for the Mother's Day week end.

AF Plans Course For Orienting Gals
An orientation of AFROTIC cadet wives and fiancées was launched at the U of I last Friday. It was originated by the University of Oklahoma to give the prospective wife information which will help prepare her for a life connected with the military.

Officers and wives of the Idaho AFROTIC detachment are conducting the five-part course which began April 27 and will last through May 25. The program includes discussions, speeches, films and a field trip to Fairchild Air Force Base.

Purpose of the curriculum is to prepare the young wife who accompanies her husband to various posts and stations throughout the world for her role as hostess, household manager and candidate to her military husband.

Programs will be held May 4, 13, 18 and 25.

It's Tony Pastor For Prom Night

Tony Pastor and his celebrated orchestra have been scheduled for an appearance at The Idaho Junior Senior Prom on Friday, May 13. The famed vocal-instrumentalist is currently heading what trade observers have called the finest band in his long career.

Two o'clock permission has been obtained from the administration for the semi formal dance which will last from 9-1.

It will be held in Memorial Gymnasium, with the lucky Friday the 13th as the theme.

Dave Powell and Dick Denney are general chairmen. Fred Williams is chairman of the publicity committee. Joe Corless and Don Bundy are his assistants. Other chairmen are Dick Gakins, posters; Bill Bauscher, tickets; Vonda Jackson and Janet Campbell, programs; Nancy Leek and Cherrie Wood, decorations.

Admission will be $3 per couple.

A WHOLE CABOODLE OF LUCKY DROODLES!

WHAT'S THIS?
For solution see paragraph below.

A WONDERFUL SLANT on smoking! You'll find it in the Droodle above, titled: Tourist enjoying better-tasting Lucky Strike while leaning against tower of Pisa. If your own inclination is toward better taste, join the many college smokers who prefer Luckies. From any angle, Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. Little wonder that Luckies tower above all other brands in college popularity!

WSC Hands Vandals Seventh ND Defeat

Idaho fans had little to shout about yesterday although at one time their team staged a surprise rally to pull within one run of their opponents.

Washington State jumped on Vandal pitcher Aubrey Stephens for six runs in the seventh inning to hand Idaho its seventh consecutive Northern Division baseball loss, 12-6 at McLean Field.

The Vandals gave way to the Cougars in the third frame when the visitors scored five runs to take a 6-1 lead. The home club fought back in the fifth for one tally and added three in the sixth to pull within a single run.

Baseballers To Pullman

Washington State and Idaho play the second game of their current two-game home and home baseball series this afternoon at 1:30 at Bailey Field in Pullman.

The contests will be the first played on Buck Bailey dedicated diamond this season as attempts to play a series with Washington there earlier in the season were fruitless as rain halted both games.

Jerry Barlow will pitch for the Cougars today and will oppose Dick Dodel of the Vandals.

Busy Week

Idaho athletic followers will have plenty of action to follow this weekend as teams from every spring sport will see action.

Oregon golf and tennis squads will open the busy weekend with a series of matches against the Vandal golfers and netmen, on Friday. Saturday, OSC bring their clubs and raquets to town for another Northern Division series with the Vandals.

OSC will be well represented here Saturday as their trackmen also have a ND meet with Idaho at Neale Stadium.

Coach Skip Stahley has scheduled a full scrimmage for his football squad for Saturday afternoon. The 60-man squad will be split into two teams for the public workout.

On the baseball front the Vandals take a break from ND competition Saturday to tangle with the Whitworth Pirates, at McLean Field. Idaho previously dumped the Pirates 6 to 3 in an early season exhibition game at Spokane.

Completing the weekend's athletic activities will be the Helldivers Aquatic Show which is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Scrimmage Saturday

Spring football workouts passed the midway point Friday without further weather cancellations and the Vandals held a two-hour scrimmage Saturday to celebrate it.

Coach Skip Stahley came away from Saturday's grind pleased with the work of his squad, which still hovers around the 60 mark.

Surprisingly few players have dropped from the team in comparison with some 40 men sticking out of some 80 prospects which reported for spring practice last year.

The head coach plans to wind up practices a week from Wednesday if the weather doesn't intervene again. A full-game scrimmage will be held Saturday afternoon with the squad split in half for the public workout.

The Idaho team has concentrated a great deal on passing in their offense this spring which may be indicative that Stahley plans to throw the ball at his Northern Division and intersectional opponents next fall.

Four quarterbacks are doing their share of the passing, Gary Cozian, Howard Willis, Gary Kenworthy and Jim Green. Line prospects for the coming year look bright for Coach Stahley but he admits he will need help in the backfield.

A recent shift to halfback is Bill Baxter, who ran behind the Vandal speed merchant Wilbur Gary last fall. Ralph Kendley, a speedy halfback has been shifted to fullback. In the line tackle Mike Hepler has been tried at guard the past few workouts.

In the injury department, trainer Packey Boyle reports several cases. Guards Art Bergthold and Jerry Haller, have not been in uniform the past few days nor has sophomore giant Wade Patterson, an end, who suffered a foot injury last week.

Six Idaho errors added to the wild contest which found two of the Vandal runs earned and six of the WSC scores earned.

Stephens looked impressive after the five-run third and mowed the visitors down in the fourth, fifth and sixth without damage while his ball club pulled near.

Gordon Hershey and Ron Foisy put together back to back doubles to put men on second and third. Bill Rich lashed a base hit past short to score Hershey and a fielder's choice and a throwing error allowed Foisy to score. Terry Sparks moved to third on Ron Overby's bingle and that was all for the Vandal portside.

Tom Vopat came on and walked Terry Campbell to fill the bases. A sacrifice fly scored Sparks and Overby advanced and Ed Mazza reached first on a bobble at third. Idaho catch Jim Howard tried to pick off Ford, running for Mazza at first, but instead threw the ball into right field to allow Overby to come home.

More Errors

The rightfielder Mick Polillo threw wide at third to try for Ford and the ball sailed onto the foul line bank near the classroom buildings to allow Ford to come home. Vopat fanned Wes Stock, fastballing relief pitcher, to end the onslaught.

The Vandals and Cougars had it out tooth and nail the first six frames. Game Ron Braden, the Idaho leftfielder, made a diving try for a liner in the wild seventh and wrenched his shoulder. He was forced to leave the game.

Ray Copeland and Mack Polillo collided in the third going after a foul loft and Polillo was shaken up.

The Idaho big sixth started off starter Ron Webb with two out when Cougar thirdbaseman Phil Mashburn booted Sullivan's high hopper and Stephens drew a walk. Braden dumped a drag butt down the first base line and beat it out for a single to load the bases. Bob Eolash slapped the first ball offered up by the Cougar lefty and drove it into left centerfield to score Sullivan and Stephens. Kleffner followed with a smash to left, this time off Stock, who relieved after Falashi's blow, which scored the run. Stephens pitched the final out to end the game.

U.W. Netmen Down Idaho; Young Says Team Improved

SEATTLE—University of Washington's tennis team swept to its 65th Northern Division net victory Saturday swamping unseasoned Idaho 7-0.

Led by top ranked NCAA player Bill Quillion and basketballer Doyle Perkins, the Huskies won every singles and doubles match.

Vandal coach Frank Young said his team "looked very much improved over their showing against WSC a week before," and that each player did a "real good job."

"It was the first good workout we have had this season," the coach commented, "when we practiced Friday on the Washington courts. The weather here has hurt us."

The Vandal five-man squad included Barry Rust, Sonny Long, Dave Cummins and Keith Spencer.

Divers Prep

Members of the Helldivers swimming honorary practice for their coming aqua show to be shown this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Russ Whitney is president of the group.

Take Five

John B. Hughes

Biggest news of the 1955 Helldivers' Aqua show to this corner is the promise that the showing this year will be air conditioned. No more stuffy pool quarters.

Club prexy Russ Whitney said the other day that a new plan had been worked out to eliminate so much heat in the pool that has been experienced in past shows.

Russ also told us a little about the show. That it was going to be a little shorter in time, a little about the scenery, etc., but what interested us most was the theme and how the act directors have been working out action to go with it.

"With our theme 'OVER THE RAINBOW,'" Russ went on, "it is pretty hard to find the right music, scenery, costumes and plot to make it into a well rounded show. The act directors have chosen different colors of the rainbow for each act. Black, red, blue and others."

The '55 show will be held this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. See it.

Frosh Drop Opening Meet

Competing in their first regular meet of the season the Idaho frosh track team was defeated 89 to 40 by the WSC frosh here on Friday.

Divot-Men Drop Pair At Seattle

Idaho dropped its first Northern Division golf match Saturday at Washington at Seattle, 20-7 after receiving a devastating defeat from Seattle University the day before 17-1.

The Vandals picked up only 1½ points in the Washington doubles and 5½ in the singles matches. Against Seattle, a team which has beaten every other Division school handsly, Bob Campbell and Dave Powell each picked up ½ point to save Idaho from complete defeat.

Idaho's Bob Adamson toured the tough Seattle Inglewood course in a par 73 against the Huskies for three points in the singles. He was medalist for the Vandals against Seattle with a one over par 74.

Against Washington, Adamson teamed with sophomore Bill Summers for a point and one-half in the doubles. Campbell and Tom Lindsey and Wayne Solomon and John Benzin were blanked.

In conference singles Campbell and Benzin each picked up a single point and Summers added ½.

Coach Lauds Tracksters In Defeat

Although his team dropped a 70 1/3 to 60 2/3 meet to the Whitworth Saturday, Idaho track coach, Joe Glander stated that he was extremely pleased with the showing that his team made. Glander blamed a lack of reserves as the reason for the Idaho defeat.

Only thirteen Idaho men made the trip with several stars unable to go because of spring football practice. Glander stated that it was an excellent team effort.

Idaho picked up one more first place than the strong Whitworth team, coming out on top in 8 of the 15 events. Glander praised the efforts of Frank Teverbaugh and Jay Buhler whom he said helped immensely in the mile relay, won by the Vandals with a time of 3:38.2.

Idaho will host the OSC track team this Saturday, and Glander expressed hope for a very close meet and possibly a Vandal victory if all his men are able to compete in top condition.

The individual highlight of the meet at Spokane, from an Idaho standpoint, was the victory of Lou Gourley in both the mile and two-mile races. Gourley ran the fastest mile time he has ever run in coping that event with a time of 4:23.5. Gourley finished a good 200 yards ahead of his nearest competitor, teammate Bob Thornton.

Gary Dixon also picked up a pair of firsts, winning both the 220 and the 440 with times of :27.7 and :50.4, respectively.

Other Vandal firsts came in the pole vault, discus and javelin. Jerry Duffy captured the pole vault with a jump of 12 feet even. Nick Speroulous won the discus and Buzz Hanson took the javelin, with Duane Hodgson coming in second.

Whitworth was led by their fine hurdler, Ward Woods who swept to firsts in both the hurdle events as well as in the high jump. His 15 points for three victories was the top individual effort of the afternoon.

As the head coach puts it — "a bell for the Backs, a Claxon for Klapstein and a horn for Stauber, and in explaining the latter, points to the end coach's schmoze.

OGLE CATCHING

Jerry Ogle, former University of Idaho football star and catcher, is receiving regularly now for the professional Salt Lake Bees of the Pioneer League, class C.

Ogle signed with Spokane of the WIL league two seasons ago under the Philadelphia Phillies organization.

3 Frosh Golfers Prep For Possible Saturday Match

Three freshman University golfers worked out under coach Tom Biller Saturday at the school's course in preparation for a possible meet this Saturday.

A fourth man will be added for the match, to be held in conjunction with Idaho's varsity match with Oregon.

On the team so far are: Jerry Ballard, Dick Sheppard and Mike Heaton.

Dick Snyder, varsity golf coach, said he had three possibilities as to teams to play this Saturday but did not want to divulge any specific team until final negotiations have been made.

Helldivers Show This Week-end

Helldivers, campus swimming honorary, will present their annual aquatic show Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the Memorial Gym Pool at 8 p.m.

The theme of this year's show is "Over The Rainbow." It consists of water ballet and comedy acts; each act representing a color of the rainbow. Many unusual and spectacular costume and lighting effects are to be unveiled.

Features of the show will be two duets, one by Julia Whitney and Mary Dunn, and shadow swimming by Gene Anderson and Betsy Dregnie. Also on the program is an Indian Sun Dance to be presented by eight lovely Indian squaws and a French chorus line.

Byron Richards and Ralph Proencival will provide fancy and comedy diving thrills.

Admission for the show will be 25 cents per student and 50 cents for adults.

A cute young thing walked into a dress shop and asked to see silk dresses. The saleslady tried to persuade her to buy a wool dress, but to no avail. Finally, she asked: "Why do you insist on a silk dress?"

"I'm tired of having the wool pulled over my eyes."

Freshmen Split With Couababes

Wally Friel's frosh baseballers got off to a fast start by scoring three runs in both the first and the second innings and then went on to defeat the WSC frosh 6 to 1, at Pullman yesterday afternoon.

The win put Idaho back on an even keel with the Couababes, each team having won a pair of games in their series.

Three walks and a booming double by left fielder, Roger Williams produced the three Vandal Babe runs in the first inning. Williams' blow scored Duane Moore and Knute Westergren ahead of him.

Williams also crossed the plate on the same hit as the ball travelled through the left fielder's legs.

A single by Jerry Matsen and Rog Stoker's triple accounted for the Junior Vandals three runs in the second frame. Bill Wilson and Bob Thomas scored as well as Matsen.

WSC scored their lone tally in the fourth inning on a pair of walks and a single by first sacker Drummond.

Clark Anderson started for the Vandal Babes and gave up two hits in four innings. Anderson pitched good ball striking out five and walking four. Gordon Tieg took over for Anderson in the fifth and pitched no hit ball for the final three innings. Tieg struck out two and proved to be very effective.

Matsen led the Idaho hitters with 2 for 4. Idaho played extremely well in the field committing no errors.

The Couababes jumped on starter Kent Church for all their runs as they pounded out a 9 to 4 win over the Vandal frosh here on Friday.

WSC scored only one earned run as a pair of Idaho errors in crucial spots led to Church's downfall. Church was charged with eight hits before being relieved by Gordon Tieg who gave up one hit in the final inning.

The Vandal Babes couldn't seem to get on to the offerings of WSC hurler Roy Davis until the eighth inning when they bunched two hits and a walk for two of their four runs.

FEARLESS FREDDY IS CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Jason's Fleas

Well here we are . . . and there you are. (Our editorial page editor uses this line and everyone laughs).

After an almost successful trip across state line, we made it safely through the SUB and into the Arg office without seeing a living soul. That is not until we came around the last corner and then some guy stepped on our knuckles.

It was strange coming to the Vandal campus without a lot of fanfare. You see the last time we were here there were brass bands and every manner of entertainment. It was indeed a happy occasion . . . sure it was.

On the way into town we noticed a good old fashioned carnival. It was equipped with a merry-go-round, ferris-wheel, balloons and cotton candy. Looks like the mothers visiting the campus will have plenty of opportunity to entertain their kiddies.

Everybody's promoting the SUB this week, even the janitor was wearing a sweat shirt with the words "I love the SUB" emposed on both the back and front.

Evergreeners noticed Freddy the cop lurking suspiciously around the Arg office. Either word leaked out about the big expose in today's paper or else the regular Arg staff is composed of suspicious characters which have to be watched.

If both campae survive, we think the Exchange should be made an annual affair . . . and that's the show.

Eight Diamonds Is Newest Bridge Bid

Bridge lessons will begin Monday in the Bucket. Only pre-requisites to signing up are that you have the normal amount of fingers and toes. Indications are that the way the hands have been going, players won't have to count beyond 20 points to bid.

Several new bids are being introduced by the pro's that are doing the instructing. The first is eight diamonds. This is another way of showing your partner that you have a bust hand. An opening bid of five no-trump will show you have all theaces and don't want to waste time with preliminary bidding.

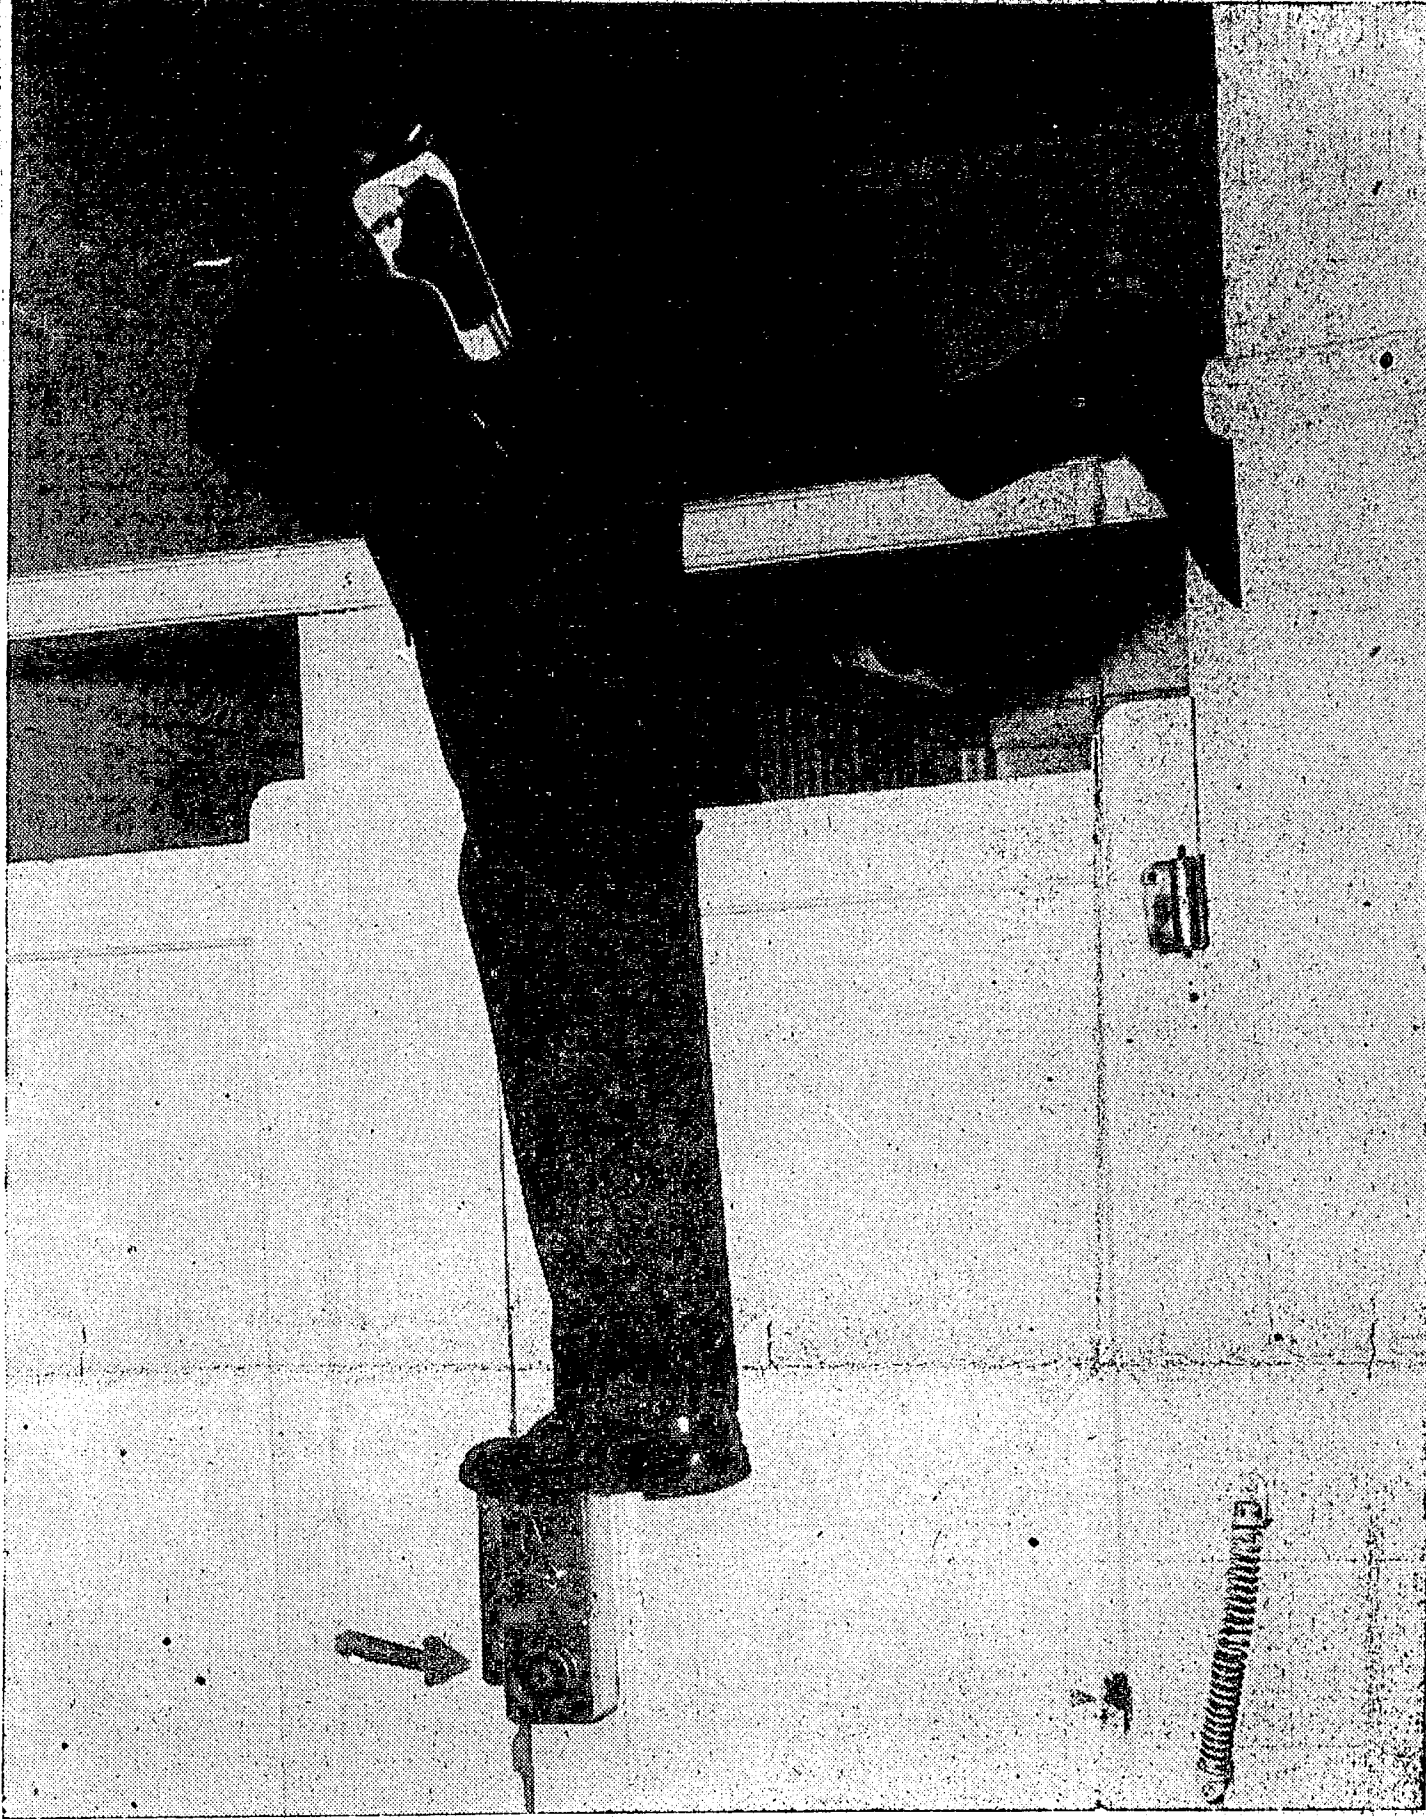

A set of signals has also been worked out to let your partner know what you have, what you want to bid, and what you want led.

Free Food At SUB; Attempt Made To Increase Profit

The Bucket has come through with another of its inspired publicity campaigns. Tomorrow, if enough dainty morsels can be obtained, free food will be dished up for the entire campus.

Cream puffs and raspberries will head the gala affair's agenda. It had been previously planned to serve truckloads of beer, but the Half n' Half threatened to sue the SUB if such activity were permitted.

Only 12 hamburgers will be doled out to a customer. Additional ones may be purchased for the nominal

The above "unidentified" campus cop was caught in the act while scaling the pay door (see arrow) of a downtown relief station in an attempt to beat the nickel tariff. Argonaut photographer Aris Stottle narrowly escaped with his life in shooting the above picture. (Scrounge photo.)

Four-Year-Old Puts Finger On Corruption

At 12:30 a.m. today, Argonaut photographer Aris Stottle fought off an armed campus policeman and three accomplices to escape with this picture that blew the lid off the corrupt law enforcement pot that has been brewing for years on the University of Idaho campus.

Just back from Budapest where he was covering the Argonaut's Hungarian embassy beat, Stottle heard a rumpus in the men's room of the Southern Pacific Station as he stepped off the train. He gave his account of what ensued as follows: "I steps into the room to see what the ruckus was all about when I spots this big fat unidentified cop boldly defying the nickel tariff by scaling the door.

"Immediately I snaps me exposing shot and this culprit's three strong-arm accomplices, who were assisting him in his ascent, grabs me and tries to smash my camera. I frees my arms, smashes their heads together and escapes in the flurry of flying sawdust."

Campus officials investigating the case stated that Mr. Funnel would offer no comment defending himself until his mouthpiece could arrive on campus.

The corruption was termed by the University president as final proof of the "catastrophic mismanagement of campus law enforcement" that has existed for years and promised that the corrupt situation would be remedied immediately.

The only witness on the scene of the crime was the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beech. The youth testified to officials in the following words: "I heard da scuffle and den saw some guy with a camera rush out. I didn't fink anything about it at first, knowing the stink dat clown can create over notin. Den I saw the clown and his henchmen chasin him and figured maybe he used too many handtowels or sumpin. I knew dem fat gumshoes couldn't catch him widout their fatty wagons or whatever dey call em. I'm glad dey got exposed and I hope dey do a long stretch in their own cooler. I hate cops."

Put's the Finger

Young Beech, who put the finger on the culprits, said, "I ain't one to play stool pigeon, but I tink the clown was Fred who puts dem white slips on my kiddy car. Don't get me wrong, though—I ain't rattin on nobody—I don't want no dirty rap on my mitts."

Interrogation officers quoted Funnel as saying, "I don't know nothing, how do ya think I keep my job?"

Co-ed: "I want a pair of bloomers to wear around my gymnasium."

Clerk: (absently) "How large is your gymnasium?"

Silence In SUB Halls Points To Overthrow Plot

Have you ever wondered at the strange silence as you entered the SUB? This is in definite contrast to the healthy deafening atmosphere of WSC's (hats off and face the west) Union Building.

Your reporter, fearlessly inquiring into the dim, silent corridors of this den of eniquity, has uncovered the truth behind this unnatural silence.

Fire Levels Half-'n-Half; 57 Homeless

Fifty-seven University of Idaho students lost their home last night when the Half and Half tavern burned to the ground shortly after midnight. A heartsick crowd of 2,300 students watched with tear-filled eyes as the number one tragedy of the school year struck a fatal blow to the student recreation program.

The blaze began when an unnamed customer flipped a hot chorus girl into a wastebasket. The fire, according to the Moscow fire department, could have been easily stopped at that point but the thirsty students refused to give up their beer to battle the growing blaze. Needless to say, no water was available within the tavern.

Bravery was a common thing at the scene of the fire as many wobbly members of the club staggered into the inferno to rescue sleeping friends from underneath the tables within. The outstanding accomplishment was turned in by Bob L. Scoop who crawled into the building only seconds before the walls collapsed to rescue two untapped kegs. A cheering crowd greeted Scoop as he emerged from the fire, a keg under each arm and a pitcher balanced on his head and then trampled the forgotten hero into the ground as they lost no time in devouring the warmed over brew.

Fallin' Fix, owner of the resort, was reached for comment after a two-hour search found him in a nearby auto trying to revive himself by pouring beer over his head.

His comments were shared by one customer who lost his "home away from home." Another said tearfully, ". . . it was like losin' my mother. Only, I'd rather lose my mother."

Behind these quiet doors brews an evil plot to overthrow the reign of Theophilus I and set up a puppet government in Vandalville.

Using one of my wonderfully clever disguises, I gained entrance to the secret den of the leader of this plot. I found Commissar Chuckinsky McDevittcooff in his den, known to uninformed capitalist swine as the Springa Room. Leaning back in his gold throne, he was slowly and methodically checking the names off in the Kampus Key of those who were to be exterminated when the glorious day would arrive.

Piled on his desk were posters set for distribution. They contained such catchy slogans as—"Vandals of the Campus ignite, you have nothing to lose but your brains."

So here in the very buildings of those who strive to lead us on the tempestuous trail to a higher (higher than what, pray tell?) education, there lurks this plot.

We must strike back to keep our freedom. Brandish your Dewey button and wear it proudly, check on your blind dates to make sure they are not subversive, and break up all groups of two or more who are talking in the halls.

Arg And Green May Swap Locals For 'Face Lifting'

Depending upon the success of the exchange issue, the Evergreen and Argonaut may permanently swap localities. According to next year's Evergreen editor, Tom Heuterman, the exchange was just for variety and if successful, would be good for a "face lifting" for both papers.

Both Fred Williams, Argonaut editor, and Heuterman are agreed that eventually events in the same places become stale. For years, the Evergreen has been covering stories and traditional WSC activities. The U of I has been doing the same. The switch would provide fresh happenings to both schools.

If the change did take place, both paper staffs would transfer schools. This, of course, would create many problems such as tuition, majors, and social life. Plans to overcome these difficulties are now in progress.

On catching wind of the news one Evergreen "female" reporter was quoted as saying, "Oh, goody! I always wanted to see how the other half lives. Besides, Chuck McDevitt is just a doll!"

From similar comments, Heuterman said he gathered that most of the staff would favor the change. Further meetings are planned by the editors and advisers. The results will be announced later.

Girls: To Put Words In Your Mouth Here's A Bonafide Definition Of A College Boy

To the skirt-wearing population of this area of intellectual servitude, we dedicate the following account on the male gender. We especially hope you of Broads, incorporated, who believe that the college man is an entity of Grecian proportions, read this article. Do it lest the cruel hand of truth warp your idealistic mind at some future date, ruining your chances with some chowder head.

What Is a College Boy?
Between the senility of second childhood and the light-hearted

lecherly of the teens we find a loathsome creature called the college boy. College boys come in assorted sizes, weights and states of sobriety, but all college boys have the same creed: To do nothing every second of every minute of every day and to protest with whining noises (their great weapon) when the last-minute inertia is finished and the adult male takes them off to the employment office or the draft board.

College boys are found everywhere—breaking train windows, tearing down goal posts, inciting riots or jumping bail.

Love and Peachfuzz
Mothers love them, big girls love them, middle-sized girls love them and Satan protects them. A college boy is laziness with peachfuzz on his face, idiocy with lanolin in his hair and the Hope of the Future with an overdrawn bank-book in his pocket.

A college boy is a composite—he has the energy of Rip Van Winkle, the shyness of a Mr. Micawber, the practicality of a Don Quixote, the kindness of a Marquis de Sade, the imagination of a Bill Sykes, the appetite of a Gargantua, the aspirations of a Casanova and when he wants something it's usually money.

He likes good liquor, bad liquor, cancelled classes, Playtex ads, girls on football weekends. He is not much for hopeful mothers, irate fathers, sharp-eyed ushers, AMS constables, alarm clocks or letters from the dean.

Nobody is so late to rise or so early to supper. Nobody gets so much fun out of girls, snooker, Bright's Catawba. Nobody else can cram into one pocket a slide rule, a Marilyn Monroe calendar, Kant's "Critique of Pure Reason," a collapsible pool cue, a Mugsy Spaniel record and a YMCA towel.

He's Got De Hootch

A college boy is a magical creature—you can lock him out of your heart but you can't lock him out of your liquor cabinet. You can get him off your mind, but you can't get him off your expense account. Might as well give up: he is your jailer, your boss and your albatross—a bleary-eyed, no account, girl-chasing bundle of worry. But when you come home at night with only the shattered pieces of hope and dreams, he can make them mightily insignificant with four magic words, "I flunked out, Dad."

(Ed. Note: We found this little tid-bit floating around and thought that it was our duty to pass this necessary information on to the female species in order that they might catch one of these things while they are still in season.)

The geology prof was in fine humor for his eleven o'clock lecture, and instead of getting right down to pounding mud, he decided to tell the class a couple of jokes he had heard the night before. Everyone laughed and laughed, except one little freshman in the back row.

"What's the matter with you?" asked the prof, "haven't you any sense of humor?"

"I don't have to laugh," he replied, "I'm transferring to WSC at the end of this week."

'Clean Up Or Clam Up'

Justice prevailed on the Idaho campus this week as ASUI prexy Kleft Lippner, determined to "clean-up the University, stops Ferrell Savis with his trusty G-gun as the latter attempts to discard a handful of wastepaper in the SUB lobby. "When I say we'll clean up this campus, I mean just that," Lippner said, emphasizing each word with a shot at the ceiling. "No man, not even a committee chairman, has a right to break the law," he added. Fale Fix dished out punishment for Public Enemy Savis.
