VOL. 59, NO. 59

THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1955

TONY PASTOR TO PLAY HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Vandal Riders Sponsor Rides

Shirts and jeans will be the dress. No, it isn't an Ag Bowl. It's the all-campus trail riding breakfast Saturday morning from 6-12, and sponsored by Vandal Riders in conjunction with the Associated Students of the University.

Sorry for the short fleecing in Tuesday's paper. A quick trip to Pullman last Monday turned out to be a long one so the Argonaut's second-in-charge, Gary Pietsch, took over.

Our first trip to Pullman last week was a good time for all. The Evergreen has an office that you could almost fit the New York Times into. The Arg staff got in one corner and put out the paper.

You probably heard about it.

Last night the 1954-55 Executive Board met for the last time. Most of the conversation last night was about food instead of ice skating rinks and voting systems. The meeting was an exchange dinner between the old and new Boards.

From the way voting went this spring the new Board should have some solid backing from the students—that goes for the new president too. Plenty of good ideas came up during the election campaigns this year. A closer connection between Executive Board legislation and the student body was the best point brought up.

During the pre-election talk there was some jabber about the Argonaut being biased in Executive Board stories. If anyone believes this, then we refer them to the Executive Board minutes. All the Executive Board stories were taken from the minutes and were treated in an objective manner.

This column, however, does not claim to be objective. It is by Jason. We put what we think in it and that's it. If we tried to reflect everybody's views in the Fleece it would no longer be by Jason.

We're down to five issues to go after this one hits the stands. This year the last Argonaut will appear on Tuesday, May 31. At that date we will have printed a total of 64 issues for the 1954-55 school year. Incidentally, the Argonaut readership survey is now undergoing its finishing touches and will be released in next Tuesday's paper. The survey was taken by advanced journalism students under the direction of Dr. Granville Price, chairman of journalism here.

The Argonaut is out a day early today since the Vandal journalists are now working on the Friday edition of the Lewiston Morning Tribune. Nothing too big though—they made us leave the jokes at home.

WSC Student Seeks $42,645.70 Damages

John Lazovich, a WSC student seeking to recover $42,645.70 in damages from Madison Lumber & Mill Company and Roy Hargraves, a student here, took the stand yesterday in his own behalf as the jury trial went into its third day in U.S. District court here.

Eleven witnesses had testified Monday and Tuesday before Lazovich took the stand. His testimony took up the major share of yesterday morning's session. Richard Gardner, another WSC student who was driving the car involved in the accident also took the stand.

The accident happened during the evening of October 1, 1954, in front of the Half 'n Half Tavern on the Pullman highway. The car in which Lazovich was riding and a truck owned by the lumber firm and driven by Roy Hargraves were involved in the accident.

Larry Carson, trail riding chairman, says students have to bring their own liniment—but that's all. A western breakfast of flap jacks, bacon and chuckwagon coffee will be served at the barbecue pits behind the University field house at 6, 8, and 10 a.m.

Saddle Sores
The three rides—going toward Pullman and returning—will leave from the Field House after each of the breakfasts. A wagon will be provided for the dudes who can't afford saddle sores.

According to wranglers Gale "Tex" Wolverton, Darrel "Slim" Linch, Charlene "Pistol Packin'" Rose and Charlene "Deadeye" Roth, a tractor pulled wagon will drive up to living group hitching posts at 6, 8 and 10 a.m. to tote students to the breakfast.

Lil Pearl
Featured in the entertainment will be Little Pearl, as cute an excuse for a horse as ever burrowed a pack trail. Her offspring will perform with her, according to wrangler Carson.

A posse of Vandal Riders has been riding the country side to wrangle up hosses for the shindig, and promises a ride to every student who wants to taste the trail dust again.

A 50-cent charge will be made to cover equipment costs. Moscow Foods is supplying most of the chuck for the breakfast.

Campus dudes will be asked to check their hardware at the gate of the Arboretum. No fixed dice or poker will be played.

Madrigal Concert To Be Presented This Sunday

The Madrigal Singers will present their traditional concert Sunday, May 15, at 4 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Originally, madrigal singers were family groups who toured the countryside of England, Germany, France and Italy in the 15th, 16th and 17th centuries. They sat around a table and sang music which was characterized by sudden shifts with each voice present carrying his own melody.

The three part program will begin with "Now Start We With a Goodly Song," Hans Leo Hasler; "Deliver Us," Orlando Gibbons; "Shoot, False Love, I Care Not," "April Is In My Mistress' Face," and "Now Is the Month of Maying," all by Thomas Morley.

The second part of the program will consist of "The Dove's Message," "The Fickle Sweetheart," "Geese On The Water," "The Lover's Ride," "The Witch," all by B. Martini.

Ending the program will be "Be gone! Dull Care," "Sweet Honey Sucking Bees," John Wilbye; "To Shorten Winter's Sadness," Thomas Weelkes; "Wake, O Mine Eyes," John Benet; and "Which is the Properest Day to Sing?" Dr. Thomas Arne.

Singing will be, sopranos, Charlotte Campbell, Joan Jabbara and Alyce Sweeney; altos, Karen Hurdstrom, Jane Lange and LaVonne Willson; tenors, John Eikum, Graham Knox and Richard Martin; basses, John Herrett, David Lange and Dallas Quick.

Yell Kings And Queens Chosen

Dale Carlisle, Bill Davis and Jim Snarr were chosen for next year's yell kings May 10 by the ASU Executive Board.

Pom-Pom girls will be Sharon Choate, Sue Watson, Georgia Carico, Sally Ghigliere, Judy Archibald, Shirley Blick and Linda Williams.

One of the top ten ranking bands in the nation, Tony Pastor's, is scheduled to give a full program here Friday night at the Junior-Senior Prom. Pastor has performed on the Perry Como show and has cut many records.

Lucy Purser will sing along with Tony Pastor at his performance this Friday night at the Junior-Senior Prom. The dance starts at 9 p.m. in Memorial Gym. Tickets for couples are $3 and for individual spectators, 50 cents.

Theme Chosen For The Prom

"Magic and Moonlight" is the theme of the forthcoming Junior-Senior Prom to be held in the Memorial Gymnasium this Friday night from 9 to 1. Tickets can be obtained from the ASU office at the SUB for $3 per couple. Spectator tickets are 50 cents.

Music will be provided by Tony Pastor and his orchestra and vocalists will be Pastor, Lucy Purser and Stubby Pastor. The arrangements of the music are the work of the orchestra leader.

"Style" says Pastor, "is the basis of musical success. The bands that gain a definite mark of recognition are in the best position to attain lasting popularity." Pastor himself, is a firm believer in some sort of signature through music. Tony himself makes a good example of what he is trying to prove. His own vocal ability and the manner in which he renders a song are known to just about every man, woman and teenager in the country. His voice is unusual, to say the least, and Pastor is careful in his selection of songs. They must be suited for his style. His careful selection and increased activity have proven invaluable in his rise to fame.

Musically the Pastor orchestra presents an assortment for arrangements that do not follow a set pattern. Ballads receive a special treatment as do novelties, standards and instrumentals. Yet the basic quality is Tony's own trademark. His years of experience have made Tony one of the most respected advisors in the music business. Those best qualified to comment say that his style of singing and playing is among the most popular in the nation today.

The success of the Tony Pastor orchestra can be shown by knowing some of the major sites where Tony has performed. Such famous theatres as Paramount Theatre in New York, Palace Theatre in Cleveland and Orpheum Theatre in Omaha have served Tony in his presentation of his music. Another of the famous music spots in which Tony has appeared is the famous Palladium in Hollywood, the home of big name bands.

Representing the junior and senior classes on the dance committees are: general co-chairmen, Dave Powell and Dick Denney, junior and senior class presidents; publicity, Fred Williams, Joe Corless and Don Bundy as assistants; posters, Dick Gaskins; tickets, Bill Bauscher; programs, Vonda Jackson and Janet Campbell; and decorations, Nancy Leek and Cherrie Wood.

Winners of the 1955 May Fete Song Fest were Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Chi with "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "You Do Something to Me." Runners-up were Forney Hall with "Strange Music," and Willis Sweet with "Goin' Home."

Judges for the festival were Glen Lockery, Norman Logan and Keith Forney of the music department; Mrs. Alice Bell, Mrs. Keith Forney, Moscow, and Charles Davis, WSC.

The groups were judged on presentation and quality of their songs which included intonation, phrasing, accuracy, interpretation and the closing musical effect.

The massed chorus sang "Fighting Vandals," "Our Idaho," and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," at the beginning of the program, during intermission, and while the judges were making their decisions at the end of the program. The concert was held in Memorial Gymnasium in the closing ceremony of a three-day mother's day program.

Committee chairmen are field, Lee Martin; parade, Larry Haight; judging, Jim Karlen and Dewey Newman; equipment, Al Arrivee, and publicity, Jerry Hooper. Bleachers will be set up for spectators.

Contests in this year's games will be tug-o-war, pie eating contest, ping pong ball push, three legged race, potato sack race, egg throw, wheelbarrow race, and football punt. Points will be given for each event with seven points for first, four for second, two for third, and one point for fourth.

Each team will receive one point for entering a contest.

Faculty, Prepare!
Put away the red pencils faculty members and get your reservations for the all faculty picnic to be held Saturday, May 21 at 3 p.m.

Reservations for the picnic must be made by noon on May 19 at the Faculty Club. Food, drinks, games and fun will be provided for all at 60 cents per family.

Journalism Group To Hold Breakfast Honoring Staffs

Campus journalism honorary, Theta Sigma, in its last official function before its installation as Beta Nu chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, last night invited 46 students and professors to a breakfast honoring Arg and Gem staff workers in the SUB Stryng Room May 14 at 9 a.m.

Invited were Karen Becker, Sharrlot Bartlett, Ann Foley, Beverly Bollingbroke, Vivian Vaagen, Patsy Rojan, Rowena Hasbrouck, Ruth Brede, Betty Brooks, Carol Rojan, Kay Kaufman, Marie Brammer, Ann Pool, Sharon Cromwell, Barbara Knight.

Jane Remisberg, Mollie Godbold, Audrey Montgomery, Marilyn Marvel, Claudette Kerns, Julie Temple, Shirley Byrne, Carolyn Sanderson, Judy Crookham, Karen Warner, Marylu Querna, Virginia Nelson, Bonnie Tower, Sharon Choate, Judy Dobson, Sue Watson.

Kay Pettygrove, Betty Jo Roberts, Lorraine Langdon, Mary Snow, Darlene Duffy, Lorna Hobley, Gay Grady, Joan Cady, Lois Wilson, Carol Reichart, Barbara Anderson, Sally DuSault, JoAnn Reynolds and Peggy Varian.

Dr. and Mrs. Granville Price have also been invited. Dr. Price is advisor for Theta Sigma and Sigma Delta Chi, campus and national women's and men's journalism honoraries.

Coeds To Compete In Olympic Games For SAE Trophy

Notice to all females! Idaho coeds are going to participate in the Olympic Games. The women's living groups will have a chance this Saturday at 2 o'clock on the Ad lawn in the Sig Alph Olympics Sponsored by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. A trophy will be given to the women's living group who has the highest total number of points.

Kick off for the Olympics will be Saturday morning when contestants and SAE's will tour the campus with signs, noise, and the leader, Patti Murphy, in a hopped-up 1929 Packard.

According to Jerry Hooper, SAE publicity chairman, the idea for a model Olympic Games came from some of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapters in the eastern part of the United States. He said that the local chapter hoped to make the Olympics an annual event and as big a success as it is on some of the other university campus. This is the second year it has been presented.

Contests in this year's games will be tug-o-war, pie eating contest, ping pong ball push, three legged race, potato sack race, egg throw, wheelbarrow race, and football punt. Points will be given for each event with seven points for first, four for second, two for third, and one point for fourth.

Each team will receive one point for entering a contest.

Committee chairmen are field, Lee Martin; parade, Larry Haight; judging, Jim Karlen and Dewey Newman; equipment, Al Arrivee, and publicity, Jerry Hooper. Bleachers will be set up for spectators.

Review Held Wednesday

Nearly 300 AFROTC cadets participated in the Federal Review held Wednesday afternoon in Neale Stadium on the University of Idaho campus. Led by Cadet Col. Edward L. Claiborn, the cadets were reviewed by Col. Lewis H. Kensingler and his staff from the Air University, Montgomery, Ala.

The review climaxed two and a half days of inspection by Col. Kensingler and staff. All cadet wing activities as well as the detachment's work were inspected. The 180th AFROTC Cadet Training Wing is run by the cadets in the same manner as an Air Force Wing.

At the ceremony, several awards were presented to outstanding cadets. These include the Air Force Association award to Cadet Col. Claiborn, who also received the National Defense Transportation citation and the Air Science IV medal for achievement.

Other awards went to Cadet Major Ralph Townsend, Armed Forces Communication and Electronics Citation; Cadet Captain Stephen L. Peables, American Legion Dudley Loomis Insignia.

The U of I AFROTC awards were presented to Cadet A.3c Larry Summers, Cadet A.1c Gene Kisingler, Cadet 1st Lt. Rick Jones, and Cadet Major Tom Hooker.

On May 19 General Deichelman, head of AFROTC, from Air University will visit the Idaho campus.

Hashers Leave, Now They Grieve

If the University coeds are wondering what happened to the bussers, not the kissing kind but the carrying kind, on the night of May 10, 1955, they might inquire and learn that the rumor has it that the bussers, (NO, NO, not the kissing kind) took off from their jobs and visited one of the local meeting places in Moscow called the hashers.

The heavy work of the hashers at six of the sororities on campus over the Mother's Day week-end, when so many mothers and other guests were on hand to be waited on, instigated the mass movement away from the dining rooms. Only the Alpha Phi's and the Delta Gamma's escaped the horror of coming down to dinner and finding that something was missing, the hashers.

The hashers have returned to work after their glorious escape and are now wondering and waiting for the retribution for such a dastardly deed will come tonight or tomorrow night. The fate of all those innocent young men is in the hands of the coeds.

So a plea goes out, please don't be too rough, who knows one of them might end up being a husband of some lucky gal one of these days.

Yep, he went ape when he heard Tony Pastor was comin'.

Farewell Address

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you, Chuck McDevitt and your nine new Executive Board members upon your recent election victories. We would like to also wish you well as you now take over the reins of student government.

The job is sometimes very difficult and takes long hours of hard work to reach a final decision. The road may be rough and rocky and fair weather friends may desert, but if you feel that what you have done will benefit our Idaho the most, then you have fairly represented the entire student body.

It is up to all of the people who are represented by ASU to see that you are faithful to the best interests of the University, so we hope that they are watchful of your every move.

To the ends then, of better student government, we wish you all a highly successful campaign, and may it be a good year for the Vandals.

Best of Luck,
FLIP KLEFFNER
EXECUTIVE BOARD 1954-55

Soprano Slated For Last Concert

Dorothy Warenskjold will be presented in the last of the Pullman community concerts at Bohler gymnasium at 8:15 tonight. The lyric soprano is a star of opera, concert, television and radio, getting her main chance for fame by appearing as The Standard Hour guest artist for the last 6-8 year, according to Glen R. Lockery, of the music department here.

Idaho and Washington State student activities tickets will admit students to the performance. Miss Warenskjold was only three when her music education began. She was a junior at Mills college—studying law—when she discovered she had a voice. Soon she was singing leading roles in school productions and abandoned her law career.

Orchestra Will Play

Featured violin soloist with the University Symphony Orchestra when this group appears in their annual Spring concert on the evening of Tuesday, May 17, will be William Fitzsimmons, associate conductor of the Symphony this semester and visiting instructor of music in the department of music.

Fitzsimmons is from Omaha, Neb., where he attended the University of Omaha. After graduation there, and following two years of service with the armed forces, Fitzsimmons entered the Eastman School of Music at Rochester, N. Y. where he subsequently received the artist's diploma and his Master of Music degree. At the time of his appointment to the Idaho music faculty he was serving as a member of the Omaha Symphony Orchestra. Fitzsimmons will play a movement of the Concerto in G Minor by the modern composer, Max Bruch, with the orchestra assisting.

Other major works included in the program are Overture and Allegro from "La Sultane Suite" by Francois Couperin; "Egmont" overture by Beethoven; the Second Suite, "L'Arlesienne" by Georges Bizet; and the Symphony No. 8 in B Minor, usually known as the "unfinished," by Franz Schubert.

Conducting the orchestra will be Elywn Schwartz, assistant professor of music. Idaho's symphony, founded in 1922 by Professor Carl Claus, is one of the oldest symphonic organizations in all the Northwest states.

The concert, to begin at 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium, is open to the public without admission charge.

"Willow And I" Is Drama Show

"The Willow and I" by John Patrick is a thrill packed drama which will be presented July 26-28 by ASUJ summer theatre.

Jealousy between two sisters, one dominant and selfish, the other frail and delicate.

A quarrel between the sisters, a gunshot, and the sensitive sister is shocked into a mental oblivion for forty years.

In the violence of a thunder storm, the now old lady awakens to a changed world.

Her adjustment to a new life presents further exciting situations. The dramatic impact is heightened by an implied meaning for the audience. In confused and changing times, we awake each day to a new and changed world.

Why The 'Big Four' Meet?

Plans are being laid on an international level to hold a forthcoming "Big Four" conference between President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Eden, Premier Antoine Pinay and Premier Nikolai Bulganin. As Churchill so fondly believed, will this do any good to ease the present world situation?

There are many reasons for holding this high level confab, but none of them seem to be basically to achieve peace. For most of the Western world feels that the Russians cannot be dealt with at the conference table. As Professor Kerner, head of the Institute for Slavic Studies at the University of California, pointed out in a recent address on this campus, nine-tenths of Russian foreign policy is "sub rosa"—sub versive or by means other than "traditional diplomacy."

Eden has publicly and vehemently opposed such a summit meeting. Now, however, as news commentator Elmer Peterson said, since an election has been called in England, it will look good for the Conservative government under Eden to have participated in a new peace drive at the conference table.

Eisenhower stated yesterday that he thought some good would come from the meet. Pinay doesn't trust the Russians. And Bulganin is merely a mouth piece for Krushov, the supposed real head of the Russian government. Thus, it is reasoned that Bulganin cannot effectively negotiate.

It is believed that Russia will come armed with concessions. However, this move will be part of an overall plan to attempt to neutralize Germany—just as the Austrian treaty is. It will be to Russia's advantage to set up a group of neutrals in West Europe similar to those in Southeast Asia such as India. Thus, the United States would lose military allies, and Russia would gain more trade and a greater sphere of influence.

Is the meeting worthwhile? Any meeting over a conference table is better than over a bayonet, especially when the bayonets have Atomic edges. "But it should be remembered that the Russians are out to feather their own nest, no matter what the appearance. Their started goal is the conquest of the world."

—J. C.

Dr. Kernerio Is Heard

"If we are to have peace instead of armistices, we must adopt a positive policy of backing the enslaved peoples behind the Iron Curtain in the liberation of themselves," Dr. Robert J. Kerner, director of the Institute of Slavic Studies at the University of California, said in an address Monday night before the University Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary.

"Conventional diplomatic dealings with the Russians are almost hopeless, because nine-tenths of the Soviet Union's foreign policy is unconventional or sub-rosa," Kerner declared. "We are not using facilities at our disposal, such as Radio Free Europe, as effectively as we might. When one man listens behind the Iron Curtain, a hundred more hear. These people live to hear what is going on in the world outside, and what they want to hear is that there is a positive policy with hope for them."

"They listen to American jazz that is played, and to stories about the good life in America, but they want to hear more than these things."

Kerner said that "we can learn to be as unconventional in foreign policy as the Russians. We are rubes in foreign policy, but we can learn."

He added: "Moscow and Peking are in one sense brittle, and could crumble in days or months from within."

Sign-up For Rides To Cosmo Picnic

Cosmopolitan Club students must sign for rides to the Saturday and Sunday picnic by Friday noon at International House, according to Olaf Stavik, club president.

The picnic will be held in the mountains about 60 miles north of Moscow. Rides will leave Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Some cars will return Saturday night and cars will be going up Sunday morning.

Members will be charged 75 cents at the picnic. They can pay Darlene Thomas, who is in charge. Members will not be allowed to attend unless they have paid their 50 cent dues and they are also expected to share transportation costs.

Cosmo members are again reminded of the 3 p.m. election of

Engineers Choose DePalmo President

The Associated Engineers elected Charles DePalmo as president for 1955-56 at a dinner meeting May 5. Jerald Gentry was elected secretary-treasurer, Dean Allen S. Janssen is the advisor.

Outgoing president and secretary-treasurer were Donald Olson and William Cameron, respectively.

Following the election reports of the year's activities were heard and plans were formulated for next year's activities.

Journalists To Lewiston

Many of the Argonaut staff members and juniors and seniors majoring in journalism will write and edit the Lewiston Morning Tribune today. The Argonaut was published early for the convenience of those leaving this morning.

Those going will be Fred Williams, wire editor; Gary Pietsch, rewrite editor; John Hughes, sports editor; Jane Querna, advertising manager; Ruth Brode, feature editor; and Betty Brooks, Steve Emerine, Marie Ingebritsen, Marilyn Meils, Tom Neal, Art Schmauder, Harvey Scott, Ray Sipes, Julie Temple, reporters and feature writers.

Juniors and seniors in journalism made the trip last year, in addition to a two-day trip to Idaho Falls in April last year.

Students take over everything but the management and actual printing of the Tribune. Bill Johnson, ex-Argonaut editor, is the Tribune managing editor.

Officers, May 22 in Conference Rooms A and B of the Student Union. An installation and open house will follow in the new International House, directly east of the Student Union.

Field Trips Are Many

Three field trips in geology, bacteriology, forestry and engineering will be made between now and final exam time.

Saard Boonkirk, Lawrence Elfering, William Charke and Bernard Nugues will return today from a two-day field trip to Oregon.

Leaving today for a three day trip will be geology students David Amos, Dean Barber, James Barron, Teddy Ciesielski, Henry Eyrich, Eyan Hess, Jack Hooks, Harry Johnson, Theodore Lessard, Norman Radford and Alice Vrsky.

Bacteriology students will go to Spokane May 16. They are Shirley Brandvold, Dorothy Carter, Margaret Clemans, Rajander Dillon, Pat Duffy, Sherman Kirkham, Margaret Post, Emma Radler, Gwenn Scribner, Walter Tiff, JoAnn Wallace, Florence DeRoss and Yonda Jackson.

Taylor Cops First In Law Contest

William B. Taylor, Grangeville, has been awarded first place in moot court competition at the University of Idaho, it was announced today by Dean Edward S. Stinson of the College of Law.

Second and third places in the local contest went to John M. Reese and Chuck McDevitt, ASUI president-elect. The three men will represent the University as a team in the National Moot Court competition next fall conducted by the New York City Bar Association.

In winning the local contest, the students were presented awards by the West Publishing Company and the Lawyers' Cooperative Publishing Company.

Classes To Open September 26 At Normal School

First staff members appointed at Lewis-Clark Normal School, which will open for classes September 26, will look after the institution's physical plant. They are Kenneth R. Hensley, manager, and Alonzo H. Kessler, who will assist Hensley as superintendent of buildings and grounds.

In preparing for reopening of the institution which was closed four years ago as Northern Idaho College of Education, Dr. H. Walter Steffens, executive dean of the University of Idaho, said "we are taking first things first, and the work on the physical plant must begin at once in order for the school to be ready for the renewal of academic life next September."

Dean Steffens, who has been given the administrative responsibility of reorganizing the school, added:

"We are now completing work on curriculum plans for Lewis-Clark, which will offer for 1955-56 the first year of courses for teacher training. Next step will be to engage faculty members, and we want to hire the best possible teachers within budget limitations. The first year is vitally important to the success of Lewis-Clark, and

NOTICE

Graduating seniors who want "Putting Hubby Through" degrees for their wives must apply at the General Manager's office of the ASUI not later than May 13, 1955, according to Gale Mix, general manager.

Also, any graduating seniors or students not planning to return to school next fall are asked to stop in at the general manager's office in the SUB to leave their mailing addresses and 25 cents for mailing costs of the 1955 Gem of the Mountains. It will then be mailed in the fall. No gems will be mailed unless the student leaves a forwarding address and the 25 cent fee, Mix said.

SUMER IS ICUMEN IN

Sumer is icumen in; Lhudo sing cucu! Thus, as every schoolboy knows, begins T. S. Eliot's immortal Hiawatha. And no wonder "The Boy Orator of the Plate" (as T. S. Eliot is commonly called) was moved to pen such light-hearted lines! For summer (or the "vernal equinox" as it is frequently referred to) is the happiest season of the year, mild and balmy and contented-making.

Which brings us, of course, to Philip Morris Cigarettes. They, too, are mild and balmy and contented-making. But that is not all. They are also genial, placid, and amiable. But that is still not all. They are, moreover, smooth, pacific, and lenient. But hold! There is more. They are, in addition, tranquilizing, clement, and dulcet.

Indeed the list could go on and on, until every adjective is exhausted that would describe the mildness of Philip Morris, the subtlety of their blending, the delicacy of their flavor. What more perfect companion could be found to a summer's day? What more apt complement to a summer's night?

If you have been pleased with Philip Morris through the winter and spring—as who has not who has a taste bud left in his head?—you will find your pleasure compounded, your enjoyment trebled, when you smoke Philip Morris in the warm and joyous months before you.

My own plans for the summer (except that I will smoke Philip Morris through all my waking hours) are still vague. I have been invited to attend a writers conference, but I don't think I'll accept. I've been attending writers conferences for years, and I always have a perfectly rotten time. The trouble is that Alexandre Dumas and Harriet Beecher Stowe are always there. Not that I have anything against these two swell kids; it's just that it breaks my heart to see them. They're so in love—so terribly devoted and so hopelessly! Dumas will never divorce Jane Eyre while she is with Peary at the North Pole, and Miss Stowe has long since despaired of getting her release from the Pittsburgh Pirates. So hand in hand, brave and forlorn, they go from writers conference to writers conference while Dumas works on his monumental Stover at Yale.

No, thank you, I'll do without writers conferences this summer. I think instead I'll try to improve my fishing. As Izaak Walton once said, "No man is born an artist or an angler." I often turn to the works of Walton (or "The Fordham Flash" as he is familiarly called) when I am searching for a choice aphorism. In fact, I told him so when we met some years ago at a writers conference. Walton was accompanied, as always, by Henrik Ibsen (or "The Pearl of the Pacific" as he is known as). They—Ibsen ("The Pearl of the Pacific") and Walton ("The Fordham Flash")—were collaborating on Mister Roberts at the time, but they fell to quarreling and abandoned the project and the world, as a consequence, was deprived of a truly robust and entertaining comedy.

It is not uncommon, I must say, for writers to fall into dispute. They are, after all, a sensitive and high-strung lot. I'll never forget what William Makepeace Thackeray (or "The Body" as he was universally called) once said to me. "You show me a good writer," said Thackeray, "and I'll steal his wife."

Well, as I was saying, I think I'll give writers conferences a miss this summer, and I recommend that you do the same. Why don't you just take it easy? Swim and fish and sail and smoke and read and sleep and tan your lithe young limbs. I want the best for you because—if I may get a little misty in this, my final column of the year—I think you should know that it's been real kicks for me, delivering this nonsense to you each week.

And in conclusion let me state what Jane Austen (or "Old 54-40 or Fight" as she is called the world over) once said to me. "Nothing is so precious as friendship," she said, "and the richest man in the world is the one with the most money."

Officers Were Elected By Three Groups

Elections are taking the spotlight again as several living groups choose officers for the next school term. Margaret Costello was reelected president of Pi Beta Phi; Gary Cuthbert was chosen as worthy master of Alpha Tau Omega; and Hugh Hamilton took over the reins as eminent archon of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

ATOs began a busy week Tuesday with the beginning of "Help Week." This year the pledges are cleaning and painting the house of an elderly woman in Moscow.

Idaho Club has on its agenda a picnic exchange on Chatolet with Regents Hill girls.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Sunday evening saw the installation of the new house officers for the ensuing term. Elected were Gary Cuthbert, worthy master and Paul Ackerman, worthy chaplain. Other officers are Willard Childs, Don Donaldson, Jim Adolphson, Ray Bittner, and Bill Cooke.

Many parents visited the house during Mother's Weekend. Included were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cole, Tucker Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Cole, Mrs. George Cooke, Mrs. Carl Harris, Mrs. Jenny, Mrs. Raeder, Mrs. Shockley, Mrs. E. L. Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Nordby, Mrs. Jack Rice, Mrs. Ackerman, Mary Ellen Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Landreth, Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Drake, Mrs. Turpin, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Heatherly, and James Heatherly.

"Help Week" officially started Tuesday afternoon of this week. This year's pledge project is the cleaning and painting of the home of an elderly lady in Moscow. The project should be completed within the week.

SIGMA CHI

Sigma Chi entertained about 50 guests at the Chapter House during the Mother's Day festivities; open house was held on Sunday. The Singing Sigs entertained during the occasion. Included in the weekend guests were brothers Bruce Sweeney and Roger Williams.

Our special congratulations to Ron Leppke, who was recently initiated in the fraternity. Ron wears the jeweled badge awarded for high scholastic achievement as a pledge.

The house expresses its appreciation to John Herret for his time and work in connection with the Song Fest, and also wish to sincerely thank Shirley Danielson for her fine job as accompanist.

A party was held at Sigma Chi with Kappas on Sunday evening following the Song Fest.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Thetas enjoyed entertaining many mothers this week-end. The girls were happy to have so many mothers staying at the house to hear the two serenades.

Thanks to the SAEs for the serenade Saturday night and thanks to the Sig Chis for the "winning" serenade, Sunday evening. Shirley Danielson thanks the Sig Chis especially.

After a grand week-end of work, the hashers surprised the girls, especially the freshmen, with the dishes. Tuesday evening the doors didn't open for dinner, so the Thetas investigated to find a note of sorrow. "We couldn't take it any longer!"

IDAHO CLUB

The Club freshmen are keeping a wary-eye open these days for brewery, Harry Armpit, well-known lover on campus, was elected social chairman.

Guest at last Sunday's dinner was Happy Hendle. He is frequently invited to dinner because of his donation of the chapter house. SLOB was also honored by the presence of Percy Canthropus Erectus from Pittsdown, O.

BMOOC (Big Mouth on Campus) Krudy Krinard won the annual yodeling championship of the Palouse Hills last week.

Recently initiated was Darrel Downbeat Davis, the California cat, who transferred from Terracina Institute of Technology last fall. The transfer really likes it up here.

Theme for the annual spring formal is "Keep Huggin' Um." The "Dream Queen" is Prunes Pupa, a Sigma Alpha Xi pledge.

Horatio Timmons and MacDonald Mylne have set June 1 as the date for their marriage. This is Horatio's first marriage; he is 45 years old. This will be Mac's fourteenth marriage; she is 19.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

SAE honored visiting mothers with a tea Saturday afternoon. Thanks to Al Arivee, song leader, for a great job in the Song Fest.

New officers of SAE Idaho chapter are Hugh Hamilton, eminent archon; Janice Steele, eminent deputy archon; Larry Haight, warden; Paul Cunningham, herald; Larry Fellows, chronicler; Max Burke, correspondent; Ken Axtell, recorder; Al Arivee, chaplain, and Dewey Newman, social chairman.

SAE is expecting the chapter supervisor, Patrick Murphy, soon. Remember girls, the Sig Alpha Olympics is Saturday.

Visiting Musicians Plan Workshop At Summer School

Visiting faculty members in instrumental and vocal music will conduct three, two-week workshops during the University of Idaho summer school, June 13 to August 5, it was announced today by professor Hall M. Macklin, head of the music department.

They are Paul Yoder of Chicago, nationally-known composer, arranger and conductor; Imogene Bercaw, director of choral music at Ventura, Calif., senior high school, and Wilbur C. Harris, who has taught at Minnesota State Teachers college and San Marcos State College in Texas.

Yoder will direct a "school band techniques and materials workshop" from June 20 to July 1. The workshop will give attention to the marching band and its functions, problems and techniques.

The summer school choir will be utilized as the laboratory performing organization for a "choral techniques and materials workshop" conducted by Mrs. Bercaw July 5 to 15.

A practical laboratory course in basic repairs, adjustments and regulating of musical instruments normally in use in a school music program will be conducted by Harris from July 18 to 30.

All three music workshops are for two University credit hours. The music in the joint was so bad that when a waiter dropped a tray of dishes, everyone got up and started dancing.

"It's only Ed's sister with his laundry."

Appointments Approved By Board Of Regents

Faculty and staff appointments here, approved by the Board of Regents, were announced today by Dr. D. R. Theophilus, who himself received an appointment as president of the University.

Two assistant professors in mathematics were named. They are Drs. Charles H. Cunkle and Ted R. Jenkins. Cunkle comes from the faculty of the University of Missouri. He has also taught at A & M College of Texas, Louisiana State University and the Army Education Center in Munich, Germany. He holds an A.B. degree from Indiana University and M.C.S. from Louisiana State, and his doctorate from Missouri.

Jenkins has just completed his doctorate work at the University of Washington. A graduate of the University of Michigan, he received his master's degree at Washington.

Also appointed on the mathematics staff as an instructor was Alma B. Jollie. She had previously served on the staff before her marriage.

Named assistant horticulturist at the University's Parma station was Walter James Kochan, who has been doing advanced work at Rutgers University.

Joseph Howard Manning of Fruitland was appointed Lincoln County extension agent, replacing Fred E. Kohl, who becomes Bonneville County extension agent. He has served various commercial organizations in Idaho, as well as teaching in Twin Falls and Declo high schools.

Is Extension Agronomist Robert E. Higgins, formerly Bonneville County extension agent, now becomes extension agronomist for the University. David L. Thacker, who has been an assistant county agent-at-large, was appointed assistant county agent of Gooding County. New English instructors are
