

Publication's Mixer Is Set

Weekend festivity will reach its peak Saturday night at the gala all campus mixer co-sponsored by the Gem and Argonaut. Not only is a wonderful dance on tap but the intermission entertainment will be of the "side-splitting" variety, in the form of a satire on athletics provided by the very competent Ralph and Louretta Alley.

The ol' University of Idaho campus seems to be primed for the big weekend hassle—"The Battle of the Palouse." Rally signs are being painted, houses cleaned up, extra beds are being made up for the hundreds of guests that will flood the campus, but no one has checked around outside.

Students have had a whole week to clean up the trash and loose ends of Homecoming, but paper and floats still seem to be reclining everywhere.

Down around the SAE house there are a few floats that drivers parked there after the parade and walked off and left. It'll look real nice for the WSC crowd Saturday.

Dale Carlisle, yell king, mumbled something to me that he was going to burn the whole works along with the Cougar Friday night if something isn't done about it.

You shy boys had better put your bid in for a date to the Arg. Gem Vandal Hop Saturday night if you want to get off cheap. With the idea of promoting love affairs on the campus, we are charging a buck a couple and the lone wolves will have to fork up $1.25.

The SUB will be the place to be to whoop and holler after the utter defeat of the WSC Cougars. Come down and join the fun and frolic.

Interest in campus politics is picking up these days. The United Caucus had a meeting the other night to talk shop, but they couldn't do anything concrete 'cause the Executive Board hasn't set the date yet.

Just for the record, Jason is picking up his interest in the political shuffle too. To let the students of the U of I in on the latest and keep the campus informed as to the political scene, the Argonaut will attempt to cover all aspects of elections this year.

By treating the political news as objectively as possible, Jason hopes to prove a service to the campus.

Anderson Speaks On Viennese Life

Lee Anderson spoke at a meeting of the International Relations Club last Wednesday telling the members about his recent trip to Vienna, Austria. He mentioned things he noticed about the Europeans and particularly about student life as he observed it in Vienna.

Election of officers comprised the business meeting with Dick Cooke elected as president, Al Arrivee as vice-president and Ann Popma retaining the secretaryship.

Nosek Chosen Dad's Day Chairman By Exec. Board

Try outs will be held next Monday for an additional Pom Pom girl, it was announced by the ASUI Executive Board at their regular meeting Tuesday night.

During the last meeting, Frank Nosek, Sigma Nu, was elected Dad's Day Chairman. The rest of the committee will be selected at a later date.

The board discussed the telephone situation at Gault and Upham halls. The difficulty concerns long distance calls. The operator must check a list of students before accepting any long distance calls. The result is that pay phones may be in stalled next year. Other schools have been consulted to see how they handle the situation.

The campus blood drive has been scheduled for the 25th, 26th, and 27th of October. The Red Cross reports that they only need 500 pints this year.

Music will be provided by Cec Heick and his Notables, a campus orchestra. In addition to Ralph and Louretta Alley's act, which will be accompanied by Marie Van Orman, plans are underway to present an additional act or acts.

Reminders: If you have noticed some hilariously garbed young women dashing around campus from house to house don't be alarmed, it's just a means of reminding you to attend this dance. Dress will be strictly informal so don't change a thing just come to the dance as you went to the game.

Gary Pietsch and Jamie Steele are co-chairmen of the dance. Louise Tatko is intermission chairman, Marlon Briggs is in charge of ticket sales and Jim Bell is handling publicity.

Admission is $1.00 per couple or $1.25 stag. So don't come alone, it won't be profitable. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

U.N. Week Opened By Panel Of 10

A panel of four professors and six students will open the celebration of United Nations week on Monday, the 17 of October. The panel, to be held in the North Ball Room of the SUB at 3:10 p.m., will have Dr. Robert Hosack as moderator.

Assisting Dr. Hosack on the panel will be Professor K. R. Charya representing Liberia, Professor Julio Pena representing Equador, and Professor Beringer representing Germany.

Students on the panel will be Cham Kaur Singh Brar of India, Hosien Rafiee of Iran, Abdul Kamil of Syria, Seto Jo of China, Sverre Daehli of Norway, and Olga Figueroa of Guatemala.

The panel is being planned jointly by the International Relations Club and the Cosmopolitan Club as a celebration of United Nations Week, which is from Oct. 17 to the 24. Governor Smiley has officially declared the 24th as United Nations day.

The panel members will discuss the appearances of the United Nations to the various countries of the world.

The international Relations Club and the Cosmopolitan Club urge all students, faculty, and town people to attend.

Vets Will Form New Constitution

Art Rieley was selected chairman of a committee to make a constitution to organize the veterans on the campus by a meeting of fifty vets Tuesday night.

Five other members of the committee are: Ron Johnston, Gary Cowles, Dick Moore, Buz Hofmeister and Tom Warner.

Jim Hagriss, Independent, Jim Seely, United, and Homer Oberst, Student Government Party, were appointed to the Election Committee. The Election board exam is to be given some time next week.

The Executive board has adopted an official University ring. The ring is to have the University Crest on one side, the Administration Building on the other, and the lettering "University of Idaho" encircling the stone. The type of stone will be left up to the individual. The official adoption of a University ring will lower the cost considerably. The Bookstore will probably handle the sale of all rings.

Meredith Willson

Probably best known as a radio and television entertainer, Mr. Willson is also a successful composer, and talented writer. He was the first composer to have two numbers placed simultaneously in top positions on "Your Hit Parade."

'The Long And The Short Of It' Features Meredith Willson Today

Genial humor, refreshing comment, and good music are combined in "The Long and Short of It," a musical lecture featuring Meredith Willson, nationally-known entertainer, successful composer, talented writer, and philosophical humorist, and his wife, Rini, a successful concert singer. The program, which gives long-hair music a hair cut, according to one critic, is scheduled for Memorial Gym today, October 14, at 11 a.m.

Class periods for this morning will be cut to 35 minutes each. The morning schedule will be: first period, 8-8:35; second period, 8:45-9:20; third period, 9:30-10:05; and fourth period, 10:15-10:50.

Played With Sousa: Willson and his attractive wife co-star on the NBC radio program, "Every Day." The erstwhile star of other radio shows such as "The Big Show" and "Meredith Willson's Music Room" started his career at 17 with John Philip Sousa's famous band, and played five years under the baton of such notables as Toscanini in the New York Philharmonic.

He has conducted the Seattle Symphony, the San Francisco Symphony, and the Los Angeles Philharmonic. "Mail Call," and "Command Performance," two memorable shows for GIs, were part of Meredith's responsibility as head of the music division of the Armed Forces Radio Service during World War II.

Improved Programs: He came out of the service determined to embark on a personal crusade to do something about what he felt were the trite musical programs on radio and the tired format into which commercial announcements had fallen. In his zeal to make commercials palatable, Willson conceived the "Talking People," a speaking chorus to deliver the sponsor's message.

Willson has also written serious compositions, marches, anthems and the musical scores for a number of films including "The Great Dictator" and "The Little Foxes."

The Willsons' time is divided between a California home and a New York apartment. Their dachshund, Piccolo, accompanies them on trips.

The conductor-composer is tall, black-haired, genial, and has a seemingly inexhaustible supply of anecdotes and reminiscences. He contributes his youthful appearance to being in what he calls the "music business." Hardly the hayseed he affects to be on the air, nonetheless, he is a philosophical Iowa.

Has Written Hits: As a song writer, Mr. Willson is a composer with a Midas Touch. He was the first man to have two songs placed simultaneously in top positions on "Your Hit Parade," writing the tunes, "You and I," and "Two in Love." Other top hit platters are: "I See the Moon," and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

Trudgingly yours, Chuck McDevitt, ASUI President
Gary Pietsch, The Idaho Argonaut Editor
Don Nevile Smith, The Idaho Argonaut Sports Editor.

Big Crowd Expected For 'Palouse Battle'

Between 16,000 and 18,000 people are anticipated to be present on the Idaho campus this weekend for the annual "Battle of the Palouse Empire," said Del Klaus, ticket mgr. This will be the largest crowd for a football game at Idaho since the 1947 Homecoming game with WSC. This crowd was estimated at 22,500.

According to Jim Lyle, the stadium is almost sold out, and he anticipates the largest crowd in years. Capacity of the stadium is approximately 17,000, and the 3,000 seats allotted to WSC have been sold out.

Del Klaus advises all those who want to get general admission tickets to be early so that they may obtain tickets when they go on sale at noon on Saturday. Ticket sales will continue until Halftime.

At halftime, both Idaho and WSC will present their bands for activities and will each put on about a seven-minute display. Also the Kappa Sig trophy in honor of their 50th anniversary on campus will be presented to the University. Dr. Theophilus will accept the trophy for the school.

Fifteen minutes before the game, a trophy will be presented to Moscow and the University of Idaho in recognition of six deathless years on the streets of Moscow. The Secretary of the National Safety Committee is flying out from New York to make the award. Mayor Will and Chuck McDevitt will accept the award.

After the game several houses will hold open house.

Buffet Supper: The Elk's Club will serve a buffet supper at 6:30 Saturday. All other local restaurants will operate as usual but will have special menus.

To brighten up the week at the Bucket, Cougar-Burgers are on sale for 25 cents each.

The Cadillac that will be raffled off November 19, will be present at the game. This drawing for the car is sponsored by the Vandal Bench and tickets will be sold Saturday.

The Arg and Gem staffs will present a dance to be held in the SUB at 9 o'clock tomorrow night. Admission will be $1.00 for couples and $1.25 stag.

Vandal Boosters Elect Officers

Newly-elected president of the Vandal Boosters, Inc., is Norman Sather of Wallace. He was chosen to succeed Sam Kaufman of Boise at a business meeting of the organization during the University of Idaho's Homecoming weekend.

Re-elected vice-president was Harold Cornelison of Moscow, with Frank Young, assistant athletic director at the University, being voted in as secretary-treasurer. Elected to the board of directors for three-year terms were Fred Hultz, Parma; Ben Mottern, Twin Falls, and John Richards, Coeur d'Alene.

Members of the team will be present and Chuck McDevitt will give a talk. The Deltas will present the cougar which will be burned.

Dale Carlisle, rally squad, requests that every house be ready at 6:30 and be on their corners at this time and start cheering things up. He also requests that each house has a rally banner. These posters can be used later for house decorations.

Yells, songs and the Alma Mater will wind up the rally.

Rink Bids To Be Called For Again By Regents

Anyone want to build an ice-skating rink for $175,000? A new call for bids in the construction of a long-proposed ice-skating rink was authorized by the board of regents at its meeting here this week-end. A contemplated expenditure of $175,000 had been set when the bids opened September 20, but the current bids were rejected as being too high.

The bid for a concrete rink by John E. Thomas, Moscow, was $257,200, and of Hansen & Parr Construction company, Spokane, $256,500.

Campus politics brought the proposed rink under the lights last year. However, it was under discussion and consideration for nearly two years before it became a reality.

The idea of a skating rink appeared in November, 1953, when each student, having been deducted $10 for a student facilities fee, was asked to fill out a questionnaire as to what recreational facility he would like on campus. Executive Board was to gather student opinion and present it to the board of regents for approval and action. Although the questionnaire wasn't successful, a later poll was, and student opinion ruled that a skating rink was the choice.

Action Finally Taken: Executive board approved the project, the regents approved it, and a committee headed by Kenneth A. Dick, comptroller and bur-sar, was set up to select a site and draw up tentative plans.

SAEs Begin Violet Queen Competition

For the next two weeks, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will entertain 12 coeds of the University of Idaho as candidates for their annual Queen of Violets contest. Five finalists will be chosen this year.

The climax of the annual event will be the selection and crowning of the queen, with a presentation of trophies to the other finalists and the queen, on October 29, at the Idaho Alpha chapter annual Violet Ball.

Karen Warner, 1954 Queen of Violets, will crown the new queen who will reign throughout the 1955-56 school year. The queen will be eligible to enter the national SAE Queen of Violets contest this year.

The candidates are Sara Robertson, Delta Gamma; Jean Walker, Gamma Phi Beta; Ann Copithorne, Delta Delta Delta; Jolyn Keith, Alpha Chi Omega; Shirley Hendrickson, Pi Beta Phi; Diane Kail, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Cecilia Swanson, Ethel Steele; Liz Cleveland, Alpha Phi; Anita Koskella, Forney Hall; Joan Ramstedt, Kappa Alpha Theta; Joan Cowles, French Hall; Barbara Wagner, Hays Hall.

Guys, Save Your Coins For Hop!

Save your nickels, guys! The annual Spur Nickel Hop will take place on Friday, October 21. This name is especially fitting for this novel dance, for the men go to the women's living groups and donate a nickel to the Spurs for each fifteen minutes of dancing.

All women's living groups will observe closed night from eight to eleven to insure a supply of dancing partners, stated co-chairmen Dot Drayton and Jan Wilms. The living group collecting the most money will receive a prize; this award was given to the Delta Gamma House last year.

Jane Bonham, Spur President, putting in a plug for the Hop said, "Here's a chance for you fellows to get around and meet those gals you haven't found yet—don't miss this opportunity. We'll see you all at the Nickel Hop, okay?"

Music Department Students Granted Seventeen Awards

Music scholarships totaling $2,300 have been awarded to 17 University of Idaho students, it was announced today by Professor Hall M. Macklin, head of the music department.

Fifteen of the awards, covering fees in applied music, are presented by the music department. The other two scholarships are given by the Presser Foundation and the Idaho Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Respective winners of the latter two $250 awards are Karen Hurdstrom and Eleanor Soden.

The music department's 15 scholarships of $120 each are granted after consideration of demonstrated musical ability, scholastic record and financial need. Those receiving the awards this year include:

ACCEPTANCE

To: ASUI President Chuck McDevitt
To: The Idaho Argonaut Editor Gary Pietsch
To: The Idaho Argonaut Sports Editor Don Nevile Smith

Dear Vandals:

It is the sincere regret of the residents of the WSC community that the lapse in training for the annual Moscow to Pullman walkathon was forced upon students of the University in the fall of 1954.

Therefore the undersigned, in effort to prepare you and your student body for another collection of 29 years in which to again obtain agility of foot and leg, hereby accept your challenge secure in the knowledge that we can bring you into condition to enable you to once again commence your annual jaunts to the Utopia of the Palouse—WSC!

Encouragingly yours,
Bill Strassen, ASSCW President
Tom Heuterman, WSC Daily Evergreen Editor
Tom Gullikson, WSC Daily Evergreen Sports Editor.

The Do's Count Too

In last Tuesday's Argonaut there was an editorial commenting on the need for continuing good sportsmanship between the schools. However, good sportsmanship does not merely mean a restraint in destructive pranks. It includes participation in the activities of the event. In this use good sportsmanship includes supporting the team from the stands, giving a little enthusiasm to the pre-game pep rally by an active participation.

Along with the don'ts a few do's add a lot to the spirit and sportsmanship of the school.

—J. W. K.

Don't Be Taken In

"If an individual allows himself to be guided toward one answer and does not give other philosophies equal hearing then he has denied himself the right of academic freedom. An answer based on such a formula is incomplete and borders on indoctrination." This statement in an editorial of the Coe College Cosmos is extremely relevant today.

Many college men and women come to school to learn and then interpret learning as indoctrination. Learning does not consist of memorizing facts and statements of professors. If anything, statements of professors should be questioned and analyzed to find out why a statement is true if it is true or why it is false if it is false. This is especially true if the instructor's statement conflicts with a belief you hold. Questioning, analyzing and discussing a point is really learning. In this manner a student learns to think, which is one of the most important aspects of education. Mere rote memorization is truly indoctrination which does nothing more than create a reservoir of cliches and over used statements as answers to future questions or problems.

A true scholar is one who first examines and questions his own beliefs then formulates the principles he will stand for. He does not change these unless he is proven wrong. The person who switches sides merely because of convenience or because some "authority" has said to is no better than an automaton or slave. Thus the true scholar can and does change his opinions and bias but only on logical grounds. Also he accepts new materials and ideas but reserves adopting them as truth until they have been proven true.

These statements may well apply to the coming speech of Dr. Robert M. Hutchins. We students and the administration would not let anyone dictate to us. Now we can go and hear what this educator has to say before we pass judgment upon him.

DOWN BEAT

ED.—This is the first of such columns by Down Beat that the Argonaut will run for the interest of musically inclined students on the campus. This is just another effort of the staff to bring more entertainment to its readers.

Tall, physically powerful, and emotionally intense Dave Brubeck has become the most publicized modern jazzman in the country. His quartet, which also spotlights alto-saxist Paul Desmond in addition to pianist Brubeck, has received many jazz honors in the last two years—including the 1954 Down Beat reader's poll as the finest jazz group of the year.

Brubeck's Columbia albums have all been best sellers. His total sales since joining that label in 1954 have astonished even Columbia's executives. And his older albums on the Fantasy label are still doing extremely well.

Dave continues to shatter the usual misconceptions about what a jazz musician is like. For example, the jazz musician is supposed to be a 20th century gypsy who loves to wander and hates the roots of home and community. Brubeck disproves this myth. After saving for years, he recently built a beautifully designed spacious home in Oakland, Calif. He loves to stay home with his family so much, as a matter of fact, that he arranges his bookings so that he spends at least six months of the year in the San Francisco bay area.

Another frequent misconception about jazz musicians is that they have no set goals for the future. Brubeck again is the practical opposite of this. It has been his determined ability to plan and build a career that first led him to study assiduously at the College of Pacific and, later, at Mills College with the renowned French composer, Darius Milhaud.

Although Brubeck himself doesn't often talk about his music, he is sensitive to criticism and has been hurt at times by magazine articles directed against him and by the attitude of many jazz musicians who regard him as outside the main tradition of jazz and accuse him of lacking the rhythmic quality of "swing" that is an essential part of the jazz feeling and way of playing.

Brubeck strenuously denies that he lacks "swing," and he regards himself as very much a jazzman, although he realizes that the path he has chosen is a lonely one, one that is strikingly different from that of his contemporaries.

Jazz Briefs: Pianist Bud Powell is back on the jazz scene again after several months' rest. He recently concluded a successful engagement at New York's Birdland. Incidentally, Bud's young brother, Richie Powell, also plays piano and can be heard with the Max Roach-Clifford Brown quintet.

IKs Launch Money Making Project; Sell Magazines

You can now read more for less money, according to Dick Weeks, IK prexy.

For the next two weeks the Intercollegiate Knights are sponsoring a sale on some of the more popular magazines: Life, Time, Fortune, and Sports Illustrated.

The publishers are making drastic cuts in price for the benefit of college students. Life will sell for $4.00, a saving of $2.75. The price on Time was cut in half to $3.00. Fortune and Sports Illustrated will sell for $7.50, which is a considerable saving.

The IK's in the men's living groups will take orders for subscriptions. The women's houses will be visited by the IK's nearest them. Off campus students may obtain subscriptions from IKs on Mondays.

If you're graduating this year, don't worry. The magazine of your choice will be sent to your new address, said Weeks.

No money is needed when you order. The publisher will bill you.

Professor Banks Speaks In Boise

Professor William C. Banks, of the Department of Humanities, was the guest speaker Saturday, October 8, at two sessions of the Idaho Writers' League during their two-day workshop conference in Boise.

The Boise chapter members were hosts to about 150 representatives who attended the annual meeting from chapters throughout the state. In charge of the short story and novel sections was Mrs. George M. Dunford.

Other speakers included members and faculty from Boise Junior College and the College of Idaho.

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SMOOCH

Back in my courting days (the raccoon coat was all the rage, everybody was singing Good Morning, Mr. Zip, Zip, Zip and young Bonaparte had just left Corsica) back, I say, in my courting days, the standard way to melt a girl's heart was to write poetry to her.

Young men today have abandoned this gambit, and I must say I don't understand why. Nothing is quite as effective as poetry for moving a difficult girl. What's more, poems are ridiculously easy to write. The range of subject matter is endless. You can write a poem about a girl's hair, her eyes, her nose, her lips, her teeth, her walk, her talk, her clothes, her shoes—anything at all. Indeed, one of my most lamented love lyrics was called To Maud's Pencil Box. It went like this:

*In your dear little leatherette pencil box
 Are pencils of yellow and red,
 And if you don't tell me you love me soon,
 I'll hit you on top of the head.*

Honesty compels me to admit that this poem fell short of success. Nothing daunted, I wrote another one. This time I pulled a switch; I threatened myself instead of Maud.

*Oh, Maud, pray stop this drive!
 And tell me you'll be mine,
 For my sweetbread they do shrivel
 And wind around my spine.*

*My heart doth cease its beating,
 My spleen uncoils and warps.
 My liver stops secreting,
 Soon I needs be a corpse.*

When this heart-rending ballad failed to move Maud, I could only conclude that she was cruel and heartless and that I was better off without her. Accordingly, I took back my Hi-Y pin, bid her adieu, and have not clapped eyes upon her since. Last I heard of her, she was in North Scituate, Rhode Island, working as a clam sorter.

But I did not mourn Maud long, for after Maud came Doris—Doris of the laughing eyes, Doris of the shimmering hair, Doris of the golden tibiae! Within moments of meeting her, I whipped up a torrent of trochaic tetrameter:

*Oh, my sweet and dulcet Doris!
 You're gentle as a Philip Morris,
 With its mild and rich tobacco
 And its white and scarlet pack-o,
 Both in regular and king-size.
 Doris, tell me please your ring size.*

Well, of course, the poor girl couldn't resist a poem like that—what girl could?—and she instantly became my slave. For the rest of the semester she carried my books, washed my car, and cored my apples. There's no telling where it all would have ended if she hadn't been drafted.

So, men, you can see the efficacy of poetry as an aid to wooing. Try it soon. All you need is a rhyming dictionary, a quill pen, and a second-hand muse.

©Max Sholman, 1955

The makers of PHILIP MORRIS, sponsors of this column, give you no rhyme, but plenty of reason, for smoking Philip Morris: It's the gentlest, pleasantest cigarette on the market today.

Dear Jason:

Not that we are against trophy stealing, but someone took the sign from the porch of the International House recently, apparently under the pretenses that it was a legal trophy.

it, but would prefer its return with no strings attached.

SAE, Delt Dances Are October 27

October 29 is the date of SAE and Delt dances while the "friendly" foes, Beta and Phi Delt, dance the 22nd. Rumor is that the big football game between Phi Delt and Betas is also the 22nd. Busy week-end boys?

HAYS HALL
Things seem to be cooling down after the busy weekend of homecoming.

Some of the homecoming guests were: Mrs. Genevieve Wallace, Ken Wallace, and W. T. Lovell of Coeur d'Alene; Sally MacQuinn of Idaho Falls and Bonnie Jones.

DELTA GAMMA
Congratulations to Gus, first for being chairman of the winning float and second for being the 1955 Homecoming Queen.

DGs are happy to announce the pinning of Nancy Backstrom to Wally Kenny, Fiji and Gretchen Holmes to Bob Newhouse, Beta.

Next Sunday the WSC and Idaho chapters will have a fireside.

Cynthia Karlburg was elected pledge trainer. Glad to have Cindy back from Northwestern University.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON
Sig Alpha are looking forward to the Violet Ball on October 29. Many plans are being made for this annual event.

Pledges elected Jeff Williamson, president with Bob Vallet, veep; Don Hume, secretary; Duane Thompson, treasurer and Babe Alexander, social chairman.

Congratulations to Fred Eriksen and Wick Johnston who were formally pledged Wednesday night.

SAE honored a departed national officer, John O. Mosely, with the flag at half-mast on Wednesday.

BETA THETA PI
Most important this week was the initiation of seven men: Joe W. Aldana, Bill Galligan, Bryant Sather, Van Larson, Duane Perron, George Fowler and Lee Griffin. Thirty Betas from WSC honored the new members as did Jim Lyle, alumni secretary; Bob Greene, director of dormitories; Charles DeVange, Beta district chief and Dean Eldridge. Congratulations to the fellows.

Betas are making important plans for the annual dance which is slated for October 22. Jim Rickel is the dance chairman.

Kappas were guests at an all-house exchange last Wednesday with the "Lone Ranger" providing entertainment — that is, Doug Klein.

Pledges and members as well as president, Bob Newhouse got rather wet at the tubbing for Bob and Gretchen's pinning.

Beta pledges elected Dave Eskelin, president; Neal Newhouse, veep; Jim Golden, secretary; Jim Douglas, treasurer; Ray Cartee, social chairman and Eddie Kale, song leader.

PHI DELTA THETA
October 22 is the Phi Delt dance at which pajamas is the dress.

C. C. Bondurant is leading Bonzo Davies, in second place, with what is known as the "screamies." This ailment is the result of a rip-roaring homecoming weekend — or any other weekend if desired.

Clova Beck was Wednesday evening dinner guest when "Goon" Simmons provided entertainment.

Thanks to the DGs for the help on the float.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA
Pledge officers for the year are: Dorothy Bauer, prexy; Helen Farmin, veep and social chairman; Sandy Yost, secretary-treasurer; June Sleeman, scholarship chairman and Karen Taylor, song leader.

Dinner guests this week were: Tom MacGregor, Charlie Sauls, Margie Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Klages.

Kappa pledges were hostess' for LDS this week.

FRENCH HOUSE
was opened by an address by Margaret Campbell. Margaret Draper, group president, gave the response.

Punch and cookies were served at the tea after the dedication.

The gals enjoyed an exchange with the TKEs and hope to schedule another.

DELTA TAU DELTA
October 29 is the date set for the annual pledge dance of which Dick Powell is chairman. Deltas are keeping the theme a "secret" until shortly before the dance.

Harold Crowson is the pledge prexy with Jack Acres as veep; John Rosholt, secretary-treasurer; Jon Hayes, sergeant-at-arms and Rich Gillespie, social chairman.

Deltas announce the pinning of brother, Ken Goodwin to Alpha Chi, Jan Hale.

Hearty thanks to Tom MacGregor, Dick Parsell and Harold Crowson who were big guns in helping the Deltos cop homecoming honors.

Delta Mu chapter of Delta Tau Delta extends congratulations to the Kappa Sigs who are celebrating the golden anniversary this weekend.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON
Congresswoman Gracie Pfost and husband, Jack were guests last week. Other guests were: Lt. Don Walbrecht, Ralph Benedict, Herb Spencer and Alan Johnson.

Thomas "Pee Wee" Brickert, (real estate tycoon from Coeur d'Alene), has been unanimously proclaimed "Candy" of the month. Al "Alphonse" Waitz is the close runner-up.

Thanks to the Alpha Phi, Tri-Delt, Kappa and Pi Phi pledges for the lovely serenades.

DELTA SIGMA PHI
Exchanges have high lighted

this week for the Delta Sigs. The Alpha Phis were hostess to the pledges and last night the house had an exchange with the Thetas.

A coffee hour with Dan Fullerton playing his guitar, was enjoyed Tuesday evening.

Delta Sig pledged selected Dale Williams as prexy; Pat Hart, veep; Dwight Patton, secretary-treasurer; Chuck Perry, social chairman; Roger Seitz, scholarship chairman; Lee Flechsel, intramural manager; Peter Armstrong, sergeant-at-arms and Dan Fullerton, song leader.

Robni Merrell, Tom Lyda and Gary Erickson were formally pledged Tuesday evening. Congratulations, fellows.

Visiting alums were: Terry Hunter, Jim Wright, Dick Martin, Bob Pearson and Avery Ford.

Betty Jo Roberts, chapter Dream Girl, and some Thetas have been cheering the fellows at intramural games—thanks gals.

EXAMS THURSDAY
Election board examinations will be given on Thursday, October 20, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in conference room A in the SUB. Those students interested should come during these hours. Material covered will be found in the ASUI handbook and constitution. Copies of the Constitution are available in the ASUI office.

Bubbles, Axe Men, Shorted Skirts Hit Nation's Campuses

Students will be students! One of the prize possessions of the University of Kansas, Chancellor's Fountain, was recently filled with soap, making a bunch of fluffy bubbles—ink ones, no less. A large group of students were found milling around the fountain but campus police failed to pick out the guilty party.

All sorts of strange things happen during rush week, and at the University of Texas, six black clad figures with stockings over their heads walked solemnly through a sorority house, bearing a body on a stretcher. As the girls stood speechless, the six loaded the whole works into a waiting ambulance and roared away.

Hordes of red-shirted Engineers at the University of B.C. descended on the quaking frosh in an attempt to maintain upperclass supremacy. They decided the freshman girls' stylish gunny sack skirts were too long, so they whipped out scissors and jackknives and reduced the skirts to an acceptable length.

This forced shortening proved embarrassing to some of the girls, who had neglected to don jeans under their sack skirts.

Churches To Have Film, Speakers

LAMBDA DELTA SIGMA
Important business meeting for all members and prospective pledges at 8:00 p.m., Friday. A short social will follow.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Interested 4-H'ers To Meet Tuesday

The University 4-H club will hold the first meeting Tuesday, October 18 at 6:45 in conference room B. Former 4-H club members, both high school and college are urged to attend.

Several parties have been planned, also talks by International Farm Youth Exchange students as well as by foreign students.

The club plans to make displays for National 4-H week and to sponsor projects to improve 4-H club programs. The club also helps the State extension service in planning the 4-H short course for next summer.

Grab Or Starve Sure Sounds Familiar

NORTON, Okla. (ACP) — A chuckle from the Oklahoma Daily's "Meekly Speaking" column:

A farmer invited the pastor of his church to his home for Sunday dinner. The farmer's wife had fried two young chickens for the meal so she set them on the table and they all sat down to eat. Before the farmer and his wife had finished helping themselves to the vegetables on the table, the pastor had completely devoured both chickens. Just as the minister pushed his plate aside a rooster crowed loudly in the farmyard.

"That rooster sure sounds like he's proud of himself," observed the pastor.

"Well, he dern sure should be," quipped the farmer. "After all, he has two sons in the ministry."

Hall Or Hotel? Some Students Have Both

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (ACP)—Augsburg College officials had to reach off campus to find a solution to a housing problem. Faced with a surplus of 40 girls who could not be accommodated in dormitories, the college rented the entire fourth floor of a nearby hotel.

Two girls are assigned to each hotel room and transportation to and from the college will be provided three or four times a day. Washing, pressing and kitchen facilities will be available and the girls will have the use of a cafe and recreation room on the ground floor of the hotel.

Regular residents at the hotel won't be seeing much of the young ladies, however. The fourth floor of the building will be closed off from the main part of the hotel with keys issued only to the girls.

So, for the boy friends, it'll be just like a dormitory.

EE Professor Author Of Bulletin On Radio

Possible uses of the Citizens Band radio equipment are limited only by the imagination of the user and the rules of the Federal Communications commission, according to Lloyd B. Craine, assistant professor of electrical engineering at the University of Idaho.

Craine is the author of an Engineering Experiment station bulletin just off the press, "Citizens Radio Band Communication for Idaho." In citing the uses of radio such as with construction gangs or on the farm or range, Craine said that voice communication will take the place of hand signals.

The Idaho professor added that the Citizens Radio Band bulletin will be useful for farmers, ranchers, resort owners, packers, hunters, fishermen, local delivery and distribution services, civil defense, crowd-control and lost persons search control.

The bulletin summarizes field tests on equipment and gives communication ranges for hand-portable and car-mobile sets over many types of land contour and cover. Much information in the booklet also applies to the industrial radio band at 450-460 megacycles, Craine said.

Both the hand-portable and car-mobile systems are described in detail, and investment cost and operating and maintenance costs are estimated. The selection of a system to fit a known communication need is outlined.

In general, the bulletin covers such topics as the Citizens Radio Band, frequencies, classes of equipment and licensing require-

Cosmopolitan Club Wycoff Selects Gaskins To Head NROTC Command

The opportunity to eat a meal from almost any foreign country will be available to people in the Sandpoint vicinity soon when members of the University of Idaho's Cosmopolitan Club travel there for the first of a series of banquets.

Foreign entertainment will add to the program, which is put on in conjunction with a local civic group to earn money for the Cosmo's treasury.

In charge of the program, which will be at the Sandpoint Community hall, Saturday, October 22, are Jean Weston and Hoesel Rafiee. Last year almost 500 were served at the Lake City.

Other committees are: entertainment—Siv Gergstrom, Maurice Nasser; cooking and menu—Mrs. Tom Topkins, LaRene Newberry; serving—Irene West, Darlene Melcum; display—Owen Scribner, Jaget Singh; transportation—Bjorn Fremming.

Anyone interested in going should contact Jean Weston at phone 8361 or Helge Gagnum phone 2177.

A business meeting will be held Saturday, October 15 in conference room A of the SUB at 2 p.m., reports Bernard Henderson, club proxy.

Selection of an advisor and a corresponding secretary head the agenda, with discussion of business pertaining to the International House rules and regulations, remodeling, and new construction to follow, he concluded.

KUOI Broadcasts Special Activities

At 11 o'clock this morning KUOI will broadcast the first public events assembly of the year.

Also being aired this weekend is the annual "Battle of the Palouse" as the Vandals of Idaho meet the WSC Cougars. The broadcast commences at 1:45 Saturday afternoon.

KUOI has recently completed arrangements with the Old Gold Company to bring to the campus station the Jill Corey show, which is now being broadcast every evening at 10:45.

GPB Chosen To Head French Club

Faye Hartwell, Gamma Phi Beta, will head French Club this year.

She and the other officers of the language club were elected at an organization meeting Tuesday afternoon in room 317 of the Ad. building.

Other officers are Jane Remsburg, vice-president; Olga Figueroa, secretary; and Betty Bovey, treasurer. Faculty advisor is Professor W. J. Brockelbank.

Anyone interested is welcome to join the club. Films, lectures and practice in speaking French are part of the club's activities.

The next meeting will be in several weeks and will be announced in the Argonaut.

Methodist Church Sponsors Student

Winston Mba Onyema, a native of Lagos, Nigeria, arrived recently on campus under the sponsorship of the Methodist Church to enter the University of Idaho.

Winston worked for Civil Aviation Authorities in Nigeria, a British territory in western Africa, before coming to the U of I. While here, he will live at the International House.

Winston has a brother studying at WSC, also an exchange student.

Book Awards Go To Four Juniors

Four University of Idaho students have earned book awards from the Phi Beta Kappa scholastic honorary society for being the outstanding juniors in their major fields of study.

Recipients are Lon F. Davis who is majoring in pre-law; Margaret Helen Johnson, music; Colleen Sue McMahon, English, and Boyd E. Terry, pre-medicine.

Each year four juniors from different fields of study are chosen to receive the book awards. To be eligible for the award a student must compile at least a 3.6 grade point average his first two years at the university out of a possible 4.00.

KRPL To Feature U Of I Program

"Here We Have Idaho" will be broadcast over KRPL on Sundays at 5:00 p.m.

Featured on this Sunday's program will be a group discussion about the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the United Nations by Dean Boyd Martin, Dr. Robert Hosack, Dr. E. Malcolm Hause and Dr. Claude B. Cross. Jim Lyle, alumni secretary, will talk with columnist Al Brackman about football.

Your children visit a new world each week

Each Thursday, teacher turns a knob and the class enters a new world—a world many are visiting for the first time via the Standard School Broadcast.

Since 1928, this program has introduced man's musical heritage to Western children. Now playing for its second generation, the Standard School Broadcast is probably the biggest "classroom" in history. It has an audience of nearly 1,500,000 listeners throughout the West, Alaska and Hawaii... students in 64,000 classrooms and adult listeners at home.

They hear a symphony orchestra, a dramatic cast, choral groups and guest artists. Standard provides Teacher's Manuals as program listening guides.

Goal of the School Broadcast is to help listeners gain an absorbing new interest in music, and—through music—a broader knowledge and understanding of the world around them. We suggest that you listen in at home to enjoy the world's best music and to gain one more link with your children's interests. TUNE IN every Thursday... check your newspapers for time and station.

Moscow Receives Safety Award For Sixth Year

Your school is in the safest city west of the Mississippi. City officials announced that on October 15, Moscow will receive an award from the National Safety Council as one of three cities in the United States between 10,000 and 25,000 population without a traffic death in six years.

This week has been designated "Safety Week." Saturday will be Safety Day, with a testimonial luncheon scheduled just before the WSC game. At the luncheon will be representatives of the city, chamber of commerce, police department, and a representative of the National Safety Council.

The award, a plaque similar to the one presented a year ago for five years without a traffic death, will be presented to the city officials just before the kickoff Saturday.

Moscow residents have participated in the Safety Week program with the distribution of pins and ribbons bearing the slogan: "Moscow—Idaho's Safest City." Cards and posters have been distributed to business houses for window displays, and many other special programs have been arranged.

The safety committee of the chamber of commerce planned the program. Chuck McDevitt, ASUI President, worked with the local committee.

First City
Moscow is the first city in Idaho to receive the award. Last year, she was one of nine cities in the nation to be given a five year award. The National Safety Council says that it is very unusual for a university city to establish such a record.

Both residents and officials were praised for their efforts.

The National Safety Council also said that the cooperation of the local courts was vital in establishing Moscow's record. The police department was praised for their efforts. The city's policemen spend more time in traffic enforcement than in the average city of its size.

Ag Engineers Fete Frosh At Dinner

The first activity of the American Society of Ag Engineers took the form of a hamburger fry and Weiner roast in the Ag Engineering shop. Christened "shopnic," the dinner was held in honor of the freshmen.

The hamburgers and weiners were prepared over forges especially set up for the occasion by Lou Messersmith, shop instructor. The food was prepared and served by the faculty.

About twenty five members attended the feed.

University Given Much By Patrons

Gifts ranging from five silver bowls to $5,000 for potato research have been formally accepted by the regents for the University of Idaho, it was reported today by President D. R. Theophilus.

Safeway Stores, Inc., gave the University $5,000 for continuation of the research study entitled "Reducing Mechanical Damage of Russet Burbank Potatoes." The silver bowls were given by Dudley Swim of Monterey, Calif., for continuation of the annual Arthur L. Swim award to a senior for outstanding creative scholarship.

Other gifts included grants from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation and Mrs. E. J. Iddings of San Jacinto, Calif. The sum of $2,800 was received from Sears-Roebuck for continuation of their scholarships in the college of agriculture, and Mrs. Iddings presented $555 and 15 shares of S. Joseph Light & Power Company stock for continuation of the Edward J. and Maud R. Iddings Research fellowship.

The college of engineering received two gifts, including a voltage regulator from the Brown-Boveri company of New York. G. H. Leland, Inc., Dayton, Ohio, gave the college two Lexed rotary solenoids and a Lexed selective relay.

The law library also received two gifts—a two-volume history of the Philadelphia Bar association from the organization, and six copies of the "Idaho Motor Vehicle Laws" from the department of law enforcement, motor vehicle bureau. Alfred Robinson of Moscow gave the University books and papers

Dance Honoraries Choose Forty-One Members Tuesday

Tapping was held Tuesday night for Pre-Orchestrators, with the following girls being tapped:

Nancy Moen, Sylvia Stoddard, Joan Hamsted, Janice Henry, Mangle Wyatt, Janie Husted, Barb Barry, Carol Wachal, Ginger Fox, Jan Barker, Loris Addington, Barb Carlson, Barb Wagner, Marian Assendrup, Josie Anderson, Pat Casey, Ann Holden.

Diane Kail, Marilyn Martin, Kathy Kethly, Elsie Putman, Pat Iverson, Judy Hayes, Pat McCord, Gail Stellman, Marilyn Harden, Gail Guernsey, Marion Dunning, Janice Berg, Sandy Wright, Sally Nixon and Lana Huchko.

Tapped for Orchestrators were: June Sleeman, Karen Taylor, Ginger Symms, Valerie Kroll, Ann Beardmore, Olga Figueroa, Darwin Otto, Gary Blank, and Dan Pope.

Returning officers for Orchestrators are Ron Tan, president, Jo Dittmer, vice president, and Bobbie Hassler, secretary.

Caucus Discusses Class Elections

The United Caucus held their first meeting last night. Class elections were discussed, but as there is no date set for the elections nothing definite was planned.

Roll call was checked to determine membership, also a calling committee was appointed. At the next meeting which is Oct. 20, a vice president will be elected.

PICTURE DEADLINE

belonging to his late father, Frank Bruse Robinson, founder of the Psychiana program. Another Moscow resident, Mrs. C. L. Woodward, gave clippings and a program album to the music department.

Rensberg To Dedicate Gault-Upham

Dedication of the most recently constructed university building will be led by the president of the board of regents Saturday morning.

Gault-Upham dormitories, two new men's residence halls, will be formally dedicated at 10:00 a.m. in the Gault living room, with John D. Rensberg, Rupert, giving the dedicatory address.

Open house for university residents and visitors follows the dedication.

The joining dormitories, located across from Campus Club, provide quarters for 277 men. Gault houses 143 and has an adjacent guest dormitory for 30 or 40 persons, which will be used primarily for high school students visiting the university to attend conferences. Upham houses 134 men.

The kitchen is the only facility used in common by both dormitories. Each hall has its own dining room and lounges. Unique to university dormitories, each dorm has a recreation hall separate from the lounges.

Two men live in each unit—a study room and a sleeping room. A sink and mirror are in each unit. There is a built-in radio speaker in each room connected to a central radio and intercom system.

Cost of construction of the dormitories is estimated at $1,350,000, said Robert F. Greene, director of dormitories.

The dormitories are named after former presidents of the university, Franklin B. Gault and Alfred H. Upham. Gault was the institution's first president from 1892 to 1898 and Upham served from 1920 to 1928.

Dances are quite different today from what they were years ago. In the old days, when a woman had nothing to wear she stayed at home.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"Certainly I think it's a good piece of creative work—I thought so in 1951 when I first graded it."

'Classic Comic' Shortcuts Fail To Thrill Professor

RICHMOND, Va. (Special)—College professors of literature take a rather dim view of getting a taste of the classics along the comic book route.

Instead of whetting the appetite for a bigger bite of the time-tested books, this shortcut, they say, can be expected to do the opposite.

University of Texas' Richard C. Cole, quizzed on the subject, is "convinced that a work of literature eludes presentation in any other way." He grants that some good movies have been based on important novels but he still thinks much is lost.

Richard B. Vowells, University of Florida, sees no serious threat, for he is pretty sure few students are silly enough to try the comic book bypass. Anyway, he says, "students who read classic comics as an easy access to an assignment are doomed to failure on an exam." Such treatment of great books, in the opinion of Leslie A. Fielder, Montana State University, can serve no purpose "except that of discouraging the students from reading the original and contributing to the already terrible trend toward giving up literacy completely."

Davidson's Henry T. Lilly sees a "lessening of the power and influence of the classics. Picture-gazing, he says, does not help; the profound themes cannot be dealt with in comic book fashion; the reader cannot gain even a small concept of the poetry, the imagination, or nobility of phrase of the original. He sees no "royal road" to learning apart from dealing with the original.

In contrast with the easy research, thirty professor of literature from many parts of the nation have put together a list of books which they think students entering college would do well to read.

Reynolds To Leave KUOI Arranges For Burma Soon To Hear Corey

Frank E. Reynolds, who plans to leave in the near future for Burma where he will do student work at the University of Rangoon, will speak at the Campus Christian Center on Friday afternoon at 4 and Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Reynolds is a member of the travel staff of the Student Volunteer Movement for Christian Missions, and is one of a group of missionaries and nationals who are touring the US colleges and universities to interpret students the message and mission of the Church for a world in revolution.

KUOI has just completed arrangements with Old Gold to bring to the Campus Radio Station the Jill Corey Program, which will be heard every week night at 10:45. Arrangements are now being made to bring Jill Corey to the Idaho Campus as a guest vocalist in the near future.

KUOI will broadcast the Homecoming game Saturday starting at 1:45 p.m.

A local preacher recently announced that there are 726 sins. He is being besieged with requests for the list, mostly from students who think they're missing something.

at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft

Here's something unique in education.

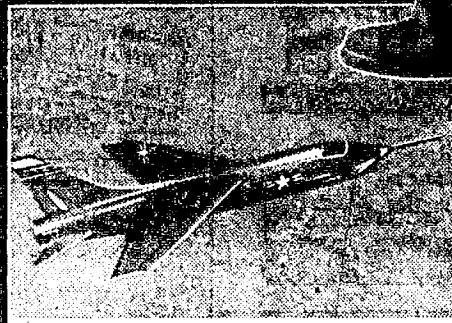

Near the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft plant in East Hartford, Conn., a full-fledged graduate center was established this fall by Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Located 115 miles from R.P.I.'s home campus in upper New York State, the new graduate facilities will enable working engineers from Pratt & Whitney Aircraft and other companies in the Hartford area to continue their studies. Without interrupting normal employment, it will be possible for students to obtain advanced degrees in specialized fields from the nation's oldest engineering college.

Designed to raise the level of knowledge and to broaden the base from which advanced research can be approached, this entire program will simultaneously lead enrolled engineers to greater achievement in their careers.

Working engineers of P & W A, waiting for classes to begin at R.P.I.'s new graduate center. Courses include Aeronautical Engineering, Physics, Mathematics, Nuclear Technology, Management Training.

First 702 Computer in East. Just installed, this advanced I.B.M. computer joins earlier electronic marvels that played a vital role in the development of Pratt & Whitney Aircraft's famed J-57 jet engine.

Newest Supersonic Fighter. The Chance Vought F8U, latest in a growing group of military aircraft to fly faster than sound. Like most other record-breakers, it is powered by a P & W A J-57 turbojet.

Just Was Major, most powerful piston engine ever developed, is shipped by P&WA. This marks the end of an era as turbojets take over as the source of power for heavy bombers, transports and tankers.

BATTLE OF PALOUSE ON TAP TOMORROW

Hilder Only Vandal On Injured List

The stage is set for the 56th edition of the Battle of the Palouse to take place at Neale Stadium, tomorrow afternoon.

The winless Idaho Vandals will be striving to make history repeat itself as they meet Washington State's Cougars in their annual contest.

Last year after losing their first five games, the Vandals upset the Cougars 10 to 0 and went undefeated for the remainder of the season. Now, under the same circumstances Skip Stahley's charges again face their rivals from across the line.

Cougars Tough

The Cougars have a tough veteran loaded team, with ten seniors and one sophomore in their starting lineup, compared with Idaho's three seniors, five juniors and three sophomores.

The Vandal offense will revolve mainly around Howie 'The Sail' Willis, who is back in top shape after his painful mouth injury suffered last week against COP. The recent spell of hot weather has brought the Vandal injury list down to a minimum, with only end Ed Hilder missing for the big game.

Resa Ready

Guard Ed Resa and tackle Mike Hepler, who at the first of the week were thought to be out of this game both recovered from their hurts and are ready to go.

Idaho will have Larry Norby and Ron Braden at the halves and speedy Wilbur Gary at fullback to complete the starting backfield along with Willis.

Pete Gerpheide and Roger Randolph are expected to start at the end positions. Randolph will play in the place of the injured Hilder. Larry Aldrich is also expected to see a lot of action at an end slot.

Sophomore Wayne Walker who was hurt in the final minutes of the COP game will start at center. Chuck Fries and Resa will be the guards and Marsh Jones and Dick 'Tiny' Foster are scheduled to start at the tackle positions.

Iverson Out

The Cougars will go into this game minus their first string quarterback, Bob Iverson who was hurt in WSC's 20-20 tie with California last week. Veteran Frank Sarno is expected to do most of the pitching in his place for Al Kircher's squad, with Dwight Hawkes, a promising sophomore, slated for considerable duty.

Sophomore Bill Steiger and senior's Bill Kramer and Dewey Keith will complete the Cougar backfield.

Gunnari Stars

WSC's big tough line will be anchored by Tom Gunnari a 60 minute man from Kelso, Washington. Gunnari made second string All-Coast last year and was mentioned as a potential All-American at the beginning of this season. He has been performing brilliantly so far this year.

The Vandals have been scrimmaging regularly this week and according to coach Skip Stahley are up and ready to go for this one.

A certain prof is a sworn enemy of coeducation. "It's impossible," he asserted, "to teach a boy mathematics if there's a girl in the class."

"Oh, come, professor," objected someone, "surely, there might be an exception to that."

"There might be," snapped the prof. "But he wouldn't be worth teaching."

Aldrich Among Top Receivers On Coast To Present Trophy

Larry Aldrich, sophomore end and one of the Vandals' top pass receivers holds down the Number 4 spot in the Pacific Coast Conference this week as a result of his outstanding performance in the COP-Idaho clash last weekend.

Aldrich's record now shows nine passes received and a total ground gain of 89 yards. Five of these catches were made last Saturday when the silver and gold bowed to the College of Pacific 20-0.

Predictions are that Aldrich will add substantially to this total tomorrow when he is expected to see a great deal of action. He has, however, a long way to go to secure the conference lead. California's Roger Ramsier has pulled in 15 passes and moved the ball for 179 yards.

Quarterback Howard Willis, Idaho's perennial top man in the conference standings, was third in pass completions, eleventh in total offense, and second in punting this week even though he saw about three minutes of action in the homecoming trouncing. Willis was sidelined in the opening minutes of the game when he was struck by a hard-charging Tiger lineman and had three teeth knocked out and a nerve severed. Mainstay Willis will be back on the job tomorrow.

Fourth in total yardage on kick-off returns this week was fullback Wilbur Gary, who has returned the ball for 124 yards on five occasions for an average of 24.8 yards.

Foreign Students To Play Soccer

The first soccer game of the year between University of Idaho foreign students and WSC foreign students will be held this Sunday at 2 p.m. on the practice field next to Roger's Stadium in Pullman, reports Reidar Ullevaeter, game chairman for the Cosmopolitan Club which is sponsoring the event.

An annual classic between the groups, the game, played in most European countries, promises to be well worth watching, Ullevaeter said.

Everyone is invited to attend the contest, as well as open-house in the Regent's Hill, Skyroom, where refreshments will be served and a dance held after the game.

Gossip—Letting the chat out of the bag.

Five punt returns for a total of 53 yards put the Vandals in fourth place in that department.

Otherwise the eighth-place Vandals are doing dismally in the team averages. They ranked no higher than fifth in eight other departments and were in rock-bottom in three of them.

Kappa Sigs To Present Trophy

A trophy bearing the name of a famous athletic coach will be presented to the University of Idaho by Kappa Sigma fraternity during halftime ceremonies of the Vandals' football game with Washington State college in Neale stadium Saturday afternoon.

Dr. D. R. Theophilus, president of the university, will accept the award, which will be presented later this fall to the most inspirational football player on the team. The gold, 40-inch trophy will be known as the "Clarence S. (Hec) Edmundson Inspirational Football Player Award," and is named in honor of the 1910 Idaho graduate who later earned national recognition as a basketball and track coach at the University of Washington.

Each year the name of the most inspirational player will be inscribed on the permanent trophy, and the winner will also receive a small gold cup.

Edmundson was named one of the 10 greatest all-time basketball coaches by the Helms Athletics Foundation in 1934. In 27 years he guided the Washington hoop team to 10 Northern Division and three Pacific Coast conference championships. His track squads also met with success, winning 10 ND trophies in 23 years.

Vandal Bright Spots

JOCKTALK

With Don Neville Smith

The old walking boots are polished, oiled and ready to go, let's hope we don't have to use them. Yours truly is not especially fond of long walks, especially little trots of nine miles along hot pavement, however we feel that the Vandals will come through with flying colors this weekend in the annual Battle of the Palouse. Prediction: Idaho 14 Cow College 13.

Both teams are up for this one as it marks the turning point of the season for both schools. A win by either school would make their year successful no matter what happened in their remaining games.

Defensive Battle

This one should be a defensive battle for the first half with two strong lines opposing each other. The Cougars have a distinct weight advantage in the line as well as in the backfield and have a more experienced team. Idaho has yet to get their offense rolling this year, maybe they can do it this Saturday afternoon.

The loss of Bob Iverson will definitely hurt WSC's chances, with a hot and cold Frank Sarno scheduled to take his place. Dwight Hawkes who looked impressive when we watched him perform against UCLA should see a fair amount of duty in the signal calling slot also.

Willis Recovered

Willis is fully recovered from his mouth injury and if Wilbur Gary can break loose for a couple of long runs the Vandals could be real tough. So we will take Idaho on spirit and determination in a squeaker.

The big game in the Southern Division of the Coast Conference will see the defending champion UCLA Bruins meet the Stanford Indians at Palo Alto. The home field will be no advantage to the upset-minded Indians against the nation's ninth ranked team, we'll see.

Holz To Lead Hell Divers For Season

Fritz Holz was chosen to head the Hell Divers for the coming season at the honorarie's elections held Tuesday evening.

Dick Galloway was elected vice president, Margaret Sullivan, secretary and Pat Rojan, treasurer. Other officers elected were Bud Van Stone, publicity chairman and Connie Spaulding, historian.

Tryouts for the club will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the M.G. Pool. Freshman boys are eligible for tryout now while the frosh girls may not participate until second semester.

The only other future Idaho opponent to see action this weekend are the Montana Grizzlies. Utah State should have no trouble taking care of them.

To make it an even ten predictions we'll pick Notre Dame to top Michigan State, Ohio State to nose but Duke in what should be the game of the day and top-ranked when they host the Bears from Baylor. Washington is ranked 12th in the nation with a 4 and 0 record but Southwestern Conference teams are always tough. We'll take the Bears in a real close game by 3 points.

USC Host

USC hosts the sixth ranked team in the country in the tough Westminster Badgers. The midwest team has a pair of top rate quarterbacks in Jim Haluska and Jim Miller who can really toss the old pigskin. The Trojans are anxious to get back on the winning side after their surprising loss to UW last week, but we feel the Badgers are too strong and pick them to win by 6 points.

Washington and Southern Cal, opponents last week, meet a pair of tough intersectional foes this Saturday in two games that should test the strength of the PCC.

Johnny Cherberg's Huskies will be out to make it two upsets in a
