With Idaho's late vacation policy this year, students will be under pressure to get home in time for Christmas. Students living in Idaho will have ample time without hurrying, but people living in the middle states and back east are going to have to hustle to make the trip by Christmas eve.

Ah! Here we have that racey little word-SPEED. Combined with winter conditions, bad roads, an impressive shape when people are killed because of this word. Speed makes a nice Christmas present for parents whose children have been killed trying to hurry home. It comes in nice wrappings-a white sheet tied with ribbons of red blood, Pret-

Vandal Action

The Vandals had a busy weekend as shown by the above pictures. Big Bob Goold (13) buckets two against Montana in the top picture, with a smooth hook shot from outside the key. Waiting for a possible rebound are Vandal forward Jack Mitchell (21), and Montanians Russ Sheriff (with hand covering face) and Eddie Bergquist (27). Vandals dropped this one Friday night, 70-65.

In the bottom shot, Jay Buhler (9) leaps high in the air attempting to score, only to be stopped cold by Utah State's center Joe Lockyer (17). Buhler scored 13 points to help Idaho down the Aggies 76-71 Saturday night. Watching the proceedings are Vandals Bob Goold (13), Bill Bauscher (10) and Utes Pat Dunn (15) and Larry Bailey (11).

Pat Dunn, the Aggies top scorer was held to one free shot in the first half by Jorgenson and Buhler. Sophomore Jim Branom took over the job in the latter part of the game and although the Utah State captain scored 8 points his usual effectiveness was not felt.

Coach Hodges had nothing but praise for the 6-8 Branom, whom he said played his first good game for the university. Hodges also lauded the play of Goold and Mark Cole at the post position. "The boys played a lot better ball," said

The Aggies took control of the game at the opening whistle and opened up a 13 to 8 lead with 6 ninutes gone. Baskets by Goold, Buhler and Bauscher put the Vandals back on even terms with 12 ninutes left in the half when Hodges inserted his second stringers.

The Idaho reserves held their own until Larry Bailey, Utah State guard hit with a jump shot and Ted Smith potted two free throws putting the Aggies in front 30-24. with 20 seconds left in the half and Idaho leading 38-37 Goold fouled Lockyer and was also called for a technical. The two teams honors with Vesley in the first met last night but no score was gafe potting nine field goals. Liveious scored 10.

Leading the Boise attack was guard Don Moore with 15 points. The Babes started slowly Saturday night and couldn't find the range until after mid-way through the first half.

Again it was Vesley hitting with long two-handers that marked the Idaho win. Big Jim Prestel made his presence felt on the boards and also scored 16 points, majority on tip-ins.
