

SPRING REGISTRATION CLIMBS TO 3,251

1500 Per Day Enroll At Gym

Dough Boys

Fly Boys

Ed Barton and Bob Emmons are pictured here being sworn in by Capt. R. O. Hansen prior to receiving their commissions as second lieutenants in the United States Air Force Reserve. Both completed their education at the semester. Barton is a graduate and will report to active duty in May. Emmons will report to pilot training in March.

The number of students registered for the second semester at the University of Idaho climbed to 3,251 Thursday afternoon. This figure is about 250 more than had registered at the same time a year ago. Registrar D. D. DuSault said that when all late registrations were in the total figure would be about 3,300.

Enrollment for the second semester a year ago totaled 3,049. This is the second time since 1951 that second semester registration has hit the 3,000 mark.

DuSault commended the cooperation of the students which enabled the University to register more than 1,500 students per day the first two days.

"In the not too distant future we will have to put 2,000 students through per day," he said.

School Gradually Growing

The number of drop-outs for varied reasons is invariably greater at the end of the first semester than the number of new students reporting for the second semester, DuSault commented. He explained that this will make the actual number of students on the campus for the second semester slightly less than for the first semester, but the rise in enrollment over the second semester last year shows continuation of the upward trend being experienced by colleges throughout the nation.

New enrollments have boosted the consolidated enrollment for the current academic year to about 3,800.

Enrollment has been steadily rising the last few years, and will continue to do so, the registrar added. The overall enrollment for the academic year is up about 11 per cent above the previous year.

First semester grades will be out in about a week, said DuSault. No definite date could be set as the registrar's office is snowed under with registration. Grades will be sent to the parents of first semester freshmen.

Register For Teaching

All education majors who wish to be placed in teaching positions this fall should fill out placement forms at the Placement Office as soon as possible.

The Placement Office is the central office for placement on the campus and is coordinated with all University departments. Majors in other fields should contact their dean to obtain placement forms.

Engineers Prepare For Annual Ball Coming Next Week

Idaho Engineers and their dates will dance February 18 at the group's annual ball, slated for 9 p.m. in the SUB ballroom, officials said today. Dress for the evening will be semi-formal.

Main attraction for the night will be the displays built by the various branches of the College of Engineering. Competition among the groups for first place in the displays promises to be keener this year than it ever has before. Several displays are taking shape in some of the remote corners of the engineering laboratories.

Dance chairman is Ralph Clements and his committee members consists of Ernest Davenport, orchestra; Jerald Gentry, publicity; Bill Bliesner, tickets and programs; Bob Robertson, entertainment, and Bill Bailey, displays.

The tickets may be obtained from any of the committeemen or from Chuck DePalmo, Dick Turnbull and Bill Cameron. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Frosh Honorary Gives Grad Grants

Senior members of Phi Eta Sigma, Freshman Honor Society, who are planning to work for graduate degrees should contact Dr. D. A. Gustafson in Science Hall room 123B to apply for two $300 scholarships which are offered each year.

Only members of Phi Eta Sigma are eligible for the scholarships and the deadline for applications is Feb. 27.

Idaho Pep Band Gains Impetus After Rehearsal

Reorganization of Idaho's Pep Band was completed this week with 18 new members added to the musical organization, bringing the total membership to 28. Neal Powell, student director, said today.

Powell and band advisor Warren Bellis both expressed satisfaction with group following the rehearsal-audition Wednesday evening.

The complete band roster now includes Mary Gilderoy, Carol Webster, Bob Whipple, Allan Mulkey, Jim McDonald, Jackie Lavens, Nancy Short, John Werner, Joan Bliss, George Garrison, Derald Glenn.

The group will make its first appearance at the Idaho-California basketball game Friday and will continue to play at succeeding home contests.

Rehearsals will be held on Wednesday evenings, Powell said.

Students Profit From Annual IK Book Exchange

Approximately 700 books, valued at $1200, were handled at the IK book exchange held February 2 and 3 during registration in the lobby of the Student Union Building. About 250 students took advantage of the annual student service.

Art Misner, IK said, "The IK's feel it was an honor to be able to be of service to the students. Anyone who has not received his used books or his cash from the IK book exchange must do so on Friday afternoon. The IK's will return the books or the cash from 1 to 5 p.m. This is the last time they will open. Contact Art Misner, SAE, for the books that are not returned Friday."

Student Tryouts For Tour South Are February 14

Tryouts for the Student Talent Tour which is to go to southeastern Idaho March 19-25 will be held Tuesday February 14, at 7 p.m. in the Central Ball room of the Student Union Building.

This tour has been set up by ASUI so that all parts of the state will be covered this year by a group from the University. The Vandaleers will go to northern Idaho while the Concert Band will travel to southwestern Idaho.

All those persons whose names were submitted by the house presidents have been received and will be expected at the try-outs. If these people can not be present at this time, please contact Carol Pietsch at 27343, or Dick Gaskins at 31961. Anyone who has not already submitted his name for the tryouts may still do so by calling Carol or Dick before Monday noon.

All types of acts will be needed since they will be trying to work out a variety show program that will last 50 minutes. There will be approximately 10 acts, so there is room for many.

Gambling Tonight At SUB

Muckers' Ball Has Craps, Roulette; No 'Side Bets' Tho

Associated Miners with an urge to gamble will have their chance tonight at the annual Muckers' Ball at the SUB ballroom. And they even get $2500 dollars—in "Muckers Bucks" to start with.

Amid a "Gold Rush of '49" theme, complete with a wild-west-type barroom, Miners can spend their two and one half grand at such pastimes as house roulette, craps, blackjack, wheel of fortune and chuck-a-luck. Officials emphasized, however, that "Any gambling on the side is strictly forbidden."

Music for dancing will be provided by Rod Burton's orchestra. Admission is $1.50 per couple and dress is informal.

Gambling will be located in the north ballroom.

Dance chairmen are Jerry Whiting, advertising; Bob Rockham, equipment and Dave Pinkard, money. John Blessinger is president of the Associated Miners.

A delegation of miners toured living groups Wednesday and Thursday night to advertise the dance. Featured were Mike Soranno, master-of-ceremonies, singing by Ron "Spike" Ehlers, Paul McCade, John Kerrick, Ed Schmith, Bill Bonnichsen and Greg Knap. The accordion player was Willis Smith and Guitar Darryl Dixon.

When approached with the proposal, Billingsley . . .

... declined because of insufficient time. In other words he's not interested.

Warren Bellis, however. . .

... is interested in remaining Pep Band faculty advisor. He says that he is enthusiastic also and always has been. . .

That's fine. In fact it is just what we wanted—a little enthusiasm—in preference to "moans," "groans," and "excuses."

Jason's crystal ball is conjuring up visions of a fabulous organization, backed with plenty of student and faculty cooperation. But meanwhile, back at the ranch, Jason prefers to sit back and watch in hopes that certain enthusiasm doesn't peter out.

Frances Moulton Returns Visit To Religious Week

Frances Moulton, one of the speakers during Religious Emphasis Week, will discuss "Does Prayer Change Things?" and "Why Be Religious?"

Episcopal Directress of Christian Education, Mrs. Moulton will attend her second Religious Emphasis Week here at Idaho. Many students and faculty members will remember her when she conducted several interesting seminars here last year. Mrs. Moulton attended Columbia University and then did graduate work at the University of Hawaii. Her husband, the Rev. John P. Moulton, is presently vicar at St. Martin's Episcopal Church in Moses Lake, Washington.

"Christ on the Campus" will be the theme of the 1956 Religious Emphasis Week, February 26 through 29. The theme will be carried in displays in the Home Ec. building, Forestry building, Administration building, and Campus Christian Center.

Kick-off Sunday

The week will begin with a kick-off banquet at 6 p.m., instead of 5 p.m., as originally planned, since the time for the Boston Pops Concert in Pullman has been changed to 3 p.m. on Sunday, February 26. Students will now be able to attend both events.

Eight speakers will be on campus to conduct seminars and lead smaller discussion groups in living groups. Other guest speakers and seminar leaders besides Mrs.

Frances Moulton, will be Dr. Kermit Eby, division of social science, University of Chicago, who will speak at a Public Events assembly on Monday the 27th; the Right Reverend D. Vincent Kavanaugh, President of Carroll College, Helena, Montana; the Rev. John L. Anderson, Lewis and Clark College, Portland, Oregon; Dr. Henry J. Croes, Grace Baptist Church, San Jose, California; Dr. Frank Rosenthal, Director, B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation; J. Edgar Iyon, L.D.S. Institute, University of Utah.

Anthropologist To Open Ninth Borah Conference

Dr. Melville J. Herskovits, professor of anthropology at Northwestern university, will give the opening address at the University of Idaho at the ninth annual Borah Foundation Conference for the Outlawry of War, March 7-8, it was announced today by Professor Theodore A. Sherman, conference chairman.

Herskovits, who has been at Northwestern for more than 25 years, is a specialist in the study of the Afro-American and has done extensive field work in South America, West Africa and the West Indies. The subject of his talk will be the same as the theme of this year's conference, which is "Cultural Diversity and World Peace."

Herskovits has defined cultural anthropology as "the ways man has devised to cope with his natural setting and his social milieu." His views on the subject are set forth in his book, "Man and His Works," which was published in 1948.

A graduate of the University of Chicago, Herskovits earned his advanced degrees at Columbia university. He is the author of numerous articles and books, the latest of which, "Economic Anthropology," was published in 1952.

The Borah foundation was established at the University of Idaho in 1929 by a grant from Salmon O.

Levinson, Chicago attorney, who greatly admired the late Idaho senator and his efforts in behalf of peace. This year's conference is a continuation of postwar activity, which has included similar sessions annually since 1948. Continuing subject of the conference is "The Causes of War and the Conditions of Peace."

Cal Brings Band For Support; All Five

A slam-bang five piece hot jive outfit plans to stir things at the weekend basketball series between Cal and Idaho.

The group, a select section of the Cal Bears band, dropped into the Arg office yesterday bursting with enthusiasm and raring to get an isolated seating arrangement where they can cause the most confusion and noise.

The five that flew to Moscow with the varsity team are Jim Russell, Jerry Fredgren, Laurie McGaw, Dawson Leonard and director Jim Lawson, members of the ASUC organization. The hot five includes two clarinets, trombone, cornet and a tuba.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Don't let th' housemother know we have any beer--I only bought enough for the four of us."

Campusology

By Mr. Peepers

"Good afternoon, sir. Are you busy, sir? I don't want to interrupt you, sir. I wanted to talk to you about the grade I received last semester. . . . No, I don't want to bother you, sir."
"Yes, I'm satisfied with it."
"What did I come for then? Well, because I think I deserve a better . . ."
"Yes, sir, I would like you to look over my grade again. I know you do your best to be fair, sir, but I feel there might have been a mistake."
"You see, I knew the material so well, sir--and I honestly believe I deserve a better mark than the one I've received."
"I believe I've gotten a good deal out of the course. I've read all the book and I've attended all the lectures. Never missed a class, sir. And -- well --"
"Yes, sir, that does satisfy me, but it seems to me I ought to have a better mark on this, then."
"Yes, but . . ."
"But I've done good in my daily work and I've covered what I consider to be the main ideas."
"You don't consider them to be . . . ?"
"Well now, sir. Near the mid-term you distinctly said in one lecture that . . ."
"You did? In the next lecture? Well, I don't remember that."
"Yes, sir, I think I've a reasonable argument."
"Well I've enjoyed the course so well and I think you're such a fine teacher sir. Oh, your welcome sir. But I just can't understand why I'm so far off on this final."
"Now this part for instance."
"Don't you think this grading is a little too rough?"
"What's wrong with it?"
"What do you mean, it's wrong? It's what the book said . . . Well . . ."
"I don't see any difference sir."
"Just because I didn't see . . ."
"Don't you think that's a minor point, sir?"
"Isn't, huh?"
"Huh, it's a main point?"
"But even so, sir . . ."
"I did my best, sir."
"It certainly is my best sir, yes sir!"
"What do you mean, it's too bad sir?"
"What do I honestly think of my paper?"
"I think I did a good, I'm satisfied with it."
"But, sir . . ."
"Yes, of course I'm interested in getting an education and grades don't count sir, but . . ."
"Yes, I know that's what counts."
"But, sir . . ."
"Yes, sir . . ."
"Yes, I know the grades have been turned in, sir."
"It's just that . . ."
"You can't change 'em, huh . . ."
"Well I just thought that . . ."
"Should have thought more during the semester? . . ."
"Well, I did sir, and that's why I'm . . ."
"You have an appointment?"
"Come back again sometime?"
"But sir . . ."
"Well, yes, sir, I will."
"Thank you sir . . . I will, sir."
"Goodbye, sir."

Dear Jason!

OPEN LETTER TO STUDENTS:
We would like to take this opportunity to thank those interested students who turned out for our audition-rehearsal last Wednesday evening. We also thank those who called and expressed an interest but were unable to attend. If these people are still interested, we would like to see them at our next rehearsal on Wednesday, February 15 at 7:00 p.m. in the Music Building. (We could especially use two tenor saxes!)
All we can say now is "Please bear with us." We feel we've got an organization that will go this time. One that will function as a Pep Band should, provided we get continued co-operation from everyone concerned (and their patience, too, while we work out a few "bugs" in rehearsals!)
Thanks again.
Sincerely,
University of Idaho Pep Band
Neal Powell, Student Director,
Warren Bellis, Faculty Advisor

New Dish On 'Bama Menu

TRAVEL TIPS
Yes, suh, I can hardly wait to drive down to Alabama this next summer and order some of the state's famous dishes. After reading last week's papers about the actions of the Alabama University student's reactions to the admittance of a colored girl to the institution, the south has set a new precedence in famous menus. It would seem most appropriate for the traveler to order, "corn pone, black-eyed peas, and a big 'ol helping of Alabama Ignorance." By all outward appearances the students at 'Bama could more than fill any order of the latter named dish.
It must have taken a great amount of that ol' southern courage for over three-thousand students and outsiders to throw eggs, rocks, and mudballs at one little gal trying to receive an education. The education she received in but a few hours time in the subject of Mobs and Mass Ignorance will probably be greater than anything the institution can offer in any of it's classrooms.
If you are traveling through Alabama this summer and do order a big helping of Alabama Ignorance don't be surprised if the waiter says, "I sure am glad you order that dish as we ran out of Southern Chivalry quite some time ago."

Students Threaten First Negro At Alabama U.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala.—Threats against the life of the first Negro student to attend the University of Alabama were reported Wednesday to Gov. James E. Folsom.
A University official told the Governor that direct threats have been made to kill Autherine Lucy, 26, of Birmingham, the first to be admitted to Alabama after a federal court order erased educational segregation in the South. Lucy's family and other Negroes interested in the case have also received outright threats.
Jeff Bennett, assistant to President O. C. Carmichael, told the governor a riotous mob was "trying to kill" Miss Lucy.
Bennett related that while driving the Negro student to class a mob gathered about the car screaming "let's kill her" and he said they were trying to open the car doors. After the student and Dean of Women Sarah Healy had left the car the school official narrowly missed serious injury when a large stone shattered the rear window.
"In my opinion those who were there to kill her weren't students, but outsiders," he said. Bennett wouldn't identify the "outsiders."
At Birmingham, Ala., Autherine's brother-in-law was called and threatened to "put that Lucy gal out because we're coming to get her." Another person called and asked to speak to Autherine. The person told the household "we're going to get that nigger out of town."
School officials have considered calling off school if the riots continue or even to call out the state National Guard.

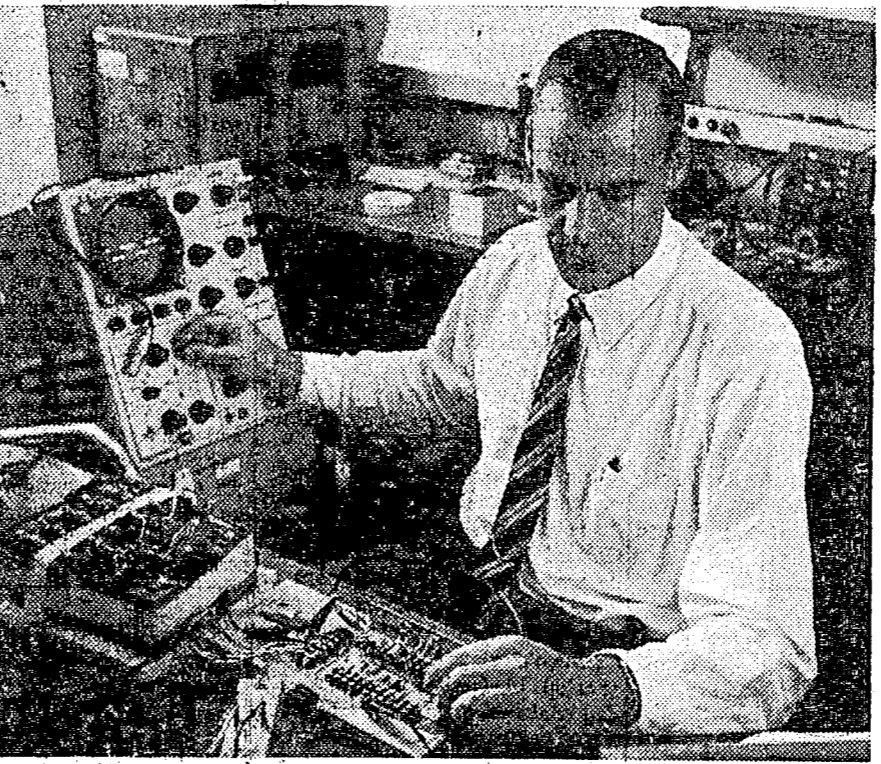

VETS MAIL BAG

Long-term aging veteran patients, some hospitalized 20 years or more, are being concentrated in special sections of Veterans Administration hospitals for a new program of "all-out" specialized treatment to promote their recovery or to prevent further loss of body and mind functions.
The new so-called intermediate program is underway in 30 VA hospitals and will be expanded to others as rapidly as possible, Dr. William S. Middleton, Chief Medical Director, said.
Dr. Middleton explained that the function of the program is to provide active rather than custodial care for those long-term patients in the VA hospital system who no longer need definitive hospital treatment, cannot return home, and lack the capabilities necessary for the new planned-living program in VA domiciliaries.
Specially qualified staffs interested in the care of such patients as well as regular staff are required to man these sections, Dr. Middleton said.
Rehabilitation Featured
For each long-term patient in the section, a planned maintenance rehabilitation program is instituted to retain the benefits of hospital care already given and to prevent the development of disabilities resulting from physical inactivity, Dr. Middleton said.
Moreover, he added, the section staff will gear a planned activity program to each patient's capacity and need for recreational, spiritual and social activities to prevent mental regression and social isolation.
Study indicates that 4,282 long-term patients in VA hospitals now meet the criteria for these specialized sections in general medical and surgical hospital and that 3,917 domiciliary members also are eligible and could be benefited by the increased medical care.
Dr. Middleton said the problem of caring for the aging and chronically ill patients in VA hospitals has been under special study for several years.
The need to develop suitable long-range plans to cope with this problem is inherent in the present veteran population of 22,000,000, according to Dr. Middleton, since a considerable number will eventually require long-term hospital care. He said 584,000 veterans now are 65 years of age, but only five years hence the number is expected to exceed 1,780,000.
The average age of the 110,000 veterans in VA hospitals is 48, in comparison with the average of 38 years for the veteran population as a whole. About 10,000 VA patients are over 65.
Many Long-Term Patients
Also to be considered in relation to the problem of aging veterans is the chronicity of disease and its effect on length of hospital stay, Dr. Middleton said. He explained that approximately 34,000 of VA's current load of 110,000 patients have been hospitalized for more than five years, with some 9,000 of the 34,000 having been hospitalized for 20 years or more.
Question Of The Week
Q—I am going to school less than half-time under the Korean GI Bill. What will be the amount of my monthly GI allowance payments?
A—you may receive either (1) the established charges for tuition and fees paid by non-veterans for the course, or (2) a pro-rated amount based on $110 a month for a full-time course—whichever is less.

NOTICE

Freshmen officers and class representatives will meet Friday at 4 p.m. in the Borah Theater to lay the ground work for the Freshmen dance. The annual affair is scheduled for St. Patrick's Day, March 17.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

That's one of Richard P. Abraham's comments about his career with Bell Telephone Laboratories in Murray Hill, N.J. "In 1954, after I'd received my M.S. from Stanford," Dick continues, "I was interviewed by a number of companies. Of these I liked the Bell Labs interview best—the interviewer knew what he was talking about, and the Labs seemed a higher-caliber place."
"The Labs have a professional atmosphere, and I'm really impressed by my working associates. As for my work, I've been on rotating assignments—working with transistor networks and their measurement techniques, studying magnetic drum circuitry, and doing classified work on Nike. This experience is tremendous."
"In addition to the job, I attend Lab-conducted classes on a graduate level several times a week. Besides that, the Labs are helping me get a Ph.D. at Columbia by giving me time off to get to late afternoon classes. That's the kind of co-operation you really appreciate from your company."
"What are important to me are the opportunities offered by the job and the work itself. My wife and I own a house near Murray Hill, and we've found a lot of friends through the Labs. All in all, I think I'm in the right kind of place."

Dick Abraham is typical of the many young men who are finding their careers in the Bell System. Similar career opportunities exist in the Bell Telephone Companies, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. Your placement officer has more information about these companies.

High School Journalism Conference March 23

Some 350 high school editors and reporters will converge on the University of Idaho campus March 23 for the 10th annual Idaho High School Journalism conference, Granville Price, chairman of Journalism, said today.
Featured speakers at the two-day session will be Bill Boni, sports editor of the Spokane Spokesman-Review; Beth Rhodenbaugh, writer for the Idaho Fish and Game department; Laurin E. Pietsch, publisher of the Sandpoint News-Bulletin and Ken Miller, president of the Western Engraving and Teletype company at Seattle.
In addition several clinics conducted by student editors Gary Pietsch and Jamie Steele and publications staff members are scheduled, Price said.
Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary, and Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, are in charge of housing delegates and will be contacting living groups soon.
Two contests have been planned as part of the conference, Price said. High school newspapers of all types will be judged and competition in news, sports and feature writing and service to school will be initiated as a new feature of the meet. Awards will be made for all divisions. Individual writers will also participate in two writing contests for news and sports stories.
Boni will be the main speaker at a banquet Friday evening. Delegates will attend the Blue Key Talent show, tour the campus, and watch the Argonaut go to press.

4-H Members Set Records Last Year

More Idaho 4-H members completed more work in 1955 than ever before, Howard Shepherd, assistant state leader, reported today.
Total membership was 12,634 compared with 12,406 the previous year. The number finishing projects was 10,389, a whisker ahead of the 10,384 who finished in 1954. Enrollment in projects was also a new record—19,584. The difference between membership and projects is accounted for by the fact that many of the boys and girls have more than one activity. Number of clubs reached a new high of 1337.

Gransmire, the plaintiff in this celebrated case, lived with his daughter Ernest and a canary named Whirlaway on Elm Street in Cooch, Delaware. The Middle Atlantic Bus and Dray Co. started operating a bus line on Elm Street. The passing buses caused a cut-glass chandelier in the Gransmires' living room to begin tinkling. The chandelier tinkled in the key of E-flat. This so unnerved the canary, Whirlaway, whose key was C-sharp, that the poor bird moulted out of season, caught a chill, and died untimely.
Ernest, Gransmire's daughter, was herself so unsettled by the death of the canary that she flunked her final exams at the Boar's Head Beauty and Barber College, where she had been a promising student, majoring in bangs. Now removed, willy-nilly, from the skilled labor market, Ernest found work carrying a sandwich sign for the old Vienna Chow Mein parlor.
Ernest soon learned that Crunch's large bushy tail was not as anomalous as she had supposed: Crunch was a werewolf. After a while Ernest got sick of staying home at night while her husband went prowling about, so she asked him to change her into a werewolf too, which he did with an ancient Transylvanian incantation. Then, together, the two of them would lope out each night and meet a lot of other werewolves and maybe kill a few chickens or hear some book reports or just lay around and shoot the breeze.
Meanwhile, Ernest and Crunch's landlady, a miser named Mrs. Augenblick, noticed that Ernest and Crunch never used their room at night, so she, in her greed, started renting it to transients. One night a Mr. Ffolliott stayed there. In the morning while brushing his hair, he took a bottle that looked like hair tonic out of the cabinet, poured some, and rubbed it vigorously into his scalp. Unfortunately, it was not hair tonic, but a bottle of glue which Ernest had bought to mend a model airplane that Crunch had given her for their paper wedding anniversary.
As a result of Mr. Ffolliott's grisly error, he was unable to remove his hat and was, therefore, barred from his usual occupation which was lecturing to women's clubs. He sued Mrs. Augenblick, who sued Ernest, who went to her father, who sued the Middle Atlantic Bus and Dray Co. who had started the whole horrid chain of events.

Here she met a bus-boy named Crunch Sigafos. Although Crunch was not especially attractive—he had, for one thing, a large bushy tail—he was always clean and neat and kept his shoes shined, and after a decent interval, he and Ernest were married.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said the defense attorney in his opening address, "this case, though very ramified, is covered by law. Indeed, every facet of life is covered by law. Law governs the homes you live in, the cars you drive, the food you eat. Even the cigarette you smoke is strictly regulated. The gentleness, however, is Philip Morris's own idea. Out of their vast experience as tobacco people, out of their profound regard for the astuteness of your palate, the makers of Philip Morris have evolved a gentle, new cigarette, with a taste as mild as a May morn, as subtle as gossamer, as welcome as money from home. I thank you."
Whereupon everybody rushed to the tobacco counter to buy bright red, white and gold packs of Philip Morris and were all rendered so amiable after a few gentle puffs that the whole complicated case was dropped. This later became known as the Delaware Water Gap.

Foreign Student, Boss Win Case

A verdict in favor of defendants was returned by a 12-member jury late Wednesday afternoon in the $37,005 damage suit of Michael Dwyer versus Kenneth Aherin and Chamharu Brar, a University of Idaho foreign student.

Two days of testimony were heard by the jury in the case before it was turned over to the jury Wednesday afternoon. Dwyer sought $37,000 for alleged permanent injuries to his knee which was hurt in an accident near Genesee in July, 1954. Brar was driving the truck in which Dwyer was riding when the mishap occurred on a country road. Brar and Dwyer were both working for Aherin at the time.

Co-op Research Studies Surface, Water Availability

The University of Idaho and the city of Moscow are cooperating in a research project on the Moscow watershed to determine the supply of surface water that might be available for use if it is eventually needed to supplement the ground water supply.

City and university crews have installed two gaging shelters located on Crumarine creek which empties into Robinson lake and on a creek adjacent to it on the west.

Constructed in university shops of material supplied by the city, the shelters are of 12-foot lengths of three-foot diameter culvert pipe and are placed on end in the stream above culverts running under county roads. Instruments record the depth of water at all times, and with the records it will be possible to determine the runoff that has passed through the road culvert.

GI Insurance Dividends To Eligible Policy Holders

Plans for payment of GI insurance dividends to eligible policyholders are progressing toward mailing of checks soon, Donald Cowley, manager of the Boise Veterans Administration Center said today. In answer to many inquiries received during the past few weeks about the dividends, Cowley said that only those eligible policyholders who wish to change the method of payment for the regular dividend are required to notify VA of the payment method desired.

Those who wish to receive their 1956 dividend in the same manner as in the past are NOT required to notify VA of the fact, because their previous payment method will be applied automatically.

Various dividend payment methods are available to eligible policyholders, Cowley said. For those who have failed to stipulate in writing how they wish their dividends handled, VA is required by law to set up a dividend credit to their insurance account, and to use this credit to pay premiums as they become due and are not otherwise timely paid. Unused dividend credits will draw interest compounded annually until they are withdrawn by the policyholders or are paid out at the maturity of the policies in conformance with the policyholder's wishes. Permanent plan policyholders may request VA in writing to place their regular dividends on deposit drawing interest compounded annually and subject to their control.

Cowley said eligible policyholders who wish to change the method of receiving their 1956 dividend should notify the VA Office handling their insurance account, in sufficient time before the payment date, to enable VA to make the change.

Payment to eligible policyholders will be made about 60 days after the anniversary date of each policy, beginning in January and ending in December 1956.

The only policyholders who will receive the regular annual 1956 dividend are those veterans holding term or permanent plans of National Service Life Insurance issued for World War II, and only the permanent plans of U.S. Government Life Insurance issued in World War I, which were authorized for issue before April 26, 1951; and any such insurance restored or replaced under the provisions of the indemnity and insurance acts of 1951, as amended.

Non-participating NSLI policies issued to Korean conflict veterans after April 26, 1951, will not receive dividends, Cowley said.

Coroner's Jury Says No Neglect In Tragic Death

SANDPOINT, Ida.—Criminal neglect was ruled out by a 10-man coroner's jury here Wednesday after a description of a three-vehicle collision near Athol Tuesday told how University of Idaho student Dean Stoll of Bonners Ferry met death.

The jury heard Idaho State Policeman Jack Monaghan give a graphic description of the accident and its flaming outcome.

A car driven by Stoll swerved to pass a stalled truck on a grade 20 miles south of here, and met an auto transport nearly head on. The wrecked car burst into flames after contact.

The inquest revealed that although the car driven by Stoll was on the wrong side of the road at the time of the smashup, the right side of the road was blocked by a stalled rig and in the words of Monaghan "it was only natural he would be on the wrong side of the road when passing."

The stalled transport in the caravan was passed by Stoll's auto before it hit an oncoming auto transport driven by Gunter Salfeld of White Rock, Canada.

Monaghan further told the jury "in view of the testimony of Archie McLean (driver of the stalled rig.) the trucks in the snow strip in the center of the highway verifying his story that he had jumped out immediately after the collision to help Stoll and the manner in which Salfeld was driving his auto transport, there was no criminal action on anyone's part, except possibly the fact that Stoll was on the wrong side of the road."

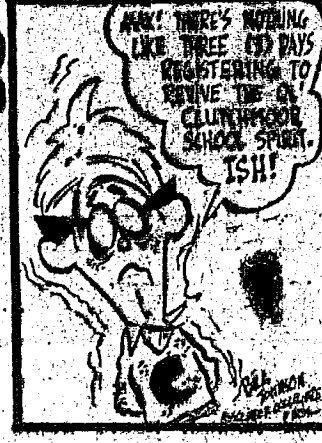

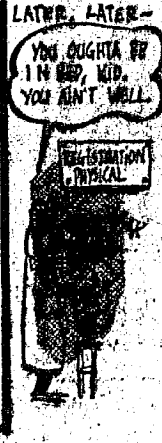

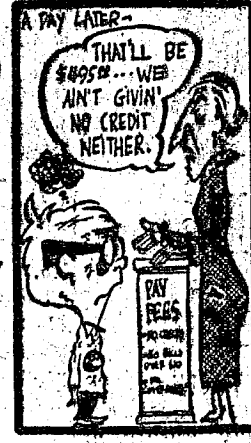

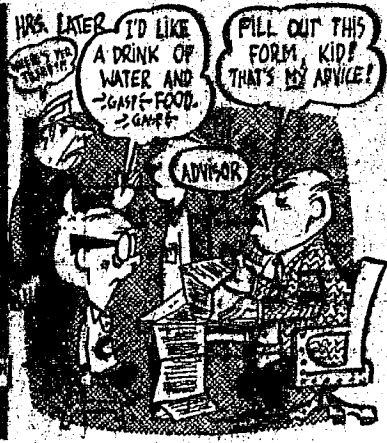

L. G. Moon Jr., ambulance driver and mortician, testified that Stoll's injuries could have been fatal. He told the jury that the victim's injuries included a broken neck, left upper and lower leg fractures, caved in chest and ribs, punctured lungs and deep lacerations of his face and head. Moon added that the injuries indicated that his body had struck some object with great force.

Stoll was pulled alive from the burning auto but was pronounced dead shortly after.

SPARKS, MANN GIVEN SABBATICAL LEAVES

The regents have approved sabbatical leaves for two University of Idaho faculty members announces President D. R. Theophilus.

Walter C. Sparks, associate horticulturist, will be absent during the 1956-57 academic year to do advanced study. Paul Mann, associate professor of electrical engineering, will be on leave to take training in design at a large electrical manufacturing firm.

German Schools Offer Many Grad Scholarships

March 1, 1956, is the closing date for applications.

The Germanistic Society is offering one $1200 award to a prospective teacher of German. It is good for one year of study in the field of German language and literature at a West German institution of higher learning. Candidates must be American-born and educated, preferably unmarried and under 30. A master's degree is desirable.

The Free University of Berlin offers two awards which include tuition and a stipend which should cover most maintenance costs.

Grads Wanted

Activity Avenue Is OSC Theme

CORVALLIS, Ore. (IP)—"Activity Avenue" served as last week's theme for the Associated Women Students activity coffee hour. Given this year in place of the freshman activity convocation to introduce freshmen to activities on the Oregon State College campus. The program was presented in conjunction with an activity display in the Memorial Union concourse.

Representatives from more than 20 OSC organizations were present to explain the purpose of their groups and to answer questions which the freshman asked. Freshmen were also given an opportunity at the coffee hour to sign up for any activities in which they were interested. The activity hour was held during the winter term this year instead of in the fall because of the new AWS policy of stressing scholarship during the fall term.

Another news dispatch, released here, reveals that the Personal Services Committee has prepared a pamphlet listing all personal service courses and personal services on this campus. Listed for the first time in a separate pamphlet, the personal services courses and personal services are planned to be of value to the student in making better adjustment to college life.

The booklet lists many established service courses such as remedial mathematics and English, methods of study, and development courses in psychology, speech, and family life. Personal services are available to all students are the student health service, office of the personnel coordinator, offices of dean of men and the dean of women, and the counseling and testing bureau.

VANDALS SEEK WAY OUT OF PCC CELLAR

Face Fourth Place Bears In Key Weekend Series

Idaho will be looking for a way out of the Pacific Coast Conference basement this weekend when they meet the California Golden Bears Friday and Saturday nights at Memorial Gym.

Game time both nights is 8 p.m. There will be no preliminary games. The Vandals, idle last weekend, are currently at the bottom of the nine team heap, and need at least

High Scores Top 'A' Ball Games, Play Near End

High scoring games dominated the intramural 'A' basketball picture Wednesday as cage teams returned to action after a two week lay-off for final exams.

Regular league competition in 'A' ball enters its final week Monday with top teams bearing down for playoff positions.

The big win of the night was recorded by Lindley Hall 1 who rolled over hapless Idaho Club 1 82 to 18. The win was the Lindley squad's fourth without a setback and moved them into a first place tie with Chrisman Hall 1 in League 3. Both teams have won four games.

The loss was Idaho Club's fifth in succession. Last year the Clubbers went to the Independent finals before being upset by Chrisman Hall 2.

Scoring Divided
Lindley scoring was evenly divided between their five starters with footballer Bill Davidson, Joe Erramouse and George Heiber scoring 14 points apiece and Len Wunderlich scored 13. Gary Thompson potted 12.

Chrisman Hall 1 kept pace with Lindley 1, whipping Upham Hall 1 51 to 36 paced by John Liveious who dropped in 18 in his first intramural outing after being declared ineligible for frosh ball.

Kent Church and Jerry Smythe divided scoring honors as Sigma Nu swept to their sixth straight win in League 1, trouncing twice-beaten Sigma Alpha Epsilon 57 to 22.

Church notched 19 and Smythe 17 in the Sig Nu win. Town Men's Association won by forfeit from Phi Gamma Delta to remain tied with the Sig Nus for top spot in League 1.

In other games Jim Eggeleston scored 21 points to lead Campus Club 1 to a 52 to 11 win over Gault Hall 1. Gault Hall 2 defeated Campus Club 2 44 to 23 with Bob Hanby scoring 15 for the winners and Lindley Hall 2 beat Idaho Club 2 47 to 29 and Chrisman Hall 2 won their third game in four outings, beating Upham Hall 2 49 to 33 as Sonny Long and Hans Gotch each scored 12 for Chrisman.

Soph Star

Tabbed by the experts as one of the most promising sophomores on the coast Earl Robinson (27), shown above, has lived up to pre-season expectations, averaging 14.7 points per game in the Bears' first six games. The 6 foot 1 inch guard has a fine jump shot and is an excellent driver, combining both his speed and exceptional strength. California meets the Vandals twice here this weekend.

Frosh Star Declared Ineligible

Idaho freshman will play their remaining four games without the services of their top scorer and playmaker, John Liveious.

The 6-3 Kentucky ace was declared scholastically ineligible for the remainder of the school year. Liveious definitely plans to remain in school and will attempt to make up his deficiencies.

Head basketball coach Harlan Hodges said "we have every hope, however, that John will be able to make up sufficient credits to become eligible for the varsity squad late next fall."

Liveious scored 147 points in the Babes' first 11 games and sparked the team to their current record of 9 wins and 2 defeats. He was considered a top prospect for the varsity squad next season.

Liveious came to Idaho from Louisville, Kentucky along with teammate Whaylan Coleman, also 6-3, who hails from nearby Owensboro, Kentucky.

Favorites

The duo are great favorites with the fans, demonstrating great ball handling ability and some dead-eye shooting. Coleman was declared eligible for the coming semester's play, along with the other members of the squad.

Last year at this time the freshman lost forward Roger Walsler, due to insufficient credits. Walsler, who now plays for Boise Junior College, was just beginning to find himself at the time.

The Babes are idle this weekend with their next contest coming against the Eastern Washington College of Education Jayvees on Saturday, February 18.

Mitchell Leads Idaho Scoring In Conference

Injured forward Jack Mitchell has moved ahead of senior Jay Buhler in individual Idaho scoring in conference games.

Mitchell, who is expected to see no action this weekend has scored 86 points, two more than Buhler and four more than third place Gary Simmons.

Percentage-wise Mitchell is also top man in shooting from the floor, hitting on 44 per cent of his field goal attempts. Simmons is second in this department with 43 per cent.

Free Throw Averages

Bill Bauscher, senior guard is tops in free throw percentage, hitting on 83 per cent of his gift tosses. Bauscher is the conference leader in free throw shooting replacing California's Bob Blake who held top spot for one week.

Leading rebounder on the Idaho club is center Gary McEwen, who has cleared the boards 58 times. McEwen is followed by Jerry Jorgenson with 41 rebounds.

Buhler still holds the scoring lead in all games with 222 points.

Oregon Swimmers Invade Idaho Pool

Cassill Hanged; Takes Hint, Quits

Harvey Cassill, Athletic Director at the University of Washington resigned yesterday afternoon. Cassill was under fire from both fans, alumni and players after he fired head football coach Johnny "Cowboy" Cherberg, January 7.

Cassill was hanged in effigy on the Washington campus yesterday. Campus police found a dummy wearing a placard identifying it as Cassill on a lamp-post near the administration building.

Gymnasts Team Puts On Show

Members participating in the show will be sophomores J. D. Leavitt and Pete DeLong, and freshmen Doug Eier and Mike Peterson.

The first regular meet for the gym squad will be held next Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. in Memorial Gym with WSC providing the opposition.

Jim was the Skipper's line coach at Toledo University and wants to come back to the northwest. He is currently selling cars in New Haven, Connecticut.

California basketball coach Pete Newell coached at San Francisco University and was succeeded by Phil Woolpert who has built the Dons into the nation's top squad.

Idaho's swimming team faces its busiest weekend of the season when they play host to the Oregon and Oregon State tank teams Friday and Saturday.

The Vandals will be facing strong opponents when they meet the Oregon State Beavers at 3:30 Friday and the Oregon Ducks at 2:00 Saturday. Both meets will be held at the Memorial Gym pool.

The Beavers, who were beaten by the University of Washington, the defending Northern Division champions last Friday, will have two all-division swimmers in their squad.

Sprinter Roy Oness will be matched against Idaho's Jerry Jones in the short distances, and Beaver Dick Slawson will be competing in the individual medley and the distance events. Captain Jack Palmer is also very strong in the backstroke for OSC.

Oregon Beaten

Oregon was belted 59 to 25 by the Washington swimmers in their opening conference meet last Saturday.

Most of Oregon's point-hopes rest on the diving ability of Bill Warner. Idaho's ace springboard man Byron Richards should provide good competition for Warner.

Jerry Froebe, competing in the 100 and 220 yard free style races is also counted on heavily to gain points for Duck coach John Borchardt's squad.

Breast stroker Bob Hays rounds out the top men on the nine-man Webfoot squad.

Fighting Chance

Idaho Coach Erik Kirkland stated that he felt that his swimmers had a fighting chance to win both of the matches, despite the fact that the Vandal finmen were swamped in their opening match with the WSC Cougars.

Heading the Idaho swim squad is distance man Fritz Holz, who won both the 20 and 440 yard freestyle events in the Vandals' opening match.

Bruce Buckman in the sprints,

Sprinter, Jerry Jones, who picked up a pair of seconds in Idaho's meet with WSC, breast-strokers Jack Helle and Gerry Giles and diver Ron Edwards, who picked up a surprising third against WSC round out the Idaho squad.

VANDALS FACE AGGIES

Utah State Agricultural College will meet the Idaho Vandals during the 1956 football campaign, it was announced this week by H. B. Hunsaker Athletic Director at the Logan, Utah School.

The game will be played in Moscow on November 10.

COUGARS ON TV

The Southern California-Washington State College basketball game Saturday afternoon will be on regional television.

PCC officials said attempts to substitute the UCLA-Stanford game fell through.

SELL VALENTINE CANDY

The Kappa Phi of the Methodist Church is selling boxes of Valentine candy. Orders may be placed with Darlene Kilborn at 8631 or with Betty Wiswall at 25951, within the next four days. The boxes range from $1.25 to $4.25.

NEWCOMERS TO REF

Lou Batmale and Tom Cross will handle the officiating at the Idaho-California series this weekend. Both are newcomers to Memorial Gym.

Beta: "Why did you leave your girl's house so early last night?"

Delt: "Well, we were sitting on the 'soft' when suddenly she turned the light off. Well, I guess I can take a hint.

CHALK TALK

with Don Neville Smith

Idaho's potent ski team goes in search of their third straight win of the year this weekend in the University of Nevada's Winter Festival at Reno which runs Thursday through Sunday.

Idaho will be up against strong competition in the meet which pits them against such strong ski schools as Denver University, Colorado University, University of Washington and the host school, University of Nevada.

The meet should give some indication of Idaho's chances for the National Championships as the Vandal squad has been rated a good chance of coping the national title without any bad breaks and providing enough funds can be provided to send the skiers to the championships.

Last year the Vandals were again given an excellent chance of taking the national title but were unable to compete as a team due to insufficient funds. Two members of the squad were privately financed and made the trip back east to the meet.

New Offense

Coach Harlan Hodges plans to unveil a new offense this weekend against California which, according to several of the players should be the thing to shake them out of their slump.

The Vandals are overdue to hit a hot streak and a pair of wins this weekend would put them in a good position to challenge the Oregon schools for second place among the Northern Division teams in the conference.

The teams from California seem to have the top four spots sewed up with the possible exception of Washington who could still challenge UCLA, providing someone beats the Bruins.

Bill Morris, University of Washington freshman coach had some good words on the Vandals after watching them perform in the USC series.

"Idaho has some good scorers and could beat any outfit in the conference if they hit a hot streak," he said. "Bill Bauscher and Jay Buhler are usually their big scorers but Simmons and their 6-8 center, Jim Branon also can get points."

Buhler hasn't been able to find the shooting range in recent games and as a result has been benched by Coach Hodges. If the "Jay Bird" should happen to hit with a couple and back on the beam the Vandals could be hard to beat. Let's hope it's this weekend.

Rumor has it that Skip Stahley has already selected his football assistant to replace the departed
