Borah Conference Peace Heralds

Herskovits Is Initial Speaker

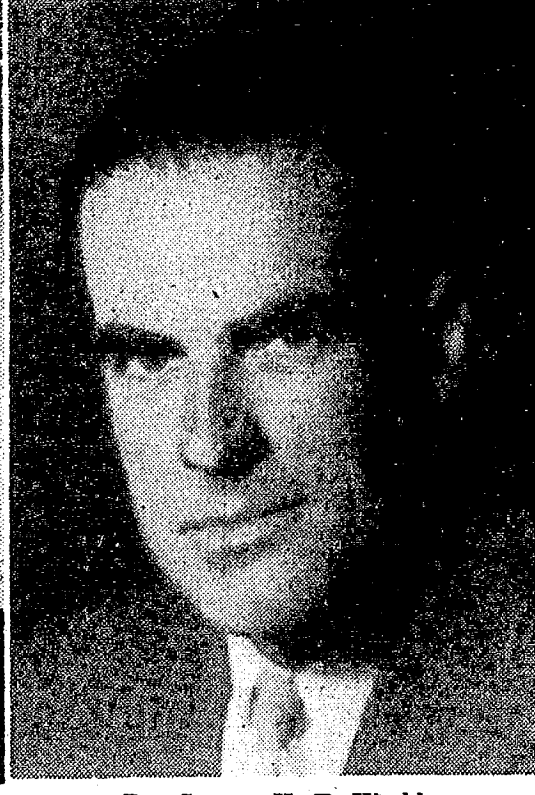

Dr. Boyd A. Martin

Dr. Melville J. Herskovits

Dr. Harold H. Fisher

Dr. George H. T. Kimble

The problem of war has challenged man through the generations of his development and it continues to challenge him today. With the solution of this enigma as a goal, one hundred educators, politicians, and students will meet here Wednesday for the two-day ninth annual Borah Foundation conference on the Causes of War and Condition of Peace (BFC).

The conference, which has gained national recognition for its work, is sponsored by the William Edgar Borah Outlawry of War Foundation which was established at Idaho in 1929 by Salmon O. Levinson, prominent Chicago attorney, who admired the Idaho senator for his work on behalf of peace.

Since 1929, when Borah himself attended the initial meeting, the BFC had sporadic sparks of life, then was discontinued completely until 1947 when the conference was reorganized, a permanent theme adopted and a meeting date established annually.

Theme for this year's BFC is "Cultural Diversity and World Peace." Four featured speakers plus nine forums of educators and students will discuss various aspects of this topic during the sessions.

Chairman emeritus of the Hoover Institute and Library at Stanford University, Dr. Harold H. Fisher has traveled extensively throughout Europe, the Soviet Union, Middle East and South Asia. In 1949-50, Dr. Fisher took a trip around the world with stops in the Middle East, Pakistan, India, Burma, Malaya, Indonesia, Hong Kong and Japan.

Chairman of the Borah Conference for a number of years and Dean of the College of Letters and Science, Dr. Boyd A. Martin has had many years' experience in the field of political science. He graduated from the University of Idaho in 1936, earned his M.A. in 1937 and his Ph.D. at Stanford in 1938. While working for his doctorate, he studied in the field of politics, international relations and public administration.

Dr. Martin has served as president of the Western Political Science association, on the executive council of the American Political Science quarterly magazine, has written a book, "The Direct Primary in Idaho" and been co-author of a textbook, "Introduction to Political Science," currently being used at Idaho. He took over as head of the College of Letters and Science in July of last year, having previously served as head of the department of Social Science.

At the San Francisco meeting of the United Nations in 1946 he served as chairman of the social science division of UNESCO and is now on the American Association for the United Nations committee to revise the UN charter.

A graduate of the University of Chicago, Herskovits earned his advanced degrees at Columbia university. He is the author of many articles and books, including "Man and His Works" and "Economic Anthropology."

Dr. Harold H. Fisher, Professor of Anthropology, Northwestern University, Chicago, will lead off the conference Wednesday afternoon with an address on the 1956 theme, "Cultural Diversity and World Peace" in the memorial gym at 1:10 p.m. Classes will be dismissed for the address, as will all classes which conflict with the speeches.

Three panels will be held simultaneously, covering special aspects of the address at 2:40 p.m. "Tolerance in a World Society" will be discussed in room 104 of the Engineering building, "Cultural Values and National Aspirations" in the Borah room of the SUB and "The United Nations: A Vehicle for the Adjustment of Cultural Differences," in the Recital Hall of the Music building.

Wednesday evening Dr. Boyd A. Martin, Dean of the College of Letters and Science at the University of Idaho and for seven years chairman of the conference, will be main speaker at a banquet in the main ballroom of the SUB. He will discuss the general theme of all the conferences, "The Causes (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

IRC Regional Ties-In With Borah Confab

Idaho hosts the Pacific Northwest regional International Relations conference this weekend in a timely tie-in with the annual Borah Peace conference.

An expected 100 delegates from various Northwest universities will discuss the theme, "The Relationships of Cultural Diversity to East-West Relations."

Three addresses will highlight the conference including a talk by Idaho College of Letters and Science Dean Boyd W. Martin discussing the conference theme.

Other speakers will be H. H. Fisher of the Hoover Memorial Library at Stanford University and Dr. H. P. Castleberry, associate professor of Political Science at Washington State College.

Fisher is also on the Borah conference speaking slate. At the IRC confab he will talk on "Some Aspects of East-West Relations." Dr. Castleberry's topic is "America's Stake in the Middle East Policies and Problems."

Roundtable discussions will be held following each talk. Dr. Robert Hosack, Head of the Department of Social Sciences at Idaho, announced. Dr. Hosack is the advisor to the Idaho club and faculty chairman of the meet.

Taking part in the discussion will be the main speakers, Dr. Hosack and Dr. C. B. Cross, Department of Social Science.

Dr. Martin speaks at 9:30 Friday morning at the Borah Theater in the SUB. Fisher speaks at 10 a.m. Saturday and Dr. Castleberry's talk is at 1 p.m. Friday.

Registration opens Thursday afternoon at 5. A banquet will be held Friday evening and a luncheon Saturday.

Area Sig Alphas Join In 100-Year Celebration

Fifty active members of Idaho Alpha of SAE will join fifty Washington actives and an expected 100 alumni from Spokane, Lewiston and Moscow chapters in the Elizabethan Room of the Davenport Hotel in Spokane in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the fraternity Friday, March 9.

Featured speaker for the program will be Emmett B. Moore, a WSC professor, who is a past president of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon national fraternity. Other speakers will include Eminent Archon Jamie Steele from Idaho and Eminent Archon Warren Montague from WSC.

Idaho Alpha's outstanding pledge will receive an award at the meeting as will the winners of scholarship prizes. Fifteen men from Idaho Alpha and thirteen from Washington Beta will be initiated during the celebration.

Initiation at 7 p.m. will get the convention started. A banquet at 8 will be followed by a hearing of the fraternity's national closed television circuit broadcast.

Plans are being made all over the country for celebrations of the founding of SAE on March 9 one hundred years ago. Thousands of alumni and members of 139 chapters in 46 states will join the festivities at special dinners, dances and conventions.

Special celebrations are being arranged by Ford Q. Elvidge, Governor of Guam, and Jefferson Caffery, Ambassador in Cairo, Egypt. Former national presidents, including the fraternity's oldest living past national president J. Washington Moore, 90, of Nashville, Tennessee, and present national officers will attend the celebration in Tuscaloosa.

Campus Chest Goal Is $2,200

Twenty-two hundred dollars has been set as a goal for the Campus Chest Dance. Auctions are set for 10:30 p.m. Saturday in the SUB Ballrooms, and a list of organizations to which Campus Chest donates has been announced.

The goal set this year is $150.84 higher than the total sum of $2,049.16 collected during the drive last year, according to Roger Tovey, funds chairman.

Each living group has been asked to give at least 25c per member toward the final goal. Campus Chest donated money last year to: World University Service; R.E. Week; Save the Children Federation; American Health Association; North Idaho Children's home; Crippled Children's Society of Idaho; Elk's Convalescent Home; and Moscow Opportunity School for Handicapped children, said Dick Weeks, drive chairman.

Several other organizations are under consideration this year also, said Weeks.

This means that March 22 has been set as the "Green Light Day" on the campus political scene. McDevitt further clarified the ruling to mean that no official moves will be made prior to 8 a.m. on March 22. His action was prompted when various political leaders pointed out that the stipulation was still ambiguous.

Rumors are afloat in the SUB halls lately that the University of Idaho will not have its much talked about skating rink.

The original plans for a skating rink came out of recommendations from students obtained by a student poll. The cost is to be written off through the student facilities fee. At that time a rink costing approximately $50,000 was contemplated.

This week bids were received for the second time this year on the project. The lowest bid went for $229,670, but with it goes an entire recreational area in the arboretum. This is something that the University of Idaho has long needed and it's close at home.

But, why no skating rink? Informed sources tell us that the rink idea is going to be canned in favor of another idea—a new Student Union building or possibly, an extension onto the present building.

Everyone will probably admit that both projects are desirable. The present SUB facilities are fast becoming inadequate with the increasing rise of enrollment each semester. Expansion is necessary, but which will come first?

University officials are surely mulling over this idea in their minds and so are some student leaders. Student opinion will undoubtedly play an important part in the final decision.

What is your solution?

Speakers Have Varied Backgrounds

Four nationally renowned educators will be in the limelight during the ninth annual Borah Conference held here Wednesday and Thursday. Here is a rundown of their varied careers from which they will draw their ideas when they go before interested University students, faculty and townspople.

'Finian's Rainbow' Tickets Now On Sale, 40 In Cast

Tickets went on sale today for the ASUI sponsored musical-comedy Broadway production, "Finian's Rainbow," which will be presented by the University of Idaho Dramatics department in the University Auditorium March 16, 17, and 18. All seats are reserved and tickets may be obtained in advance at either Hodgins Drug Store in downtown Moscow or the University Student Union Bookstore, according to Miss Jean Collette, director.

Adult tickets are 75 cents and students may receive tickets by presenting their ASUI activity tickets plus 25 cents. Faculty members may obtain two tickets for $1.00.

"Finian's Rainbow" with a cast of 40 is one of the largest productions of its kind to be staged at the University of Idaho. It is the fourth musical comedy to appear here in recent years; however, it is the first Broadway musical, said Miss Collette.

"Gee Eyes Right," an original show written by Idaho faculty, was the first of the four. Hall Mackline, head of the Music department, composed and directed the music for that show. Theodore A. Sherman and Geoffrey Coopes wrote the book and lyrics for the play.

In 1948 these three men got together again and produced "Sing Singletown, Sing." A revised production of this play called "Sing Senator, Sing," was repeated in 1952. "Finian's Rainbow" opened on Broadway in January 1947. It captivated New York audiences with its bright plot combining humor with an attack on American lack of racial understanding. Critics have classed this music as comparable with two earlier outstanding productions, "Of Thee I Sing," and "Oklahoma."

Success Lies In Songs According to Miss Collette, no small share of the credit for the show's outstanding success on Broadway lies in the two hit songs that came out of the production, "How Are Things in Glacera Morra?" and "Old Devil Moon."

Authors E. Y. Harburg and Fred Saidu set the plot in a mythical southern state in the U. S. A. called "Missitucky." In this setting, leprechauns, Irish colleens, senators, a pot of gold plus humor and music are mixed together to produce a completely fresh tale.

The cast includes the following: Marian De Kay, Susan; Sandy Downing, Sunny; Tim Kime, Buzz; Phil Davis, Sheriff; Dale Carlisle, Finian; Maxine Fletcher, Sharon; Larried Montgomery, Woody; Graham Knox, Og; Boyd Terry, Howard; Dick Day, Senator Billboard Rawkins; Nathan Yost, Mr. Robust; Roger McPike, Mr. Shears; Charles Tovey, geologist; Neal Newhouse, geologist; Dan Ware, Henry; and John Herrett, Willard Lindsay, and Allan Dingle as the passion pilgrim Gospelsers.

The orchestra includes Mary Ann Johnson, Judith Cochran, Mary Jean Burke, Patricia Nickle, Yvonne Forte, Carol Webster, Michael Patton, Warren Bellis, Mary Gildner, James Mercer, Sherman Rigby, Michael Norell, Charles Clauser, Shirley Danielson, and George Garrison. The dance ensemble will be composed of Fred Sheibe, Ron Tan, Mary Ellen Bennett and Patricia Parsons.

The show is directed by Miss Collette; musical direction is by Harry Morrison; and the technical production is by Edmund Chavez.

IFC Recommended Frats Need OK Of Student-Faculty

Interfraternity Council recommended Thursday two new fraternities for colonization on the campus next year.

Theta Chi and Farm House will be submitted in that order to the Student Faculty Council Friday as the IFC's first and second choices. In event that the Student Faculty Council decides that there will only be room for one next year, first choice Theta Chi is recommended to receive the O.K. first.

The Student Faculty Council will probably follow the IFC recommendations unless there is some unforeseen reason for not doing so, according to Dean of Men Charles O. Decker.

Colonization requires that a local originate can prove that they are a sound operating organization before they are granted a national charter. This time period varies with individual nationals. A certain number of men in a local is often a prerequisite for national membership. This also varies.

This means that if a new fraternity colonizes on the campus and goes through rush next fall, it will be just a local associated with a national until it proves itself. The life of the new organization will also depend heavily on how well it does during rush.

Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Gamma Rho and Delta Upsilon were recommended by the IFC in that order following Theta Chi and Farm House in the event that there is room for more new fraternities on the campus in the future.

NOTICE

Students, please drop into the ASUI office in the SUB between 4 and 5 p.m. on weekdays to fill out an ASUI Activity Card for the next school year if you haven't already done so through your living group or organization president. Deadline is March 16.

PHT DEADLINE Deadline to apply for PHT, "putting hubby through," degrees has been set for May 12. Any married student's wife is eligible for a PHT degree.

What Are Recruitment Objectives?

Last week four energetic recruiters for the University of Idaho returned after a nine day trip through southern and southeastern Idaho. Several days before these people returned to the campus reports began to come in from various sources about the fine impression they were making upon the students with whom they spoke. These people should be congratulated for the fine job they have done in representing our institution.

The high schools at Nampa, Caldwell, Boise, Twin Falls, Jerome, Rupert, Burley, Idaho Falls, St. Anthony, Rexburg, Rigby, and Salmon were visited by this recruiting team. Is something missing in the list of high schools just named? Yes, there is something missing and that is Pocatello, a school with one of the largest, if not the largest, graduating classes in the state of Idaho.

Why our recruiters did not go to Pocatello high school is a question that is being thought over by many of our present student population. Certainly Pocatello was not avoided because it was too small, nor was it not visited because the students already had sufficient knowledge of our institution. What then is the reason? Is it because Idaho State College is situated in the same city as the high school? If this is the reason, it seems to be a very poor reason to say the least.

During the tour the recruiters would each speak before the assembly of students and then after the session they were available for individual consultation and advice for students with special problems concerning their education. It is very possible that our recruiters had things to offer the students that recruiters from Idaho State College could not offer.

Take, for example, the student wishing to study agriculture. Anything offered in the field of agriculture by Idaho State College could in no way compare with what is offered in this field by the University of Idaho. With little interest shown by the University of Idaho the student interested in Agriculture at Pocatello would probably go to Utah State Agricultural College.

Looking into another field of study let us consider pharmacy. What does our university offer in this field in comparison with Idaho State College? Nothing!

Give Chance At Chosen Field
It is possible that our recruitment plans at the University of Idaho should be evaluated along with the objectives such plans wish to attain. Do we wish to help the graduating seniors in our state enter college with a better chance of succeeding in his chosen field? Do we just want students to come to our institution regardless of what they plan to study and to gain from such study? Do we feel that our university offers courses of study which are far better and more comprehensive in some fields than is offered by other schools? Before we plan next year's recruitment tour these questions should be answered by the administration.

Maybe our administrators feel that such a tour would create hard feelings between our two institutions of higher learning. If this be the case, then there should be very little difficulty for the educators from the two institutions to come to a working agreement. It may even be possible to have recruitment in Pocatello high school along with Idaho State and then everybody would be happy. If both institutions place the value of the individual student above everything else then such a plan should be easy to work out.

Regardless of where the students of Pocatello high school attend college, when only Idaho State College and the University of Idaho are considered, the money that supports these two institutions comes from the same source. It is not a matter of saving money, but rather of helping the student finding a school which can best fulfill his needs. Or maybe the University of Idaho doesn't care if these students leave the state, and if they don't, then we might just as well stop all recruiting.

CHALLENGE

Comes now the Barristers and Solicitors of the College of Law, men of integrity and ability, seeking diversion from the intellectual and social demands our field of study requires, and knowing there is no group farther removed from spheres of intelligence or society than that group of mature pitchers known as "Aggies"—The Future Subsidized Sod-Busters of America—and knowing further the unfounded animosity but justified envy the said plow-jockeys display toward lawyers we hereby challenge these humor-handed homo-sapiens to a game of basketball, hoping that their brashness will impel them to accept.

Knowing too well the reasoning ability and the limitations on physical co-ordination of said "curd clompers" may we suggest several do's and don'ts with reference to said contest, in the event of your acceptance.

1. Unbuckle your spare "pooper scooper" and leave it home.
2. Please, and may I be as emphatic as is possible, do not wear your long-underwear under your gym suits. Last year we lost three fellows for the remainder of the semester.
3. A request from the gym custodian is that you scrape your shoes before entering the gym.
4. This is directed toward your team captain: Sir, would you insist on your team washing their (it's) hands before playing. Last year one of our fellows was fouled in the facial region and two days later died of hoof and mouth disease.
5. Please do not wear your "I hate Ezra!" buttons, as they are only apt to precipitate political arguments which will detract from the game.
6. If you must bribe the referees, as you did last year, do not make it quite so obvious, as our sense of decency and fair play will be offended.

Realizing the frustrated state of mind the challenged party functions in, we feel constrained to leave the date of said contest in your discretion—thus enabling you to gather your flock and lead them to the gymnasium.

DGs Win Annual Folk Dance Fest

Delta Gamma won first place in the fifth annual Folk Dance Festival sponsored by WRA in the Women's Gym Friday night.

Other houses placing in the event were Alpha Chi second; Pi Phi and Gamma Phi tied for third; and Tri-Delta fourth.

Three hundred people attended the affair which was featured by girls living groups drawing a folk dance to work on and presenting it at the program. The living groups worked out their own costumes.

Jane Bonham was moderator of the festival.
Judges selecting the winners were Mrs. E. C. Moore, Agnes Schult, Miss Marion Featherstone, Miss Shirley Newcomb, and Mrs. Lawrence Goding.

Sig Chi Upper'men Plan Dinner Dance

Sea nets and driftwood will add to the atmosphere at the Upperclassmen's Dinner-Dance at the Sigma Chi house Friday night. Phi Tus installed officers last Monday; the Thetas initiated 17 women on Sunday and brothers and sons of Delta Gamma were honored at a banquet.

SIGMA CHI
Final plans are underway for the Upperclassmen's Dinner-Dance, honoring the seniors, which will be held in the chapter house on Friday night from 7 to 12. The decorations are centered about a waterfront theme with sea-nets and driftwood. The dinner will be a crab feed with Phil Cleveland's band providing the dance music.

Dr. Roberts of Grangeville was busy in an interesting, two-hour ball session last Tuesday evening after dinner.
Twenty-one couples enjoyed a dance last Friday night with dancing, watching TV and playing cards or ping-pong at the chapter house.

This Sunday girls who wear the White Cross of Sigma Chi and those who are engaged to Sigs will be honored at a sweetheart dinner. Congratulations to Sharon Stump, Alpha Phi, and Kenny Wright.
DELTA DELTA DELTA
Tri-Delts enjoyed the serenade by the Sigma Chi pledges Wednesday night when they sang for the return of some missing shoes.
Dinner guests Wednesday night were Beverly and LaRene Newberry, Forney Hall.

Weekend guests were Mrs. Emil Jerome, Kuna, and Cleo Bardelli, Montana State University.
Congratulations to the DG's on their winning performance in the Folk Dance Festival Friday night.
CAMPUS CLUB
Don Miller has been chosen by the Club exec. board as treasurer. Best wishes to Rod Bovey and his bride who were married March 5.
Friday night CC held an informal square dance.
Dick Klingensmith, Gary Yeomans and Bud Duffy attended a Northwest Regional Conference of Independents at WSC.

HOME MANAGEMENT HOUSE
Gals here for the month or so stay are, naturally, home ec majors Nancy Moore, Blanche Branson, Fritz Hoover, Donna Hansen, Clara Armstrong, Pat Stewart, Joyce Genoway, Elaine Hyland and Miss Shirley Newcomb, director.
Nancy Moore was elected "barber" so just call 8045 for appointments.
Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ken Dick were dinner guests.
Buffet supper Thursday evening found Sev Bergstrom and Jane Remsburg, DG, guests.

PHI KAPPA TAU
Byron Gage was installed as proxy last Monday night with Robert Kindschey, veep; Kenneth Garrett, house manager; Larry Summers, secretary; Dean Judd, pledge master; Larry LaBolle, social chairman; Dee Humphrey, chaplain; Chuck Fries, steward and Ben Trough, editor.
Ed John, Marshall Smith and Lawrence Clure were formally pledged Tuesday night. Welcome, men.
Norm Garrett, student teaching in Lewiston High School came north for a visit on Tuesday evening.
Phi Tau Sweethearts honored Sunday included Dean and Mrs. Charles O. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin White, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pardon, Marjie Brincken, Helen Meehling, Marilyn Weaver, Dorothy Parsons, Dixie Terry and Sally Snider.

STEEL HOUSE
Eleven couples participated in the annual WRA Folk Dance Festival last Friday with Nancy Courte in charge. Dress rehearsal was Thursday night so the contestants wore the colorful costumes to dinner.
Two girls announced engagements Sunday at a candlelight dinner by having their names written on little wedding bells on individual place cards. Those engaged are Donna Salle to Buzz Story, Fiji and Shirley Ringe, house president, to Gene Bryan, off campus.
Peggy Webb was pinned last week to Mel Bryant, Delta Sig. Best wishes to all three couples.
During RES Week Mrs. Frances Moulton was a dinner guest Monday evening and Dr. Henry Croes Wednesday.

DELTA GAMMA
Brothers and sons attending the banquet Sunday were Darrel Daubert, Ed Keller, John Ebert, Eddy Parsons, J. J. O'Connell, Bill Galligan, David Maxey, Leslie Backstrom, Bruce Lunstrum, Don Bolingbroke and Dick Harden.
Weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beattie from Boise.
Karen Walker, Delta Delta Delta from Whitman, announced her pinning Saturday night to Clark Anderson, Phi Gamma. Nadine Palmer, Alpha Phi, was also a guest over the weekend.
Jane Bonham received a dozen red roses from Phi Delta Theta after announcing her pinning to Jim Minus who was tubbed Saturday afternoon in the midst of a snow-storm—ordered especially for the Phi Deltas.
The pledges had a busy week with a Sigma Chi serenade—they wanted their shoes; a snowball fight with the Phi Deltas—DGs won, of course; and then the gals gave a party for Cynthia Carlburg, retiring pledge trainer, and Betts Johnsonmeyer, new trainer, last Saturday night.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA
Congratulations to the new members of Beta Theta, Barbara Barry, Lorraine Beymer, Ginger Fox, Lynn Evans, Sylvia Stoddard, Julie Semple, Nancy Moen, Marilyn Ziegler, Carol Wachal, Dorothy Sowa, Donna Gale, Pat Lawton, Lois Lundquist, Janice Henry, Janice MacArthur, Joan Ramstedt and Marj Wyatt who were initiated Sunday, March 4.
To the house's surprise, Joan Ramstedt shortly after initiation produced the Sigma Nu pin of Larry Norby to wear with her newly acquired pin.
Later Sunday Marj Wyatt came home with the SAE pin of Chuck Manning, so congratulations to the pinned couples.
Last Monday the Thetas heard an informative discussion by The Right Rev. Monsignor Kavanagh from Helena, Montana.
Entertained at dinner were Rita Ghirardella, Kappa and Gail Stelman, Alpha Chi.
Thetas sincerely thank both the Fijis and Deltas for the lovely serenades in honor of Ginny Nelson and Margaret Peckardt, respectively.
Theta initiates thank the Sig Alphas for the petite violet corsages in honor of the occasion.

FORNEY HALL
Forney girls were hostesses to table companions of French Hall Sunday evening at a fireside when Vivian Rhodes sang and the gals favorite comedian, Bonita Becker, told "bedtime" stories.
Arlene Denner is welcomed back to the hall after a sojourn in the infirmary.
March 16th members of Forney have scheduled the "Mardi Gras" dance.
UPHAM HALL
Dr. Kermit Eby, University of Chicago, attended dinner Monday night and held an extended informal discussion.
Charles Swenson was "crowned" table tennis king for winning the ping-pong contest. Shuffleboard is next on the intra-hall sports agenda.
Hall chairman for Campus Chest Drive is George Patton.

TOWN MEN
Town Men meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Town Men's room. Final arrangements will be made for the Campus Chest. Carnival committees on both decorations and concessions will report, besides assigning members to various construction parties and a time table for working in the booth Saturday night. Here is an opportunity for all those men who complained of not having any activity in the club to satisfy that desire.
Wednesday there will be an exchange with the Theta's and suits will be worn. All interested members meet in the TMA room at 6:30 p.m. There is a "B" basketball game Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. and another Wednesday at 8 p.m. All eligible and interested men be there.
All members be sure to fill out ASUI activities forms. These can be obtained at the ASUI Presidents Office after four p.m. The purpose of these forms are to facilitate picking persons to fill various ASUI Committees. Get them filled out as soon as possible and turned in to the office.

WESLEY FOUNDATION
The usual coffee hour will be held at 4 Wednesday afternoon at the CCC.
Thursday evening the church choir will practice at the CCC at 8:45 p.m.

Top Jazz Quartet At WSC Wednesday

PULLMAN — The Modern Jazz quartet of New York will be on the WSC campus to perform at 8 p.m. in the CUB ballroom Wednesday.
For the second consecutive year this quartet has been voted the top jazz combo by leading American jazz critics and the International Critics poll of Downbeat magazine.
The MJQ, Modern Jazz Quartet, consists of Milt Jackson on the vibes, John Lewis on piano, Percy Heath on brass, and Connie Kay, drums. Jackson was honored by downbeat as best vibraphonist of 1955. Kay is the only member of the group who was not with the group when first organized.
MJQ has been loudly hailed by many critics. Nat Hantoff, in his review of their appearance at the annual Jazz at the Town hall in New York said, "The Modern Jazz Quartet's section of the concert was the most memorable and important part of the evening."
In 1955 the MJQ won many awards in placing successes at such places as the Newport Jazz festival, the Berkshire Music barn,

Cooper union, and the music series at Ipswick, Massachusetts. The group also made some top selling records for the Prestige label.
Tickets for the jazz concert are now on sale for 75 cents at the WSC Bookstore and at the Corner Drug Store.
So you want to be life-guard here? How tall are you? "Six feet, eight inches tall, sir." Can you swim? "No, but I can wade like hell."

IDAHO SKIERS EARN BERTH IN NATIONALS

Veteran Slatmen Win Third Regional Title

By Gary Vanderwood
Idaho emerged victorious for the third year in a row at the Northwest Championship ski meet held at Stevens Pass, Washington, this last week-end and will enter national competition at Winter Park, Colorado, March 23. Idaho scored 378.9 points.
To defend their title the Vandals relied on veteran team members. The team strength had been planned at around eight men, who, using their combined talents were well rounded in all events. Outstanding jumper, Helge Gagnum was unable to make the trip to Stevens Pass so that he would be fit to travel with the team when they go to Colorado.

Colorado A & M's Collegiate Rodeo Is Nation's Biggest

FORT COLLINS, Colo.—Colorado A and M College's annual Skyline Stampede, which draws more spectators than any collegiate rodeo in the nation, is scheduled May 4 and 5 in the college's Durrell Arena.

The rodeo is part of Colorado A and M's annual College Days celebration, which includes a parade, dance and a number of other student-promoted events.

Last year's Skyline Stampede attracted 153 contestants from eight different colleges. Some 42 other colleges have annual rodeos, but the Colorado A and M event has traditionally been a leading crowd pleaser. Between 5000 and 6000 people crowded the arena for last year's event.

Other colleges expected to send entrants to the 1956 affair are the universities of Arizona, Brigham Young, Wyoming, New Mexico, and Idaho; state colleges of Utah, Montana, Idaho and Washington; Chadron (Nebraska) State Teachers College, Casper Junior College and Colorado State College of Education. The Colorado A and M Livestock Club sponsors the rodeo and a dance.

The newly-weds were honeymooning at the seashore. As they walked arm in arm along the beach, the young groom looked poetically out to sea and cried:

"Roll on, thou deep and dark blue ocean, roll!"
His bride gazed at the water for a moment, then in hushed tones, gasped, "Oh, Fred, you wonderful man! It's doing it!"

With three practices remaining the Idaho Vandals are making final preparations for their last series of the year. The Vandals meet their arch-rivals WSC Cougars in a two game set this coming weekend with a game here Friday night and the final in Pullman Saturday.

Vandal head coach Harlan Hodges gave his team a day off Saturday, after a full scrimmage on Friday, but had them back at work last night.

WSC lost both games of their series with Oregon last Friday and Saturday night pushing them back into a last place tie with the Vandals. Both have won 2 and lost 12.

Finmen Close With ND 5th Coach Considers Year Successful

Idaho's swim team closed out their most successful season in years Saturday with a fifth place finish, at the ND championships at Pullman last weekend.

Although they ended last in the ND finals and failed to win a Division match the Vandals' season was considered successful by Coach Eric Kirkland due to the fact that they won five straight non-conference matches and also racked up more points placing last in the ND meet this year than they did when they ended up fourth last season.

The Vandals scored 33 points in the Pullman meet with four men accounting for the total.

Jones Third
Jerry Jones picked up a 3rd in the 50 yards freestyle and a 4th in the 100 with his best times of the year.

Fritz Holz, a consistent placer throughout the season, swam to a 3rd in the 440, a 4th in the 1500 meters and a 6th in the 220.

Byron Richards, regaining last year's form picked up a 2nd place in the lowboard diving competition and a 4th in the high-board. Richards placed second in overall diving in last year's meet.

Dale Carlisle rounded out the Idaho point total with a 5th in the 100 yard backstroke and a 6th in the 200 yard backstroke.

Washington continued their mastery over the rest of the division schools, splashing their way to 126 points, 29 more than second place Oregon State. The Vandals' total of 33 put them 8 back of fourth place Oregon and 12 behind WSC.

Finals in the doubles competition will be played Monday afternoon.

In the singles half of the tournament 24 players moved into second-round games. Play will continue in the singles until Monday, March 19th when the final match is scheduled.

Play Slowed In 'B' Ball

Play in intramural "B" basketball will be temporarily held up this week as only one day of games is on tap. Nine games will be played in the week's only action tonight.

Due to the Community Concert last night and the Borah Conference, Wednesday and Thursday no games could be scheduled for these days.

Starting next week fifteen games will be played each day, with contests starting at 4:10 p.m. and continuing through till 8 p.m. Games will also be played on Fridays at regular times and on Saturday afternoons.

A protest has temporarily delayed play in the other half of the tournament as Upham Hall protested their Thursday defeat at the hands of Sigma Chi and won the right to have the game replayed. The two teams will meet again Wednesday afternoon.

Standings Tight
'B' League standings are still very tight with no teams having played more than two games. Tau Kappa Epsilon leads the way with a combined total among their five teams of five wins and a single defeat.

Alpha Tau Omega still has 3 of its five teams undefeated, sporting a combined mark of 7 and 3.

Ski Club Nets $30 Funds Not Needed

Saturday night's Vandal Ski club dance netted $30 in donations to help send the Vandal Ski team to the National ski meet at Steam Boat Springs, Colo., Marlin Jones, club president, said today.

The Athletic Board of Control voted last fall to grant the team university funds for a trip. These funds are still available to the team now, according to Mike O'Callaghan, student member of the board.

"This appropriation or the offer of it was unknown to the Vandal Ski Club at the time they decided to give the dance, and is still apparently unknown to them," said Kris Anderson, secretary of the club.

Other club officers were unavailable for comment at the time the paper went to press.

I wish I were a kangaroo. Despite his funny stances; I'd have a place to put the junk My girl brings to dances.

According to NCAA skiing rules freshmen are not allowed to compete in national competition so ski coach, Ron Byers and team members decided they would take to the NW meet only men qualified to enter national competition so Sophomore Bernie Murphy was named to the team in place of Jim Douglass. Tom Anderson was not able to go due to other engagements.

Murphy is a newcomer to the Vandal squad although he has attended Idaho in past years. Bernie was a transfer to Emida meet and Ron Byers plans on using him as an alternate. Byers commented that, "Bernie is a fair skier but he has not had too much experience in skiing competition."

Idaho's skiers swept all four top positions. Per Windju with a magnificent jump for the type of snow that was on the slopes topped first place. Reidar Ullevaalseter, Eirik Berggren, and Frank Cammack had the next longest meet jumps.

Miss CC Title
Although Berggren was able to take the cross-country honors and was followed very closely by Reidar Ullevaalseter with runs of 24:25 and 24:41 respectively they missed the team cross-country trophy. WSC won it edging the Vandal squad by nine hundredths of a point.

Frank Cammack for the past four Vandal meets has taken the four-way trophy, but although he placed well in the jumping, downhill and slalom events was nosed out in the cross-country division and WSC's Bard Gleene was first with 371.1 points.

Idaho swept the first two positions in the Nordic combined with Ullevaalseter receiving 197.1 points and Berggren earning 193.8. Cammack also placed eighth in the Nordic Combined with 172.8 points.

Cammack Fourth
Cammack was only able to place fourth in the individual slalom with an outstanding run of 109.2 minutes. In a good try to better the competition John Harrington and Bernie Murphy gained 12th and 14th but increased the Vandal team points.

Seventh place in the Giant slalom was won by John Harrington with a run of 86 minutes and Cammack placed 9th with an 88.2 minute run.

Total meet standings gave Idaho a total of 378.9 points to nudge WSC, with 372 pts. out of narrow margin. Washington placed third with 369.9 points and Whitman was fourth with 399 points.

Although this was the third straight year the Vandals have won the trophy the cup is retained by WSC. Byers said that he has requested that they let Idaho have possession.
