A Candid Glimpse Of Olympic 'Material'

Betty Potter, Alpha Phi prexy, and a host of sorority sisters squealed with delight when the judges awarded them the winning trophy of the third annual Sig-Alpha Olympics. It is the third consecutive year that the Alpha Phis have won the event.

Despite mid-afternoon showers, Olympic participants were determined to stay in there fighting with a smile on their faces. Here the Kappa Kappa Gamma girls are shown cheering on their sisters regardless of rain-bedraggled hair and clothes.

A Phis Take 3rd Olympics

Alpha Phis for the third consecutive year topped the Sig Alpha Olympics by scoring 29 points in a down-pour of rain Saturday afternoon on the Ad lawn. Kappas with 24 points and Gamma Phis with 21 points placed second and third in the events.

According to Terry Anderson, chairman of the Olympics, 200 girls from all women's living groups participated in the events. He said when rain started to come down by the bucketfuls the girls voted to continue the events.

Ratings of the other living groups were: Hays Hall and Phi Phi, fourth with 18 points; Tri-Delts and Ethel Steel fifth with 16 points; DG, sixth with 15 points; French, seventh with 13 points; Thetas eighth, and Forney ninth.

Winners of the individual team events were: Pi Phi, individual ping pong roll; Alpha Phi, Tug of War; Kappas, potato race; DG, football kick; Gamma Phi, wheelbarrow race; Kappa, three-legged race; Alpha Chi, egg throw, and Alpha Phi, pie-eating contest.

Individual contest winners were Marge Erstad, first with a 62 ft. football kick; Sue Dunn, French, second with a kick of 61 feet, 2 inches; Helen Hanford, Alpha Phi, was first in the pie-eating contest, with Carol Watchal, Theta, second.

The Point system for the events was 7 for first, 4 for second, 2 for third, and 1 for fourth. One point is earned for each entrant in each event.

Judges for the show were Ross Maloney, Russ Campbell, Larry Fellows, Dave Hogge, and Paul Cunningham.

Committee chairmen were Al Arrive, field judge; Russ Campbell, judge; and Bob Peterson, announcer.

Exec Board Chooses SUB Council Tonite

Interviews for the Student Union Building Committee will be held by the Executive Board tonight at 7 p.m. in the Exec Board room, announced Lon Davis, last year's SUB Committee Chairman, today.

Students interested in the ASUI Leadership Conference Committee and the Film committee will be interviewed by the Student Events Council Thursday night at 7 p.m. in the Executive Board Room.

The SUB committee is a major committee which is responsible for the operations and activities of the Student Union Building. The committee consists of five to seven members and is directly responsible to the Executive Board.

According to Jack Cole, Chairman of the Student Events Council, the Leadership conference committee will be in charge of the annual Leadership Conference held each year at the start of the second semester for future leaders on campus. Also introductions to parliamentary procedure and the organization of student government are part of the program.

The film committee is responsible for the ASUI movies which are shown in the Borah Theatre throughout the school year. It also determines policies which groups can show films in the SUB.

Cole and Davis both said, interested students should sign up in the ASUI Office so their Activities cards can be checked by the selecting committees.

Insurance Fee Hike Approved By 15 Groups

Fifteen campus living groups have so far endorsed a proposed plan to raise student fees to cover a hike in student accident coverage rates, ASUI President Dick Weeks said today.

Weeks said all reporting living groups had voted in favor of the plan which would increase rates from the 50 cent per semester now assessed. The other two proposals would have increased the present $100 deductible or lowered the maximum coverage from the present $3000.

Weeks said the results of the voting would be presented to the Executive Board tonight, who in turn will suggest one of the plans to the Board of Regents.

2 Idaho Students Collide On Campus

Automobiles driven by two University students collided on the corner of Idaho and Deakin at 7:52 p.m. Saturday.

Both drivers received citations from the city police department, Wayne J. Benson, Sigma Chi, was charged with being intoxicated in public, and Arthur H. Hansen, Lindley Hall, for failure to yield right of way.

Hansen was going east on Idaho, and stopped at the stop sign. He didn't see the other car approaching and proceeded into the intersection. At the center of the intersection, police said, Hansen saw the car driven by Benson but was unable to stop due to excess speed and wet pavement.

ARG STAFF BANQUET

Argonaut staff members will hold a banquet next Monday at 5:30 p.m. in the Syringa room of the SUB. All active workers for the paper are cordially invited to the free dinner, according to 1955-56 editor Gary Pietsch. Arg keys will be awarded to those who have worked on the Argonaut for five semesters.

Capacity Crowd Sees Drama Duos

Capacity audiences attended the Drama Department's pair of one-act plays presented last Thursday and Friday evenings.

Chairman of Dramatics, Miss Jean Collette said "We had to move in extra chairs" to accommodate the audience which filled the small U Hut Studio Theater on Friday evening.

Presented by the advanced play production class, the plays, "Gary Owen" and "Women's Page Uncensored," were directed by Lucille Palmer and Nancy Benfer respectively.

19th Vesper Commencement Service Set

The 19th annual University of Idaho commencement concert will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday June 9, in the Music building recital hall, Professor Hall M. Macklin, head of the music department, announced today.

The participants, he said, would range from vocal and instrumental soloists to large vocal and instrumental ensembles.

Marigay Nelson, soprano of Orofino, will be a featured soloist at the concert, as will Margaret Johnson, pianist from Blackfoot.

A 12-voice ensemble will present selections under the direction of Harry Morrison, instructor in music. The University Concert choir, under the direction of Professor Glen R. Lockery, will also perform.

Other groups on the Vesper program will be an organ-brass-percussion ensemble, a piano and strings trio, and a string quartet.

"We are planning some unusual numbers for the concert," Professor Macklin said. One of the selections, he added, would be a choral work by Benjamin Britten.

ANDERSON CHOSEN CAPTAIN

Curtis Anderson was chosen Captain of the Idaho Chapter of Pershing Rifles for the coming year. Anderson was elected last week along with Bob Cossey, executive officer; Fred Morse, supply; George Green, pledge trainer; Wilbur Robinson, adjacent; and Mick Floan first sergeant.

Raid Participation Leads To Reprimands, Probation

Four students were placed on administrative probation for the rest of the time they are attending the University of Idaho as a result of their participation in last Tuesday's "panty raid" it was announced today by C. O. Decker, Director of Student Affairs of the University of Idaho.

Decker told the Argonaut that each of the four students received a verbal reprimand from University President D. R. Theophilus and himself and letters stating to the effect that if, in the future, they were involved in any type of antisocial activity they would be subject to dismissal from the University.

Decker said that the University student-faculty disciplinary committee concurred with the action taken only after interviewing 16 students during a four hour investigation in connection with the incident.

Group Disorganized
A disorganized group of some 300 male students representing about 15 living groups on campus joined in the Tuesday night affair, but the action fizzled when student leaders stepped in to disperse the estimated 10 per cent behind the raid.

In connection with their investigation the Disciplinary committee recommended to President D. R. Theophilus that the University make clear to the students that there are severe penalties which could be imposed upon students who engage in activities of this sort and that the University is prepared to impose them when the circumstances warrant.

ASUI President Dick Weeks and members of the ASUI Executive Board expressed their satisfaction in the way the matter was handled by the University officials. Late last week the Board, in a special meeting, called for more stringent action in dealing with the instigators of campus raids and water fights.

Brauff Pays Stiff Recklessness Fine

Arnold Brauff, University electrical engineering junior, was found guilty of reckless driving in Moscow police court Thursday. He was cited on a complaint signed by Thelon F. Winschell, West 6th Vet's Village resident, for alleged reckless driving in the village last Friday evening.

Judge Herbert Rettig in announcing his decision said that Brauff apparently had not heeded "slow down" warnings of area residents when passing through the village the second of two times.

Brauff had his driver's license suspended 30 days, was fined $40, and sentenced to a 10-day jail sentence—which was suspended.

Legislature Says Legal Holiday Tomorrow

Classes will be dismissed Wednesday for Memorial Day, a new holiday on the University of Idaho campus.

Students can attribute their free day to an action of the Idaho State Legislature which declared Memorial Day a legal school holiday.

Picnics and other activities are being planned by various organizations and living groups.

Women will have 11 p.m. permission Tuesday night and 10:30 p.m. permission Wednesday night, according to Mrs. Louise Carter, Dean of Women.

The loan, reference and periodical areas of the library will be open the usual hours (7:45 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., 7-10 p.m.) on Memorial day.

Borah Addresses Now Available

Copies of the major addresses of the Borah Conference are available and being distributed to students and faculty, Ted Sherman, chairman of the conference announced today.

He said the committee had been able to complete publications of the addresses earlier than in previous years. He said copies are being sent immediately to the people who requested them.

Students who did not sign the list for the publication of the addresses can secure copies in the ASUI office.

Copies are being sent to faculty members by campus mail. Members who want extra copies or who fail to receive their own copies may pick up extras in the office of the Department of Social Science, in the Ad Building or may phone the office and ask copies to be sent by campus mail.

Borah Conference Dates Approved

The Academic Council May 16 approved the dates of March 20-21, 1957, for the Borah Conference.

Oops was the by-word throughout the Egg Throw Event as sooner or later each contestant came out on the splattering end. LaRae Harrop, left, Tri-Delt entry, grimaces as she just misses on a return catch. Lucille Palmer, Steel House contestant, gives out with an "o-o-oh" as the weary little oval slips through her outstretched fingers. Photos by Jamie Steele.

SUB To Present 'Oscar' Production Of Wis. Union

"The Living Room of the University," a sound, color film documenting the operation of the University of Wisconsin Student Union will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday in the bucket, the Student Union committee announced today.

The film which recently won an "Oscar" as an outstanding production, was shown Monday and will be shown again tonight at 7:30 p.m. and again on Wednesday afternoon and evening, probably in the Borah Theater.

The committee said the film contains a number of ideas for improvement of Idaho's SUB, which will probably be expanded in the future. The picture outlines the role of the Wisconsin Union in the student and community life of the area.

The film was made during the Wisconsin Union's 25th anniversary in 1953-54 and includes more than 400 scenes involving hundreds of students, faculty and alumni which use the giant center's facilities.

KEEP Cool

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

The tag ends of the "panty raid" activities were wrapped up this last weekend when Director of Student Affairs C. O. Decker and President D. R. Theophilus jointly announced that four students were placed on administrative probation for the remainder of their time at the University of Idaho.

The connotation of the probation is "one more slip and you're out."

During the last few days Jason has heard quite a lot of discussion concerning the event and disciplinary actions taken as a result of it. Some students say, "why dump it on these four guys; they were only part of the mob?"

Jason's answer to this one is if five robbers held up a bank and two were captured, the other three getting away, would police let the first two free because they couldn't find the other three? The answer is obvious.

And so it is with the University Student-Faculty Disciplinary committee and their decision. These four fellows may very well be taking the rap for the other one or two hundred, but that's the breaks.

The fact that they were involved in last Tuesday night's affair is the deciding point, and involved they must have been if the Disciplinary committee saw fit to place them on probation.

A stop gap recommendation is on its way to the President of the University concerning future "panty raids" and water fights.

In words of one syllable it states that students who engage in activities of this sort leave themselves open to severe penalties which can be imposed and the University is prepared to do just that when the circumstances warrant.

Jason hopes that this is one ruling that will stay on the books, but that University officials won't have to implement it in the future.

In the years to come, students would do well to channel their exuberant inclinations along more constructive lines.

Knowing Prayer Nets Cowboy $20 Bill

BATON ROUGE, La. (ACP) — A couple of chuckles from the LSU Daily Reveille:

A weather-beaten old-timer slapped down a 20-dollar bill and challenged any cowboy present to recite the Lord's Prayer. The money was matched and a man started reciting "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep..." Then the old-timer cut him short. "You win," he said. "I didn't think you knew it."

And then there is the story of a professor at Texas Christian University who sighted one of his more haughty associates crossing the campus and growled "There, but for the grace of God, goes God."

The same story, we might add, has been attributed to Winston Churchill, who made the remark in reference to a political opponent.

'Utah Region' Of NSA Created As BYU Joins

Hopes for the creation of a "Utah Region" of National Student's Association were expressed by student officers of Brigham Young University Monday as the school prepared to join the association. BYU made the decision to join NSA immediately after the school's Executive Council was notified that formation of a Utah region has been approved by the Rocky Mountain Region, in which Utah is presently included. Approval for the move to establish the Utah region carried the stipulation that three Utah schools join NSA. The University of Utah is already a member and Utah State Agricultural College is currently considering joining.

First Six Grades Taught On Campus Beginning June 25

The annual University of Idaho Elementary Summer school will be held this year for six weeks, beginning June 25, Paul Kaus, director, announced today. Grades one through six will be taught, Kaus said, and enrollment will be limited to 25 students if possible. School will be in session one-half day from 9 a.m. to noon for grades four through six and 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for grades one through three. The school will emphasize reading, numbers, writing, social studies and, for the upper grades, science.

"This is not a remedial school," Kaus said. "We are seeking children of all levels of attainment and ability. The program is intended to further supplement and provide additional background for the child's regular school work."

Justify Or Rename Sports

For at least $16,000 a year the Pacific Coast Conference has been digging for a method to purify its member schools. That amount is paid to a commissioner, Victor O. Schmidt, who primarily rides herd on conference codes and ethics. The conference slapped "handsies" this year levying fines in the tens of thousands upon Washington and UCLA and routine monetary penalties to other members.

For several years it has been apparent, not only in the PCC but all over the nation, that college athletics is reaching the point of commercialism. Public pressure placed by alumni and friends has caused a switch from clean, sportsmanlike competition to an athletic program bearing all the indications of a profession.

Underhanded dealings, vicious recruitment competition, win hungry financiers and many other reasons can be linked with this commercialized world of sport. Athletes are taught to lie when they first come to college. Each school preps new athletes with pat answers to investigators' questions. They must deny getting under the table wages. They must say they came to the school because of their pre-selected major. It's a disgusting mess when athletes get to this point.

Over the nation the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) has struck the big athletic conferences, serving notice that it's time to evaluate if athletes are justified under educational banners in this age. The Pacific Coast Conference administrators saw fit to place on probation two of its members, and levy a $95,000 fine upon one and a $52,000 upon the other. Will this solve the problem? Will the other schools take heed and clean their slate? Will the convicted repent?

The PCC has begun a full scale cleanup. Under present codes USC, Oregon State and California are likely to be found as guilty of ethical violations as either Washington or UCLA.

Aged Codes Are Unworkable
Coaches complain these present codes are unworkable under the conditions of the times when competing to obtain athletes is set on a plane with competing to win. The present codes were set up when the "love of the game" was a primary reason for including sports in colleges.

The public, the schools, the administrators have two alternatives—bring athletics down to ethical size or dissolve the relationship of athletics under academic responsibilities and give college sports the label it now owns—"pro-athletics."

Young, Regional Director of the Eleventh U. S. Civil Service Region announced today. The salaries of the accountant and auditor positions are from $4525 to $6390 per year, and for the engineering aid positions, $2,960 to $4525 per year.

Blue Key Filings Deadline Is Noon

New members for Blue Key will be selected today at 12:30 in Conference Room A of the SUB, announced Dale Carlisle, president of the honorary. Carlisle said it was very important that all graduating and next year's returning members be at the meeting.

He also said that all applications should be in the ASUI Office by noon today. When a girl sneezes, it's a sign she's catching cold; when she yawns, she's gotten cold.

ISC Panty Thieves Must Return 'Em

POCATELLO—Idaho State College "panty raiders" were told yesterday they could escape punishment if they returned the panties they stole.

The opinion of the Student Council was not yet certain as the responsibility for completing an investigation of the incident was underway by a student-faculty committee.

Women's living groups reported approximately 15 undergarments missing following the raid early last Monday morning. Clara Otness, Dean of Women, said if students would leave the undergarments in her office, as far as she was concerned, there would be no punishment.

Mackay To Host 1st Summer Camp In Mining, Geology

The first annual summer field camp for geology and mining students in the University of Idaho's College of Mines will be held near Mackay from June 14 to July 7. The announcement was made by Dr. J. D. Forrester, dean of the college, who said that he anticipates from 12 to 15 students will enroll for the camp courses.
Heretofore short field trips during September have supplied the opportunity for instruction and training in field techniques, Dr. Forrester said. He indicated that the new camp would be much more satisfactory.
Several residents and mining companies of Mackay, interested in furthering the educational opportunities and the mineral industries of Idaho, have given valuable assistance to the committee planning the summer camp. The Idaho Alta Metals corporation, for example, has offered to make available a part of their mine for subsurface studies and mine surveying, he said.
The camp will not be limited to University of Idaho students only. Students other than those enrolled at the university may take the course for credit. Dr. Forrester declared. The camp faculty will consist of J. C. Dotson, assistant professor of mining engineering and K. E. Grimm, instructor in geology.

Lange Jockeys 113 Hours To National Radio Record

Jerry Lange, Moscow disc jockey, spun records, babbled and kidded for 113 consecutive hours which climaxed at 11 a.m. Monday morning and set a new national record for continuous broadcasting. A former University student, Lange took to the KRPL airways at 8 a.m. Wednesday morning and without sleep broadcasted over the station for the new record.

The marathon stint was in observance of the station's ninth anniversary in Moscow. Lange broke the record of 112 hours set January 18 by a Ventura, Calif., announcer.
"My worst hours," Lange commented, "came in the morning hours between 3 and 6 when there weren't many people around and nothing to do but play relaxing music."
"I was ready to quit Sunday night," Lange admitted. He breezed through the last few hours with
First Young Matron: I was married in blue to show my faithfulness.
Second Young Matron: I was married in white to show my purity.
Third young Matron: I wore a business suit, and what's it to ya?
Lady Godiva was the first jockey. She never placed, but she certainly showed.

"Station Manager Gale L. Mix, Jr., said yesterday that Lange "had his faculties back today. He must have been feeling all right. He hummed a dinner from me Monday night."
On Will Power
Lange said he did not take any special preparations to keep awake but relied "strictly on will power." He stayed up "approximately" an hour after the broadcast stint was over and went to bed.
The jockey was up at 3 p.m. yesterday after 12 hours sleep and "felt fine," Lange said yesterday he couldn't remember where he was Sunday night. "I really didn't have any idea, now that I look back on it. All I know is there was a bunch of college students there and I thought I was on the campus broadcasting."

SAE'S Edge Betas By One Stroke For IM Golf Title

Sigma Alpha Epsilon edged out Beta Theta Pi by one stroke Saturday to win the rain swept intramural golf tournament. Beta Bob Parish took medalist honors with a 79.

The SAE foursome, consisting of Jamie Steele, Hugh Hamilton, Bill Anderson, and Max Burke, playing the 18 hole tournament in de-356 dethroned defending champions, Alpha Tau Omega who finished fourth. The Beta squad paced by Parish finished with a total of 357. Phi Delta Theta finished third. Steele and Hamilton each carded 85, and Burke and Anderson each shot 93. Mike Boles was second on the Beta team as he matched the SAE leaders' 85's.

Second Lowest
Bud Ashworth, Delta Sigma Phi, carded the second lowest score of the day as he trailed Parish by one point with an 80. Bill Carson of Chrisman Hall was third with an 83, and Steel, Hamilton, and Boles tied for fourth.

Phi Delta Theta placed third in the tourney, 17 points behind the leaders, with 373. Defending champions Alpha Tau Omega were fourth with 373, and Lindley Hall was one point behind with 374.

Scores were unusually high Saturday as almost all of the 17 flights played the last 9 holes in a rain storm.

Parish, who played in flight 2, and Ashworth in Flight 1 finished before the rain storm began.

Sheppard Paces Idaho To 2nd At ND Tourney

Paced by their outstanding sophomore Dick Sheppard, the Idaho golf team placed a surprisingly high second at the annual Northern Division golf championships held at Corvallis Country Club last Saturday, in a driving wind and rain storm.

Glander Commends Vandal Tracksters For Hard Work

A serious lack of depth was named as a highly contributing cause to the Vandal's lack of success this season by Joe Glander, head track coach.

Glander commended the team members for the hard work that they put in this season and especially named a few. Wilbur Gary helped the squad very much, doubling up in as many events as he did.

Warren Johanson is to be congratulated for the brilliant comeback that he made. After a five year lay off, Johanson came back to take a fourth spot in the PCC meet last week in the 880 yard run.

Also to be commended are the two sophomore distance men, Milt Riggers and Doug Seely. Both have shown great amounts of improvement this season.

Vandal's first meet was the WSC Indoor Invitational, where they placed fourteen men, and according to Glander, "turned in a better than expected performance."

In that meet outstanding Vandals were Henning Olsen, who won a first spot in the 300 yard run, Warren Johanson, with a first in the 1000-yard run, and Wilbur Gary, who, with second places in the 70 yard dash and the broad jump, and thirds in the 70 yard low hurdles, the high jump, and the hop, step and jump, took the highest total number of points for the Idaho squad.

Idaho opened their Northern Division competition in Seattle dropping the meet to the U of Washington Huskies and also started a great Vandal mile relay team on a victory studded dual meet season.

Idaho started strong in the first seven events, but then fell behind. Johanson easily won the mile run, and Olsen ran beautifully to take the 400 yard run. Other first places for the Vandals were by Paul Hanson in the javelin throw and Wilbur Gary in the broadjump. Gary broke the existing broadjump record.

Idaho's mile relaymen again came through with a first, as did Johanson, who won both the 880 and the mile run. Jerry Duffy captured the lone Vandal first place in the field events, winning the pole vault. Milt Riggers took the two-mile run.

Idaho's last all-squad meet was the Northern Division meet in Eugene on May 12 where Vandals placed only seven men and marked the first loss of the season for the mile relay squad. Idaho placed last.

Netmen Close With Fourth At ND Tourney

Idaho netmen closed out the season last weekend with a fourth place finish at the Northern Division tourney played at Corvallis.

Despite the fact that they failed to win a single match Idaho finished with two points, on a pair of byes in the doubles, to nose out WSC for fourth spot. The Cougars gained one point.

Washington won the title for the seventeenth time finishing the two-day tourney with 15 points, 5 more than second place Oregon State. Oregon finished in third spot with four points.

Double Winner
Doyle Perkins, Washington's versatile athlete defeated Oregon State's Norm Merrill 6-1, 6-0 to capture the singles crown won last year by teammate Bill Quillon.

Perkins then joined with Gary Linden to beat their Washington teammates, Bill Jacobson and Chuck Mertel 6-1, 6-3 in the doubles final.

Perkins and Linden defeated Idaho's number one doubles duo of Dave Cummins and George Heiber 6-0, 6-1 in the second round.

Idaho failed to win even a set in the tournament with Heiber coming the closest, dropping a 6-3, 6-4 singles decision to Ben Jensen of Oregon State.

Vandal tennismen finished with one win in nine matches that being a 7 to 0 victory over Eastern Washington in pre-conference competition.

Idaho Results
Singles:
Mertell, Washington def. Long, 6-2, 6-3.
Nelson, WSC def. Cummins, 6-2, 6-1.
Jacobson, Washington def. Spencer 6-4, 6-2.
Jensen, OSC def. Heiber 6-3, 6-4
Doubles:
Perkins and Linden, Washington def. Cummins and Heiber, 6-0, 6-1.
Butler and Gorman, Oregon def. Long and Spencer, 6-0, 6-0.

All five games are scheduled for the afternoon. In the National League, Don Newcombe (6-3) of Brooklyn opposes Ron Kline (3-3) at Pittsburgh. And Brooks Lawrence (5-0) of Cincinnati goes against Sam Jones (1-3) at Chicago.

In the American League, Howie Pollet (1-1) of Chicago faces Tom Lo Sorda (0-2) at Kansas City. Dean Stone (1-0) of Washington gets the call against Johnny Schmitz (0-1) at Baltimore.

It's not the work I enjoy, said the taxi driver, it's the people I run into.

Frosh Diamondmen Down Airmen 17-5

Wally Friel's freshmen diamondmen finished their season Friday with a 17-5 trouncing of the Othello Air Force Base nine.

Originally scheduled as a doubleheader, only one game was possible because of the late arrival of the airmen, and the length of the first game.

Ken Middlemist, winning Vandal hurler, allowed the error stricken Othelloites but seven scattered hits, while eight airmen were struck out.

Key Idaho hitters were Ted Knivala with a double and Larry Nelson who hit two one baggers.

Friel announced yesterday that with the seasons end, seventeen men will receive numerals.
