

The GOLDEN FLEECE

by Jason

Results of Saturday night's mixer will be a good indication if Idaho is "organizationed to death."

An all-campus mixer and carnival has been woven into New Students Days in a move directed by some sensible, meritorious thinking and planning. At this mixer, campus organizations will be given a chance to display their "wares" in a carnival like disposition.

This means new students (and old ones, too) are relieved of sitting in an auditorium for two hours to hear presidents of organizations exclaim and elaborate merits and benefits of their own group.

But to go a little deeper this will also give you an opportunity to see if the campus is . . . "organizationed to death."

Many organizations do not get functioning until prodded by gung-ho members and worried advisers until nearly winter. This carnival will give each and every one a chance to "get hot" early. It is a natural in clearing up misconceptions as to duties and functions of each . . . and . . . de-emphasize organizations that have existed only in name and by electing officers.

Too few make the wheels rotate in organizations on this campus. The program of activities and studies which this university attempts to provide you is, in ever increasing cases, becoming sharply divided between actively-minded versus student-minded collegians. This should be an answer session for many who wonder . . . "Are we organizationed to death? How many people are actually included in organizations?"

This doubtless will also challenge activity leaders to make this carnival go. It should prove an entertaining evening and will determine organizations worthwhile to the individual and beneficial to the student body. Some may find it difficult to justify their organization's existence.

. . . And this test will be given unintentionally to the activity minded supporter.

12 CONTEST FOR HOMECOMING QUEEN

Cuties Compete For Crown

Homecoming queen candidates of 1956 line up to display their best smiles for the men on campus. One will be named queen October 9. Beginning visits to men's living groups this week will be (left, front to back) LaRae Harrop, Tri-Delt; Patti Rees, Alpha Phi; Bev Burwell, Gamma Phi; Barbara Simons, Alpha Chi; (center) Karen

Float Plans Materialize

Women's Living Groups Back 'Favorite Gals'

A dozen campus beauties became nominees for Homecoming Queen Saturday as planners got machinery in motion for the week-long event that will be climaxed Oct. 13. Meanwhile, Al Miller, chairman of the Homecoming float committee, released rules for the parade that will wind its way through Moscow prior to the Arizona State-Idaho football game.

Nominated were: LaRae Harrop, Driggs, a Tri-Delt beginning her junior year in elementary education. Miss Harrop was a 1955 Holly Queen finalist and is a member of the Women's Drill Team.

Patti Rees, Alpha Phi from Kimberly, a junior majoring in business education. Miss Rees was a finalist for Delta Sig Dream Girl, a pom-pom girl and member of the Drill Team.

Gamma Phi candidate is Beverly Burwell, a senior majoring in elementary education. Miss Burwell is from Boise and attended Boise Junior college during her freshman and sophomore years. She is social chairman for her house and was a finalist for Homecoming Queen at BJC.

The Candidates
Hilda Reicken, Hays Hall, is a senior from Everett, Washington majoring in home economics. She was a Holly Queen and Delta Sig Dream Girl candidate and was a member of the junior-senior prom and Homecoming committees.

A senior in elementary education, Barbara Simons is the Alpha Chi candidate from Palo Alto, Calif. She was a Sweetheart of Sigma Chi finalist, Esquire Girl finalist and is a member of Hell Divers, Orchestis and is house social chairman.

Karen Warner, from Twin Falls, Theta, a junior majoring in French. Miss Warner was 1955 Holly Queen, SAE Violet Queen, has been a Spur and is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta.

Ethel Steel's nominee is Debbie Gentry, a senior in education from Weiser. Miss Gentry appeared three of four ASUI productions last year and is a member of Vandal Riders.

Marilyn Matthews, Pi Phi junior majoring in homemaking, was this year's "Miss Emmett, Idaho" and holds the offices of rush captain and song leader in her sorority. She played in the University Concert Band and belongs to the Home Economics club.

Delta Gammas nominated Mary Jane Milbrath, a junior in pre-physical therapy. She is from Walla Walla, Washington, was Delta Sigma Phi Dream Girl last year, is a member of Vandaleers and has appeared in several musical productions of the ASUI.

Dorothy Jacobsen, Kappa Kappa Gamma, is from Rexburg majoring in biological science, is a member of Vandaleers and has participated in AWS activities.

Entrant from French House is Virginia Staley from Kellogg, a senior in elementary education. Miss Staley was Homecoming float chairman for her house last year and is culture chairman this year.

Irene Bratton, Forney Hall, a junior majoring in Physical education from Wallace, is a member of Helldivers and has been a candidate for Sweetheart of Sigma Chi and Delta Sig Dream Girl.

Finalists will be named Oct. 2 and the Queen will be announced October 9. This week candidates will begin tours of all men's living groups; whose members will vote for five finalists and later, the Queen.

Float Rules Released
Miller said rules for float building have already been sent to living group presidents. The parade will precede the Sun Devil-Vandal clash Saturday, October 13, at which the Queen will be crowned and float awards presented.

According to the rules, size of the floats must be 20 feet high or under with recommendations that the floats are no wider than 15 feet. Floats must be in place by 9:15 a.m. Saturday. All floats not in place will be eliminated automatically. Float plans and sketches must be submitted by Oct. 1. Although a theme was not chosen, floats can be decorated along an Arizona Sun Devils idea. Colors are maroon and gold.

All floats must be supplied with ample gas, oil and water to prevent any mechanical failure during the parade. Each living group is to select a float chairman and submit his or her name to parade co-chairman Al Miller, TKK, or Felix Marcollin, Campus Club.

A climatic Homecoming dance will end the celebration Saturday evening.

Board Will Select Chairman Tonight

Interviews will be held tonight by the ASUI Executive Board for Chairman of the U of I Blood Drive, Dick Weeks, ASUI President announced today.

Weeks said the Chairman will be selected for the annual blood drive to be held October 30-31. Other members of the committees will be selected by interviews next week.

Activities Carnival Brightens First Mixer

The first all-campus Activities Carnival Mixer will be held Saturday night from 9-12 in the SUB ballrooms.

The Activities Carnival will be similar in organization to the annual Campus Chest Carnival with booths sponsored by various campus organizations and honoraries.

Paul Baker, chairman of the Frosh Orientation dance committee who is in charge of the mixer, said the Carnival would be open to all campus organizations and honoraries. He said a meeting of organizational presidents was held last night where arrangements were made concerning space and regulations on booths.

Any organization or honorary president who has not been able to attend the meeting and would like to set up a booth at the carnival should contact Paul Baker, Chrisman Hall, phone 8381. Deadline for making reservations is noon Wednesday Baker said.

The activities carnival is being tried for the first time on the Idaho Campus. It is replacing an all Frosh assembly in which all campus organization representa-

Enrollment Ahead Of '55; New Record Easily In Sight

The number of students already registered at the University this fall is 157 higher than that of the final count last October, and more are still to come, Registrar D. D. DuSault said today.

When the registrar's window closed Monday night, enrollment stood at 3,619. Last fall's final figures were 3,462. Some time Tuesday or Wednesday a new all-time record is expected to be established. The previous all-time high of 3,673 for fall enrollment was set in 1948 when about 2,000 veterans of World War II descended on the campus.

Late registrants are expected to be showing up for the next two weeks. Registration, which started on an assembly-line basis in the Memorial gymnasium, has now been moved to the Administrative Offices building.

Student housing was in good shape today after the first day of regular classes opened yesterday. Director of Dormitories Bob Greene said the dormitories had room for about 20 men and 10 women after the final shakedown this weekend.

Greek living groups took more new students than they had anticipated and some were full to the brim.

Classes began yesterday and returning students and upperclassmen found assignments being handed out while new frosh were getting adjusted in their courses and learning what will be expected of them as college students.

A new student assembly will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Purpose of this assembly is to explain the traditions such as Hello Walk, Moscow-Pullman Walk and how to study.

There will be talent from last year's Blue Key Talent show. Various speakers will explain the purpose of school in both social life and the educational side. The freshmen and new students will be able to have a better concept of what is going to happen and why.

ARG STAFF MEETING
Argonaut staffers and interested students will meet at 4:15 today in the Syringa room of the SUB, Don Ingle, personnel manager, announced.

Ingle said the meeting is aimed at "getting acquainted with prospective staff members. He added that all reporters on news, sports, women's social and editorial pages, were urged to attend.

Page editors will discuss the functions of their various sections of the newspaper and Editor John Hughes will explain the general policies of the Arg.

IK Book Swap Saves Money And Time

Intercollegiate Knights sold used books September 20 to 22 in the checkroom of the SUB. Object of the sale was to save money for the students and to assist the students in selling used books.

Books were sold for 20 hours, with the busiest traffic coming Friday morning. IK's spent about 15 additional hours collecting and paying for the books. A fee of 10 cents per book sold was charged with 400 texts sold. About 400 turned into the exchange were obsolete.

Members of the organization will be stationed at the SUB this evening from 7 to 8 for students to collect their profits or unsold books. Students who have not done so by 8 p.m. should contact Al Miller at the TKE house.

The exchange handled about $1,000 during the exchange, saving the students about $450 over the price of new books.

Study Is Topic Of Assembly

A new student assembly will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Purpose of this assembly is to explain the traditions such as Hello Walk, Moscow-Pullman Walk and how to study.

There will be talent from last year's Blue Key Talent show. Various speakers will explain the purpose of school in both social life and the educational side. The freshmen and new students will be able to have a better concept of what is going to happen and why.

ARG STAFF MEETING

Argonaut staffers and interested students will meet at 4:15 today in the Syringa room of the SUB, Don Ingle, personnel manager, announced.

Ingle said the meeting is aimed at "getting acquainted with prospective staff members. He added that all reporters on news, sports, women's social and editorial pages, were urged to attend.

Student Parking Permits To Be On By Tomorrow

The University's Operations Council today issued advice to student drivers to have campus parking permits placed on the lower right corner of windshields by Wednesday.

Dean Charles O. Decker, director of student affairs, said regulations state that permits be exhibited immediately after receipt, but added this move was prompted by a critical shortage of parking and moving space on the campus this year.

Decker said Fred Pennell, campus peace officer, will begin checking cars for permits on Thursday and failure to place the permit on windshields constitutes a traffic violation subject to a $5.00 fine.

"The use of a car on the Idaho campus is a privilege," Decker pointed out under the present critical condition. He added it is a privilege which is revocable for cause.

The Director pointed out that these parking penalties are accumulative over the course of a student's entire college career. Two dollars is the penalty for first offenders abusing parking privileges, $5.00 for second and if a third occurs the student is referred to a disciplinary committee. Decker said taking disciplinary action on third offenders at any time during a student's career is beginning this year.

Decals Issued
Over 1600 student decals have been issued this year, an amount comparable to last year's total, but Decker pointed out more students will apply for decals in the next two or three weeks.

Officer Pennell reported today traffic has been moving at a snail's pace during class hours and said he noted many students driving cars to and from classes. He said the most critical jams were noted shortly before eight, at noon

SDX's To Discuss Newspaper Week

Members of Sigma Delta Chi, national men's professional journalism honorary, will meet tomorrow afternoon in the Syringa Room at 4:15 to discuss plans for Idaho's annual observance of Newspaper Week.

Last year the honorary held a banquet with Lewis Papes of St. Maries as guest speaker. People in journalism from North Central Idaho attended the meeting. Jerry Chandler, vice-president, has been named chairman for the Sigma Delta Chi observance.

Exec Board To Set NSA Meet Dates Tonight

The ASUI Executive Board will be asked to approve dates for a regional National Student's Association convention, tentatively set for Oct. 26 and 27 on the Idaho campus.

President Dick Weeks said the meeting, if approved by the board, would bring together representatives from at least 13 Western college campuses.

A committee composed of Dave Maxey, John Hoch, Dale Carlisle and Jim Kay will make arrangements for the meet. Weeks said. Weeks, Kay and Maxey attended a spring regional conference and Carlisle attended the national conference this summer.

KUOI Starts Work Mon.

The campus radio station, KUOI, will start their daily broadcasting on Monday afternoon, October 1, at 12:30. The programming will be essentially the same as it was last year but officials said they are considering a new program or two after they get under way.

To give everyone a chance to participate, the station uses about 30 announcers on two hour shifts. At times they have 10 typists. The station is on the air 10½ hours a day, and has news, popular music programs, sports events, concerts, speeches, and other things of interest on the campus. They specialize in popular music and news. They have 4,000 records.

KUOI comes on at 660 kilocycles with a power of about one watt. The station is steadily progressing. They bought some new equipment last year, and are trying to become self-supporting. They have a new advertising agency this year, that emphasizes the importance of college advertising to its customers, so the station hopes to have enough ads to pay more than one-third its expenses, which is the present figure. All finances come from advertising or the ASUI.

Camp-Eyeing

By Jim Golden

"Uncle" Gale Mix, one of the perennial guardian angels of the ASUI, was grinning proudly Sunday as the expansive new addition of the SUB was opened to students and faculty. The opening was a triumph of a sort for Gale, who spent long hours hurrying workmen along day and night toward the Sunday opening.

Despite indications to the contrary, Uncle Gale knew the building would be ready. Wednesday, he picked up a leathery-looking crowbar and told this writer, "I may have to use this, but we'll get it finished." At 11:55 Sunday the last debris was cleared away and at 12 noon the addition was open for business. Thirteen days of around-the-clock work had paid off.

With returning students crowding the Bucket, Jim Bowby, manager of the SUB, surveyed the situation and decided students needed a reminder. "I want an ad in the Argonaut," he said, "about this size." He indicated an area of about nine square feet. "Make it read, 'PLEASE CLEAR THE TABLES.'" Cooperation would have a lot of work for SUB employees.

As so-called "squeal hour" signaled an end to an arduous week of sorority rushing, platoons of disorganized fraternity pledges swarmed over campus as the annual trophy stealing binge began. Screamed one sorority member as a herd of about 75 male pledges descended, "Get your damn pledges out of our house!" This had little effect however, and pledges swarmed forward, grabbing trophies, etcetera as they went.

One fraternity "stole" a sorority pledge as an innovation. Her sister pledges finally retrieved her after introducing themselves, one by one, to applauding onlookers. As usual the benches from the Kappa porch disappeared within minutes after they ran out of trophies.

Editors note: In ensuing issues, this writer will not attempt to pass judgment on controversial issues of the campus, but will rather attempt to report some of the behind-the-scenes deeds and doers that are an integral part of the University of Idaho.

Bear Jason!

Dear Jason:

What's the chances of getting you good people to put me down as a subscriber to the Argonaut for the next semester so I can keep up with the events around the Northwest. I've got one favor to ask of you—can you send them to me Air Mail?

Got a few fellow cohorts from Washington State here in Korea that say we can't tromp them in football this year and I'd like to have some good results in their red faces as soon as possible. Seems the last game I saw was composed completely of an Idaho theme and although we refused to "rub salt into an open wound" last year, this year will be a repetition of the season of '54. We've got the traditional wager on here and the loser will make a nine-mile hike through the rice paddy filled countryside.

Incidentally, I don't have any rubber boots so don't let me down. Lt. Thomas S. Butera, '54 Eighth Army Support Command

Q—Two trains going eighty miles an hour are headed toward each other on a single track. The engineer of one is tight as an owl and the other engineer is named Olaf Swenson. The trains are only a hundred yards apart and yet they don't crash. Why?

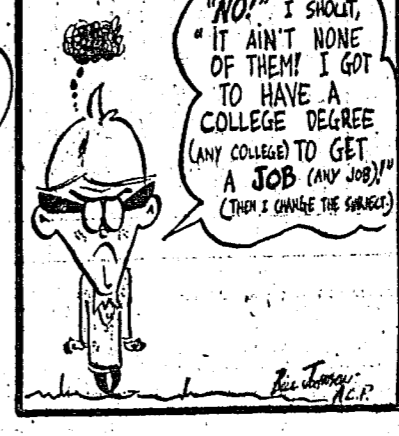

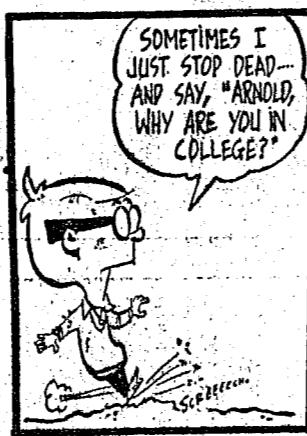

A—Because Norse is Norse and souce is souce and never the twains shall meet.

A couple of friends were in Eastern Europe, getting by through paying lip service to communism. They meet and one asks the other: "How goes it with you?"

"Like a radish," says 't'other friend.

"What do you mean—like a radish?"

"Red outside, white in."

Cady Announces Council On State-Wide Research

Gems To Be Issued First Week In Oct.
The 1956 edition of the Gem will be issued sometime during the first week of October, sources on the yearbook staff said today.

Technical difficulties were blamed for the late release date. Gems will be available in the ASUI office as soon as copies arrive. Students no longer attending Idaho may have theirs mailed for an extra 35 cents postage charge.

A soldier and a sailor, happening to die at the same moment, reached the Pearly Gates at exactly the same time. As Saint Peter gave them their angelic wings, he warned, "One unclear or unkind thought will cause these feathery appendages to drop off, so be careful."

A few minutes later, a luscious looking female angel swished by. Immediately the soldier's wings dropped off. As he bent over to pick them up, the sailor's wings also fell.

ANOTHER YEAR, ANOTHER DOLLAR

Today I begin the third year of writing this column for Philip Morris Cigarettes, and I am merry in my heart.

I am merry for several reasons. First, because I am being paid.

Not, let me hasten to state, that an emolument was necessary. "Sirs," I said a few days ago to the makers of Philip Morris, who underneath their dicey eyes are as friendly as pups and twice as cute, "Sirs," I said to this winsome assemblage, "there is no need to pay me for writing this column. If I can introduce America's college men and women to Philip Morris's natural tobacco goodness, if I can inaugurate them into the vast sodality of Philip Morris smokers and thus enhance their happiness, heighten their zest, upgrade their gusto, magnify their cheer, broaden their bliss, augment their glee, and increase their PQ—"

"PQ?" said the makers, looking at me askance.

"Pleasure Quotient," I explained.

"Ah!" said the makers, nodding their sweet, shaggy heads.

"It," I continued, "I can do these splendid things for the college population of America, there is no need for money, because I am more than amply repaid."

We wept then. I am not ashamed to say it. WE WEPT! I wish the wisecracks who say big business is cold and heartless could have been there that day. I wish they could have witnessed the deep, croaking sobs that racked the gathering; the great, shimmering tears that splashed on the boardroom table. We wept, every man-jack of us. The makers wept. The secretaries wept. I wept. My agent, Clyde Greedy, wept. We wept all.

"No, no!" cried one of the makers, whose name is Good Sam. "We insist on paying you."

"Oh, all right," I said.

Then we laughed. The gloom passed like a summer shower. We all laughed and chose up sides and played stoop-tag and had steaming mugs of cocoa and lit plump, firm, white cigarettes, brimming full of natural tobacco goodness. I mean Philip Morris, of corris!

Refreshed and exalted, we returned to the business at hand. "Now then," said one of the makers, whose name is Merry Andrew, "what will you write about in your column this year?"

"About students and teachers," I said. "About classes and cutting. About ads and coeds. About Greeks and independents. About the important issues that occupy the supple young minds of college America."

"Like what?" asked one of the makers, whose name is Tol'able David.

"Like how to finance a full social life without a revolver," I replied. "Like how to wear Bermuda shorts though your knees look like brain-coral. Like how to double-date in an MG."

"And will you," asked one of the makers, whose name is Peter-Sit-by-the-Fire, "from time to time say a pleasant word about Philip Morris Cigarettes, which are now available in two sizes—Regular in the familiar Snap-Open Pack, and Long-Size in the new Crushproof Box?"

"Crazy kid!" I chuckled, pushing my fist gently against his jaw. "You know I will."

And we all shook hands—silently, firmly, manly—and I left, dabbing at my eyes with my agent, and hurried to the nearest typewriter.

A typical scene on "Scream Saturday" took place at the Kappa house. Members of Kappa Kappa Gamma are shown excitedly greeting new pledges in front of the sorority house.

Churches To Hold Reception Tonight

Receptions will be held this evening by church groups to welcome new and returning college students to religious life at the University. Entertainment and refreshments have been planned to make the students feel at home.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE
A reception for all students will be held at the church Youth Center, this evening at 7:30. Guests and friends are welcome.

OUR SAVIOR'S LUTHERAN AND FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH
A reception will be held at the Lutheran church at 7 p.m. for all Lutheran students. A special welcome is extended to all new students.

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL
Students will be welcomed at Canterbury, 618 Elm, at 8 p.m. Special invitations were mailed to as many as possible. However, if no invitation was received, students are still invited to attend.

FIRST METHODIST
All students are invited to the Church Night reception to be held at the church this evening at 7 p.m. Cars will be available at the Campus Christian Center for those needing transportation.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
A general tour of the church is scheduled from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. for all students. Westminster officers and church members, including members of the University faculty will be hosts and guide the tour. Charles Doak, new Presbyterian University Pastor will be introduced.

LATTER DAY SAINTS

Living Groups Greet Frosh

Serenades, Water Fights, Keep New Students Busy

Welcome were given to all new pledge classes, followed by their initiation into campus water fights and the traditional fall trophy stealing bouts. Vocal chord limbering-up exercises are now on the schedule for frosh pledge classes. "Here to stay fall fads" are engagements and the return of recently graduated "alums" who cannot stay away from their alma mater.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA
Congratulations to all sorority pledge classes from the members and pledges at ATO.

Sunday, the Pi Beta Phi sorority house joined forces with the ATO's for a pancake fry at the Arboretum. Afterwards, everyone went back to the ATO house where songs were sung. A good time was had by all.

Hopes for winning the Song Fest were somewhat dampened after hearing the pledge class serenade Sunday evening.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA
Belated congratulations to Voni Forte and Lorne Fitts, TKE, on their pinning last spring.

House guests last weekend were Sue Merrill, Spokane, Wash., and Elaine Hyland, St. Maries, Idaho. Welcome back to Sandy Slavin, who has just returned from Oslo, Norway.

Saturday evening, the traditional fireside for the pledges was given by the members with Cherie Bacon in charge of the party.

Thanks to the Beta's, Phi's, and Sigma Nu's for the flowers which were sent to the Alpha Chi's. Thanks to the ATO's for their serenade Sunday evening in honor of the pledge class.

SIGMA CHI
Sigma Chi offers congratulations to all other fraternities and sororities on their pledge classes.

Carol Kurdy, Ann Beardmore and Judy Purkheiser, Pi Beta Phi's, were dinner guests Sunday. Plans are being formulated for a dance to be held in honor of the pledges at the Legion Cabin in the near future.

The pledge class challenges the Pi Beta Phi pledge class to a water fight this Saturday.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA
Thanks to the Beta Theta Pi house for their serenade when the new pledge class had just moved into the Kappa house. Afterwards, the Phi Gamma Delta's carried off the porch benches and hoisted them up outside their house.

Saturday night, a formal banquet was held in honor of the new pledge class.

Sunday was water fight day for the new pledge class with some of the surrounding fraternities. Bruises and aching muscles are the reward.

The first fireside of the year was Sunday night with entertainment provided by the pledges.

Thanks to the ATO's for their serenade Sunday night honoring the pledges.

IDAHO CLUB
With the opening of the new dining hall and the promised arrival of a new proctor and hostess, Idaho Club men are looking forward to a good year.

The officers of Idaho Club have been directing the activity of the club, which has centered chiefly around checking in both new and old students, and in making the new freshmen feel at home.

GAMMA PHI BETA
Twenty-one new pledges were welcomed into the house Saturday noon. A formal banquet preceded the pledging ceremony which was held Saturday night.

Thanks to the Betas, Phi Gams, and Sigma Nus for the flowers and the ATO's for their serenade.

Congratulations to Nancy Burns for her recent pinning to Dan Davis, Delta Tau Delta.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON
Congratulations to Al Waitz and George Vasco who are now engaged to Karen Becker and Georgia Carrico, respectively.

Past editor of the TKE magazine, Al Derr, returned to Idaho from Champaign, Illinois to proceed for their serenade when the new pledge class had just moved into the Kappa house. Afterwards, the Phi Gamma Delta's carried off the porch benches and hoisted them up outside their house.

The Moscow Methodist church, September 15 was the setting for the double ring wedding to Gail Torpey to Rich Gillespie, Delta Tau Delta. Kathy Torpey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the five bridesmaids were sorority sisters. Best man was Wayne Reid of Stanford. The ushers were fraternity brothers and friends. A reception followed in the church basement where many Kappas assisted. The traditional Kappa song was sung at the reception.

The First Presbyterian church of Moscow was the scene of Carolyn Sanderson's wedding to William Stahley, Jr., of Moscow, on September 8. The bride wore a gown of a renaissance princess silhouette of French silk organza with a chapel train and Juliette cap of satin and Chantilly lace. Maid of honor was Miss Diane Shaw with the Misses Susan Stahley, Ann Reading, Judy Crookham and Jo Coffin as bridesmaids in colored dresses matching the colors of the autumn gladioli in the church.

The First Baptist Church of Boise was the scene of Marcia Thornton's wedding to Bradford Gauss, Boise, formerly a University of Idaho Phi Delta Theta. The color scheme of the wedding was pink and green. Maid of honor was Susan McCarter, and bridesmaids were Sandra Gauss, Jackie Thornton and Joyce Genoway. Best man was James Potter, and the ushers were Don Smith, John Turner, Jim Thornton, and Curtis Gauss. Brad is now attending Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, where he is enrolled in the school of dentistry. Marcia is teaching in Omaha.

The summer wedding of Sandra Stringfield and Dick Hood, Sigma Chi, took place in Caldwell's St. David's Catholic Church. Maid of honor was Miss Barbara Keller of Caldwell. The bridesmaids were Ina Marie Decker, Patty Parsons (now Mrs. Jim Cothern), and Judy Crookham. Best man was Buzz Harrington. Dick is employed with the department of Law Enforcement. The couple is now residing in Caldwell.

Patty Parsons and Jim Cothern, Sigma Chi, tied the knot this summer in the First Methodist Church of Payette, Idaho. Maid of honor was Dorothy Parsons, and the bridesmaids were Kaye Taylor, Sandra Hood, and Marlys Jackson. Best man was Dick Hood, and the ushers were Eddy Parsons and Chuck Holt. The color scheme of the wedding was a fall brown, with gold, rose, and turquoise. Patty and Jim are now attending Michigan State where Jim is studying for his masters, and Patty is finishing her senior year of college.

The Lewiston Catholic church was the setting for Alyce Sweeney and John Payne's wedding on August 26. Maid of honor was Alyce's sister, Mary Sweeney, and the bridesmaids were Mary Jane Milbrath and Mrs. Paul Hanson. Best man was Rod Payne, and the ushers were Jay Webb and Kenny Wright. The couple is now residing in St. Louis, Missouri, where John is beginning his studies in medical school.

DELTA CHI
Visitors last weekend were Dale Geaudreau, Barker Weston, Bob Stolley and Duane Wilkie.

Delta Chis are waiting for the inevitable serenades from the sorority pledges classes, as several trophies have been accumulated. A fireside has been tentatively planned for Friday night.

A Thursday afternoon football game between the members and pledges proved the pledges to be the losers with the score eight to six. The unhappy pledges, displeased with the referee's decision decided to tub the referee, with the result that everyone was tubbed except the referee.

DELTA TAU DELTA
Congratulations to Harold Crowson who passed his pin to Mitzi Gillette, Twin Falls, and to Neal Powell who pinned Diane Bivens, Alpha Phi, during the summer.

Formal pledging was held Sunday for the eighteen new pledges. Newly elected pledge officers are: Don Winsler, president; Bob Bernard, vice president; Glenn Potter, secretary; Freddy Ayarzo, social chairman; and Jerry Shively, song leader.

Pledges received their first taste of college water fights Sunday and emerged from the battle with the Kappa pledges slightly wet. Delta Tau Delta sends out congratulations to all new pledge classes and best wishes for the coming year.

Ecuador Scientist Arrives To Study Veterinary Science

Dr. Armando Munoz, professor of veterinary science at the University of Quayaquil, has arrived on the University of Idaho campus for a year of special study under the technical aid program between Idaho and the Ecuadorian government.

At Guayaquil, Dr. Munoz has been working under Dr. Lloyd A. Scribner, head of veterinary science at Idaho who is on leave with the Ecuadorian technical commission, in developing a veterinary science program for that country. Here Munoz will study in the fields of livestock production, veterinary science, and animal nutrition.

This is the first visit by the Ecuadorian scientist to the United States. Accompanying him are his wife and daughter. Munoz is the third agricultural staff member from Ecuador to come to the University of Idaho this fall for special study. Already on the campus are Guillermo Albernoz, studying in horticulture, and Gonzales Luzuriaga, specializing in soils.

Regents Pay Tribute To 2 Former Profs

Resolutions paying special tribute to two distinguished members of the University of Idaho faculty who died during the last academic year were passed by the Board of Regents, President D. R. Theophilus said yesterday.

The faculty members, who between them, served the institution 76 years, were C. W. Hickman, professor of animal husbandry and animal husbandman, agricultural experiment station, and head of the department of animal husbandry, emeritus, and Carl Claus, associate professor of music.

Resolution
The resolution for Hickman reads "The regents, by this resolution, give formal recognition to the distinguished services and outstanding contributions rendered by the late Cuthbert W. Hickman to the University of Idaho, the State of Idaho, and to the animal industry throughout the entire West. His skill and abilities as a teacher, judge of livestock, and counselor during 42 years of service to the University of Idaho materially influenced breeders and producers of horses, swine, sheep and beef cattle in Idaho and the entire West to institute breeding and management practices that have established these great animal industries as sound progressive businesses."

For Claus: "The regents, by this resolution, give formal recognition to the eminent career of the late Carl Claus, as a musician, teacher and composer. His noted services in the University of Idaho over a period of 34 years contributed immeasurably to the firm establishment of an outstanding department of music and to the pleasure and enjoyment of untold students and audiences."

Idaho Wheat Breed Aids Alien Crops

In their fight against rusts, wheat breeders in this country have gained effective help from varieties coming from the Kenya Colony of South Africa. That help is in the process of being paid back.

This chapter in international cooperation in crop improvement came to light in correspondence between U.S. department of agriculture plant breeders and Dr. Warren K. Pope, wheat breeder in the agronomy department at the University of Idaho of agriculture.

It all started with Russian wheat. In 1947, Dr. Pope crossed a rust-resistant derivative from Russia with a popular spring wheat in Idaho, resistance to these leading Idaho spring varieties.

When Idaho-made crosses showed encouraging resistance in trials at the Aberdeen Branch station, Dr. Pope began sending out small lots through regular exchange channels for testing in areas where rust was known to be a serious problem. Some of his wheats got to the Kenya Colony of Africa.

From Dr. T. C. Thorpe, in charge of wheat breeding for the British government in that section, comes a letter saying the Idaho wheats are showing up well.

Luther Carr And Company Run Wild In Offense-Minded Season Opener

Stahley Praises Offense As Five Future Foes Win

Coach Skip Stahley praised a strong Washington squad, expressed worry over the Vandal defense, and said he was impressed by Vandal offense, Monday.

Stahley described the Washington team as one that could beat anyone on a given day. He said he was impressed by the number of good, fast backs on Coach Darrell Royal's team.

On the Vandal side, Stahley said he felt that the Idaho tackling was very poor, but that the Vandal-offense was the best he has seen in his three years at Moscow.

As Washington was rolling over the Vandals Saturday, things didn't look too promising for Idaho at other scenes. Five of the seven teams composing the remainder of the Vandal schedule won games over the weekend.

Of the future Idaho opponents, only Utah and Washington State fell.

Oregon, the PCC darkhorse who the Vandals will meet in Eugene this weekend, toppled Colorado 25 to 0. The Ducks showed a very good defense in the intersectional opener, and unleashed a pair of impressive backs.

Halfback Jim Shanley and fullback Fred Miklanic ran all over the Buffs as they accounted for three touchdowns between them.

In another intersectional contest, Oregon State, Idaho's Day's Day opponent, let favored Missouri out-fumble them, and then moved over them 19 to 13.

Utah State, who Idaho meets in Boise, moved atop the Skyline Conference standings as they downed Denver 18 to 13.

The other two teams picking up wins both won by fairly wide margins. Arizona State, Idaho's Homecoming guest, ran over Wichita 37 to 9; and Fresno State beat BYU, a team the Vandals completely trompled last year, 26 to 13.

Washington State fell to Stanford 40 to 26. The Indians, favorites for the Rose Bowl, and one of the better teams on the coast easily rolled over the Cougars behind the leadership of quarterback John Brodie.

UCLA was surprised by Utah's "smorgasbord" offense, but the defending PCC champions hung on to defeat Jack Curtice's Redskins 13 to 7 in a game marred by fumbles at Los Angeles Friday night.

Other Sports Scheduled
Cross country is tentatively set for Saturday, October 10, and tennis will likely make its debut on October 8. Deadline for tennis registration is set for October 1, with participation limited to three players from each living group.
Intramural managers picked their 1956-57 officers, yesterday naming Sonny Long as President, Russ Campbell as Vice President, Jim Harris as Treasurer, and Jerry Dyer as Secretary.

Eight Frosh Cage Prospects Report

Seven men from six top Idaho squads and one veteran who has seen action in service ball have already checked in with varsity coach Harlan Hodges for the coming frosh basketball season.

Rollie Williams 6' 5" center and teammate Dave Damiano, 6' 2", of the state champion Kellogg Wildcats are two of the men reporting along with Weldon Wood 6' 4" from the strong Nampa team and Kenneth Goodwin, 6' 1", Kamiah High graduate and returned service veteran.

Other prospects include Jack Bloxom 5' 8", Sandpoint; Roger Watts 6' 1", Parma; Bob Walton 6' 2", Twin Falls; and Kent Woodhouse 5' 10", Oakley.
Coach Harlan Hodges expects more men to fill out the 1956-57 frosh lineup before the season opener in December.

Thorn

Luther (Hit and Run) Carr tore holes in Idaho defenses all afternoon Saturday in Washington's impressive 53-21 victory over the Vandals. Only a sophomore, Carr could be a speedster to watch in future years. He averaged nine yards a sprint in 11 carries.

Annual ASUI Golf Tourney Opens Today

The 1956 University of Idaho Golf Championship for the Francis L. James trophy will get in full swing today as student golfers start qualifying for the match play tourney at the University of Idaho golf course.

Qualifying which starts Friday will last through the weekend. Flights will be made according to ability and prizes will be offered for winners and runner-ups in all flights.

Entrants have one week to complete each match.

Bob Campbell defending champ and frosh coach will not be back to claim the title. Dick Shepard, University golf star, is this year's favorite to win the title vacated by Campbell.

The University of Idaho golf course which is owned by the students will begin the sale of semester tickets as soon as student activity tickets are issued. Semester tickets will be five dollars or students will be allowed on the course for a dollar greens fees. Semester tickets will be sold at the golf course.

Powerful Offense Shows No Effects Of PCC Fines

Special To The Argonaut
SEATTLE — The University of Washington, suffering from scandal and penalty, looked like Rose Bowl contenders Saturday as they raced at will in a fierce ground-air attack to stop Idaho 53-21.

The Huskies had a new coach, a new offense, and had complained that the recent PCC scandal touched off by a heavy fine slapped Washington's way might hurt their football team.

But from the opening huddle snap to the final gun Washington's fleet, hardrunning set of backfields completely dominated play over a respected Idaho eleven.

Washington Coach Darrell Royal, transplanted from Ole Miss, turned out three sets of backfields during the game led by sophomore sensation Luther (Hit and Run) Carr, Tacoma's pride and joy. Carr rambled nine times in playing about half the game and gained 99 yards. Not an Idaho lineman stopped the fleet Negro halfback and Idaho's secondary had a tough time all day with him.

The Washington stables were loaded with backs that whizzed past Idaho's slow charging line, ran with knees high for 448 yards and Al Ferguson, a sleeper, who ran the split T option well, tossed eight passes, completed seven for 185 yards more.

The battle was strictly an offensive one and the Vandals showed the most potent ground-air attack in many seasons. Washington got control of the situation and never let it get out of hand. Washington's eight scores all came on sustained marches and when the Vandals got the ball away from them, Idaho moved down the field for its three scores.

The Huskies could do no wrong and simply had too many horses for a deeper, stronger Idaho team which met its match earlier than had been expected.

IDAHO STANDOUTS — Jerry Kramer, right guard: Kramer played without substitution the first three quarters and as middle lineman on defense proved too tough to move. Washington's backs stayed clear of Kramer.

Larry Aldrich, end: Aldrich was favorite pass target for Vandal passers and didn't miss. His reception on the 12 and drive through four Washington defenders set up first Idaho TD.

WASHINGTON STANDOUTS — (besides the stable of backs which ran Idaho ends ragged) Luther Carr, left half: ran like a wind blown sage rabbit. The shifty, fleetest back Idaho has met comparable to Art Luppino of Arizona. We'll see more of Hit and Run along the coast this year.

Al Ferguson, quarterback: proved a real field general, passed with autistic eye, ran like a gazelle on the split T option play where quar-

IT'S FOR REAL! by Chester Field
"To catch a man," said Violette
"The wisest gals play hard to get!"
To seem remote and quite aloof
She sat six years upon the roof.
"It doesn't seem to work," she said
And so she clobbered them instead.
She shrugged, "I do the best I can Unconscious or not, a man is a man!"
MORAL: Faint pleasure ain't pleasure!
In smoking too, take your pleasure BIG.
Smoke for real . . . smoke Chesterfield.
Packed more smoothly by Accu-Ray it's the smoothest tasting smoke today.

All Over—Except The Knee

Vandal end Larry Aldrich falls to the ground after grabbing a pass from Gary Johnson. Aldrich's knee touched the ground at the one yard line, but Mel Schmidt powered over on the next play for the first Vandal touchdown of the year. A host of Washington players look on.
