

Ron (Spike) Ehlers and Ralph Alley (on ladder) are pictured preparing the Attic Club booth for Saturday night's carnival mixer held in the SUB. Officials estimated over 1,100 students attended.

For the first time in several years, students got a close, inside look at the organizations and committees that compose the ASUI at Saturday's Carnival-Mixer.

Over 1100 attended the affair, where 20 of some 85 campus activities displayed their wares. Paul Baker was chairman for the dance. Some highlights and sidelights: "Study, Buddy," warned a sign on the booth run jointly by Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma.

Executive Board members, Dave Maxey and John Hoch painted "Smirk" on the tables used by the Board to explain the myriad organizations. President Dick Weeks gave no estimate on the number of students who signed cards indicating their interest in student activities.

The "Down Beats," campus band, provided the music for the evening. The Argonaut booth was crowded all evening with males who "smiled at the birdie" with the 12 pretty nominees for Homecoming Queen.

A newly-organized PEM (Physical Education Majors) club was busy recruiting all evening. May I Join Up Blue Key and Mortar Board, junior men's and women's honoraries respectively, got the usual questions, "May I Join Up?" Members Carolyn Sanderson Staley and Dave Cummins were there to explain goals and requirements for the societies.

Perhaps the most elaborate and effective of all displays was the Cosmopolitan club's flag bedecked booth. Acting President Per Windju welcomed potential members. Interchurch Council boasted literature on the various religious groups active at Idaho.

A couple of Arg staffers seem to be enjoying themselves in the company of a couple of homecoming queen candidates at the Argonaut booth at Saturday night's activity carnival mixer. The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

Ten persons have been victims in three separate auto accidents involving Idaho students. This is more or less a plea to save your own neck.

All out campaigns have proved ineffective in pleas to save one's own neck. How to make people realize that the reckless use of four wheels charged by multi-horsepower engines can result in maiming and death is an unanswerable problem.

The box score... 1 fractured leg, 2 fractured pelvis, 1 fractured hand, 1 broken ankle, 2 mild concussions, 1 severed leg tendon, 1 broken arm.

At this rate we have 360 potential accident victims in our midst.

And as anti-climax to fiasco at Arg booth Saturday night... photog Bruce Wendle ran out of film after about two shots and exposed 375 pictures on one negative. The results... negative.

Current Enrollment Tops All Records

With the registering of the 3,674th student today, the University of Idaho sets a new all-time record for fall enrollment.

The previous high mark was established in 1948 when more than 2,000 veterans of World War II descended on the campus. More students are still to come this fall, said Registrar D. D. DuSault.

POST GAME DANCE WILL CAP WSC TILT

A post game dance has been set for the SUB's main ballroom following the WSC-Idaho football game Saturday, Chairman Ray Wilkie said Thursday.

Little Tricksters Have Annual Paint Fete

Self-styled Rembrants sometime Saturday evening did a redecorating job on the Delta Gamma and Alpha Phi houses—in red paint.

An officer of the Sigma Chi fraternity admitted that they were to blame for the paint on the Alpha Phi house, but denied any connection with the Delta Gamma episode.

Both pledge classes met Saturday and spent the day cleaning up the mess.

Junior men interested in Blue Key should turn in applications for membership no later than Wednesday, October 10, Dale Carlisle, President, said today.

At a Friday meeting John Thorndock and Bud Duffy were chosen corresponding secretary and treasurer. Initial work was also started on the Kampus Key a tentative distribution date of November 1 was set.

Council To Name Four For Board

Four students will be selected for the ASUI Election Committee tonight at 7 in Conference Room C of the SUB.

Jack Cole, Chairman of the Student Events Council which will conduct the interview, said a committee will be selected from the students being interviewed.

Wilkie said the dance would feature a campus orchestra that would provide music from 9 to 12 p.m. Students from WSC are invited, he said, and admission will be $1 per couple.

Auto Mishaps Hospitalize Seven University Students

With only one week of school "in" at Idaho, three weekend auto accidents injured 10 and sent seven to hospitals. The accidents all involved one car and happened the past two weekends in the early morning hours.

Hospital is Donald Wilson, 23, Coeur d'Alene, who suffered shock, loss of blood, and facial injuries. Wheaton has a fractured lower left leg, multiple bruises and a blackened left eye; James Chandler, 21, Pocatello, sprained ankle, multiple cuts and bruises; William Anderson, 20, Moscow, fractured pelvis, cut eyelid, and fractured right hand.

All are at Gritman Hospital. Another passenger, Bill Currie, a school yell leader, was treated for minor injuries and released.

The previous weekend a car carrying Ben Hamner of Columbus, Ohio, and John Shutt of West Milton, Pa., freshman in forestry, plunged off the Lewiston Grade on U.S. Highway 95 North of Lewiston.

In the second accident, which occurred about eight miles north of Potlatch junction on Highway 95, a car driven by Jerry Wheaton, 21, Moscow, struck a concrete bridge abutment about 12:30 Sunday morning.

Hattrup of the College of Engineering; Dr. T. A. Cherrington, head of the Department of Bacteriology and Dean J. F. Weltzin of the College of Education.

The Board held its first meeting yesterday.

DELIBERATING

Bob Patrick, ASSCW President Barbara Moir, WSC Evergreen Editor Gene Morehouse, WSC Evergreen Sports Editor We, the challenged, are currently pondering your recent bid for more nation-wide publicity.

Now that we have a new addition to the Student Union we don't want to soil the floor bringing your depleted cow college soil from the boundary of the now wasted Palouse, which is taking tons of fertilizer to rehabilitate.

We are terribly busy with a three-week Homecoming celebration which consists of a warmup scrimmage with the Cougars from Cow College topped off later with a dance featuring Buddy Morrow and his coast-to-coast appearing TV band.

Emphasis has been placed on the humiliation you suffered two years ago when you marched the nine-mile joint. We feel another walk of this nature would be a definite stab at your ego since your caused a great deal of publicity which was detrimental to your Cow College.

Dr. Alley Requests Students Examine Infirmary Rules

Hours for visiting patients at the University Infirmary are being violated already this year according to Dr. Ralph Alley.

In outlining the situation Dr. Alley said, "Students drop in anytime that is convenient for them and see their friends. When they cannot go in, some become angry at the nurses and staff."

"Numerous parents have complained that students are not receiving proper rest because visiting hours are not maintained."

"Some students have been bringing beverages to their friends," Dr. Alley continued, "and the empty cans and bottles are left scattered around the area. This is not a cure for sickness," the Doctor stated.

"The average stay for patients last year was two and one-fifth days. For this short duration there's no need for a whole fraternity or sorority to pay their members a call," he continued.

"We don't want students to think we are angry. However, we would like their cooperation in keeping their visits in accordance with the hours named."

Blood Drive Spots Open

Sub-chairmen for five Blood Drive committees and a secretary will be selected tonight at interviews before the Student Activities committee, Marie Van Orman, Drive co-chairman announced today.

Miss Van Orman said the group would begin interviewing at 7 p.m. in conference room D for chairmen of personnel, publicity, facilities, military and entertainment committees and for a secretary to handle correspondence.

She asked that all interviewees have a definite committee in mind when they apply and suggested that they have ideas for improving the effectiveness of the campaign.

Dates for the drive are October 30 and 31. A quota of 600 pints of blood is the aim this year with living groups to supply a proportionate number of donors instead of the previous "one hundred per cent" goal used in earlier years.

SINGIN' IN MOONLIGHT TONIGHT AT ARBORETUM Moonlight is the setting for an annual all-campus Moonlight Sing, scheduled for tonight from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Arboretum camp council firepit.

Queen Race Narrows For Homecoming Reign

The male set at Idaho yesterday narrowed the field to five finalists in the race for 1956 Homecoming Queen after having a chance to meet the 12 candidates at Saturday night's all-campus Activities Carnival mixer.

The five finalists chosen in a campus-wide vote in men's living groups are Debbie Gentry, Ethel Steele, senior; Marilyn Matthews, Pi Phi, junior; Patti Rees, Alpha Phi, junior; Barbara Simons, Alpha Chi, senior, and Karen Warner, Theta, junior.

Twelve nominees were named last Tuesday by the women's living groups. The Queen voting will be held next Monday with the announcement in Tuesday's Argonaut.

She will reign over the entire celebration from the time of her announcement until the Buddy Morrow dance Oct. 19. Coronation ceremonies are slated for halftime at the Idaho-Arizona State game.

Pietsch is a well known publisher in northern Idaho and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Idaho Press Association. He served as president of the association in 1954.

He said faculty and staff personnel connected with the journalism department and the University publication services could also attend.

The "new look" Idaho pep band will make their first appearance of the year Friday night at the football rally. The 27 piece band will be under the direction of Bob Whipple, replacing Neal Powell, regular student director, who will be out of town.

Powell expressed great hopes for the coming year after holding the group's first rehearsal last Thursday.

"We are a going organization now," said Powell, "and we intend to keep it that way." 10 Picked From 17 Seventeen musicians attended tryouts for the band two weeks ago of whom 10 were picked to be added to the 17 members returning from last year.

The pep band, long a sore spot at the university was reorganized by Powell last winter under the ASUI. Previously it had been under the direction of the music department and participation was open only to music students.

Membership is now open to all students. The band will be outfitted this year in new grey, gold and white sweaters supplied by the ASUI. Last year's members have already received their sweaters while new-

Freshmen Find Out

Three freshmen women receive information about Spurs, Sophomore Womens Service Honorary, at the All-campus mixer carnival held Saturday night.

Camp-Eyeing

By Jim Golden

"Mixing," while certainly not an Idaho invention, seems to have a particular connotation here.

An obscure rule of social etiquette says thusly, "At a mixer, you shall mix."

Nowhere it seems is this ratio as evident as at a so-called mixer. And Idaho had a mixer Saturday evening.

Spurs seem bent on watching out for the welfare of all freshmen. Proclaimed a sign on their booth Saturday, "What Every Freshman Woman Should Know."

What to Know? Spurs seem bent on watching out for the welfare of all freshmen.

CHALLENGE

Dick Weeks, President of the student body, John B. Hughes, Editor of the Argonaut, Dean Judd, Sports Editor of the Argonaut.

We of the widely renowned campus of the Cougars soundly believing that because of past experience on the well-worn trail between our two ivy-studded institutions, you, the people who refer to yourselves as Vandals, should be in sufficient condition to attempt the trek against this year.

If this be true, and naturally expecting that your school can field eleven men without suiting up the basketball team, then hear our challenge: To wit, the loser of the highly-anticipated contest between the widely renowned Cougars and those sometimes referred to as Vandals, descend to travel the prescribed nine miles humbly and without a grudge.

We would consider it most generous of you to supply the location, football, and scoreboard to keep count of our expected large score. We will supply the necessary thrills, touchdowns, and steamroller offense to keep the crowds from falling asleep because of the lopsided score.

Without, mind you, committing ourselves as to professed who will achieve the highest score in the game, we wish all to know that refreshments and kind words will await the bedraggled travelers from the East.

Until then, we shall figuratively regard your as (chuckle) athletic equals.

Two morons each had a horse, but they couldn't decide which belonged to whom. So they cut the mane off one to differentiate, it soon grew back. Next they cut the tail off one, but that also grew back. Finally they measured them and found that the black one was four inches taller than the white one.

You Can Win a Cash Award—and Scholarship Money for Your College in

Reader's Digest $41,000 CONTEST

Open to All College Students (Faculty, too!)

Nothing to buy...nothing to write...and you may find you know more about people than you think!

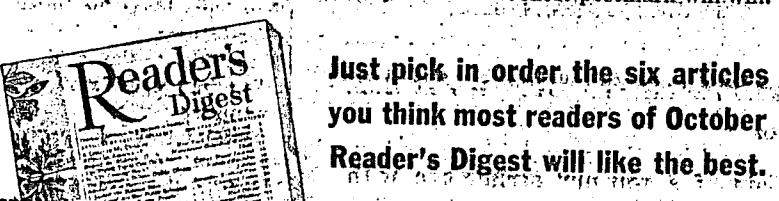

How well do you know human nature? Can you tell what subjects interest people most? Here is a chance to test your judgment—show how good an editor you are—and you may win $5,000 for yourself, plus $5,000 in scholarship funds for your college.

It's fun to try. Maybe you can top other students in colleges across the country...and you can match wits with the editors of Reader's Digest.

Why do far more college graduates read Reader's Digest than any other magazine? What is it that makes the Digest the most widely read magazine in the world—with 11 million copies bought each month in the United States, plus 9 million abroad? Why is it read each month by at least 60 million people, in 12 languages—Arabic, Danish, English, Finnish, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish? Can you spot in a typical issue of Reader's Digest the universal human values that link scholars, statesmen, scientists, writers, businessmen, housewives? Can you pick out the articles that will be most popular with the average Digest reader?

You may find...you know more about people than you think!

Here's all you do. Study the descriptions (at right) of the articles in the October Reader's Digest—or, better still, read the complete articles in the issue itself. (But you are not required to buy The Reader's Digest to enter the contest.) Then simply list the six articles—in order of preference—that you think readers of the magazine will like best. This will be compared with a nationwide survey conducted among a cross section of Digest subscribers. Follow the directions given below. Fill in the entry blank, paste it on a post card, and get it into the mail before the deadline. Additional blanks are obtainable at your college bookstore. All entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, October 25, 1956. Don't delay. In case of ties, the entry with the earliest postmark will win.

Form for contest entry with fields for Name, Address, City, State, and College Name.

Exchanges, freshman football games, elections of house officers, and formal pledging took the limelight in living groups this week.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA
New house officers are: Jan Daigh, first vice president; Claudette Kerns, second vice president; Kay Reed, corresponding secretary; Beth Jaggard, recording secretary; Cherie Bacon, assistant house manager; and Gail Stollman, historian. Pieces Of Mirror Needed

All women on campus can help the Homecoming decorations committee for the October 13 dance. Doris Wayland, committee member reported today. Small pieces of mirrors are needed to create the "Moonglow" effect planned for the decorations.

Any coed who has a mirror she is willing to contribute to the cause is requested to contact Miss Wayland at the Tri-Delt house before Friday afternoon. For those who have broken mirrors lately, this may provide a chance to banish the expected seven years of bad luck.

INJURIES PLAY KEY ROLE IN IDAHO LOSS

SPORGAS/BORD

by Dean H. Judd

A surprisingly strong Idaho team that moved into Eugene Saturday and almost upset one of the stronger teams on the coast, deserves a lot of praise, this corner believes.

The Vandals, whose defense was almost useless against Washington one week before, apparently capitalized on the rugged defensive drills Coach Skip Stahley put them through before the Oregon game.

At any rate, the Vandals were a greatly improved team.

Injuries Hurt

From here it appears that the Vandals might have possibly have had the game if they hadn't been hit with such serious injuries. With Wayne Walker and Bill Skinner both injured during the first half, Stahley was limited to one center for the entire second half. Dan Davis, who had been kept out of the opener against Washington because of a leg injury, had to hold down the middle of the line spot after the two left the game.

The loss of the two big centers really hurt the Idaho squad more than shows on the surface. Not only did the Vandals lose two good offensive centers, but also two important linebackers on defense. If Idaho would have been able to have more depth at the position they probably could have been more effective in stopping the quarterback option play that the Duck's Jack Crabtree executed so well during the second half.

Another Vandal injured in the Eugene contest showed a good bit of fight in Saturday's game. Halfback Ron Braden started the contest with a shoulder injury he had received in practice two days before.

Early in the second period he had to be taken from the field after making a tackle, but this didn't keep the scrappy halfback out of the game. He went right back into the contest, but again the Ducks got him and this time it was final. Braden was out with a slight concussion.

.667 Percentage

We are fairly happy to report we had a .667 percentage on our Friday's choices. Only Oregon State, Washington, and Utah State failed to pick up wins in the nine games picked.

Four of Idaho's future opponents were winning, while three others lost over the weekend.

Washington State College unleashed a surprise passing attack as they roared past San Jose State 33 to 13. WSC, the Vandals opponents next weekend in the Battle of the Palouse, pose as a real threat to the injury riddled Idaho squad. We will make a prediction on this one Friday.

Other teams on the Vandal schedule picking up wins were Arizona State, Utah, and Fresno State. The Sun Devils moved over North Texas State by a score of 27 to 7, and Fresno State had no trouble with Wilamette, winning 21 to 7. Utah, favorites for the Skyline crown and Vandal opponents on October 27, took Montana, who Idaho meets on Thanksgiving, 26 to 6.

The other two teams both upset our predictions by losing. Oregon State was edged out by USC and Utah State was taken by a surprising New Mexico team 27 to 19. —DHJ

Injuries Hurt Idaho Chances Against WSC

Four key injuries sustained in the Oregon game Saturday by the Vandal football team have hurt the Idaho squad as they resumed practice today in preparation for the battle of the Palouse.

Two centers, Wayne Walker and Bill Skinner both received leg injuries; Jim Prestel, sophomore tackle, suffered a separated shoulder; and halfback Ron Braden received a slight concussion.

The center situation appeared most critical as Walker was first string center and Skinner second string. Walker will be lost to the team until the Utah game late this month, and Skinner will be out for the season.

To strengthen the position Skip Stahley plans to move tackle John Roussos into the spot to help junior, Dan Davis.

Prestel and Captain Dick Foster, who was injured in the Washington game, may both be able to start against Washington State at the weak tackle spot.

Braden may also be able to see

Team Show Big Improvement

A tight Idaho defense, and two offensive breaks weren't enough Saturday, as Oregon staged a second half comeback Saturday to down the Vandals 21 to 14.

Idaho dropped their second straight Pacific Coast Conference game but pressed favored Oregon until the final gun.

The Vandals, who lost four key players through injuries in the games, were a different looking team than the squad that met Washington the Saturday before.

Two ends, Monte Bedford and Walt Denny played important parts in the game, as Denny scored the first Vandal touchdown and Bedford recovered a fumble that set up the second.

No Score

The Ducks and Idaho fought to a first quarter standstill, as the Vandals stopped two Oregon drives deep in their own territory.

Early in the second quarter Howie Willis moved the Vandals from deep in its own territory with a 74 yard punt. Oregon moved the ball back to midfield and lost it on downs. Idaho then took over and rolled to the Oregon twenty on a good mixture of passing and running plays, before their first real threat of the afternoon was ruined when Willis fumbled and Oregon recovered.

Oregon moved back to the Idaho 36, where Walt Denny broke the Duck line, grabbed an Oregon pass from Tom Crabtree and raced past Duck defenders to the goal-line. The half ended with the Vandals leading 7 to 0.

Jumped Back

Oregon jumped back with two quick third period touchdowns, as they moved 90 yards in 12 plays. Jim Shanley climaxed the drive by moving through the middle for 18 yards and the score.

The second Duck score came as a result of an interception of an Idaho pass. Reserve Quarterback Jack Crabtree ran the team as they moved 47 yards in seven plays and then went over from the four.

Bedford set up the second Vandal score when he knocked down and recovered a pitchout on the Oregon seven after the Vandals had moved deep into Oregon territory and then lost the ball.

Bill Baxter carried to the four, Willis went up the middle and got to the two yard line, and Baxter took the ball over moving across right tackle. Kramer converted to tie the score.

The Ducks wasted no time as they came roaring back against the injury weakened Vandal defense. With less than five minutes remaining in the game, Jack Crabtree and Shanley moved the ball to the Vandal goaline. Crabtree

Extension Given Tourney Entries

Dick Snyder, University golf pro, reports that qualifying rounds for the ASUI golf tournament have been extended through next Sunday. Qualifying rounds, scheduled for completion last Sunday, were delayed due to rainy weather. Scores made last week ranged from 72 to 102.

Campus golfers are encouraged to enter the tournament. Entries will be placed in divisions with players of similar golfing ability, and will play only in this division. Snyder told the Argonaut that the turnout of golfers scoring in the 100's and 90's has been poor and he would like more response from duffers in this category.

Anyone interested in participating need only present himself and a $2 entry fee at the course sometime this week. All entry fees will be used to buy prizes for the various division winners.

Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta and Tau Kappa Epsilon were deadlocked for the number one spot among fraternities in 1956 intramural football after the first two games had gone into the record books.

The Kappa Sigs rolled up the highest combined score in their two encounters, crushing Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 26-0, and dropping Beta Theta Pi, 18-2. The Deltas were not far behind, breezing to a 39-0 win over Delta Sigma Phi, and taking a 1-0 forfeit over Phi Kappa Tau.

The Phi Deltas decided Sigma Chi 18-2 and edged Alpha Tau Omega by one penetration to none after tying at 0-0. The TKE's bumped the SAE's 10-0, and the Phijs, 12-6.

Lindley Hall-1 and 2, Willis Sweet Hall-2, Pine Hall-1, and Upham Hall-2 lead the rest of the independent field, all with two victories and no defeats.

Lindley-1 copped a 6-0 decision from Chrisman Hall-1 and a forfeit over Idaho Club-1. Lindley-2 ripped Idaho Club-2, 13-0 and took the measure of Chrisman Hall-2 on a forfeit.

Willis Sweet-2 joined the top-ranked without testing their scoring punch. Campus Club-2 and Chrisman Hall-2 handed them forfeits. Pine Hall-1 took forfeits from Campus Club-1 and Upham Hall-1.
