Second Second-Wind Boosts Courageous Vandals Over Fresno

FRESNO, Calif.—(Saturday)—Idaho beat Fresno State tonight 24-12.

... and here's how the Vandals shined individually:

JERRY KRAMER—220-pound right guard. He made Idaho's end runs go with crushing blocks and speedy interference. Booted field goal early and played standout middle guard slot on defense. Played most of game.

MEL SCHMIDT—200-pound fullback. Shifted from halfback last week, broke Fresno's back on off-tackle power carries which kept the Idaho running game moving. Plowed his way to several first downs and if had more speed would have been away for scores.

WAYNE WALKER—210-pound center made smashing tackles time and again and in on nearly every tackle. First time his ankle well enough since the Oregon injury for full time use. Pass blocking tops and broke through many times on defense to stop Fresno drives. Fourth quarter pass interception by Walker turned the tide.

CHUCK FRIES—200-pound left guard. Was spearhead of Vandal defense playing his linebackers position and on one Fresno drive was credited for at least five straight tackles. Teamed with Kramer at guards on pass blocking and downfield interference. Tough when it counted although taking a beating in the center of the line. He and Tony Anderson, left tackle, led way for Schmidt and Kenny Hall in power plays to the left side.

GARY JOHNSON and HOWARD WILLIS—171 and 183-pound quarterbacks engineered Idaho offense. Johnson hit his passing targets the first half and ran well himself until injured at start of second half. Willis carried close for two scores and hit favorite target Larry Aldrich for long key gains. Willis punted 51, 48 and 41 yards to put Fresno in dangerous territory, a 46-yard average.

LARRY ALDRICH—192-pound left end played his usual superb game at offensive end taking Willis passes for 19 yards and a 43-yard pass and run play in Idaho's late drives to set up the score which makes the difference.

LARRY NORBY—190-pound right halfback brilliantly ran the 29-yard pitout scoring play and weaved his way for the first Idaho TD. Had good interference all night but boomed his way for short and long yardage carrying seven times for an eight-yard-per-carry average. Ran his best ball game for Idaho.

KENNY HALL—185-pound fullback bulldozer who carried with Schmidt on the interior line power rushes. Booted kickoffs into the end zone and added an extra point. Tough up front offensively and defensively.

DICK FOSTER—210-pound right tackle back in action after suffering a thigh injury which took weeks to heal, played his steady game at tackle and provided the inspiration as team captain that the Vandals displayed the entire game even when the Fresno team moved during the dark first half.

JIM PRESTEL—255-pound left tackle just wouldn't be moved out of position and as a sophomore seems to have found himself in the line. Stopped plays on both sides of the line.

The Vandal blocking was the best it has been all season and even though Fresno came up with a defense which stopped Idaho's passing game the first half, the Vandal backs and interior line made the Idaho running game move for the first time this season. The Fresno and Idaho lines were evenly matched before game time, but it was a determined Vandal line that made the big difference in the second half comeback. Coach Skip Stahley for the second straight week (Idaho came from behind to stop Utah 27-21 a week ago) called it a "courageous victory."

Smith Satires Politics Friday From Neutral Look

A non-partisan look at politics will provide a fresh slant on a current topic when T. V. Smith appears in the second public events assembly of the year at 11 a.m. Friday, in the Memorial gymnasium.

His talk titled "A Philosopher Looks at Politics" will offer a change of pace from the heated debates heard by office-seeking candidates.

Smith has a practical background for his topic. He is not only a professor of poetry, politics and philosophy at Syracuse University, but has served Illinois as state senator and has been a Congressman-at-Large from Illinois.

Credited with wielding great influence in the fields of culture and moral uplift through books, press, platform, radio, television, politics and the military, Smith has authored over 20 books on the subjects.

2119 Ballots Polled, Old Record Tumbles

By DON NEVILE-SMITH
Managing Editor

Idaho students turned out in record numbers yesterday to elect 12 Independent, two Greek and two Student Government Party candidates to class offices, as 2119 students voted in the heaviest campus poll ever recorded. The previous record was 2057 set last spring in the ASUI election.

The class election created much more interest this year than in past years as evidenced by the total vote, despite the fact that two of the three campus parties did not run their candidates on a definite platform.

United and Student Government parties, running predominantly Greek tickets, vied for fraternity and sorority votes while Independents had apparently voted "down the line" for their party candidates.

Those placed in office were:

Senior Class
President, Larry Wing, I; Vice President, Mel Schmidt, U; Secretary, Sally Ghiglieri, U; Treasurer, Shirley Danielson, SG.

Junior Class
President, Lowell Martin, I; Vice President, Bruce Wright, I; Secretary, Martha Sue Dempsey, I; Treasurer, Sonja Hoisath, I.

Sophomore Class
President, Jimmy Kay, SG; Vice President, Chris Mackert, I; Secretary, Elaine Heiber, I; Treasurer, LaRae Sasser, I.

Freshman Class
President, Rich Thomas, I; Vice President, Larry Hobson, I; Secretary, Barbara Harbison, I; Treasurer, Kay Shipley, I.

Voting took place in three locations: the Ad Building on the main floor, in the Engineering Building and in the Student Union Building. The polls opened at 8:45 a.m., and closed at 4:15 yesterday afternoon.

The Election Board, under the leadership of chairman Jim Hargis, began computing the totals almost immediately after the polls closed with results being announced about 8:30 p.m.

Neither the United nor the Independent Parties ran on a definite platform, both stating that it was their policy to keep the noon hour visits to living groups as short as possible.

Student Government candidates ran on a three-point platform which outlined proposed duties for elected class officers.

Independents also swept last year's class elections, but not with as great a margin. Nine Independents, four Uniteds and three Student Government candidates made up the class officers slate last fall.

Three Recounts
The closest race in yesterday's election was in the race for junior class treasurer where Sonja Hoisath, Independent, edged Pat Rojan, Student Government, 161 to 160. Three recounts were taken before a final result was announced.

Three recounts were also required in the battle for sophomore vice-president before Chris Mackert, Independent, emerged the victor 208 to 205 over her Student Government Party opponent, Eddie Kale.

Another close contest was in the race for senior class treasurer with Shirley Danielson, Student Government Party, edging Peggy Bring, Independent, by seven votes, 134 to 127.

Greatest Margin
Fresh vice-president Larry Hobson, Independent, was elected by the greatest margin, 154 votes over his nearest competitor, Dick Boyce, United Party. Hobson also polled the highest number of votes of all the candidates, 351.

Kay Shipley, freshman class, polled the second highest vote total, 347, in defeating her closest opponent, United Party's Margaret Remsburg, 347 to 230.

Lowell Martin, newly elected junior class president was also given his second class office. He was sophomore class vice-president last year.

The vote was as follows:

Senior Class
President: Larry Wing, I, 127; Dale Carlisle, U, 115; Bill Friede, SG, 105. Vice President: Mel Schmidt, U, 172; Ralph Lower, I, 147. Secretary: Sally Ghiglieri, U, 153; Pat Harrington, SG, 101; Jean Dille, I, 93. Treasurer: Shirley Danielson, SG, 134; Peggy Brink, I, 127; Betty Potter, U, 85.

Junior Class
President: Lowell Martin, I, 180; Knute Westergren, U, 146; Clark Anderson, SG, 128. Vice President: Bruce Wright, I, 208; Dick Shern, U, 165; Charlie Sauls, SG, 84. Secretary: Martha Sue Dempsey, I, 208; Jane Bonham, U, 155; Marilyn Stewart, SG, 92. Treasurer: Sonja Hoisath, I, 161; Pat Rojan, SG, 160; Sharrol Bartlett, U, 133.

Sophomore Class

Freshman Class
President: Rich Thomas, I, 297; Tim Daley, U, 244; Bill Moore, SG, 190. Vice President: Larry Hobson, I, 351; Dick Boyce, U, 197; Lee Scott, SG, 185. Secretary: Barbara Harbison, I, 303; Carol Barlow, SG, 222; Susie Snow, U, 204. Treasurer: Kay Shipley, I, 347; Margaret Remsburg, U, 230; Janice McDevitt, SG, 131.

Apprehensive Nation Sees Security In Eisenhower; Church Upsets Favorite

By Jim Golden

The Eisenhower bandwagon free wheeled to a decisive victory late Tuesday evening, but the GOP appeared to have lost its bid to recover Congress from the Democrats.

The nation, facing a period of political and international strife, swept behind the Dwight Eisenhower-Richard Nixon ticket to give the GOP 457 electoral votes by 7:30 a.m. (PST). The latest popular vote went Eisenhower 28,558,305, Adlai Stevenson 20,733,414.

On the Idaho scene Boise attorney Frank Church unseated incumbent Herman Welker, seeking his second term, and incumbents Gracie Pfof and Hamer Budge were elected to Congress seats.

In the senate, the Democrats seemed assured of control again, 46 to 50, but several seats were still being hotly contested. In the House, the Democrats were ahead, 330 seats to the Republican's 201. However, a number of congressional races were neck-and-neck battles lasting into late this morning.

'Grateful Thanks'—Like Eisenhower told a cheering Republican rally in Washington that he wished to express "My most grateful thanks to all the American people."

In his statement, the President said he wanted America to have this pledge: "With whatever talent the Good God has given me, I will continue to work for 168,000,000 Americans at home and for peace in the world."

Presidential opponent Adlai Stevenson, who trailed from the start, conceded defeat at 10:20 (PST) at his Chicago headquarters. The former governor of Illinois, who Tuesday made his second bid for the presidency, looked tired as he read his statement to a nation-wide television audience.

'Take Heart'—Stevenson said he was disappointed in the election, but added, "We must not be downhearted, for there is radiance and glory in the darkness, could we but see, and to see, we have only to look . . . Take heart—there are things more precious than political victory." He called the election "a vigorous partisan contest that has affirmed again the vitality of the democratic process."

In a telegram to President Eisenhower, Stevenson said: "You have won not only the election but also an expression of great confidence of the American people. 'I send you my congratulations. Tonight, we are not Republicans and Democrats, but Americans.'"

"We appreciate the grave difficulties your administration faces, and, as Americans, join in wishing you all the success in the years that lie ahead." Church defeated Welker in the Gem State's only senatorial race. Church got 99,191 votes, Welker 69,863 votes with over two-thirds of Idaho's 893 precincts reporting. Democrat Congresswoman Gracie Pfof decisively defeated her Republican challenger, Louise Shaddock. Mrs. Pfof had 40,000 votes, Miss Shaddock, 33,436.

Glen Taylor, who contested the Democratic senatorial nomination and late in the campaign came out as a write-in candidate, had polled 7,918 votes as of 1 a.m.

In the second district, Republican Hamer Budge beat Democrat John Reynolds. Budge accumulated 60,208 votes; Reynolds got 40,203.

Ike Victorious; Pogo Backers Stage Riot
President Dwight Eisenhower won a sweeping victory in a straw ballot conducted yesterday on this campus, but the entire vote count process broke up into mass confusion when Fifth Column supporters for Pogo stormed the Student Union.

Led by J. Mugs Tubby, Pogo's manager, and other supporters from sweat sox heaven, Fifth Columnists demanded a recount. A column revealed Pogo moving from last to second in straw voting with 411 votes, edging Ike's main competitor, Adlai Stevenson by just one vote.

Recount Called
President Eisenhower received 1349 votes of confidence. In the first count Stevenson had 410 and Pogo, late entry in the presidential race, had 398. Tubby heard of the results and called for a recount.

Election officials, acting quickly, declared the second and third places in the balloting unofficial and said it would stand that way. Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalism fraternity, staged the ballot in conjunction with class elections at the school.

One Democrat and two Republicans won Idaho seats in the U. S. Congress with substantial victories.

Welker Vs. Church
Frank Church defeated incumbent Senator Herman Welker, 1027 votes to 799. Glen Taylor received 15 write-in votes. Louise Shaddock received some 221 votes more than Democrat Congresswoman Gracie Pfof for the Idaho first district House of Representative seat. Mrs. Shaddock had 864 votes to Mrs. Pfof's 643.

Student-Faculty Group Eases Grade Decision

By JIM GOLDEN

The Student-Faculty Friday softened its three-week-old decision ending inter-living group scholarship competition and left the way clear for student sponsorship of such competition.

The committee, by a 10-1 affirmation, passed a motion to let the previous action of the committee stand, but make information available to each living group so that groups such as the IFC and Pan-Hellenic could foster competition between member Houses if they wished. Pat Daly, member of the Student-Faculty committee and president of the IFC immediately said that his group already had such a plan in the works.

'Finally Got My Knight'-Ondine

By Jim Flanigan

Ondine found and lost her knight in shining armor in the Idaho production of "Ondine," a light fantasy that took place last Friday and Saturday evenings on the University auditorium stage. Approximately a thousand people attended the show each night. Comedy, variable settings, and colorful costumes were the main elements in the three act farce.

Decker cited visits from several student delegations and opposition from student publications as examples of pressure. He said some students thought the group acted too quickly in making their decision.

Ondine was played by Diane Kail while her knight, Hans, was performed by Austine Bergin. The conjurer's role was taken by Laird Montgomery, who actually took the form of three characters in the play. His magical abilities caused the play to move along faster, because he could cause scenes of the future to take place whenever he desired.

Decker called visits from several student delegations and opposition from student publications as examples of pressure. He said some students thought the group acted too quickly in making their decision.

Mary Ellen Bennet was the knight's lady-love at court until their affair was shattered by the hero's finding the sea nymph, Ondine. In the play he marries Ondine and finally dies because he deceives her. At the same time Ondine loses her memory of the action that has taken place between her and the knight. Her love was too perfect.

Supporting Cast
Supporting cast was James Heer, Rose-Marie Perrin, Kay LaBarge, Dorothy Bauer, Lana Huschke, Todd Oleson, Clifford Cook, Dwight Patton, Donald Harris, Jean Walker, Deborah Gentry, Nathan York, Christine Mackert, Stillman Wood, Charles Tovey, Delbert Bowman, William Currie, Gordon Taylor, and Rita Larson.

The show was directed by Jean Collette, who drilled the cast for a month prior to performance. Assistants to the director were Lucille Palmer and John Warnke. Edmund Chavez was technical director. Sets were realistic with the benefit of the lighting and the sound effects to add the realism.

Decker called visits from several student delegations and opposition from student publications as examples of pressure. He said some students thought the group acted too quickly in making their decision.

ASUI Report
During discussion of their earlier decision, committee members heard ASUI President Dick Week's report on an earlier house presidents' meeting which showed by 15 living groups wanted to re-establish competition, 10 were opposed and seven were indifferent. Weeks said the Executive Board had considered the move and had voted to back the Student-Faculty committee. "The vote in the house president's meeting was not decisive to call for a change," Weeks said.

When Pati Rees, Alpha Phi beauty and '56 Homecoming Queen, agreed to a date with the ten thousandth male blood-giver last week she had her misgivings. Like any other campus fem she did not especially like blind dates and even less one which depended on chance. However she did agree.

So Tuesday morning, number 10,000 gave his blood. One K. Ray Barlow, graduate student, got the magic number and the date. Pati's date was handsome and very desirable except for one little hitch—he is married. Everything was solved equitably though. Yesterday Pati and a date of her choice were the Barlow's dinner guests.

End Blood Drive
 A couple of notes to bring an end to the much written about Blood Drive:

First, to the Tri-Deltas, congratulations on being the only sorority to attain 100 per cent donations. This was incorrectly reported as 90 per cent in the last Arg. The house gave 29 pints, when they needed only 28 for their quota. To the seven men's groups who did as well, it's an enviable record and another indication of honest effort on your part.

Also, this writer did not "pass out" while bleeding. He just got sick enough to wish he had.

They've Got a Job
 Today, the people of the United States have elected a President and the campus has chosen class officers. While the President has a gigantic job of steering a nation through a hellish mess of entanglements for the next four years, class officers have a lesser, but still locally important task. It is Campaigning's sincere hope that each is equal to it.

New Threat Seen For Pogo

By T. Muggs Tubby
 This one-time scene of pugilistic glory was enlivened yesterday by a demonstration of an extrasensory perception that may advance the cause of the Kangaroo by a good many generations.

Faced with the problem of picking the winner of the American Elections contest, Cunniff Clavis, female Kangaroo prognosticator, demonstrated in the presence of Pogo Possum, ASUI candidate for the frosh presidency, that the next president of the United States will have either nine or ten letters in his surname, that many of these letters will be "E's", that "N" will play an important part in the name construction and that "S" will have a good deal of bearing on the pronunciation.

These facts came to light as Cunniff Clavis brewed two quart in her pouch into which was then dumped a half pound of Chinese Rice Fortune Cakes. These were allowed to seep for upwards of fifteen minutes. At the end of that period Cunniff Clavis, blindfolded, ears stopped with cotton wool, locked in a huge wooden box from which there was absolutely no escape, pulled from her pouch one of the fortune papers and handed the message to an attendant to the tune of muffled drum rolls by the Ground Pounders Artillery Bugle and Fire Society.

There was some confusion when Plummet Proudly, the attendant, ate the message. His remark that it was very good indeed, in response to a question, clearly showed that the experiment would have to be repeated. This was done and once again the Ground Pounders sounded a majestic flourish as the message appeared in the dripping hand of Cunniff.

Message Given Judge
 This time the Chief Judge, a platypus solicitor, opened the paper and read the history-making information. "It is apparent," said the Chief Judge, "that if I read out exactly what the message bears I may not only influence the election in the U.S. and thus destroy the chances of all, including our marsupial friend, Mr.

Pogo, but I may indeed cause the bottom to drop out of the shorts odds market in which I myself am a heavy holder. Therefore I will just hint at the message here."

At this a noisy groups of Dingoes, obviously on hand to merely cause trouble, set up a yipping and wildwest at the rear of the hall and eventually had to be forced out of their seats with a firehose. Once order was restored, it was discovered that the message had disappeared. Cunniff Clavis was in no mood to repeat the experiment and so over a few cups of gloomy tea the meeting had to be adjourned.

A number of marsupial supporters were for having a test case made of the incident, charging that the Chief Judge, a monotreme when all is said and done, was trying to hide the true information which undoubtedly indicated the winner to be Pogo Possum, a marsupial.

"This is not true," angrily declared the Platypus. "The paper was here in my hand at the moment that the Dingoes set up their howl and now it is gone . . . It is as simple as that."

Pressed by members of the press for some indication of the contents of the note, the Chief Judge said, "All I can recall is that 'N', 'E' and 'S', together with a number of other interesting letters, were quite apparent though a little washed out. There was sugar and a bit of cigar stub on part . . . also some tooth marks . . . but generally the message was clear."

Observers here feel that this latest information, extrasensory and incomplete as it is, certainly establishes a trend. The Kangaroo groups are happily organizing a gala party as a celebration of their sudden emergence as an influential political factor. "Kangaroo the wide world over now feel that their rights, so long overlooked, are at last coming into their own," said one prominent marsupial spokesman.

Monotremes, Greeks and Fifth Columnists, are quiet on the subject, although one source close to the Chief Judge, when asked if the Kangaroo conclusion was valid, gave a tight little smile and said, "No, (haha) comment." Experts attached some significance to this last remark.

Car pulling up alongside a stranded couple—"What's the matter," asked a voice, "out of gas?" "Nope," was the answer. "Engine trouble?" "Nope." "Tire down?" "Not yet."

Finals, Finals everywhere, With drops and drops of ink. And not a prof who'll leave the room. And allow a guy to think.

Males Start Early Beard Cultivating

Lack of an official starting date to signal the beginning of a campus-wide beard growing contest at the University in honor of Dad's day, Saturday, November 17, has apparently been taken to advantage by some trophy-hungry students. The dense foliage sported on the chins of many students indicates that some may possibly have been cultivating their beards since last year's event.

Van Dykes, Smith Brothers, Monte Wooley and just plain stubble types are being grown in an effort to win the prize.

The healthiest, longest and noveliest beards will win awards for their owners. In order to qualify for the contest, students' whiskers must be at least a quarter-of-an inch long.

Leaders in the race for the best beards will be honored during half-time activities of the Idaho-Oregon State football game at Neale stadium, November 17, at Moscow.

To make sure the fathers will be impressed with their sons' ability to grow beards, special invitations are being mailed to parents to attend the event.

All living groups on the campus will roll out the carpet for Dad. Special decorations in his honor will be erected at each of the houses. Trophies will be awarded to the best decorated houses.

Open house on the campus will follow the game. A dance in honor of Dad's Day will be held in the Student Union building Saturday night.

OSC Beavers Spill Huskies To Retain Rose Bowl Hopes

Oregon State, Idaho Dad's Day opponent, loomed on the Rose Bowl horizon after weekend action, while two other future teams on the Vandal schedule fell to defeat.

The hungry Beavers dumped the Washington Huskies 28-20, Saturday, and need only to get by the tough Stanford Indians this weekend to reign as Pacific Coast Conference Champions for the first time since 1942.

Earnel Durden, brilliant OSC sophomore halfback, raced for two touchdowns, and scored a third on a pass play. Durden, tailbacks Paul Lowe and Joe Francis, and fullback Tom Berry shine in the Beaver's single wing attack. Stanford will counter with a passing game built around quarterback John Brodie.

Utah State, Vandal opponent this Saturday, lost to highly ranked Wyoming, 21-0, in a contest billed to decide the Skyline Conference crown. The Cowboys completely bottled up sensation Aggie back, Jack Hill, the nation's leading scorer much of the season, to crimp the Utah offense. Wyoming's all-American candidate Jim Crawford ran wild for 132 yards in 15 carries to lead the Cowboys.

Montana dropped a free-scoring battle with state rival Montana State by a 33-14 count.

LANGUAGE MADE SIMPLE: No. 1

In this day of swift international communications, like radio, television, and the raft, it becomes increasingly important for all of us to have a solid grounding in foreign languages. Accordingly, I have asked the makers of Philip Morris whether I might not occasionally forego levity in this column and instead use it for a short lesson in language.

"Of course, silly!" chuckled the makers, tousling my yellow hair. Oh, grand men they are, the makers of Philip Morris, just as full of natural goodness as the cigarettes they make. "Of course, fond boy, you may occasionally forego levity in this column and instead use it for a short lesson in language!" said the makers and tossed me up and down in a blanket until, rosy with laughing, I bade them desist, and then we all had basins of farina and smoked Philip Morris and sang songs until the campfire had turned to embers.

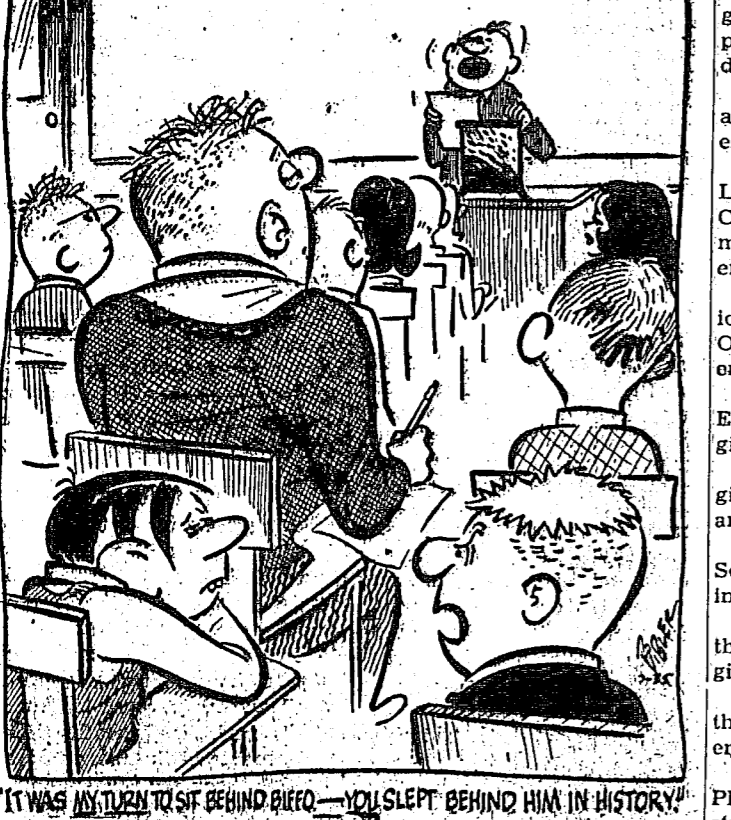

For our first lesson in language, let us take up French, which has often been called the lingua franca of France. We will approach French in a new manner, because, to be brutally frank, the way it is taught in our colleges is archaic and obsolete. Why all this emphasis on grammar? After all, when we get to France does it matter if we can parse and conjugate? Of course not!

So for the first exercise, translate the following real, true-to-life dialogue between two real, true-to-life Frenchmen named Claude (pronounced Clôhd) and Pierre (also pronounced Clôhd):

CLAUDE: Good morning, sir. Can you direct me to the nearest monk?
 PIERRE: I have regret, but I am a stranger here myself.
 CLAUDE: Is it that you come from the France?
 PIERRE: You have right.
 CLAUDE: I also. Come, let us mount the airplane and return ourselves to the France.
 PIERRE: We must defend from smoking until the airplane raises itself.
 CLAUDE: Ah, now it has raised itself. Will you have a Philippe Maurice?
 PIERRE: Mercy.
 CLAUDE: In the garden of my aunt it makes warm in the summer and cold in the winter.
 PIERRE: What a coincidence. In the garden of my aunt too!
 CLAUDE: Ah, we are landing. Regard how the airplane depresses itself.
 PIERRE: What shall you do in the France?
 CLAUDE: I shall make a promenade and see various sights of cultural and historical significance. What shall you do?
 PIERRE: I think I shall try to pick up the stewardess.
 CLAUDE: Long live the France!

Et vive aussi la Philippe Maurice, la cigarette très bonne, très agréable, très magnifique, et la sponsor de cette collaboration.

Miss America For Education

All women who have won the coveted title of Miss America since scholarships were added as contest prizes in 1945 have been either college students or college graduates at the time of their crowning. Perhaps this has a meaning for women students of Idaho. Even among our own beauty queens here at the University of Idaho, most of them are here primarily for an education. Many girls on our campus are similar with Miss America of 1957 in saying that an important objective in their lives is the completion of their studies.

Lovely blonde Marian Ann Knight, 19-year-old beauty queen of Manning, South Carolina, who was selected Miss America September 8 in Convention Hall before 22,000 spectators and a nationwide television audience, plans to resume her education at Coker College, in Hartsville, South Carolina, with her $5,000 first-prize pageant scholarship, when her one-year reign is ended next September.

Despite the fact that she has already been offered a movie contract and that other tempting show business offers are sure to come her way this year, Marian feels that "education comes first," she told reporters at her first press conferences that before winning the crown she had already deferred making her marriage plans until she had attained her college degree.

Miss America is a normal teenager. She had a crush on Rock Hudson when she was a freshman at Coker; she is a baseball fan and is partial to the New York Yankees and Mickey Mantle; she prefers rock and roll, popular and semi-classical music, and enjoys staying up late and sleeping late. She is like any one of the women students on this campus who understands the importance and fortune of being able to attain a higher education.

3-Day Weekend Urges Students To Hit Boise

A large contingent of Idaho students are expected to journey south to Boise this weekend to support the Vandals in their inter-sectional football clash with Utah State. Due to the fact that Monday is a university holiday more students are expected to make the trip than in past years.

Idaho plays one game each year at Boise, in the BJC Bronco Stadium.

According to the U.S. weather office the forecast for the weekend is invariable high cloudiness.

Idaho State Police report that road conditions are generally good. The Grangeville and Whitebird grades are slick and students are advised to carry chains. The remainder of the southern route is reported clear. The road through Walla Walla, Wash. is in good shape with no snow.

Representing Idaho in Boise will be the University marching band and the Vandalettes.

Students are invited to attend the annual Elks sponsored dance to be held in the Elks Temple Saturday night.

Maine School Raps Frats

WATERVILLE, Me.—Colby College's Self study committee has reached the following conclusions regarding fraternities on that campus:

1. That there is little evidence of contribution to the intellectual life of the college by these organizations, although the sororities do better in this respect than do the fraternities.

2. That the small number of returns in proportion to the total number of members shows slight concern about the place of fraternities and sororities in the college.

3. That little interest is manifested by fraternities in having their members represented in any activity except athletics.

4. That support of non-athletic student activities is not enthusiastic, even on a spectator bases. For instance, during 1954-55, fraternity indifference to college dramatics became so marked that special rates for blocks of seats were offered to fraternities.

5. That the few fraternities that show interest in activities, though which are athletic or purely social should be commended. The committee does not by any means condemn

Faster Action On Traffic Tickets Now

Campus traffic violators will take their cases to a single official instead of directly to the Traffic Appeals Board, the Operations council decided today.

The council's action named C. F. Hudson to take charge of discussing the validity of campus traffic citations. Hudson's decisions may be appealed to the Traffic Appeals Board for final action.

C. O. Decker, director of student affairs, said the reorganization was the result of an increased number of automobiles on campus. Violations, he said, have become proportionately more numerous. The new system is designed to speed up action on student tickets.

The plan goes into effect immediately, Decker said. Hudson's office is located in the U Hut, room 201.

18-Year Olds Given Vote In Two State

In 1943 Georgia gave the right to vote to its 18-year-olds. This year Kentucky follows suit. During and since World War II, agitation to extend suffrage down to the 18-year-old age bracket has continued at both the state and national levels. The right to regulate voting age requirements is, however, a state prerogative, and nothing short of a federal constitutional amendment can change this. Therefore, it would seem likely that future demands for a lowered voting age will be directed at individual state legislatures.

To gather collegiate opinion on this issue Associated Collegiate Press asked the following question of a representative national cross-section of college students:

On the whole, do you feel the average 18-year-old youth is just as prepared to vote intelligently as the average adult over 21 years?

The results:

	Men	Women	Total
Yes	35%	28%	32%
No	57%	62%	59%
Undecided	8%	10%	9%

In many cases, students feel 18-year-olds should not have the vote because they are immature and inexperienced. A freshman at Louisiana State University (Baton Rouge) feels "they don't think before acting," while a freshman coed attending Bemidji State Teachers College (Bemidji, Minn.) says: "The 18-year-old isn't qualified to vote because he isn't stable or informed enough in his opinions." Here's the way a sophomore coed at Moorhead State Teachers College (Moorhead, Minn.) puts it: "The years between 18 and 21 are years of great maturing for the average youth."

Many students feel that 18-year-olds are still under the influence of parents, and haven't been out in the world on their own enough to form sound judgments. "Most 18-year-olds haven't been away from home influences," is the way a freshman coed at Long Beach City College (Long Beach, Calif.) puts it, while another freshman coed at Alabama College (Montevallo, Ala.) states: "I feel that a young person could be persuaded by her parents and by her friends."

Other students believe 18-year-olds are just not interested in politics. Some even feel that voting age requirements should not be lowered, but raised. Here's an example: A senior at Villanova University (Villanova, Pa.) feels that "voting is such an important institution that an adult judgment is necessary—better 30-year-olds." And a junior attending Wesleyan University (Middletown, Conn.) adds: "I don't think the average adult can vote intelligently either, being not well-enough informed on the issues."

A University of Nebraska junior has this reason for refusing suffrage to 18-year-olds; he says: "Not with Elvis Presley available as a write-in candidate."

Students favoring a lowering of voting requirements to "18" generally have two reasons, the foremost of which is stated by a Bemidji State Teachers College junior: "If he is qualified to serve his country he is qualified to vote." This, of course, has been a strong argument since World War II. But a surprisingly large number of students feel 18-year-olds are just

New tables have been installed in the Bucket this week, but due to a shipping delay they are accompanied by borrowed chairs. ASUI General Manager, Gale Mix said today that after 100 late chairs arrive, six more tables can be put into use.

The Council requested that a committee be appointed to clarify policy on student travel before final action is taken on the request to have representatives of the International Relations Club attend the Model United Nations. Fifteen delegates have been proposed to attend the MUN, which will be held at Stanford University during spring vacation.

JULIE ANDREWS says: "Verily, a Professor 'Iggins among magazines!"

Julie Andrews, twenty-one-year-old British girl, plays Eliza Doolittle in the sensational Broadway success "My Fair Lady"—a musical adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion."

- Q. Miss Andrews, had you ever been away from your family before you arrived in this country two years ago?
A. Never, and I still become dreadfully homesick. But I do talk with them several times a week.
- Q. By phone?
A. No—by phonograph. We talk into recording machines, and airmail the records. They are so clear I can even hear my brothers arguing in the background about whose turn is next. It is as if we were all in one room.
- Q. You never exchange the usual kind of letter?
A. Very seldom, I'm afraid. But we post back and forth bits of particular interest—like newspaper reviews, and favorite articles from The Reader's Digest.
- Q. Just the Digest?
A. Oh, no, there are others sometimes—but the Digest is our magazine. Mummy and Daddy have always read it, and I began when I was twelve, playing music halls. I had to miss school, and my teaching governess went through every issue with me on the run. It was part of my lessons.
- Q. Do you still read it on the run?
A. Oh, yes—waiting for assignments, waiting for buses, even waiting for curtain cues. I hope I never have to be without it. When I wish to be amused, the Digest amuses me; and when I need to be scolded or instructed, I can always find an article that talks to me like—
- Q. Like a Dutch uncle?
A. No, much more delightfully—more like Professor 'Iggins in "My Fair Lady" showing a new world to Eliza Doolittle.

In November Reader's Digest don't miss:

- CONDENSATION FROM FORTHCOMING BOOK: "THE ONE THAT GOT AWAY." The all but incredible story of Nazi fighter pilot Franz von Werra—how he broke out of a British prison camp, audaciously attempted to steal a plane... and finally did escape.
- REBELLION AT POZNAN. Here are eyewitness accounts of the June uprisings that may be a preview of the eventual end of the Communist empire.
- TWO-EDGED DAGGER OF YUSUF HUSSEIN. Ferie experiences of a British officer in the Red-infested jungles of Malaya.
- THE ANDREA DORIA'S UNTOLD STORY. Heart-rending drama of Dr. Peterson's futile 5-hour struggle to save his wife—pinned under wreckage in their stateroom—as the giant liner slowly sank.
- ARE YOU A BORE? I. A. R. Why shows ways we unwittingly bore others, and how to make yourself more interesting.
- WHY THERE CANNOT BE ANOTHER WAR. Pulitzer Prize-winner William L. Laurence tells why, in the awesome light of an exploding H-bomb, one thing stands clear: thermonuclear war means certain suicide to the aggressor.

Dad's Halftime Plans Firmed

Wheels begin to move this week as the University of Idaho prepares for the annual Day's Day celebration to be held Nov. 17 under the co-chairmanship of Marcia Ellis and Clark Anderson.

Bill Roy, half-time chairman, said that a Dad's Day rally will be held at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 16 in the SUB. The Vandal football team will be introduced and the yell kings, aided by the Pom-Pom Girls, will lead cheers. Following this, beards and posters will be judged and a song fest led by Bob Gibb, Athletic Director.

For the Dad coming the furthest an "I" cap will be presented during half-time. Last year, ex-University of Idaho President Jesse Buchanan took the cap back with him to College Park, Maryland, with the Alpha Phi's taking the trophy for having the Dad from the farthest place.

This year's half-time will present a novel piece of entertainment, the annual "Aggi-Forester" tug-of-war will be contested in the stadium. The University Band and the Vandalette drill team will perform weather permitting.

Foul Play
Last year the Kappa's took home two trophies, one for winning first place in the women's division, house decoration, and one for having the highest per cent of Dads. The Betas won first place in the men's division, house decoration, and the Delta Chi and the Delta Sig tied for having the highest per cent of beards. Three houses were disqualified for having over 100 per cent.

Dance decorations are under the supervision of Marjorie Assendrup, Gamma Phi; and Chuck Perry, Delta Sig. Committee members include Mary Walcott, Tri-Delt; Louise Vandebark, Tri-Delt; Bill Bonnechsen, Delta Sig; and Tom Radcliffe, Beta.

Half-time committee under Bill Roy, Willis Sweet, with Rita Mae Botts, Hays; Ron Ehlers, Sweet, and Don Freshwater, Sweet.

Facilities will be under Larry Young, Delta Sig; assisted by Bill Evans, and Doris Wayland, Tri-Delt.

Color Girl Of 1957 Candidates Named

Candidates for Color Girl of 1957 were announced Monday by the Navy ROTC. Five finalists will be named during halftime of the Dad's Day game between Idaho and Oregon State, Nov. 17.

Named as candidates were: Pat Iverson, Alpha Chi; Pat Scofield, Alpha Phi; Sue Dikeman, Tri-Delt; Beverly Bolingbroke, Delta Gamma.

Karla Klamper, Gamma Phi; Julie Semple, Theta; Diane Kail, Kappa; Tonia Peterson, Pi Phi; Peggy Gee, Steel; Anita Koskella, Forney; Kathryn Keithly, French; and Marilyn Schroeder, Hays.

Here's More About Student

This, he said, would be continued at the end of each semester.

Mary Verburg and Jay Eacker, speaking for independents, said their groups were indifferent to the whole affair. "It just doesn't matter in the women's halls," Miss Verburg said.

Decker said the decision left the way open for groups to pool their individual grade points to discover those with the highest and then make awards within their groups if they wished. He added that the information supplied to Greek houses would allow them to satisfy the information requirements of their national organizations.

IKs Plan Holiday Drag

An All-Campus stag and drag dance will be held for students remaining on campus during the Thanksgiving holiday Nov. 21 at 9 p.m. in the SUB ballrooms.

Jimmy Mercer's Band will provide music and admission will be 50 cents per person.

The dance is sponsored by Intercollegiate Knights this year as a service project. Last year's dance was handled by the AWS.

Dance Chairman Felix Marcoli said sport outfits would be the dress for the dance.

Marcoli said the dance was being sponsored to give the students something to do during the holiday.

Job Opportunities In Civil Service

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that applications are being accepted for Engineer and Physical Science positions for duty in activities of the Potomac River Naval Command in and near Washington, D. C., and in the Engineer Center, U. S. Army, Fort Belvoir, Virginia. The beginning salaries range from $4,480 to $11,610 a year.

To qualify for the lower grade positions, applicants must have had appropriate education or experience or a combination of both. Additional professional experience is required for the higher grades. Further information and applications forms may be obtained at many post offices throughout the country, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

KAMPUS KEY COMING

UI Compiles 2.43 Grade Mark '55-'56

Idaho students accumulated an over-all average of 2.43 for the 1955-56 school term, the office of C. O. Decker, director of student affairs announced yesterday.

The grade point was an average of grades by all students living on campus during the two semesters. All-women's average was 2.74 and men averaged 2.30.

In line with a recent decision to withhold individual house standings and Greek and independent living group averages, Decker said he would not release that information for publication. This also rules out printing of averages for the spring semester, since figures are only computed for individual living groups at the end of each semester.

House averages were mailed to presidents last week, Decker said. These included tabulations of group performance in relation to the over-all averages in their categories.

Highway Problems Mullied Tuesday

Construction and maintenance problems of Idaho's 43,000 miles of highways will be discussed at an asphalt seminar Tuesday in the Student Union building, it was announced today by Dean Allen S. Janssen, college of engineering.

Invitations have been sent to all city and county engineers, consulting engineers, contractors, members of the highway department and engineering students at the university to hear two nationally-known road building experts from the sponsoring Asphalt Institute. The public is also invited. A similar meeting will be held in Boise, November 13.

Uses of asphalt in hydraulics, covering some of the experimental work with canal linings and seepage control conducted by the University, will be discussed by Professor C. C. Warnick, college of engineering.

SUB Groups Air Problems At Union Meet

Representing Idaho at the annual meeting at the Association of College Unions held Nov. 1-3 at Eugene, Oregon were Gale Mix, Ray Wilke, Al Andrews and Marjorie Erstad. The association had been formed for the purpose of solving the mutual problems that all the 29 college union members had in common.

Colleges from Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Montana, California, Nevada, Western Canada and Hawaii were represented at the convention. Idaho's main problem, stated Gale Mix, ASUI general manager, is the overcrowding in the SUB due to the increased enrollment.

The union is not a policy making organization, it was formed to deal with its member's own problems.

Townmen Meet To Plan Exchange

Townmen's Association meets tomorrow at 7 p.m. in Conference Room E. Those unable to attend can call Mike McQuade, president, at 2334 for information.

Meetings are regularly scheduled bi-monthly, on the second and fourth Thursday.

An exchange will be held with the Tri-Delts this Wednesday at 7 p.m. All men interested are asked to meet at the SUB at 6:45 p.m. and wear slacks and shirts.

Victory Over Fresno State Was A Real Thought Process

The ball flies through the air enroute to the goal posts as Guard Jerry Kramer completes a first half field goal against Fresno State.

By JOHN B. HUGHES
FRESNO, Calif.—Team captain (Tiny) Foster told the Vandals as they rode the bus to the stadium Saturday night to "knock off the unnecessary talking and start thinking about the game."
The team did just that. They thought hard about it until about 10:30 that night when they left the field with a well earned 24-12 victory over Fresno State College, a team beaten only by one score by highly ranked College of Pacific.
It was Idaho coach Skip Stahley who best summed up the victory. "We made no changes the second half. We simply started blocking a little better and played a lot tougher on defense, and our running game moved for the first time this year."

over the Idaho secondary for 21 yards just before the half ended.
Retaliate
Idaho bounced back quickly at the half and took the kickoff and marched 63 yards in eight plays with Larry Norby streaking over from the Fresno 29. Mel Schmidt in the drive boomed five times over his own left side and carried for two first downs and quarterback Gary Johnson moved the ball twice on keeper plays.
Johnson was injured on the second carry but Howard Willis pitched to Norby who had to barrel his way through the Fresno line and then sweep into the secondary where his 190 pounds bulled him through for the score. This made it 12-10.

The Vandals kept the pressure on and took over when Fresno failed on a fourth down and 13 yards to go play. The Bulldogs stopped Idaho and forced them to kick, but the Vandal defense again put the clamps on.
Idaho took over aggressively and Willis snapped a pass to End Larry Aldrich and again found Aldrich in the corner for a 43-yard pass and run play. Again Willis hit for 19 yards to Aldrich for a first down inside the ten. Willis then carried the ball on a rollout to the one and on the next play sneaked over. The dest number of people possible.

The Vandals rolled back into Moscow Sunday with their second victory under their belts and began to prepare for the Utah State Aggies whom they met this weekend at Boise.
We see a definite advantage facing the Vandals in the Boise game. The Aggies have the Idaho game sandwiched between what are probably their most important games of the season. Saturday they fell from serious Sky-line championship contention when Wyoming beat them, and the week following the Idaho contest they meet Utah in what will probably be a contest for second place in the conference.
All this points to one thing, Utah State may be looking forward or backward when they meet the Vandals' Saturday, and may not put up the fight they are capable of.
At any rate students making the trip south to see the game can be sure of seeing a really good game when the revamped Vandals meet Utah State and Jack Hill.

SPORGAS/BORD

by Dean H. Judd

A number of questions have been raised recently on why men who have lettered in freshman swimming are ineligible for intramural swimming.
The intramural swimming meet starts before the varsity opens practice and therefore these sophomores have no connection with the varsity swimming team when the meet is in progress.
In any other intramural sport, a man may enter if he has not lettered in that sport on the varsity squad, but swimming limits participants to those who have neither lettered on the varsity or freshman teams.
Although it seems a little odd to set this sport apart from the others in rules, there is good reasoning behind it. According to Intramural Director Wayne Anderson the rule was set up to give more students a chance to participate in swimming.
It was found that sophomores, who had lettered as freshmen, usually completely swept the meet, thereby almost eliminating all swimmers who didn't have varsity aspirations. Under the present setup, according to Anderson and swimming coach Eric Kirkland, the average swimmer, who won't be working on the sport all winter, has a much greater chance for participation. After all, the aim of the intramural program is to give opportunities for sports participation to the great-

Harriers Take Westergren And Beta Cop Tennis Crown; 5th Win In Row Phi Taus Win Intramural Swimming At Spokane

Idaho's cross country team swept to its fifth straight win as it copied the first four places to beat Washington State College and win the Inland Empire meet 10 to 28. Raymond Hatton and Frank Wyatt again paced the Vandal team as they swept to their largest margin of victory of the season at Spokane Saturday.
Hatton breezed over the three-mile course in 14:41 to win the meet and Wyatt finished two seconds behind. Both were far ahead of the rest of the field.
Ron Adams took third for Idaho and Vandal Dick Boyce finished third. Top man for WSC, which was the only other team entered in the meet, was English who finished fifth. Peter Reed was seventh for Idaho.
The undefeated Idaho squad will enter the Northwest Championships at Vancouver, B.C., this Saturday, and close its season in the Pacific Northwest AAU Championships at Seattle Nov. 24.

Phi Kappa Tau, Beta Theta Pi and Knute Westergren surged into the intramural sports limelight this week with decisive victories in swimming and tennis respectively.
The Phi Taus had a seven point margin over Upham Hall, 87-80, to sweep the swimming laurels. Many of the Phi Taus points were gained in the finals last night.
Lewis Oring, Sam McNeil, Mike Norell, and Jack Pettygrove sparked the Phi Taus' effort in the finals, copping the 200-yard relay. McNeil was a workhorse, also taking seconds in the 50-yard Freestyle, and the 100-yard Freestyle.
Other team finishers through sixth were Pine Hall, third, with 73 points, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, fourth with 66 tallies, Kappa Sigma, fifth with 63 markers, and Lindley Hall, sixth with 61 points.
Individual winners were Pearson—SAE, 50-yard Freestyle, Ozzie Smith—KS, 50-yard Backstroke, John Price—PH, 50-yard Breaststroke, Glenn Allen—CH, 100-yard Freestyle, and Jim Phillips—IC, Diving.
Beta Theta Pi, who earlier had won the Turkey Trot cross country run, added the intramural tennis championship to its list over the weekend.
Westergren, who paced the Beta, defeated Thad Scholes, Delta Tau Delta by identical 6-1, 6-1 scores Saturday to win the 1956-57 individual tennis title.
Westergren had advanced to the finals by dropping Frank Benson, Campus Club, and Scholes gained entry into the top round with a victory over Dick Rene, Delta Tau Delta.
Volleyball starts Wednesday, when the fraternity leagues swing into action. Independent play begins on Thursday, with a full slate of games on tap.

Frosh Drop Final To WSC; Lose On First Period TD's

The Washington State College Couababes scored twice in the first quarter to overshadow the Idaho frosh with a 12-7 victory at Pullman Friday.
Previous to the WSC loss the Vandals tied the University of Washington 6-6 and were defeated by the Montana State Junior Varsity 12-0. The WSC game closed the Vandal season with a one tie, two loss record.
The Couababes recovered an Idaho fumble on the Vandal 30 yard line in the first quarter and scored seven plays later with LeRoy Rath going over from the six. After Idaho lost the ball on downs the Couababes drove the ball 99 yards in nine plays to score another WSC touchdown. Don Maw took a nine yard pass from Mike Agee for the score. Halfback Don Eilersick carried the pilskin 23 yards for the day's longest gain.
In the second quarter Idaho gained the ball on downs on the WSC 41 and made a seven play rush for their only touchdown of the day. Jim Norton set up the score with a 13 yard pass to Jim Moore. John Murphy kicked the extra point.
The Couababes had a big edge on Idaho record-wise, 343 net yards rushing and passing to Idaho's 112. The WSC frosh completed 7 of 14 passes and Idaho 6 of 17.
The Vandals came back strong in the first period after trailing by a two touchdown margin and looked very good defensively after the Couababes had taken the early lead.
In the third period, Idaho stalled two minor Cougar threats and stopped another midway through the final quarter. The Couababes also had their share of defensive success, halting an Idaho drive on the WSC 21 late in the contest. Idaho halfback Paul Wager showed up well on both offensive and defensive plays for the Vandals. Teammate Ralph Jannino was in on many tackles helping the Idaho defensive line considerably and Jim Norton again did well on the punting end for the Idaho Babes.

Assistants this year under Vandal coach Clem Barberry were Cal Hilgenberg, backfield coach, Richard Denfeld, end coach and Bob Holder, line coach.

Varsity Tops Frosh In Hoop Preview Tilt

Idaho's varsity basketball squad outplayed the freshman quintet in the first hoop review of the 1956-57 season last Friday night at Memorial Gymnasium.
The varsity, led by starting five Jim Branon, Captain Jerry Jorgenson, Gary McEwen, Whaylen Coleman, and Gary Simmons were in strong command of first half action.
The yearlings, however, gained confidence during the final quarter and dropped in 12 points, while the varsity reserves could hit the hoop for only two markers. Substitutions marked the contest, with the varsity first five playing about half the game.
Jorgenson, expected to be a cog this season, hit for 14 of the 49 points scored by the varsity in the first 30 minutes. Simmons, a top scorer last year, followed closely with 12 tallies. Center Rolie Williams, star of the 1955-56 state high school champion Kellogg Wildcats, paced the freshmen with 12 points.

Idaho's with score 17-12.
Willis recovered a fumble at mid-field and engineered the spirited Idaho club to an insurance score. Schmidt pile-driven his way through the line and on one play went 19 yards dragging Fresno men with him. Willis sneaked over from the three to end scoring at 24-12.
Score by periods:
Idaho ..... 3 0 7 14—24
Fresno ..... 0 12 0 0—12
Idaho scoring—Norby (29, run); Willis 2 (1, sneak, 3, sneak); Kramer (field goal for 3.) Conversions—Kramer 2, Hall 1.
Fresno scoring—Rogers (43, pass from Kuhl); Philpott (21, run.)

Sheppard-Olson Meet For Trophy

Dick Sheppard is slated to meet Tom Olson in Championship flight finals and Bruce Williams is the victor in Presidential flight competition as a result of this week's ASUI golf tourney play.
Sheppard defeated Bill Dyer one up to make himself eligible to meet Olson for the Francis L. James Memorial trophy. This trophy is given yearly to the winner in the Championship flight play. Weather permitting, the outcome of this match should be decided next week.
Bruce Williams won his match with Buddy Myhre to become the winner in the Presidential flight.

IM'S PLANNED FOR TMA
Anyone in the Town Men's Association interested in intramural athletics should contact Roger Hatch at 32933 and plan to be at a meeting Thursday at 7 p.m. in Conference Room E of the SUB.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Second Wind
Thus the Vandals roared back in the second half again this weekend to take its second victory. The hard-hitting Vandal team surged from behind, 12-3, in the last half and a couple of breaks to sting Fresno and a stunned crowd of over 10,000.
In talking with the Fresno coaching staff, Bob Burgess, their line mentor, rather dejectedly looked over his charges and commented, "Idaho wanted it a lot more than our boys. Don't ask me why but it was evident that we were flat right from the start. They whipped us up front which is something I did not think they could do."
Idaho wanted it badly all right and went after the Bulldogs in the opening minutes until Fresno stopped them inside the ten but Guard Jerry Kramer calmly booted a field goal to give Idaho a short lived 3-0 lead.
Fresno boomed back for two first half scores, one on a long pass play when Idaho defenders got mixed up in their defensive pass patterns and the other when 195-pound fullback Dean Philpott ran
