

Construction Fire

Fire broke out in a new men's dormitory being constructed on West 6th St. west of Upham Hall at 3 a.m. this morning causing an estimated $25,000 damage.

Negligible Damage

University Engineer, George Gagon, said a piece of canvas blowing against an oil heating amudge not used to heat newly poured concrete caused the blaze. The piece of canvas and a small section of wood concrete form were destroyed.

Faculty Links Class Cutting With Infirmary Excuses

The faculty certainly won't be credited with coming up with a milestone after acting on a problem involving students without first even giving collegians an inkling of notice that action was to be taken.

Why This Ancient Custom?

And these same faculty members might consider doing away with the ancient custom of forcing class attendance. A new contradicting innovation is working successfully in modern schools which find this theory outdated.

Concert Band Plays Sunday

The University of Idaho Concert Band will present its first seasonal concert Sunday afternoon, 4 p.m., in the University auditorium.

Director Warren Bellis will conduct his 70-piece group through a program of both classical and light concert favorites, including modern and novelty selections.

The band will open its program with the "Royal Fireworks Music" by Handel, which was once performed with the percussion of 101 brass cannons and fireworks as a part of a gigantic peace celebration under the reign of King George II of England.

Soloists will be Beverly Gregerson, flute; Michael Patton, oboe; Carol Webster and Jack Willmorth, clarinet; Richard Minkler, bassoon; Ronald Grove, alto saxophone; James Mercer and Gerald Strang, trumpets; Margaret Johnson and Michael Norell, French horn and Robert Schoenwald, euphonium.

Conductor Bellis will continue the concert with "Trauersinfonie" by Richard Wagner.

Featured work on the program will be "Music for a Festival" written by Gordon Jacobs for the Festival of Britain in 1951.

The composition is highlighted by a small brass choir of four trumpets, three trombones and tympani which alternates with the full band throughout the 11 movements.

Members of the solo brass choir include James Mercer, Ernest Carr, John Alley, Lane Woods, Neil Walter, and Nedra Larson.

Victim Of Rifle Wound Released

Robert Ronald Clark, 24, who was treated for chest injuries for a rifle wound, was released from Gritman hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Clark, a geological engineering major, was hit on the left side of his chest by the bullet. A physician said the bullet missed Clark's heart by only three inches.

Cool Silence On Hot Issue

Inter-Fraternity Council president Larry Haight last night refused to comment on whether or not the Council's discipline tribunal would take action on a snowball fight challenge from Phi Delta Theta to Beta Theta Pi.

The incident took place Wednesday noon starting as a DG-Phi Delta pledge snowball fight. Pledges of Phi Delta Theta left the DG pledges and walked over to the Beta house and made the challenge.

Preparations Have Begun For RE Week

Advance preparations for Religious Emphasis Week, Feb. 24 to 27 were begun this week with the selection of a main speaker and the appointment of a committee chairman.

Ed Cunningham, director of church extension in the Washington Congregational conference, will give the main address of the week. He has held pastorates at Pocatello and Santa Cruz, California, has served as an instructor at Idaho State college and had some experience in journalism.

Heading the R. E. Week committee are John Chapman, chairman; Janet Harding, co-chairman; Marilyn Monroe, secretary; and Larry Wing, treasurer.

Committee chairmen include Jim Heer, seminar; Sally Beattie, publicity; Norm Helgeson and Carolyn Dempsey, hospitality; Joan Fisher, display; Chris Mackert, faculty and classroom; and Lois Lundquist, luncheon.

NOTICE

Fraternity men's pictures for the Gem are due back at the photographer on or before January 22. Silver Lance and Mortar Board proofs are also due that date.

High Percentage Of 34th Legislature Previously University Of Idaho Grads

When Idaho's 34th Legislature officially opened this week, 28 one-time University students were included in the membership of the lawmaking body.

Thirteen of Idaho's 44 senators and 15 of 59 representatives at one time or another were students at the University of Idaho.

Speaker of the House Elvon Hampton, Latah County, won a B.S. in agriculture in 1933. Hampton, now from Genesee, was a member and president of Vandaleers in his senior year.

Former IK Secretary Ada County Senator Blaine F. Evans enrolled in 1941, and after the war got a B.A. in political science. He was secretary of IKS, treasurer of his sophomore class and won a debate award. He is now a practicing attorney in Boise.

Two of four Ada County representatives are Idaho alumni. Carl R. Burt entered in 1935, switched from business to education in his junior year and did not graduate. He was ASUI vice president, a class vice president and business manager for the Gem. Burt is an equipment dealer in Boise.

Sam Kaufman, Jr., won a degree in 1942 and got his LL.B. in 1948. He was treasurer and president of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, was an IK and member of Pershing Rifles. Kaufman is a Boise attorney.

Bannock County representative T. F. Terrell graduated in 1944.

Terrell is a Pocatello insurance salesman.

Senator F. W. Burgeson of Bingham, now a Shelley farmer, graduated in 1944 with a degree in agriculture.

Four Year Letterman A four-year letterman in boxing, Pete T. Cenarrusa, now Blaine County representative, got his B.S. in agriculture in 1940. He is a Carey sheep rancher.

Boise County representative Barton A. Brassey got his B.S. in business in 1948. Brassey is now a Placerville lumberman.

Last Of An Idaho Era

Robert Louis Turner, the only student now attending Idaho under the World War II GI Bill of Rights, leafs through a volume of history of the war written by Winston Churchill. Turner is alone today where a peak of 2,200 World War II veterans once swarmed over the campus in 1948-49.

Frosh Peppered By Shot In Corner Snow Ruckus

A freshman student, Lynn Thomas Snider, Idaho Club, was injured Thursday evening when he was hit in both legs by shotgun pellets allegedly fired during a snowball throwing episode at the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Two members of the Beta fraternity are reported to have been implicated in the shooting.

Snider was in a crowd of spectators who had congregated at the corner of Elm and Idaho to watch the snowball throwing. He was hit once in each leg by shotgun pellets, Dr. J. M. Fleming, the attending physician, said.

Fleming said Snider was treated at the infirmary at about 7:40 p.m. and released. He was to be X-rayed this morning to determine whether or not the pellets would be removed.

Charles O. Decker, dean of student affairs, said late last night the Beta president had given him the names of two fraternity members who allegedly did the shooting. Decker said he would confer with the two men this morning.

Beta vice president Mike Patton told the Argonaut a crowd of unidentified men massed at the street corner and began throwing snowballs at the fraternity. He said at least six windows were broken at the front of the house. Patton said members were ordered not to engage in the incident or to throw snowballs in return.

Other witnesses reported that the crowd was composed of men from both independent and Greek living groups. Members said that shotguns were finally fired into the air to break up the crowd. It was at this time that Snider was hit.

Decker refused to comment on what charges, if any, he would lodge concerning the incident. Action will be considered following an investigation, Decker said.

Mary Jane, is a freshman this year.

J. Kenneth Thatcher, senator from Madison County, got his M.S. in education in 1938. He did undergraduate work at Utah State Agricultural College and the University of Utah. Thatcher is a public school official in Sugar City.

Senator Rodney Hansen, Rupert, is now a Minidoka County farmer. He got a B.S. in agriculture in 1936 and during his years here was a member of Alpha Zeta, was on the agronomy judging team and president of the Ag club.

Nez Perce County Senator Howard Hechtner got a B.S. degree in agriculture in 1923. Hechtner is a farmer in Lapwal.

Jenkin L. Palmer, Oneida County representative received his B.S. in zoology in 1939, now is a rancher from Malad.

Senator Vernon Daniel got a B.S. in business in 1947, an LL.B. in 1948. Daniel was elected from Payette County and is a Payette attorney.

Power County representative Gregg Potvin received an LL.B. degree in 1950. He is a practicing American Falls attorney.

Earl L. Wheeler, Shoshone County representative, entered the University in 1938, attended one year, majoring in education. Wheeler is presently a Mullan trucker.

Blind since birth, Harry B. Turner, Twin Falls, received a B.A. degree in 1952 and an LL.B. in 1954. Now an attorney, last fall he was elected a Twin Falls County representative.

Skip Rumored For Ivy Job

Idaho's Skip Stahley, at Harvard University for six years as assistant coach from 1934-1940, has been mentioned as a candidate for the head football coaching job at the Ivy League school.

Stahley was in St. Louis, Mo., yesterday attending the National Coaches Association when reached by the school newspaper, Harvard Crimson. The paper told Stahley the staff had received a letter from an unnamed alumnus saying Stahley was in line to be the next Harvard coach.

"I haven't applied for the job and no one has contacted me about it," was Stahley's comment from St. Louis.

In Moscow, yesterday Gale L. Mix, former Idaho athletic manager, shaded light on the question if Stahley might leave the University after three seasons at the helm of the Vandal grid machines.

Mix said, "While checking Skip's record in January of 1954 when Idaho was in search of a replacement for Babe Curtman, I found him to be very popular in the Ivy League."

The former director, now general manager of the Associated Students, spent nearly a month in the East contacting prospective coaches. At Harvard, Mix found Stahley to have "a marvelous record for an assistant coach. He left Harvard to take the reins at Brown, 100 miles away at Providence, R. I."

Harlow Praises "Dick Harlow, Harvard coach and one of the greatest all-time football strategists, had high praise for Skip."

"We hope Stahley stays here at Idaho," Mix commented. "He's one of the greatest coaches Idaho has ever had."

In the Ivy football league, schools have scorned big-time football and seek high class coaches. Mix said Stahley's background of a Master's degree from Columbia and an undergraduate degree from Penn State could make the "privately-endowed school interested."

The Harvard vacancy was created Monday with the resignation of Lloyd Jordan. Whether Harvard officials have talked with Stahley since Monday is not known, but has been speculated.

The Portland, Ore., Oregonian said yesterday in a special dispatch the Massachusetts school was "interested in Stahley."

Alumni play a big part in selecting football coaches at Harvard since private funds support the school.

BURROW NEW MANAGER Fred Burrow, senior in business and ASUI vice president, this week was named new student manager of the SUB, replacing Bill Parsons.

Backstage crews are also needed, Miss Collette said. The play will be produced Feb. 22 and 23 on the University auditorium stage.

Director Sets Play Tryouts

Tryouts for "Sabrina Fair," a 9-act comedy by Samuel Taylor, are set for next Thursday and Friday.

Jean Collette, director, announced today. The cast includes nine men and seven women, she said.

"Sabrina Fair" began on Broadway in November, 1955 with Joseph Cotton and Margaret Sullivan in the lead roles. The setting of the comedy takes place on Northeast Long Island.

Executive Board member Roger Tovey yesterday proposed a change in the method of student government if the enrollment continues to increase as it has in the past two years.

Tovey, one of the four Student Government men elected to the Board last spring, proposed that a senate system replace the present nine-member Executive Board.

The senate system, which is used by most larger northwest schools, enables students to elect representatives from respective living group areas. In other words, the campus is divided into numerous geographical areas and a number of representatives are chosen from each area according to population.

Tovey listed several advantages of this system including, "More representatives on the student governing body and closer contact with the students; each section of the campus would have a voice in the management of student affairs."

Tovey, an education major from Malad, Idaho, will graduate this spring but plans to return to the University next fall to start work on his master's degree. After he receives his masters, Tovey plans to begin his teaching career, but not in Idaho. Tovey gave "low salaries" as his main reason for not teaching in his home state.

In referring to the trouble that Idaho is having in obtaining funds from the legislature, Tovey felt that things may be better for the school in the future. "Teachers' salaries are definitely the biggest problem with lack of classroom space coming second," he said, "however, Governor Smylie's legislative address held some hope for the future. I feel that the southern branch of IKS."

Camp - eyeing

Doubtless numerous campuses were more than slightly disturbed by Dean Charles Decker's Tuesday announcement that infirmity excuses—those free tickets to a legal class cut—henceforth will be limited to students who are confined in the campus hospital. In fact, "shattered" might be a better word to describe their reaction.

Previously it was the ever-gratifying thought that a particularly difficult examination could be postponed that kept nervous Idahoans happy. For some, it was always possible to conjure up an ill which required "immediate" attention at the infirmary. Once boosted up by a shot of something or other and armed with an excused absence, Joe Vandal could rest easy until the next class. This "crutch" is now ended.

The days of taking a pill to get sick, then dashing over to get a shot to cure it are no more. Even the sharper individuals who dunk thermometers in ice water or heat them with a match to register temperatures of 70 degrees or 112 are going to have trouble. Unless they want to spend two days flat on their backs as a penalty, they'll have to find a free period to get diagnosed.

It's a sad day for such a beloved Idaho tradition, but, according to the bulletin, this should give University physicians more time to spend on ailing individuals. With a grimace of anticipation, Idahoans now prepare to attend that eight o'clock EVERY morning.

Christmas Cheer

Honorary To Hold Formal Initiation For New Pledges

Formal initiation of seven pledges into Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, was set for Feb. 6 at a regular meeting of the group Wednesday afternoon.

The initiation will begin at 5:30 in the SUB with a banquet following in the New Idaho hotel.

The local group accepted a challenge from the WSC chapter to play a basketball game at the beginning of second semester.

A petition was unanimously approved to accept a News Press Club in San Diego as members of the national organization.

Dean Judd and Don Neville-Smith were appointed committee chairmen to work on the annual High School Journalism Conference to be held March 22 and 23 on the Idaho Campus.

Rush Fee Raised To Set Up Fund

Beginning next fall, the rush fee for women will be raised from $1 to $2.50 to set up a loan fund for Greek girls, Jan Daigh, Pan-Hel president announced.

The money will help girls who would be unable to finish the school year, Miss Daigh said.

A southern farmer was introducing his family of boys to the President.

"Seventeen boys," he said. "All are Democrats but John, the little rascal. He got to readin'."

Washington's Educators Plan $54 Million Request

Budget requests totaling $54 million will be submitted to the Washington State Legislature for the next biennium, school officials at the University of Washington and Washington State College have announced. The figure is nearly five times that of similar requests made by comparable colleges in Idaho for educational operation funds.

Washington asks $30-million for education, WSC requests $24-million. Total budgets for the schools total $74-million which includes all college responsibilities plus requests for building funds.

WSC and Washington are two of five state-supported colleges in a state with 2,600,000 citizens.

The University of Idaho and Idaho State College ask a state of nearly 650,000 for education appropriations totaling $11.3 million.

Washington State with an enrollment of 5,200, thirty per cent higher than the University of Idaho, asks approximately four times greater.

At Washington the bulk of appropriation requests are earmarked to prepare for an anticipated 1959 enrollment of 17,000 students. The sum reflects provision for 20 per cent increase in academic salary levels and a need to raise and maintain, at a competitive level, the nonacademic wage scales.

Larger plant facilities will be needed to meet the expected growth. The added operational costs involved include such items as supplies and equipment, expansion of library facilities, retirement program costs and equipping and operation of planned physical facilities.

Still Behind
 Dr. Clement French of Washington State said the school's request will permit a 20 per cent increase in salaries for the faculty but will leave them 8 per cent behind the average salaries paid in midwestern land grant colleges.

The school asks in addition to the $24-million, appropriation requests for a $5.3-million for an agricultural building and $6.1-million for construction of chemistry, engineering and home ec buildings and a second agricultural building.

Each member of the publicity committee will be assigned one organization, with whom they will work in cooperation," Sonja Hoisath, chairman, said. "The organization's committee will handle their publicity, but they will have to work in cooperation with a committee member. This coordination will prevent any duplication between the group and the committee."

Freshman ROTC Building Mix-Up Disturbs Students

Approximately 290 confused freshmen Army ROTC students milled outside the Ag Science building fourth period Thursday when the Navy ROTC invaded their assigned classroom. Officials of both units blamed it on a mix-up of who had what building.

Army cadets began a march to the Engineering building at first; however, the sophomore Army class was meeting there and the freshmen returned to the Ag Science.

After about ten minutes, the cold group broke up into two ranks for a simulated hand grenade practice with snow balls as a substitute. When Sgt. Richard M. Moore made an appearance the two teams combined forces to begin a new bombardment on him.

A few minutes later M-Sgt. Benjamin Mares came out of the building and told the group to disperse. One enthusiastic cadet let out the battle cry, "Retreat, hell," but the other students departed, however.

Sex is the thing that puts writing on a paying basis and makes psychology majors respectable.

 Jimmy: "No I hate her. I'd like to grab her and bite her neck like Daddy does."

Foolish Traditions Being Cut?

The days of old when the Beta and Phi Delt pledge classes would don winter gladiator garb and hold their annual snow brawl at the familiar Greek corner by the fraternity houses are over.

With a new blanket of snow on the campus, the Phi Delt made the annual challenge this winter, however the Betas didn't take up the offer, instead stayed indoors while the Phi Delt's shelled neighboring Delta Gammas.

Steps taken this fall by the Interfraternity Council which has taken a definite stand against such "fool's play" must have taken effect in this traditional clash.

When the two groups of novices battled in the "olden days" after the first snowball was thrown the brawl took shape as a tavern free-for-all with no holds or fists held back.

This may be a step forward in the IFC's hopes of eliminating such outward fraternity rivalry and may even take hold in the other "risky" functions such as the pin passing and tubbings, party raids, and other activities which the administration has urged be curtailed for safety and public reaction reasons.

But there are some who miss these traditions they call part of college life.

A Word To Pedestrians . . . Safe Walking Is In Season

Officials have constantly asked the nation's motorists to drive safely in an attempt to make them aware its a good idea to stay alive.

And it might not be a bad idea here on this campus to ask students to walk safely—too, over seldom shoveled sidewalks both enroute to classes over university maintained pedestrian lanes and also over sidewalks responsible to living groups.

And with some wild-eyed motorists circling the campus claiming to have snow-grip tires and the best brakes ever devised, its a good plan to flash a leery eye at these persons, too.

Students Announce Holiday Betrothals

Many engagements and pinnings were announced during Christmas vacation. The Sigma Nus Upperclassmen's Dinner Dance and White Rose Dance are being planned for this spring. Recently named for presidential roles are Ginger Symms, Pi Phi, and Roger Seitz. Delta Sig. The DG and Phi Delt pledges conducted a snowball fight Wednesday noon. "Long Winter Night" will be the name of the Pine Hall Dance Saturday night.

ALPHA PHI
Nancy Sisty's engagement to Eivind Resa, Sigma Nu, was announced Monday noon.

Our hashers came to the rescue Tuesday when an unexpected guest, a mouse, came to dinner.

DELTA SIGMA PHI
Recent house election results include: Roger Seitz, president; Rob-in Merrell, vice president; Dale Williams, secretary; Mabo Schlei-fer, treasurer; and Larry Young, sergeant-at-arms.

Congratulations to Warren Olney and Mary Ellen Daly, Gamma Phi and to Roger Seitz and Jan Novak, dancing exchange Wednesday.

Thanks to French house for the Hays Hall, on their recent pinnings.

FORNEY HALL
The Christmas holidays marked the engagement of several Forney girls. Summer weddings are being planned by LaRae Sasser and Dick Rhodes, Willis Sweet, Mary Lin Meek and Jim Harris, ATO, and Irene Bratton and Duane Wilke; Delta Chi. Joanna Callawat and Maurice Weaver, Nampa, are planning a fall wedding. Dates have not been set for Patricia Little and Richard McGee, Boise, Lynne Turn-bow and Bob Cummings, Kellogg; and Kay Russell and Dave Owen, Grayling, Mich.

Congratulations to Penny Pender-gast who is wearing the pin of Sad-ie Sather, Beta.

Thanks to the Delta Chis and to Gault for the enjoyable exchange Wednesday night.

KAPPA SIGMA
Kappa Sigma extends congrat-ulations to Neil Harker and Janice Whitmore of Ashton on their mar-riage December 28. Congratulations also to Dick Roberge and Rowena Hasbrouck, Pi Phi, and Jerry Shierman and Shirley Barr, Colfax, on their engagements, which were announced during the holidays; and to Bob Donnelley and Marilyn Har-den, Delta Gamma, on their recent pining.

Thanks to the Kappa pledges for the Wednesday night exchange.

The house is very happy to see "Hump" back for a visit.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA
Congratulations and best wishes to Shirley Danielson and Tom Buck-lin on their recent marriage.

Thanks to Idaho Club for the pledge exchange Wednesday.

Congratulations to Carol Wachal on being chosen Idaho's Campus Beauty Queen by the Campana Sales Company.

Johanna Nelson was a dinner-guest Wednesday night.

PINE HALL
Pine Hall will hold its Winter Ex-capedes in the South Ballroom of the SUB Jan. 12 from 8 to 12 p.m. Its theme, Long Winter Night, is set in the outdoors of a winter re-sort.

Anyone who is interested in at-tending the dance may do so by contacting Paul Walters at Pine Hall. There are only a limited num-ber of invitations.

DELTA GAMMA
Tuesday evening we had two pin-nings: Marilyn Harden to Bob Don-nelley, Kappa Sig and Louise Neff to Jerry Jorgensen, Fiji.

Best wishes to Gretchen Holmes who became Mrs. Bob Newhouse during the Christmas vacation. Bob is a Beta.

Wednesday noon the Phi Delt and DG pledges had a snow ball fight in which we had a moral victory if not one through sheer man-pow-er.

Thanks to Chrisman for the ex-change Wednesday night.

FARM HOUSE
Congratulations to Bud Beasley and Connie Applegate, who were married December 30, at Wilder.

Clark Bedow, Cletus Von Tersch, and Charles Thomas are new mem-bers of Farm House.

PI BETA PHI
Josie Anderson announced her engagement to Bill Stibal of Idaho Falls, Monday night at dinner. An April wedding is planned.

"Irish Eyes Were Smiling on Judi and John" as Judi Sleeper announced her engagement to John Murphy, Corona Del Mar, Calif.

Nancy Benfer surrendered her gavel of the "Naked Arrow Club" and is wearing the ATO pin of Pat George. Pat is now working with military intelligence.

Congratulations to Gerri Williams who is wearing Dave Esser's Sigma Chi pin.

Jolene Williams now wears the jewelled gem of Jack Kidd, Lamb-da Chi.

The inside network of the house has changed hands again. Ginger Symms, president; Marcene Jef-frey, vice president; Valerie Kroll, recording secretary; Jolene Wil-lliams, corresponding secretary; Doris Gissel, treasurer; and Shirley Henriksson, social chairman.

SAE
Congratulations to Gus Campbell, who was married to LaVerne Hope of Emmett over the holidays, and to Chub Williams, who is engaged to Nancy Biegert.

Rush guest this week was Roland J. Bassett.

Thanks to the Tri Deltis for the all-house exchange.

Guest Wednesday night was George Collet.

The annual Christmas Party was held Tuesday night before vaca-tion. Guests were Nancy Squires, Queen of Violets; Mrs. Coleman, housemother; and Lillian Crose, house cook.

PHI DELT
Congratulations go out to Bill Booth and Patsy Lou Robinson, Gamma Phi, who were recently en-gaged.

The pledges wish to thank the girls from Hays Hall for the ex-change Wednesday night.

Pledges also enjoyed a snowball fight with the Delta Gamma pled-ges Wednesday noon. Although it was hoped that the opponents would be of a different sex and from a different house, the fight was still a lot of fun.

SIGMA NU
J. J. O'Connell and George Git-tens, dance chairmen, are getting

Nation Has Urgent Need For Home Economists

The urgent national need for more graduates in home economics to help solve problems caused by population growth was told to members of the University of Idaho home economics department today by Miss Rhea Van Horn, Washington, D. C., program specialist for home economics education for the Pacific re-gion.

"With the current population growth, the need for home econo-mists in certain areas will double within the next four years," Miss Van Horn said. "The shortage is not only a problem in the West, but a national one."

There is a job waiting for every graduate in teaching, extension, dietetics and institution manage-ment, she added. Currently, there are three home economics jobs available for each person trained in the field.

Marriage has created another problem for the home economists. Each year, about half of the home economics graduates who are trained to enter the field get mar-ried soon after graduation.

Two-Way Training
The home economist is trained for two professions," Miss Van Horn explained, "one is to be a wage earner, the other a home-maker. The fundamental goal is to produce better homemakers who will, in turn, be able to provide a happier home life. However, this leaves us without enough trained persons to become wage earners.

With the demand far ahead of the plans underway for the Upperclass-men's Dinner Dance to be held in Lewiston this spring.

Arrangements are also being made for the annual White Rose Dance to be held early in March.

Congratulations to Eivind Resa and Nancy Sisty, Alpha Phi, whose engagement was announced after returning from Christmas vacation.

Dick Bracken has recently been pledged and will move into the house next semester.

Ski Lessons Begin Soon, Volleyball Play To Resume

One of the most popular winter sports for WRA enthusiasts begins Monday. This year skiing will be taught by Miss Patricia Rowe, Kris-tin Damm, and Deanna Geertsen. All girls interested in this sport should meet Monday at 4 p.m. in the Women's Gym. Rates for the use of skis, poles, and boots will be 35 cents per hour. Lessons will be taught as long as there is snow.

A women's ski team is being or-ganized Friday at 3:10 p.m. in the Women's Gym. Any girl who is in-terested is requested to be there.

Volleyball play resumes today with four games being played. At 4:10 p.m. Kappa, team I, plays Delta Gamma, team II; Ethel Steele plays Delta Delta Delta; and Alpha Chi plays Hays. Alpha, Phi plays Delta Gamma, team I, at 4:30 p.m.

WRA house, representatives should check the badminton sched-ule and inform the players of their game times.

Marilyn Stewart Is Engaged

The theme "He's the Apple of My Eye" proclaimed the engage-ment of Marilyn Stewart, Theta, to John Blanton, Kappa Sigma, at a dessert announcement on Janu-ary 8. This theme was written on red and orange paper apples which opened to reveal the names "Mar-ilyn" and "John." An apple dessert was served and the traditional chocolates, sprinkled with gum drop apples and fruit were passed.

Dinner guest was Mrs. Pat Miller. Miss Stewart is a junior in business education from Coeur d'Alene, and John is a senior from Pasco, Wash-ington majoring in business mar-keting. No wedding date has been set.

She: Don't you wish you were a barefoot boy again?
He: Not me, lady. I worked on a turkey farm.

For a real treat, come in soon and enjoy our superb meals. You'll enjoy our prompt, courteous service and friendly relaxed atmosphere—and you'll find our prices reasonable.

Dinners; Retreat Top Church Plans

Wesley is getting the new year off to a great start with a ski retreat between semesters. Canterbury is featuring movie slides on "Churches of Europe" at its Sunday meeting and eligible Kappa Phi pledges will receive the Degree of Light Sunday morning.

WESLEY FOUNDATION
Orientation for coming Wesley of-ficer elections will be held during the regular meeting at the church at 5 p.m. Sunday.

Plans for the ski retreat to be held between semesters will also be made Sunday. Those interested in attending are urged to make their reservations early as the number of openings is limited.

Choir practice will be held at the OCC at 6:45 Thursday, and the reg-ular coffee hour will be at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

CANTERBURY CLUB
Slides on "Churches of Europe" will be featured at the weekly din-ner meeting Sunday. The meeting will begin at 5:30 at the Canterbury house.

KAPPA PHI
Kappa Phi pledges who are eli-gible for membership will receive the Degree of Light at the Metho-dist Church Sunday morning at 7:15. All members and pledges are urged to attend.

NEWMAN CLUB
There will be a Newman Club dinner Sunday at 6 p.m. in the Parish hall. Choir practice and serving practice will be held in the church at 5 p.m. Sunday night.

The regular Newman Club meet-ing will be Tuesday at 6 p.m. (after Novena) in Conference Room B of the SUB.

Huskies Foes As PCC Opens 2nd Week

Cagers Meet Washington Twice In Seattle Games

Idaho's Vandals will meet one of the strongest teams in the conference and will be without their coach and top scorer when they meet the Washington Huskies in Seattle tonight.

A traveling squad of eleven men and assistant coach Clem Parberry left for the coast city yesterday. The Vandals played games both tonight and tomorrow night against the undefeated Huskies.

Coach Harlan Hodges, who is recovering from an appendectomy performed Jan. 2, had planned to fly to Seattle today to watch his squad in action, but he announced yesterday he would follow his doctor's recommendation and not make the trip, fearing possible complications.

Top scoring guard Gary Simmons, who sprained an ankle two weeks ago, did not make the trip and will probably be out of action at least another week.

Parberry who took over for Hodges last week and just about won two games from UCLA, announced that he will probably start the same five men who opened the PCC season in Moscow. Gary McEwen will start at center, Jerry Jorgenson and Jim Branom at forwards and Whaylen Coleman and Bill Wilson at guards.

The Vandals, who now have an 0 and 2 record in PCC play and 6 and 6 season record, arrived in Seattle in time to work out on the Edmondson Pavilion floor last night.

The Huskies have two of the biggest men the Vandals have faced this year in starters Bruno Boin and Doug Smart. Idaho fans saw Boin in Moscow last year as his famous hook shot boosted the Huskies to two wins. Boin is a 6-9 junior center and leads the Washington scorers with 228 points in 11 games. He is fourth in conference scoring with an average of 23.5 in two games.

Smart, the other 'Tree-Top Twin' is a 6-7 sophomore forward. He leads the conference in field goal percentages and rebounds and is fifth in scoring with an average of 21.5.

Bill Stady, 6-3, will be at the other forward spot, and sophomore guards Don Dorland, 6-0, and John Pariseau, 5-8, will round out the Washington starting lineup. John Tuft, a veteran from last year's squad, and Don Smith, co-captain with Boin, will probably both see a lot of action.

Although the Huskies hold the advantage with two big men, the starting lineups of the two squads both average 6-3.

"What foah dat doctah comin' out youah house?"

"Ah dunno, but ah thinks ah's got a little inking."

HomeAndHome Four Games To Go Tonight; Schedule Set PCC In 1958

The 1958 Pacific Coast Conference basketball schedule will feature home and home games, according to a schedule released Wednesday.

The new schedule will consist of the usual double round robin, but instead of playing both games at one site, each team will play one game at a series at home and the other at the home of their opponent.

A chance for all fans to see each team in the conference in action is offered by the new schedule. According to the slate, which was approved by the conference Dec. 5, 1956, all of the members of the Conference will appear in Memorial Gymnasium.

Another feature of the schedule gives all members of the Conference an equal chance in the race. Unlike the present setup, which gives some teams a disadvantage by having to play both games with an opponent on an unfamiliar court, the new schedule assures a team of playing half of its games at home.

The 1958 slate calls for Idaho to meet Stanford, Southern Cal, Washington State, Oregon, UCLA, California, Washington, and Oregon State in that order at Moscow.

The Vandals have three road trips and one trip to Pullman listed for them. They play USC and UCLA in a trip to Los Angeles, make a swing through the Northwest meeting Washington, Oregon and Oregon State in one weekend, and play California and Stanford on the third.

Friday would call for grants-in-aid making up the difference between living costs of the school year and what an athlete's family plus his own campus work could provide.

Clark Kerr, California's Chancellor, expressed an opinion held in some quarters that the plan, as it stands, is "a long step toward professionalism."

The code under which the Conference has previously operated permits grants-in-aid for tuition, on-campus work in which an athlete can earn up to $100 per month at $2 an hour and bona-fide off-campus employment.

The plan approved by a 7-2 vote

Wash. State	0	2	.000	109	127

The California Bears find themselves atop the Pacific Coast Conference basketball race as eight teams prepare to open the second weekend of play at four points tonight.

The Golden Bears from Berkeley, one of the favorites to win the 56-57 championship, downed Stanford, 59-45 for their third win Tuesday to move out of a three-way tie with UCLA and Washington for the top spot.

Tonight California puts its perfect conference record on the line when it hosts previously untested Oregon. The Ducks didn't play last weekend and so have no conference record. California won its two openers against Washington State last week.

In other games, the pre-season favorites find themselves with the edge, playing their weekend games at home.

The defending champion UCLA Bruins host Washington State at Los Angeles, Oregon State, which has already picked up one loss, meets Southern Cal at Corvallis, and the Vandals travel to Seattle. Stanford is idle this weekend.

INTRAMURALS

Three teams were deadlocked for first place in both Leagues III and IV as all independent intramural basketball teams completed second game action yesterday.

Campus Club 1, Linderly Hall 1, and Willis Sweet Hall 1, all with 2-0 records are in the triple-tie in League III, while Chrisman Hall 2, Linderly 2, and Gault 2 are knotted at the top of League IV.

John Liveinos, a standout on last year's freshman basketball team, provided the scoring punch for Chrisman, sinking 22 key points in a runaway over Campus Club 2, 63-14, yesterday.

Linderly 2 squeezed past Upham 2, 28-26, and Gault 2 gained a spot in the three-way tie by downing Willis Sweet 2, 20-17.

In League III play yesterday, Campus Club 1 defeated Chrisman 1, 22-20, and Willis Sweet 1 crushed Gault 1, 36-10. Linderly 1 outscored Upham 1, 23-17, Wednesday.

Montie Bedford, Vandal football end, bucketed 22 points for Pine Hall 2 in a 40-34 victory over Idaho Club 2 in the remaining contest last night.

Phi Delta Theta, 1956 fraternity and campus champions started defense of their titles by edging past a strong Delta Tau Delta five, 26-25, Tuesday.

Wayne Walker paced the Phi Deltas with eight points, while Theron Nelson led the Deltas with 12.

Close games marked play both Tuesday and Wednesday. Idaho Club 2 slipped past Campus Club 2 by a 24-21 count Tuesday, and Kappa Sigma squeaked by Phi Gamma Delta, 27-24 on Wednesday.

Swimmers Set For First Meet Tomorrow At Cheney

A varsity swimming squad, which coach Eric Kirkland has called "perhaps the best ever at Idaho," and a rapidly improving band of freshmen swimmers invade Cheney tomorrow to face the Eastern Washington varsity and frosh in the first dual meets of the season.

Coach Kirkland named a 14-man varsity contingent and 10 freshmen to the traveling squad Thursday.

Vandal varsity swimmers set three meet records in a 57 to 27 victory over EWCE last year, while the Idaho Frosh were crushing the Savages' freshman team, 61-23.

Bruce Buckman and Jack Helle, who accounted for two of the three meet records last year, have returned to bolster the 1956-57 swimmers.

Varsity watermen finished with a successful season last year, taking five straight non-conference matches. The squad closed the 1955-56 schedule with a last place in the Northern Division championships as Pullman, but picked up 33 points.

Two varsity standouts, Larry Nelsen, back stroke, and John Bethke, distance, are in the infirmary and will not make the trip.

Swimmers making the Cheney trip include:
Varsity Kim Larsen, Leonard Lawr, Dale Carlisle, Ralph Lindberg, Dave Roscoe, Ozzie Smith, Ron Edwards, Bryant Sather, Jack Helle, John Price, Chet Hall, Alex Gilbert
