Cruises Not Banned; Regulations Coming

The Office of Student Affairs yesterday stifled rumors that off-campus dances or cruises would be cancelled this year under university regulation, but indicated that next fall students and administrators will take action to initiate and strengthen regulations on student social activities.

Director of Student Affairs, Charles O. Decker said that cruises and off-campus picnics are within the present rules drawn up by the Student-Faculty Committee and Social Co-ordination Council; and he added that present plans call for continued authorization of such events.

According to the announcement of social regulations may result in prohibiting organized group dances being held out of the Moscow community.

Deadline Final
Officials announced that the planned regulation change would also mean that groups must follow the rules more closely. No functions would be entered on the calendar after the deadline set by calendar committee.

Decker pointed out that the calendar committee had in the past been trying to keep out-of-community dances at a minimum without setting up a regulation that prohibited them completely. He said that by this fall all organized group dances may be limited to the Moscow community.

A laxity on following the present rules and the fact that students didn't fully realize all of them was cited as the reason for the possible rule strengthening.

Guide Lists Events
In March of 1955 the Social Co-ordination Council published a social chairman's guide which listed scheduling regulations for social functions.

The regulations were jointly drawn by the Student-Faculty committee and the SCC.

The handbook listed, regarding off-campus functions, "all organized off-campus functions (such as picnics and cruises), which are planned by living groups or other organization, shall be petitioned for and have chaperones in the same manner as on-campus functions. Picnics and cruises, however, do not count as major social functions in figuring for the maximum of four major social affairs allowed each group each year."

The handbook limits living groups to two per semester and no "group social functions may be scheduled on closed nights," or on nights closed by administrative action such as the weekend before final weeks. "The 'Closed Nights' are all campus affairs and are set by the ASUI Executive Board."

The book further listed that all functions must have chaperones, two faculty couples, whose names must be filed at least two weeks in advance of the function.

Petitions for holding and scheduling functions "are to be filed in the Office of Student Affairs at least three weeks in advance of the social affair."

Chemicals Kept In Wood Case Blaze Cause
University officials listed the lived to have been smoldering since building yesterday as chemicals stored in a wooden cabinet on the second floor. The fire was believed to have been smoldering sometime before being discovered, they said.

Considerable damage to a room in the chemistry section was caused by the 6:45 a.m. fire which was discovered by Richard Sorenson, a building janitor. He phoned the alarm into the Moscow fire department.

The fire burned through the wall where the chemical cabinet was located and partition of the small room in the eastern end of the second floor. Water damage was caused to the room below that, officials said. No estimate of damages was given.

Classes were held in the rest of the building yesterday.

Scabbard-Blade Crown Ball Queen Tonia Peterson
Tonia Peterson, Pi Beta Phi, was crowned Military Ball Queen last Saturday by Napier Smith, president of Scabbard and Blade. Chosen by members of the ROTC air force, army and navy, Tonia reigned over a successful dance highlighted by military displays, musical selections by the air force and army choirs, and music by Gary Dosssett's dance band.

Other finalists for Military Ball Queen were Nicki Hull, Kappa Alpha Theta and Pat Riley, Gamma Phi Beta.

Sponsored by Scabbard and Blade military honorary, the dance was open to civilians as well as members of the ROTC. Invitations were also sent to the Professors of military science at the University of Idaho and Washington State college.

BLUE KEY TO ELECT
Blue Key will hold their election for next year's officers today. It is scheduled for 12:40 p.m. in the SUB mezzanine, Dale Carlisle, president, said.

Exec Board Asks For SUB Funds From Book Profits
The Executive Board last night passed a recommendation to be presented to President D. R. Theophilus asking that bookstore profits be used for improvements on the Student Union Building this summer.

The recommendation, presented by ASUI President Dick Weeks, was the last official business carried out by the 1956-57 Board.

The recommendation consisted of a motion made by Al Andrews, a member of the Student Union Committee, passed by the committee.

Weeks explained that many new items should be purchased and old ones replaced throughout the Student Union Building.

The motion included three points: First, it suggested that the SUB should be redecorated and repainted this summer, and that acoustical tile ceilings be installed in the meeting rooms and offices which do not have it now.

Second, it asked that at least 100 chairs be bought to replace the present war surplus wooden chairs used at banquet and meetings. According to the report 60 of the present chairs have collapsed since the start of school in the fall.

The motion also suggested that furniture in bad condition be either replaced or re-covered.

The third point of the motion asked that crowded conditions at the cafeteria and cafe be alleviated by purchasing automatic equipment for dispensing candy, soft drinks, etc.

Weeks pointed out that the SUB is very much under-staffed and in the motion he said he hoped that the recommendation made last year concerning the operational fee be put into effect in the near future.

COSMO GIVES BANQUET
Idaho's Cosmopolitan Club gave a banquet for the Sandpoint Elk's Club Saturday and members of the organization presented two shows for entertainment. The banquet, which included dishes from China, France, Spain, Norway and America, was sponsored by the Sandpoint Kiwanis Club.

ANNOUNCEMENTS HERE
Bookstore manager Chester Kerr said today that senior graduation announcements have arrived and may be purchased at the bookstore.

Inter-Fraternity Council Ball Set Saturday, Semi-Formal
The annual Inter-Fraternity Council Ball set for next Saturday in the SUB ballrooms will be semi-formal this year in order to promote better attendance, Jim Hawkins, dance chairman, said yesterday. The Council hopes to double the amount of couples from the 50 that went to last year's function, he said.

Decorations for the dance include the crests and emblems of the 14 Idaho fraternities on campus, Tom Edwards, decorations chairman, said.

Dick Kerbs, Farm House, and Boyd Barker, ATO, are in charge of programs for the affair. They said programs would be sold at tickets for $1.50 per couple.

The Courdorays, singing quartet from WSC which performed at intermission of the Junior-Senior Prom, will provide a half-hour intermission show.

Music for the dance will be provided by Gary Dossset, Russ Allan, Sigma Chi, is in charge of band arrangements.

Other committee chairmen are Skip Carbon and Doug Randall, Sigma Nu; John Rosholt, Delta; and John Chapman, Phi Delta.

Myrt Williamson Named Next Gem Editor, Ed Seielstad To Guide KUOI
Myrt Williamson, a Kappa junior majoring in history, will serve as editor of the 1958 Gem of the Mountains yearbook. Ed Seielstad, senior majoring in radio and television, will manage radio station KUOI next year.

The appointments were recommended by the Publications Board and approved last night at a meeting of the ASUI executive board.

Miss Williamson will succeed Louise Takko Cummins, a Gamma Phi from Craigmont. Seielstad succeeds Bill Vermillion, Upham Hall. The appointments become effective in September.

Miss Williamson, a native of Lewiston, was editor of her high school yearbook in 1954. She is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary, and of Phi Beta Kappa. She has been active in publicity work for the drama department, and served as treasurer of her living group.

Seielstad expressed yesterday that next year he hopes to broaden KUOI's listening area on the campus through the installation of direct lines to additional living groups. He indicated changes would be made in programming and that a complete revamping will be made of the executive staff.

The new manager attended La-Crosse State College in LaCrosse, Wis., from 1950 to 1952 and again in 1955 before coming to Idaho last fall. He majored in history at La-Cross.

He served this year as production director and director of sports. Seielstad is a veteran having served two years in the Army from 1953-55 including a 15-month tour in Germany. He received his initial training in the Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth, N. J., then went to Germany.

At Ansbach, Germany, he taught in an instructor's training program

Her Gem staff positions have included photomounting editor during her sophomore year, and associate editor this year.

MAY FETE SHOW BEGINS 2 P.M.

Military Queen

Tonia Peterson, Phi Pi, won her second military queen title this year Saturday night at the Military Ball. She was selected by a vote of ROTC cadets in all three branches of the service. She was Navy Queen last fall.

Rehearsal Set Thursday For Members Participating In Weekend Ceremony

Rehearsal for individuals and members of honoraries participating in the May Fete will be held at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Louise Cummins, chairman, announced yesterday. She said the practice would be terminated in time for 1 p.m. classes.

She asked some 120 active participants, including the May Queen and her court, members of Silver Lance, Mortar Board, and Spurs to report to McLean Field or to Memorial Gym in case of rain.

Women taking part in Mortar Board and Spur practices should wear high heels, she said.

Members of singing groups and Orchestras dancers will not have to be present.

The whole group will run through the entire show in preparation for the ceremony scheduled to start at 2 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

Crowd Forecast
The Fete, which is the focal point of three days of activities especially planned for mothers, will draw an estimated 2,100 visitors to the Idaho campus for the Mother's Day weekend. A lge check with local hotels indicated that only a few rooms were still available and that most of those had been tentatively reserved.

Music for the Fete will be provided by the University Concert Band and University Singers. The choral group will sing selections from "Four Chorus" by Gilbert and Sullivan.

The program Saturday will include crowning of May Queen Sue McMahon by ASUI president Dick Weeks, his last public duty as outgoing student leader. Newly-elected president Dave Maxey will then take over as master-of-ceremonies for the rest of the program.

Around Pole
Spurs will present their traditional May Pole dance, with piano accompaniment by Elaine Heber. Orchestras dancers will do two interpretative dances — a Calypso number by Shirley Henriksson and B. J. Schaffer and a progressive jazz presentation led by Rochelle Thornock. The selections are part of a program they will present Friday and Saturday evenings.

Plans call for tapping of Silver Lance and Mortar Board honoraries, presentation of Mortar Board awards, introduction of Ten Top Seniors, announcement of newly-tapped Spurs and presentation of WRA, IK and Alpha Lambda Delta awards.

Mothers will be invited to a public recognition tea for retiring Dean of Women Louise Carter, scheduled to begin at 3:30 p.m. in the SUB North Ballroom.

Ag Banquet Features Queen Selection, Speech Finals

The banquet is held each year to start a full week of contest for students in the College of Agriculture. Members of the Ag Club, sponsoring organization, compete in the 30 different contests.

Participants in each contest receive points which are totaled at the end of the show to determine the winner of the "Outstanding Aggie" award. Trophies are also awarded to the winners of each contest.

The first points toward the top award will be won by the winner of the public speaking contest during the banquet program.

Speakers
Earl Banner will give his 10 minute speech on the Minidoka Valley Irrigation story. Darrell Weber's talk is on what industry expects students to get out of college, and Tom Tjall will speak on the value of a farm wife.

Students receiving keys for participation on ASUI judging teams are Verle Hrabant, Bill Hutchingson, Emil Loe, and Charles Tate for Dairy products judging, and Ron Beal, Dennis Byram, George Beer, Tom Cooper, Chuck Dunham, Phil Edwards, and Larry Pine for dairy cattle judging.

Entertainment scheduled includes Larry Wing and Gary Morgan playing a duet on guitar, and Ralph Watson singing a vocal solo.

Harvey Jensen and Larry Harrop will emcee the event.

Man-Wife Team Figure In One-Act
A man and wife, who are students at the University, will figure in a one-act play to be presented on the U-Hut stage tomorrow and Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Two other one-acts are scheduled for the final drama production of the school year.

"Money Madness," is a psychological play written by Judith Provenal, a radio-TV major, and it is directed by her husband, Ralph. The one-act will receive its premiere in the U-Hut stage.

A farce written by Cherkrov, "The Marriage Proposal," and "The Neighbors," a comedy by Zona Gale, are also on the slate of one-acts. Reservations should be made at the drama office because of the small seating capacity, Jean Collette, director of dramatics, said today.

Included in the "Money Madness" cast are Sunny King, who plays Liz; Bob Payne, as Ed, and Larry Blythe, who portrays Frank.

"The Neighbors," which is directed by Mrs. Lillian Taylor, includes Kaye Angerbauer, as Grandma; Sharon Jenkins, who plays Mis' Abel; Willard Wilson, in the role of Ezra Williams; Sonny Rayborn, Peter; Nan Alvord, portraying Mis' Moran; Marilyn Pritchett, Mis' Trot; Caryl Heth, as Mis' Ellsworth; and Irene Scott, playing Inez.

Taking roles in "The Proposal" show are Darl White, playing Nat-alya; Ken Bartlett, as Ivan, and Bert Allen, as Steponovich. Jane Rensberg is directing the farce.

Burrows Selected As Recipient Of Gold Medal Award
Fred Burrows, an Army ROTC Cadet, has been selected by the National Defense Transportation association as recipient of the gold medal that is annually awarded to the twenty top men in all branches of ROTC throughout the nation. He will receive the award during the annual Spring Review.

Brigadier General R.C. Tripp, assistant chief of transportation, said in a letter to Cadet Burrows, "You have academic standing, participated in campus activities, and held a meritorious record in the ROTC program."

The GOLDEN FLEECE
by Jason

A crackdown lies ahead which will lead to the enforcement of existing and forthcoming rules and regulations—those evil necessities which hold together a University—upon social activities, the counterpart to education.

Gone will be all off-campus dances if legislation is taken next fall to curtail such activities.

Part of the thinking behind the abolition of allowing living groups to sponsor dances in other locations than Moscow leads to the risk taken in driving to and fro and generally this is not in the best interest of the students. This is one stand of the people in the administration who could make such a distinction.

Student's Opinions
But the students have an argument.

In Moscow, the facilities, other than actual living group sites, are not the most desirable for such parties and dances. Off-campus sites give the students a change in entertainment, a change in atmosphere and something different to look forward to.

The present rulings in effect which govern social activities seem adequate, and they need to be followed more closely. (See story.) Such items as submitting petitions to prevent a pile up in scheduling dances (there is a limit of seven per night) and the proper inviting of chaperones.

The students will have a chance to express their opinion next fall when the Student-Faculty committee takes the issue into hand and thumbs. We are alerted that this action is to be taken, so we suggest the students keep awake on this issue and above all start playing ball with the student affairs office in getting these petitions in on time.

Few Chaperones
The faculty and students need to work together to improve the chaperones situation. Faculty people are reluctant to chaperone dances, some say because they are not treated courteously; others say they are just plain not interested, and others comment they do not have the time.

So the student could take heed and put out a little more effort to make chaperoning a dance a pleasure and reach a mutual understanding that the students are more desirous to actually have faculty people as guests, rather than as policemen, a feeling some faculty people have regarding student acceptance of chaperones.

Cruises—Not Dances?
The student affairs office indicates spring cruises and picnics will be allowed as per usual and no formal curtailment of these activities is likely.

So this poses the question, what is the difference between going out of town for a cruise or picnic and going out of town for a dance?

So there is a great deal of ironing out to be done by both the student and the faculty to reach a more regulated and systematic procedure to carry out the social activities on this campus.

We are not in favor of eliminating out of town dancing, we would rather see the students allowed to guide their social lives as mature individuals, rather than part of a group being guided by the hand.

Spring Fever Bites Campus

Our staid old Alma Mater is being undermined by an unconquerable enemy of education.

Nasty, prof-frustrating spring is wrecking havoc with the well-planned, unalterable course of "book larnin'!" We have a feeling the Academic Council would like to abolish it or postpone it until summer.

But what exactly is it doing to the Idaho student? First of all, that annual and much-welcomed tradition of spring dresses with their characteristic U or V necklines is reviving the male population's stubborn belief that there were really female figures under those car coats.

For the women, sun porches take up hours each week. And the sun even cooperates once-in-a-while to add a rational reason to the whole thing. Men are spending those precious hours with the binoculars (a good buy—they can also be used for elk hunting after the local game season) and forfeiting valuable comic book reading-time in the process.

Outdoor movies are also open and if anybody is really interested, we're told the picture can be seen clearly through the rain if the viewer stares in that direction for a while.

The biggest single social function of any springy weekend is the mass picnic on Moscow Mountain, where students continue their constant quest for information by sleeping, eating, talking, writing letters to the editor or doing sundry other things Idahoans enjoy participating in.

Bookin' is best on the Ad Lawn if it's absolutely necessary, so long as the gals take care to sit at not less than a 45 degree angle to the ground. In case you haven't heard yet, this is the law for modesty's sake.

Car washing and dandelion pulling are great for relaxation and the TV set can be moved outside too, along with two or three hi-fi sets, a few radios and a couple of live dance bands to liven up the joint. This is called "The Campus Outdoors" and is well-loved by all.

All these combine to make higher education secondary education (or education secondary as you would have it) and a real pain for the profs and the grade point.

But why worry? We probably won't see another day like this for months. We're living life to its fullest and anyway, in the colloquialism of the season: "Who cares?"

Jim Golden's Camp + eyeing

For those uninitiated into the sacred sect of "art appreciation," the task of deciding whether a painting, especially the modern, "impressionistic" works is not only maddening, it's impossible.

But, surprisingly enough, two groups of judges can't even agree occasionally. As a "for instance," we cite the case of Jan Warner, coed artist who painted four pictures for competition. She entered the quartet in an art contest in Lewiston and won blue ribbons on two, nothing on the others.

Hopefully she brought them back to Moscow for a contest here, submitted them to University judges and won two awards again.

Miss Warner won nothing on the two Lewiston winners, got first prizes on the other two. On Necking, etc. Following up an earlier column concentrate on each other instead and cause acute overexertion for night managers who are ordered to put a stop to such sin.

Forward, March Seven hundred or so sleepy-eyed military cadets are getting their annual peek at military life during early morning drill this week.

They're required to be lined up, jaw set with soldierly determination, at 7 a.m. each morning.

Last Farewell Tearfully, we bid goodbye to the faithful nine who served as the executive board. They pulled up stakes and silently stole away last night as the new board was sworn in.

Goodbye to the free candy, to the M-R combo, to Myrt and to the few ripping good fights across the table. To the new crew — a blast to you all in the coming year.

A Mountain Retreat Moscow Mountain is becoming a virtual annex to the University library as the weather warms.

Off to the shady slopes each weekend go multitudes of studious ones, bent on studying for finals, now 25 days away. So far, the consensus of opinion is that these multitudes have established an astounding record of accomplishing absolutely nothing — bookwise.

In Spite Of WHAT YOU THINK

Rumors are that the forces of repression are about ready to tighten the screws again. How much tougher can they get? And how much more are 1957 college students going to take of 1897 Victorianism?

Not content with already reducing, or attempting to reduce the social life of intelligent, responsible adults in every sense of the word, to the level of so many junior high school kiddies barely past puberty, they now want to make sure that no social events take place outside the confines of this penal colony, where their Gestapo might be less than efficient and the prisoners might forget they were merely on parole and start thinking they were human beings.

Why the degrading restrictions on women? Why the screams of outraged holiness at the mere thought that the boys and girls here might be actually men and women? Why the outcry of holy terror at the mere suggestion that Idaho students actually (whisper) drink? And like banalities, including the incredible farce of RE Week to further attempt to veil this ivory tower in the white robes of pseudo-purity?

Why this attempt to shelter us fledglings behind restrictions that are so out of touch with reality that they are pathetic?

Well, the fact is this: The students of this institution are perfectly willing to assume responsibility in full for their actions. The Administration, however, lacks the courage to let them do it.

Turn on Twentieth Century

Turn on that get a few nasty comments from a few of the hysterical lunatic fringe of imbeciles that let out a howl when somebody attempts to turn on the Twentieth Century and, incidentally, the complete approval of the overwhelming majority of the citizens, they attempt to evade any responsibility at all for the students' actions by hiding behind their big fat wall of Thou Shalt Not. Then, when somebody up here does get into trouble all they have to do is simpler self-righteously and point to the fact that the villain in question violated General Order No. 167-A-1Z and they thus have no blame. After all, if somebody's going to break The Rules, they can't help that.

The devil they can't!

It's about time the Administration woke up to the fact that students are up here to get an education and not to be force-fed with long-dead rules on how to lead the Moral Life. By the time an individual hits college the life he leads may or may not particularly be moral but it's the one he's going to lead for the rest of his span of years and it's none of anybody's blasted business except the duly appointed constabulary. And if the Administration won't

Fifteen Groups Sound Voices For Song Fest

Fifteen singing groups are polishing up musical numbers they will present for competition at Idaho's annual Song Fest Sunday in Memorial Gym at 2:30 p.m.

They will be competing for three trophies awarded to living groups winning men's, women's and mixed divisions. The Darrell Callihan Memorial trophies will be presented to winners of the two single divisions and two traveling trophies will be given to the two living groups winning the mixed division.

The Fest is sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha and Sigma Alpha Iota. Entered in the women's division are Hays and Forney halls, Phi Phi, and Tri-Delt. Men's division entrants are Lindley and Willis Sweet halls, Sigma Nu, Delta Chi and SAE.

Heaviest entries are in the mixed division. Combining are Delta Gamma and Delta Sig, Beta and Kappa, Gault and Forney halls, Sigma Chi and Theta, Gamma Phi and ATO, and Alpha Phi and Fiji.

Bowen Places First In Contest

An Idaho man won first place in the oratorical contest held Thursday through Saturday in conjunction with forensic tournament at Montana State University in Missoula.

Reed Bowen, who spoke on "Education's Dilemma," competed with over 50 entrants in the oratory contest. Thirty colleges and universities from as far east as Minnesota and as far south as California took part in the 11th annual tournament.

Two debate teams, that included Bowen, Dick Sorenson, Richard Hughes and Robert Hill, debated six times each on the national question of direct economic aid. Bowen and Sorenson won four and lost two while Hughes and Hill only won two out of six.

Doctor Albert Whitehead, speech department instructor and Idaho debate coach, accompanied the group to Montana State University. Brigham Young University won both the men's and women's debate divisions.

College Observatory — Series 18 Date Bureaus In College

With ACP Three out of every four college students want to be able to arrange their own dating while attending college. They make it quite clear that dating is a personal prerogative and the college administration should keep its "hands off." But some students feel "date bureaus" might be able to play a useful role in some situations on some campuses.

Students comment on this issue was gathered when Associated Collegiate Press asked the following question of a representative national cross-section of college students:

Do you think colleges should set up "date bureaus" for their students, or do you feel students get their own dates without any trouble?

Yes, set up bureaus	Men	Women	Total
16%	16%	16%
No, students get own dates	74	75	75
Undecided	10	8	9

The figures show that there is little difference in the opinion of college men and women on this question. Students favoring "date bureaus" feel they would be a good thing for shy students, or for freshmen with few acquaintances. Others believe "date bureaus" would be helpful on special occasions, some think boys or girls colleges could make good use of them since students attending these institutions don't have the opportunity that students at co-educational institutions have to meet members of the opposite sex.

Here are a few comments typical of students holding these opinions: "A bureau should be set up for special events such as a banquet when numbers of students don't attend because of no date," is the feeling of a sophomore coed at Mississippi College (Clinton). An Oswego State Teachers College (Oswego, N.Y.) freshman states: "Some of the students are a little shy and a date bureau would help them get started in their social life."

"If it were run right it would be OK. You can meet a lot of nice guys on blind dates. The fun you have is up to the persons," is the way a senior coed at St. Catherine's College (St. Paul, Minn.) puts it, while a University of Arkansas (Fayetteville) senior simply says: "Sometimes it's terribly hard for a boy to get a date." And a freshman coed, also at the University of Arkansas, thinks "it would help shy students."

Students opposed to the idea of "date bureaus" often term the idea "ridiculous." Most state that they can handle their own personal affairs. Others say blind dates just don't seem to work out too well.

"No girl I know would like to think she was unable to get her own date, so I'm sure it would be pretty unsuccessful," is the way a Long Beach City College (Long Beach, Calif.) freshman coed puts it. A Villanova University (Villanova, Pa.) senior thinks that "college life should breed a little initiative in every student and a Northern Illinois State College (DeKalb) freshman coed says: "If they can't get their own dates they should forget it." A Lynchburg College (Lynchburg, Va.) senior says rather emphatically: "I'll handle my own affairs, thank you!"

Students who are undecided on the question form two groups, those who just don't have an

VANDALS TAKE 10-INNING THRILLER 5 TO 4

Lower's Triple Gives Randall Uphill Win

Rightfielder Ralph Lower popped out of a batting slump and tripled home a tenth-inning run yesterday to give the Vandals an uphill victory 5-4 over "Bawlin' Buck" Bailey's WSC Cougars. The victory evened Idaho's Northern Division record at 4-4.

Lower's tremendous belt to right centerfield sent home Shortstop Knute Westergren from second.

Doug Randall picked up his first division win even though he was tagged hard for nine hits.

The Vandals cut loose at the plate for the first time this season and capitalized on base knocks in the latter innings to pull the game out of the fire.

The game was marked by five Cougar fielding errors on a soggy and slippery diamond and outfield.

Randall Hits

With one out in the bottom of the ninth the Vandals tied the game at 4-4 when Randall's sharp single to left field bounced out of Dick Windham's glove and rolled to the bank to allow Mick Polillo to score from first. Polillo had reached first on an error.

Idaho jumped on Cougar Bruce Boldt's "nuthin' pitch" for three runs in the first three innings as Randall retired the Cougars in order. The Cougars started teeing off on Randall's pitches to tie it up in the fifth and finally take a 4-3 lead in the eighth.

The game was the opener of a four game series between Idaho and WSC.

Westergren opened the tenth with a smashing single over the pitcher's mound and was sacrificed to second by First sacker Bill Stellmon.

Lower teed off on Boldt's offerings and knocked several pitches foul to both sides of the plate, then unloaded the triple which rolled nearly to the field house over 400 feet from home plate.

Braden Starts Scoring

Left fielder Ron Braden opened Idaho's half of the first inning reaching first on an error. Centerfielder Jim Throckmorton walked and Westergren smacked a double to left to score both runners.

The Cougars tied it in the fifth on a single, sacrifice and Second baseman's Dwayne Leboy's single and went ahead in the eighth on an error and two consecutive singles.

Randall struck out 11 hitters, six of them in the first four innings and walked but one. His curve was effective but WSC batters dug in for fast balls to connect with base hits.

The Idaho hitting was divided among Throckmorton, Westergren, Lower, Randall and Catcher Gene Arnone who all had two hits.

Fijis Blank Tekes To Take League I Softball Crown

Phi Gamma Delta yesterday won the League I intramural softball crown by shutting out Tau Kappa Epsilon, 8-0.

The Fijis boosted their season record to 6-0 and lead second place Beta Theta Pi by two games, with only one more tilt remaining on the schedule for both teams.

Betas fought to stay in contention yesterday with a smashing 16-0 shutout win over Sigma Nu, but their effort was not enough to keep the Fijis from taking the League I title.

Delta Tau Delta is close to the championship in League II. The Deltas need only take one of their two remaining games to become title holders in that league. They play Alpha Tau Omega today and face Phi Kappa Tau Saturday.

Second place Sigma Alpha Epsilon "frus" win its remaining contest with Farm House Saturday while the Deltas are losing two, to finish in a tie for first in League II.

Lindley Hall 1, leader in League III, has a 4-0 slate but must play three more games. Upham Hall 1, with a 4-1 mark, could conceivably finish in a deadlock for or take undisputed possession of first place.

Upham plays Lindley today in a battle which should determine which team will wear the crown.

Chrisman Hall 2 defeated Lindley 2, by a 9-3 count Saturday to take the lead in League IV with a 4-0 record. Lindley 2 is in second spot with four wins and one loss.

Chrisman 2 also has three tilts left, while Lindley 2 has only two. Both teams, however, will automatically pick up forfeit wins from Idaho Club 2, which has been dropped from the league.

Frosh, Varsity Golfers Win Spokane Meets

Freshman Vandal golfers opened their season Thursday with a convincing 12-0 win over the Whitworth frosh while varsity Idaho golfers blasted Gonzaga 18-9 Friday.

Ray Kowallis led the Vandal yearlings to the one-sided victory over the Pirates at Spokane and took madalid honors with a 72. Bob Pierce, Bill Dyer, and Allan McCown completed the squad.

The frosh will travel to Pullman today for a match with WSC and first year men. Norman Johnson, George Luckhardt, and Gary Ford will make the trip along with Kowallis, Pierce, Dyer and McCown.

Dick Sheppard carded a 3-under par 69 to pace the varsity at Spokane Friday. Other winners for Idaho in individual play were "Rusty" Sheppard and Jack Snyder.

D. Sheppard defeated the top man of the Bulldogs, George Westlar, 2-1. John Rosholt fell to the Zag's second-rated man, J. J. Hagen, 3-0.

The teams of R. Sheppard and Ray Schmidt and Jack Snyder and John Cranston both took 3-0 decisions over their opponents in best-ball action. Idaho divotmen dominated best-ball play, winning the event, 7½ to 1½.

The varsity will also travel to Pullman tomorrow to meet the Cougars in ND competition with a 36-hole match.

Washington Drubs Idaho, Hatton Still Unbeaten

Idaho's nine-man track team took another sound beating Saturday at Neale Stadium, but three of the cindermen turned in their best performances of the 1957 season.

Ray Hatton, the English Express, won the distance runs and set a meet record in the mile. Washington swept eight events to win 111-20.

Three other meet records fell. Hatton maneuvered the mile in 4:18.5, the fastest mile recorded in the Northern Division this season, to better the mark of 4:19.1 set by Idaho runner Warren Johansen in 1952. Hatton is unbeaten in the mile event in dual competition as a sophomore.

The easy striding Hatton mowed down Washington's touted distance runners, Lucci in the mile, and Brannon in the two-mile. Although both men were fresher in competing with the tireless Englishman, Hatton displayed brilliant final lap spurts to win going away.

Hitting Hurler
Hinckley Faces Cougars Today
The winningest pitcher in the Northern Division, Idaho's Steve Hinckley, goes against Washington State in Pullman this afternoon as the two teams wind up a two-game series.

Hinckley has won three and lost none in stopping Oregon State and Washington twice. His big bat has helped his victory cause and he has even been used as an outfielder.

The Vandals go out of the conference Friday to meet Whitworth of the Evergreen conference at McLean Field. Coach Clem Parberry will choose his starter from sophomore Val Johnson or the veteran Clark Anderson.

Idaho has won 4 and lost 4 in Northern Division play and completes the season with two games with Oregon and Oregon State at Moscow and a home two-game series with Washington State May 24 and 25.

Idaho and the rest of the Northern Division squads will point this week to the Division meet Saturday in Pullman.

Riders To Compete In Pomeroy Rodeo

Six Idaho rodeo competitors travel to Pomeroy, Wash., this weekend to host five western schools at the fourth annual University of Idaho sponsored intercollegiate rodeo.

"Tweep" Anderson, Gary Anderson, Jim Barton, Dick Jain, Mary Jo Snyder, and Gail Wolverton will compete with riders from Washington State College, California Poly, Oregon Tech, Eastern Oregon College and Central Washington in the two-day event, co-sponsored since its beginning by the Vandals. They will be accompanied by advisor Harold Hunker.

Five main men's events, bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, calf-roping, bulldoggling, wild cow milking, and Brahma bull riding, will be featured along with two women's events, the cloverleaf barrel race and calf-tying.

Harley Tucker, well-known Northwest rodeo promoter will produce the show. Tucker also stages the world famous Pendleton and Walla Walla roundups.

Idaho fortunes suffered a setback last week when Mel Ruark, a standout member of the Vandal club, sustained a shoulder separation at the Ellensburg College rodeo. He will not be able to compete this weekend.

Anderson picked up a third in the saddle bronc riding section at the Ellensburg affair to be the only Vandal to place.

Idaho riders will enter the Moses Lake rodeo next week and plan to travel to Klamath Falls, in two weeks for the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association regatta.

The top male Vandal cowboy this year will be awarded a trophy next fall by the Idaho State Fair and Rodeo Association. The winner will be picked on the basis of most points gained in all events this season.
