

Idaho Will Join NSA Fold Again

The ASUI Exec Board approved Idaho's continued membership in National Students Association (NSA) Tuesday night by an 8-1 vote after a full two months debate.

At Andrews, member from Gault hall, voted against the proposal.

National NSA dues for Idaho are $120.

The National federation of some 300 American colleges and Universities was set up to function as part of the ASUI organization under a committee of seven members plus a chairman or coordinator.

The Board will decide tonight procedures for selecting committee members. The Board will select the members after interviewing interested students.

Jim Kay, Board member and current local coordinator, said to-

The Exec Board finally made its decision on NSA last Tuesday night and voted 8 to 1 that the ASUI continue to implement it as part of its organization.

Although nothing was mentioned in the decision passed by the board on accepting the organization as a permanent part of student government at Idaho, the fact that a rather complex structure was set up within the ASUI does indicate that as a group the Exec Board believes NSA offers enough benefits to a member school that it should be considered on a permanent basis.

NSA does have some praiseworthy qualities, but on the whole we question the move made by the Exec Board in accepting and "looking toward" a future permanency of the group in the ASUI.

NSA, which has been on questionable basis at Idaho for the last ten years appears to have given its supporters an important foothold in efforts to integrate it within the ASUI.

Foothold
We hope that this foothold is not one of a permanent nature, at least not if NSA under the strong organization by which it will operate this year can show any more real benefits than it has in the past.

On the whole the Idaho student body is unconcerned about NSA, and we'll wager that seven-eighths of the Idaho students could not explain NSA's barest essentials or its supposed beneficial functions.

Unknown
We question why students' money should be spent for such an organization which is comparatively unknown to the bulk of the Idaho students and what profit may be obtained from a set up that will benefit only a fraction of the students.

This organization like others on campus costs all of the students money and shows benefits for only a few, but to us no other group has now the permanency and the strength that the Exec Board is giving NSA.

NSA in its new position in the ASUI will have to contribute a great deal toward benefits for all of the students than it has in the past before it will be worth traveling expenses for conventions or the $120 for dues again next year.

Theta Chi Debaters Defeat SAE Team For Championship

Theta Chi debate team won the men's intramural debate championship last Monday, after they defeated the SAE team.

Delta Sigma Rho, national debate honorary presented the trophy to the victorious team last night at a Theta Chi meeting.

Members of the winning team were Paul Baker and Jay Eacker. The SAE team members were Dave Briggs and Bill Barker.

Theta Chi team copped the title by successfully debating the topic, "Resolved: That compulsory membership in a labor organization as a requirement of employment should be illegal."

Weekend Trips Bring No Mishaps

Vacationing Idaho students returned to Moscow over icy highways Sunday without mishap, Idaho State Police reported Monday.

An estimated five hundred students made the Thanksgiving vacation a five-day holiday and did not begin their return trips until late Saturday and early Sunday morning.

One minor accident near Moscow was reported Friday when a car driven by Frank J. Jasper, 23, Idaho Club, plunged over a 30-foot embankment four miles east of the city.

Jasper was treated for a slight concussion, cuts on the chin and bruises. Damage to the automobile was estimated at $200.

Otherwise, the weekend was a quiet one, with Idahoans observing the holiday with traditional Thanksgiving turkey in most living groups.

A seasonal snowfall sent many students to ski slopes and others drove to Spokane, Lewiston and Coeur d'Alene for a day.

Musical Score For Comedy Available Now

Musical scores from "Kiss Me, Kate" and also dialogue parts should be obtained before students tryout for parts in the musical Saturday morning, Jean Collette, co-director of the show, explained today.

Harry S. Morrison, co-director in charge of the musical half of the show, is distributing script music for "Kate" at the music building, while Miss Collette has copies of the speaking parts at the drama department.

Eight men and eight women are needed to complete the chorus ranks. Auditions for them will be held, starting at 9 a.m., in the University auditorium, Saturday.

Soloists' roles for three men and three coeds will be selected after they tryout at 10 a.m. Everyone who is trying out for a speaking part—either singing or non-singing—must be on stage at 11 a.m.

Miss Collette pointed out that there are parts for nine men, who do not have to sing. There are no parts where women do not have to sing, however.

Students should be prepared before appearing on stage Saturday morning in order for tryouts to run smoothly, according to Miss Collette.

Dr. Charles Shaw To Speak On Plants

The WSC delegate to the International Plant Congress in Paris this year will direct a Plant Science seminar in the lower lounge of the Faculty club at 4:10 p.m. Thursday, it was announced today.

Dr. Charles Gardner Shaw, mycologist, (fungi study) and plant pathologist, at Washington State College, will speak on the "Species Concept."

Sale Of Keys Ends Friday

Kampus Key house salesmen will receive a second allotment of student directories and turn in money they have collected for sales today at 12:30 p.m. at the SUB Cloak room, Dick Kerbs, sales co-chairman said yesterday.

Kerbs said over 600 Keys have been sold to date and he hopes to finish sales by living group representatives by this Friday. Keys sell for 50 cents each.

After Friday, he added, students would be able to purchase directories in the ASUI office in the SUB.

The publication is a 122 page booklet, published each year by Blue Key, upperclassmen's service honorary. It contains names, campus and home addresses, majors, and school year of all Idaho students. The directory also has a complete list of faculty and administrative personnel.

New ASUI Comm. Members Approved By Exec Board

Memberships on one ASUI committee and student representatives on the University Commencement committee were approved by the ASUI Exec Board last Tuesday night.

The Board also approved members to the student recruitment committee to replace vacancies created by three students resigning to take other ASUI positions.

Senior class president Mike Patton, Beta, and Lorraine Langdon, Theta, senior class secretary, were recommended to be student representatives on the commencement committee.

This committee works out the physical plans for commencement exercises each year.

Karen Bunjer, Theta; George Betonneau, Fiji; and Bob Overstreet, Gault; were appointed to work with chairman Jan White, Kappa, on the Athletic Coordination committee.

This committee plans student rallies for athletic events, half-time programs, and promotes student spirit and support for athletic teams.

Nan Alvord, Kappa, was appointed co-chairman of the student recruitment committee to replace Marilyn Nugget, Pi Phi, who resigned to become secretary for ASUI President Dave Maxey.

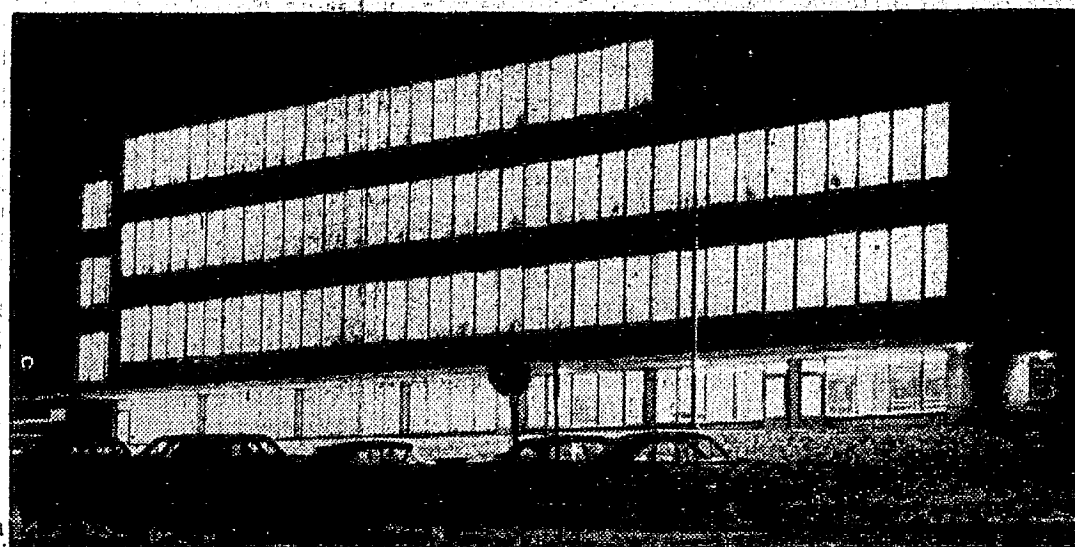

Fred Ringe, Sigma Nu, replaced Miss Alvord as regional director in the Pocatello area. Charlene Wells, Theta was appointed student recruitment secretary.

In future actions of the board, a Campus Chest committee will be appointed to handle the annual spring Campus Chest drive and carnival.

The Exec Board last Tuesday night passed a recommendation that the committee selecting body appoint Junior Class officers to Campus Chest committee positions.

Holly Queen Election Slated For Friday Noon

by Nan Alvord

Sophomore Holly Week plans were set in motion this week with the selection of Queen candidates by women's living groups and appointment of Holly Week committees.

Candidates include Mary Margaret Brown, Alpha Chi; Rose Kimpton, Ethel Steel; Sharon Matheny, Alpha Phi; Trena Atchley, Forney; Mary Walcott, Tri-Delt; Darlene Johnston, Hays; Louise Neff, Delta Gamma; Pat Riley, Gamma Phi; Fran Baudek, Theta; Joyce Weaver, Kappa; June Hoalst, Pi Phi, and Janet McDevitt, French.

Preliminary elections will be held Friday noon, according to Queen contest co-chairman Marlin Beckwith. Five finalists will be picked for the crown, and will be announced during a Style Show, scheduled for 4 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 11, in the Bucket.

Sophomores will serenade campus living groups on Thursday, Dec. 12, and will hold an all-class "get-together" after the serenade. A final election will take place sometime next week to pick the queen, who will be crowned during intermission of the Holly Dance on Saturday, Dec. 14.

The dance, scheduled for 9-12 p.m. Saturday in the SUB Ballroom will feature music by the Embers and intermission entertainment will be provided by the "Four Chords" from WSC. Theme of this year's dance will be "Crystal Christmas," sophomore president Chub Anderson said.

Committees were appointed and the theme picked at a meeting of interested sophomores held last Thursday, Anderson explained.

Partisan Nature Rules Out Senator's Speech In Gym

The University Executive Committee Monday ruled out the appearance of Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) at Memorial Gymnasium Dec. 11, but left the way open for a future policy change.

The committee said it would take no action on a request to make the freshman senator's speech a public events assembly and would refer the problem to the Board of Regents for action. Regents will not meet until Dec. 12, one day after Church's scheduled appearance.

University rules forbid the use of school facilities for political instruction or speeches. The Regents, however, ruled several years ago that the SUB could be used for such partisan gatherings.

Regents Review

The Executive Committee said that "because of the nature of the recommendation, which entails the shortening of classes, it has been determined that the matter shall be reviewed by the Regents in formal session so that this and similar requests will all have equal treatment."

The committee said the request

Physical Ed. Meeting Theme Is Recreation

The why and how of recreation will be the underlying theme of the 11th annual meeting of the Idaho Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation to be held at the University of Idaho on Saturday and Sunday.

Harvie Walker of Lewiston, president of the association, will open the meeting at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in the Student Union building.

Dr. Leon G. Green, head of the physical education department at the University, will conduct a forum on the topic.

Featured speaker at the association banquet Friday evening will be Golden Romney, dean of the college of physical education at WSC.

A coaching clinic conducted by leading high school and college coaches will highlight the Saturday morning sessions in both the women's and men's gymnasiums. University of Idaho head football coach Skip Stahley will be in charge of the football session. He will be assisted by the Vandal football team, which will demonstrate tactics.

Seth Parkinson of Moscow and William Eitmers of Grangeville will take offensive and defensive basketball techniques. A taped interview with Harry Combes, Illinois basketball coach, will be played during the session.

Don Weiskopf of the university coaching staff and Gabby Williams of Lewiston will cover baseball, and Idaho track coach Joe Glander will discuss track and field events. Special coaching booklets will be given to each person attending the clinic.

'Cruel Sea' Movie Bill For Thursday

"The Cruel Sea" is on tap in the Borah theater Thursday, Betty Bovey, Gamma Phi, ASUI Movie chairman said today.

Jack Hawkins stars in the British film, which has a two-hour running time. The movie is based on Eric Ambler's best-selling novel of the same name.

A gripping drama, "The Cruel Sea" recounts the moods and problems of the men who directed the actions of the British navy during World War II, Miss Bovey explained.

The movie will be shown at 4, 7, and 8:30 p.m. Admission is 35 cents.

Honorary Requests Men Obtaining 3.0

Phi Eta Sigma, freshmen men's scholastic honorary, requested the names of any freshmen male students who obtained a grade average of 3.0 or above for the mid-term period, Terry White, Fiji, said today.

Those eligible for this honorary are requested to turn in their names to White, Bob Pierce, Sigma Nu, or Dennis Hargreaves, Willis Sweet, before Friday.

United Drive Will Draw 500 Students This Evening

A long fire siren blast at 6:45 p.m. tonight will kick off a "March on Moscow" house-to-house campaign by over 500 members of Idaho's freshman class to wrap-up the city's United Fund Drive.

$185 Collected For Fifth Man In Club Drive

A total of $185 was collected in the "Fifth Man" cross country drive which closed last Tuesday, according to Jerry Jorgenson, 'I Club president.

Jorgenson announced that through the donations of living groups and Moscow residents, the fund exceeded the $150 goal by $35. The Exec Board voted to turn the excess funds over to the 'I Club treasury last Tuesday.

The fund was set up when the athletic department was able to send only four men to the Conference meet which the Idaho squad won.

The 'I Club took over the drive and successfully collected the fund to send a five-member team to Los Angeles.

Jorgenson expressed satisfaction over the outcome of the drive.

"We are very happy that the 'I Club could be of assistance in helping Idaho send a strong team to the important meet, and would like to thank all of the students and groups that contributed," Jorgenson said. "We are sure that the University and the students in general will benefit from the championship won by the group this weekend."

Knights Drawn To Spokane By Convention

Members and officers of Idaho's Intercollegiate Knight chapter are planning to attend a Regional Convention in Spokane this Saturday, Neal Newhouse, president, said today.

The local IKs will take part in discussion groups and special workshop sessions to exchange project and activity ideas, as well as plan regional and national programs for the coming year.

The meeting, one of two held each year by chapters at seven schools in Northern Idaho, and Eastern Washington and Oregon, is being sponsored by chapters at Whitworth College and Gonzaga University, Dick Jensen, regional chairman, from WSC is in charge of the convention.

One of the main features of the session will be demonstration of group dynamics and discussion groups techniques for conducting meetings by National President Don Ingle from Idaho.

Other National officers attending the meeting are John Chapman, vice-president from Idaho, and Harry Brewer, chapter and public relations officer from Eastern Washington College of Education.

National IFC OKs Manner In Frat Member Selecting

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—A National Interfraternity Conference here Friday unanimously approved a report declaring that college fraternities have the right to choose their members by their own standards.

The report, drafted by a special autonomy committee, asserted that fraternities "have a fundamental American right" to select their own friends.

"Choosing of one's own friends and associates," said the report, "is a social right which cannot be confused with civil rights."

The report was approved by representatives of 61 college Greek organizations attending the three-day meeting.

Fraternities have recently been under fire for denying membership to certain racial and religious groups.

Frosh house representatives will meet at 6 p.m. tonight in the central ballroom of the SUB to receive instructions from the class officers and United Fund committeemen on procedures for soliciting donations.

Living group members will meet at the ballroom at 6:30 to be briefed by their representatives. Over 60 cars, driven by Moscow residents, will transport students to districts to start the campaign.

Frosh president Bruce McCowan, said today the city had been divided into 33 districts, one for each living group, on the basis of living group size.

The campaign is scheduled to last until about 8:30 when the students will return to the SUB in cars to turn in the money they have collected, have coffee and donuts, and dance for a couple of hours in the Ballrooms.

McCowan said freshmen women would be excused from study table and would not have to return to their living groups until 10:30.

Music for the mixer will be furnished by a five piece orchestra headed by Dave Trail, Sigma Chi. After the band plays for an hour records will be used.

The United fund collects money for nine agencies each year in Moscow. At the present time $16,935 of a $25,000 goal has been collected.

Spencer Lewis, Moscow mayor, will address the frosh at the start of the mixer, McCowan said.

John Murray, United Fund committee chairman, said that he and his committee of 12 people were very pleased with the enthusiasm of the University freshmen in helping the city complete its drive which has been going seven weeks.

Murray said that the students would contact all homes in the city, even those that display the emblem showing that they have made a contribution.

"Many people have said that they would be able to contribute more toward the $25,000 goal when the students conduct their campaign," he added.

Students will travel in pairs during the collection part of the drive. Each pair will have an envelope with instructions for collecting funds, receipt booklets, emblems, and pins for each donor.

Members of the Moscow committee have received donations of over 60 dozen donuts and 15 lbs of coffee to feed the Frosh. Members of the Rotary, Lions, and Kiwanis Clubs are being asked to furnish cars for transporting the students.

Hunter Not Lost; Just Left Behind By Friends

A search for John Davis, an Idaho graduate student, was cancelled Saturday because the off-campus student appeared on the scene suddenly and claimed he hadn't been lost at all.

During a weekend deer hunting spree with five other Idaho students, Davis failed to return to a meeting spot at a proposed time. The other five men drove back to Moscow, where they began to organize a search party.

When Davis discovered he had been left, he decided to walk to town. "I knew where I was all the time and could see town," he said.

The group had been hunting in the vicinity of Tomer Butte, southeast of Moscow.

Spurs Plan Party For Orphan Home

Idaho Spurs are going to the orphan's home just out of Lapwai for a Christmas party this Saturday.

Carolyn Dempsey, president, said that the orphans will be given party treats and will play games to get the Christmas spirit just like all other children.

IKs will furnish transportation.

Idaho Fights Africa's Battles

Idaho is about to be drawn into the vortex of a movement to reform the world, or at least a part of it.

The Executive Board of this school tonight will be asked to throw the ponderous weight of the University of Idaho into the international field to condemn "apartheid" in South Africa.

Apartheid, for the benefit of those who do not read Time magazine regularly, is a system set up in the Union of South Africa to segregate the natives from the whites and thus give the Boer immigrants control of the government.

This segregation situation is regrettable, but what we ask has the University of Idaho, which is 10,000 miles from the scene, got to do with forcing the whites in that country to give their "subjects" equality?

The answer is simple. The organization, which bears the high-flown name of the American Committee on Africa and a page-long list of adherents, wants money. They also want a campus-wide Day of Protest Dec. 10 to show Idaho's strong feeling against this injustice.

Herein lies the incongruity of this whole affair. While most of us in Idaho — we repeat, most of us — deplore the problem that was so recently evident at Little Rock, Ark., we are not ready to finance a drive to run the affairs of another nation.

The cost of this undertaking is not stipulated, but the proponents of the plan ask that we help by "financially supporting" the committee. That would run over $100 to be of any aid at all.

The situation is, on the whole, a little humorous when one considers that we have a problem at home that needs a remedy. The money could well be used in that direction and it's even doubtful if some students' want enforcement of integration on the South.

Probably the most humorous point of all is the "Day of Protest" this committee wishes us to participate in.

It's not spelled out as to what sort of protest this group would prefer. Were it not so cold outside, we would suggest a huge torchlight rally with a half-dozen cheerleaders screaming something to the effect, "Two, four, six, eight. They ARE going to integrate."

Or we could simply think about man's inhumanity to man that day.

Boiled down to essential elements, we ask the Executive Board this: what possible good can be obtained from supporting something which has little or nothing to do with us, especially when we have not cleaned up our own mess at home.

Such sweeping changes do not come from banner-waving groups haranguing against the established policy of another nation. If the United States as a whole sees fit to place the weight of its formidable diplomatic power against this situation, then let them do so.

Thus far, there has been no indication that either the people of the United States or their elected representatives have any desire to protest formally.

Until that time comes — and it may at some later date — we would prefer to let the South Africans work out South African problems while we look after Little Rock.

If the Board wishes to give paper consent to this movement, there should be no objection, since Idaho would simply be placed on a list with a hundred other colleges.

However, we strongly suggest that Idaho neither use student funds to help finance this cause nor announce a completely ineffective "protest." That would be doing the 3,800 students here a grave injustice and would be beyond the power of that small body.

Science is noted for its methodical approach to the questions of the Earth, the universe and possibly beyond; but it has a regrettable habit of tripping over its own seven-league sized feet occasionally.

Such was the case of a British scientist last week who, according to Newsweek magazine, solemnly announced to the world it was aerodynamically impossible for bumble bees to fly.

This gentlemen, after two years study of the little insect, says he cannot find any scientific reason why the buzzing animals should be able to take to the air.

Despite the astute researcher's warning, bumble bees are still flying all over the world. Maybe they just haven't taken the hint.

"Morning, Sir" It is an established military custom that Air Force enlisted men shall salute their superior officers wherever and whenever they meet outside a building.

This is the case at Idaho with ROTC cadets who exchange salutes at every opportunity.

But there is an extra problem here. Officers living in a group with the noncoms find it hard to get their lower ranking friends to extend this courtesy. And they prefer not to give out demerits.

This was the plight of one second lieutenant who was having a hard time getting his friends to salute him and was on the verge of handing out a few dozen demerits to consolidate his position.

He was surprised one morning when two of these erring friends approached him on campus, shot up a salute and went on their way.

The surprised lieutenant approached them later in the day to thank them for taking the hint. His recently-increased ego was deflated, however, when he found out both had saluted him with the wrong hand.

Students Look For Housing During Yule

Some 17 students from foreign countries on the Idaho campus have been invited to stay in American students homes during Christmas vacation as the result of a program approved by the ASUI Exec Board last week.

The program of placing all willing foreign students in American homes during the vacation was presented by Board member Lowell Martin after the group had passed a policy statement dealing with international students.

The statement said: "The ASUI Executive Board realizes the importance of good relations with foreign students, American students, the faculty and the administration on the Idaho campus. It will sanction all reasonable efforts for the promotion of beneficial relations."

Lee Watenpaugh, president of the International House, and Martin were appointed chairmen of a committee to find students interested in the program.

Watenpaugh said that students interested in inviting foreign students to his home could contact him, phone 36642 at the International House.

Watenpaugh said there are 42 foreign students on campus who might be interested in the program, but all of them had not been contacted as yet.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

"I looked at all the angles"

Howard R. Winter, B.B.A., Texas A. & M., '51, is now a Commercial Manager with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Houston, Texas. He's in charge of 30,000 telephone accounts and a staff of 36 people. Howard's interest in a telephone career dates from his first interview with a telephone company representative. "I looked at all the angles," he says. "We discussed pay and chances for advancement, which looked excellent because of the rapid growth of the Bell System. We talked about many different kinds of work, and about what would be expected of me." After receiving his degree in business administration, Howard joined Southwestern Bell's Commercial Department. "It was natural for me," he says. "I have a business background, I like to sell and make contacts. "My training gave me a really solid foundation in the business. Two years in the Army interrupted it, by the way, but the two years were credited to my telephone company records and count toward all benefits. After I'd returned and finished my training, I was made a business office supervisor. And since February, 1956, I've been a Commercial Manager in Houston. Each assignment I've had has been a real challenge and has presented a tremendous opportunity to contribute to and advance in the business."

Be sure to investigate the career opportunities for you in the 17 Bell Telephone Companies serving all 48 states. On your campus the local company represents the others. For more information about these career opportunities, read the Bell Telephone booklet on file in your Placement Office, or write for "Challenge and Opportunity" to: College Employment Supervisor, American Telephone and Telegraph Co., 195 Broadway, New York 7, New York.

HARRIERS COP COAST CROWN

Wyatt Pushes SC's Truex To Lead Vandals To Win

Powered by the running of Frank Wyatt, Idaho won the PCC cross country championship at Los Angeles Saturday, downing favored Oregon in the process.

Wyatt, who finished second, battled the eventual individual winner, Max Truex of USC, on even terms for the first 2 1/2 miles of the four mile course, but Truex pulled away to win.

Wyatt had led for the first mile and a half and finished only 200 yards behind Truex, who had won the U. S. championship last weekend in Lansing, Mich.

"There were 44 runners in the meet," Vandal coach Joe Glander said yesterday, "and it was the toughest course we've ever run."

He lauded the team, calling the effort "truly outstanding." Idaho's Ray Hatton finished sixth, with Vandals Ron Adams seventh and Dick Boyce tenth.

Boyce vs. Bailey The final outcome of the meet hinged on a battle between Vandal Boyce and Oregon's great distance star Jim Bailey.

Boyce fell behind Bailey on the down-hill grades but was stronger on the up-hills and outkicked the Duck star, first man to break the four minute mile in the United States, to win.

Final team scores for the Los Angeles meet were: Idaho, 25; Oregon, 31; UCLA, 58; USC, 67; California, 72; Stanford, 90; Washington, 95; and Washington State, 112. Oregon State did not enter.

Truex set a new course record in winning, racing the distance in 20 minutes, 32.6 seconds. Wyatt was clocked in 21:05.1 and Oregon's Jim Grelle in 21:14.

Glander felt the Vandal cross country squad should be even stronger next year as every man on this year's team is either a sophomore or junior.

The club won the Northwest AAU and British Columbia Invitational meets in addition to the

Kramer, Walker Drafted By Pros; Trio To Shrine

Vandal linemen Jerry Kramer and Wayne Walker both added their second honor in three days yesterday when they were drafted by the National Football League.

Walker and Kramer, along with Idaho end Larry Aldrich, were selected to play in the East-West game, Saturday.

The burly hard-tackling pair were among the 48 players chosen by the 12 NFL squads in the first four rounds of the draft yesterday.

Kramer was grabbed by the Green Bay Packers, while the Detroit Lions plucked Walker. NFL teams annually stage the first four rounds of their draft at this time of the year, and complete the operation in January when about 200 other players are picked.

Aldrich, Walker and Kramer became the first trio of Vandals in one year ever to be selected for East-West game play, Saturday.

Only two other clubs, Baylor and Southern Methodist, landed three players on the West Squad.

Idaho athletic publicity director Ken Hunter said yesterday that he believed it was the first time in history that three Vandals had been named in one year.

Only once since 1937 has more than one Idaho player been selected, he added.

Twenty-one other gridders were named to the 1957 West squad by head coach Jack Curtice of Utah, and his assistants, Tommy Prothro of Oregon State, and Sam Boyd of Baylor.

Both the East and West will begin practice later this month in preparation for the annual battle, set for Dec. 28 at San Francisco's Kezar Stadium.

Aldrich, Kramer, and Walker had all been highly rated in various PCC all-star squads named in recent weeks.

Aldrich was well on his way to topping his terrific total of 30 receptions last year when he injured a shoulder and was forced to the bench.

Later, he injured a leg and did not see any action against WSC in the Idaho season finale. Nevertheless, PCC sportswriters saw fit to honor him for outstanding work earlier.

Walker proved to be perhaps the best linebacker in Idaho history, defensively keeping the Vandals in many games when the offense had sputtered.

Kramer, a 60-minute player and Idaho's prime All-America candidate, drew praise from every rival the Vandals played. He bulkmarked the defense and was no less potent in carrying out blocking assignments.

Idaho's basketball team should carry a new look in many ways this season, not the least of which being a distinctive nickname for every member of the squad.

The monickers include: John (Real Loose) Liveious, Whyallon (Rachorce) Coleman, Bill (Pee-wee) Wilson, John (Stub) Cisna, Jim (Tree) Branom, Dick (Bones) Gilberts.

Teamwise, Idaho scored 140 points to 108 for their opponents, chalked up 1550 yards rushing to their opponents 1175, and made 1122 yards through the air to 926 yards for opponents.

Sophomore Theron Nelsen, who carried only three times, led the club in rushing with a 7.3 yard-per-carry average. Ken Hall was the total yards rushing leader with 414 for a 4.0 average.

Oddly enough, Gary Kenworthy outgained Howard Willis through the air, although playing only spasmodically.

He accumulated 579 yards to Willis' 560. Willis, however, picked up 933 yards on total offense to Kenworthy's 716.

Cagers Top Montana In Season Opener

The second half sharpshooting of Gary Simmons and Harold Damiano woke up the Idaho attack and led the Vandals to a 65-56 win over the Montana Grizzlies in the season opener for both at Memorial Gymnasium last night.

Both teams suffered from first game jitters during the first half. Idaho left at the intermission with a 28-26 lead but was much sharper during the second half.

A combination of Gary McEwen at center, Jim Branom and Damiano at forwards, and Simmons and Whyallon Coleman at guards lit the spark to the second half Vandal blaze.

Simmons tallied 13 of his 17 points during the last half to pace the Vandal cagers.

Damiano, runnerup to Simmons for Vandal scoring honors, delivered eight of his 14 points during the second half.

Guard Clarence Waters, an outstanding set shot artist and forward Jim Powell led Grizzly scorers with 15 points apiece. Forward Darroll Dunham swished the net for 13.

Both teams were cold from the field, Idaho hitting 27 per cent of its shots in the first half and 29 per cent in the second. Montana hit 22 per cent in the first half and 24 per cent in the second.

Vandal John Liveious, who bucketed six points in the first half pulled a leg muscle and did not play in the second half.

One of the major factors in the Idaho win was the complete inability of Grizzly center Russ Sheriff to hit the basket. Sheriff was bottled up by Vandal defenses all night.

In a preliminary battle, the Idaho frosh, with guard Bruce McCowan scoring 17 points, trounced the Yakima Valley JC's, 65-58.
