

Church Speech At 4 In SUB Tomorrow

Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho), whose scheduled one-day visit here has incited two weeks of controversy, will present a "partisan" address at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Student Union Building's middle ballroom.

The junior senator, who is making his first visit to Latah County since last summer, is expected to discuss a series of recent world developments including Russian scientific advances. John Chapman, president of the sponsoring campus Young Democrats, said open discussion would follow Church's remarks.

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Gagon

Senator Frank Church will make a "partisan" speech to a group of students Wednesday in the SUB and will not be able to appear before the entire student body in a University owned structure because of an outmoded University policy.

So stands the issue, and so it will continue to stand, we fear, on this and similar situations which may arise for some time in the future.

An editorial appearing in Sunday's Lewiston Tribune pointed out that the Argonaut's editorial on the issue last Friday was well intended, but missed the point in discussing the hassle over Church's right to address the students in a University building on University time.

The Tribune article pointed out that the Arg effort on the same point "stated the nub of the issue rather well," but did not get to the base of the trouble.

The feeling of the Lewiston writer seemed to be that the Arg article implied that the outmoded policy is the responsibility of the administration and not the Board of Regents.

In the editorial the Tribune pointed out that the Regents should not act at the present time while the controversy is still fresh in the minds of the students and other interested people.

Quiet Meeting
The article advocated that the Regents wait until "some quiet meeting when the issue is not before the board in specific and therefore controversial form, to re-interpret the University charter to encourage free discussion of public issues in Public Events lectures."

We are sure that this will be the procedure the Regents will follow and fear that this "wait" by the group may be a rather long one.

The University policy definitely is outmoded and should be changed in the near future. If as the Tribune suggests, the Regents do not feel they can interpret the questionable clause in the charter this freely they should then ask the Idaho Legislature to amend it at its next session.

Church will return to Lewiston for a Senate subcommittee hearing on public roads Thursday. Church will be making his speech amid a drawn-out controversy over the University of Idaho's policy banning political speakers from property owned by the institution.

Last week student Young Democrats and Young Republican leaders joined in a recommendation to the Board of Regents asking that the group consider a revision in their policy.

Old Landmark, Cedar Hall, Being Razed

Cedar Hall, a landmark on the Idaho campus for almost one-half century, is slowly being torn down by University workers under the guidance of George Gagon, head engineer here.

The ancient frame building "is in very poor condition, which is not fitted for any use, and could prove a fire hazard," Gagon explained.

Located across from Lindley Hall next to the Home Management House, the old building has served as the infirmary, a Phi Delta fraternity house, a man's living group, and a musical recital hall.

Back in the 1920's, when Cedar Hall served as the infirmary, two doctors were located in the building. Patients were placed in the next-door Home Management House.

No plans have been issued at the present time as to future construction when the lot is vacated.

Montana State Tops Debaters

Montana emerged as winners in the triangular debate tournament from WSC and Idaho, when the schools met in Missoula during the weekend. The University teams placed last.

Representing Idaho were Lowell Martin, Willis Sweet, and Richard Hughes, off-campus; and Richard Sorenson and Reed Bowen, Lindley.

The first team chalked up only one win and three losses; Sorenson and Bowen had a 2-2 record. Each team faced WSC and Montana twice.

The next major debate tournament which Idaho will participate in is the Inland Empire meet to be held here in January.

'Kiss Me Kate' Rehearsals Strive For February Date

Rehearsals for "Kiss Me, Kate" started last night after the entire company of cast and crews met in the U-Hut for preliminary instructions from co-directors Jean Collette and Harry S. Morrison.

A 16-member chorus for the musical practiced their part in the show at the University auditorium under Morrison's guidance, while the rest of the cast read the script at the U-Hut before Miss Collette.

Production date for the show is set for Feb. 27, 28, and March 1. The joint music and drama department venture had a $1,000 budget approved Nov. 5 by the Executive Board.

Cast
Named student assistants to the director were Rose Marie Perrin and Diane Kail.

The tentative cast includes Lawrence Black, Fred; Austin Bergen, Harry; Mary Jane Milbrath, Lois; Charles Tovey, Ralph; Joan Fisher, Lilli; Carolle Davis, Hatti; Dick Cripe, doorman.
Dwight Patton, Paul; Bert Allen, Bill; Cliff Cook and Nathan Yost, gangsters; Ed Vandervort, Harrison Howell; Wayne Benson, Gremio; Graham Knox, Hortensio; Malcolm Alexander, Nathaniel; Dick Katzenberger, Gregory; Bob Moe, Phillip, and Tom Baldwin, haberdasher.

Singing in the chorus are Ilone Hinckle, Carol Brunzell, Sylvia meet until Dec. 12, one day after Church's appearance. The Senator himself has made no public statement about the discussion which was initiated by his visit, but the Lewiston Tribune Sunday scored the Regents for their previous rulings and asked for a change.

Sen. Church's speech at the SUB Wednesday afternoon is one of four public appearances on his Moscow itinerary.

He will lunch with Young Democrats at noon in the Frontier Room of the SUB and will address the Idaho chapter of Bench and Bar at 2 p.m. The Senator's final appearance is set for 6:30 p.m. at a banquet meeting of Latah County Democrats at the Idaho Hotel. Chapman said students interested in attending the meeting could secure reservations by calling him at the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Tickets are $1.75.

Youngest Senator
Church, who is the youngest member of the United States Senate at 33, started his career in national politics in 1956 when he defeated the late Sen. Herman Welker for the seat.

During his initial session, he was a key figure in the boiling Hells Canyon debate and was co-sponsor of a "jury trial" amendment which emerged during a prolonged battle over a civil rights bill that body finally passed. Passage of the measure marked the adoption of the first piece of civil rights legislation since the Civil War.

Vandaleers To Present Annual Concert Sun.

The Idaho Vandaleers—60 voices strong—will present their traditional Candlelight Concert at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Memorial Gym. Professor Glen Lockery, group director, has plans to include choral music ranging from compositions of the early church to modern carols and Christmas hymns.

An Idaho music faculty member, William Billingsley, has composed a special Christmas fanfare, "Voluntary for Brasses and Organ," which will be played during the first part of the program.

Another faculty member, Harry Morrison, will be guest soloist.

Those students selected to sing solos are Clark Anderson, Barry Binning, Dorothy Jacobsen, Donald Jenny, Greg Knapp, Jane Lange, Shirley Lovgren, Anne Lyons, Mary Milbrath, Billie Sommers and Judith Folkens.

Portions of the concert will be recorded by the Radio-TV Center for radio stations throughout Idaho.

FASHION SHOW TO START WEEK

While Debate Rages

Sen. Frank Church, around whom a debate on school political policy is now centered, will appear at the Student Union Building Wednesday to present a "partisan" speech.

Miss Berry Is Crowned New Navy Color Girl

Ann Marie Berry, Alpha Phi, was crowned Navy Color Girl Friday night during the second annual Navy Ball, sponsored by Eagle and Anchor honorary.

Approximately 100 couples watched as Capt. John Wyckoff, Navy professor, crowned Miss Berry. Last year's queen, Tonia Peterson, Pi Phi, presented the queen's trophy.

Serving as princesses were Sandy Wright, Hays; Kay Bozarth, Kappa; Carol Harvey, Forney; and Mary Garney, Ethel Steel. They also received trophies.

Serving punch were Cadets Bob Barrett, Chrisman; Orvil Sears, Gault; Rod Mayer, McConnell; Dave Marks, Campus Club, and George Barr.

The SUB ballrooms were divided into two sections—the exhibit room, which featured guns, ships, and various other navy displays and the ballroom for dancing.

Under the supervision of Cal Lui, Lindley, the decorations included a throne for Miss Berry, an 18-foot sunken boat, a coral garden, and a 20-foot fish net, which was draped around the room.

Many Children To Meet Santa At Xmas Party

Santa Claus will greet children of faculty members and students at the annual Christmas party Sunday, Shirley Jackson, vice-president of Dames Club, announced today.

The annual affair will be held in the SUB ballrooms from 2-4 p.m. The party is sponsored by the ASUI, SUB, Faculty Women, Dames Club and Foresterettes.

Over 700 children attended last year's party, Gale Mix, ASUI general manager, said.

Entertainment will be furnished and games will be played.

Astronomy Course Will Be Offered Second Semester

A desire to learn more about the universe and outer space is sweeping the nation. Idaho students will be able to investigate the subject next semester, with the offering of a math course in descriptive astronomy.

A three credit subject, the course will be taught by Prof. H. Ward Crowley of the mathematics department. A course similar to the proposed one has not been offered at Idaho for the past four years, Dr. Crowley said.

Jim Neese, who is in charge of constructing sets, will be aided by Flanagan, June Hanford, and Carol Temple.
Make-up will be applied by Miss Temple, crew head; and the Misses Caylor, Reese, Kail, Perrin, and Fisher. Also handling grease paint are Tovey, Patton, and Cook.

Sophomores' Traditional Week Includes Serenade, Queen Crowning, Dance

By NAN ALVORD

Christmas season will officially invade the Idaho campus tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. when sophomores open their traditional Holly Week by staging a queen contestant style show in the SUB Bucket.

The annual sophomore-sponsored event, which is to include a serenade and coffee hour Thursday night, will culminate in Saturday night's Holly Dance.

Queen contestants will each model two outfits during the style show, which will be moderated by Mrs. Doris Mix.

A style show rehearsal will be held tonight at 6:30 p.m. in the SUB ballrooms. Escorts are asked to come at 6:45.

Contestants include Mary Margaret Brown, Alpha Chi; Rose Kimpton, Ethel Steel; Trenna Atchley, Forney; Mary Walcott, Tri-Delt; Darlene Johnston, Hays; Louise Neff, Delta Gamma; Pat Riley, Gamma Phi; Fran Baudek, Theta; Joyce Weaver, Kappa; June Hoalst, Pi Phi; Sharon Matheny, Alpha Phi; Janet McDevitt, French; and Jeanne MacMartin, Alpha Gamma Delta.

Five finalists for Holly Queen, chosen by sophomore men in primary elections last Friday, will be announced following the style show by Chub Anderson, sophomore president, and Bob Bernard, class vice-president. Following the modeling, candidates will be escorted to the modeling platform, where announcement of finalists will be made.

Group Wants More Physical Fitness Plans

By DIANN NORDBY

Recommendation that physical fitness education be emphasized in modern education systems was voiced by the Idaho Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation as it ended a two day conference here Saturday.

The recommendation resulted from a panel discussion, "The Fitness of Idaho Youth," which was headed by Mabel Locke of the University physical education department.

The panel members agreed that the youth of today live in an age that contributes to softness in physical activity. Methods of counteracting this softness, must be introduced, the panel explained.

"This can be done," the experts said, "by developing fitness councils on the local and state levels with youth as members of the council, to make physical education work more attractive and to encourage youth to spend less time in automobiles, in front of television sets and more time in physical endeavors."

Kaus Explains

"Advancing the profession of education with physical education as a part," was explained by Paul Kaus, past president of the Idaho Education Association at the closing of the initial meeting.

The recommendation of the second panel was to hold more programs on health, education and recreation in elementary, secondary and schools of higher education. Chairman of the panel, "An Integrated Health, Education and Recreation Program in Our Schools," was Dr. Leon Green, head of the University physical education department.

Spiritual goals and strength, in addition to skills, is important in teaching physical education according to Dean Romney of the physical education at Washington State College in his speech on "The Deeper Meaning of Physical Education." Good sportsmanship, courage and unselfishness are important factors in this deeper meaning, he stated.

Committee Okays Activity Blank Before Final Week

Student-Faculty Council Friday approved a regulation canceling all social events and committee meetings scheduled less than eight days before the beginning of final exams.

The Council approved the rule, part of a long list of revisions they are considering, at the request of AWS President Mollie Godbold, who said chairman planning meetings would have to be informed in advance of winter final week.

The regulation, as approved, stipulates that "social functions (including meetings) cannot be scheduled eight calendar days prior to final examinations each semester and at any time during the final examination period."

Previously, there had been no ruling to cover periods prior to the beginning of examination weeks.

Miss Godbold, who was a member of the committee drafting the new regulation, said the eight-day period would give students one free weekend for study prior to final week.

The entire committee is in the process of studying and revising social regulations concerning scheduling of social functions, drinking, parking and the exchange program for freshmen.

The single segment of the report approved Friday is the only item approved so far.

NSA Committee Interviews At Board Meeting Tonight

Interviews will be held tonight at 7 p.m. by the Exec Board for a chairman and seven committee members to fill the newly formed NSA committee.

ASUI President Dave Maxey announced that the selections would be made during the regular Exec Board meeting and urged all interested students to attend the interviews.

The new committee will include two members from each class and according to Exec Board ruling the chairman of the committee must be an upperclassman Maxey pointed out.

Selections other than an NSA Committee chairman will include two persons to handle the student government information service, one student in charge of foreign travel service, and four students on each of the four departments of NSA.

The departments included in NSA are student affairs, student government, foreign affairs and educational affairs.

Maxey explained that only one other person would be picked from the class which the chairman represents while two students will be chosen from each of the other classes.

A report on the political speaker situation and approval of Publications Board recommendations will highlight other Board activity.

Reports on the United Fund Drive, student recruitment and Christmas arrangements for foreign students will also be included in the meeting.

Recruitment Group Meets

The Student Recruitment Committee will hold a planning meeting for all district and city chairmen in conference room A of the SUB Wednesday at 8 p.m., Nan Alvord, co-chairman, has announced.

Plans for individual contacts with students of Idaho high schools will be explained.

For the first time, guided campus tours are to be conducted by the recruitment committee and discussion on this problem will be brought up. The possibilities of television publicity will also be discussed.

A film is now in production, with the co-operation of Radio-TV center, portraying the main events in the daily life of an Idaho Coed. The film will run 15 minutes and is to be released to TV stations serving the state of Idaho.

Top Olympic Skiers Star Film Thursday

Idaho students will have the opportunity to see last year's Olympic skiers in action when the film, "Skiing, Their Way of Life," is shown here at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Sponsored by the Ski Club, the film will be shown in the SUB Ballroom. Admission charge is 75 cents, and tickets may be purchased at the ASUI office in the SUB or at the separate living groups.

Three hundred tickets are available for the movie, according to Deanna Geertsen, club treasurer. The full-length color film will be shown personally by Sverre Engen, one of the three Engen brothers who skied in the Olympics.

The film will feature such skiing champions as Toni Sailer, Austria's triple-gold medal Olympic champion; Buddy Werner, the U. S. representative for last year's Olympics, and Antti Hyvarinen, Finland's Olympic jumping champion.

Scenes will also be shown of the Inter-Collegiate Nations in which Idaho competes. Another feature will be the comedy of Oscar Opperdahl and his eight-foot skis.

New techniques and forms of skiing for the teaching of the novice and for the improvement of the more advanced will be demonstrated in the film.

"This film is one of Engers best and has received national fame," Miss Geertsen explained. "The program is designed for the non-skier, as well as the most avid enthusiast."

Science Seminar Has Two Speakers

Erwin A. Sauter Jr. and C. E. Lampman of the Poultry Husbandry department, will be the guest speakers at the bi-weekly Animal Science Seminar at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in room 323, Agriculture Science building.

The subjects of the seminar will be "Poultry Products Research and Poultry Management Studies."

Dr. T. Donald Bell, head of the department of animal husbandry will act as chairman of the meeting.

Three Students In Scholarship Competition

Three students have been selected to represent the University of Idaho in the annual Rhodes Scholarship competition, Dr. W. J. Brockelbank, committee chairman announced today.

Richard Dee Humphrey, off-campus; Gerald O. Bierwag, Campus Club; and Robert B. Wells, a mid-shipman at the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., were chosen by the University committee.

Wells is eligible to represent Idaho because he attended the University for two years prior to his acceptance at the Academy.

The three will go to Boise for the Dec. 18 competition with other contestants from the state of Idaho. If accepted, they will again compete in the regional contest to be held in Spokane shortly afterward, Brockelbank said.

Top Brass Naval Hats Are Lifted At Dance

One of the big events of the campus each year, the Navy ball, seemed to be enjoyed more than ever this year, especially by the pranksters who left with more than they came with, namely two gold-braided Navy dress hats.

Capt. John M. Wyckoff, PNS, and Lt. Commander Clyde P. Wortman, headed since the dance, said they would appreciate it very much if the hats would turn up and be found, or if they would be returned to the Navy department.

Idaho To Host Next Inland Empire IK Regional Meet

Plans were started last Saturday by Intercollegiate Knights attending a regional convention in Spokane to have the next meeting of the seven Inland Empire chapters on the Idaho campus.

The 42 IKs representing five schools accepted an invitation from the local chapter to have a meeting in February at Idaho to discuss and exchange ideas on chapter activities and problems.

The first regional meeting of this year on the Whitworth College campus saw delegates spend most of their time discussing National policies and regional projects.

Students took part in an afternoon session designed to demonstrate methods of getting everyone in the group to participate in discussions and business of the body. It was conducted by Don Ingle, national president, from Idaho.

During this part of the meeting programs ideas, purposes, and rec- of their time discussing National at Convention in Denver April 9-12 were discussed.

Treasury Suggested The Idaho chapter was appointed to a committee to draw up plans for establishing a regional treasury to take care of regional expenses and convention costs.

A committee to arrange transportation for area chapters to the National Convention as a group was appointed to the Eastern Washington College group.

In addition to the convention being planned for February, another meeting is scheduled in the latter part of March. At this meeting election of regional officers and discussion of possible National policy changes will be on the program.

Dick Jensen, regional chairman from WSC, was chairman of the meeting.

Cheese Boxes On Sale Now

Cheese boxes are going on sale this week as Christmas gifts for Idaho students, faculty members, and Moscow townspeople, according to Ron Beal, chairman for the Dairy Science project.

Three varieties of cheddar cheese will be included in each box. The packages will be sold for $2 apiece.

Displays of the gift cheese boxes will be located in the SUB and Faculty Club, along with order blanks, Beal said.

Orders should be in by Dec. 13 in order for the boxes to be completed on Dec. 16, he explained. An extra fee will be assessed if an individual wants the package mailed.

Individuals may pick their orders up at the Dairy Science Building Dec. 16.

The Christmas gift project was tried for the first time last year on a small-scale basis.

Group Wants Idaho Spirit At Meeting

Officers for the newly-organized Vandal Rally Squad will be elected at a meeting of the group at 8:30 p.m. today in conference room B of the SUB.

Marvin Fischer, varsity cheerleader, said mimeographed copies of Idaho yells will also be passed out during the meeting. Suggestions for furthering activities at basketball games will be asked for, he said.

The Idaho rally group plans to have a reserved seat area during the basketball season.

Fischer said, the reserved section will be located east of the I Club section. Game spirit, both for the team and the spectators, will be promoted this way, he explained.

Home Ec Honorary Selling Wreathes As Fund Project

Christmas wreathes made of fir and cedar boughs, complete with pine cones, are being made by the University's chapter of Phi Upsilon Omicron, national home economics honorary, Marian Featherstone, advisor, announced today.

Proceeds from the sale of the wreathes—priced at $2.50 each—are used for professional benefits of the honorary, Miss Featherstone said.

The raw materials were gathered for the group by the forestry department.

Orders for the wreathes can be given to Marilyn Matthews, Pi Phi. Delivery will be made about Dec. 12.

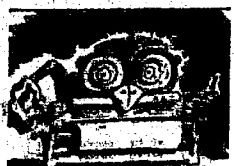

Co-Recreational Volleyball On Tap

Women's living group volleyball games scheduled for this week have been cancelled, but three co-recreational games will be played as announced, officials said today.

Tonight's action at 8:30 in the Women's Gym sees Forney against Delta Gamma, Kappa with Gamma Phi and Alpha Phi against Theta.

Under the co-recreational program four men and four women are on each team. The program is sponsored by WRA and points earned in the contest's go to the women's living group scores.

WRA badminton tournaments will be continued this Saturday.

'Holy Queen' For RE Week Aid? The Press And The Rockets

Religious Emphasis Week (nee Religious Evaluation Week) is back in the news again as that fateful day in February approaches.

With an eye on a crown perhaps, an inventive Idaho coed has proposed that an all-campus vote be held to elect a "Holy Queen" to bring the show in line with numerous other events here.

Her logic for this rather sacrilegious idea is that no function can be a success without a queen. And such may be the case.

We might go further and suggest a "Holy Dance" be added to the schedule to let the religions intermingle in good fun and frivolity.

Down at the University of Oregon, they're already having problems with an RE Week schedule for late January.

The general chairman, a woman, had this rather caustic comment to make as she announced initial plans:

"What we are actually doing through the Religious Emphasis Week program is reminding the students that there is such a thing as religion on campus."

This apparently is also the aim of the committee at Idaho.

All-Americans Every sports editor is required seasonally to name sundry All-this or that or t'other types of teams at the end of any athletic season.

With the grid greats picked already, Arg sports writer Dwight Chapin got a wild idea and rebelled against the whole thing by picking an "All-Northwest Sports Writer Team."

Here's the lineup for the first team of Chapin's burly eleven:

We thank compatriot Chapin for the mention, but we like the press box better. You get free lunches there.

Muscle Meeting Physical education instructors—about 100 of them—met here Friday and Saturday to discuss new ways of improving the health of the state and the fitness of high school teams.

One student Saturday looked over the aggregation and made the not too appropriate comment that they "were just a bunch of middle-aged athletes."

Freshman Men's Honorary To Hold Informal Smoker

Freshmen men's scholastic honorary, Phi Eta Sigma, is planning a smoker for all freshmen men who obtained a 3.0 point or above at mid-semester, Terry White, FIJ, said today.

The date for the smoker is set for Wednesday, Dec. 11, at 9 p.m. in the Borah Theater. Any freshmen male students who are eligible must have their names turned in today to White, Bob Pierce, Sigma Nu, or Dennis Hargreaves, Willis Sweet.

The purpose of this smoker is to acquaint these students with Phi Eta Sigma before the semester ends. At the semester any male freshman who has obtained a grade point of a 3.5 will be eligible to become a member of Phi Eta Sigma.

Dance Group Presents Show

Orchests, Idaho's dance group, will present its annual Christmas show Friday night at 7 p.m. in the Women's gym, Patricia Rowe, show director, announced today.

The hour program will end promptly at 8 p.m. to allow the audience and performers to attend the Idaho-Nevada basketball game.

Nine different numbers, the first letters of each collectively spelling Christmas, are featured in the program, Miss Rowe said. Background music will be taped reproductions of well-known music and choral groups, she added.

Satellites Subject Of Sigma Xi Talk

H. Ward Crowley, assistant professor of mathematics, will speak tonight at a meeting of Sigma Xi, national scientific honorary.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the lower lounge of the Faculty Club.

Alex Detests Campus Cops; Rats Invade Cal Library

By Jim Flanigan Idaho's sleuth, Fred the Cop, might take offense against the comments issued by an outraged Frenchman, who is studying chemistry at the University of Washington in Seattle.

Alex Berlin, the French student who is a teaching assistant working on his doctorate, was taken aback by the fact campus police wore guns while trying to prevent crime waves at Washington U.

"It would be unthinkable to see police toting six-shooters on campuses in France," he said. "Fearless" Fred usually is found roaming the Idaho campus day and night, rain, snow, or Palouse smog, protecting the University's citizens from any outbreaks of crime.

But still the Frenchman's opinion at Washington has its points. Berlin thinks police officers have "immunity something like an embassy."

Student Strike In Paris, where Berlin resided before coming to the States, he explained the students had more voice in their affairs. In fact, they can and often do go on strike.

Pat Wilson, a Fiji at Arizona U, displayed extraordinary gentlemanly traits by taking a distressed young lady home the other day and putting her to bed in the Phi Gamma Delta House.

Actually, the young lady turned out to be a dog—Donna Dog—that was a mascot at Arizona. And the animal was struck by a hit-and-run driver.

The Morning After The morning after the accident, Donna was taken to a vet, who diagnosed her injured hind legs. She was listed as "resting well."

Anita Weimer, a Sweden exchange student at Montana State

University, told her views recently on the United States. "When Americans think of Sweden, they think of smorgasbord, schnapps, and Anita Ekberg," she said.

"They think that's Sweden in a nutshell. There is more to it than that . . ."

In a more serious vein, we add this quote from Miss Werner: "We will never go to war," she said, "unless we are attacked. We have not had a war for 143 years and we intend to keep our neutrality."

UCLA should have issued a call for the Pied Piper of Hamelin recently when the campus was overrun with rats.

Rats vs. Coed One California coed was studying in the library when she noticed a rodent crawling out of paper sack nearby. Instead of the usual feminine response, she bravely re-captured the rat, and placed it back in the container from which it escaped.

Meanwhile, a group of individuals from the library staff herded the animals into the lost and found department.

Down at the Co-op, students drinking coffee were taken by a surprise invasion. More rodents were crawling about the floor.

The Daily Bruin, the campus publication, commented, "It seemed unusual that this . . . visit should have originated in the library, which is known as a center of intellectual pursuit."

Bob Cummings, star of screen, radio and television, had the honor of selecting the 1957 Cherry Tree Queen for George Washington University's year book recently.

The contest at the Washington, D. C., school was based only upon photogenic qualities, and not activities.

They Goofed But, we of Campus Capers believe Cummings was probably rather confused if he read an issue of the school's paper, The University Hatchet, prior to his judging. The paper rory:

"In the past only sorority candidates were eligible for Cherry Tree Queen. This year, however, the fraternities may also nominate girls for the contest."

DECK THE HALLS

The days grow short, the nights grow long, the north wind doth blow, and a light frost appears on the knees of coeds. Christmas is iucmen in, and once more our keen young minds turn to the vexing problem of Christmas gifts.

Let us examine first the most vexing of all gift problems: What do you buy for the person who has everything? Well sir, when you encounter this dilemma, the best thing to do is seize it by the horns. Ask yourself this question: Does he truly have everything? Does he, for example, have a birthmark? A Mach number? A lacrosse net? An I-beam? An S-hook? A U-bolt? A T-square? A Primus stove?

(There is, incidentally, quite an interesting little story about how Primus came to invent the stove. Before Primus's invention, cooking was rather a hazardous occupation. People just built fires any old place—the floor, the closet, the eseroitro—and often as not the whole house would go up in flames along with the dinner. Primus, a goose plucker of Frankfurt-am-Main, kept thinking there must be a more efficient way to cook. Finally, in a flash of inspiration, it came to him: Why not build a device to contain the fire and keep it from spreading?)

...his mistake was in building it out of paper...

(Well sir, he built precisely such a device and named it after his beloved wife Stove. Primus's first Stove, it must be confessed, was less than a triumph; his mistake was in building it out of paper. The next Stove, built of wood, fared hardly better. Not until he made one out of metal could the Stove really be called a success.)

(But even then the Stove was not entirely satisfactory. The trouble was that the Stove filled up with ashes and became useless after a few weeks. It remained for Primus's son Frederick to conquer that problem. He invented a mechanism to remove ashes from the bottom of the Stove and was thenceforth known to posterity as Frederick the Grate.)

But I digress. We were discussing Christmas gifts. This year, as every year, a popular gift is the smoking jacket. And what do the smoking jackets smoke? Why, Marlboro, of course—every man jacket of them. And why wouldn't they smoke Marlboros? Why wouldn't anybody with a taste bud in his head? You get such a lot to like in a Marlboro—filter . . . flavor . . . flip-top box.

Here is no filter to hollow the cheeks and bug the eyeballs; here is a filter that draws nice and easy. Here is no flavor to pale and pall; here is a flavor ever fresh, ever zestful. Here is no flimsy pack to crumble and shred its precious cargo; here is a sturdy box that keeps each cigarette plump and pristine.

Speaking of smoking, the year's most unusual gift item is a brand-new cigarette lighter that never needs refilling. You are scoffing. You are saying you have heard such claims before. But it's true, I promise you. This new lighter never, never needs refilling! The fuel supply lasts forever. Of course, there are certain disadvantages. For one thing, the lighter is rather bulky—170 feet long and three stories high.

But look on the bright side: As the fuel runs out, you can rent rooms in it.

Good to give, good to receive, at Christmas or any other time is a carton of filter-tip Marlboros, whose makers take pleasure in bringing you this column throughout the school year.

Caroling, Firesides Planned In Christmas Festivities

Smoldering logs in the fireplace, a touch of holly and a Christmas tree near completion blend to form a setting for Christmas activity . . . Phi Delt's plan winter formal . . . Caroling parties slated for near future . . . and numerous tree-decorating exchanges on schedule.

DELTA CHI
Thanks to the Tri Delt's for the coffee and cookies served following the serenade for Anne Copthorne and Dave Campbell.

The annual pirates dance will be held this coming Friday. Chaparones will be Mr. and Mrs. R. Reid and Mr. and Mrs. B. Cumming. Music will be supplied by the Continentals. Festivities will begin with a crab feed at 6 p.m. Numerous flip top boxes have been collected and the house is going all out for the Hi-Fi set.

The house was unusually quiet Sunday afternoon as Sunday afternoon study table for the pledges started.

House guests for Sunday dinner were Noel Randall and Cliff Lawrence of Idaho Club.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA
At dinner Monday evening Kathy Wagner announced her engagement to Duane Watson, Uppham Hall. Congratulations Kathy and Duane.

Carol Rice, DG, was a dinner guest Wednesday evening.

The freshmen and the seniors gave the sophomores and juniors a fireside Wednesday night. Entertainment and refreshments were provided and a good time was had by all.

The pledges enjoyed an exchange with the Phi Delt's Thursday night.

The house entertained Barb Zoet and Monie Norman, Wallace; Jane Hooper, Kellogg; Barb Hilderbrandt, Coeur d'Alene, and Mary Joe Herzog, Ferdinand this weekend.

The engagement of Marie Turner to Lee Scott, SAE, was announced Sunday afternoon at dinner. Irene Scott, Beth Hosner, Jerri Scott, were guests to the engagement dinner. Congratulations Marie and Lee.

WILLIS SWEET HALL
Our Cabaret last weekend was termed a "rousing success." Congratulations to co-chairmen Greg Knapp and Bill Booth for a fine job of decoration planning, and for keeping everyone busy. Thanks to all the boys and girls who pitched in and helped decorate. Intermission entertainment was supplied by Greg Knapp and Neil Sampson who sang several song selections.

Thanks also to the men of Chrisman Hall who put up with the crowded conditions imposed on them when Sweet used their dining hall.

ETHEL STEEL HOUSE
An enjoyable time was had Saturday night by Ethel Steel gals and their guests as they danced to the theme of "Sweet Dreams." A hearty thank-you goes to Barb Reideman and Alice Smith for the wonderful job they did on decorations and to Lynette Hawkins who headed the program committee.

Thanks to the Sigma Nus for the exchange last Wednesday.

All of the girls are looking forward to our annual Christmas caroling party next week.

Mrs. Joan Abbott Richards was a dinner guest Sunday.

PHI KAPPA TAU
Phi Kappa Tau would like to thank the Thetas for the wonderful time they showed us at the Wednesday evening exchange.

Sunday dinner guests were Don Wells and Merlin Hill of LDS house and Bill Parman of Idaho Club.

Joined the Phi Delt's on a Christmas tree hunt. The hunt for trees wasn't very successful but reports indicate both groups enjoyed the outing.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Christmas came to the white house on the Hill Sunday as the pledges were carefully kept away all afternoon while the members busied themselves decorating the house. Afterwards a Christmas party was given, complete with alums, their children, goodies, presents, and Santa. The day was climaxed when we held the annual Christmas fireside.

Congratulations to the two couples who announced their pinning Sunday. Suspicions were confirmed when Mary Youngstrom announced her pinning to Wayne Kidwell, Sigma Chi and Marsha Ellis boasted the pin of Gwin Hicks, Phi Delta Theta.

Thank you, Sigma Nus, for the beautiful serenade in honor of Nan Alvord for her pinning to John Hughes.

Congratulations go out to Rosemary Maulie who was tapped for Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary.

GAULT HALL

"Snowball" was termed a "success" by the fellows Saturday night. The entire lounge was transformed into a winter wonderland with a waterfall and winter scene taking up one corner of the dance area.

Thanks also to Bob Hazelbaker, Gault social chairman; Jim Flanagan, for his magic show; Bob Overstreet, for his guidance on construction of the waterfall; Bob Palmer, and Marlin Beckwith, for painting the mural; Ralph Hull, entertainment chairman; and all the others who helped to make the dance successful.

Congratulations to Caryl Heth, Gamma Phi, and Doug Klein, on their recent engagement.

Sputnik was the subject of an after-dinner speech by Mr. Ward H. Crowley of the mathematics department last week.

A Christmas fireside is being planned for Sunday evening in the lounge, according to Bert Miller, hall president.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Gamma Phi pledges say "thanks" to the Phi Delt pledge class for the exchange last week.

Congratulations to Sonja Hoene who was chosen Air Force Guardian Angel for 1957-58, and to Dolores Hormaechea who was recently crowned "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

Wednesday night dinner guests were Sandra Schow, Marilyn Voyles Linda Jones, and Kay Zentler.

Thanks to the ATO's for the lovely serenade in honor of Sharon Connaughton's pinning to John Ebn...

Sunday dinner guests were Miss Rowe, Miss Locke, Miss Coffey, Miss Peterson, and Miss Betts.

Outstanding Pictures Still Wait To Be Taken

The most important thing in photography is often forgotten, Roy A. Bell, assistant professor of photography at the University of Idaho, said today.

"Photographers often get so immersed in gadgets and technical items that the most important thing—the picture—suffers," Professor Bell said.

Composition, picture quality and the "aliveness" which make up an outstanding photograph are often sidetracked by a maze of picture taking aids.

"Outstanding pictures are everywhere waiting to be recorded on film," Professor Bell added. "While photographs showing creative imagination are comparatively rare, it is heartening to realize that commonplace subjects are waiting to have their beauty shared through the flexible medium of photography."

Mistakes made by photographers are usually of a very simple nature, he said, the sort of thing that could be eliminated by a simple camera check before the shutter is snapped.

The cameraman's bug-a-boos of over, under and double exposure, the untimely movement of the subject or camera and faulty background are causes of most picture failures from a technical standpoint. To overcome these, Professor Bell suggests keeping in mind the capabilities of the film and camera being used.

"Never, but never forget," Professor Bell emphasizes, "to think of the picture itself as the end result if you want to take outstanding photographs."

Church

The D.S.F. church youth group is planning its Christmas caroling party. The group will meet Saturday night at 7 in the CCC. Following the caroling will be a chili feed at the Christian Church. Everyone is welcomed into the group.

Meetings are held Sunday evenings at the First Christian Church. Included in the evening program are program, worship, and recreation.

Next Sunday the group will present its Christmas program. President of the group, Quinton Rogers, extends an invitation to anyone interested in the church to come and meet with D.S.F. this Sunday.

Cagers Drop Second; Montana Solves Zone

Montana solved Idaho's zone defense in the second half and the Grizzlies went on to defeat the Vandals at Missoula, 64-60 last night.

Idaho's Gary Simmons and Jim Branon had kept coach Harlan Hodges' squad in the game throughout but both fouled out late in the second half.

The Vandals took advantage of the hot shooting of Simmons to vault into a 31-30 lead at the end of the first half but the work of Darrell Dunham and Hal Erickson put the Grizzlies in front to stay early in the last half.

Montana took a ten-point lead with about five minutes to play but two jump shots by B. J. Schaffer and three free Idaho in contention.

The game was marked by a rash of fouls, apparently caused by the fact that each squad was trying to contain the others fast break attack.

Montana overlooked the Vandals shortly after the second half began.

Frosh Smash Pirate JV's; McCowan Hits 26 Points

Coach Wayne Anderson's frosh hoopsters notched their second straight victory in as many games as they downed the Whitworth College JV's, 71-46, last Friday in Spokane.

The junior Vandals were ahead by only eight points at the half, but led by forward Bruce McCowan's sharp-shooting, and guard Ron Hunt's ball-stealing tactics, pulled steadily away from the Pirates in the last period.

McCowan, who had a .600 average for the game, netted 26 points to lead the Babes scoring-wise, while 6'7" Ken Maren and Ron Lichau grabbed seven rebounds apiece to clear the boards for the frosh.

Anderson stated that the frosh have improved their rebounding since the opening game with Yakima, but also noted that the junior Pirates "didn't have any really tall men."

On Friday the Vandal yearlings travel to Boise for the North-South tournament to be played there this weekend. The frosh open with Northwest Nazarene Friday night, and meet Boise Junior College Saturday night. Lewis and Clark Normal, the other Northern school, reverses the order, playing B.J.C. Friday, and N.W. Nazarene Saturday.

Idaho Army ROTC Cadet Richard Ogle, off-campus, took second place in the individual scoring with a total of 379 points. First place was won by an EWCE student who scored 381.

Sophomore Midshipman Ray C. Shubert of Idaho's Navy ROTC, shot a perfect score in 10 rounds from the prone position.

Two shows featuring displays of synchronized swimming at the Memorial gym are scheduled for Dec. 16 when the Idaho Helldivers present their first Christmas program since the organization was formed on this campus.

According to Elaine Heiber, general chairman of the show, "The show is designed to give the audience a good presentation of the Helldivers' skills in basic strokes. It will not be as elaborate concerning costumes and lighting as the annual spring show given by Helldivers during the Mother's Day activities. However, it will be just as entertaining."

Setting a Christmas mood, the theme "Santa's Workshop" will show an exhibition of coordinated movement and water ballet at 7 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Idaho could take no first places, as Oregon State, Washington, and WSC outpointed the Vandals in the first Northern Division Invationals at Pullman Saturday.

Idaho, with four second places, had 25 points, compared to OSC's 60, Washington's 53, and WSC's 46.

Swimmers Larry Nelsen and Dan Belton led the Vandal watermen to two of their four second place spots.

In the backstroke relay, the Vandal quartet, composed of Lew Oring, Dave Damon, Nelsen, and Belton were runnersup and Belton set a new record.

He broke the Idaho 100-yard backstroke standard, flashing to a 1:09 mark, one-tenth of a second under the old mark.

Others who grabbed seconds for the Vandals were: the individual medley team, composed by Nelsen, Chet Hall, John Price, and Alex Gilbert; the 200 freestyle relay squad (Dave Roscoe, Ken Goodwin, Dan Davis, and Len Lawr) and the diving relay team of Ron Edwards and Jim Phillips.

The Fine Points of Passing

Gary Kenworthy (left), Vandal quarterback, shows Doug Lyons of Moscow the technique of gripping a football at Saturday's coaches clinic held in conjunction with the state PE convention.

Neutral Corner Idaho Football Change Little In Near Quarter-Century Span

The announcement Saturday that Col. Marius Parmalee "June" Hanford has been named by Idaho as its nominee for the 1957 Sports Illustrated "Silver Anniversary All-American" set this reporter digging madly through past copies of the Gem.

The name had rung a bell, because the 1957 Vandal football squad had as its second string fullback, a Spokane sophomore named "June" Hanford III.

We soon found out that the senior Hanford, who was a track and football star here from 1929 through 1933, is the father of the current Vandal griddler.

In the 1933 Gem, we became not only interested in what Hanford had done, but also in how the team had fared that year.

Surprisingly, Vandal football fortunes have changed but little in 25 years.

Quotes of 1933
 If we may quote from the football section of that bygone year's annual:
 "At the beginning of the 1932 season, Leo Calland (Idaho coach) was faced with the task of rounding a squad of 36 men, including 13 lettermen, into playing form for the season's opener with Whitworth, Sept. 24."

"Despite handicaps, the coaches were able to put a creditable eleven on the gridiron. The team went through the season displaying the traditional fighting spirit characteristic of Vandal teams.
 Sound typical of Idaho squads in the last five or ten years?
 That 1933 club won three games while losing five. And then, as now, the FCC for the most part proved too rough for the material the Vandals were able to put up.

Idaho trounced Whitman 49-0 in the opener, then traveled to Los Angeles to meet the UCLA Bruins, then only a tiny embryo of the football giant they were to become. UCLA won a heartbreaker, 6-0.

Gonzaga Tough
 At Spokane, the Gonzaga Bulldogs, then a grid power, were impressive in a 20-7 win. Later, they fell into football oblivion, along with such schools as Carlisle, Centre, and Chicago University.

The Vandals hung up a 19-6 conference win over Montana, then lost three straight to Oregon.

Idaho's Larry Aldrich, one of a trio of Vandal gridders named to the East-West game, took himself off the West roster Saturday.

Aldrich, one of the finest offensive ends in Idaho history, disappointedly told West head coach Jack Curtice that he had aggravated a knee injury suffered earlier this year and didn't think he could report in top condition.

Aldrich, who was named to the Shrine battle along with Vandals Jerry Kramer and Wayne Walker, said he felt it was his obligation to withdraw when he knew he would not be in good physical shape.

Curtice, head man of the Utah Redskins, lauded Aldrich for his decision and praised him as one of the best ends his team met all season.

The injury, sustained in the Utah State game, isn't considered to be of a major or permanent nature but it did force Aldrich to miss the season finale with WSC.

End Clancy Osborne of undefeated Arizona State was named to take Aldrich's place.

Osborne, a 6-3, 205-pounder, led the Sun Devils in pass receiving with 20 receptions for 351 yards and three touchdowns.

In the Arizona State defensive rating system, Osborne was the sixth-rated man on the squad. He made 27 tackles and added eight assists from his end spot.

This year's East-West battle is slated for Dec. 28 at San Francisco.

Led by Willis, "Little Giant" Smith and John Norby, uncle of Vandal halfback Larry Norby, Idaho capped an otherwise mediocre season by bumping Utah State, 3-0, Thanksgiving Day in Boise.

Norby won a trip to the East-West game that year for his outstanding season play.

Many of the names change; some like Sanford and Norby may pop up again from time to time. But situations and parallels remain strictly similar here at Idaho.

Rather Futile
 Sometimes it all seems rather futile, battling your brains out for 60 minutes on a dirt field and coming out without a win. That's college football, however.

And somehow, the sound of a roaring crowd in the background, cheerleaders screaming encouragement on the sidelines, and the personal satisfaction make it all worthwhile.

Former Great Is Nominated All-American
 Col. Marius Parmalee Hanford, who played halfback and end for Idaho (1929-33) has been nominated by the school for the 1957 Sports Illustrated "Silver Anniversary All-American."

Hanford was one of eight men in armed or government service who were nominated by their alma maters for this year's award.

The national sports magazine annually honors the 25 senior collegiate football lettermen of 25 years ago who have accomplished most in the intervening years.

They are selected from candidates advanced by colleges and universities. Winners are announced in the year-end issue of the magazine and each receives a trophy in the form of silver goal posts.

In addition to playing football at Idaho, Hanford ran the hundred and 440 in track.

He is now personnel director of the Veterans' Administration hospital in Spokane.

Hanford has about 23 years of army and government service to his credit.

INTRAMURALS

Three teams, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega and Uppham Hall 2, have wrapped up league volleyball crowns and a fourth, Lindley Hall 1, needs only a lone win to take the League IV title.

The Tekes, who swept through a seven game slate undefeated, got past Sigma Nu, 15-7, 15-2, Thursday, while their closest competitor, Delta Sigma Phi was losing.

The ATO's, also unbeaten in seven games, were pressed throughout but won over Delta Tau Delta, 15-10, 15-7, to take the championship in that loop.

Uppham 2 must yet play Chrisman Hall 2, but has seven straight wins, while their nearest rivals, Lindley Hall 2 and Town Men 2, both have 5-2 records.

Uppham belted Idaho Club, 15-4, 15-5, Thursday, easily taking their seventh decision.

Lindley Hall 1 played Willis Sweet Hall 1 last night but the result was not available for publication, due to the fact that the contest was a night game.

Tie Possible
 If Lindley came out the victor they will garner the league crown in League IV but if Sweet 1 wins, both clubs will end in a tie for the championship.

Intramural director Clem Parberry announced yesterday that barring complications, intramural league playoffs between teams tied for second, third, fourth, and fifth in the fraternity leagues will be played off tonight.

Fraternity league division playoffs (inter-league) will be held tomorrow night at 7:50 and 8:25 p.m. Parberry said independent league playoffs between Leagues III and IV will be run off Thursday, in all probability.

If any intra-league ties result in those leagues, playoffs will be announced to the various living groups, he added.

What Makes Pop Corn Pop?
 Popping corn contains water. When the water gets hot enough, the kernel explodes. Result: popcorn.
 We're not passing this information along as a public service. Actually we're up to the same old game.
 You see, popcorn makes most people thirsty. Fortunately, when most people get thirsty they hanker for the good taste of Coca-Cola.
 Wouldn't you like some popcorn right now? C'mon now, wouldn't you?
