

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

An interesting semester will come to an end in just a week and a half. It hasn't been a spectacular one, but it was one that included events which may have a lasting effect in the future of the University.

Numerous controversial subjects presented themselves during the semester. A hassle over political speeches and the possibility of the dissolution of the Pacific Coast Conference are problems that will face administrators in the coming semester.

However, Jason feels that one other controversy will be more important to the future of Idaho students. It is the crack-down on drinking that we fear will be carried over to an extreme tightening of social regulations.

Indications show that the review of the social regulations and code now being undertaken by the Student-Faculty committee may result in moves that will seriously limit the social functions that are now allowed for campus organizations.

A number of steps being considered are not just slight revisions, but consist of changes that will effect future functions quite extensively.

The proposed changes may be as severe as further limitation of the location of dances and the establishment of a more strict chaperone system.

Idaho's Not So Bad
Earlier we have pointed out that Idaho is in the ticklish situation in regard to drinking and "wild parties" with regard to feeling in south Idaho. But we emphatically repeat that it is no worse than any comparable school in the country.

Some restrictions and disciplinary action are necessary in instances against unacceptable student action, but we question if some of the proposed moves aren't limiting students a great deal more than is necessary.

Most Idaho students are grown men and women and generally conduct themselves as such. Must they have their social life dictated by a stringent social code which is so limited that it outlines every move that may be made at a function?

In the past regulations have been occasionally set up and established before the students realized what was being pressed upon them.

The Exec Board and the student body in general should keep their attention on this issue. We would hate to see the present social freedom at Idaho become only a fond memory.

Man Confronts The World Theme Of Religious Week

by Sharon Matheny
"Man Confronts The World" was the theme selected this week by Religious Emphasis committee heads. The annual campus activity is set for Feb. 23-26.

Bishop Stephen Bayne of the Episcopal Church in Seattle, Wash., will be the main speaker for this session.

According to Dorothy Jacobsen, co-chairman of RE Week, the theme was selected to serve all students in all denominations.

The week will start Sunday afternoon. Speakers from all churches will be available for individual conferences in the religion of student preference.

A kickoff assembly will be held Monday at 11 a.m., with all RE Week speakers present. Throughout the week the speakers will be available for discussions with students.

Monday evening's theme will be "This I Believe," in which students will participate in the program after the speakers give leading ideas for discussion.

Some of the main ideas will be how the student feels about religion in the world and what he, as an individual, can do to promote world peace.

All Churches
The panels will include speakers from all churches, possibly a Buddhist priest from Spokane, and a student panel.

"Education, Peace and World Unity," will be Tuesday's theme. Students will discuss the world affairs and how they effect their lives and how education can improve world peace.

Wednesday's session will summarize the week's activities by discussing "an awareness of the conscience of the individual and his relationship to God and the World."

This meeting will tie in the other topics and evaluate RE Week as such.

Kay Haberlach, Alpha Chi, is the only head of a seminar committee named at the present time.

Pre-Registration Gets Initial Trial Feb. 3-4

Registration of an estimated 3600 students for second semester to climax a full month of pre-registration procedures will take place Feb. 3-4 in Memorial Gymnasium.

Registrar D. D. DuSault, said permits to Register are now being given out at the Registrar's office to all students who are currently enrolled in classes and plan to enter next semester.

Students will enter the Gym according to alphabetical groups. This system replaces the one used in former years of entering the final registration phase of filling out class cards and paying fees by numbers.

Each of the nine colleges in the University are planning to complete pre-registration of students this week. Students receive the registration form from their deans' office, fill it out with an advisor, and return the form to the dean's office for final approval and signature.

Deans of the agriculture, engineering, business and mines colleges will hand out signed registration forms during registration days. Education majors signed forms will be available after Jan. 30, and forestry forms on or after Jan. 27.

Students in the College of Letters and Science will pick up their signed forms at the dean's office during registration days in alphabetical order according to the same schedule used by the Registrar for admitting students into the Gym.

Law students will pre-register Jan. 30 and 31 with the senior students filling out forms the first day and first and second year students the second day.

Graduate students are expected to pick up registration forms from the Graduate School office this week and return them to the office for the deans' signature after 9 a.m. Jan. 30.

The alphabetical schedule released by the Registrar's office earlier this month divided the student body into groups of 175 students to enter the Gym every one-half hour.

The registrar said the first section of students to enter from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. includes students with last names starting within the "Aa" to "Be" group. This group includes students in the section up to "Be" and does not include students with "Be" groups. These students will enter in the following group from 9:30 to 10 a.m.

The first Argonaut of the second semester will be issued Feb. 4, Editor Dean Judd said Monday.

Social Probation Penalties Tabled Top Arg News Story

Social probation penalties placed on two Idaho fraternities by the Interfraternity Council has been ranked as the top news story on the Idaho campus first semester by an Argonaut staff poll.

The action taken against the two fraternities by the University's no-liqor rule barely edged the appearance of the national flu epidemic on the Idaho campus, four ballots.

The probation story was named as one of the top ten stories on all but one ballot, but had only three more points than the highly regarded flu story which missed one ballot.

The basis of the selection of the stories was the effect the news had upon readers, the pertinence to the University and overall attention they received.

The flu story covered the outbreak which forced campus health officials to quarantine two sororities when the disease struck a large number of Idaho students.

Other stories listed in order of importance were:
3. The United Party's complete sweep of class elections.
4. Completion of the new University Library and the addition of other improvements to Idaho facilities.

5. The long and successful campaign against Washington State fifth quarter action.
6. The withdrawal of three California schools from the PCC, and the questionable future of the conference.
7. The political hassle over the place of Senator Frank Church's speech.
8. The new-preregistration setup.
9. ASUI Exec Board's hassles over NSA and its final acceptance.
10. The performances of Vandals Jerry Kramer and Wayne Walker in post-season football games.

The IFC probation received only one first place vote, but under the system which allowed 10 points for a "one" vote and one for a tenth place vote, the story accumulated the highest number of points. The probation story received four seconds and six third place votes.

Unlike last year's similar poll which saw the Gault Hall fire receive unanimous first place approval, the "one" votes were scattered over eight different stories in the 1957-58 poll.

The flu story led with six firsts in this tournament. A triangular meet held at Montana with WSC and Idaho was won by Montana, with four people placing it on top.

Group Asks Month Petition For Functions

Campus groups planning social functions outside the Moscow city limits will have to petition the Student-Faculty committee at least one month in advance, that organization decided Friday.

The addition of the one-month stipulation will give the council "adequate time to study the request," according to chairman C. O. Decker.

The new rule was the product of a long-range revision and modification of social regulations the council has undertaken and which will be completed in late spring.

As revised the section now reads: "All social functions, with the exception of picnics and cruises, must be held within the city limits of Moscow. No function may be held outside the city limits except by special permission of the Student-Faculty Committee. All social functions will be petitioned for one month in advance if they are to be held outside the city limits."

The other portions of the regulations were already in effect.

Idaho Also Boasts Absent-Minded Professor

One of Idaho's scientists isn't very scientific when it comes to his mailing procedures.

The Allied Radio Co. informed L. C. Warner, University purchasing agent, that it received a Special Ampere AX105 tube this week—but it doesn't know what University department sent it.

And the absent-minded Idaho professor in charge of the project also forgot to enclose instruction for the radio tube.

Warner said, "Will the department which shipped it please advise the purchasing office what to do about it."

Idaho Debaters Take Third Place In Inland Tourney

The University of Idaho lost its chance to gain permanent possession of the Inland Empire Debate Tournament's traveling trophy by placing third in the meet held here Friday and Saturday.

WSC took first place honors and Whitman second. Idaho's two-time winning streak was cut short by the defeat.

Records of Idaho representatives were as follows: William Barker, SAE, and Gordon Chester, Phi Delta, won four and lost two; Lowell Martin, Willis Sweet, and Richard Hughes, off-campus, four wins and two losses; Pat Decker and Mary Margaret Broderson, Kappa, two wins and four losses; and Robert Moe, Gault Hall, and LaRalle Smith, off-campus, two wins and four losses.

Idaho's next meeting will be the All Idaho State Tournament at Northwest Nazarene College in Nampa, Feb. 21-22. Six Idaho schools will compete in the meet.

Tournaments that Idaho has participated in this year include the Columbia Valley Debate Tournament held at WSC. Idaho won

Neal Newhouse Is Delegate To Republican Workshop

Campus Young Republican president Neal Newhouse Thursday was named Idaho delegate to a national GOP workshop in Washington, D. C., Jan. 27-Feb. 1.

Newhouse will leave here by plane Sunday to attend the five-day session. The trip is being financed by the state Republican organization and by the Latah County Republican party.

He is the first delegate Idaho has sent to the national meeting since the training program was started two years ago. About 500 young GOP leaders are expected to attend the workshop sessions.

Eisenhower Slated
Newhouse said the session would include intensive instruction in practical Republican politics and in campaign techniques. Republican national chairman Meade A. Cornell, House minority leader J. P. McHenry, and vice president Nixon are also expected to make brief appearances at the conference, said Newhouse.

While in Washington, Newhouse will be a guest of Idaho Republican Sen. Henry Dworshak and Rep. Hamer Budge. He will visit sessions of both the Senate and House and will tour buildings on Capitol Hill.

Newhouse was elected president of the college GOP organization in 1956 and was reelected in 1957. He is also an assistant secretary of the state organization and state college chairman.

Annual Foresters Dance Scheduled In SUB Ballrooms

Idaho's Foresters have scheduled their annual ball for Feb. 8 in the SUB ballrooms, according to Keith Andrews, Lambda Chi, dance chairman.

From 9 to 12 p.m., the Student Union's dance floor will be transformed into a series of outdoor scenes. Displays by the several divisions of the College of Forestry will be included in the decorations. An old time barroom and a rinky-tinky piano located there will be played for entertainment.

Furnishing dance music will be the Notables.

Admission is $1.50 per couple, except Foresters, who will be admitted free after displaying their membership cards at the door.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

First Semester 1957-58

(Two and one-half hour examinations —three examination periods each day)

Regular class rooms will be used for the examinations unless instructors make special arrangements through the Registrar's Office. Examinations in courses comprised of lecture and laboratory periods may in most instances be scheduled according to the sequence of either. Announcement of time and room should be made by the instructor for all examinations. Rooms should be reserved in the Registrar's Office for "arranged" examinations in order to avoid conflicts. Instructors will announce to their classes rooms to be used for all sectioned classes having common final examinations.

Vandaleer Tryouts At 3 P.M. Today

Last chance to fill second semester vacancies in the Vandaleers will be 3 p.m. today, Glen Lockery, group director, announced last night.

Lockery urged interested persons to attend tryouts in room 216 of the Music Building.

The Vandaleers will present several local concerts throughout the school year and make a tour of the Pocatello area this spring.

A Reason For Boordom?

Scanning the record of first semester, 1967-68, it's apparent that no big news was produced by the University of Idaho during that short time. There were no fires, there were no explosions. In short, it was an "average" semester.

That leads us to spend a few paragraphs exploding the notion that "nothing ever happens" in this secluded section of the state.

Even though it was pretty quiet three months, it was a time of important decisions that may prove of special significance in succeeding months.

First of all, two campus political organizations brought pressure to bear on an outdated political policy when a furor was raised of Sen. Frank Church's restricted appearance here.

Second, the administration stopped threatening and started acting on the so-called "drinking problem" among students which may well be the most controversial issue of the next semester.

Third, the PCC staggered and stumbled toward possible final dissolution during the semester and saw the withdrawal of three California schools brightening the athletic picture for Idaho, which now has a chance to come into its own on the athletic fields.

Finally, a new library was added to the campus landscape as another step in a drawn-out program to expand the U in lumping two million dollars into the project, legislators made apparent their awareness that Idaho is and will continue to be the dominant cultural and educational center in the state.

Besides these far-reaching developments, there were the petty political fights, the pep rallies, the innumerable "queens" and the advent of perhaps the best football team in Idaho history.

This, then, was the panorama of just three months of collegiate living. Each event, big or small, was peculiarly and particularly collegiate in mood, and for that reason ever more interesting.

Most students pursue any task with special enthusiasm and an invigorating brand of "To hell with the torpedos, full speed ahead" spirit. That attitude reaps a harvest of trouble at times, but it's a sign of youth and a refreshing change from stoginess.

For those who took the time to notice what their fellow students were doing, the semester was another page in the "good laughs" era that fate (or a "boom" economy) has bequeathed to us. It might be desirable for those who missed or ignored the good times of the first semester to reconsider during the next round. The "boom" is resounding less loudly now.

In any case it was an eventful half-year. When the halftime entertainment is over in a couple of weeks, Idahoans can expect another four months that offers even fuller rewards in the way of progress and memories.

Jim Golden's Campeyeing Branom's Lens Loss Softens WSC Gloom During Trouncing

When long, lanky Jim Branom got jounced hard during a tussle under the basket at WSC Friday and lost his contact lens, it gave the home town partisans something to laugh about.

They had to find some humor somewhere because the pride of the Cougar cage crew was being throttled by Gary Simmons and company.

So when Big Jim lost that lens, the WSC pep band had a field day—especially when the whole Idaho team went to his aid and gave the photographers some rare pictures as they crawled on the hardwoods, heads to floor.

The Cougar band (another pride of the WSC contingent) immediately got a glimmer of inspiration and began a rendition of "Three Blind Mice." Idaho was not to be outdone, and answered with the "Death March," which turned out to be more truth than music.

Branom found the eyepiece after the ball game, but in the meantime compensated with a pair of glasses he had brought along for such emergencies, and helped the Vandals overwhelm the bumbling Cougars who just didn't have it that night... or the next evening, either.

Greeks Fund Will Buy Dog For Blind Man

The first Greek Week on the Idaho campus will be devoted to giving a blind man a pair of "eyes," Andy Andersson, Junior IFC president, announced today.

The four day period from Feb. 12-15 will be used to raise the $1,500 required to send a "worthy person" to Guide Dogs for the Blind in San Rafael, Calif. for training in the care and handling of a seeing-eye-dog, Andersson said.

The $1,500 buys the dog and covers all costs of training, Andersson said, but transportation costs must be met by the individual.

"Groups of Greeks will converge on Lewiston, Moscow, and the Idaho campus in their all-out fund raising campaign," Andersson said, "but services will be offered for donations received."

In Lewiston, coeds will do ironing and light housework, while males will do heavier chores, he reported.

On the campus, fraternities and sororities will auction off slaves to perform various domestic duties in the houses.

In Moscow a tape "leash" will stretch from a replica of a blind man to his seeing-eye-dog. Blind donations will be affixed to the "leash" and the length will measure the generosity of Moscowites, Andersson reported.

ISC Coed Conduct Booklet Warns Women, Startles Men

By JIM FLANIGAN

A set of coed laws from Idaho State College has filtered through to the male set here at the University and the startling facts may shock many of our sex.

Titled "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," the southern branch's AWS handbook warns innocent freshmen women against the tactics employed by the wolves that lurk around the campus.

"Anybody can neck," according to the handbook. "It's easy."

"However," the booklet continues, "a steady diet of necking with all your dates will quarantine you as fast as a case of measles. It's up to you to steer your course and know when to put on the brakes."

Men, this not a driver's lesson by any means. But let's go on.

"In the spring when a young man's fancy traditionally wanders from his books, the campus is cluttered with couples."

This isn't unusual, but we might suggest ISC hire a garbage collector to gather up all cluttered couples.

Porch Linger

"Coeds cannot be too careful of their conduct, and lingering about doorways is poor taste. It makes the girl and her date very conspicuous."

"Love is wonderful, but public demonstration only cheapens it. Groom yourself now for the social life (?) you are to lead after you leave ISC."

If another male student signs up for a room at Hudson Hall on Eastern Washington College of Education next semester, he will have to sleep on the floor.

242 Beds, 242 Men

The residents at the aged hall have zoomed to 242 compared with 115 last year. The normal number of men is supposed to stop at 225.

And the school officials say they were lucky enough to scrounge up just 242 beds for the 242 men now signed up.

According to spokesmen, "Though here were other contributing factors, such as an increase in transfer students, the usual 'hibernation' of commuters to avoid the rigors of winter driving added to the total."

Males at the University of Minnesota must think they are the only ones battling the controversial ratio subject.

A campus publication, The Minnesota Daily, reads:

Ratio: 3-1

"No wonder you've had so much trouble finding a date, pal—you and your buddies outnumber the girls almost three to one on this campus."

We might mention to our eastern friends that Idaho and a few other institutions are suffering the same problem.

However, Dr. Mabelle McCullough, director of the Student Housing Bureau at Minnesota, points out, "There are more married students than four years ago."

Somewhere, somehow, some Minnesota male must have met a cute coed, despite the ratio or else the doctor's facts are all wrong. So don't give up the ship yet, men.

One interesting note from the University of Arizona Wildcat before we sign off:

"Bellringers Vaughn Binzer and Mary Randall will toll the bell if the University defeats San Diego State Saturday in basketball."

"Bob Perkins and Pat King will ring the bell the following weekend if UA is victorious over Hardin-Simmons here Jan. 18."

Mike Flournoy and Glenda

Richter were chosen as bellringers for the West Texas game on Jan. 25."

We can't think of any other past-time that would be as exciting for a couple as ringing bells on a date. Can you?

SUB Quiet Broken By Noisy Workers

The usual peace and quiet of the SUB has been temporarily shattered as workmen install the new Brunswick automatic pinsetters in the game room.

Gale Mix, SUB manager, reported that the parts for the new pinsetters have arrived and are being installed at a cost of $66,000, and the nervous stability of SUB patrons.

The alleys in the basement will be closed until Jan. 25 during the installation process. After testing, the new alleys will open for use on Jan. 27.

Recital Presented By Music Students

Eight Idaho music students were presented in recital at 11 a.m. today in the recital hall of the Music Building.

Four pianists were featured, including Meryl Jo Fox, Alpha Phi, who played "The White Peacock" by Griffes; Joyce Lake, Theta, Chopin's Nocturne, Op. 15, No. 1; two numbers by Chopin and Beethoven, played by Paul Dunn, off-campus; and Myrna Inghram, French House, presented "Sonata" in C minor, Op. 10, No. 1.

Cellist Joan Tilton, off-campus, accompanied by Merial Grimm, off-campus, presented Bach's "Arioso," and organist Kay Salyer, Gamma Phi, played "Toccata and Fugue" in D minor.

Handel's "Sonata" No. 1, in A major was presented by violinist Sally Ann Maddocks, Alpha Phi.

Spring Sprung

The unseasonably warm weather Sunday was sure to have some consequences on Idahoans. It did.

The Sigma Nus spent part of the afternoon using their lawn for a putting green and the Deits and Fijis got in some early baseball practice.

For some strange reason, no street dances began in the sunshine. This last statement prompts another sidelight on shortsighted planning: inspired Greeks are planning a street dance during the Greek Week festivities — in February.

More WSC

Washington Governor Albert D. Rosellini was a special guest at the Idaho evening clash and furnished the halftime feature by lending a few remarks to the proceedings.

His brief appearance apparently had a profound effect on one Idaho fan who waited in the hall outside and pounced on the chief executive as he left the building with a police guard and pleaded for an autograph.

The Governor, somewhat taken aback, consented and autographed his program.

Campus Digs In For Finals, Minor Activities Reported

Kappas celebrate "quiet before the storm" ... three groups elect officers ... couple of tubbings ... same number of marriages ... campus "digs in" for final week turmoil.

ETHEL STEEL HOUSE
Quiet hours, piles of books, term papers, and final exam schedules are in the spotlight at Steel this week.
Best wishes go out to Maxine Harris on her engagement to Dave Riggers, Delta Chi, and to Lynnette Hawkins who became engaged to Gordon Rembowski of Bonners Ferry during vacation.
Last week a fireside was held in honor of second floor for winning a "get out and vote" contest during class elections.
Congratulations to Bev Lord who has taken over the duties of dietitian.
We are going to miss Sally Caylor, Virginia Robinson, Cecelia Montoya, Janice Smith, and Judy Bailey who will be leaving at semester.

HAYS HALL
The annual senior dinner was held last Wednesday. The senior prophesy and will highlighted the entertainment for the event. Small, silver engraved relish dishes were presented to the seventeen seniors.
Congratulations to Carol Renstrom on her fine performance at her recent recital.
Dinner guests during the past week were Dick Omans, Willis Sweet, and Louise Hoyt, Theta.
Congratulations to Diane Schilling on her pinning to Rick Minkler, Kappa Sigma.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON
Election of officers for the second semester took place Saturday morning. The new slate of officers for the semester are Max Burke, president; Ron Powell, vice president; Jack Garris, recorder; Darrell Adams, warden; Mel Marvel, herald; George Collett, chronicler; Jim Burt, chaplain; Fred O'Brien, assistant house manager; Duane Thompson, assistant treasurer; Ralph Mays, correspondent; Jim Lunte, alumni chairman; Gerry Steele, Greek Caucus Representative. Executive board members are Bill Anderson, Bill Harward, Tom Olson, senior; Gerry Allen, junior; Peter John Reed, sophomore.

Kathleen McBratney, Gamma Phi, saved Jim Lunte from a rather cool, wet tubbing Saturday evening. Bonfires and starlight were her only source of light so she was at a rather distinct disadvantage. After many minutes of desperate efforts to release Jim, she succeeded in her attempt.
Sunday dinner guest was Cliff Lawrence, Idaho Club.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA
At dinner Wednesday evening the house entertained Sharilyn Ross and Marie York.
The Alpha Chis say many thanks to the ATOs for the fun dinner exchange Thursday evening.

The girls would like to thank Mrs. C. W. McCartney, the Delta housemother, for spending the weekend with us while Mrs. Hersch was in Spokane. Also with us this weekend were Davy Mace and Gigi McDonald, both of Lewiston.
Dinner guests Sunday afternoon were Mrs. George Troyer, Spokane; Ross Trunkay, Seattle; John Hanson, Lewiston; Harriet Gittens; Sharon Isakson; Carlene Higgins; Betty Gailley; Arlene Frahm; Sherry Walsh; and Denny Fauchner.

Magnanimous thanks go to the Sigma Chis for the beautiful serenade in honor of Mary Youngstrom's pinning to Wayne Kidwell.
The freshmen of Idaho Club were guests at the pledge exchange last week.
Thank you, Phi Delta pledges, for your pillow serenade.
The Sigma Chi pledges are to be thanked for the three mattresses which were returned for a serenade.

GAULT HALL
Nominations for hall officers were held this week and elections are planned in the near future, according to president Bert Miller.
It's been quiet around the hall the past few weeks as members prepare themselves for the onslaught of first semester finals.

Thanks to Bob Moe for his fine job in the debate tourney held over the weekend.

NSA Interest Cards Issued At Registration

Idaho students going through registration will be asked to fill out interest and activity cards for the National Student Association, according to Lee Watenpaugh, NSA committee chairman.
The Executive Board at a recent meeting approved the card cataloging system to pool student interests in student government, student affairs, educational affairs and foreign affairs.
An eight member NSA committee will compile the information from the card system cards in order to help them select individuals to carry out future school projects.
NSA representatives will pass out the cards at the front entrance to Memorial Gym Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 3-4, of registration.
In information required on the card are the student's name, address, and activity preferences. Another representative will collect the cards just before the student goes into the gym floor.
Watenpaugh pointed out that offering out the information is voluntary, but "we hope that all the students will fill out the simple cards."

Korean Veterans Sign For Checks

Korean veterans training under P.L. 550 today were reminded that they must sign up for their February training allowance checks before Feb. 4.
Dates set up for the sign-up are Jan. 31, Feb. 2, 3, and 4, according to Charles H. Bond, University Veterans Counselor.
Bond has urged that all students who can possibly do so sign their monthly certification on Jan. 31 before registration gets underway.

Semester Rush Registration Deadline Lifted For Men

A deadline requiring Idaho men to register for second semester rush, has been lifted and extended until registration, Lee Scott, IFC rush chairman, announced today.
Ten students have signed up so far.
Originally, interested individuals had been asked to sign up for rush in the Office of Student Affairs by today.
However, Scott pointed out, men still have to inform the office of their desire to rush prior to registration.
"If we have enough people," he said, "we will have a tour sometime during the first week after registration."
No Idaho fraternity can "snap pledge" now until Interfraternity Council decides whether or not a fraternity tour will be conducted, he added.
Scott plans to meet with Guy Wicks, associated director of student affairs today, to talk over the possibilities of such a project.
If no tour is held, a date will be named for fraternity pledging. Though the Greeks are primarily interested in freshmen, upperclassmen are eligible to participate.
Coffee hours and an informal rush program is planned by four campus sororities.
Rush chairman Jane Lange, Alpha Phi, said activities are planned Feb. 4-5 in Alpha Gamma Delta, Tri Deltas, Alpha Chi, and Pi Phi living groups. Thursday, rush bids will be turned into the Dean of Women.
All interested women must sign up in the Student Affairs office by today, except those who live off-campus.
"Coke get-togethers are being held throughout this week also," she said.
"Rush will be as informal as possible with no organized parties or entertainment because of the small number taking part," she explained.
The following coffee hour schedule will be used:
Alpha Gamma, 7 p.m., Tuesday; Alpha Chi, 8:30 p.m., Tuesday; Pi Phi, 7 p.m., Wednesday; and Tri Delta, 8:30 p.m., Wednesday.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

Westport's "Mr. Telephone Company"

The Westport, Connecticut, office of Southern New England Telephone Company is managed by John F. Lehr, A.B., Yale, '52. In Westport, John is "Mr. Telephone Company."

"This job has everything," John says; "responsibility, independence, a chance to contribute to the community as well as the company. I have 8600 accounts in my office, and every one of those accounts is a person who has to be pleased with our telephone service. I'm in close contact with the town officials, and take part in many civic activities. Needless to say, it's a very interesting assignment."

"How I happened to choose a career with the telephone company tells you something about the business. After a dozen or so interviews with various firms, I picked the telephone company because it offered two things I was looking for—immediate opportunity, and long-range opportunity, too."

"You see, I was married in my senior year at college, so I wanted a career where I could start with a good salary, and get the training I'd need to advance in the shortest possible time. That's what I wanted immediately."

"The rapid expansion of the telephone business assured me of the long-range opportunities, because that expansion is creating more and more management positions to be filled. In fact, here I am, Manager in Westport, after only five years in the company. I don't know of another business where you can find more opportunities to get ahead."

SOCIAL, POLITICAL, FOOTBALL SURPRISES

Church And Dad Big News

Despite a flu epidemic, Idaho students still experienced a colorful and eventful first semester at the University. A representative group made the trip across the border to witness the annual "Battle of the Palouse" (top left) and refrained from fifth quarter activities. After several warnings from various groups, the traditional squabble was at last quelled. Queen Marilyn Crane (top center) reigned over the annual Homecoming activities. The Kappa coed and a court of four princesses added a touch of sunshine to the rather dismal, rain drenched day.

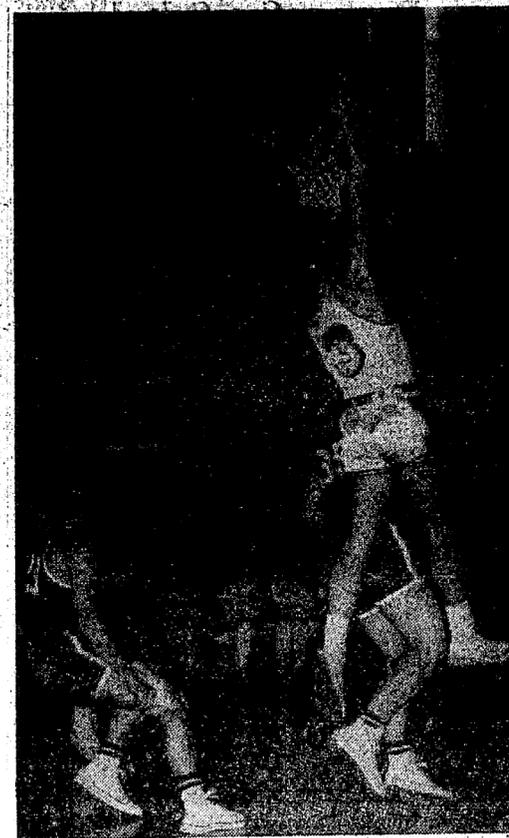

A new addition to the family of living groups was McConnell, (top right). Early in the school year frosh were run through the Campus Carnival madhouse (upper left). Junior Senator Frank Church (lower left) drew a capacity crowd to the SUB's Central Ballroom despite a controversy that his political philosophy might influence college minds. A ticklish subject also was Dad's Day beard growing (upper right). Claudette Kerns, Alpha Chi, tests Don Wilton's beard here as "Joe" Vandal looks on.

Now that finals are hovering over the students, the University's new million dollar library (lower right) is being put to use more than usual. Shown in the photo (bottom left) is the winning Homecoming float entered in the mixed division by Pi Beta Phi and Delta Sigma Phi. Idaho's freshman (below) drained $1,469 scheckles from Moscow donors in the United Fund march. Dick Kerbs (right) accepts the FarmHouse charter from national fraternity president C. E. Middleton. The group became the 15th fraternity to join the national Greek fold here.

KEPT IDAHO'S FIRST SEMESTER LIVELY

Queens, WSC Add Spice

Idaho's football Vandals gave the Washington State Cougars a real scare (top left) before losing 21-13. The gridgers closed out the season with a highly respectable 4-4-1 record. Traditionally, students from the losing school pay respects to the victors and about 100 Idaho students (top center) did just that, walking the eight miles between Moscow and Pullman. Vandal cage captain Gary Simmons (top right) put in an early bid for season stardom leading the Idaho five to an 8-2 pre-conference record and hitting a fantastic 38 points against USC.

Idaho gridgers retained the Little Brown Stein (upper left), thrilling 4,500 fans with a decisive 31-13 win over Montana. Idaho's finest cross country team in history (upper right) surprised the Pacific-Coast Conference by winning the PCC team championship in that sport.

"It's a woman's world" could well be the theme for the lower portion of this page. Idaho coeds have definitely established a position for themselves in the University—both socially and academically. Chub Anderson (lower left), sophomore class president, is bubbling over with enthusiasm as he crowns Sharon Matheny, Alpha Phi, Holly Queen during the yearly Yuletide event. Sigma Chi selected Dolores Hormachea, (left) Gamma Phi, as their fraternity Sweetheart after she proved herself in the group's Derby Day competition.

CAGERS CLOBBER COUGARS, 85-67, 67-58

Peanuts Gets Salted

Idaho's Whaylon Coleman dribbled around WSC's Jim "Peanuts" Ross for a quick lay-in Friday night at Pullman in the game won by the Vandals, 85-67. Coleman contributed 13 points to the win.

Backboard Power, Persistent Attack

Are Important Factors In Twin Wins

Idaho pushed the power button last weekend to outclass the Washington State Cougars, 85-67, and 67-58, in a two-game PCC series.

The wins put the Vandals into fourth place in the Conference and dropped the Cougars into the PCC basement.

Idaho coach Harlan Hodges, confined to his home with a heavy cold, said he was well pleased with the twin Vandal victories which thrust the team back into the thick of the PCC race.

Faced by the scoring of Gary Simmons and B. J. Schaffer, Idaho rolled to an easy 85-67 decision over the Cougars at Pullman Friday.

The Vandals started quickly and had opened the gap to 42-28 by halftime. Early in the second half WCS made a determined bid to get back in the ball game but superior Idaho backboard strength ended the threat.

Idaho defense and board power were in evidence throughout. Guard Whaylon Coleman turned

In an outstanding defensive job on WSC ace "Peanuts" Ross and helped Jim Branom and Hal Damiano control the boards.

Play was interrupted late in the game when Branom lost one of his contact lenses and enlisted the services of the other Vandals to help him find it.

Idaho outshot the Cougars from the floor, 41.2 per cent to 31.8 per cent but got many more opportunities due to the superior rebounding.

Simmons topped Vandal scorers with 25 points, followed by Schaffer with 16. Coleman and Damiano both had 13.

Lanky Paul Ronhaar and Dick "Axe" Axelsson each had 16 for the Cougars.

Saturday night at Memorial Gymnasium it was much the backboard strength and steady Vandal shooting.

Simmons amazed a packed house with a 20-point performance in the first half but was closely checked by the Cougars in the second half and could get only five more points.

Idaho got off to an early lead and was on top at halftime, 38-31, but WSC was never out of contention until the final three minutes when the Vandals began a stall.

Coleman and forward Jumping John Liveious took control with Idaho ahead, 59-56, and drove in for baskets when the opportunity arose. WSC couldn't crack the Vandal ball handling patterns after that.

The Cougars had numerous chances at the foul line but couldn't connect consistently from there and it took several long jump shots by guard Mert Kennedy to keep them in the game.

Idaho again topped the Cougars in shooting from the floor, with 38 per cent to WSC's 34 per cent.

The Vandal five also hit 13 of 18 from the foul line while the Cougars could convert on only 12 of 25, missing often when they could have pulled close to Idaho.

Latest Idaho conference scoring shows Simmons leading the Vandals with 136 points in six games for a 22.7 average.

Bears, UCLA Sweep Games To Move Into PCC Lead

California's Golden Bears and the UCLA Bruins moved past Oregon State last weekend into a tie for first place in the PCC.

The Bears and Bruins both swept two game series to move into the two-way leadership. Idaho's Vandals replaced USC in the league's first division by bumping WSC twice, to move into fourth spot.

California dealt the OSC Beavers their first loss of the season, 61-51, at Berkeley Saturday night, in a wild contest marked by 49 fouls.

Cal's Al Buch paced his club with 14 points. OSC's defending PCC scoring leader Dave Gambee topped game scoring with 15 points.

Friday the Bears defeated area rival Stanford 60-45, to give the Indians their fourth season loss.

UCLA Shows Well
UCLA smacked USC 80-75 Saturday after slipping past the Trojans, 52-51, Friday. Cross-town rivalries broke out anew late in the second game when a free-for-all among the players momentarily halted play.

In other action, Oregon's Charlie Franklin got hot from the free throw line against Washington to give his team its first PCC win, 57-53, at Eugene Saturday night.

Neutral Corner

Coleman Is Overlooked Series Star; Ross Held to 7 Points

by Dwight Chapin

The most overlooked player in Idaho's two convincing triumphs over Washington State last weekend was in our opinion, Mr. Clutch of the Vandals, Whaylon Coleman.

Coleman was assigned the task of guarding the Cougar's top scorer, Jim Ross, who had averaged better than fourteen points per game.

All Coleman did was hold the WSC guard to seven points for the two ball games, five at Pullman Friday night and a scant two here Saturday night.

That great defensive job, perhaps more than any other single reason, (and we're not forgetting the continued scoring feats of Idaho's captain Gary Simmons), was the reason for the Vandals' complete dominance.

Iron men performances were turned in by Simmons and Coleman, both of whom played without relief in the two-game series.

In fact, the entire Idaho squad showed great "staying power" against WSC. The starting five of Simmons, Coleman, Jim Branom, Hal Damiano, and John Liveious, had little rest either night.

Two Changes
Friday, only B. J. Schaffer, a rapidly improving shooter, and Bob Walton were called on by coach Harlan Hodges from his second five and Saturday only Schaffer, Walton, and Gary McEwen substituted.

McEwen had been a member of the Idaho starting quintet but noticeably was feeling the effects of a week-long bout with a cold and played only sparingly.

Did you ever wonder what a football coach has to say after his team blows nine games out of a nine game schedule?
Ken Hunter, Idaho athletic publicity director, gave us a clipping of unknown origin which, surprisingly, could well be a guide to what the well informed coach in any sport is expected to say after his team completes a good, middling fair, or poor season.

Following are the statements by gridiron coaches of 1957 (or any other year):

Won 9, lost 0: "I don't deserve any of the credit. With such a talented squad, it would have been impossible to lose."

Won 7, lost 2: "It was a good season. Even in the two we dropped, our boys looked good."

Won 4, lost 4, tied 1: "Considering the toughness of our schedule, we can be proud to get an even break on the season."

Won 3, lost 6: "A couple we lost could have gone the other way. This gang never gave up trying, no matter what the odds."

Won 1, lost 8: "With an inexperienced squad, and hopelessly handicapped by injuries and ineptibility, I feel we turned in a good record. I never saw a team improve as much as ours did in its 7-6 win over Tech. We were really rolling in high when the season ended."

Won 0, lost 9: "I just want to say that never in my life was I so proud of anything as this bunch of fine young men I worked with. They showed they've really learned the lessons that really count in life - sportsmanship, persistence and courage in the face of overwhelming odds. As the season progressed, these boys built up Character with a capital 'C'."

Campus Club 2's J. D. Lawson and Sigma Nu's Jerry Smythe, both Vandal football stars, scored crucial baskets in sudden death overtime Thursday and Friday to give their teams intramural "A" basketball wins.

Lawson hit a tip-in Thursday night to give Campus Club 2 a 44-42 decision over Lindley Hall 2 and Smythe sank a hook shot Friday to provide Sigma Nu's winning margin, 36-34, over Sigma Chi.

Beta Theta Pi grabbed an undisputed lead in League I, with Reg Carolyn hitting 24 points in a 58-23 win over Delta Sigma Phi.

Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Nu remain in a tie for League II leadership.

The Fijis, behind 12 point performances of Al Dingle and Hale Henson, dropped Kappa Sigma Friday night.

Yet to Lose
Town Men 1, with a 4-0 record, and Chrisman Hall 1, with a 3-0 slate, both have yet to lose. Both were idle Thursday and Friday.

Gault Hall 2 tops League IV with a 3-0 mark. Gault 2 also was idle Thursday and Friday.

In other outstanding individual performances, Vandal griddler Wayne Walker dropped in 21 points as Phi Delta Theta won its first game of the year, 38-33 over Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Rog Jones led the SAE's with 17.

"Lefty" Miller paced Tau Kappa Epsilon to a 27-22 win over Alpha Tau Omega with a 15 point spurge and Dick Jackson, Campus Club 2 hit for 17 in the 44-42 decision over Lindley 2.

Skip Spikes Utah Rumors

Idaho football coach "Skip" Stahley Sunday night spiked rumors that he might be heading for the Utah grid job vacated last week by "Cactus" Jack Curtice, new coach at Stanford.

"I'm very happy where I am," Stahley, who is visiting in the East, reportedly said at Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

"It's very flattering to have your name mentioned and I have no objection to that, but actually, I haven't heard anything else about it," he added.

He said that he had not been contacted by any University of Utah officials and assumed that the unofficial reports were just rumors.

Stahley, who has been on a speaking tour in the East during the last week, took over head football coaching duties here in 1954.

Needle In the Haystack

Idaho basketball players are apparently playing a game of "Button, button, who's got the button?" in a short period of inactivity in Friday's game at Pullman. Cause of the strange behavior was Idaho's big Jim Branom, who lost one of his contact lenses. WSC's pep band serenaded the hunting Idahoans with "Three Blind Mice."

Finmen Split Dual Meets Over Weekend

The Vandal swim team split two meets over the weekend, losing to the University of Washington, 71-15, Friday night, and winning over Western Washington College of Education, 64-13, Saturday.

"Our times were the best that we have posted this season, but Washington is a tremendous team. They just had too much," coach Eric Kirkland said yesterday.

The Husky swimmers swept all 10 first places, with seven individual winners as well as two relays.

Larry Nelsen, Vandal swim ace in the 200-yard backstroke, swam seven seconds under his best previous efforts, but could manage no better than a third in the event.

Alex Gilbert placed second in the 200-yard butterfly, missing a first place finish by inches. The other Idaho second places were picked up by Ken Goodwin second in the 50-yard freestyle, and Ron Edwards, who finished second in diving competition.

All Idaho 1sts
Against WWCE the Vandals swept all eight individual firsts, and copped firsts in both relays.

Dave Damon grabbed a first in the 200-yard freestyle, Ken Goodwin took top honors in the 50-yard freestyle, Jim Phillips won the diving event, Alex Gilbert took the 200-yard butterfly, Sam McNeil placed first in the 440-yard freestyle, and Chet Hall splashed to victory in the 220 yard breaststroke.

"Goodwin, Nelsen, Hall and Price all looked good in their wins in the WWCE meet," Kirkland said.

The frosh swimmers, idle over the weekend, host the WSC frosh in the Memorial Gym pool tomorrow. On Wednesday, the WSC varsity comes to Moscow for a 7:30 meet with the Vandal varsity, while the frosh travel to Pullman for a return meet.

"WSC has three exceptional fellows, and will be hard to beat. Our best bet will be in the diving event," Kirkland noted.

Late Spurt Brings Victory; Frosh Split With Couababes

The Vandal yearlings, smarting from a 90-75 loss to the Washington State frosh the night before, bounced back Saturday night to down the Couababes 72-67 at Memorial gymnasium.

The Vandals had to fight all the way to save their win Saturday as the Cougar yearlings came back from a 38-32 halftime deficit to tie the score late in the third quarter.

Bruce McCowan, ace Vandal frosh forward, who had injured his ankle slightly in the second quarter, returned to action, and the Idaho Babes again managed to open up a lead.

Ron Hunt, 5' 9" frosh guard, connected for 21 points to lead the Vandal yearlings, while Barclay led the Couababes with 16.

In the Friday night loss at Pullman, the Couababes jumped into a 41-29 half-time lead, and were never headed. McCowan led the Idaho Babes with 15.

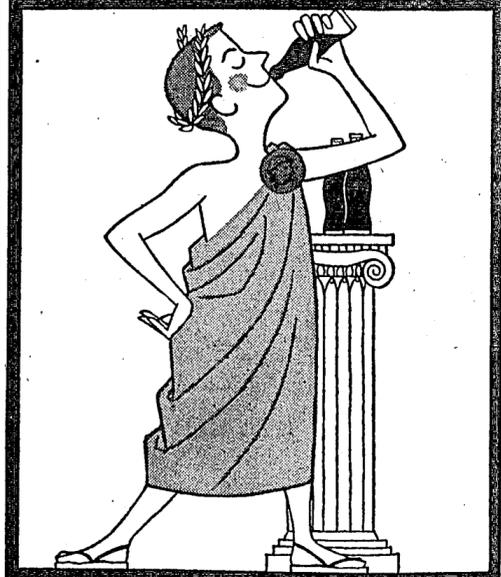

Five players hit in double figures for the Couababes; Reed with 20, Barclay and Browning with 14 each, and Fry and Himan, who scored 12 apiece.

Frosh coach Wayne Anderson remarked, "We looked pretty good Saturday night, and I was very happy to beat them. It was a real tough ball game." Ken Maran, 6' 7" frosh center, connected on six out of eight shots from the floor for the two nights, and drew praise from Anderson for his steady defensive game.

Other frosh drawing praise included Theron Ward, who grabbed 13 rebounds Saturday night and ## Anachronism?

Not really. 'Cause if Coke had been around in Caesar's day, Caesar would have treated himself to the sparkling good taste, the welcome lift of Coke! Caesar's motto—"I came, I saw, I conquered." Pretty good motto for Coke too—the prime favorite in over 100 countries today!
