

Smoking Area In Library Open

A smoking area on the ground floor of the Library today was opened for student use following approval by President D. R. Theophilus and the University Executive Committee.

The area, which will be furnished with couches and chairs later this week, is located in the museum section near the North door of the library building. Students can also reach the special section entering through the main doors and using the stairs on the right.

President Theophilus said that the smoking area would be available to all students wishing to smoke at any time while the library is open.

For the first few days, Library officials said, smokers will have to stand until the required furniture is removed from storage.

"The decorum of students using the Library has been exemplary," Theophilus said. "It is requested of students using the smoking area that they remember it is part of the Library."

Long Drive

The decision ended a concerted campaign by Associated Women Students to have such an area set aside for coed use. The section, however, will be open to both men and women.

The Exec Board last spring included a request for such an area in recommendations submitted to the Office of Student Affairs, but the issue was not acted upon until this year when former AWS President Mollie Godbold made the request again.

The Exec Board again approved the request in February, stipulating that it should be available for all students and Theophilus later appointed C. O. Decker, director of student affairs, Mrs. Marjorie Neely, dean of women, and Lee Zimmerman, librarian, as a committee to investigate the idea.

The President's announcement said the plan had been approved March 31.

The area will accommodate about 40 students comfortably, but is adequate to handle more, officials said.

Model UN Meeting Set For Seattle

Fourteen Idaho students and an advisor will travel to the University of Washington this month to participate in the annual Model United Nations sessions. They will represent

For the past five months they have been drawing up resolutions that they plan to propose at the MUN meeting set April 23-26.

During the local MUN meetings, members of the group have also listened to suggestions by experts in all phases of international relations.

Paul Baker and Ross Cotroneo, group spokesmen, said a number of schools throughout the Northwest will participate in this year's program.

The Idaho delegation will leave campus for Washington on Wednesday, April 22. They have been planning the trip since early December.

Included in the delegation are advisor Dr. Robert E. Hosack, Baker, Dick Day, Dan Fosket, and Mike McQuade, off campus; Ann Becker, Cathy O'Connor, and Jo Petrashek, Theta.

Cotroneo, Gault; Bill Galbourn, Willis; Kay Haberlach, Alpha Chi; Mike Heaman, Chrisman; Neela McCowan, Delta Gamma, and Sue Roffler, Kappa.

Area Cleared At Phi Beta Phi Building Site

Heavy equipment Monday had almost completed removal of two houses at Idaho and Deakin, clearing a lot that may eventually be the site for a new Phi Beta Phi sorority house.

The two houses, which the sorority has owned for 10 years, were sold last month.

A Pi Phi spokesman said Monday "plans are being discussed" to build at that site "in the near future," but said financial problems were holding up construction.

She said, however, that "there have been no concrete plans so far" to begin construction this year.

The houses were removed, she explained, "because we got a good chance to sell them and didn't want to pass it up."

She added that there have been no definite arrangements to sell, lease or rent the present sorority house to any other group although negotiations have been started.

Debaters Will Attend Pacific Fornesic Meet

Three Idaho debaters will attend a three-day Pacific Forensic League meet at Walla Walla beginning Wednesday. Besides the usual speaking contests, there will also be panel discussion groups, A. E. Whitehead, debate team coach, said.

Reed Bowen and Richard Sorenson, both of Lindley Hall, will enter the debating. Gordon Chester, Phi Delta, will enter panel discussions.

Bowen will compete in oratory and after-dinner speaking. Sorenson will make an extemporaneous speech and join in the panel discussions.

Panel discussions will deal with what colleges and universities can do to meet the increase in need for higher education, Whitehead said.

The team will debate at least four times on the topic, Resolved: That membership in a labor union as a condition for employment should be made illegal.

The Forensic League was first organized in 1923. Idaho joined in 1928. This year, 12 schools, including Idaho, are entered in the contest, Whitehead noted.

Schools entered are the University of Arizona, University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles, Stanford University, University of California, University of Nevada, University of Oregon, Oregon State College, Occidental College, University of Washington, Whitman College and Idaho.

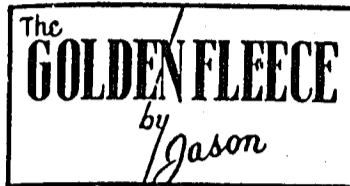

ROTC Will Vote On Military Queen

Five finalists for Military Ball Queen will be chosen Wednesday by Scabbard and Blade members. All ROTC cadets will vote in the final selection of the queen.

Queen candidates are Ann Marie Berry, Alpha Phi; Phyllis Weeks, Alpha Chi; Sonya Hoene, Gamma Phi; Harriet Hagan, Delta Gamma; Shirley Hennrikson, Pi Phi; Marilyn Crane, Kappa; Trenea Atchley, Forney Hall; Carol Wachal, Theta; Billie Sommers, Tri-Delt; Kay Casteel, French; Mary Garmsey, Ethel Steel; Jill Sandmeyer, Hays, Hall; and Kay Graves, French.

ASUI presidential candidates are well underway on their living group tours in preparation for the big four-way showdown set for April 24.

If past campaigns are any indication, these four candidates will have all sorts and "sizes" of ideas and plans for making student government worth something and means by which they plan, if elected, to make the Administration adhere more closely to student wishes.

Many of the idealistic platforms appear inviting and promising to voters before the elections, but never come about once the politicians are in office.

In listening to the campaign speeches, students should remember that student government looks strong, but that in reality it only controls ASUI activities and makes occasional recommendation to the Administration.

The candidate with the realistic view may be the most likely person for the job.

Keep in mind, the man you'll make up your mind to support the next week and a half could probably best be a hardworking organizer, who will be able to impress everyone from members of the Board of Regents to high school students across the state.

He'll be a man that students will be paying $75 a month to serve and represent them.

Writer-Drama Critic Brown Speaks At Events Assembly

Speaking today at 11 a.m. in the Memorial Gym is John Mason Brown, writer and drama critic. His special interest is the present day world as it is reflected in current plays, books and films. He explains this in his speech, "Seeing Things".

Brown is a man of varied interests, as indicated by the titles of books he has written. They range

John Mason Brown from "Broadway in Review" to "Daniel Boone — The Opening of the Wilderness."

His latest newsworthy remark was his criticism of President Eisenhower's use of the term "finalize." Brown considers this the peak of official gobbledey-gook, possessing a complete absence of any meaning to anyone.

This Week magazine ran an article last Sunday defending this word in particular, and the right of presidents, in general, to coin words and phrases not before in popular usage. According to This Week, men who come to decisions in group meetings, have for some time used "finalize" to denote their final agreements.

Brown graduated cum laude from Harvard and entered the world of drama critics at a time when it was dominated by such men as Alexander Wolcott. In spite of the competition he carved a name for himself as a critic and then went on to distinguish himself in many other sections of the literary field.

He is now writing his 18th book. He travels about 40,000 miles a year to make his speeches and now holds the record for lecture appearances at New York's Town Hall, where he has talked more than 60 times.

Television is a superb means of communication and, like sex, it is here to stay.

Brains Required At Colorado U For Cars

University of Colorado students may be required to have a minimum grade average of C before they can have a car on campus.

A recommendation to place eligibility to own a car on grades was made by the Campus Traffic committee of both teachers and students. The president of the University is expected to approve it.

Stroschein Keeps IK Presidency At Idaho; Miss Berry Is Queen

Two Idaho students were honored last weekend at the National Intercollegiate Knight convention in Denver, Colo.

Tom Stroschein, FarmHouse, was elected Royal King, national president, and Ann Marie Berry, Alpha Phi, was selected as the National IK Queen.

Stroschein's election marks the second time in 40 years that a Royal King was elected from the same chapter two years in a row. Don Ingle, Willis Sweet, was Royal King last year. The first time was in 1955-56 when three successive presidents were from the University of Utah.

Miss Berry was selected by a committee of faculty members from the convention's host school, Denver University. She was competing against five other candidates from Brigham Young University, Montana State College, Ricks College, Pacific University and Eastern Montana College.

Miss Berry represented both the Idaho chapter and the Inland Empire region at the convention. She was selected as Miss University of Idaho to win the local chapter queen candidacy.

The 35th annual convention was attended by 120 delegates representing 21 of the 30 chapters in the organization.

35 Students Begin All-Out Campaign Preparing For Coming ASUI Election

Four ASUI presidential candidates and 31 Exec Board nominees began full-scale campaigns with living group tours yesterday facing ASUI elections only a week and a half away.

Student Government, Independent, and Campus Liberal parties all announced platforms which will be supported by their candidates, and United Party officials met last night for final work on the Greek platform.

ASUI President Dave Maxey announced that the Exec Board will again sponsor a political smoker in the Bucket before the April 24 elections, but indicated that the date has not yet been set. Other smokers are being planned in living groups by the various parties.

Jim Kay, ATO presidential candidate on the Student Government slate which includes eight Exec Board candidates, announced a three-plank platform for that party yesterday.

The third party platform includes:

1. At least one Exec Board member shall be appointed to each administrative committee now having student representation.

2. A program of action will be followed aimed at securing a representative position for the ASUI president on the Board of Regents, along with a faculty representative and the University President. The ASUI president would only have the right to discuss and express the student's views on all topics.

3. The Board of Selection and Control shall be responsible for the interviewing and selection of all chairmen and committee members on the departments of student events and department of promotion and services, with the approval of the Executive Board.

Liberal Platform
Campus Liberal presidential candidate Reed Bowen, Theta Chi, announced a five-plank platform for that group.

Included in the platform which will also be supported by the group's five Exec Board candidates was:

1. That a special publicity committee be established under the ASUI for purposes of disseminating newsworthy items to leading newspapers throughout the state. Such releases would include 1) Feature articles about accomplishments of such departments of student activities as drama, athletics, music, debate, etc. 2) Articles relative to individual student accomplishment to be sent to home newspapers. 2) Series of articles released in spring months presenting facilities and advantages of schooling in home state university, thereby enhancing student recruitment.

2. That at least once during the course of each semester, the ASUI president shall call an open assembly of the ASUI for the purpose of conveying to them a report of the progress made in carrying out the policies of student representation.

The executive board members report on progress in respective area of endeavor.

3. That the bookstore shall be established in corporate form under the ASUI, with all profits acquiring directly to that body, for distribution to its various budgets.

Conjointly with this there shall be a Bookstore pricing and administration board established to determine policy. This board shall be composed of the bookstore manager, the ASUI president, and such other members as may be expedient.

4. That the Argonaut be used to strongly and accurately mirror student consensus to administrative policies, and in turn convey to students the attitudes of the administration relative to student proposals. That the Argonaut shall attempt to unify student opinion behind student leadership, thereby presenting a united front to the Administration, to secure administrative recognition for all reasonable proposals and demands of students.

5. That enactment of one of the outstanding three-year-old parking proposals be positively invoked.

Four Points
Four points are stressed in the Independent party platform which is supported by presidential candidate Clyde Lofdahl, Willis Sweet, and a full nine member Exec slate.

The platform includes:

1. Have a quarterly student body smoker with the Exec Board to talk about current issues and allow living groups to invite Ex-

Two Coeds Given Graduate Study Fellowships

Fellowships for graduate study have been awarded to two University of Idaho coeds, according to national officials of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

Martha Sue Dempsey, Ethel Steel House, received a grant of $2,000 to work for her Master's Degree in botany. She has been admitted to the Graduate School of the University of Michigan.

Sally Beattie, Delta Gamma, has accepted a Foundation fellowship as an honor but will receive no monetary aid, since she has accepted a teaching assistantship at the University of Indiana. Miss Beattie will do graduate work in English.

Fellowships from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation are awarded annually to students on the basis of scholastic standing and leadership. Part of the Foundation's funds come from Ford Foundation grants.

me they're looking forward to the University drive as the biggest one of the year."

He said faculty wives, I.K.s, Spurs and nurses from local hospitals had agreed to aid in the campaign.

"We still need volunteer help," he emphasized. "We can certainly use anyone who has time to help."

Miss Hieber said touring publicity groups would visit all living groups next Monday to facilitate direct contact with the entire student body.

Golden said that UCLA's recent drive had netted about 1,000 pints. "I'm sure we can beat that total figured on a proportional basis," he said. "There are over 15,000 students there."

"Idaho has had a long-standing reputation for leading the West in donations. I hope we can live up to it this year."

He added that committee chairmen would meet at 7 p.m. today to iron out final details.

Officials credited fire doors and quick discovery of the fire as reasons the damage was not more extensive. The sleeping porch is set off from the main building by fire doors and a brick partition.

Russell Whitney, off campus, is reported to have discovered the fire as he passed the house. He saw smoke pouring from the windows and investigated.

Damage was confined mostly to destruction of bedding, members report.

May Fete Program To Be Presented In Memorial Gym

Idaho's annual May Fete will be presented in the Memorial Gym the Saturday before Mother's Day. Molly Godbold will be crowned May Queen and the Spurs will do their traditional May Pole Dance.

The fete is sponsored by the Mortar Board and the Associated Women Students, Martha Sue Dempsey, Mortar board president, said.

The gym will be decorated to add a more festive touch, according to Karen Warner Gowanlack, festival chairman.

Blood Drive In Final Stages For Launching Next Tues.

Planning for the annual all-campus Blood Drive went into its final stages Monday as chairmen prepared to launch the three-day drive next Tuesday.

Goal for the drive is 750 pints, more than 300 less than in 1956.

Drive co-chairman Elaine Hieber Monday reminded living group representatives to pick up scheduling sheets at the Student Union by noon today.

"They have to be completely filled out by Friday noon," she said, "if we're going to get the entire schedule set up by Sunday."

She explained that individuals would have an opportunity to select their own time to appear at the SUB ballrooms, but would have to adhere to the time assigned.

Two trophies will be awarded to the men's and women's living group which farthest surpasses its quota.

Arrangements Completed
Meanwhile co-chairman Jim Golden said all arrangements had been completed with Red Cross officials in Boise and Moscow.

Full Cooperation
"We're getting full cooperation from everyone so far," he said. "The Boise authorities have told me they're looking forward to the University drive as the biggest one of the year."

He said faculty wives, I.K.s, Spurs and nurses from local hospitals had agreed to aid in the campaign.

"We still need volunteer help," he emphasized. "We can certainly use anyone who has time to help."

Miss Hieber said touring publicity groups would visit all living groups next Monday to facilitate direct contact with the entire student body.

Students Feel Democrats Will Win Next Election

MINNEAPOLIS (ACP) — According to results of a recent poll of students in many colleges across the United States, a large majority of the people interviewed feel the Democrats are more likely to win the 1960 presidential elections.
Associated Collegiate Press National Poll of Student Opinion asked the question:
"AS OF RIGHT NOW, DO YOU THINK THE DEMOCRATS OR THE REPUBLICANS HAVE A BETTER CHANCE OF WINNING THE 1960 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS?"

ature, a Chatham College (Pittsburgh, Pa.) union coed feels the Republicans have a better chance in 1960.
"Northern and Southern Democrats are too badly split," she said, for the Democrats to regain office in the next election. Others among the smaller proportion looking for a Republican victory in 1960 feel President Eisenhower's popularity will carry the party through into another term, even though he will be unable to run himself.

Journalism Regional Meet On 2 Campuses Saturday

Professional and chapter members of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, from colleges in the Pacific Northwest will meet on the WSC and Idaho campuses this Saturday.
George Fowler, Idaho co-chairman of the first regional convention for the schools, said about 35 delegates were expected to attend. He said representatives from University of Oregon, Oregon State College, University of Washington, Montana State University, and Gonzaga would attend.

Vandaleers Sing Thursday, Tour Apr. 18-25

University Vandaleers will present their annual Spring Concert at the Ad Auditorium Thursday evening at 8 p.m. prior to leaving for a week-long tour of southern Idaho.
The famed choral group will visit 19 towns in its annual spring tour April 18-25, conductor Glen R. Lockery has announced.

Candidates Reason
Another line of reasoning also became apparent in the comments on answers to the question. Many of the students interviewed based their conclusion of a 1960 Democratic victory on potential candidates.
A Lake Forest College (Lake Forest, Ill.) freshman's opinion stems from a possible Republican ticket. He notes that Eisenhower cannot run again and "feels Nixon is unpopular." A senior at St. Mary's University, (San Antonio, Texas) looked at the other party's possible candidates for his conclusion. His comment: "The young Democrats look promising."

Attack Against Censure
Howard C. Cleavenger, managing editor of the Spokane Chronicle, will speak on methods used by newspapers to lead the attack against censure. A morning speaker has not been selected yet.
Both student and newspaper men will appear on an afternoon panel covering the facts and fallacies of newspaper work. Students will tell what they expect from the profession.
Chapter officers will have a discussion on chapter affairs to conclude the program.
Meanwhile Jim Golden, Beta, was elected president of the local chapter. He succeeds Fowler who was last year's president.
Other officers are Bruce Wendle, off-campus, vice-president, Dwight Chapin, Willis Sweet, secretary; Clair Kenaston, Beta, treasurer; and Granville Price, chairman of Journalism, advisor.

No Blame
Most student leaders admit, moreover, that no student leader, publication or faction can be blamed if a proposal does not "click" when it hits the Hill. Idea after idea has been pushed with zeal and has

Campus Politics Personal Battles Confuse Issues

Regrettably, it is possible that the ASUI election campaign which finally got off the ground officially yesterday may be one of personalities.
There are those in the ranks of all four factions who figure that the best way to get votes is to unearth something emotional to appeal to the voters. But to find something on which to base that emotional appeal is the problem.
There are rumblings in the Third and Fourth parties to the effect that a good bet would be to hit this year's Exec Board for not "getting tougher" with the Administration. The partisans believe, off the record, that more legislation could have been rammed through the Hill and the Regents by a more aggressive approach. What that approach would be nobody seems to know, but as in every election, it pays to attack the group in power.

An Old Idea
This whole idea is an old one. On a different level, it backfired on the Greeks when they tried it against past proxy Dick Weeks a couple of years ago. There are still many who remember that stormy smoker of 1956 when recriminations flew back and forth across the Bucket and crippled the Greek bandwagon.
Old hands at the student voting game unanimously deplore the idea of singling out individuals as the goats in an election campaign.
Wiser men, at least in years of service, feel such wide-ranging attacks serve only to humiliate (usually without basis) student leaders and leave a nasty taste in everyone's mouth when the whole fiasco is over. Politics of this campus is too minor and too unimportant to call for a rich harvest of bitterness when the whole thing is finished.

The Hill Rules
After all, the ten people who are chosen to run ASUI affairs have a pretty set pattern in which to work. They work for virtually no compensation and in the final analysis are always subservient to the Hill.
Past officers elected from any party realize that this is as it should be. "Fighting the Hill" is not only an empty phrase, but it is a stupid one. No one is prepared to battle with the administration, and further, nobody wants to.
Those who have had direct contact with the Administration have found its officials to be generally interested in student ideas and requests and ready to help wherever possible. Finances, established policies, the Legislature, and the Board of Regents influence final decisions. The rulings will not be changed by babblings in a party platform or outraged cries from the student body. And when has the student body ever organized to an extent that it was a formidable challenge to the Hill?
The ridiculous "laundry controversy" of a year or so ago made a weak stab at getting general approval, but it soon died as interest waned. In short, nothing came of it.

Campeyeing Jim Golden's For Those Who Stayed, Vacation Was Profitable

For the handful of athletes and researchers working on mid-semester reports who elected to stay on campus during the spring break, the University was a pretty lonely place.
This isolation from the frivolity which marked the 10 days in which students headed into the inter-lands had some strange manifestations, too.
At one fraternity, a man was watching television early one evening when an unidentified visitor walked in, sat down and asked, "What's on TV?"
His surprised host thumbed through the program schedule and decided on a particular western.
"That's no good," declared the unnamed guest, "let's watch the other one."
The host won finally and they sat there in silence for two hours. Then the visitor left the house without a word.

Fried Blankets
The SAE's had their troubles Thursday when six electric blankets overheated and sent clouds of smoke pouring out an upstairs window. Within minutes, most of the depleted campus population was gathered at the fire scene, a welcome (except to the worried SAE's) diversion to a singularly boring week.
Women Were Problem.
Biggest problem though, according to most males (the only ones who stayed around the campus) was the lack of women.
"We sure missed those gals," one said. "We would have been happy just to have some coeds to LOOK at even."
"Bookers' Busy.
Surprisingly enough, the library was a busy place most of the time as students got in some undisturbed studying.
Lee Wautenpaugh, off-campus, said Saturday he had spent the whole week searching for information on the formation of three sections of the United Nations, but had battled 333 so far.
"I found the documents on the gotten nowhere. And it's nobody's fault.

From the complexion of things at the moment it's apparent that a stink greater than anything Paradise Creek could ever produce may be raised as the campaign gets into overdrive.
It makes no difference which party "controls" student government except in the egotistic minds of those who run the parties. In any case, so-called government will go on functioning because it must function.
If politics on this campus again degrades itself to a secondary school level, it has lost the only significance it ever had. That, briefly, is to select ten officials to do the work that nobody else wants to do and to perform it in the most efficient manner possible.
Finally, if this election becomes a "slam 'em, kick 'em" sort of juvenile playtime, it should be a good indication that something drastic should be done to re-organize the whole governmental system here.
But, then, who's kidding, the campus wants it laughs.

AS OUR NAME clearly indicates, we are in the telephone business.
We own and operate 1,696 central offices in 30 states.
We manufacture telephones, switches, relays and other communications equipment, for our own use—and for the 4,400 other "independent" telephone companies in the United States.
And while — by the yardstick of size — we cannot claim to be the leader, we find ample opportunity for leadership in other ways.
Take the telephone pictured here as an example. It is our own design.
At first glance, it may look quite a bit like other modern telephones.
But you will find three important differences.
The surfaces just above the dial on each side are contoured to guide the mouth-piece-receiver or "handset" into place unerringly.
An extra quarter of an inch is added to the tapered mouthpiece and earpiece.
And the cradle which receives the "handset" is lower in front than in the rear.
The result: It is almost impossible for an "off-the-hook" interruption to service to happen.
This is, as we said, one example of how we seek to do whatever we do better than it has been done before.
And this same ambition guides every phase of our operation, from the development of better equipment for telephone central offices, to the courtesy-training of the people who represent us in dealing with our customers.

Play Will Feature Use Of Telephone System

An inter-communications system will be used in the forthcoming production of "The Crucible," a three-act drama by Arthur Miller, to assure a smoother running show, according to director Howard Dorgan.

The system was installed at the request of Dorgan, a drama instructor here. He points out that there are many bottlenecks that occur during a play that can be eliminated through telephone communication.

Three men and a crew foreman will engineer the communications setup during "The Crucible" performances April 25-26. They are Joe Dyer, head, Ralph Provincial, Bob Hall and Kent Lambert.

Seven stations will be connected with each other during the production's actual operation, Dorgan said.

Lines will lead to the director and assistant director, stage manager, light bridge above the stage, dressing room, back stage wall, property crew, and fly gallery where the curtains are manipulated.

Communications personnel are able to contact one person at a time or all stations at once.

The crew will alert the cast for exits and entrances, prepare curtain pulling calls in advance, and do several other things that are needed for a smoother production, Dorgan explained.

While the show is in progress all backstage stations will be connected with each other except for the stage manager. He will have a direct line to the actors below stage to call them for entrances.

However, the stage manager is able to talk to the backstage crew at anytime, Dorgan said.

AWS Conventioneers Here Friday For Lunch, Sessions

Caeds from seven western states will invade the WSC and Idaho campuses this weekend for an Associated Women Student's meet set Thursday through Saturday.

About 150 delegates are scheduled to attend a luncheon in the Student Union Building here Friday noon.

Kay Zenier, AWS president from Ethel Steel House, announced plans yesterday afternoon for the three-day program that will discuss a woman's role in society today. Part of the talks will center around what her position is in the current scientific progress.

Prior to the luncheon here, delegates will take a scenic tour around the Lewiston area.

During the luncheon, Dean Boyd A. Martin of the department of Letters and Science, will be guest speaker. He will talk about the woman's role in a cultural and esthetic world.

Dean Katherine Towle of the University of California will be one of the main speakers during the sessions. Other speakers include a refugee from Austria and several administrative and faculty members from WSC.

Workshops
Discussion workshops will follow each of the speeches. They will be led by AWS president, official delegates, and dean of women from each of the regional schools represented.

Idaho participants in the convention include Miss Zenier, Deanna Geertson, AWS vice president; Irene Scott, secretary; and Nancy Campbell, treasurer.

Kay Conrad, Gamma, Phi is luncheon chairman. Miss Scott, Delta Gamma, is handling table decorations for the Friday noon program.

Simmons' Day Held Last Week At Twin Falls

One of the finest basketball players in Idaho sports history, Gary Simmons, was honored for scholastic and athletic achievement at his home town, Twin Falls, last week.

Simmons was given a watch and an honorary membership in the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce for 1958. Letters from teachers, coaches and friends were read to the throng which honored Simmons.

University President Dr. D. R. Theophilus paid tribute to Simmons for having "acquired a discipline of mind and body" and complimented him on his "fine athletic career."

"Simmons is a real credit to his mother, father, Twin Falls community, and the University of Idaho," the president said.

SCIENCE MADE SIMPLE: No. 3

Once again, the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes, bless their tattooed hearts, have consented to let me use this space, normally intended for levity, to bring you a brief lesson in science.

They are generous, openhanded men, the makers of Marlboro, hearty, ruddy, and full of the joy of living, as anyone can tell who has sampled their wares. In Marlboro you will find no stinking, no stinging, no Marlboro's pleasures are rich, manifold, and bountiful. You get a lot to like with a Marlboro—filter, flavor, flip-top box, and, in some models, power steering.

The science that we take up today is called astronomy, from the Greek words astro meaning "sore" and nomos meaning "back". Sore backs were the occupational disease of the early Greek astronomers, and no wonder! They used to spend every blessed night lying on the damp ground and looking up at the sky, and if there's a better way to get a sore back, I'd like to hear about it. Especially in the moist Mediterranean area, where Greece is generally considered to be.

Lunibago and related disorders kept astronomy from becoming very popular until Galileo, an unemployed muleteer of Pamplona, fashioned a homemade telescope in 1624 out of three Social Security cards and an ordinary ice cube. What schoolboy does not know that stirring story—how Galileo stepped up to his telescope, how he looked heavenward, how his face filled with wonder, how he stepped back and whispered the words heard round the world: "Let them eat cake!"

Well sir, you can imagine what happened then! William Jennings Bryan snatched Nell Gwynne from the shadow of the guillotine at Oslo; Chancellor Bismarck brought in four gushers in a single afternoon; Enos Slaughter was signed by the Hanseatic League; Crete was declared off limits to Wellington's army; and William Faulkner won the Davis Cup for his immortal Penrod and Sam.

But after a while things calmed down and astronomers began the staggering task of naming all the heavenly bodies. First man to name a star was Sigafoos of Mt. Wilson, and the name he chose was Betelgeuse, after his dear wife, Betelgeusen Sigafoos, prom queen at Michigan State from 1919 to 1931.

Then the Major Brothers of Yerkes Observatory named stars after their wives, Ursula and Canis, and Witnick of Harvard named one after his wife, Big Dipper, and soon all the stars were named.

Astronomers then turned to the question: is there life on other planets? The answer was a flat, unequivocal no. Spectroscopic studies proved without a doubt that the atmosphere on the other planets was far too harsh to permit the culture of the fine tobaccos that go into Marlboro Cigarettes... And who can live without Marlboro?

This celestial column—like the author's more earthy ones—is brought to you by the makers of Marlboro, the filter cigarette with the long white ash. And in all the solar system you won't find a better smoke.

Vandals Post 9-5 Mark In Pre-ND Ball Action

Coach Wayne Anderson's Vandal baseball squad ripped Eastern Washington twice Saturday to close out the 1958 pre-conference season with a 9-5 won-lost mark.

Idaho will open Northern division play here Friday and Saturday with single games against Washington. Friday's game will start at 3 p.m., Saturday's clash will begin at 2 p.m.

The Vandals won four of six games over spring vacation.

The six-game slate opened on a sour note when Gonzaga pitcher Terry Cossette shackled the Vandals on two hits to post a lopsided 9-1 win, April 4.

Big Jim Branom absorbed the bulk of the Gonzaga attack. He took over in the sixth inning after Knute Westergren had given up two hits and two runs in five innings, and was combed for seven runs on three hits, two walks and a hit batter in the sixth.

The Vandals, behind Val Johnson's five-hit pitching, tacked a 4-2 defeat on Gonzaga in the second game.

Idaho got all the runs it needed to win in the third inning, scoring three times on three hits. Bob Dehlinger, Wayne Rigg, and Ted Knivilla all rapped singles in the uprising.

Friday, sophomore Denny Solt pitched an impressive game, downing Whitworth, 6-2. He gave up only four hits, striking out four batters.

The Vandals punched across four runs in the first inning on four hits. Jim Chrisman, Rigg, Ralph Hatch, and Ray Fry all smacked singles to lead the attack.

Whitworth put together six hits and six walks for an 8-5 second game victory.

Starter Jack Bloxom absorbed the defeat. He was relieved by southpaw Wendy Wolf in the sixth inning.

The outcome of the game was in doubt until the final inning, when the Pirates exploded for four runs on five hits.

Righthander Clark Anderson pitched a near no hitter in the first game against EWCE Saturday, winning 4-0.

The lone Savage hit was a scratch single by second-baseman Bob Meinke in the sixth inning. Anderson walked only one man and hit one batter.

Score: Twice

Idaho scored twice in the third inning when after Jim Throckmorton was hit by a pitched ball, Knute Westergren singled, Bill Stellmon walked, and Larry Hattemer singled.

Righthander Johnson won his second game over the vacation when he downed EWCE, 6-4, in the second tilt Saturday.

Idaho bunched three hits for three runs in the first inning. Hattemer provided the big blow, a triple. Hatch and Bob Thomas both had singles.

The Vandals tallied single markers in the second, fifth, and seventh innings.

Coach Anderson said he was "satisfied" with the Idaho showing in pre-conference play.

He praised three sophomores, Hattemer, Hatch, and Fry, for outstanding performances in recent games.

Anderson thought the Northern Division would be tough this season but added that Idaho could make a strong showing if the squad continues to get good pitching and timely hitting.

Gridders Have Their Problems But Team Again Looks Strong

by Dwight Chapin

After what must have been the shortest five-month lay-off ever, the Idaho football Vandals will don the pads again tomorrow.

Head football coach Skip Stahley, not the world's most optimistic grid mentor, has some misgivings about the coming fall season but generally is looking on the bright side.

With such men as Jerry Kramer, Wayne Walker, Larry Aldrich, Howie Willis, Tony Anderson, and Jerry Smythe gone, Stahley's job won't be easy.

May Experiment

But spring practice is the place to experiment. And one thing is certain. Stahley will not face as many tough problems as confronted his predecessors. In fact, he may be in the best position in recent years at Idaho.

For one thing, 21 lettermen are returning. With inadequate facts at hand, we would guess that that is the largest number in a long time to return for spring practice.

The line was heavily hit by graduation. But there will be at least one experienced man at every position from end to end.

Wade Patterson, who has been drafted by the Chicago Cardinals and was a starter last year returns. J. D. Lawson, a second stringer in 1957, is back as is letterman Bud Dowling.

Big Reg Carolyn, a talented pass-catching end, moves up to the varsity from the Vandal frosh and in a pinch, Don Ridener, now listed as a fullback, could play the wing. He saw some action there last year, as did halfback Jim Norton.

The end spots appear to be the least of the Idaho line worries.

Starter Pete Johnson, a Cleveland Browns draftee, should man one tackle spot with 255-pound Jim Prestel, who left the team in mid-season last year, at the other.

Steve Symms will add depth and a bright future is held for Gene Novotny, up from the frosh. It is also rumored several top junior college tackles may wind up at Idaho.

Last year's second team guards, Dale Hill and Fred Borque, top the returning guards. Three other lettermen, Dave Anders, Dick Gooby, and Tom DiNuovo, brighten the picture there.

At center big Stan Fanning, a second-liner last year, will try to fill Wayne Walker's shoes. The picture is hazy back of Fanning. One of the guards may be moved over to bolster the center spot.

Quarterback is lacking in experience, but not in hopes.

Gary Farnworth, who was used only sparingly last fall, should get first call there but he will have to fight off the challenge of first year man Sil Vial, a fine passer, and two junior college transfer, Joe Espinoza, and Jim Davidson.

Bob Eyer, who alternated between quarterback and halfback last year, may wind up as a full-time signal caller this season.

Four halfbacks who lettered in 1957, headed by the flashy Bob Dehlinger, are back. The others include Norton, Theron Nelsen, and Paul Wagar, who all played their initial year of varsity ball last season.

Was Hurt

Norton will miss spring practice, however. He recently suffered a broken bone in his foot and it will not be healed in time for him to turn out.

Dehlinger and Wagar are both speedsters and fine pass receivers. Nelsen is a bruising-type runner, while Norton's forte is defense.

Fullback will be in the hands of the colorful, capable Ken Hall, who may be one of the nation's best fullbacks this year. He topped the country in punting last season.

Supporting him are June Hanford and Ridener. Hanford packs only 170 pounds but is a speedy, hard-hitting driver.

That should be the basic roster for upcoming spring practice, and hence, the 1958 football season.

It would be folly to predict what will happen when Idaho takes the gridiron this fall but we will say this.

If Stahley can add just a little more depth in the line and any one of the quarterback prospects comes through in a big way, there is no limit to how far the Vandals can go.

Football Vandals To Open Spring Practice Tomorrow

Coach Skip Stahley's football Vandals will open a month of spring drills at Neale Stadium tomorrow.

The Idaho coach will welcome back 21 lettermen in what he has termed a "building year." Several positions will be "up for grabs", including center and quarterback.

"I think we should have a better balanced squad than last fall and we have enough veterans to give us some experience up front. We may have some weak spots at quarterback and center, however," Stahley said.

Many Gone

Gone from the 1957 team are such players as Jerry Kramer, Wayne Walker, Larry Aldrich, Tony Anderson, Jerry Smythe, and Howie Willis.

The hard core of the 1958 team may be built around returning starters Wade Patterson, Pete Johnson, Ken Hall, Bob Dehlinger, and Jim Norton.

Stahley said he expected several men up from the 1957 freshman team and a number of junior college transfers to plug most of the gaps.

The full squad list will be released Wednesday.

Returning

Returning lettermen (by position) include: Ends—Patterson, J. D. Lawson, and Bud Dowling.

Tackle—Johnson, Jim Prestel, and Steve Symms.

Idaho distancemen, (from left) Ron Adams, Pete Reed, and Frank Wyatt, finished in a "planned dead heat" at WSC Saturday, winning the two-mile easily in 9:59.5. The Vandals were downed 97-34 by the Cougars, in the first dual meet of the season.

Willis Sweet Keeps Narrow Int'mural Total Point Lead

Willis Sweet Hall retained its intramural point lead over Tau Kappa Epsilon, but only after the Tekes had chopped points in 'B' basketball.

Willis Sweet had taken the 28-point lead after the finish of table tennis, but the Tekes picked up 97 points in 'B' basketball, while Sweet was getting only 79. Sweet now has 1044, while the Tekes have a 1034 total.

Beta Theta Pi dislodged Lindley Hall from their third place perch in IM points, knocking Lindley into the fourth spot. The Betas grabbed 82 points in 'B' basketball.

Delta Tau Delta moved into the select first-five in IM totals, edging past Phi Gamma Delta. The Deltas now hold a 2 1/2-point margin, 965 to 962.5, over the Fijis.

No living group is in solid contention after the Fijis.

Town Men's Association is in seventh spot with 896 points, followed by Phi Delta Theta with 840.

Rounding out the top ten are Kappa Sigma with 780 markers and Sigma Chi with 761.

The Kappa Sigs jumped ahead of Sigma Chi with a first-place finish in 'B' basketball, getting the maximum possible 100 points.

Four sports, softball, horseshoes, track, and golf, remain on the intramural calendar.

Only the top four living groups, Willis-Sweet, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Beta Theta Pi, and Lindley, appear to be in serious contention for the

INTRAMURALS

Two of the final four sports on the intramural slate begin this week. Softball got underway last night and horseshoes is scheduled to start tomorrow.

Intramural softball games will be played Monday through Saturday. Starting time is 4:10 p.m. on weekdays and 9:15 and 10:30 a.m. on Saturdays.

Clem Parberry, intramural director, said yesterday that the tentative starting date for horseshoes is set tomorrow. Living groups will be notified.

In intramural bowling action before the holidays, Dick Rene, Delt, rolled the high game and series, 226 and 538, March 27, and Bill Wilkerson, Delta Sig, had the high April 1 game, a 209. Bill Sham-jon, Teke, bowled the high series, a 539 effort.

Cindermen Fall To WSC, 97-34

WSC's fleet cinder team rolled to a 97-34 win over Idaho's thinclads in their first dual meet of the season Saturday with a total of 12 first places against Idaho's 3.

The Cougars, who swept to first in all six field events, both hurdle events, each sprint event up to the 880 relay, and the relay, jumped off to a 48-6 lead before the Vandals began to score consistently.

Ron Adams and Dick Boyce finished one-two in the mile to give Idaho its first edge in any event over the host WSC tracksters.

Bright Spots

The two other bright spots for Idaho, the half-mile and two-mile, saw Boyce outrun English of WSC for a first in the 880, and Pete Reed, Frank Wyatt, and Ron Adams, finish in a "planned dead heat" in the two mile to sweep that event.

Charlie Kahl placed second in the broad jump, third in the pole vault, and tied for third with teammate Larry Ferguson in the high jump to add 4 1/2 points to Idaho's total.

Jack Hogan placed third in the shot put, Dave Durham copped a second in the 440 and third in the 220, Bill Overholser finished third in the high hurdles, and Doug Seely placed third in the 880 to compete the Vandal scoring.

"We did about as we expected," Idaho coach Joe Glander noted. "WSC has a good team, particularly in the weights."

Idaho's next dual meet will be Saturday against the University of Washington at Seattle.
