

Vandaleers Ready Yuletide Event Slated Sunday

A group of 50 students will blend their voices Sunday evening for the annual Vandaleer Candlelight Concert, scheduled at 8 in Memorial Gymnasium.

During the hour-long program the University singers will give their renditions of familiar Christmas carols.

Glen R. Lockery, Vandaleer director, said this year's concert will place more emphasis on traditional Yuletide music done with familiar arrangements.

The University brass ensemble will play in the first part of the program. Part of the evening will be devoted to "A Ceremony of Carols" for women's voices and piano, arrangements of Christmas songs for male voices and selections for the mixed choir.

A candlelight serenade will conclude the evening program, when Vandaleers present a series of well-known carols including "O Come All Ye Faithful," "The First Noel," and "Silent Night."

Vandaleers can boast a history of 28 years on the Idaho campus. A group of 18 students organized a small choir in 1930, and made several appearances. The ASUI soon lent its support to them after the singers had gained popularity.

Shortly before World War II the Candlelight Concert became a regular feature," Lockery explained. "In those days it was presented two nights starting at 11 p.m."

When World War II broke out, the Vandaleers were forced to disband and a women's singing orchestra took its place. After the war, the famous choral group was revived.

Lockery, who joined the music faculty in 1947, switched the time to 8 p.m.

By 1951, crowds became too large to accommodate them in the University auditorium and the concert was moved to the gym.

"Even at that," Lockery said, "we are usually surprised to see the gym solidly packed."

Blonde-haired Mrs. William Staley is in the Student Union building business. And she's neither an architect nor a construction expert. She's just plain "Sandy S." — the gal who has improved SUB programming 100 per cent in just three months.

Sandy, who served one year on Executive Board (1956-57) before she graduated, took over the part-time job of program director while her hubby, Bill, completes his work toward a master's degree.

Aided and abetted by the markedly competent SUB committee, Sandy set to work in September to make the building more than a place for committee meetings, coffee drinking and dancing.

With some improvisation and a generous helping of imagination, she has planned and launched, with the help of the committee:

1. The Jazz in the Bucket series.
2. Coffee hours for public events speakers — a solid success.
3. An extensive art exhibit.
4. Special decorating and programming for Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas.
5. A bulletin-board roundup of campus events.
6. Better promotions for ASUI movies.

Still in the organizational stage: "popcorn forums," showing of films of Idaho football and basketball games with comments by the coaches involved (this one's far from complete yet), and a half-dozen other ideas.

Sandy admits all these have been tried elsewhere, including WSC, where a full-time program director runs the CUB activities.

This doesn't minimize her contribution. Somebody had to bridge the gap between idea and actuality. That Sandy has done with astonishing success. Backed by an always-busy SUB committee, Sandy has established the precedent that will help prove the need for an addition to the building sooner or later.

Dance Groups Plan Christmas Presentations

The Orchestris modern dance group will present "Christmas in Other Lands" at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Women's Gym.

The annual Christmas show will be performed by Pre-Orchestris, freshman women's dance honorary; Orchestris; and the advanced dance class. Routines are choreographed by the dancers.

The Irish "Christmas in Kiltarney"; "Deux Pieces Breves," a French adaptation; and the "Kantikeya," a Chinese dance, will be performed by pre-Orchestris.

Judy Wicks, Alpha Chi, will present a solo dance called "Christmas Within." Larry De Lashmutt, Chrisman Hall, and June Hanford, Sigma Nu, will interpret the English "Wassail."

The advanced class will do the Greek dance, "Xochipilli Macuilxochitl."

Remainder of the program will feature numbers by Orchestris, including "King Wencelas"; "Merry Christmas"; "Yoqui Musci"; "A Child's Gift of Trust"; and "In Homage to the Christ Child."

No admission will be charged for the program, said Miss Patricia Rowe, Orchestris advisor.

Coed Wins 4-H Safety Honor

An Idaho coed, Marie Hasfurther, French House, was one of eight national winners in safety projects at the recent national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. She won a $400 scholarship from General Motors.

Idaho state boasted three national winners at the event. Besides Miss Hasfurther, Diane Johnson of Boise won in beautification of home grounds, and Marilyn Ravenscroft of Tuttle, in forestry. Both are high school students and their prize was the trip to the national congress.

Other University students who made the trip were Garry Curtis, Shoup, and Sandra Wallen, Ethel Steel.

Twenty-eight Idaho youths made the trip along with two county agents, D. E. Warren, state 4-H Club leader, and Don R. Mitchell, assistant state 4-H Club leader.

Mitchell and Miss Hasfurther are scheduled to appear on television in Lewiston tonight to be interviewed about their trip.

Large Crowds To Tour Courthouse

Crowds expected from 1000-2000 will inspect the new Latah County Courthouse from 1-5 p.m. Sunday. A county employee will be stationed in each office to answer questions from the visitors.

In addition to the court room, the new building will house most of the county offices. The old jail will continue to be used.

President D. R. Theophilus will deliver a speech at the dedication ceremonies at 2 p.m.

Elwyn Schwartz, associate professor of music, will act as master of ceremonies at the dedication. J. J. Holland of Bovill, president of the Latah County Chamber of Commerce, will introduce the speakers.

The $400,000 building will replace the old courthouse which has served the citizens of Latah County for over 70 years.

Faculty Small- Fry Will Meet Santa Sunday

The patter of little feet and the babble of hundreds of happy little voices will fill the three SUB ballrooms when the children of faculty and students gather with their parents Sunday to meet Santa.

Over 1,000 persons are expected to attend, Gale Mix, ASUI General manager, announced.

An appointment was made with Santa last year to arrive at 2 p.m. when the festivities start, Mix said, and it is expected that he will bring candy and nuts for the children as he has done in the past.

Parking for Santa's reindeer was to have been handled by the University Barns, but a cable was received that Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer, had a cold and Santa would fly down from the North pole.

"I want him to rest up and be in top shape for Christmas eve," Santa said in the message. "Our weather reports indicate there will be plenty of fog over the nation and we'll need that bright nose to guide us through."

The sponsoring organizations, ASUI, SUB, University Dames and Faculty Women had planned the appearance of little Sandy Sleigh-foot also, Mix said, but his feet had grown to such size that he was unable to board the plane.

Refreshments will be served for the adult members at the party which will wind up at about 3:30, Mix concluded.

Fitzgerald Named Outstanding Page

John Fitzgerald, Delt, was chosen outstanding Page of the Intercollegiate Knights last Tuesday, at a meeting in which 48 students were initiated, Laird Noh, Sigma Nu, Royal Duke announced yesterday.

Fitzgerald received the award, given each year to one member of the Sophomore Service Honorary, on the basis of activity within the organization, leadership ability, and as a result of test scores taken by the pledges.

Tom Stroschein, Farm House, royal king (national president) and Dick Clauson, off-campus, regional vicerey, were present at the ceremonies, Noh said.

TMA Sets Annual Christmas Dance

The annual Townmen's Association Christmas Dance at the Idaho Hotel this Saturday at 9:45 will be open to the public. Quentin Stoda, off-campus, president, announced today.

Admission to the affair will be $1 per couple. "Refreshments will be served and there will be live music," Stoda said.

Students Warned To Park Cars In Special Areas Over Holiday

Operations Council Wednesday warned students who plan to leave their cars on the campus during Christmas vacation to park them only in authorized areas.

Two areas have been designated for student car parking over the vacation. One is Idaho Street west from Willis Sweet Hall to the Gym Annex. The other is the area across Third Street and north of the prefabs (intersection of Third and Line).

This arrangement is necessary for snow removal from the streets, explains the Council. Students who plan to leave their cars on the campus during Christmas vacation are requested to park them in the authorized areas before leaving the campus.

Towing Charges. Otherwise, if it snows, the cars will be towed to the authorized

Sophs' Queen To Be Crowned At Holly Dance

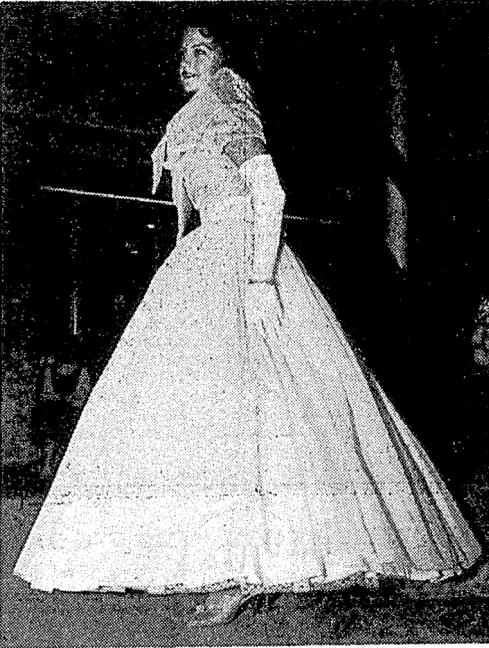

Christmas activity on campus reaches its peak tonight as the annual Holly Dance climaxes sophomore Holly Week. One of five sophomore beauties will be crowned queen at intermission of the affair.

Finalists for the honor were named at a style show in the SUB Wednesday.

They include Lynne Shelman, Pi Phi; Judy Wicks, Alpha Chi; Carolyn Blackburn, Gamma Phi, Neale Ward, Delta Gamma; and Linda Jones, Kappa.

Sophomore men will vote at noon today to pick the titlist. Male students in that class not residing in University living groups can vote at the SUB.

Sophomore class president Bruce McCowan, Beta, will crown the HOLLY FORMAL—Holly Queen candidate Ramona Legg, Alpha Gamma, models a floor-length white formal at the annual style show Wednesday. She was one of 13 hopefuls who paraded in styles at the affair.

TURNING THE TABLES Santa seems to be enjoying the attention of the five Holly Queen finalists at a pre-Christmas get together in the SUB this week. Sur- rounding Nick are Lynne Shelman, Pi Phi; Judy Wicks, Alpha Chi; Carolyn Blackburn, Gamma Phi; Neale Ward, Delta Gamma; and Linda Jones, Kappa.

Committee Plans Booklet Study

A committee has been set up to investigate the feasibility of a Panhellenic booklet to supplement the AWS handbook, Karen Kramer, Theta, committee chairman, announced today.

The purpose of the booklet would be to interest girls in sororities, Miss Kramer said.

The booklet would be sent to prospective rushees in the spring instead of fall as the AWS handbook is being done now, she continued.

Prospective rushees would be contacted by teams of Panhellenic members and the booklet would subsequently be mailed to them as a booster to their interest, she added.

Other members of the committee are Sandra Wanamaker, Alpha Gam and Gay Tuson, DG.

Board Approves Booklet For High School Seniors

A draft of a 12-page pamphlet designed to acquaint high school seniors with the academic requirements of the University of Idaho was approved by Executive Board Tuesday.

The pamphlet, the work of Tom McClure, off campus, may be distributed next spring. McClure told the Board he had contacted most University deans and Executive Dean H. Walter Steffens before submitting the proposal.

The final product, according to McClure's plans, would include information and outlines for themes required in freshman English, samples from science and mathematics tests and a list of books that could be read as preparation for college study.

Reading the booklet, McClure said, "would give the prospective students an idea of what they can expect during their first year at Idaho."

Test Slated. A preliminary test of the pamphlet's effectiveness will be made during Christmas vacation.

The Board also approved a report from B. J. Schaffer concerning proposals for a foreign student committee to plan a more extensive orientation for Idaho's 66 students from other countries.

Schaffer suggested that foreign students be invited to living groups for informal after-dinner discussions and that they be included in the freshman orientation program. ASUI President Dick Kerbs said a committee to handle the project would be appointed later.

In other action, the Board: Heard reports from the United Nations committee and from sophomore class president Bruce McCowan on Holly Week.

—Was told by Kerbs that a plan for reorganizing the Student Union committee was being completed for adoption later. Kerbs said the committee, under the proposal, would be divided into

Veterans To Fill Out Certifications

Veterans under Public Law 550 should be sure to fill out monthly certification forms for the Veterans Administration as soon as they return from Christmas vacation, C. H. Bond, chief counselor for students, said Wednesday.

Veterans failing to register before Jan. 6 will probably not receive their January checks until a month later, he said.

The Registrar's office must send the certificates to the VA no later than Jan. 7. Veterans may sign up Jan. 5 and 6.

Veterans checks for December will be mailed from Salt Lake City Dec. 16, and should be in Moscow before the beginning of Christmas vacation Dec. 19.

The VA promised to speed up its process so that checks should arrive before the 19th, Bond said.

REGENTS TO MEET

The Board of Regents will hold a four day meeting in Boise, Dec. 15-18, officials announced today.

Steffens Defines Education At Blue Key Initiation Dinner

Education was defined as a continuous process by Executive Dean H. Walter Steffens in an after dinner speech Wednesday at the Blue Key initiation banquet.

Classifying an education into four general groups, Steffens maintained that educated men must have an understanding of biological, physical and social sciences and of humanities. Besides this, Steffens added, a man must be a specialist in at least one field.

"This sort of education does not end with the granting of a degree," Steffens declared, "but continues through out a man's lifetime."

Five Injured In Car Wreck

A University of Idaho freshman and four other persons were seriously hurt last night in a head-on collision eight miles south of Moscow on U.S. 95.

Duane Carlson, 21, 435 E. 8th St., was treated at Gritman Hospital for lacerations, but was reported in "good" condition late Thursday. Carlson was listed as driver of one of the cars. His passenger, Bob Goddard, 26, also of Moscow, was injured, but his injuries had not been determined by press time.

The occupants of the other car, all from Lewiston, were Mrs. Alice Dillon, 48; her daughter, Mrs. Arlene Reynolds, 28; and Mrs. Dillon's son, Frank, 14. All had broken bones and severe lacerations.

Sheriff's officers said the two cars collided at the top of a hill about 3:30 p.m.

'Crossroads '59' Issue Tuesday

A special "Crossroads '59" issue of the Arg will be published Tuesday as a report in depth on the University of Idaho's crucial and complicated budget.

This edition will be the last before the Christmas holiday and will include "behind the figures" features on why the faculty salary situation is critical, the facilities problem and an extensive run-down on the budget in general.

The result of more than a month of interviewing and planning, the "Crossroads '59" edition is must reading for every student, faculty member, legislator and parent.

History Professor Joins Idaho Staff

A replacement has been named for John Hough, assistant professor of history, who died suddenly Nov. 28. E. Malcolm Hause, acting chairman of history, announced today.

He is John Van de Watering who recently completed all the requirements for the doctorate of history at the University of Washington, Hause said.

Van de Watering is single. He will take over Hough's classes on Jan. 5.

queen. She will be presented a trophy.

Chaperones will include Mr. and Mrs. Gale Mix, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Decker, and Col. and Mrs. Merrill Kempton.

The dance, scheduled from 9:30 p.m. - 12:30 a.m. in the SUB ballrooms, is based on the theme "Winter Enchantment."

A crystal-coated snowball centerpiece will revolve from the ceiling. Paper bells will hang from other parts of the ceiling.

Large Christmas cards depicting winter scenes will be hung on the walls and a lighted silhouette will form the background on the bandstand.

Pictures of couples will be snapped in a sleigh throne mounted on an iceberg.

Tickets for the semi-formal affair are $1.50 per couple, and may be purchased at the door.

Music will be provided by Gary Dossett's Embers. Women have been granted later permission until 1:30 a.m.

Sophomores serenaded the campus last night on their annual caroling party.

The group left the SUB at 6:30 and after visiting each campus living group, returned for refreshments in the Bucket.

AWS Dance Will Have 'Hula' Men

A hula hoop contest for men will be conducted at intermission time at the Associated Women's Students Turnabout Dance Jan. 9.

AWS representatives will be distributing "Hula Hoop" tickets in all women's living groups. Men's living groups are being asked to submit one candidate each for the contest.

The Icecaps and a sextet from Alpha Phi sorority will entertain at intermission. Gary Dossett's Embers will play at the dance.

Darlene Matheny, Alpha Phi, and Linda Jones, Kappa, are co-chairmen of the event.

Sigma Delta Chis Schedule Meeting

A joint meeting of Idaho and Washington State Sigma Delta Chi chapters is scheduled today at 3:30 p.m. in the Pine Room of the SUB.

Representatives of the Idaho Argonaut, WSC Evergreen and other publications of the two schools will discuss problems of campus news.

Jim Golden, editor of the Argonaut, and Jim Gies, editor of the WSC Evergreen, will serve as co-moderators of an informal discussion.

Queen Contests Still Dominate Campus Scene; Holiday Nears

What this campus needs is another queen contest. We have Holly queens, ski queens, snow queens, frat queens, U of I queens, queens of queens, and even a proposed queen of charity—Miss Campus Chest.

However, even with all these opportunities for recognition, many coeds are left out. This seems unjust.

We need a queen contest for those who have been left out because "they aren't interested in trivial campus activities."

The University of Oregon has come up with a plan for bringing these women into the limelight. They have inaugurated a new queen contest to be known as the "Queen-of-the-Girls-Who've-Never-Been-Queen" contest.

A long list of candidates has been compiled and filed away on IBM cards, according to the U of Oregon Emerald. These candidates will be interviewed by Emerald editors. A random sampling of the questions:

- 1) Are you in favor of limitless alcoholic consumption?
- 2) Would you approve of 5 a.m. closing hours?
- 3) How about a date?

Apparently the response to the QGWNQ contest has been phenomenal.

In the event of the initiation of such a contest on the Idaho campus, we predict equal success. Anyone having suggestions as to candidates are requested to contact the Argonaut office.

Tree Hunt.
Last weekend groups of cheerful students bundled up in heavy clothes, grabbed their handy double bitted axes, and took off for the woods to hunt for Christmas trees.

Many hours later they staggered back to campus, proudly clutching the fruits of their efforts.

Most of the trees they brought home were the small, easy to carry type. But one ambitious group went completely out of its head and returned with a tree that must have witnessed the passing of centuries. Almost.

At any rate, the Alpha Chi pledges triumphantly dragged their new found Christmas tree up to their yard and after con-

Dear Jason:

RE: "Football Can't Survive Long Unless Idaho Cuts Down Home Games"—Scott, Dec. 4. I think it would be a good idea to re-evaluate just why we have football or any other activity, at Idaho.

In a democracy, it would seem that any activity which is financially supported by individuals should benefit in some way the majority of those supporting it. Each student body member pays $750 to activities.

By far the greatest percentage of this goes to support a football team from which the majority receive little benefit. For those who traveled to see the game at Boise (officially a "Home" game), there was an additional cost of $1.25 to get in.

Notified that when WSC played their game in Spokane they paid no extra fee to see it.

When football can be seen by the students, there is no doubt it is the most popular spectator sport on campus and therefore benefits the majority of the students. When it cannot be seen, it falls to see where it materially benefits anyone except the participants.

Mr. Scott states that the students will have to be content with viewing films of games. It is ridiculous to imagine the students and alumni will get much pleasure out of holding Dad's Day and Homecoming three days after the game in the Borah Theatre.

Mr. Scott believes football cannot survive if we continue having home games. I believe that if that is our only alternative, it would be better to drop football.

After all, even if the budget is figured only by its benefits to athletes, football players make up approximately one-third of this school's athletes, and use much more than that percentage of the athletic budget.

However, I believe that there is a third alternative.

That is to confine our football scheduling to other colleges of our approximate size. There are a number of these colleges located reasonably near.

Some of these: Montana, Utah State, etc., we play; others we have neglected: Idaho State College and Denver for example. These colleges would probably be happy to schedule us on a home and home basis.

I believe we could have an excellent small college football team, even with a cut in football financing, if we followed this plan. We wouldn't need the $25,000 from the Rose Bowl to buy football players, because we would be competing with other institutions that don't spend that kind of money.

In short, we wouldn't be playing big time football, but we'd have a team we could cheer for and back with all the spirit of our 4,000 member student body.

Frankly, I would rather see Idaho lose to Slippery Rock Teachers college in the Aluminum Bowl (the small college version of the Rose Bowl) next year than see another season of big college football with our best season in years being a win 4; lose 4; tie 1 record.

The Cultural Advantages

By HALL M. MACKLIN, Head of Music Department

For well over twenty years the University of Idaho has been host to a remarkable concert series. Many students appear to be almost wholly unaware of a rich cultural environment which is unique on a residential campus in a community the size of Moscow.

It is routine for faculty members interested primarily in the fine arts and humanities to complain about the poor attendance on the part of the student body at concerts, plays, art exhibits and similar cultural offerings.

Part of the answer to what might be called indifference on the part of the students lies in the fact that students are busy people, with many activities competing for the spare time and energy they have available.

But the fact remains that many fine attractions in the fine arts realm draw only a handful of students.

This is unfortunate, for one of the neglected: Idaho State College and Denver for example. These colleges would probably be happy to schedule us on a home and home basis.

I believe we could have an excellent small college football team, even with a cut in football financing, if we followed this plan. We wouldn't need the $25,000 from the Rose Bowl to buy football players, because we would be competing with other institutions that don't spend that kind of money.

the fine advantages to be found in attending the University of Idaho is the excellence and diversity of the series: known as Community Concerts.

Through the years nearly every major musical artist and group of artists known to the New York concert halls have made scheduled appearances on our campus and at our neighboring college, WSC.

Names known to the "Met"—Helen Traubel, Lauritz Melchior, Rise Stevens, Jussi Bjoerling, to mention but a few—have thrilled large audiences in the gyms at the two schools; and on many occasions there have been few students in the audience.

It is intended only as a reminder to mention that the student body has a "stake" in the proceedings.

Through the ASUI, you contribute your share to the support of the Community Concert series. You might be interested to know that this is perhaps the only place in the country where there is a four-way cooperative budget to support the artist series.

The Pullman community conducts an annual membership campaign, as does Moscow; the students to hear artists and artist locate lump sums to the concert series budget.

This provides one of the largest budgets possible in relation to the number of concert-goers. The gyms of the two schools, while not ideal acoustically, provide a seating capacity which makes very large audiences possible.

The end result of all this is to provide opportunities for the students to hear artists and artist groups which they might ordinarily hear only in large metropolitan areas, and then only at high box-office prices.

Your Community Concert series can enrich your lives on the campus. Take advantage of these fine opportunities and support the program by attending these events.

Mrs. Swank Set To Address TSP

An Idaho newspaperwoman and photo-journalist will speak at the second professional meeting of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, Wednesday, Dec. 17 at 7 p.m. in the Frontier Room of the SUB.

The guest speaker is Mrs. Gladys Swank of Lewiston, editor of the Clarkston Herald, who has had a varied and interesting career in the field of journalism.

In gathering material for stories Mrs. Swank's experiences include her two trips through the Snake River Gorge on rubber pontoons; as a trail rider on the Lewis-Clark highway publicity trek over the Bitterroot Mountains; and the trip with the Flotilla to the ocean last May, to publicize the need for dams and locks to bring ocean shipping to Lewiston.

THE GIFT HORSE

I know how busy you are—studying, going to class, catching night crawlers—but let me interrupt your multifarious activities—studying, going to class, helping old grads find their dentures after Homecoming—to remind you that busy as you are—studying, going to class, searching for meat in the dormitory stew—time and tide wait for no man, and the Yuletide will soon be upon us. Busy or not, we must turn our thoughts to Christmas shopping. Let us, therefore, pause for a moment in our busy schedules—studying, going to class, rolling drums—to examine a number of interesting gift suggestions.

We will start with the hardest gift problem of all: What do you give to the person who has everything? Well sir, there follows a list of a half dozen gifts which I will flatly guarantee the person who has everything does not have:

1. A dentist's chair.
2. A low hurdle.
3. A street map of Perth.
4. Fifty pounds of chicken fat.
5. A carton of filter-tip Marlboros.
6. A carton of non-filter Philip Morris.

"What?" you exclaim, your young eyebrows rising in wild incredulity. "The person who has everything does not have cartons of filter Marlboros and non-filter Philip Morris?" you shriek, your young lips curling mockingly. "What arrant nonsense!" you rasp, making a coarse gesture.

And I reply with an emphatic no! The person who has everything does not have filter Marlboros and non-filter Philip Morris—not for long anyhow—because if he has Marlboros and Philip Morris and if he is a person who likes a mild, mellow, fresh, flavorful cigarette—and who does not? eh? who does not?—why, then he doesn't have Marlboros and Philip Morris; he smokes them. He might possibly have a large collection of Marlboro and Philip Morris butts, but whole Marlboros and Philip Morris? No. An emphatic no!

Now we take up another thorny gift problem: What do you buy your girl if you are broke? Quite a challenge, you will agree, but there is an answer—an ingenious, exciting answer! Surprise your girl with a beautiful bronze head of herself!

Oh, I know you're not a sculptor, but that doesn't matter. All you have to do is endear yourself to your girl's roommate, so she will be willing to do you a favor. Then some night when your girl is fast asleep, have the roommate butter your girl's face—quietly, so as not to wake her—and then quietly pour plaster of Paris on top of the butter and then quietly wait till it hardens and quietly lift it off—the butter will keep it from sticking—and then bring you the mold, and you will pour bronze in it and make a beautiful bust to surprise your girl with!

Remember, it is important—very important—to endear yourself to the roommate, because if anything should go wrong, you don't want to be without a girl for the holiday season.

Your gift problem is no problem if you will give Marlboros to your filter smoking friends and Philip Morris to your non-filter smoking friends. Both come in soft pack or flip-top box; both are made by the sponsor of this column.

'Christmas Spirit' Captures Campus; Yuletide Decoration Appear In Houses

By DAMA WILDIG
Arg. Women's Editor

Old Saint Nick's annual visit is being eagerly awaited by campus living groups. The pre-Christmas round of dances, firesides and exchanges began this week and will continue next week, followed by the mass exodus home.

FRENCH HOUSE. "Girl of the Month" for November was Marian Clark. Sigma Chi honored one of their "Sweetheart Finalists" Norma Pomponio with a serenade Saturday evening. Monday evening saw the erection of the ceiling high Christmas tree dressed entirely in blue accessories. Wednesday proved very vigorous volleyball-wise with French taking third in co-rec. Plans are now in progress for Christmas caroling next week. A very relaxing exchange was enjoyed by Lambda Chi and French when they finally got their schedules all in on the same frequency after last week's mix-up. The girls are anticipating the dinner exchange given in honor of the winning "voting percentage" of Christmas Hall next Wednesday evening.

ALPHA PHI sophomores surprised the pledges Monday morning with a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and trimmings. The Alum Children Christmas party is scheduled for Sunday afternoon. Also on the agenda is the Christmas house party Wednesday night. The cook and hashers were surprised Thursday night when the juniors swapped places with them and served the evening meal. They enjoyed entertainment by the hashers after dinner. The Delt pledges serenaded for a pledge pin last Monday night. Guests for Sunday dinner were Diane Wade, Whitman college; Beth Hossner, Arlene Turnbull, and Linda Young, Forney; and Harry Long, Nampa. Sylvia Chase and Ed Thornbough, SAE, will be married Saturday, December 13.

BETA guest during the weekend was Gene Montgomery from Caldwell. Saturday night Betas held their first semi-formal Christmas Dance. This dance was attended by several out-of-town guests including Richard Kalford and Bonnie Bradford, Idaho Falls, and Pat Koppes, Boise.

PI PHIS swung into the Christmas spirit Wednesday night after dinner when members and pledges decorated the big Christmas tree for the house. Also planned to celebrate the coming Christmas season is the traditional Wassail Hour this Sunday, December 14 from 2:30 to 5:30. Gerri Williams, social chairman, is in charge of the event. The guests will be served the traditional wassail drink. The pledges were honored at the annual pledge dance, Pi Phi Heaven, last Saturday night, December 6th. Each pledge received a Teddy Bear favor. Before the dance the pledges gave a hamburger dinner for the girls and their dates. The Embers furnished the music while the couples danced on the star filled patio. Last week Sally Wilbanks and Lois Walker were honored by the SAEs when they were tapped for Little Sisters of Minerva of SAE. Lynne Shelman is a finalist for Holly Queen. The decorations at dinner Wednesday night were on a birthday theme to honor the girls who had birthdays in August, September, October, November, and December. Guests at dinner were Ann Holden and M. J. Caldwell, Kappas, Karen Bell, Lynda Dailey and Lynda Crow, French House; Eleanor Warnstrom, Forney Hall. The pledges had an exchange with the Delta Chi's last Sunday after dinner at the SUB. Wednesday night they had an exchange with the Chrisman Hall. A serenade by the Ice Caps was given Wednesday night. Also the Betas serenaded Joanie Hughes in honor of her pinning to Bill Boyce.

KAPPA SIG'S Houseparty Saturday was as most of the members put it, "a real swell time, but sure wasn't like it used to be!" Sunday during clean-up, they gave all the pine boughs to the Alpha Gams. Pledges Gerald Bower and Bob Schultz are now tied up in their contest, but Bowers is far ahead in the third contest. In the other contest, it looks as if Bill Gavin has a standing up-victory over Herb Hollinger. Due to bad road conditions, not many of the fellows have been making trips. Looks like most of them are just waiting for Christmas vacation.

DELTA CHIS are changing the house this week into the Good Ship Delta Chi for their Pirate Dance on December 13. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steffens and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayden were our Sunday dinner guests. Bill Evans from Malad, Idaho, was pledged on Sunday.

DGs ushered in the Christmas season last Saturday with holly, mistletoe, and the Alumnae annual Christmas card party. Those who missed the coming of the Christmas spirit Saturday received it Wednesday night at a Christmas fireside given by Mrs. Farnsworth, our housemother, and Mrs. Ayers, our cook. More Christmas spirit entered the DG house when Sandy Bacon received Gault Hall Snow Queen and Neale Ward finalist for Holly Queen. Excitement for last Saturday included the tubbing of Bob Syring, Phi Delt, pinned to Rene Sweeney; the sophomores had a Christmas tree hunting party with the Gamma Phi, Fijis, and Sigma Nus. At guest dinner Sunday were Jim Hawkins, George Lockhart, Ron Youngman, Jack Lemley, Gary Tronson, Jackie Arput, Francaise

Picard; Jacquelyn Claude, and Sharon Bopp. Sigma Chi serenaded announced Pat Brogan as the finalist for their Sweetheart contest. Wednesday night dinner guests were Carol DeAtley, Judy Geidt, Nancy Lamb, Karen Kelly, Nancy Oud, and Marie York. Last Thursday the DG-Pi Alphas sneaked to Lewiston for a spaghetti dinner and show, then to Pullman to visit the DG, ATO and Beta chapters.

TRI-US has plans underway for the annual Christmas party. The best test subject for the year will be announced at the Christmas party.

FORNEY will have their Christmas formal Saturday evening. The theme of the dance is "Dance, Mr. Snowman, Dance." For entertainment Phyllis Hanson will play a medley of Christmas songs on the piano. Monday evening at the house meeting Bonnie Baum, Geri Scott and Paula Towery were nominated for the "Girl of the Month" award.

LDS HOUSE held its annual Christmas dance last Saturday night. Those present enjoyed the dance under the theme, "Silver Bells," and decorated with full Christmas trimmings. House president, Walt Petersen, was MC for the program. A male quartet sang "Aura Lee" and "The Whiffenpoof Song." Members of the quartet were Ron Osterhaut, Dale Hansen, Ardell Shockley, and LaMar Goefeld. A reading was given by Gary Steiner. The final number was a presentation of the theme song, "Silver Bells," by Anita Taylor on the marimba. Chaparrones were Dr. and Mrs. George S. Tanner, Dr. and Mrs. T. Donald Bell, and Dr. and Mrs. LaRele Stephens.

FARMHOUSE advisor Dr. Duane LeTourneau, Ag chemistry, was presented with a trophy in honor of his efforts in helping the chapter grow and develop. The trophy was awarded at intermission of the pledge dance December 5. FarmHouse and the Kappas enjoyed a dinner and dancing exchange Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell were guests at the exchange. Julian Perez was recently pledged. Dinner guests Thursday were Fred Harrison and Fred Lydum. Lyle Sasser was elected president of the A.R.A.

SIGMA NU held their annual Christmas exchange with the Gamma Phi Wednesday night. Entertainment was furnished by a chorus of Gamma Phi pledges and the "singing juniors" of Sigma Nu. Leland Jarvis was a guest at lunch Wednesday. Sigma Nus are holding a Christmas dinner in honor of Ludwig Von Beethoven on Tuesday. Preparations are under way for the annual Christmas serenade to be given Sunday night. Fred Ringe, recently back from the NIFC convention, officiated at the IFC meeting at the Sigma Nu house Thursday while the other members of the house were enjoying the hospitality of the other fraternities on campus.

PHI DELT social season will be highlighted with the annual Christmas formal Saturday. The theme will revolve around a ski lodge scene complete with ski run and crutches left over from Jorgen Bryhn's downfall last season. Music for the function will be furnished by Frank Hunter's band. The Phis serenaded Maureen Sweeney, DG, and Becky Cvicke, Theta at WSC, Thursday evening. Planned for next week is the annual DG Christmas exchange Tuesday. Sunday was Major Harrison Day. Honored guests were Major and Mrs. Edwin S. Harrison, parents of the Phi president, Kent Harrison. Other dinner guests included Janice Berg, Jo Ann Reese, Maureen Sweeney, DGs, and Becky Cvicke, Theta.

THETAS and SAEs joined forces Thursday when they defied the rain and held an all house winter exchange. Pledges of both houses ate dinner at the SAE house, while members stayed at the Theta house. Decorating the Christmas tree, dancing, card playing and entertainment highlighted a Christmas fireside Sunday night. Annette Manser and Judy Baty directed the date affair. Wearing the traditional Fancy Girl braacet this month are Ann Becker and Claire Strawn. Pledges were escorted to the pep rally Thursday by the Sigma Chi pledge class. A Sigma Chi serenade Saturday night announced the selection of Diana Rudolph as Sweetheart finalist. Dinner guests this week were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Johnson, Genesee; Ruth Anderson, Moscow; Pat O'Leary, student from Sacred Heart Hospital; Louis Bowers, Forney Hall, and the Sigma Chi quartet members, Lee Stokes, Gary Kleinkopf, Bill Campbell and Dick Teff.

CHRISMAN HALL dinner guests last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blanton and family. Chrisman enjoyed a small exchange with Pi Phi pledges Wednesday. Chrisman is looking forward to a fireside exchange with Davis Hall at WSC Saturday night.

LINDLEY HALL was "up front" at the style show Wednesday as a result of split second timing, a quick flanking movement and the endurance of Ed Townsend. Ed sacrificed three classes, while holding down a table for Lindley. Dr. and Mrs. Theophilus were dinner guests Sunday and following dinner Dr. Theophilus lectured on the status of students in the University.

VANDALS TO OPEN HOME SERIES

Babes Look For Second Win Tonight

Idaho's Babes look for win No. 2 this weekend when they face the Boise Junior College Broncos in twin tilts.

The young Vandals have a win over Yakima Junior College on the credit side of their win-loss ledger.

"Idaho and BJC are both evenly matched as far as size and speed go," frosh coach Wayne Anderson said.

The young Vandals meet the Boise team at 8 p.m. tonight on neutral territory at Grangeville, then return with the Broncos to Moscow to meet in the preliminary game to the Idaho-Montana State University clash. The prelim game starts at 5:50 p.m.

"They've had a good squad the last two years," Anderson stated. "They have six men back from last year's squad and one of our boys from the Idaho Babes."

The six second-year hoopsters, Gary Blacker, Rulon Christensen, McKell Crawford, Ralph Inderriden, Bob Meyer, and Dan Murphy, comprise the main strength of the Bronco squad along with Ron Hunt.

Hunt played ball for the Idaho frosh against the Broncos last year, then switched to the junior college this fall.

Meyer back The top scorer for the Broncos in their clash with the Babes last winter, Meyer, hit 16 points to pace the JC team to their 77-51 win which broke a three game winning streak for the Idaho Frosh.

"We'll play them as we have been playing other teams this year," Anderson said. "We'll stick to a man to man defense and fast-break when we have the chance."

Boise Junior College is regarded by Anderson as a "team that likes to run." The Broncos parlayed their fast-breaking offense into a first place showing in the tourney held in Boise last season.

Anderson stated that, "while no particular player has looked outstanding in practice this week, Chuck Lange has been hitting well."

Lange was recently switched to a low post position, moving him closer to the basket to enable the 6-4 Coeur d'Alene ace a chance to shoot more often.

At the high-post spot Anderson placed Gerald Gypp, a 6-2 backboard ace from Marinette, Wisc.

Sula Injured One of the Babes' top men, Richard Sula, suffered an ankle injury in last week's loss to Columbia Basin Junior College, but Anderson said the 6-1 speedster is "responding to treatment well, and we hope he'll be able to play."

Named as starters for the junior Vandals were Gary Floan and Gary Nebelsick at guards; Paul McGinn at forward, and Gypp and Lange at post.

Making the trip to Grangeville will be the five starters and Larry Curry, William Shillam, Karl Sorman, Sula, Jim Vopat, Leo Wasko

VERSATILE—Big Jim Prestel has turned in his football togs for a basketball uniform and is adapting to the change well as the starting Vandal center.

First Home Tilt Tonight With Montana Bobcats

Memorial Gymnasium will see its first basketball action of the 1958-59 season this weekend when the Idaho Vandals host the Montana State College Bobcats tonight, then follow up tomorrow night with a tilt against Montana University.

"It looks like they're both going to be rough games," hoop coach Harlan Hodges stated. "Montana State is supposed to be tough again this year, and Montana has played several good ball games since they lost to us."

Tonight's game, which starts at 8 p.m. features the only team the Vandals did not defeat in hoop play last season.

The Bobcats downed the Vandals 69-57 at Bozeman in the only encounter between the two schools in the 1957-58 season.

Running Team "The Bobcats have a good running ball club," Hodges remarked.

Willis Sweet Hall took the 1958 Independent Volleyball Championship Tuesday night by eking out a victory over Upham Hall's second team. After losing the first game, 6 to 15, they came back to win the next two games by scores of 15 to 13 and 15 to 9.

The Tekes behind the spiking of Lefty Miller, easily defeated Phi Gamma Delta by a score of 15 to 2 and 15 to 7.

One of the best games was played when the Tekes and Delta Sigma Phi battled for the Greek League II Championship. All three games were close with the series taking nearly one hour and forty-five minutes. The Tekes lost the first game 15-9 but came back to take the next two games 15 to 8 and 15 to 10. This game was the best attended of the season with over 100 spectators on hand.

Other teams taking games in the playoffs were the Betas who took third and the Phi Deltas fifth in the Greek league.

The second team from Lindley hall took third and the first team from TMA took fifth in the Independent League.

Playoff Scores: TC over KS 15-8, 15-10 (11 & 12, Greek League).

SN over LGS 15-7, 16-14 (9 & 10) TKE over PGD 15-2, 15-7 (1&2) PKT over LCA 15-5, 15-12 (15 & 16)

BTP over DSP 15-6, 7-15, 15-3 (3 & 4) DC over SC 15-5, 0-15, 15-4 (7 & 8)

DTD over SAE 15-2, 15-13 (13 & 14) PDT over ATO 15-11, 15-6 (5 & 6)

Frosh Swimmers Open With WSC

Five Vandal freshmen swimmers meet the WSC frosh fin team at 2 p.m. Saturday in their swim-season debut.

The five men, Dick Neilsen, George Volk, Gil Stenser, Steve Norrell and Van Baser make up coach Clarke Mitchell's 1958-59 frosh fin team.

Vandal Trophy Case Gives Interesting Look At Past

Probably one of the most over-looked attractions in the Memorial Gymnasium is the well-packed Vandal trophy case, mute evidence of Idaho prowess in many and varied sports.

A casual glance at the trophy group brings to eye immediately the predominance of boxing trophies, some accumulated in the pre-World War II years, most post-war cups.

For example, since 1950 Idaho has picked up the NCAA Boxing championship award at Madison, Wisconsin and the Spokane Collegiate Boxing cup for both 1950 and 1951, to name just three of the many trophies the fisticuffs men won before their sport was cut short.

In basketball the Vandals' many cups include the Seattle Cougar Cup award for 1946 for the Northern Division championship team from Idaho, the 1945 Montana State University Tournament award, and the Los Angeles NCAA Basketball Championship third place cup.

These are just a few of the

Bruins Beat PCC Ban In Tues. Meeting

The Pacific Coast Conference lifted the athletic probation penalty on UCLA and outlined a Rose Bowl agreement in its next-to-last official meeting last Tuesday.

The action, which will give UCLA its official cut of this year's Rose Bowl proceeds and make the Bruins eligible for coast championships, cut short the original penalty which was due to expire June 30, 1959.

The Bruins still are under an NCAA penalty which will expire in August of 1959. No word has yet been received of NCAA reaction to the PCC action.

In other PCC action the board stated that an "agreement was signed by the nine PCC schools and the Tournament of Roses Committee on the 1960 Rose Bowl game," but did not disclose the exact nature of the agreement.

New Pact Part of the agreement calls for a Rose Bowl committee made up of the nine athletic directors of the present PCC schools to select the delegate for future Rose Bowl and handle arrangements pertaining to the classic grid tussle.

In addition to this action the PCC revised certain rules. Among them was the rule denying an eligible player from practicing for a sport. This rule has reportedly been modified to permit such practice.

The other rule revised, a rule making off-campus interviews with athletes illegal, was changed slightly, permitting a limited number of such interviews.
