First Semester 1958-59 Holds Promise For The Future

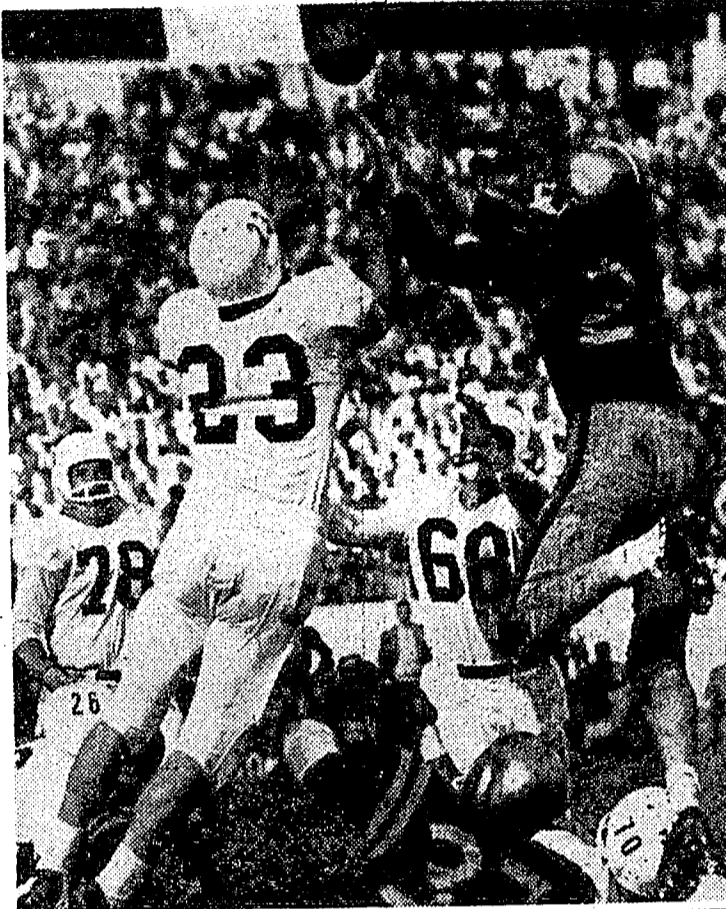

A Forward Look Center Needed For Research

Progress and achievement... the traditional social whirl... a promising if not outstanding half-year in sports... all played major parts in the University of Idaho story during the first semester.

An Idaho coed gazed wistfully at the "I" tank, symbolically viewing the future of the school as rising costs and need for appropriations loomed large. A new Campus Club, built to replace one which burned to the ground last spring, neared completion. Charmaine Deitz, a striking Tri-Delt blonde, received the votes of campus men for Homecoming queen.

A maze of wire and cables began transporting voices across campus as a new telephone switchboard was installed. A rugged Idaho defense fought valiantly for three periods but the Vandals were nipped, 8-0, by WSC in the annual Battle of the Palouse.

RIFLE TEAM INVITED
Twelve rifle teams have been invited to the first annual Idaho Army ROTC Invitational Matches here Feb. 14, announced Maj. Edwin Harrison, information officer. Trophies will be awarded winners, and schools representing Oregon State College, Montana State University, Montana State College, Gonzaga, Eastern Washington College of Education, and all Idaho units will participate.

Patronize Argonaut Advertisers

A special potato research center for Idaho was advocated recently at the annual Agricultural Experiment Station Conference in the SUB.

Mel Stratford, executive manager of the Idaho Potato Producers association, said that Idaho's spectacular expansion in potato processing and the state's long record as a leading producer of fresh market potatoes in the U.S. were the reasons for the proposed center.

The research unit is envisioned as a federal-state cooperative venture to keep abreast of new problems brought on by the rise in processing and the changes in consumer buying habits.

"Idaho is in a great potato revolution," Stratford told the university conference. "There have been sharp changes in the housewife's potato preferences. Biggest change has been the terrific expansion in processing. Estimates now are that 40 per cent or more of the total 1958 Idaho potato crop will go to market through processing plants."

Among the long list of needs cited by the producer association representative was a complete analysis of grower marketing methods. "Our ability to produce potatoes has developed faster than our ability to sell them at a profit," he explained.

Greater integration of Idaho potato production was forecast. Under this new method, processing plants would take field-run potatoes from large production areas, large parts of which would be under their supervision. Potatoes would be graded for fresh market and various processing uses, such as chips, french fry, flakes, granules, flour. Left-over potatoes would go to the starch plants. Under integration the processing industry would have complete control from field to factory.

Another big need cited by Stratford is in the field of potato storage. Processing plants, he explained, want to keep going on a year-round basis. To accomplish that, ways must be found to keep potatoes in storage much longer than is now possible.

Always jealous of the reputation of its baking potatoes, Idaho has yet to lick the problem of identification. The problem of substituting potatoes from other states and mixing under Idaho names still exists, he pointed out. Stamping potatoes with "Grown in Idaho" has been a step in the right direction, but this method has not proven entirely satisfactory. Twenty-three of the potato stamping machines have been in use.

STUDENTS MUST FILE
All foreign students on campus must report their addresses by Jan. 31, the U.S. Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service reminded this week.

Theta Chis Honor Pledges; Election Bug Stirs Campus

By SHARON LANCE
Arg Women's Editor

The election bug is crawling from living group to living group as Idaho students choose house and chapter officers for the coming term. Four houses named officers this week.

Theta Chis are taking a reverse stand before finals by staging an "Honor Thy Pledge Week."

THETA CHIS have officially proclaimed the week of January 19-26 as "Honor Thy Pledge Week." Bob Palmer was named chairman of the week's events. The members will offer such services as shining the pledges' shoes and washing their cars. Bob Donahue, EWCE, was a weekend guest.

ALPHA CHI president for the coming term is Marilyn Mooers. Marilyn will be assisted by the following officers: Frankie Lisle, vice president; Mike Beglan, pledge trainer; Judy Conger, recording secretary; Wanda Peters, corresponding secretary; Sharin Davidson, treasurer; Barbara Anderson, house manager; Nancy Darke, Lyre editor; Mary Margaret Brown, rush chairman; Vau-na Blevins, scholarship chairman; Phyllis Weeks, historian and librarian; Meryl Hughes, stewardess; Cheryl Jacobs, warden; Diane Shelton, chaplain and Ludene Phillippi, activities chairman. Alpha Chis, under the director of their newly elected officers, are making plans for the annual Faculty Tea to be held Sunday, Feb. 8.

GAULT HALL's newly elected officers are Bob Gese, president; Joe McFarland, vice president; Bob Overstreet, secretary; Joe Simpson, treasurer; Bob Moe, social chairman; Orvil Sears, intramural manager and Paul Reichen, sergeant-at-arms. Dick Cooper performed on the trampoline at the Idaho-WSC basketball game last Friday night. Gault officers enjoyed a change in scenery for Sunday dinner as they were guests at the Delta Gamma house.

TRI DELTS Jan Foley is wearing the Tri Delta recognition ring, following her selection as Member of the Month. The honor was previously awarded to Sydney Johnson and Karen DeKlotz. Carol Edelblute, recently pinned to Bill Bonnichsen, was honored at a Delta Sig serenade Thursday. Pledges enjoyed a Wednesday night exchange with the Sigma Nu pledge class. Evelyn Peterson, Forney, and Coy Ann Ball, Steel were Wednesday dinner guests.

BETA frosh, making use of snow, mud, molasses, feathers, raw eggs and flour successfully tubbed Denny Hague Saturday morning. The tubbing was in "honor" of Denny's pinning to Carolyn Blackburn, Gamma Phi. Ann Tucker, WSC, was a Sunday dinner guest.

KAPPAS from WSC were hosted at the local chapter house for dinner and entertainment last Friday night. The two groups then attended the WSC-Idaho game together. Nancy Beach, Kappa pledge, has been elected "scholar" for the month of January. ATOs and Kappas exchanged food and entertainment during an all house exchange last week. Pledges from both of the houses provided the entertainment, which was followed by dancing.

ATOs are already collecting tin cans for the annual Tin Can Dance scheduled for Feb. 7. Each pledge has the "small" task of collecting and arranging 400 cans.

HAYS HALL's new officers were installed at a special ceremony following Sunday dinner. Elected and appointed officers are Gerre Crank, president; Rogene Alger, vice president; Donna Harwood, secretary; Charlene Bentz, treasurer; Elberta Truchot, health captain; Polly Whitney, dorm social chairman, and Shirley Krahn, campus social chairman.

SIGMA CHI officers are Dale Johnson, president; Wayne Kidwell, vice president; Bart Paff, secretary; John Ensunsu, pledge trainer; Lee Stokes, assistant pledge trainer; Bill Campbell, associated editor; Gary Kleinkopf, tribune; Bob Taylor, sergeant-at-arms, and Dan Gerpeide, historian. Returning from the PCC Ski Meet this week was Viggo Friling. Sunday dinner guests were Diana Rudolph, Theta; Jeanne Durham, Gamma Phi, and Mike Beglan, Alpha Chi. Jeanne Durham and Dale Johnson received presents from the pledge class in honor of their recent engagement. Other guests were Garth Larson, Howard Garrish, Bert Tovey, Jack Tovees and Stewart Gorden, Willis Sweet Hall.

GAMMA PHI Pledge of the Month is Carol Evans. Carol replaced Jonell Diven, who was awarded the title in December. Student teaching next semester will beconck Salle Beale, Marsha Mottinger, Jean Walker, Nike Doerr, Deanna Geertsen and Gladys Hansen. Kay Conrad and Elizabeth Curtis will move into the Home Management House for a few weeks.

DELTA SIGs "jazzed it up" during a five hour jam session provided by the Skimmers. Delta Sig serenaded at the Tri Delta and Kappa houses for two of their fraternity brothers' pinnings. Dick Loeppky, newly elected Exec Board member, was honored at Sunday dinner.

PHI TAU dinner guests this week were Marilyn Applegate, Julie Ann Mathews and Barbara DuBois, Pi Phi; Barbara Martin, Tri Delta; Donna Munson, Willis-ton, North Dakota and Rick Steiner, Shoup Hall.

THETAS received a belated Christmas present Saturday. The house was presented with a new 27 inch television set for the living room. The quiet, study weekend was disturbed temporarily Saturday morning when pledges "treated" the seniors of the house to a mass tubbing.

COMMUNION SLATED
Celebration of Holy Communion will be held at 7 a.m. Wednesday, according to Canterbury House officers. Breakfast will follow the service. The Canterbury House will be the scene of Inquirer's Class to be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Rings 'n Things

The romantic pace is still progressing on the Idaho campus as five couples announced engagements and pinnings this week.

ENGAGEMENTS
"Sitting on Top of the World" was the theme chosen by Edwina Zable, Kappa, to announce her engagement to Harold Gustafson, ATO, Sunday. Guests were Sil Vile, ATO, and Gustafson. Min-lature worlds presenting the theme were set at each place.

Also engaged were Lary Coupe and Joan Humphreys, Henager's Business College, Ogden, Utah.

PINNINGS
An SAE serenade at the Gamma Phi house followed the announcement of Judy Hickman's pinning to Gerry Steele Monday night.

Wade Patterson, ATO, is pinned to Yvonne Ashcroft, Coeur d'Alene.

The movie will be shown next Sunday at 3-5-7 and 9 p.m. in the Borah Theater.

The film, written by John Steinbeck and directed by Ella Kazan, deals with two brothers in love with the same girl and the emotional turmoil created by the brothers' discovery that a notorious woman operating a famous gaming house is their mother. "East of Eden" stars Julie Harris, James Dean, Raymond Massey and Burt Ives.

FORMS AVAILABLE
Pre-registration forms for graduate students are available in the Graduate School office. The forms may be obtained at the school's office until Jan. 2 and after that at the Administration offices.

Johnson and Dave McClanahan, off-campus; Bill Hobby, Delta Sig; Larry Woodbury, Lindley Hall; Allen Nichols, Shoup Hall; Gary Slaathaug and Terry Herrick, McConnell Hall.

Summer School Offers Variety In '59 Agenda

Courses in fields from agriculture to zoology will be offered at the 1959 University Summer school, scheduled to open June 15 and close August 7.

J. F. Weltzin, dean of the college of education and director of the summer school, said yesterday that short courses and workshops also will be offered, to both regular students and those who wish to attend for the special courses only.

For the third straight year, the University will serve as a National Science Foundation institute for the training of selected high school teachers of mathematics and science. Dates for the institute are the same as for the regular summer school.

In issuing the dates for this year's school, Dean Weltzin said that summer school attendance throughout the U.S. was on a constant upward trend.

"This is a reflection of a number of major movements in American education," he said. "Undergraduate students are displaying a greater concern over the content and quality of their academic programs and are using summer schools to acquire a greater breadth and depth in their studies than time permits in the regular academic year."

Hosack To Speak On 'Berlin Crisis'

Dr. Robert E. Hosack, head of social science department, will relate the Berlin crisis to northern Idahoans at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at a Lewiston, Idaho, meeting.

"Berlin Crisis" is the title of a panel talk, featuring Hosack, which is a part of a series put on by a Lewiston discussion group, called "Great Decisions... 1959." Tentative plans for the program to appear on Channel 2 TV have been made.

I used to put the shot. But I could never remember where I put the greater concern over the content it.

REBOUNDBING VANDALS BLAST WSC TWICE

Idaho Five Pulls Out Of Coast Cellar Spot

LONG REACH—Big John Maras, (55) WSC center leaps high with a left-handed jump shot in Friday's game. Attempting to check the shot are Vandals Hal Damiano and Jim Prestel. Whaylon Coleman (15) watches the action. Forward Dick Axelson gives teammate an elbow assist.

The rebounding Idaho Vandals ran off with two wins and bounced neatly out of the conference cellar last weekend, smashing arch-rival WSC twice by 49-42 and 65-55 counts.

Friday night, the Vandals kept Idaho fans standing for over four minutes before Hodges' squad broke the scoring ice with a two pointer. For the next few, frenzied minutes the Vandals continued to cut away at the Cougars' margin, which ran to seven points at one time, before finally breaking into the lead as the first quarter ended.

At the half, Idaho sported a slender, 21-19 lead over the visiting WSC quintet, and had to un-knot the score six times before big Jim Prestel finally hit a go-ahead lay-up to push the Vandals into a 36-34 lead.

With eight minutes left, the Cougars pushed within one point at 40-39 before Coach Harlan Hodges' crew found the range. From then on in the Vandals hit nine points to WSC's three for the win.

attempted to push his charges back into the running with five minutes left when he called for a full-court press.

Captain Whaylon Coleman took the press in stride with a seemingly-effortless dribbling exhibition that carried the Vandals over the ten-second line out of danger for the final moments of the game.

Saturday night, the Vandals almost sealed their own defeat as they fell behind by 13 points in the third period.

The Vandals trailed 36-27 at the end of the first half, then lost their shooting eye as the Cougars tallied six points to the visiting Idaho crew's two.

"I felt pretty low when we were that far behind," coach Hodges stated, "but the boys really did a fine job and played marvellously well from then on."

Schaffer spurts
The Vandals, led mainly by B. J. Schaffer's 12-point spurt in the second half and John Liveious' 11 points in the final twelve minutes, hit for 21 counters to WSC's eight to pull even with nine minutes left. At that point Liveious hit for two quick, long jump shots, Schaffer contributed a driving layup, and Coleman notched two free throws to nail the Cougar fur to the floor.

On the boards Saturday evening 6-6 Cougar center John Maras had a first-hand opportunity to observe Liveious and Coleman grab 27 rebounds between them, with occasional glimpses of Schaffer and Prestel. The big Cougar pivot-man had to work almost alone as the Vandal rebounders poured in from all corners.

Friday night, Coleman and Schaffer led the Vandal offensive, each hitting for 15 points to spearhead the Idaho attack. Prestel contributed 11 points before fouling out late in the game.

On Saturday evening Schaffer again tied for the top spot in scoring as the flashy guard notched 19 points. Liveious added 19 counters of his own while Coleman hit for 12.

"I think the winning team in the conference will probably lose five, and possibly six games this year," Hodges stated after the weekend action.

"The top teams already have two losses, with a tough schedule ahead of them."

THE SQUEEZE PLAY—WSC's Duane Ranniger (21) appears frustrated as he looks for someone to pass to in Friday's game. Vandals E. J. Schaffer (13), Whaylon Coleman (15), John Liveious and Hal Damiano surround Ranniger as Cougar guard Mert Kennedy circles toward basket.

INTRAMURALS

Lindley team 1, led by little Jackie Bloxom and big Eugene Novotny, look like strong contenders for the A basketball championship as they have rolled up top scores in every game they have played in league III.

At the intramural meeting Monday night, it was decided that Table Tennis would start the 16th of February and Bowling the 15th with the entries for Table Tennis to be into Mr. Parberry by the 10th of February.

There will be three singles and one double team for each house and five men on each house bowling team.

"B" Basketball will start immediately after "A" Basketball is over and the number of teams from each house should be in to the intramural office by February 10.

Hodges Secures Cat-Fur For Future Winter Seasons

"Don't take your guns to town, son" . . . may have made sense in years gone by, but Coach Harlan Hodges' Vandals did take their guns to town last weekend and brought back not only "the bacon," but a slightly damaged Cougar pelt as well.

The two game sweep puts Idaho right back in the same position they were in last year, with a good chance of equalling last year's 9-7 conference record, and an outside chance of improving their fourth place conference finish.

Whether the Vandals do improve on last season's performance or not, one thing is comfortably clear . . . the neighboring Cougars' pelt is secure on the Vandals' door for the second season in a row, and cat fur is a good protection from a cold winter, or a chilly hoop season.

Bengals Need Money
With all the excitement raging about possible future meetings with Idaho State in athletics, the reasonable thing to do seemed to be to contact someone who is in the know. So we did.

Ron Hayes, sports editor of the Bengal student newspaper, aptly pointed up a very good, sound reason that it may be a long time before the Bengals and the Van-

Skiers Take Fourth Place At Wenatchee

The Vandal slat team side-slipped to a fourth place at Wenatchee last weekend in a follow-up to a January 3-4 meet at Rossland, B.C.

Ski coach Tom Anderson reported that while official results are not yet completely compiled, the Vandal skiers finished a close fourth by un-official results.

Anderson added that the Vandals individually improved considerably since their last competition. Captain Frank Cammack led the team in total points with a fourth place in jumping competition, and a fourth place finish in cross-country.

Backing up Cammack, Hilmar Lunde turned in the next best single effort, combining sixth place finishes in the jumping and cross-country events.

The Vandals place ahead of Washington State and the University of Oregon by un-official placement, but behind Wenatchee, University of British Columbia, and the University of Washington.

My brother crossed a chicken with a racing form . . . and got a chicken that laid odds.

Vandal Finsters Splash To Victory; Schedule Cougar Swim Team Thursday

Swim coach Clark Mitchell's admittedly thin Vandal team will take to the waters of Bohler Gym pool in Pullman at 4 p.m. Thursday against the Cougar fin team.

Mitchell calls the Cougars "about as thin as we are, but just as strong or stronger."

The Vandals ride a single season's win against no dual meet losses into the clash.

Last Friday the Vandals defeated the Eastern Washington College of Education swimmers by a score of 51 to 34. Saturday the Cougars traveled to Cheney, but only beat the EWCE crew 40 to 48. The Cougar Freshmen, however, swamped the Eastern Washington Varsity by the score of 57 to 23, winning several events in record time.

Washington State is reportedly equal to Idaho in diving and distance events, the Vandals strong-points. The Cougars boast two men, however, that can swim equally well in both the distance and sprint events. The sprints are the weakest point on the Idaho squad.

Results of the Idaho-EWCE meet are as follows:
400 yd. medley relay—(1) Idaho, 4:45.7; (2) EWCE, 5:05.5.
220 yd. Freestyle—(1) Lawr (I), 2:31.5; (2) Short (EW), 2:56.2.
50 yd. Freestyle—(1) Hand (EW), 25.6; (2) Goodwin (I), 25.7; (3) Kesern (EW), 32.2.

400 yd. Freestyle Relay—(1) EWCE, 4:05.3; Idaho, 4:16.1.
Final Score: Idaho 51, EWCE 34.

Coubabes Dash Vandal Babe Hopes In Two Tilts

The powerful Washington State Coubabes threw everything but the referees through the hoop over the weekend, racing to a two-game total of 167 points against the Vandal Babes.

The Coubabes started slowly Friday night, holding a 35-27 half-time lead before the visiting Cougar frosh saw the light. For the remaining 20 minutes of game-time the Washington State squad hit for 46 points to finally win by an 81-58 victory margin.

Saturday night the Coubabes waxed just a little hotter, and despite a slightly more accurate Vandal frosh attack, rolled to another 23-point margin of victory.

The one bright spot in the Vandals' weekend was Gary Floan. The dead-eye Vandal flash hit for

- Do you take more notice of someone's (A) good looks, or (B) good manners? A B
- When making your choice of a filter cigarette, do you (A) act on the basis of what someone tells you, or (B) think it through for yourself? A B

If you're the kind of person who thinks for yourself . . . you use judgment in your choice of cigarettes, as in everything else. Men and women who think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. Their reason? Best in the world. They know that only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.
*If you checked (A) on three out of the first four questions, and (B) on four out of the last five . . . you really think for yourself!
