Entrants Chosen

'Ugly Man' Pix To Adorn SUB

"Wanted" pictures of Ugly Man contest candidates will adorn the Student Union Wednesday as a part of this year's Campus Chest drive.

The main money-raising program, the western carnival, will run from 8 to 10:30 p.m. Saturday in the SUB main ballroom. The auction will begin at 10:30 in the Bucket directly after the announcement of the Ugly Man contest winner.

Candidates for the Ugly Man contest are:

Gordon Chester, Phi Delt, chairman of the contest, said that more candidates are expected to enter the contest before Wednesday.

Donation cups will be beneath each man's picture in the SUB and the candidate with the most money in his cup will win a trophy that will be on display.

Lynn Hauser, Shoup, a professional auctioneer, has volunteered to auction the 37 items for sale. Everything from picnics and water skiing to work parties will go on the auction block under the "have gavel, will travel" auction company.

Hauser is a graduate of an auctioneer's school, is licensed and has held several auctions in the surrounding area.

Donations Lagging
According to Ann Becker, Theta, chairman of the 25 cent per capita donation drive, only five living groups have recorded 100 per cent participation. The five are DG, Theta, Phi Phi, Gamma Phi and Theta Chi.

LDS, French and Kappa houses lack only a few donations of joining the "100 club," Miss Becker said.

Laird Noh, Sigma Nu, Chest general chairman, urged each living group to collect the rest of its donations before the end of the week as each group with 100 per cent participation will be designated so Saturday night.

This year's Campus Chest goal is $2,500. Last year's drive collected $2,300 which was distributed to 14 different charitable organizations and programs.

For those few men who have the guts, brains and stick-to-it-iveness to earn a degree in law, Idaho accords far too little distinction. In fact about the only recognition that goes with their graduating is that LL.B. candidates get their diplomas in the same long black line as the rest of us.

The College of Law is a weeding-out process bar none in this University and those who make the grade in six or seven years can look forward to a lucrative livelihood someday as a return for their efforts.

In any event, they've more than earned the slight recognition that a distinctive hood may bring them. That's all that law students are asking of the Commencement committee this week.

There is really no reason to present a long series of arguments in favor of this proposal; it is a simple one and there seem to be no logical or concrete arguments against it.

Jason's sure the committee will okay the request without delay. If it does not, its reasons in opposition will have to be excellent to be acceptable.

UI Debaters Compete For National Berth

Idaho debaters travel to Linfield College Thursday to compete in the District II tournament which will decide Northwest teams to compete in the national finals.

The annual tournament, which lasts three days, at McMinnville, Ore., is one of the largest forensic tournaments in the country and will be attended by 400-500 contestants from 40 universities in the western states. Winners in the different speaking categories will go on to the national collegiate debate tournament at West Point in the spring.

Debate question for the meet is: "Resolved: The further development of nuclear weapons should be prohibited by international agreement. Topic for extemporaneous speaking entries is "Relations of the US with Latin America." Impromptu speakers will discuss American personalities and after dinner topics will be taken from American history.

Competing at Linfield will be Charlotte Martell, Forney; Joyce Kail, Kappa; Jean Rau, Alpha Phi; Ann Lofthouse, Alpha Chi; Leo Tafolla and Allen Boss, Upsilon; Gordon Chester, Jess Walters, Mike McNichols and Roger Anderson, Phi Delt; Richard Sorenson, Theta Chi; and Wayne Kidwell, Sigma Chi.

Reed Bowen, of campus, and Sorenson went to the national tournament last year. Idaho has gone to the national tournament on two previous occasions in the past eight years.

Dr. A. E. Whitehead, chairman of speech and debate coach, is chairman of the West Point Selection Committee for District II this year.

Cap-Gown Orders Due By Friday

Friday has been set as the final day for seniors and graduate students to place orders for caps and gowns, said Chester Kerr, manager of the Bookstore.

Rent for the bachelor's cap and gown is $3 and for the master's cap, gown and hood is $6.50.

Faculty members wishing to rent academic apparel for commencement have until March 13 to place orders, Kerr said.

Two Men Die After Many Years Working To Build University

Two men who contributed directly and indirectly to the development of the University of Idaho died during the weekend.

One of them, Norman Hindle, was head of the department of mechanical engineering, and the other, Christopher Hagen, was a pioneer resident of Moscow.

Hindle, 56, died early Monday after a lingering illness. He came to Moscow in 1947 and had served as head of the department since 1949. He was advisor to the Idaho Engineer, magazine of the engineering school, for many years.

He was graduated from Purdue University in 1925 with a B.S. degree in chemical engineering and in 1949 received a professional degree in metallurgical engineering from Purdue, and another B.S. from Idaho. He spent more than 20 years in engineering practice, primarily with American Steel Foundries in Chicago, Ill., before turning to teaching. In 1953, Hindle received the 75th anniversary award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Senate Leader Asks For Cut In State Budget

BOISE—The Senate assistant majority leader yesterday called for drastic cutting of the state's recommended budget increases.

Arthur Murphy, in asking that the increases for the state's agencies be cut in half, warned against what he called a "runaway excursion into additional and harmful taxes."

He said he favors no more than a five per cent budget increase for all state agencies.

Murphy said, however, that he agreed that there could be no limit on appropriations for public schools because of the constant increase in student enrollment and pressing educational needs.

"The mining area which I represent has not recovered at all," Murphy said. "It is imperative then that this legislature does not burden the citizens of the state with any more taxes than absolutely necessary."

The Idaho House yesterday broke through some of the ice that has been confining it through this session and passed two key measures in the 77-million dollar tax program.

10-Dollar Hike
One of the bills provides for a 10-dollar surtax on every state tax return.

The other, considered the key measure in the entire tax program, was the proposed new income tax code patterned after federal internal revenue statutes.

It carries rates ranging from three per cent on the first one thousand dollars of taxable income to nine and one-half per cent of all income above five thousand dollars.

The legislature winds up its normal 60-day session Thursday, but indications are that it will extend further, probably through the end of this week.

Independents Jump The Gun

The first hat thrown into the ASUI general election ring was thrown back on Monday when Independent party nominee Eldon Klein, Upland, announced he had withdrawn because of a constitutional tangle.

Arnold Nikula, party president, said he had been unaware of a constitutional provision that prohibits nominations more than four weeks before the April election.

The party, said Nikula, will meet this week to set up machinery for presidential and Executive Board elections. There was an indication that Klein would be renominated when the legal date rolls around late this month.

AIR FORCE TAKES 12th

The Idaho Air Force rifle team pushed its season record to 12-1 last week by downing Colgate in a postal match, 1413-1366.

Norman Hindle M.E. Department Head Dies

One commencement from 1869 to 1957. He held numerous civic offices, served in the Idaho House and Senate and was a past president of the University of Idaho building association. He ran successfully for lieutenant governor in 1931.

Services for Hindle are pending. Funeral rites for Hagen will be held Wednesday.

WAITING—These three Religion in Life Conference visitors sat waiting Monday morning for the first assembly of the three-day meeting. They are Monsignor Daniel Harrington, Dr. Charles B. Foelsch, the main speaker, and Dr. Daniel B. Wessler.

'Teahouse' Cast Will Build A Stage Set In 15 Seconds

An oriental teahouse will be built on the Administration Building auditorium stage March 13-14, when audiences watch the ASUI production of "Teahouse of the August Moon."

WSC Almost WSU; It's Up To Governor

Washington State College is only a signature away from becoming Washington State University.

The bill to change the school's name has been passed by both the Washington Senate and House and needs only to be signed by Gov. Albert Rosellini to become law.

Thursday, the House gave overwhelming approval, by an 88-6 vote, to the bill, and sent it to the governor.

"For all practical purposes, Washington State College is now a university in fact," Rep. Samuel Smith, Seattle Democrat, said in support of the bill.

Only opposition voiced came from Rep. C. G. Witherbee, also a Seattle Democrat, who said that libraries would be put to an unfair expense by having to refile documents and publications referring to WSC.

Sunday Film On Rembrandt

The art world is the subject of the ASUI film committee's showings at 3, 5, 7, and 9 p.m. Sunday at the Borah Theater.

"Rembrandt," starring Charles Laughton, Gertrude Lawrence and Elsa Lanchester, will be accompanied by a shorter film, "Disorder." Both movies dramatize the lives of artists. One is a studio production about the great 17th century Dutch artist. The other is a documentary taken among the Bohemian hang-outs of the famous Left Bank of Paris.

After the success of the movie program Feb. 23, the movie committee decided to have shorts with all movies scheduled for the remainder of the semester, Toni Botsford, off-campus, said.

Attendance has increased greatly since the Sunday movie policy went into effect, the committee reported.

Jill Seaman Hurt In Car Accident

A University professor's 6-year-old daughter was listed in good condition Monday after being injured in a car-pickup truck collision Saturday at the intersection of Line Street and Pullman highway.

Jill Seaman, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Francis Seaman of the philosophy division, was treated at a local doctor's office for minor cuts and bruises. She was riding in a car driven by her father when the accident happened.

Driver of the pickup, Alvin Hayter and a passenger, Joe Smith, both of Moscow, were given emergency treatment at Gritman hospital and released.

RIL Keynoter Outlines Need For Goals In Life

By GEORGE FOWLER
Man must have something to live on, but he must also have something to live by, declared the keynote speaker at the opening assembly of the Religion in Life Conference Monday.

The Rev. Charles B. Foelsch, speaking before a near-capacity crowd in the Ad Building auditorium, said the various formulas for happiness concocted by man, such as "eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die" may be good for a while, but then something beyond the mundane is needed.

"St. Paul had the answer when he wrote, 'I press on toward the goal, on to the high calling of Christ Jesus,'" suggested Dr. Foelsch.

But then the student may ask the necessity of pressing on by wondering, "Who Am I? What Am I doing? Where am I going?"
"One answer is given by the cynic or pessimist who says that we are in a universe where man is insignificant compared to the immense cosmos which the astronomers are discovering," the speaker noted. "The cynic says we are no more than shadowless shapes that come and go."

"But with this spirit, do you think the men in the submarine would have gone under the polar icecap to the North Pole? Or do you think Lindbergh would have flown the Atlantic?" asked Foelsch. He then suggested that there must be a better answer to the questions about man's purpose in life. Three resources to help find the answers were outlined.

Hero In Soul
"Don't forget that God has put a hero in your soul. We are richly endowed and the hero may slip away, but it can be regained. God's tasks for us might seem impossible, to solve, but we muster all the might we are able to accomplish that task," he said.

"There are also those who have gone before us who have accomplished the tasks and they go with us to overcome our tasks. The Christians of the ages are with us.
"But if we do slip in despair, we still have the savior that will lift us up and set us on our way," he concluded.

Panelist Defines God
In an afternoon seminar at the SUB on the topic "Is It Intellectually Respectable to Believe in God," Foelsch said that whatever we make the center of our attention is God.

"God," he said, "is the spirit of personality that we believe in."

In another seminar, Msgr. Daniel B. Harrington discussed "Pro and Con on Intergration."

"The position of the Catholic Church on intergration is one of tolerance and is ultimately for intergration," he said.

"If people seriously believe the principle that all men are equal, as many men profess to believe, they must admit that intergration is the individual's choice. The right of the individual to choose is the basis for intergration," he concluded.

Afternoon and evening discussions for students and faculty will continue today and tomorrow in the SUB as listed at the top of the page.

Freshmen Will Trim Big Field For King, Queen on Wednesday

Freshmen will narrow their field of king and queen candidates to five men and five women at noon Wednesday. One royal pair will reign at the annual class dance March 14.

Eighteen men and 13 coeds are vying for the title. Final vote will be cast the day before the dance.

Meanwhile, Sharon Lance, publicity chairman for Fresh Week, released the names of the following chairmen for the event:

Dance, Jack Toevs, Sigma Chi, and Blanche Blecha, Alpha Phi; King and queen contest, Franco Oduber, Delta Sig, and Nancy Simpson, Hays.

Tug-of-war, Gary Johnson, Sigma Chi, and Alice Rae Collins, Alpha Phi; prettiest legs contest, Dick Minas, Phi Delt; publicity, Van Baser, Phi Delt, and Miss Lance, Theta; strongest man contest, Mike McKee, Sigma Chi.

The strongest man contest is tentatively set for Monday and Tuesday. Contestants for the prettiest legs contest will vie for the honor Wednesday in the Bucket.

The annual tug-of-war between the freshman and sophomore classes will be held on the banks of Paradise Creek March 13.

Education Faculty Will Be Honored

A banquet honoring the dean of the College of Education, Frederick J. Wetzlin, and other education faculty members is scheduled by Student Idaho Education Association for March 11 at 6 p.m. in the SUB.

Mary Sue Kniefel, Alpha Chi, president of the local SIEA chapter, said the program will include a short, informal session on "humanizing the faculty."

The faculty will be guests but tickets are $1.75 for students. Tickets will not be available at the door.

'Go Fly Kite' Can Bring High Fine

The expression, "Go fly a kite," can get you into trouble in Karachi, Pakistan.

City officials have banned kite flying in Karachi. Violators are subject to a fine of 50 rupees (10 dollars).

Law Students Prosecute Case Of The Missing Purple Hood

University law students were at what amounted to the halfway point today in their campaign to get permission to wear distinctive LL.B. hoods at commencement rites.

Armed with information gleaned from a survey of western colleges to back their fight, law students last week got support from Executive Board and the Student Faculty Council as well as the College of Law itself. The request now is being considered by Commencement committee.

The survey disclosed that all except two western law schools—at Idaho and Wyoming—permit graduates to wear the special color, purple. Idaho law graduates now wear the same costume as other bachelor degree candidates. Law graduates said they would pay all additional expenses involved in renting the

Sub Committees Choose Members

Members of three new SUB committees were announced yesterday by Bob Valet, chairman of the SUB program council.

Appointed were Edwin Zabel, Kappa; Jane Johnson, Theta; and Diann Nordby, Alpha Phi, campus calendar committee; Maureen McGourin, Kappa; Roger Anderson, Phi Delt; Kay Bozarth, Kappa; Sally Jo Nelson, Gamma Phi, and Bob Brown, Beta, coffee hours and forums.

Students Prefer Books For Leisurely Reading

College students are notoriously short of time. By the time they have finished the reading assigned to them each day, there's little time left to do much reading for pleasure.

Still, an early 1959 survey shows that more students prefer to read books than magazines in their spare time.

Further analysis of the data indicate that coeds are substantially stronger in this feeling than are college men. In the survey, 58 per cent of the women interviewed and only 45 per cent of the men said they preferred books to magazines for leisure time reading.

Because of the great world-wide interest in Boris Pasternak's Doctor Zhivago, pollsters decided to find out how many of the nation's college students had read that book, or any other, written by Pasternak.

When the entire sample was analyzed, results showed that only 11 per cent of all the people interviewed had read anything by Pasternak. Doctor Zhivago is undoubtedly the one work contributing most of this total. Eighty nine percent of the total sample had never read any of Pasternak's work.

Analysis of the data for men and women individually, shows an interesting reversal of the trend in preferring book reading for leisure time activity.

Eighteen percent of the men interviewed said they had read something by Pasternak, while only five percent of the coeds had done so.

A tabulation of the answers shows that 18 per cent of the men and 5 per cent of the women have read Pasternak. On the other hand, 82 per cent of the men and 95 per cent of the women have not read any of the Russian author's works.

Two To Speak At Conference

Two University music faculty members will give lectures at the 16th biannual meeting of the Northwest Division of the National Music Educators conference in Seattle Wednesday through Saturday.

Prof. Hall M. Macklin, head of the Music Department, and E. S. Schwartz, associate professor of music and vice president of the music organization, will speak at the conference. Other members of the University faculty and music students will attend the program.

Music faculty members and students from Idaho, Washington, Alaska, Oregon, Montana and Wyoming will attend the convention.

Other faculty members attending the four-day conference will be Glen R. Lockery, professor of music; LeRoy Bauer, Warren T. Bellis, associate professors of music, and Steven Romano, instructor in music.

Students who will attend are Gary Dossert, Sigma Chi; Carol Ann Haddock, and Carol Whittet, Kappa; Ernest Carr; SAE; Michael Norell, Phi Tau; Ronald Ray, Willis Sweet; Anne Lyons, Alpha Phi; Bob Whipple, Edward Eldridge, Chester Earls, Sanford Downing, James Mercer, John Baker, Dick Klingensmith, Raymond Moore, Gerald Strang, George Hansen, Richard Mansfield, and Marie Van Orman, off campus.

Reserve Training On WSC Campus

Air Force Reserve training is now being conducted at Holland Library on the Washington State College campus, according to George Carnie, off campus.

Carnie said meetings are held every Tuesday from 7:30-9:30 p.m. All former military personnel are eligible to participate in the reserve work.

'BEST DRESSED' BLONDE — Fran Baudak, Theta, was selected Sunday as Idaho's contestant in a national search for the ten best dressed coeds in America. Eight other women entered the competition.

Vet Insurance Cost Less Now

Korean veterans who hold RS term life insurance may now convert it into one of several permanent plans or a new lower cost term plan, it was announced yesterday by the Veterans Administration.

Under a new law which went into effect Jan. 1, veterans who have a policy with either National Service or U. S. Government Life Insurance whose serial number starts with the letters "RS" are eligible for the new program.

The new policies available include ordinary life, 20-pay life, 30-pay life, 20-year endowment, endowment at age 60 or endowment at age 65.

A new total disability income rider is available with any of the new plans. It permits the insured to collect a maximum of $100 per month beginning on the first day of the seventh month from the time he became permanently disabled.

Cost of this rider varies with the age of the insured and the type of policy held.

Show Hopefuls Will Audition

About 25 acts, contenders for spots on the Blue Key Talent show program, will audition in the Central Ballroom at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Co-chairman Bruce Summers said 14 or 15 acts will be chosen from the entrants, about the same as last year.

"We're particularly happy about the response from living groups this year," he added. "We have seven entered so far."

Deadline for submitting applications is noon today.

Bob Whipple, off campus, and Jerry Steele, SAE, are in charge of the committee that will select competing acts.

Clinic Slated For Students

Students interested in taking a reading and English clinic can still apply through their dean or faculty adviser, it was announced yesterday by Dr. C. Norton Coe, head of the Humanities Department.

The clinic which started Feb. 16, is open to students who are having difficulty in the mechanics of English and who need help in reading speed and comprehension.

The English Clinic, taught by Paul E. McCarthy, instructor in English, is offered Monday night, 8-9 p.m., 8th period Wednesday or 7th period Thursday.

The Reading Clinic is taught by Floyd C. Tolleson, assistant professor of English, and is held Monday 7-8 p.m., 7th period Wednesday or 8th period Thursday.

Students desiring further information may contact the Humanities Department, Ad 108.

Fifty Respond To Argonaut Plea For Shots

More than 50 students responded to the recent Argonaut announcement that students should get flu shots at the Infirmary, Dr. J. M. Fleming, director of student health services, said today.

"This is excellent response," Dr. Fleming said, "but there are still many students who have not taken advantage of the influenza vaccine. Influenza is prevalent throughout Europe now and there is a very real probability we may experience an outbreak during the spring months."

The Infirmary has available vaccine which combines A and B strains of influenza and the Asian type. The vaccine is not a 100 per cent guarantee that the individual will not contract influenza, but it will probably either protect entirely or cut the severity of any attack.

Dr. Fleming also urged students who have not had shots within the last three or four months to take shots available at the Infirmary.

New Theories Will Be Heard

Recent experiments on evolution at the molecular level will be discussed by Duane Le Tourneau, associate professor of agricultural science, in a public lecture in the Home Economics building, room 6, at 8 p.m. today.

The topic is one of world-wide interest, having been the main subject of a recent international symposium attended by biochemists and biologists throughout the world.

There are three main theories on the origin of life, Le Tourneau said. They are divine creation, spontaneous generation and the theory that material may have been carried through space from some other sources.

Recent experiments by Melvin Calvin of the University of California and Sidney W. Fox of Florida State have given science new ideas on these theories. Their experiments have also been beneficial to the field of organic chemistry, Le Tourneau said.

Six Houses Have Weekend Initiations; Phi Deltas Initiate 916 In Fifty Years

By SHARON LANCE
Arg Women's Editor

Idaho coeds and fraternity men exchanged pledge pins for the traditional emblems of their respective sororities and fraternities during weekend initiation ceremonies at six houses. Initiating were Phi Delta, Delta Chi, ATO, Kappa and Alpha Chi.

DELTA CHIS flew the traditional fraternity flag over their house last weekend in honor of initiation ceremonies held Friday night. New initiates are Sam Collet, Bud Light, Peter Welch, Gary Brannon, Bill Evans, Ray Stowers and Larry Cantrell. Larry Mashburn and Dick Hughes were special guests at a breakfast held after the ceremonies for the initiates. Delta Chi pledges will take on the challenges of the new semester under the leadership of Gary Heidel, president; Stan Hall, vice president; Stan Sale, secretary-treasurer and Tom Lindsley, sergeant-at-arms. A cake date with some of the Thetas finished a Sunday evening "paint slinging" function staged by the two houses.

KAPPA pledges formally initiated Wednesday were Nancy Alcorn, Nancy Beach, Joan Davenport, Dennis Dressel, Judy Finney, Kelly Frizzelle, Heather Hill, Nancy Horkley, Joyce Kall, Linda Lamb, Judy McGarvey, Nancy Mitchell, Lorraine Potter, LaDessa Rogers, Becky Ross, Susan Rutledge, Judy Stubbs, Nadine Talbot, Nancy Trail, Joan Wallington and Edwina Zabel. Mrs. Margaret Hill, a former Idaho Kappa, attended the initiation ceremonies during which her daughter, Heather, was initiated. Dorothy Bauer was awarded the "Scholar of the Month" bracelet for February at a recent Scholarship Dinner. Lorna Woelfel will be wearing the diamond key for making the greatest grade point improvement. Newly elected officers for the 1959 term include Kay Bozarth, president; Sue Livingston, vice president; Karen Stedfeld, scholarship chairman; Mary Jane Douglas, membership chairman; Jan Browning, house manager; Barbara Sande, social chairman; M. J. Caldwell, pledge trainer; Zola Lee Fairley, efficiency chairman; Jaynee Farnsworth, recording secretary; Ann Irwin, recording secretary; Moe McGourin, parliamentarian; Judy Anderson and Carol Ann Haddock, co-registrars; Gretchen Sparks, marshal; Barbara Sams, treasurer; June Powells, historian; Mary Youngstrom, fraternity appreciation; Lorna Woelfel, activities chairman and Joan Ward, song leader.

ATOs initiated seven pledges during ceremonies Sunday. Initiated were Neil Leitner, Larry Coupe, Richard Erwin, Pete Van Inwegen, Dale Dennis, Ben Burr and Jim Weeks. Dinner guests for the Sunday banquet were Mr. and Mrs. Q. W. Erwin, Mr. Hip Stein, Bob Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Ven McDonald. The ATOs will meet with their fraternity from all over this district at a District Conclave which will convene in Spokane next Saturday.

ALPHA CHIs who are now sporting the traditional lyre emblem are new initiates Sally Crockett, Mary Jo Downey, Betty Galley, Vicki Fisher, Judy Geidl, Audrian Huff, Mary Jauregui, Kelda Johnson, Christine McDanel, Marilyn Reeve, Donna Satgast, Camille Shelton, Pat West, Judy Westwood, Judy Wicks and Diane Earl. The traditional initiation dinner followed the March 1 ceremonies. Alums who attended the dinner were Mr. Hall Macklin, Mrs. Joyce Simpson and Diane Ortega, French. Card playing and dancing topped off an all-house exchange which the Alpha Chis held with the Kappa Sigs last Wednesday evening. Members of both houses ate dinner at the Alpha Chi residence while pledges enjoyed their dinner hour at the Kappa Sig chapter house. Miss Letizia Pitigliani, visiting Italian artist, is a guest at the house this week.

DELTA's initiated 21 new members into their fraternity Feb. 22. They are Duane Alfred, Barry Burke, Jim Childs, Larry Cross, Dick Davies, Jay Doyle, Vaughn Estrick, Mike Felton, Norman Gissel, Robert Hall, Mike Watson, Robert Henderson, Charles Hervey, Terry Holcomb, Keith Johnson, Robert Schumaker, Jerry Shively, Paul Sokvitne and Richard Sula. Attending the initiation were Delta alums, George Johnson, Spokane; Wayne Burke, Pocatello; Lein Bielenberg, Moscow and Don Neville-Smith, Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Thursday evening the Deltas pinned their dates for the annual Russian Ball with "honorable" badges symbolizing the notorious Cassack Club.

The same evening the Cassack-inspired fellows serenaded the women's living groups with Russian songs and dancing in brilliantly colored costumes. Over 200 people attended the all day Russian Ball. A costume dance concluded the annual affair which also included entertainment and a "plentiful" amount of food.

HAYS HALL and McConnell Hall staged an impromptu social function Saturday evening. Included on the agenda for the affair were card playing, TV, ping-pong, dancing and social games. The girls found themselves in the world of fine arts Thursday evening when they listened to Miss Letizia Pitigliani, Italian artist, who spoke to them after dinner. Sunday dinner guests included Gary Blank, EWCE; Bob Shelske, Upham and Doug Anderson, Willis Sweet. Hays members and Upham Hall fellows attended a Sunday dancing class, which was instructed by Sandi Wright.

THETAS opened their castle-like chapter house for the inspection of college representatives from all over their district, national and district officers and alums during a convention held last weekend. Sessions which were held at the local chapter and the WSC were featured talks by Hazel Bell, grand vice president; Jane Krohn, grand council member at large; Helen Krelzinger, college district president and Jo Ann Thompson, alumnae district president. Theta chapters at Montana State, WSC, Whitman and U. of Alberta were represented at the confab. Highlight of the affair was a banquet at the Washington State CUB Saturday evening. The Thetas will receive an Italian touch this week when they host Letizia Pitigliani, Italian artist who is visiting the Idaho campus. The Deltas, serenaded last week in connection with their Russian Ball.

WILLIS SWEET's Roger Manning and Dave Voysey were chosen the worst dressed people during the hall's annual dress-up night Wednesday. The fellows were selected because they were attired in the looudest and oldest clothing. Guests for the Wednesday dinner were last year's proctor and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holder.

Kappa Team Wins 1st In Badminton

First place winners in badminton competition were announced yesterday by Women's Recreation Assn.

A Kappa team, Marilyn Crane and Nancy Beach placed first in badminton doubles. Betty Anderson and Normandy Griffens, Ethel Steel, took second. Arlene Frahm and Evelyn Hammer, Forney, third, while Beth Hossner and Arlene Turnbull, Tri-Delt, finished fourth.

In badminton singles, Barb Branom, Tri-Delt, took top honors. Marian Clark, French, placed second. Penny Preston and Beth Hossner, Tri-Delt, were third and fourth, respectively.

Rings Things

Wedding bells were ringing this week when one Idaho coed marched to the altar and two other coeds made plans for spring weddings.

MARRIAGE

Sharon Davidson, acting as an interpreter from Mars, rushed into the Alpha Chi living room Wednesday noon to announce the marriage of Judy Wicks and Bill Lew- is, off campus. The wedding took place in Coeur d'Alene on Mar. 1.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mary Margaret Brown, Alpha Chi, announced her forthcoming marriage, set for April 5, to Ernie Carr, SAE, at a special house meeting. The announcement was made by photographs of bridesmaid dresses in Modern Bride magazines.

Carol McAbee, off campus, announced her engagement to Ron Thomas, McConnell Hall.

Prep Students Vie On Math Exam

At exactly 8 a.m. March 5, thousands of high school students throughout the U.S. and Canada will begin work on a special national mathematics contest sponsored jointly by the Mathematics Association of America and the Society of Actuaries.

Idaho is no exception. Throughout the state 1,650 students in 50 schools will compete. The top three tests from each school will be sent to the University and from these the three highest in the state will be chosen. The top three will be sent to contest headquarters for national competition.

Kenneth A. Bush, head of the Department of Mathematics, is chairman for the state of Idaho.

Baudek Named 'Best Dressed' Idaho Coed

Fran Baudek, blonde Theta, has been selected to represent Idaho in Glamour Magazine's "10 Best Dressed College Girls in America" contest.

The Idaho coed, selected on the basis of requirements set up by Glamour Magazine, was chosen from a field of nine contestants to compete in the national competition. Runnersup were Fran Stockdale, Pi Phi and Barbara Sande, Kappa. The contestants appeared before the judges in a dress outfit, heels and matching accessories. They were also required to turn in a paper on the topic "Given: $500—Wanted: Coordination and Individuality." The paper, along with pictures of the winner in various spring outfits will be sent to the national judges. Other contestants were Nancy May, Hays; Joyce Littleton, Alpha Gam; Shirley Vowels, Alpha Phi; Betty Davis, Gamma Phi, and JoAnn Reese, DG.

Religious Speakers Present Discussion Topics At Clubs

CANTERBURY CLUB

Canon Eric W. Jackson, staff member of St. John's Cathedral in Spokane, will be a supper guest and speaker for the Canterbury group Sunday evening. "Whence the Bible" was the topic of a talk delivered by Rt. Rev. Russell S. Hubbard during a joint meeting of Canterbury and Disciples Fellowship members last Sunday.

Everyone planning to make the trip will be assessed five dollars for the weekend. Further information can be obtained from Chuck Doak of Art Royce, off campus.

WESTMINSTER FOUNDATION

A weekend of winter recreation and studying will be held March 6-8 during the Westminster Foundation retreat at Davis Lake, Washington. The retreat will feature talks by Dr. Henry Caldwell and Rev. Chuck Doak in the discussion topic, "How God Damned the World."

Writers Don't 'See' News, TSP Told

Journalists sometimes miss top news stories because they fail to look around them, Dorothy Powers, columnist-feature writer for the Spokane Spokesman-Review said Saturday night.

Speaking to a Theta Sigma Phi anniversary banquet, Mrs. Powers said reporters "fail to see and sometimes fail to transmit what they see to readers."

"All reporters have to do, however, is look," she added.

Trip Cinches Vandals' Second Division Berth

EUGENE, Ore. — The Idaho Vandals, playing slow but steady ball for the first 37 minutes last night, pulled away from a slim 59-58 lead in the final 45 seconds to cop their fifth PCC game of the season, 64-58.

Idaho captain Whaylon Coleman capped the Vandal upsurge with a last second basket after the desperate Ducks left the hard-driving Idaho scoring ace alone under the Vandal basket.

The Vandals and Ducks battled to a tie eight times in the first ten minutes of action before the Idaho crew could move out in front, 31-25, at halftime.

In the second half Idaho moved in front by a 13-point lead at 56-43 with less than five minutes to play. The Vandals attempted to freeze the ball and Oregon snared 15 quick points to trail at 59-58 before Idaho's B. J. Schaffer hit to move the visiting Vandals safely ahead.

Despite the win the Vandals remain in seventh place, ahead only of Oregon and Washington State. Idaho now has a 5-10 record with

The University of Washington moved to a 34-27 halftime edge against the butgunned Idaho Vandals Friday, then turned on the steam in the second half to coast to an easy 74-51 victory. Benchwarmers from both teams finished out much of the final period.

Big Jim Prestel held usually high-scoring Washington ace Doug Smart to 10 points, while bucketing 10 himself.

Smart hit only 22 points against the Vandals in their two-game series. Prestel held the 6-7 marksman to 10 in their first meeting. Prestel shoved the Idaho visitors out in front 2-0 in the opening seconds, but the Huskies, mindful of their narrow 61-60 escape over Idaho the previous weekend, moved back fast to take the lead for good.

Beavers Down Idaho Saturday night the Vandals had more luck, but again ended on the short end of the scoring column as Oregon State rolled to a 40-42 win.

In an earlier encounter, the Vandals had lost to the Beavers in a wild-scoring contest that ended with the visiting OSC five ahead, 87-84.

The Vandals opened a six-point, 31-25 half-time bulge, largely on the shooting of 6-9 sophomore Karl Anderson. Anderson connected on 11 points for the evening to rank as high scorer for the Beavers.

The Vandals tied the game at 36-36 with 13 minutes left to play, before Beaver Ted Miller hit on a long side shot to move the OSC crew to a lead they never gave up.

Hansen Sets New Record At Fin Meet

Idaho finman Al Hansen lowered the Idaho 220 yard butterfly record by over a second against the WSC mermen Friday, but the Vandals failed to click on their final relay and lost to the Cougar crew 46-40.

In a Saturday meet with Eastern Washington, Idaho coach Clark Mitchell's squad gained partial revenge by swamping an out-gunned Cheney squad 66-21.

The Vandals jumped to an early 7-0 lead against the Cougars, racing to a first placement in the 440 medley relay event behind Larry Nelsen, Dean Gentry, Alex Gilbert and Leonard Lawr. Goodwin widened the edge in the 50 yard free style and Hansen shot across the finish line in 2:39 to lower the old 200 butterfly mark from 2:41.

Nelsen added to the Idaho scoring with a strong first place finish in the 200 yard backstroke but the individual heroics failed when the Cougar crew grabbed first place honors in the final event, the 400 yard free style relay to come from a 40-39 deficit.

Saturday the Idaho team had better fortune as junior Sam McNeil won the 220 and 440 free style events, Gentry won the 200 yard breaststroke in a fine finish flurry and Cliff Lawrence rounded out the Idaho scoring with a win in the diving event.

According to coach Mitchell and Idaho squad is now at work shaping up for the Northern Division meet slated to be run in Pullman Thursday night at 7 p.m.

Snow Drives Idaho Team To Clarkston Golf Course

University of Idaho golfers, unable to practice on the University links because of snow and wet weather, haven't been biding their time, however. They are working out regularly on the Clarkston Golf and Country Club course.

Snow and other prevailing weather conditions have forced the team to practice on the "Banana Belt" course.

The University golf course is expected to be open for play as soon as remaining snow melts and the nine holes are put into condition.

One match is scheduled with each of the Northern Division PCC schools and the Pacific Coast championship will be held at Oregon.

Golfers May Travel "We should have good depth and if we make a good showing, we might be able to go to the National Collegiate Athletic Association Championships at Eugene later this summer," Coach Dick Snyder said.

Future for the golf team appears promising because of the return of three two-year senior lettermen, Rusty Sheppard, John Rosholt and

Portland Five On 1960 Idaho Hoop Schedule

The University of Portland was added to Idaho's list of 1959-1960 hoop opponents yesterday.

Idaho will travel to Portland Dec. 12 to meet the Pilots on their home court, then host the Portland five at Memorial Gymnasium March 2.

"This nearly completes Idaho's 26 games for the 1960 season. I hope to be able to announce within the next few weeks the completed schedule of the games allowed by NCAA rules," said Robert Gibb, Idaho athletics director.

Idaho last met the Pilots in 1950, winning 60-38 after splitting two earlier contests with the Portland team in 1948 and 1949.

Portland boasts one of the better teams on the coast this season, currently holding a 16-7 record, including wins over Utah State, Montana State and Gonzaga.

No mention was made of a proposed conference tie-in that might include Portland along with Seattle and Gonzaga.

By DON MODIE

Jack Snider. They are expected to lead the Idaho squad this year.

Other positions on the varsity probably will be filled by Bob Pierce, Dave Thompson and George Luckhardt, juniors; and Ray Kowallis and Don Modie, sophomores.

Fresh Begin Work Freshman golfers soon will begin preparation for their schedule under the reins of Coach Dave Samuelson.

Matches are expected to be scheduled with the WSC freshmen team and with golfing crews from Gonzaga and Whitworth.

Expected to spearhead the baby Vandals this spring are three of Idaho's top junior golfers of last summer, Gary Floan, Robb Smith and Wally Lowe.

Ski Groups Meet For Outing Plans

An Idaho ski club meeting has been slated for 7 p.m. Thursday, March 5 in conference room E of the SUB, according to publicity manager Dave Iverson.

Iverson urged all members and skiers wishing to join to attend the meeting as pictures for the Gem will be taken. Also, plans will be made for a March 15 ski party to be held at Emida. Tentative plans include an evening of skiing, dancing and meals.

According to Iverson, ski club jacket emblems will arrive on March 20.

The "LARK" Automobile

Here are a few of the magazines that have endorsed the New "LARK" by Studebaker — Just a few of their quotes —

- Science and Mechanics— "The Larks are actually roomier than one or more of the Big Three."
- Popular Science— "The front entrance room is nothing short of superb in this day of stoop and squat."
- Motor Trend— "Studebaker's Lark is no half-hearted, rehashed attempt at something new for '59."
- Speed Ago— "South Bend's designers and engineers have turned into automotive magicians."
- Car Life— "Best buy in a U. S. Economy Car."
- Motor Life— "The Lark will get from 10 to 12 more miles per gallon than the sixes in the Big 3."

"The Lark will unquestionably hold its value far better and much longer in depreciation."

INTRAMURALS

Intramural bowling rolled into its second round this week as the ping pong league settled into a final dash for the doubles and singles crown. The third sport currently starting on the intramural scene, B basketball, made its debut last night.

In League I bowling, Delta Chi picked up four points in its initial round to rank as the league leader. Phi Delta Theta is currently second with six points for two games, followed by Delta Sigma Phi, Campus Club and Tau Kappa Epsilon with four points each.

Upham Hall and Alpha Tau Omega round out the first league standings. Sigma Alpha Epsilon held onto a seven point total to stand as the League II leaders, followed by Beta Theta Pi with five; TMA with four, Gault Hall and Farm-House with three each, Lindley Hall with two and Theta Chi last with zero.

In League II McConnell Hall with seven, Sigma Nu with five, Shoup Hall, Lambda Chi Alpha and Chrisman Hall with three each and Sigma Chi with two.

Willis Sweet Hall and Delta Tau Delta hold down a joint first spot in League IV, each sporting a maximum 8 points. Kappa Sigma and Phi Gamma Delta with three each and LDS and Phi Kappa Tau with one point round out the league.

The Delts have the top team score so far in bowling action, sporting a 2422 point total.

Oregon Team Selected Nicknames In Varied Ways

Back in the early years of coast football, the Oregon grid squad was faced with a rather alarming problem... due to an inadequate drainage system, their sunken football stadium would often turn into a virtual swimming pool, knee deep in water.

As time went on the Oregon eleven continued to slog over their un-drained home field and a sports writer, whose name is lost in antiquity, casually and jokingly referred to the Oregon crew as "Ducks." The name stuck and the Oregon grid team became known as the Oregon Ducks. Several years later all Oregon teams were Ducks and remain as such to the present day although the Oregon field now has a adequate drainage system.

Why Beavers? Over at Corvallis the Duck's arch rivals, the Beavers, picked up their nickname in a slightly different fashion. According to Mr. John Eggers, OSC publicity director, Oregon State College, then known as Oregon Agricultural College, picked up its new title in 1933. At that time the famous Oregon State coach Slat's Gill had just produced his first PCC championship team.

Mr. Eggers believes that the tab could have adapted from Oregon's being known as the "Beaver State" and the OSC athletic teams naturally picking up the name Beaver.

The Beavers have yet to establish the firmness of being of the Nineteen new initiates joined the Idaho I club last Saturday night during halftime festivities at the Idaho-California game. Newly initiated members include: Jack Bloxom, Norm Geurtson, Larry Hattmer, Ralph Hatch, Val Johnson, Fernan Pasold and Dennis Solt, baseball letterwinners; Ray Schmidt, golf; Bob Hansen and Al Sudweeks, tennis; Joe Espinoza, Don Evans, Ron Ismael, Bob Prestel, Mike Sheeran and Sil Vial, football; Brent Thompson, Jim McDonald, basketball; Ken Goodwin, swimming.

In other I club action, Jim Prestel was elected vice president to replace Bob Eyster, who left school.
