Pre-Vacation Tapping Nets Nine SDX Men

Nine men were tapped for Sigma Delta Chi, national journalist society, prior to Spring vacation two weeks ago. Tapped were Neil Modie, Beta; Jim Metcalf, Delta Sig; Warren Reynolds and Bob Verrillion, Upham; Lee Kellogg, Sigma Chi; Gary Manville, Phi Tau; and Jim Herndon, Larry Roby, and Dick Tefft, all off campus. Professional members to be initiated include Dick Earley, Rick Raphael, Earle Sample, Tom Cooper, and Wes Leib.

Initiation will be held this Friday at 5 p.m. in Conference Room E of the SUB. After the initiation a banquet will be held at the Daily Idahonian. The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m., and will feature Earle Sample, Master Editor of Idaho, as main speaker.

Plans are also underway for the Sigma Delta Chi Regional Convention, to be held the following week under the joint sponsorship of the WSU and Idaho chapters. Chapters from Washington, Oregon, and Montana have been invited to the conference, which will be divided into two Saturday sections, half the day at Idaho, and the other half at Washington. George Fowler, news editor of the Ritzville (Wash.) Journal-Times will highlight the Idaho session, and Harold Cleavinger, managing editor of the Spokane Chronicle, will speak at the WSU sessions.

A pre-initiation meeting will be held this Wednesday in the Arg office for all members. Purpose is to practice and to elect new officers.

Students Hit Monday Goal

By GLENN STROUP
Arg Travelogue Artist
On Monday, April 10, the Idaho Bed-Pushing Team placed their bed atop the Capitol steps in Boise, thus culminating a 360 mile, 95 hour journey.

The project originated with Dave Richey, Dave Shurtleff, and Don Stephens, all of Upham, when a Canadian team set a bed-pushing record of 317 miles. Seeing it as a good chance to obtain publicity for the University and also to raise money for the leukemia fund, a drive was started to enlist the help of Moscow merchants and interested students. A bed, bicycle tires, money, and welding services were obtained and at 1:30 p.m., April 6, seven members of the team embarked on the SUB for Boise, pushing a bed.

Lewiston
The team reached Lewiston around 7 that night where they were served dinner by Sterling Dean of the Lewiston Centennial Celebration.

At Ferdinand, the bed was stopped because of a flat tire, the first of many that would occur on the trip.

Friday afternoon the rest of the team caught up with the bed at Grangeville, where the original team dropped out for a well-needed rest. Pushing on, Whitebird Pass was traversed that night in 5 hours. This was marked by the almost superhuman efforts of several members in pushing the bed at a near-run up the crest and at a full run down the other side. A small dose of external stimulus provided much of the needed energy.

On the other side of Whitebird another flat tire occurred. While half the team went back to Whitebird to obtain help, the other members were entertained by a slightly crooked old lady who happened by and nearly went off the road.

Riggins
Breakfast was eaten at Riggins Saturday morning. Coldness, accompanied by snow and rain, made Saturday the worst day of the trip. More flat tires occurred and that afternoon the left rear axle broke. While three members of the team went to New Meadows for an axle, a kindly elderly couple, Major and Mrs. Osborn, served coffee and cookies to the rest of the team. However, by the time they were through, the rest of the team, including the ones who stayed in Grangeville, had shown up. Altogether, they served 17 men coffee and cookies. Dance Groups Slate Spring Performance

A theme of springtime will prevail when Orchestis and Pre-Orchestis present their annual two-night spring program Mother's Day weekend.

Scheduled for 8 p.m. May 12 and 13 in the University Auditorium, the combined performances of the two women's dancing honoraries will be centered around the dance arrangements of Charles Weidman, a well-known modern dance artist who visited the Idaho campus last month.

Weidman was one of the first artists to break away from the conventional dancing techniques to form his own style known as Kinetic Pantomime.

Part of the program will consist of arrangements taken from the poetry of modern humorist Ogden Nash. Music will be taken from the Stan Kenton record album of City of Glass.

Some 30 girls from the two honoraries will take part in the performances, which are open to the public.

IK Queen Told At Royal Ball

The IK's will sponsor a Royal Ball after their final banquet this Saturday evening, and the general public is invited, said Bill Pressey, Phi Delt, and Dance MC.

The dance will be held in the North and Central Ballrooms of the SUB from 9 to midnight, and will cost $1.50 a couple.

During the intermission, Pressey will crown the IK Queen. From the Idaho campus, Sally Newland, DG, is running.

Music will be furnished by the Deltas, operating out of Spokane.

Nuclear Physicist Will Visit University, Deliver Speeches

A leading nuclear physicist will be here April 18-19 for students and faculty consultation on curriculum and research, and will deliver several speeches on high energy physics. Professor Malcolm Renfrew, head of the physical science department, announced Dr. Jerome Pine's visit and also said that he would speak to an open meeting of

Knights Day Begins Wed. For Confab

The Knights have their day here this week, as delegates from the far-reaching Intercollegiate Knights national organization invade the campus for a three day convention sponsored jointly by the Washington State and Idaho chapters.

The 37th national conference is aimed partly at expansion of the national chapter, currently resting at 42 local groups in eleven western states, and partly at gaining the national's acceptance of the sophomore honorary status as is presently the case here at Idaho.

Eighteen delegates of un-affiliated college honoraries have been invited to attend the confab with an eye towards the first objective.

The official kickoff for the confab begins at 3 p.m. Wednesday, with registration in the SUB and CUB lobbies and the Moscow Hotel lobby. Preceding the registration, however, will be national executive council sessions in the Frontier room, opening at 1:10 p.m.

Mullen Talks

The first general sessions, with a speech by the ASUI president, Jim Mullen, open Thursday at the Senior Ballroom in the CUB in Pullman at 9:30 a.m. The sessions are followed by a luncheon, keynote speech by Gordon Chester, and speech by WSU president Dr. French in the CUB dining room, and a barbecue in the Idaho Arboretum at 6:30 Thursday evening.

Following the barbecue the Royal Queen's pageant in the Ad Auditorium, scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., will be held. Sally Newland, Delta Gamma, will compete with other regional IK princesses for the title of royal IK queen.

Friday morning a convention breakfast held in the SUB ballrooms will feature Idaho's Dean Stephens with a welcome address to the delegates. Later in the day the second and third general sessions will be held to install new IK chapters and elect the 1961-62 national officers.

Chester Head

Chester, off-campus, presently heads the slate of national officers as Royal King, corresponding to national president.

Friday night a convention banquet will be held at which time the delegates will be addressed by Mr. William Hawkins of Coeur d'Alene, past national president of the Elks.

At 9 the Royal IK Ball, under the direction of Bill Pressey, Phi Delt, will begin. The Ball is open to the Idaho student body with tickets going for $1.50 a couple and dress semi-formal. During the intermission the Royal Queen will be crowned.

Finishing out the confab is the fourth and final general session Saturday morning where the 1961-62 officers will be installed.

General chairman for the entire affair is Dean Grossenbach, Phi Tau, who is presently working with local and WSU IK officers to iron out final convention details.

Gov. Smylie Speaks About South America

By SHARON LANCE
Argonaut Managing Editor

Governor Robert E. Smylie told a University audience of 900 yesterday that Russia's man into space victory signalled the start of one of the hardest propaganda attacks ever directed at South American and other uncommitted nations.

He attacked the Kennedy administration for its "lethargy" in dealing with South America and said it could easily become the first disaster in the New Frontier.

Idaho Juniors Were Caught In AGD House

Two Idaho juniors were arrested April 9 in the furnace room of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority house. They were later charged with first degree burglary and ordered held in the Latah County jail in lieu of $300 bond each.

Dennis Grant, Shoup, and Darrell Woolfer, 304 Palouse Court, were taken before Justice Melvin Elsager where they waived preliminary hearings and were bound over to District Court.

The two boys were released the next day when a property bond was posted.

Police were alerted to the house when the housemother, Mrs. Lillian Short, heard the pair running up and down the stairs early in the morning.

After discovering the basement door and a rear window open, the investigating officers watched the rear of the house while another officer searched the basement. He discovered the pair lying on the floor behind the furnace.

JATB Features Pugh, Trail Group

Jazz At The Bucket! Fans may well be in Nirvana this Saturday when Blue Key Talent Show winner Dave Pugh vocalizes from 4 to 5 p.m. in the Bucket of the SUB.

He will be backed by the Dave Trail Quartet, including Frank Kanunis, sax; Dennis Crowell, bass; Justin Freiburg, drums, and Trail on piano.

The series will continue on into the Spring said JATB chairman Pugh.

THE GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

Some say that a 2.5 grade average is too high a requirement for participation in student activities. Some say that grades aren't the only thing that's important in a college career.

Some say that the 2.5 requirement would reduce the ranks of students interested in extra-curricular activities to the vanishing point.

Some say the 2.5 requirement is unfair. The Executive Board mulled over the pros and cons of grade requirements in their last meeting, and finally pushed the requirement up to a 2.2, effective next year, with plans for the future.

Why? Athletics, no longer really under ASUI jurisdiction, are exempted by the new plan. And maybe even athletics shouldn't be, if the subject was followed all the way through.

But the regular ASUI activities, Executive Board, President, cheerleaders, committee heads, Argonaut editorial staff, etc., should take the 2.5 mark in stride, particularly if the change comes slowly.

The big question in sight, actually, is whether or not students should be allowed to cut their own throats, drifting through with a 2.2 average, but graduating with plenty of gay little notes in the annual.

The Board took the logical step, calling for a .1 increase yearly up to the 2.5 goal. The motion passed 7-2, and was sent to Administrative Council.

The machinery, that just might eliminate a few aspiring activity-majors, and should lend a more academic atmosphere to ASUI doings, has started to grind. And Jason is happy about it.

Bleed Now, Avoid The Drive Rush

"Help Harry Hemoglobin" gobble up a quota of 750 pints of donated blood and help keep the University's reputation, earned some years ago, as the "Bloodiest Campus" in the world.

President Tips Scales For Songfest End

The Song Fest took a final knockout punch from a pair of split ASUI Executive Boards just prior to Spring vacation, with ASUI president Bruce McCowan casting the deciding, deadlock-breaking "no" vote.

Subject of intense controversy since the original decision to pass up the traditional May Fete singing contest was made in March, the question of Song Fest, "yes or no" gave rise to petitions, debates and questionnaires.

The final round, rung in as the Vandaleer group offered to take over Song Fest's place, was a bruising one.

McCowan, closing debate at the joint Executive Board meeting April 4, left it up to the old board to decide, still the official governing body of the ASUI. The vote went 4-4, with Red Taylor, Randy Litton, Bill Pasley and Everett Bally negative.

New Board Splits
McCowan threw the question at the new board, their decision to be final. The vote went 4-4, with Larry Hosner, Pete Kelly, Jim Okeson and "Judy Pratt" saying "no."

Ed Christensen, Bill McElvain and Dave Polage appeared before the Boards to submit petitions signed by 24 living groups who would be in favor of Songfest this year.

Up To Prexy
With the count tied 8-8, it was up to McCowan, the ASUI president.

"Because of the fact that I do believe the spring calendar is overcrowded and that it will do our University students no harm to listen to the Vandaleers and spend more time on the books, I vote 'no,'" he said, putting the final stopper to the traditional event.

Tryouts Slated For 2 Plays

Acting and crew positions for two studio theatre productions to be presented by the University Drama Department May 11 and 12 will be selected after tryouts tomorrow evening at 8 in the U Hut.

The two Tennessee Williams plays are "Hello from Bertha" and "Moon's Kid Don't Cry." All interested students are urged to try out.

MUN: Worth The Trip

Interest and enthusiasm were keywords at the recent Model United Nations session held on the University of Oregon campus over Spring vacation. With the opening speech by President Boland of the United Nations General Assembly, the 11th annual session commenced.

Probably many times during a student's years in college he has a chance to absorb the actual intellectual thought of others around him. The MUN was surely the perfect environment for absorbing such thought. Disregarding the "politicking" and struggles for power among participating schools, the session followed closely the actual policies of the United Nations. Just being there a person couldn't help notice the tremendous interest, sincerity, and aptness of the delegates present.

The University was very capably represented by 13 students, led by Bob Moe. Moe was elected chairman of the Afro-Asian bloc by those countries representing the bloc. This, was definitely added prestige for the Liberian delegation from Idaho.

It is certainly heartening to see some Idaho students who want to put forth enough effort to represent Idaho at conclaves and do such a tremendous job at it. Congratulations to Idaho's delegation for the fine job.

While at the University of Oregon the Si Zentner band performed for their Jr. Prom. He will also perform for Idaho's Jr.-Sr. Prom and students can't be encouraged enough to be in attendance. Zentner and his band were received fabulously at Oregon and it could almost be guaranteed that Idaho will enjoy the performance likewise. The reason—one of the top dancing bands in the country today.

Coupled with the talented June Christy, the Prom should be one of the top ever to be presented on the campus. Last year Ray Conniff and his group presented a concert but those who like to dance were left out, so to speak. This year combining a well known vocalist and a top rated band, there is something for everyone.

For those who don't like to dance but enjoy music then it will be worth the time and money spent to hear both Christy and Zentner. Zentner also possesses a quality seldom found in entertainers nowadays, a realistic and sincere personality which he uses to speak his and his band's performance.—H.V.H.

HERE'S MORE ABOUT— Idaho Bed Pushers

one example of the hospitality shown on the trip.

New Meadows was reached Saturday afternoon where the team turned in a south-westerly direction in order to gain more miles to establish the record. About 8 members obtained a 2 hour nap here but soon all were together again. The strain of the trip was telling by this time, there being few bed-pushers who could not complain about sore muscles, sore feet, shin splints, or some other ailment.

Council
Night overtook the caravan at Council where tires were replenished, meals eaten, and attempts made to induce local girls into pushing the bed ("You likee pushee bed?").

Saturday night was bitter cold. The blanket, with all the contributing merchants' names on it, wet from the rain during the day, froze solid and the clanging of it bouncing against the bed-springs was heard throughout the night.

Sunday morning rose clear and warm and the team pushed on through Weiser. On the outskirts of town, 5 girls offered to help push the bed and for several miles spirits were high. The appearance of these girls was a tremendous morale builder.

Composed
Incidentally, the bed-pushing team was composed of the biggest bunch of publicity hounds this side of Hollywood. A sure way to get all hands out of the cars and to the bed was to flash a camera.

Everybody had a pretty good time Sunday. Radio and newspaper publicity was given in most of the towns and minor traffic jams were caused nearly the whole day.

Caldwell was reached Sunday night and after everybody had eaten, a wild melee ensued in which the bed was pushed around the downtown section with cars weaving in and out and blowing horns. The local cops soon put a stop to this.

It was planned that everybody would rest in Caldwell Sunday night and push into Boise the following morning. As the bed was being pushed to a warehouse, a group of College of Idaho students made a rather puny attempt to steal the bed. The bed-pushers were outnumbered four to one but again the Caldwell police showed up and the C of I boys disappeared.

Monday Morn.
Monday morning, the team refreshed, but sore, the final push to Boise was started. Entering the city limits around 12:30 p.m. the team formed a little parade of their own and proceeded towards the Capitol.

At 1:28½ the bed was lifted up and carried to the top of the Capitol steps where it was deposited at 1:29 — nearly 4 days to the minute from the time they left Moscow. Immediately the bell at the base of the Capitol steps was rung 15 times to commemorate the victory.

The group waited for a while for Governor Smylie in the company of Delores Llewellyn and Pat Dunn, both DG's, two of the few University students who met the team. Tired of waiting for the Governor, the group departed for milkshakes, donated by a loyal legislator.

After milkshakes, the team headed towards KIDO-TV, where they appeared on Periscope and made a plea for food and shelter. Pat Dunn offered to make her house the operations center for this, and both she and Delores did a lot in getting the team places to stay for the night.

Boise
At 5:30 p.m. the team invaded the Idaho Hotel where they again watched themselves on television over KBOI-TV.

Monday night, the team dispersed to bars, parties, etc. At 12:30 a.m., twelve daring, resourceful, intrepid BJC students sneaked up to the Capitol and stole the bed right out from under the eyes of nobody.

The next day six of the bed-pushers invaded the BJC campus and searched the buildings. The bed was not found but it was ascertained that the bed was on campus. Later in the afternoon the bed was found in front of the shop and the six bed-pushers calmly stepped out of their cars, removed the front wheels of the bed, placed one in the trunk of a car, and left — right in front of about 20 BJC students. The bed was then paraded around the campus to show everybody that the bed had been stolen back. Right now the bed is securely locked in a private garage in Boise. It will soon be brought back to Moscow.

The team was lucky in obtaining much publicity throughout the trip. Both Boise television stations carried it; in addition to several radio stations. The team made four consecutive issues of the Statesman, two of those with pictures. Many of the newspapers and radio stations along the way furnished publicity.

The only regret of the team is the lack of support received here on campus. Most of the comments heard were "They'll never make it," "It will get bad publicity for the school," "It's the craziest damn thing I ever heard of," etc. The team feels that it was a pretty crazy stunt but they do not feel that it created bad publicity. Another point is the money raised for the leukemia fund — over $160 now.

Twenty Southern Idaho Appearances Ahead For Vandaleer Touring Group

of Glen R. Lockery, for the 14th consecutive year, will appear in concert in a seven day tour of southern Idaho this month.

The well known singing group, noted throughout the Northwest for their outstanding performances, will leave the campus on Sunday April 23. The 35-voice touring choir of specially chosen singers from among the regular Vandaleer membership, plus selected instrumentalists and soloists will present twenty programs at high school assemblies and formal evening concerts.

Lockery has chosen a varied program of choral music for this year's concert tour, including both sacred and secular compositions from early to modern periods, folk music, Broadway musical selections, and University of Idaho songs.

Featured student soloists will be DeLance Franklin, Ardell Shockley, Linda Smith, Billie Sommers, Kelly Frizelle, pianist; Steve Evans, Trumpet; and Angela Sherbenou, Vandaleer accompanist. Popularity of the Vandaleer's programs is exemplified by the capacity crowds which gather each year to hear the Candlelight Concert in Memorial Gymnasium on the campus. The Vandaleers appear on television, radio, and in special concerts in addition to their annual tour of the state. Scheduled for release early next fall will be an LP recording which will include the Vandaleer singing selections from this season's tour program, and University of Idaho songs.

Accompanying the touring group this year will be Professor Hall M. Macklin, head of the department of music, and Mrs. Macklin, who will serve as chaperone.

Vandaleer's Concert Choir itinerary: April 23, St. Gertrude's Academy, Cottonwood; McCall; April 24, Council, New Plymouth, Weiser; April 25, Boise High School, Borah High School, Parma; April 26, Nampa, Jerome, and Twin Falls; April 27, Pocatello, Soda Springs, Montpelier; April 28, Rigby, Idaho Falls, Blackfoot; April 29, Mackay, Salmon, Challis.

June Christy, Si Zentner To Provide Music At Junior-Senior Prom April 29

June Christy, known around the world as featured vocalist with Stan Kenton, will appear — again in the feature spot — with Si Zentner and his "Thinking Man's Band" April 29 at the University Junior-Senior Prom.

Success came fast and early for June Christy. "Discovered" at the age of 13 in Deatur, Ill., she sang with the Bill Oetzel dance band for four years before joining Kenton and world fame as a songstress.

It was Kenton who introduced her to the public as June Christy and it was with his orchestra that she made her first recording for Capitol Records. "Tampico" was an instant success followed by

"How High The Moon," "Willow Weep For Me," and "I'll Remember April."

For three consecutive years, she was voted top place as favorite band vocalist in the polls conducted by Downbeat Magazine.

After foreign tours with Kenton's orchestra, across both oceans, she launched her career as a single act and went on to become firmly established as a star in her own right.

Furnishing music with the 5-foot-3-inch, green-eyed, natural blond at the University prom will be Si Zentner and his group of top musicians.

Created from a group of musicians in Los Angeles playing in motion picture studios, the orchestra gave its premiere at the Hollywood Palladium to a record breaking crowd last year. Zentner is considered one of the top trombonists in show business. He has played with such greats as Les Brown, Harry James, and as soloist with the late Jimmy Dorsey.

SRA Chooses New Officers

Election of new officers and a discussion with athletics director J. Neil "Skip" Stahley on Idaho athletics highlighted an SRA meeting last night.

Election results were unavailable when the Argonaut went to press. A complete report will be in Friday's Arg.

Nominations included Larry Schaat, Beta, and Dave Tracy, AFO, chairman; Bom Plumb, Lindley, vice chairman; and Heather Hill, Kappa, secretary and additional nominations were made at the meeting. Stahley's visit is a result of SRA's investigation into Idaho athletics and is part of the program.

POM POM MEET TONIGHT
There will be a pom pom practice tonight at 7 on the 3rd floor of the SUB.

rapid disposal of publicly owned land or we will be buying them back at bigger prices some day," he said.

Smylie said the legislature would be sorry for cutting out appropriations for its centennial celebration in 1963.

Centennial Funds
"Refusing the centennial was like a father refusing to have a birthday party for his ten year old son," he quipped.

Smylie predicted that the sales tax would be the next revenue step taken by the state.

"We should stop deceiving ourselves with fancy-sounding names like broad based taxes — the only alternative left is the sales tax," Smylie said.

Smylie defended his veto of the stamp bill last month by saying there was no point in the government telling merchants how they should advertise their products.

"I don't believe we should interfere in the economic disputes between outlets and consumers," he concluded.

Massive voice for a missile base

In America's space-age defense system, the order of the day is total, high-speed communications.

And at Vandenberg Air Force Base, as elsewhere, General Telephone & Electronics is carrying out the order with efficiency and dispatch.

Here the link to the system that mans the mighty Atlas missiles is a fully automatic 5,000-line dial telephone exchange. The "outside voice" that links the base with alert and command posts throughout the world is a multichannel microwave radio relay system capable of handling hundreds of telephone conversations, teletype messages and early-warning radar data simultaneously.

The communications equipment connecting Vandenberg Air Force Base with the outside was designed, manufactured and installed by our subsidiaries, Automatic Electric and Lenkurt Electric, and is operated for the government by General Telephone of California.

This advanced high-speed system is expressive of the way General Telephone & Electronics strives to serve the nation through better communications — not only for national defense, but for homes, business and industry as well.

Chinese Art On Exhibition

Twenty-six scroll paintings by the staff and students of New Asia College, Hong Kong, are on exhibit in the Art Building until Friday.

Although the immense range of Chinese art cannot be fully illustrated in a small exhibition, many styles are represented which show the various traditions in Chinese art.

The paintings are on exhibit in the foyer of the Art Building from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

The exhibition has been prepared by the World University Service Hong Kong Committee for WUS centers abroad as a contribution through cultural interchange to mutual understanding between East and West.

Seven Receive Fellowships To Study Advanced Science

Seven University of Idaho students have been selected by the National Science Foundation to receive fellowships for advanced studies, it was announced recently by Dr. L. C. Cady, dean of the graduate school.

"These fellowships are highly competitive," said Dean Cady. "We are pleased both by the assistance which these students will receive and by the recognition given Idaho students."

Sharing in $5,500 in funds under National Science Foundation Cooperative fellowships are George Irving and James Wright, off campus, and William Greenwood, Theta Chi.

Winning NSF summer fellowships for teaching assistants, which allows the student to devote full time to thesis research and course work, were John Brandsberg, Ronald Stecker and Dean Metter, off campus.

Metter was also awarded a NSF graduate fellowship along with Dennis Evans, off campus.

SUB Bookstore To Begin Self-Service System In '63

A self-service system for the bookstore is part of expansion plans for the SUB, and should be in operation by December, 1963, according to bookstore manager Chester Kerr. So far only the roughest sketches of the new store have been drawn.

"The biggest and best change in the store will be storage space for the first time," said the manager. The store will be about 5,000 square feet in area with a large basement for excess and lab equipment. Paperback stock will be increased to about 2,000 titles. According to Mr. Kerr a self-service system works well under all conditions. Even during fall and second semester book rush the same system will be used.

The new system does not mean anybody will lose his job. Staff members will become guides and helpers.

Coed Receives Pfizer Award; $250 Is Given

LaDessa Rogers, Kappa, a junior in home economics at the University of Idaho, is the recipient of a 1961 Pfizer 4-H scholarship award. The $250 award was announced at the annual Extension Training Conference, in session at Purdue University, by Herbert L. Schaller.

Active in 4-H Club work for eight years, Miss Rogers says that clothing, her major project, has been essential to her in her field of study at the University. She has made 48 different articles of clothing and given eight demonstrations during her 4-H years.

In all, 20 young men and women, representing 16 states, were honored with scholarship awards. States having award winners include Arkansas, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, New Jersey, Michigan, Nebraska, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, and Texas.

To qualify for an award, the student must have an outstanding scholastic record and be enrolled in courses that will lead to an extension career. They are required to submit as a part of their application a teaching plan for a program in animal health or an application of such a program that will be of benefit to the health of humans.

Math Textbook Is Available

A blend of traditional and modern concepts of mathematics will be available this month in a textbook by Anthony E. Labarre, Jr., associate professor of mathematics at the University of Idaho.

Titled "Elementary Mathematical Analysis," the book provides a one-year foundation course in college mathematics. It is being released by Addison-Wesley Publishing Company, Inc., Reading, Mass., publishers of scientific and engineering books.

Delta Sig Host Girls; To Pick Final Five

Twenty-six candidates are off and running for the 1961 Delta Sigma Phi Dreamgirl title. From these, five finalists will be chosen, one of which will begin her reign at the annual Carnation Dinner-Dance, slated for May 6 at the Moscow Eagles Hall.

The candidates, two from each women's living group on campus, will be honored at dinners, luncheons and teas, beginning with a coffee hour tomorrow. The highlight of the competition will be a picnic for all the contestants and Delta Sigs on April 29.

Candidates Listed
The thirteen candidates are Cay Powell and Joan Murphy, Alpha Chi; Sherry McGuire and Pattie Taylor, Theta; Shelly Parcher and Judi Anderson, Alpha Gam; Pat Dragoo and Irene Tradaro, Tri Delt; Tana Harris and Anne Wood, DG; Judy Brown and Phillis Harris, Gamma Phi; Carol Sessions and Carol McCrea, Alpha Phi; Sally Smith and Joann Tatum, Kappa; Jane Ruckman and Judy Keinen, Pi Phi; Jan Crowley and Sharon Tranary, Forney; Nancy Neveux and Norma Fugate, Hays; Judy Elaine and Millie Styles, Ethel Steel; and Barbara Buckle and Betty Oyen, French House.

The five finalists will be chosen after the picnic Saturday, and will be serenaded later in the evening. The new Dreamgirl will be crowned by outgoing queen Marge Marshall, DG.

Rider-Inghram Present Recital

Myrna Inghram, pianist, and John Rider, clarinetist, will present a joint recital tonight at 8 at the Music Building Recital Hall.

Miss Inghram, Alpha Phi, a senior majoring in music education, is retiring president of Sigma Alpha Iota, music fraternity for women.

Rider, off campus, a junior in the Bachelor of Music curriculum, is president-elect of the music fraternity for men, Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia.

Accompanying Rider will be Mrs. Georgie Hansen, a 1960 graduate of the University and a private music teacher in Moscow.

Rider will play "Concerto, Op. 75" by C. M. von Weber, "Improvisations" by Andre Caplet, and "Sonata for Clarinet and Piano, Op. 120, No. 2" by Brahms.

Miss Inghram will be featured in "Concerto II, Op. 18" by Rachmaninoff. The public will be admitted free of charge.

Three Frats Given Awards

Outstanding scholastic achievement has netted trophies for three fraternities at the University, Guy Wicks, associate dean of students, said today.

FarmHouse fraternity was presented a trophy by the Inter-Fraternity Council for having the highest grade-point average of the 16 fraternities on campus.

The fraternity showing the greatest scholastic improvement in the past year, Tau Kappa Epsilon, was presented the Sigma Chi Improvement Trophy.

The Sigma Chi pledge class, with the highest scholastic average among fraternity pledge classes, was awarded the Sib Kleffner-Guy Wicks award.

11-5 Record Was Pre-Season Tally; Vandals Sweep Saturday Twin-Header

By JIM HERNDON
Argonaut Sports Editor

The Idaho baseball team, following a slow start, finished their pre-season games schedule with an 11-5 record after sweeping a double-header from Columbia Basin JC last Saturday.

The Vandals open their Northern Division conference play here next Friday against what coach Wayne Anderson terms a "tough" University of Washington team.

Veteran Chucker Steve Hinckley, who lost his first two starts, found himself over Spring Vacation. The senior pitcher from Preston has won his last three games and now has string of 23 scoreless innings. Hinckley allowed only four runs in 37 innings and supports a .972 earned run average.

Hinckley has walked only four, allowed only 20 hits, while striking out 40 batters.

Second baseman Dick Mooney currently leads the regulars in hitting at a .340 mark. Mooney has 19 hits in 56 trips to the plate.

Catcher Ted Knivila from Grangeville has a .375 mark but only has 29 trips to the plate. He has 11 hits.

Cliff Trout, who had a perfect four for four-day in the first game Saturday with CBC has raised his average to second spot at .308. The Vandal regular from Lewiston has 16 hits in 52 at-bats.

Chuck White who suffered an early season slump has emerged as the team's leading slugger. White now has two home runs. The first was gathered last Monday at Yakima against the Yakima JC and the second Friday against eastern Washington.

White playing right field, has raised his batting average from .170 last week to .240.

Veteran shortstop Andy Johnson who shook his batting slump to blast a home run Saturday is the only other Vandal to hit a round tripper.

Third baseman Mike Stowe has been the Vandals' only major injury to date. Stowe bruised his heel Monday but came back to play Saturday. The former Twin Falls track star re-injured his foot with a slide when he stole second base after he had singled to right on the second game Saturday. The Vandals opened their spring vacation action April 8 by splitting

INTRAMURALS

By ROD HIGGINS
Argonaut Sports Writer

The Delts seem to be taking every intramural championship available here of late. On Tuesday night, April 4th, they beat the Town Men two games to none to win the intramural bowling championship. You'll remember that not too long ago they won the "B" basketball championship also.

In the race for third and fourth spots, Sigma Chi came out on top, accumulating a high team series of 2292, beating Upham Hall two games to one. The Fijis, behind Larry Watson's high game of 232 and high series of 581, beat Willis Sweet two games to one to gain fifth place.

Others in the top ten bowling teams are: 7th—Phi Kappa Tau, 8th—Gault Hall; 9th—Beta Theta Pi, and 10th—Lindley Hall.

Top Games
Season highs for bowling stack up like this: High individual game was 234 rolled by Roy Hargrave, TMA. Hargrave also collected high individual series with a 607. The TMA's made it a complete sweep by taking high team game with 911 and high team series with a very respectable 2553.

The top ten bowlers for the year are: 1. Bill Lewis, TMA; 2. Ken Stone, WSH; 3. Mike Lehman, GH; 4. Gary Rice, SAE; 5. Lynn Hill, HF; 6. Mike Clouser, DC; 7. Rich Heffel, UH; 8. Roy Hargrave, TCA; 9. Arnie Moeller, PDT; 10. Bob Lee, PDT.

Horse Shoe entries are due at the intramural office by Friday, April 21. Also, stop by and pick up blanks for intramural track.

Intramural softball starts this afternoon at 4:10 p.m. The schedules:

Tuesday, April 18

- Field
 - 1. LH vs. SH
 - 2. McH vs. UH
 - 3. CC vs. CH

CLASSIFIEDS TO THE JOB!

Spring Draws 75 Gridsters

Athletic director-head football coach J. Neil (Skip) Stahley gets his first look at the material recruited under his new personal-contact recruiting program as Spring ball gets underway this Saturday.

Some candidates are expected to report including 36 sophomores from last year's successful Frosh team. The new Idaho program emphasizes building from the bottom by bringing up freshmen through the ranks rather than adding junior college athletes.

A nucleus of 23 lettermen, including eight starters will be on hand. All out this spring are 11 non-lettermen and five junior college transfers.

Last season's successful (wins over Washington and Washington State) Frosh team will have to fill the guard and halfback spots for the Vandals this season. The roster of guards show only Dick Monahan, a senior from Walla Walla, Wash., with previous experience at the position. Two other lettermen—John Desmond from Bellflower, Calif., and Bill Hill from Shelton, Conn.—have been shifted to other spots. Desmond, a 244-pounder, has been moved to tackle and Hill, a 6-3, 195-pounder has been moved to an end.

Bright Spot
The presence of 6-6 Reg Carolan at one of the end spots makes the outlook in that position one of the brightest. Carolan, already drafted by both pro football leagues, was one of the nation's leading pass receivers and punters last season. He is a senior from San Anselmo, Calif.

Six lettermen tackles will be fighting for jobs with four big sophomores as spring drills open. In addition to Desmond, seniors John Nilsson from Yakima, Wash., Dave Putnam from Visalia, Calif., Zeke Urko from Glendora, Calif., and juniors Bob Tennyson from Compton, Calif., and Howard Brown from Vallejo, Calif., will be vying for jobs.

Three lettermen centers will be battling with sophomore Sherill Wells from Oakley for berths. Bob Ames, a junior from Spokane, and seniors Jim Decko from Perysburg, O., and John Hansen from Lewiston are all experienced centers.

Quarterback?
The quarterback job is up for grabs with three lettermen and three sophomores in the running. Mike Mosolf from Carmel, Calif., understudied Sil Vial early last season then was switched to halfback to use his running speed. He will go back to quarterback this season. Rick Dobbins from Alameda, Calif., was the number two qb last season and Ron Kulm, a junior from Jerome started in the defensive platoon last season.

More Backs
Three lettermen halfbacks were sidelined parts of last season with injuries, but will be out this year. They are Phil Steinbock from East Garoland, Ill., Bill White from East Garoland, Ill., and Gene Bates from Walla Walla. Dick Mooney from Elk Grove, Calif., is the other letterman returning.

Two sophomores are being touted for starting roles if their speed will compensate for lack of game experience. They are Ed LaRoche, an end as a frosh two seasons ago (Plymouth, Mich.), and Tommy Morris, Toms River, N.J., who scored two touchdowns against Washington last fall.

Stahley says that the Vandals will stick with their spread or prototype T formation hoping that better backfield speed will loosen up the defense to make the attack successful.

Coach Gone
Five assistant coaches will be on hand for spring drills. Sid Hall, a former line coach at College of the Pacific, will join the staff. Gary Farnworth, a former Vandal quarterback and coach of the frosh last year, will assume full-time duties as offensive backfield coach. He is replacing Gary Kenworthy, who will be on hand for spring ball, but is leaving to assume a head coaching job at El Dorado high school in Placerville, Calif., this fall.

Bill Peterson, backfield coach, and Bill Knuckles, line coach, are back from last year's staff.

Vandal Cindermen Drop Two Meets; Four Runners Temporarily Sidelined

Idaho's track team with four thinclads out of action due to injuries, hit two sour notes during the spring vacation. The fleet-footed Oregon Ducks raced past the Vandals, 90-37, Saturday, April 8, and the hustling Huskies from Washington waxed the Idaho thinclads, 93-38, Saturday.

Idaho's four injured athletes Dick Douglas, Charlie Smith, Gary Michael and Ed Jacoby did not compete.

The wide margins separating the teams in both meets were no indication of the individual performances turned in by the Idaho cindermen.

Pete Luttrupp, the most improved cinderman this year, according to track coach Bill Sorsby, led the Idaho point-getters in the Saturday meet. He placed second in the 100 and high hurdles with :10.3 and :15.6 respectively. He took the top spot in the 220 yard low hurdles with a :24.3.

Huff Runs Unattached
Frosh runner, Ron Huff, went beyond expectations and ran unattached against his varsity elders. He finished second in the 100 and won the 220 in the outstanding time of :21.4.

Huff's time was .2 of a second under the meet record and .1 under the old Idaho record. Neither will count as records due to his unattached competition.

In the two mile, frosh distance runner Paul Henden, won his race in 9:17.1, only .4 second under the meet record.

The third frosh victor, Jim Bousquet, cleared 6 feet in the high jump.

Curt Flisher bounded past all the other entrants to win the 440 in :49.2 and came back to finish a close second to his teammate Luttrupp in the 220 yard low hurdles.

Mike Mosolf and Larry Ferguson tied for first in the high jump at the Oregon meet two weeks ago. Bill Bowerman's powerful Ducks swept 14 of the 15 events.

Flisher ran close behind Oregon's Jim Puckett in the 440. He posted a :49.0 and Puckett made :48.1. The Vandals cross the state line this weekend to meet the Washington State thinclads in their first dual meet of the year.

Spring Vacation Left Surprises; New Hoop League, Improved 9

Spring Vacation was full of surprises. Vandal Athletic director J. Neil (Skip) Stahley took an initial step toward starting a new basketball league by holding a meeting in Boise.

A ragged, slowfooted baseball team which started the season by losing their first two games transpired into a winning combination to finish their pre-season play with an 11-5 record.

Skier Arnie Friling has two seasons of varsity skiing behind him without an accident. However, a curve outside McCall proved too much for the car he was riding in going to South Idaho at the start of vacation. Friling suffered a broken collar bone when the car he was in turned over twice.

Skip Stahley's league sounds like the answer to Idaho's hoop problems. A league race including Montana, Idaho State, Portland, and maybe the University of Nevada would give the Vandals enough competition to interest the dwindling crowds in Vandal Land in a league race. Also such a league would place Idaho in the role of a league power.

The attitude against such a league is "that it is no Pacific Coast League." This is true. The new league does not contain the formidable opponents as did the old PCC. However, the days of the PCC are gone, never to return. Oregon, Oregon State, and Washington State, old PCC members along with Idaho, are now clamoring to enter the Big Five. Washington, also an ex-PCC member already belongs to the Big Five and it is only time before Oregon, OSC, and WSU follow.

When this happens, Idaho will no longer have these opponents to schedule a pair of two-game home and home series. With the proposed new league Idaho will not have to hunt for opponents in the future.

A New Basketball League?

A new basketball league which was just a dream last fall is now fast becoming a reality.

Idaho athletic director J. Neil (Skip) Stahley called what he termed "a preliminary discussion" in Boise April 11 and invited the athletic directors of Portland U, Gonzaga, Montana State College, and Idaho State to attend.

Stahley, who presided at the meeting, said that if a league was formed it would not be effective until at least 1963 since all of the schools involved schedule games for two years in advance and already have commitments.

The discussion also covered mutual athletic problems and the future of athletics at the several institutions, Stahley said.

Need
In calling for the session, Stahley said that it is designed to "set the wheels in motion for the organization of a conference."

Stahley continued, stating that "Idaho, as well as others invited to attend, realizes that independent status, especially in basketball is not satisfactory for a good, healthy program. We hope to ultimately get some kind of organization underway to eliminate the independent status."

Unofficial reports of the outcome of the meeting have been labeled promising, although no official outcome of the meeting has been released.

Six teams are needed, according to NCAA ruling, to be recognized by that national body when selections for post season basketball tournaments are made. This has been a standard rule for many years, but was overlooked, apparently, when the Big Five was formed and given a NCAA national tourney representative.
