Its Mom's Weekend; May Fete Tomorrow

Idaho's campus will push academics aside this weekend as hundreds of "moons" from all parts of the nation and state celebrate Mother's Day and view the pageant of the annual May Fete.

Phi Delta Theta fraternity will unofficially open the weekend's festivities at the annual Turtle Derby Saturday at 10 a.m. Each woman's living group will enter one turtle in the competition to be held in the Phi Delt parking lot.

Water Show

Helldivers will present their annual water spectacle, "Once Upon a Time," both Friday and Saturday nights at 7:30 and 9 p.m. in the Memorial Gymnasium pool. Orchesis, women's modern dance group will perform Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. at their annual spring concert. It will be in the Ad Auditorium.

May Fete, traditional festival for awards and spring pageantry will begin at 2 p.m. in the Memorial Gymnasium. Margaret Tatko, Gamma Phi, will open the afternoon's activities when she ascends the throne through flower-filled arches. The program is under the co-sponsorship of Mortar Board and AWS and the chairmanship of Karen Steinfeld, Kappa.

Attendants

Attending Miss Tatko will be Celeste Jones, Gamma Phi, maid of honor; and Eleanor Unzicker, Alpha Phi, page. Flower girls are Barbara Greever, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William S. Greever, professor and chairman of history, and Lynn Kaufman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boris Kaufman of the mechanical engineering and language departments. Train bearers will be Joe Macinko, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Macinko, instructor in geology and geography, and Mark Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Miller, assistant professor of education.

Music will be provided by the University Singers under the direction of Norman Logan and the University Band under Warren Bellis. Spurs, sophomore women's service honorary, will perform the May Pole dance.

Top Seniors

Dr. Donald R. Theophilus will announce the first highest honors of the afternoon the top graduating seniors. Mortar Board, senior women's honorary and Silver Lance, senior men's honorary, will then tap new members by taking them from seats in the audience.

Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary, will present an award to the senior woman who was a member of the group during her freshman year. Women's Recreational Association (WRA) will award a trophy to its outstanding senior.

More Awards

Intercollegiate Knight, sophomore men's honorary will announce winners of its chapter Holy Grail and Outstanding Knight awards. Freshmen and sophomore women with the highest scholarship will be awarded Mortar Board plaques.

Special introductions will include new AWS officers and new Spurs and IKS. AWS will also give a scholarship to a woman student.

Jim Mullen, ASUI President, is master of ceremonies for the afternoon program.

A special part of the weekend's activities is the Vandaleer's Concert Sunday afternoon at 3. The concert replaces the Song Fest traditionally presented by campus living singing individually or in groups of two.

Vandaleers Lend Songs To Fete With Sunday Concert In Gym

May Fete's Song Fest successor, the Vandaleers, lend their vocal talents to Mothers' Day weekend Sunday, with an afternoon concert in Memorial Gymnasium, set for 3 p.m.

The Vandaleers, noted throughout the Northwest took over the Song Fest slot, following a somewhat bitterly debated question as to whether the traditional living group singing event might be left off the calendar for this year.

A program of varied music will include compositions ranging from sacred and secular music of the 11th century to numbers from modern musicals.

Selections from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" will highlight the afternoon performance, with backing numbers such as "My Loved One," "Let's Behold the Rose," Costeley; "London Street Cries," Gibbons; "Lamentatio Prima Tertii Dei," de Lassus; "Lobet den Herrn, alle Heiden," (Motet VI) Bach; "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Creation," Lockwood; "Let Down the Bars, O Death," Barber; "Ballad of Green Broom," Britten; and "Song of the Open Road," Joio.

Encore numbers will be songs from Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore," spirituals, folk songs, and University of Idaho songs.

A special platform is being constructed in the center of the gymnasium to bring the audience closer to the singers.

Coffee, Cookies At Open House

Coffee and cookies will be served on the front patio of the Campus Christian Center tomorrow from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. to honor the mothers.

The CCC Open House is scheduled for 10-12 a.m., 1-5:30 p.m. and 7-10 Saturday and 2-5 p.m. Sunday. Guides will be available to show guests through.

ROTC Units Are Practicing For Review

May 19 is coming fast, much to the dismay of some 800 ROTC men who troop up to Neale Stadium at 0700 hours each morning for practice.

All three ROTC units will pass in review before an inspection team headed by Col. Harry C. Brindle, Deputy Commander of 10 Corps, Ft. Lawton, Wash. Outstanding cadets and midshipmen will be given recognition.

In charge this year is the Army under cadet head Cadet Colonel, Tony McFarland, Theta Chi.

There are 103 midshipmen in the Naval ROTC Battalion this year under the command of Midshipman Captain James Child, Delta. Assisting him will be a commander's staff of five men. They are: Melville Hughes, Phi Delt, midshipman, Lieut. Commander; Ronald Pettis, off-campus, a midshipman commander; Keith Lillico, off-campus, a midshipman lieutenant; Lyle Sasser, Farm House, midshipman lieutenant; and Harold Barraclough, midshipman lieutenant.

Company commanders are Midshipman Lieutenant Robert Barrett, off campus, commander of Bravo Company, and Midshipman Lieutenant William Greenwood, off-campus, commander of Alpha Company.

Something new this year is that the battalion and company officers will all carry swords. This is traditional in Navy drill and ceremonies.

Homecoming May Miss Group Floats

Next year's Homecoming parade might be without living group floats if the houses indicate no desire this spring to enter the 1961 competition, according to Duane Allred, Delt, general Homecoming chairman. Other announcements named the Homecoming and Dad's Day committee chairmen.

The Homecoming committee, concerned about living group participation in the Parade, has asked houses to indicate if they are interested in building an entry.

"If a favorable number of living groups wish to participate, float applications will be called for this spring so work could begin immediately next fall," Allred said. The float themes, expense, and etc. will have to be decided now also.

The parade committee announced it is considering adjusting the present cost limit upward to a more realistic figure and strictly enforcing it.

Working under Homecoming Chairman Allred are: parade co-chairmen John Ferris, Beta, and Tom Eisenbarth, Willis Sweet; publicity co-chairmen Angie Arrien, Kappa, and Idona Kellogg, Ethel Steel; and queens committee co-chairmen Charlene Peters, Pi Phi, and Mary Ann Dalton, DG.

Also chosen were dance co-chairmen Judy Bonnell, Theta, and Fred Warren, Sigma Nu; judges and trophies, chairman Edie Voorhes, Alpha Chi; and registration chairman Jim Judd, Delta Sig.

Pat Kelly, Pi Phi, Dad's Day general chairman announced that the committee, chairman for Dad's Day; November 4, are: registration, Isabel Woods, Alpha Gam; House Decorations, Wanek Stein, Sigma Nu, and Judy Klepken, Pi Phi.

Other chairmen are: Publicity, Idona Kellogg, Ethel Steel; Dance, Sue Carmel; Pi Phi, and Barry Nelson, Delt; Quartet Contest, Tom Turek, ATO; and John Ferris, Beta; Special Events, Bob Carlson, Lindley; and Beards, Jake Jones, Sigma Nu.

Four Named By Board As Gem-Arg Editors

HERB HOLLINGER

SHARON LANCE

Pending Executive Board approval, the Communications Board are recommending four University students for top communications posts next year.

In a meeting held yesterday afternoon, the Board recommended students for the posts of Argonaut editors and Gem of the Mountains editors next year.

Sharon Lance, Theta, was recommended as Argonaut editor first semester; and Herb Hollinger, Kappa Sig, was recommended as Arg editor second semester.

Junior

Miss Lance is a junior in journalism from Idaho Falls, and has worked on the Arg since her freshman year, serving as house news editor, reporter, and managing editor. She is currently president of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalistic fraternity.

Hollinger is a junior advertising major from Burley, and has worked on the Argonaut since his sophomore year. He has served as a reporter, and news editor. He is now president of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society.

Warren Reynolds, Upsilon, and Linda Lamb, Kappa, were recommended as Gem co-editors next year.

Reynolds, a junior from Kuna, is a transfer this year from ISC, where he served as associate editor of their annual, the Wickiup. This year he served as associate editor of the Gem.

Since A Frosh

Miss Lamb, a junior from Wendell, has worked on the Gem since she was a freshman, serving as a staff member, organization editor, and associate editor.

The next KUOI station manager, who is usually chosen at this time, will not be named, as there is some question about the eligibility of those persons considered eligible for the job. Mike Williams, off campus, will continue to serve as acting station manager.

Four Named

In other action, the Communications Board recommending the retaining of Mike Anderson, off campus, and Dell Kloepfer, Sigma Nu, as advertising salesmen for the Argonaut; and of Sue Nugent, Theta, as Argonaut circulation manager.

The Gem editors split a salary of $350 a year. The Argonaut editor receives $6.50 an issue.

AICE Elects New Officers

The University student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers held the final meeting of the semester to elect officers for the coming year.

Art Building Is Showplace

The Newton art collection of 54 paintings, prints, and pieces of sculpture by well-known artists is being displayed in the University Art building through arrangements of the University Fine Arts committee.

The exhibition consists of art pieces owned by two brothers, Professor Joseph Newton, head of the department of mining engineering and metallurgy, and Dr. Francis J. Newton, director of the Portland Art Museum. The two combined collections will be exhibited through May 26.

The Newton brothers, both graduates of the university, though separated by miles have cooperated greatly in collecting art pieces in the past five years.

Faculty Members At Confab; AAUP Talks Of 'Hot' Subjects

Several resolutions, dealing with such topics as federal aid to education and the use of loyalty oaths, were discussed at the regional convention of the American Association of University Professors, attended by three University faculty members May 6 in Seattle.

Representing Idaho were Mrs. Agnes Schuldt, associate professor of music and president of the local AAUP chapter; regional AAUP secretary Scott A. Walker, associate professor and agricultural economist; and Dr. J. Vail Foy, assistant professor of English.

Among the most significant resolutions passed at the national AAUP convention and presented to the regional meeting, Prof. Walker felt, was one that condemns the abuse of disciplinary powers on students and faculty members.

"Specifically, this deplorable imposition of penalties by university and college authorities against those members of the faculty and student body who participate in peaceful demonstrations on or off the campus in support of their communities," Prof. Walker said.

Another subject attacked by the national convention was the National Defense Act, by which professors must pass a loyalty oath and disclaimer affidavit.

"The problem here when you sign this oath," Prof. Walker pointed out, "is that you don't know what organizations you'll belong to in the future." He explained that a person might join an organization unaware that it was in any way subversive. If the organization were put on the Attorney General's list later on, the person would have unwittingly violated his oath.

On the topic of federal aid to education, Dr. Walker said the convention found problems in the definition of parochial and private schools and how federal aid should best be distributed among public and private schools.

Winning Art Entries Now On Display

Diane Magel, off campus; Charles Sowers, Chrisman; J. Torrey, off campus; and Marilyn Wilson, Forney; walked off with top honors in the SUB Art Show judged Wednesday afternoon.

Winners in Oils, Photo, Water Color, and Drawing divisions respectively, the foursome took the top honors from 63 entries, an unexpected heavy turnout. The winning exhibits went on display last night in the SUB, both on the first floor and the lobby of the second, and will be open to the public through next Friday.

All entries will be on display next week but because of the large number, Oil and Drawing entries will be displayed today through Tuesday. Photo and Watercolor entries will be up from Tuesday through Friday. According to Bob Carlson, Lindley, chairman of the SUB Exhibits, this is a change from the original plan to display all the entries together, if possible.

Judges

Judges for the annual Art Show were Mrs. E. W. Tisdale, Moscow; A. J. Marineau, Moscow Daily Idahonian, and Robert Sterling, WSU Art Department. Entries in the contest were not limited to art students alone.

First prize winners will receive $10; second prize, $5, and third prize, $2.50. Persons interested in buying any of the exhibits can check with the SUB Program Director, Charmaine Fitzgerald, for further information.

Other Winners

There were 13 entries in the Oil division; 8 in the Photo division; 24 in the Watercolor division, and 18 in Drawing. Other winners were: Oils — second place, Dean Thomas, McConnell; third place, Katherine Koelsch, DG. In the Photo division — both second and third places went to Gretchen Sparks, Kappa; in Water Color — second place, Larry Ferguson, Teke; and third place, Camille Shelton. Drawing division — second place, Larry Ferguson, Teke; and third, J. Torrey, off campus.

Just-Us Club Holds Dance

University law students and faculty members, wives and partners attended the annual Just-Us Club's pot-luck dinner and dance, held at the Legion Cabin May 7.

Some 50 couples attended the affair, sponsored by the law students' wives.

THE GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

In the next two days Idaho students, and some of their parents, will be given the opportunity to run the gamut of student activities, representing everything from high-level dance to turtle racing.

For the sports minded, the football squad is still in practice, affording a chance to sight in on the old "wait until next year" phrase and get a basic idea of how true it is.

For those with a more demanding interest, Orchesis takes the spotlight tonight, with the cream of Idaho coed dancers performing intricate dance routines.

The Vandaleers add music with a Sunday concert.

University Singers and the University band lend their talents for another step along the music path.

And a turtle race, complete with betting, adds another spot on the list.

There's other things, too. Award assemblies, Helldivers, and individual living group activities will keep things hopping.

If May Fete is successful, and there appears to be no reason why it will not be so, the visiting parents, notably mothers, will leave the campus impressed and reasonably happy.

And really, what more can you ask?

Orchesis' Spring Theme Is Poetry

By MARSHA BUKOKER
Argonaut Staff Writer

Orchesis and Pre-Orchesis will present a combination of free verse, creative dance and creative sounds in their annual Spring Program tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium.

The 20-member group will combine whimsical poetry and impressions of every-day happenings in an experiment in sound and rhythm. Faculty advisors are Patricia and Carol Ford.

In addition to the numbers by Orchesis and Pre-Orchesis, the Advanced Dance class will perform a dance called "Happiness," which emphasizes the enjoyment one gets from the strange or little happenings of life. Percussion will accompany the dance.

Short Poems

Short poems such as "The Hippopotamus" and "The Ant" by Ogden Nash will be transformed into dance. Other poems featured will be "The Lion," Kenneth Rex-roth; "This is Just to Say," William Carlos Williams; "On and On" from the poem, "I saw a Man" by Stephen Crane; "As Tall As You Feel" from "Significant Landscape" by Wallace Stevens; "They Cut it in Squares" from "Socratic;" and "Just Sitting" from Hughes Mearns' "The Perfect Reactionary."

The longest selection of the program will be performed by the Orchesis dance honorary. The selection is centered on the impressions of a large city at early dawn, during the hustle of daytime, and quieting down at night.

The music for "Around the Clock in the City" is from Robert Graettinger's modern piece, "City of Glass." Ed Vandevort has added some interesting lighting effects to this number.

Pre-Orchesis will open the program with their impressions of a delightful ailment, "Spring Fever." One of Morton Gould's spiritual arrangements will accompany the dance.

Other Dances

Other dances to be performed are "Clouds" and "Purple is Like." The mood of the dance on clouds is inspired by the different types of clouds. Sharon Price Pi Phi, will accompany the Orchesis group as it portrays the grandeur grief and spring themes of the color purple.

Members of Orchesis are Beverly Bucklin Pi Phi; Dorce Baldrige and Donna Albin, Alpha Phi; Paula Gusseck, Alpha Chi; and Arlene Wright and Mary Jo Powers, Kappa.

Pre-Orchesis members are Jean Bryer, Hays; Judy Brown, Mary Joyce Rambo and Claudia Rockwell, Gamma Phi; Janice Gardner and Marianne Kieffer, DG; Carol McRae, Alpha Phi; and Michele Morgan and Penny Smith, Theta.

Advanced Dance members who will perform are Anita Cox, Ann Frahm, Sandra Holman, Linda Jacobsen, JoAnn Kenfield; Anne Lemon, Carla Plumb and Linda Uglem.

Sound arrangements are under the direction of Leon Lind and members of Women's I Club and Spurs will usher.

PRACTICE SESSION — Helping University student dancer Dorce Baldrige (right), Alpha Phi, work out a routine for the Orchesis Spring Program to be held at 8 p.m. tonight and Saturday in the University Auditorium, is Patricia Rowe, assistant professor of physical education. Thirty-two students in Orchesis and Pre-Orchesis have prepared dances built around the theme of "These Things Remind Me."

Communications Fouled

That old saying, "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip" can be applied to a newspaper from time to time, especially a student newspaper.

The Argonaut never intentionally makes mistakes or errors in printing, but now and then we do. It's a long haul from typing a notice or story at the Argonaut office in the SUB to getting that notice set in type and published at the Daily Idahoonian office.

Last issue, two notices were unintentionally left out of the "Calendar" which runs on the front page of each edition. They concerned the meetings of Homecoming committee chairmen and others, and were scheduled for Wednesday and yesterday. They were lost sometime after the reporter turned them in. We think they were misplaced at the Idahoonian office.

The result was that only about half the members showed up at the meeting—those members the chairmen managed to call. The Argonaut serves as the best means of communicating to large numbers of students on campus, and when this line breaks down, chaos, confusion and hurt feelings usually result, as in this case.

At other times, short stories may be turned into the Argonaut and they are set in type at the Idahoonian, but because of the needs of the paper in filling the page with stories, some may be left out because they just don't fit the gap. So they are put into "over-set" and await publication in the next issue. Sometimes a story is thus pushed aside twice, usually unintentionally. Again the result is hurt feelings and misunderstanding. The story we refer to here was an announcement of Homecoming and Dad's Day chairmen, which got left in the lurch twice.

If students have gripes, on this type of thing or anything, come see us or write. —L. T.

Liberalism Versus Conservatism Was Subject Of Student-Faculty Roundtable

By GLENN STROUP
Argonaut Staff Writer

The Liberal vs. Conservative roundtable finally took place Wednesday night at the SUB under the sponsorship of the National and World Affairs Club.

Speaking for the liberals were Dr. Fred Winkler and Mrs. Hamida Bosmajian, and Lon Woodbury and Dr. R. H. Postweiler represented the conservatives. Dr. Robert Hosack moderated.

Each side took ten minutes to explain their position followed by open discussion with questions and comments from the audience. Dr. Winkler explained that the philosophy of the liberal is of the individual and his freedoms of speech, assembly, religion, and so on with certain restrictions so that other people will not be injured.

Mrs. Bosmajian went on and stated that the key word in liberalism is "change." She emphasized that liberalism is not a set doctrine; it is a process and remains flexible.

"For this reason," she said, "the liberal is very much opposed to Marxism because, according to that doctrine, society is supposed to evolve into a static, stagnant state."

Conservative Lon Woodbury spoke first on the conservative side and pointed out that one of the big problems of political philosophy is being understood. He mentioned that the goals of liberals and conservatives are the same; it is the means that are different. Woodbury said that there is a definite idea in conservatism, one of inspection and research.

"A conservative does not grab any new idea and go hog-wild," he said.

According to Dr. Postweiler, there are two conditions necessary for being a conservative. A conservative believes that through a competitive market the range of human choice can be increased, and a conservative is not a romantic.

Thrown Open After the opening remarks the discussion was thrown open to the audience where questions concerning federal aid, reforms, and other specific items were discussed.

Dr. Borning closed the discussion by stating that, as far as he could see, all the members on the panel were in reality actually liberals; the conservatives just tended to be more "conservative" than the liberals.

The next discussion by the National and World Affairs Club will be on Cuba next Thursday, May 18. Two foreign students and two American students will be on the panel and state their views. It is hoped that attendance will be as good at the next one as it was at this one.

Thar's Gold-Silver-Zinc In Them Thar Blaine Co. Hills

Hey, buddy. Can you spare a dime for a cup of coffee? You can? Then come along with me, 'cause I want to show you how you can invest that dime in a little venture you'll never regret. In fact, that dime could change the whole course of your life, if you just heed my words.

Now, here is what I've got in mind. I know a guy that knows a guy that has a friend, and this friend is acquainted with one of the teachers here at the University. He's a mining man.

Now, wait, buddy — don't get me wrong. I'm not asking for a grubstake. My prospecting is done. This thing is sure-fire. And it only costs you a dime.

Come over here under this light, and I'll show you what I'm talking about. See this book. This book contains maps and information about all the rich ore that them old-time miners couldn't find. Where? Right here it tells where.

See that? "Detailed Geology of Certain Areas in the Mineral Hill and Warm Springs Mining Districts, Blaine County, Idaho."

Now, that ain't but just a few miles from Sun Valley. That country was one of Idaho's richest ared as back in ought-one and even before that.

Would you like to have a book like this, buddy? I bet you think it'd cost you several dollars to get a book like this. Well, it used to, but like I was saying, this mining feller at the University knows how he can get you one for only a dime. You interested? I thought you would be.

Well, here's what you do. You take and go in the Mines Building there on campus, and real casual-like, you tell the secretary there you'd like to buy pamphlet number 90 — yeah, 90. What? Well, that's how I got this one. She even invited me back. Never even asked my name.

POETRY

EINSTEIN'S DEATH
He is dead.
The bold brain that ripped a part a universe,
That created time beyond time,
Has ended.
A feeling comes as if God had died.

Yet, I part my hair,
Drink my cup of tea
And walk out into the sun.
My heart has arrogance to beat.

Idaho Faculty Books Well Represented In University Student Bookstore

By Lee Townsend
Argonaut Managing Editor

Idaho faculty is well represented in the Student Bookstore—not in person, but in name—for many of them have authored textbooks and other works carried by the store.

C. R. Kerr, bookstore manager, and Richard S. Long, assistant manager, spent several minutes yesterday going through their stocks of books and other lists to discover the Idaho faculty members represented there.

"We don't regularly keep a list of authors from any particular school," Kerr said, "but I know Idaho is well represented here with ten or twelve titles."

In order they were discovered on the shelves, following are books written by University faculty members.

Martin

1) "Introduction to Agricultural Engineering," co-authored by J. W. Martin, professor and head of Agricultural Engineering; McGraw-Hill Book Co., 1955.

The book covers many phases of Ag. E., including industrial engineering in agriculture, agricultural mechanics, farm power, and several others.

Keith

2) "Livestock Feeding Manual," by T. B. Keith, professor and animal husbandman; Interstate Printers, revised 1959.

This manual is designed to teach livestock feeding, the details and methods of same.

Newton

3) "Extractive Metallurgy," by Joseph Newton, head of the Department of Mining and Metallurgy, and professor of metallurgy; second edition, 1959.

This is the second part of a more complete work, "Introduction To Metallurgy."

Labarre

4) "Elementary Mathematical Analysis," by A. E. Labarre, Jr., associate professor of mathematics; Addison-Wesley Publishing Co., Inc., 1961.

The book is a one year foundation course in college mathematics, and replaces the familiar black-and-gray text used in Math. 11 and 12.

OLD GRADS NEVER DIE
In just a matter of weeks many of you will be graduating—especially seniors.
You are of course eager to go out in the great world where opportunities are limitless and deans nonexistent. At the same time your hearts are heavy at the thought of losing touch with so many classmates you have come to know and love.
It is my pleasant task today to assure you that graduation need not mean losing touch with classmates; all you have to do is join the Alumni Association and every year you will receive a bright, newsy, chatty bulletin, chock full of information about all your old buddies.

Oh, what a red-letter day it is at my house, the day the Alumni Bulletin arrives! I cancel all my engagements, take the phone off the hook, dismiss my chiropractor, put the ocelot outside, and settle down for an evening of pure pleasure with the Bulletin and (need I add?) a good supply of Marlboro Cigarettes.

Whenever I am having fun, a Marlboro makes the fun even more fun. That filter, that flavor, that pack or box never fails to heighten my pleasure whether I am watching the television or playing buck euchre or knitting an afghan or reading Mad or enjoying any other fun-filled pursuit you might name—except, of course, spearfishing. But then, how much spearfishing does one do in Clovis, New Mexico, where I live?

But I digress. Let us return to my Alumni Bulletin and let me quote for you the interesting tidings about all my old friends and classmates:

Well, fellow alums, it certainly has been a wing-dinger of a year for all us old grads! Remember Mildred Cheddar and Harry Camembert; those crazy kids who always held hands in Econ II? Well, they're married now and living in Clovis, New Mexico, where Harry rents spearfishing equipment and Mildred has just given birth to a lovely 28-pound daughter, her second in four months. Nice going, Mildred and Harry!

Remember Jethro Brie, the man we voted most likely to succeed? Well, old Jethro is still gathering laurels! Last week he was voted "Motorman of the Year" by his fellow workers in the Duluth streetcar system. "I owe it all to my brakeman," said Jethro in a characteristically modest acceptance speech. Same old Jethro!

Probably the most glamorous time of all us alums was had by Francis Macomber last year. He went on a big game hunting safari all the way to Africa! We received many interesting post cards from Francis until he was, alas, accidentally shot and killed by his wife and white hunter. Tough luck, Francis!

Wilma "Deadeye" Macomber, widow of the late beloved Francis Macomber, was married yesterday to Fred "Sureshot" Quimby, white hunter, in a simple double-ring ceremony in Nairobi. Good luck, Wilma and Fred!

Well, alums, that just about wraps it up for this year. Keep 'em flying!

Old grads, new grads, undergrads, all agree: The best new nonfilter cigarette in many a long year is the king-size Philip Morris Commander. Welcome aboard!

Campus Welcomes Mothers; Officers Selected, Installed

By MARSHA BUKOKER
Argonaut House Editor

The campus will spread the welcome mat for its mothers this weekend with open houses, banquets and firesides. House elections were held at Pi Phi, SAE, Delta Chi, ATO, and Willis Sweet.

SAE PICKS RIFFLE

Keith Riffle was elected to head the officers of the SAE house in elections held this week. Other officers are Doug Allman, vice president; John Wickland, recorder; Bill Stout, chronicler, Steve Bukoker, correspondent; Dick Reed, herald; and Jim Scheel, chaplain.

WH ELECTS OFFICERS

At a hall meeting at Willis Sweet Monday night the following officers were elected to serve for the coming fall semester: Roman Talbarth, vice president; Gary Griffith, secretary; Gary Burton, treasurer; Lynn Sealey, social chairman; Kenny Lent, sergeant-at-arms; Steve McNece, property manager; and Mike Lloyd and Gary Schlader, intramural managers.

Approximately fifty couples attended the annual spring cruise on Lake Coeur d'Alene last Sunday. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dozier and Mr. and Mrs. George Russell.

Willis Sweet dinner guest last Wednesday was the Rev. Paul Winkler, Baptist minister. A short discussion and question-answer session was held in the lounge following the meal.

The annual senior banquet honoring the "graduating" seniors was held Wednesday. Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Kindisch, College of Agriculture; Dr. and Mrs. Jackson, College of Engineering and Mr. Emery Howard, State Vocational Agricultural Director.

The jocks of the Alpha Phi house are busy training the new turtle for the Turtle Derby, Alphia II.

ATOS ELECT

Jeff Wombolt was elected president of the ATO house in recent elections. Other officers are Bill Tiger, vice president; Garth Eimers, scribe; Dave Carneiro, keeper of the annuals; Ruland Williams, usher; Pete Fredrickson, house manager; Pete Luttrupp, sentinel; Ben Burr, public relations manager and Dave Putnam, social chairman.

LINDLEY HOSTS GUESTS

The list of dinner guests at Lindley Hall have included Dr. and Mrs. Bosmajian, Lynette Squires, Gamma Phi; Karen Siedtfield, Kappa Phi; Donna Tunnicliff, Dr. Carl Degener, Pauline Hafer and Susanna Simeon, Ethel Steel officers; SUB Board members; Blake Thomson, Bob Brown, Sharon Weaver, Bob Carlson, Vivian Dickamore and Ron Ayers.

PI PHIS GET PADDLES

Pi Phi big sisters grabbed their ankles and were presented with their paddles by their little sisters at a fireside Saturday night.

Patty Highsmith, Spokane, was a weekend guest, and Pi Phi dinner guests have been Keith Riffle, Lou Andrews, Arnie Yager, M. L. Gates and Ken Albertson, SAEs; Dan Stivers, Terry Stigle, Gerald Heuttig and Gary Ayers. Moscow girls were entertained Monday.

Elections were held Monday for the officers for next fall. Installation will be held after Mother's Day weekend and officers will be announced at that time.

Lindley Hall hosted the Pi Phis at a "picnic" to pay off their Campus Chest debt.

Seniors set the fire bell off when they took their sneak last Friday. Farmhouse serenaded last night in honor of the pinning of Helen Ann Hartley and Clarence Chapman.

DELTA SIGS CRAM

Cramming as many social functions as possible in the few remaining weeks of school, the Delta Sigs are very busy.

Special guests last Sunday were F. C. "Bud" Holker, member of the Board of Governors from National DSP Headquarters; Dream Girl Carol McCrea; and Walt Aldrich, chapter supervisor.

Scheduled for next week are an exchange with the Alpha Phis and a picnic at Lake Chatcolet.

BETAS "WAY OUT"

Pi Phi and Betas made the scene in "real cool" Bermudas Wednesday night at a way out exchange in the Beta pad.

Jim Johnston, Lewiston, Beta Pi District Chief was a Monday evening visitor. Alums back for a visit were Dave Eskelin and Bob Helmick.

FRENCH HAS HIGH HOPES

French House has become devoted to its newest "resident," Maverick. Turtle trainer Karen Pearson assures her fellow members that their devotion will be rewarded Saturday morning.

Caroline Bodine has been elected as social chairman upon the resignation of Sharon Nonini.

DELTA CHI INSTALLS

New officers were installed Monday night at Delta Chi. All but one, for the first time this year. The new officers are Chuck Durgin, president; Pete Welch, vice-president; Sam Collet, secretary; Dick Clouser, house manager; Gary Hughes, corresponding secretary and Denny Burnside, pledge trainer.

LORENZO NELSON, OFF CAMPUS

Lorenzo Nelson, off campus, was entertained as a dinner guest a week ago Wednesday, and last Wednesday David Pietz, Gault, attended formal dinner.

Last Friday a few of the members and pledges were guests at the Theta's rowdy night dinner.

AGD CROWNS LITTLETON

The Alpha Gam pledges gave the annual spring formal for the members Saturday night. The theme was "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Music was provided by the "Crossfires" from WSU, and Denny Abrams, Phi Delt, sang several songs during intermission. Joyce Littleton was crowned "Ideal Member." Chapter ones were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Fosberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mullen, and Mrs. R. M. Short.

The TEKES gave the Alpha Gams their Campus Chest picnic at Robinson Lake last Sunday, which was followed by dancing at the Teke house.

Bobbie Raustadt had the Teke sweetheart serenade last Thursday for her pinning to Roger Johnson, and Claudette Mendiola's serenade in honor of her pinning to Bill Hill was given the following Thursday.

Marilyn Durose, an Alpha Gam and 1960 Idaho graduate, visited the house last weekend.

OFFICIAL VISITS KS

The District Grand Master visited here Sunday on his inspection tour of the Northwest chapters.

The delegates to the conclave at Banff, Alberta, Canada returned Sunday, tired but with much useful information.

Several Kappas who were caught at some of their "childish, ineffectual terrorizing" were given their just reward, a tubbing, Kappa Sig style.

The Kappa Sig spring cruise will be May 20.

SIGMA NU PLEDGES ATTEMPT TUBBING

At 4:00 a.m. Saturday morning, the energetic pledge class attempted to accomplish the annual senior tubbing. All was going well until five pledges were bit by Mike Anderson's dog while they were trying to tie up Mike. The tubbing has been postponed until the pledges are released from the infirmary.

Tuesday night, the Alpha Phis treated the Sigma Nus to an enjoyable picnic function in the Moscow Mountains. The event was to pay off the Campus Chest purchase. No snake bites were officially reported.

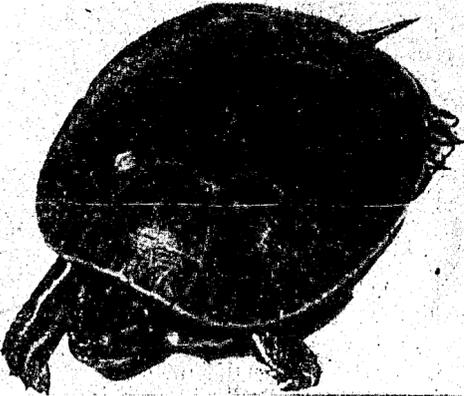

Last weekend's Idaho high school guests were Roy Royce from Boise and Al Shepard from Chester.

PDT SLATES EVENTS

Plans are all set for the Turtle Race at 10:00 a.m. Saturday. Also, the Phi Delt are ready with a parade and street dance, scheduled to get underway at 6:00 to night.

Turtles' Death Tragic Blow; Phi Delt's Bravely Proceed

Turtle Speedster

The first casualty of the turtle "Kentucky Downs" hit hard at Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority Tuesday night, with post time still set for 10 a.m. Saturday in the Phi Delt parking lot.

"Morts," like its downtown namesake, is no more. The Kappa turtle entry, died peacefully during the night of "unknown" causes.

Meanwhile, preparations stepped up for the third annual race. Betting, based on pre-race timings, will commence tonight, and continue up to race time tomorrow. Proceeds go to charity.

One trainer, Karen Pearson, French, has put on a one-girl drive to back her charge. By Wednesday of this week the ambitious trainer had already drummed up some $21.40, with more cash in sight. Phi Delt's hope that the early collection will stimulate more betting prior to the contest.

Preceding the event will be a street dance tonight, with Dave Bell and Dinnen Cleary, both Phi Delt, and George Volk, SAE, providing the music. According to an official communique, the dance is expected to draw campus-wide attendance for the corner in front of the Phi Delt house.

Placement Office Tells Of 2 Jobs

A full-time summer job and a part-time job during the school year is available, according to Harlow H. Campbell, University Placement Director.

A young man, at least 20 years old, who has had some experience driving a 2½-ton truck is needed to drive a mail truck from Moscow to nearby Washington towns.

For further information contact the Placement Office, 204 Adm., Office Building.

Idaho Equestrians Ride At Riggins

The Vandal Riding Club, under the direction of Orvil Sears, president, roped 'em and rode 'em at the Riggins Amateur Rodeo last weekend.

Turnings in some fine performances in this practice cowboy meeting, the Vandals prepared for bigger things next weekend at the Idaho State College Invitational Rodeo.

Sears finished in fourth spot in the calf roping event. Other team members scored in the rodeo. Ray Church won fourth in the bullriding contest, while Larry Holmquist placed fifth in the same event. Dave Putnam copped seventh in the bareback.

Engagements the team plans to enter include competition in Pocatello next week, and the following week, they will compete against BYU and Snow College on alternate nights. Team members plan on staying down the week following the Pocatello encounter, rather than returning to school for a couple of days.

Fight Against VD Far From Won

The dangers of venereal disease have dropped sharply in the last 15 years, thanks largely to penicillin, other antibiotics, and improved case-finding methods. But the fight is far from won. In fact, Health Information Foundation reports, the very successes recently achieved against these diseases "threaten to lull the American public into a false sense of security."

Syphilis and gonorrhea, the two major venereal diseases, are almost always transmitted by direct contact with an infected person, usually through sexual intercourse. Of the two, syphilis is the less common but the more serious.

Involvement

Syphilis, the Foundation points out, generally involves several stages of variable length:

— the "primary" and "secondary" stages, during which the disease is highly infectious but symptoms may be mild and scarcely noticeable, disappearing even without treatment;

— the "early and late latent" stages, when the disease is evident only through laboratory tests;

— the "late" stage, when the germ, by now lodged in the victim's internal organs, begins to destroy body tissue and eventually, if untreated, may cause disability and premature death.

Gonorrhea, a more local disease rarely causes death; but it may bring on complications affecting other glands and joints, chronic infection, and other disturbances. Formerly, before preventive measures were widely used, it was a common cause of blindness among newborn infants.

Treatment

Modern treatment for both diseases, stemming from the development of penicillin in 1943, is rapid, sure, and inexpensive. The Foundation notes, Medical authorities are confident that venereal disease could be virtually wiped out if all infected persons were treated promptly with penicillin and other new drugs. Unfortunately, partly because of the taboos that for years cloaked the subject in silence, many persons fail to get such treatment.

According to estimates of the U. S. Public Health Service, there is today in this country a syphilis "reservoir" of about one million cases. Public health officials don't know who these people are, and very likely the individuals themselves are often unaware that they are infected. Each year an estimated 60,000 new cases of syphilis, and 1,000,000 of gonorrhea, are acquired.

Only a fraction of these cases are reported to health authorities, the Foundation says. Thus statistics based on reported cases tell only a fraction of the venereal disease story. Even so, they provide useful information about the trend in syphilis and gonorrhea in the last 40 years, as well as about the groups of people most likely to be infected. For example:

In 1919, 113 cases of syphilis (all stages) per 100,000 population were reported in this country. As the reporting system improved in later years, the rate rose steadily, hitting a peak in 1943 of 447 cases per 100,000. (See chart). After that, as penicillin and newer antibiotics came into widespread use, the rate dropped sharply and is still going down. Last year's rate, 69 cases per 100,000 population, was the lowest since the start of the national reporting system in 1919.

The reported number of cases of gonorrhea was for many years lower than the syphilis figure. The gonorrhea peak, 284 cases per 100,000, wasn't reached until 1947. The trend since then has been downward, although at a slower rate than the syphilis decline. As a result, last year's rate for gonorrhea, 137 per 100,000, was almost double that for syphilis.

Both diseases, the Foundation reports, are acquired predominantly by young people. In 1958 about one-fifth of all reported cases of infectious venereal disease occurred among persons under 20, while the peak age of infection fell within the 20-24-year range.

Among Males

Both diseases are reported far more frequently among males than females — although part of the differential may be due to a greater reluctance to report cases involving females. For gonorrhea, says the Foundation, the reported rates among males have in recent years been more than double the female rates. A smaller excess of male cases holds true for syphilis.

Venereal diseases are also reported far more frequently among non-whites than among whites; however, the size of this differential may be greatly overstated due to greater use of public facilities by non-whites. For example, since 1941 the number of reported cases involving non-whites has actually exceeded the total for whites, even though the former constitute only about one-tenth of the U. S. population.

Public health authorities and practicing physicians, says the Foundation, are entitled to credit for recent progress against venereal disease. But it adds this warning: "That these diseases are still prevalent, in the face of quick and effective treatment, is the result of public apathy and ignorance, as well as overoptimism which has resulted in a decline in control measures. More universal knowledge about the value of case-finding and treatment would lead to the elimination of these dread diseases. Unfortunately, that day still seems far distant."

TMA Plans Dance Tonight

Tonight, from 9 till midnight, the Townsmen's Association will once again use the Legion Cabin, 317 S. Howard, as the site for their annual spring dance.

Jim McGoldrick, TMA dance chairman, said the affair will be similar to what has been held in the past, and just plain clothes is all that is needed in the form of wearing apparel.

"We are looking forward to having a good dance and all students on or off campus are welcomed," McGoldrick said.

Tickets are $1 a couple, and goodies will be served.

Hospitals Accept 11 For Internship

Eleven University students majoring in Bacteriology (Medical Technology Option) have been accepted for hospital internship in Medical Technology, Dr. V. A. Charrington, Head of Bacteriology, announced.

Scheduled to start their internship during the summer are Gail Agee, Hays; Joanne Gartland, Tri Delt; Edward Houck, Off Campus; and Judith McGarvey, Kappa, all at St. Luke's Hospital in Spokane, Washington.

Marjorie Willis, off campus, will intern at the St. Luke's Hospital in Boise.

Going to the Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena, Calif., for training are Jane Johnson, Theta, and Jeannine Wood McFarland, off campus.

Beverly Paul, Forney, will do her internship at the Los Angeles County Hospital, Los Angeles, California.

Diane Coiner, Ethel Steel, who finished her college work in February, is now in training at Mercy Hospital in San Diego, California.

Going to the St. Joseph's Hospital in Lewiston for training is Bonnie Baum Pearson, off campus.

Joyce White Wyatt, off campus, expects to do her internship at the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Long Beach, California.

"Medical Technology career opportunities have increased tremendously in recent years," Dr. Charrington said. "At the present time, good salaries and excellent job opportunities are attracting increasing numbers of students.

Twelve months hospital training under a recognized, qualified clinical pathologist is required to qualify for registration with the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. Upon the successful completion of the internship and the passing of a comprehensive examination, the student becomes a Registered Medical Technologist.

Helldivers To Have Storybook Theme

A fairyland atmosphere will pervade in the Memorial gym pool tonight and tomorrow night when the Helldivers swim through their colorful Mother Goose capers in their annual water pageant.

Acts ranging from Little Black Sambo to Cinderella build the theme, "Once Upon a Time," for this year's show held in conjunction with the Mother's Day festivities on the campus.

Two performances will be made each night—at 7:30 and 9:00.

All ten acts are set to music and special colored spotlight effects will be used to accentuate the costumes and backdrops.

Five pert mermaids start the show with an act from the theme, "Once Upon a Time." Sue Fisk, Janet McBratney, Marlene Finney, Nancy Wholtez and Karen Coughlan swim a routine prepared by Judy Kempton.

"Sleeping Beauty" has an all-female cast and should rightly be called Sleeping Beauties. Nancy Hubbard, Linda Wilson, Karen McCulloch and Linda Engle are the sleeping beauties. Miss Engle is the choreographer for this number.

Betty Hamlet, Pat Russell and Jeanne Walker prowl through the jungle in search of "Little Black Sambo" (Mary Evans). Miss Walker arranged the choreography.

Carol Falk is the star of the "Pinocchio" act. Other members in this act are Judy Libby and Susan Arnold. Miss Libby is the choreographer.

"The Crickets" is the title given the duet number by Tana Harris and Nona Kay Shern.

Immediately following a short intermission, Cliff Lawrence, the Idaho varsity diver will demonstrate various forms and techniques in diving.

Miss Little Bo-Peep (Carolyn Collette) will be looking for her five sheep, Craig Wood, Joann Campbell, Linda Croy, Amy Bone and Kay Brown, in the first act after the intermission. Miss Croy worked out the choreography for this act.

"Cinderella" A prince, a princess and four mice are the characters in one of the best acts of the evening. "Cinderella." Miss Shern is Cinderella, Bob Cochini the prince and

Horseshoes

Here are the scores on this week completed horseshoe action. In game 44, G. Malcolm, PDT, lost to N. Kissel, DTD, R. Peters, TMA, defeated B. Kerbs, UH, in game 46. J. Fink defeated T. Shoat in game 47. In game 48, G. Dickinson, DTD, defeated H. Hurlbin, WSH. In game 49, K. Fenton, OC, defeated L. Galbraith, DSP. DTD's O. Rene defeated the TMA's B. Lewis in game No. 50, and in game number 51, B. Marra, PDT, defeated R. Welsh, WSH.

Lindley Hall, not McConnell, is the second place in the intramural standings, as of now.

In softball, the action shaped up like this: There were two games completed in league I. Gault Hall who is tied with Chrisman for the league lead with a record of 4-1, knocked off Lindley Hall in a neat 7 to 0 game. In what looked like a real good game, Chrisman, tied for the top spot, took a hair-raiser from Willis Sweet, 1-0.

Four games were played in league III, where the Fijis and Kappa Sigs are tied for top spot with three and one records. Sigma Chi came from behind with ten runs in the last inning to take FarmHouse 12 to 9.

I. Linksters Tie With WSU; Leave On Road Trip Sat.

The surprisingly strong Washington State Cougars threw a damper into the Idaho golfers' hopes for the Northern Division dual match title aspirations as the Pullman crew tied the Vandals, 9-9, at the Clarkston Golf and Country Club last Tuesday.

The Vandal linksters spend next weekend on the road getting set for the Northern Division playoffs next weekend at Eugene.

On The Road

The Vandals play a tough Washington Husky crew at the Rainier Golf and Country Club in Seattle Monday to start their tour.

John Haney, the top Husky swinger, was a second string all-American last year at Stanford. He has since transferred to UW.

Tuesday the Vandals play Seattle University, the only club to beat Oregon this year. The meet will be at the Inglewood Country Club, also in Seattle.

The Seattle Chieftain club is known for its depth. The number five man on the team is Larry Lee, 1959 National Junior Champion. The number three player, Bill Warner, was the 1957 Pacific Northwest Men's Amateur champ.

The tie place the Vandal overall win-loss record at 6-1-1 and ranks as the best showing by the Cougars in Northern Division play this year.

Tense matches provided plenty of action as all the three foursomes' scoring difference was no more than one point in any of the three groups.

Denny Johnson, firing a one-under par 70, upset Don Modie to

Dehning Leads Vandal Stickers Lefty Townsend Tops Pitchers

Herb Dehning, a sophomore from Lewiston won a starting berth with his timely hitting on the road and now leads the Vandal stickers with a .333 average.

First baseman Terry Boesel is second at the plate with a .318 average. Boesel is from Winthrop, Wash. Shortstop Bill Johnson is third batting .276.

The Vandals as a team are batting a lowly .210 with 57 hits in 269 at-bats.

Pitcher Pat Townsend leads the Northern Division pitchers in strikeouts with 22. Townsend, a southpaw, has a 2-1 conference record and a 2.889 earned run average. Steve Hinckley, a right hand-

Gamma Phis, Forney Lead In Softball Tournament

The Gamma Phi's moved into the winner's bracket in the WRA softball tournament last night by drubbing out a 12-8 victory over the Pi Phi's.

Judy Johnson, Gamma Phi and Bev Bucklin, Pi Phi, each scored a homerun to lead their teams.

Forney, led by the hitting of Darlene Edminson, knocked the Kappas out of the championship race last night by downing them 5-0. She hit a homerun in the second inning to bring in four runs.

The men's faculty team scored a 5-4 victory over the WRA gals Wednesday night. Eric Kirkland broke the 4-4 tie in the last inning by hitting a three-base hit and bringing a man home.

Kirkland and Donna Streigel were the battery for the WRA team while Darlene Edminson and Bronza Lazelle served for the faculty.

Tennis Team Seeks 2nd Win

The Idaho Vandals' hopes for a second tennis victory of the season were rudely shattered by the WSU Cougars. WSU had little trouble against the Vandals, as only an Idaho victory in the final doubles match of the day prevented a shutout by the Cougars. The final score of the match, which was played Wednesday afternoon at Pullman, was 6-1.

The Vandals make another quest for that second victory of the season Saturday when they tangle with Whitman at Walla Walla.

Townsend Faces Webfoots On McLean Today

Jim Herndon On The Bench

Bench Jockeys Get A Cougar; Little Nickie Puts On Big Show

Little Nickie August, the Cougar second sacker, put on quite a show last Tuesday. Vandal Dick Mooney had to pay a high price for the entertainment, though. Mooney received a spike wound that went clear to the bone.

It started in the third inning. Little Nickie was in the on deck circle, and he could not find his bat. Teammate Paul Giese had August's bat at the plate. August let it be known the bat was his, and his only.

"Did your Daddy buy you that bat, Nickie?" floated across the diamond from the stands. The Idaho fans, as baseball fans will, started needing the Cougar second baseman.

"Get your Daddy to buy you another bat, Nickie." The Vandal bench, goodnaturedly, took up the call.

The bench jockeying continued after the inning was over and the Cougars had taken the field. August, however, did not take to the kidding from the Idaho bench. Finally, August, who was warming up for the next inning at second, threw the ball into the Idaho dugout.

The final peak of excitement did not come until the last of the eighth inning. August came to bat with men on first and second. The fans were still on August. August hit a grounder to Bill Johnson at shortstop. Johnson tossed to second for the out but Mooney couldn't get the ball to first in time for the double play.

Meanwhile, the Cougar runner at third had broken for home with the play. Terry Boesel, the Vandal first sacker, seeing that he had missed August, fired the ball home. August headed for second. The throw at home was late, but Vandal catcher Ted Knivila pegged the ball to Mooney who was covering second.

Mooney had August by ten feet and August must have known it. The Cougar second sacker slid with spike turned up. Mooney got him but he got Mooney.

Vandal pitcher Steve Hincley held off the rest of Mooney's teammates who rushed in and thus prevented a riot.

August has been picked by many as the outstanding second baseman in the Northern Division. It is the opinion of this writer that any athlete who can not control his emotions has no place in baseball. Such a player certainly is not material for an all-league team.

Bench jockeying is as old as the game of baseball. Everyone who plays must expect some chatter from the bench, and must be able to take it in stride.

Basketball

At the present time most of the people that are interested in sports are also following the recent basketball scandal. Players from seven schools across the nation, North Carolina, LaSalle, St. Joseph's, Mississippi State, Seton Hall, Tennessee, and Connecticut, were named, as players who had accepted bribes from gamblers to fix games.

The magazine Sports Illustrated places the blame not only on the players for allowing such corruption, but also on the college presidents and the executive director of the NCAA.

Sports Illustrated states: "... So long as college administrations believe they discharge their duties by expelling bribe takers and shedding a few tears before going back into business as usual, so long will there exist all the necessary ingredients for future scandals."

Cip Brings Hoop Material To Idaho

Two of Washington's top prep basketball players have accepted athletic scholarships to the University of Idaho, cage Coach Joe Cipriano said today.

Jim Halte, a 6-4 all-state forward from Kent-Meridian high school, and Terry Henson, a 6-2 guard from Kent-Meridian, will enroll at Idaho this fall.

DOUBLE PLAY — Vandals Bill Johnson and Dick Mooney show their double play combination which has been going for the Vandals in recent games.

Idaho Cindermen Bound For Walla Walla Meet Tomorrow

The Vandal varsity cindermen prepare for the lull before the storm. They will travel to Walla Walla tomorrow to participate in the Bill Martin Invitational track meet.

This is a small college meet and is the last encounter for Idaho thinkers before they close out their 1961 season at the Far West Championship Meet in Corvallis next weekend.

Idaho will have entries in all the events except the javelin throw. Reg Carolan, who grabbed first place in the shot put against OSU last weekend, will be out to better his 53' 4" throw.

Area schools expected to participate in the meet are Portland State, Whitworth, Eastern Oregon College of Education, Whitman, Central Washington College, College of Idaho, Eastern Washington College, Northwest Nazarene College and both the University of Idaho varsity and frosh.

The new event added to this

Vandal Babes At CBJC

A somewhat revitalized Idaho freshman baseball team will meet Columbia Basin Junior College today in a doubleheader at Pasco.

The Idaho freshmen have been missing the talents of their starting catcher, Fred Bergeman and their starting shortstop, Joe Pettit, for the last several games. Bergeman has been out with a split finger while Pettit has been recovering from a wrist operation. Both will see action today. However, the leading freshman hitter, Dennin Cleary will not be available for the doubleheader. The freshman record at this point stands two wins and two losses. The team has played Columbia Basin and WSU two games apiece, splitting each time.

The team has four games left during the regular season. They will play the double header against Columbia Basin today, then finish with two more against WSU.

They will play the varsity in a post-season game.

Fred Crow will start the first game for the Idaho freshmen today and Joe Keller, the second.

'Hinc' Wins With Arm, Home Run

Lefty Pat Townsend, who is currently leading the Northern Division in strikeouts with 22, will go against the Oregon Webfoots today at 3 p.m. at McLean Field. The two teams will play a second game tomorrow.

Steve Hincley with fine pitching and a home-run, pulled the Vandals out of the Northern Division cellar by a half game with a 5-3 win over the WSU Cougars, Tuesday.

Either Hincley or Tony Burke (0-1) will get mound duty in the game Saturday.

The Northern Division's current pitching leader, Fred Ballard, will lead the Oregon pitching staff. Ballard, as of last Tuesday, was leading the league with a 1.03 earned run average.

Trevor Swangard leads the Webfoots at the plate with a .333 average. Herb Denning is the top Vandal sticker, also batting .333.

Terry Boesel continues to lead the league in base stealing with three to his credit.

Hincley's home run came in the fifth inning with catcher Ted Knivila aboard. It gave the Vandals a 3-2 lead that they never lost.

The revenge over Monday's 5-4 loss to the Cougars could prove costly to the Idaho club. Co-captain and second sacker Dick Mooney was hit with Cougar second baseman and all-league candidate Nick August's spikes in the eighth inning at a play at second.

Mooney had taken a throw from Knivila after August had tried to take second on Vandal first sacker Boesel's throw to the plate. Mooney had August by some ten feet when the Cougar slashed him with a cut that took some 30 stitches to close.

Traffic Fines

Joseph A. Cipriano, University basketball and tennis coach, forfeited a $5 bond Tuesday for making an illegal U-turn.

On Wednesday Douglas L. Elliot, 22, 718 Elm, was fined $10 and given five demerits for improper backing.

Four Yearlings To Play On 1st String Saturday

There will be four new faces on the first unit when football coach J. Neil "Skip" Stahley sends his charges through their third scrimmage of the spring football season this Saturday morning in Neale Stadium.

Letterman end Larry Stachler bounced up from the fourth team to nab an end job. Sophomore John Miller from Spokane joins former Gonzaga team mate Jim Moran at a tackle spot. Guard Don Matthews moved up from their third team and fullback Joe Renzi jumped all the way from the fifth unit. Matthews is sophomore from Ambsbury, Mass., and Renzi is a junior college transfer from Sacramento.

Four Yearlings
The addition of Miller to the first unit brings the total of first-year men to four with Miller, Moran and Matthews in the line and halfback Wade Thomas from Caldwell in the backfield. Senior Mike Mosolf from Carmel, Calif., is the quarterback of the first unit.

On the third unit letterman Rick Dobbins replaced sophomore Gary Gagnon at quarterback.
