Second-Rate Education Possibility In Idaho

"I think the people of Idaho do not realize how dangerously we are flirting with second-rate education by trimming sails so closely."

This statement by Dr. Max Fletcher, associate professor of economics, exemplified the conclusions at a panel discussion of the "Future of Higher Education in the State of Idaho," Saturday morning in the Music Building.

The panel, attended by 50 students, faculty and parents, was sponsored by Silver Lance, senior men's honorary. Panel members were moderator Dr. Duane LeTourneau, associate professor of agriculture, Dr. Frances Maib, professor of education, Dr. M. L. Jackson, head of chemical engineering, Dr. Raymond K. Kooi, director of adult education, and Dr. Fletcher.

Dr. Fletcher explained what he felt were the real costs and benefits of higher education, saying "There is some tendency in the state of Idaho to regard education as a luxury when it is very definitely a necessity."

Education Pays

He presented facts and figures showing the financial benefits of increased education in terms of life-time earnings. He also pointed out that over half of the annual increase in gross national product could be accounted for by increased education.

Dr. Fletcher also criticized the state for allocating barely a third of the budget towards education when neighboring states come closer to giving almost half of their income to education. He pointed out some of Idaho's unique problems including the fact that Idaho's per capita personal income ranks thirty-ninth in the nation. This plus a low population scattered over a "geographic monstrosity" gives Idaho unique problems, he added.

Tax Study

Fletcher concluded by advocating a comprehensive study of the tax system of the state to see where the inefficiencies lie. He added "if we are sufficiently unwealthy or poor enough not to be able to afford higher education then we better lean on other states."

Dr. Maib explained some of the reasons for higher expenses of education. She listed more research, increasing difficulty to hold competent professors, and expansions of the function of the University.

Increased enrollments she said are accounted for by a larger percentage of the population going to college, particularly women, and more students staying longer.

"Can't Wait"

She quoted the Stanford Research Institute report which said

Idaho State College would be equal to the University in enrollment by 1975, adding that students favor the school in their own locality. She concluded, saying "We can't wait until 1975 to start planning."

Court Action Against Oath Expected By Wednesday

A restraining order against Idaho's controversial loyalty oath will probably be filed in district court today or tomorrow, the head of the U of I chapter of the American Association of University Professors reported yesterday.

Dr. R. A. Postweiler said he was notified Friday by attorney Louis Racine, Pocatello, of the date of the action, which is being legislators. "I am sure," he said "that the oath was created for the purpose of warning the people of Idaho against the dangers of the Communists."

He added that if he had realized the far reaching consequences of the oath that he would not have signed it.

brought by the University and Idaho State College chapter of the AAUP.

So far the U of I chapter has raised more than $2,000 in pledges for the court fight, and ISC has raised $4,000. The initial estimated cost of the suit is $1,000, Postweiler said.

The University chapter is still seeking more pledges, the president said, and many are being received in the form of promises of a certain amount of money each month for the next several months. "It's quite likely that we'll call in a small amount of each pledge in a week or two," Postweiler said.

University Business Manager J. W. Watts, whose office is in charge of administering the oath to University faculty and staff members, said he hoped to be able to use IBM cards in processing them.

"The secretary of state prescribed that we have three cards be signed — one for his office, one for the state auditor and one for us," Watts noted.

Planned by May 27
"We're pointing to initiate the execution of these oaths beginning the week of May 27 — that is, if we can get the forms. The Administration is working on details of procedure."

Watts added that he had no idea yet of what the cost of administering the oaths at the University would be.

Students Perform Before Mother's Day Throings

University students danced, swam, sung and acted during special Mother's Day activities this weekend.

Approximately 550 persons attended the Spur-sponsored Song Fest Friday evening at 8 p.m. at Hays Hall, won the honors in the women's division with "Kentucky Babe." Forney, last year's winner, placed second with the selection "Fashion's Change."

Willis Sweet walked away with the Men's Division honors for the second year in a row for the selection "Oh Mary Don't You Weep." SAE's placed second singing "Ride the Chario."

In the mixed division competition, Tri Deltas and FarmHouse won first singing "Venezuela" with the Kappas and Sigma Chi placing second with a medley from "West Side Story."

The winners of each division sang the common song for their division after they had been awarded their trophy. Common song for the women's division was "Deep In My Heart" from the Student Prince; "Stout Hearted Men," the Navy marching song was sung by the men's division and "Deep River" was sung by the Mixed Division.

Orchestra Will Present Final Concert

The final public appearance of the University Symphony Orchestra will be Thursday at 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium.

The concert will feature three graduating seniors. Rae Patton, Hays Hall and Wallis Bratt, off-campus, are cellists and Gerald Doggett, off-campus, is a clarinetist.

The selection of the outstanding seniors is made by the music faculty. The concert featuring the outstanding seniors is an annual event.

Patton will play the first movement from "Violinello Concerto in B Flat" by Boccherini. Bratt will play the second and third movements from "Violinello Concerto in C Minor" by Bach. Doggett, who is a solo clarinetist in both the University Symphony and Concert Bands, will perform the adagio movement from the "Clarinet Concerto in A Major" by Mozart.

The Symphony Orchestra, conducted by LeRoy Bauer, music professor, will perform the "Sankuntala Overture" by Carl Goldmark. They will close the concert with "Fantasy," the overture from "Romeo and Juliet," by Tchaikowsky.

There will be no admission charge.

The Music Department has a scheduled four more events before the end of the school year.

The University Symphonic band conducted by Warren Bellis, music professor, will appear Sunday at 4 p.m. in the University Auditorium. May 21st the University Singers conducted by Norman R. Logan, associate professor of music, will appear in the University Auditorium at 8 p.m.

John Baker will present a graduate recital May 23rd at 8 p.m. in The Recital Hall of the Music Building.

The final music event scheduled by the Music Department is a program of student compositions to be presented May 26th.

AN EXCITING FINISH — Phi Delta Bill Pressey waves the checkered flag to the Alpha Phi's entry in the annual turtle derby, Road Runner, as he finishes the race in great form.

Phi Deltas Given Partial Probation

Phi Delta Theta fraternity was given partial probation for the rest of the semester and first semester of next year by the Intarfraternity Council Tribunal Thursday.

IFC's three-man judicial body decreed that the fraternity could have no more rush guests stay there this spring and would be on social probation next semester, except for one house function which cannot be a costume-type dance, an IFC representative reported. Exchanges with sororities will be permitted, however.

The punishment was imposed because of charges that fraternity members had given liquor to three under-age high school rush guests from Twin Falls before a Phi Delta dance last month, and that under-age members of the fraternity also were drinking at the function, which was held off campus.

The parents of one of the high school youths made the complaint to fraternity advisor Guy Wicks.

Emphasis Is Wrong

It would appear that a serious re-evaluation needs to be made of the allocation of funds in the ASUI budget this year. Several items seem to receive money in amounts out of proportion to their relative importance.

For instance the ag team and the Vandaleers receive $700 and $2,410 respectively for traveling expenses. The Varsity Band, essential item at games, received only $50.

KUOI, the campus radio station had to rebuild its entire broadcasting system but it received less than half of what the Vandaleers received, $1,000.

The Public Relations Director for the ASUI has seen the duties of his office mushroom since its creation four years ago has $100 less for sending out mail, setting up displays and traveling around the state than the Vandal Rally Committee has for spending on uniforms, even though the PR director is supposed to take charge of the rally committee's affairs.

All total, public relations has $550 to spend, and $100 of that is earmarked for the Boise game meeting with high school student body officers. Homecoming weekend receives a total of $1,150 and even Dad's Day weekend rates $600. Just plain Executive Board expenses and the student faculty retreats are down for $400, only $50 less than that allocated for public relations.

It would seem to us that as poor a reputation as this school has in southern Idaho and the tremendous fight ahead to keep what it has, not only with the legislature but in the minds of the people of southern Idaho also, that perhaps a little larger sum than has been should be allocated to the Office of Public Relations.

Also it would seem that the potential enjoyment students will be able to gain from the re-vamped KUOI merits perhaps a larger sum than the $1,000 allocated. This sum is ridiculously small when compared to the over $17,000 expended on the golf course annually.

These facts indicate that a serious look needs to be taken at the goals of the Associated Students here and determine how their money should be spent to best achieve these goals. From appearances it would seem that the ASUI's major goals are having a nice golf course, and having pleasant and enjoyable Dad's Day and Homecoming weekends. We are not disparaging the values of these things but merely saying that perhaps there is need for a shift in emphasis if the ASUI is to be able to function properly as a training ground for student leaders and as a promoter of the University in the state. A lot could be done with $108,788.50 toward correcting some of the handicaps this University functions under. The student body is a powerful force and could easily and commendably supplement the administration's effort to keep the University a fine institution. But a proper allocation of resources is called for. —J.M.

Little Things, Too

The best - remembered things about Mother's Day weekend are usually the little, unprogrammed occurrences, like some of those last weekend . . . the bus-loads of mothers from Twin Falls and Boise who chattered, gazed at the campus as it went by, then poured from the chartered buses to sort through the off-spring that greeted them . . . mothers really letting their hair down with the kids at Shakey's and Berry's and Mort's . . . parents spotting old college cronies for the first time in years . . . the May Fete crowd rising for a standing ovation, President Theophilus removing his glasses and reaching for a handkerchief, and Mrs. Alfred Dunn walking slowly from the stage with a posthumous Outstanding Senior award for her son Bruce, a member of Idaho's College Bowl team until an auto accident killed him. Those were the things that made the weekend.

Lookie, We're Loyal

All this stink about the loyalty oath has really caused the militant to rally round the flag. District No. 2 members of the American Legion met in Kamiah over the weekend and voted to urge all members to troop down to the nearest district judge or Idaho Supreme Court justice to ask that they be administered the oath so as to prove their loyalty to Idaho and the United States. Oh, those poor oath-comiters down in the statehouse . . . 40,000 people already have to sign the thing, and now all these Legionnaires are going to show up to double the amount of trouble and busywork.

And wait'll the Veterans of Foreign Wars, World War I Veterans and Daughters of the American Revolution decide this would be a fine thing for them to do, too . . .

All sorts of editorial writers around the state have fired all sorts of blasts at the oath, but the best comment I've heard of it wasn't written by a newsmen. A couple of backshop boys at the Idahoan were joking last week that they'd probably have to sign the oath because they set type for the Arg and thus might be termed part-time employees of the University. But Gary Oehler, a German who brought his family over to this country several years ago, was used to it.

"I don't mind signing it," he said. "I signed one under Hitler, too."

Almost, Pogo

Student government isn't the most vital issue on some campuses. In student elections at the University of Washington a couple of weeks ago, for example, Pogo received 1,000 of the 3,543 votes cast for student body president. That's not bad at all for a cartoon character making his first bid-in-politics

The president of the Pogo Party of the U.S. of A. at the U-W said the Pogo votes actually were symbols of "dissatisfaction, a revolutionary force that proves the students are fed up with existing student government." Maybe he will win next year.

HERE'S MORE ABOUT — Second Rate

Dr. Jackson gave three educational programs for the future, listing the traditional bachelor's degree programs, technical education, and graduate work. He said pressures will change the bachelor's program. "We formerly tried to take students of all interests and abilities and put them through the mill. This program is not flexible and is going to have to be more flexible in the future," he said.

Have To Supply Move
Concluding, he said, "Future programs are going to have to supply different knowledge skills over and above what we do now."

Dr. Kooi explained adult education in the state and predicted considerable growth in this area. University President Dr. D. R. Theophilus was in the audience and made several comments. In reference to a question about the effect of four-year status for Lewis-Clark Normal School on the University, Dr. Theophilus said, "People who make the decisions did not want to be confused by the facts. The Stanford Institute Report was completely ignored."

TWIN FALLS BOY WINS

Jim Griffith, a Twin Falls high school student, won first place in the third annual high school essay contest sponsored by the Idaho Agronomy club. His essay on "Good Pastures are Grown — Not Bought" won for him $10 plus a year's subscription to Crops and Soils magazine.

Dear Jason

Dear Jason:
It pleases me greatly to see our well-informed, discriminating Argonaut editor taking such an interest in the affairs of KUOI; however, it makes me sad to see that his interests aren't great enough to motivate him to gather sufficient information to present an accurate report of the present situation and future plans of KUOI.

I would like to explain more accurately what Mr. Herndon has attempted to explain. KUOI has had trouble in the past three or four years in trying to interest qualified students in donating their time and energy to improving KUOI. This lack of qualified and experienced help has proven a detriment to the operation of KUOI as a reputable medium of campus communication. As a solution to this problem I am backing Alpha Epsilon Rho (Radio TV Broadcasting Honorary) in its attempt to assume management of KUOI. This I feel would benefit KUOI and the ASUI as well as A E Rho.

If A E Rho's proposition were accepted, KUOI station manager and program director would be selected from the honorary's members. All other staff positions, including announcers, would be open to the student body. The rest of the A E Rho members would act as an advisory group to the staff of KUOI. You may question the fairness of this; so let me explain. Any student who has done sufficient work in radio, in quantity and quality, and who has good enough grades to assume either of these principal staff positions (manager or program director) would, by these qualifications, be eligible for A E Rho membership. The only personal traits which would prohibit the initiation of this student into A E Rho would likewise prevent him from being a good KUOI manager or staff member.

I feel that, with the assistance of this organization of trained and experienced broadcasters, KUOI can become a more effective and influential voice of and for the ASUI.

Dr. Feustel Traded Test Tubes For Corpsmen

Dr. Irwin C. Feustel turned in his test tubes when he accepted an assignment with the Peace Corp last August, but the tall, powerfully built man with grey hair that's almost white, is still doing research.

The only change is that he now is seeking new talent for Peace Corp, instead of doing agricultural research of the caliber which earned him a superior service award from the Department of Agriculture for his work during World War II on the extraction of natural rubber for critical tire use and a listing in the American Men of Science.

Dr. Feustel is now serving the divisions of Agricultural Affairs of the Peace Corp as a field representative and is stationed in Albany, Calif. He holds a Ph.D. in chemistry but has never taught. He enjoys his work among college students though and he tries to visit each college campus in his area "at least twice a year."

The Peace Corp, since its birth with the Kennedy Administration, has attracted 10 students from the Idaho campus. Not a large number when compared with the Peace Corps total 3,500, but a sizable amount when per capita population are considered.

"We have an opening for people with every type of background," Dr. Feustel said when he was here Thursday. "Those with an agricultural background are most in demand since most of the 44 countries served by the Peace Corp are basically agricultural, but we have requests even for lawyers."

(Feustel lectured and narrated a film about the Peace Corp on Thursday and then went to Pullman Friday.)

He added that many of the persons in the program were married. Sometimes couples meet during training and marry before going on assignment, he said. Other couples are engaged or married when they apply.

"When we consider people for assignments, we think of the couples as a unit," he said. "If both qualify for an assignment we offer it to them. If one of the pair doesn't qualify we don't consider either one."

A person's qualifications are matched with an open position. When the corp selects someone he is notified and asked if he would accept the spot that is available.

If the prospective corpsman accepts, he is sent to a training center such as the one at Washington State last summer for individuals going to South America. The training programs consist of six weeks. For six weeks, the trainees are confronted with a rugged program of vigorous physical and mental preparation.

Not everyone makes it, Dr. Feustel said. "It affords a challenge though," he continued, "and is very satisfying when completed."

Applications for the Peace Corp will reach Dr. Feustel if placed through the University Counseling Center.

Theophilus Will Dedicate Forestry Laboratory

President D. R. Theophilus will give the dedication address for the new U.S. Forest Service Forestry Sciences Laboratory to be dedicated May 23.

The dedication ceremony for the new building, located on the south side of the campus, west of Main street, will be held at 1:30 p.m.

The Rev. John P. Leary, president of Gonzaga University, will give the invocation. Dean Ernest Wohletz of the College of Forestry will welcome guests.

French To Speak

Special remarks on the occasion will be provided by Dr. C. Clement French, president of Washington State University and E. C. Rettig, retired, executive vice president and manager of Potlatch Forests, Inc. Joseph F. Pechanec, director of the Intermountain Forest and Range experiment station, said that "the location of the laboratory on the campus of the University of Idaho on land provided by the Board of Regents, and its close proximity to the two universities, provides an excellent scientific environment for forestry research."

He added that the forestry research program at the new facility will consist of studies in the functional fields of forest insects, forest disease, forest management and watershed management.

Cost $300,000

Constructed at a cost of $300,000, the new laboratory has about 13,000 feet of floor space. The design permits consolidating offices in the front portion and laboratories and equipment in the rear wing.

One of the primary considerations in the construction was to permit the maximum use of wood. The west wall of the entrance lobby is built of panels of native Inland Empire softwoods.

Following the dedication ceremonies an open house will be held for the public.

The building was designed by Walker and McGough and T. J. Pritchard, Spokane and Moscow associated architects.

SONGBIRD AWARDS — Songfest awards were accepted by Dick Bourassa and Del Amick for Willis Sweet, winners in the Men's Division; Meida Williams and Cheryl Stoker for Hays Hall, winners in the Women's Division; and Marian Abbeal, Tri Delta and Neil Poulson, FarmHouse for winning in the Mixed Division.

TKEs Open New House, Win Most Improved Award

Opening ceremonies for their new house and receiving the international Tau Kappa Epsilon award for the most improved TKE fraternity in the nation have highlighted TKE activities recently.

More than 1,000 persons attended the opening ceremonies Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m.

The award for the most improved TKE fraternity, as judged by the national grand officers, was received by the local TKEs for tripling their pledge classes, completing their new house and raising the house grade point.

Official Present

Officials for the house warming ceremonies included University President D. R. Theophilus, Guy P. Wicks, dean of students; Max Call, city councilman; Emery J. Trautman, contractor; Sen. Harold Lough; H. Walter Steffens, academic vice president; Robert F. Green, director of dormitories; the Reverend Harold Ficharty, president of the TKE Board of Control; and TKE president Jim Cobble.

After the opening ceremonies, the Starfires played for a dance and Watasi contest. Watasi winners were Peggy McGill, Tri Delta, and Gary Schorzman, TKE. Judges were Dave Soper, ASUI Public Relations director, and Mrs. Hazel Laughon, Alpha Gamma Delta housemother.

Door Prize Winners

Door prizes, candy donated by Hunter's Candy Shop, were won by Ronald C. Vielmeyer, 707 S. Hayes; Mrs. Pauly Boyle, 1109 East D; Mrs. Charlie F. Petersen, 1146 East D; Mrs. Laughon and an unidentified student.

Hostesses for the event were coeds Pat Cobb; Pi Phi; Sue Gillham, Washington State University; Sue Marshall and Sally Anderson, Alpha Chi; Dianne Green, Kappa; Penny Weir, Gamma Phi; Peggy McGill and Linda Derr, Tri Delta; and Arla Taylor, McConell.

The TKEs have lived in the new house for about two months and are still landscaping. Their five-story house features soundproofing in the top three floors wall-to-wall carpeting and complete wood paneling.

Summer's coming, get going!

If this isn't a great time to get yourself a new Chevrolet—well, we just don't know when is. Why, you'd almost have to be anti-summer not to let one of these four convertibles get to you. Or any of Chevrolet's sedans, wagons, sport coupes and sport sedans, for that matter.

And there are a lot of other buy-now reasons besides the season. Like the care-free feeling you get on a long vacation trip in a brand-new car. And it's a smart time to trade, what with your Chevrolet dealer all stocked up for a busy summer. Chances are, he has just the model and color you want—be it Chevrolet, Chevy II, Corvair or Corvette—ready to go right now.

So maybe now you're all wound up? Then spring into summer at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Does a man really take unfair advantage of women when he uses Mennen Skin Bracer?

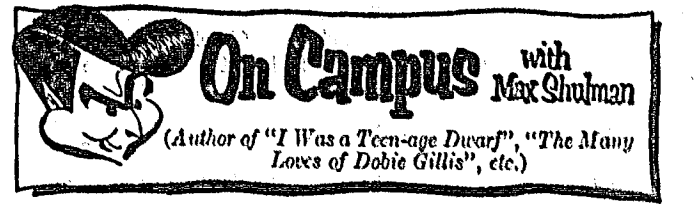

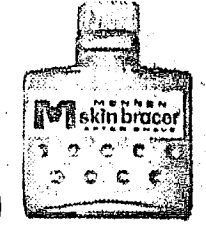

All depends on why he uses it.

Most men simply think Menthol-iced Skin Bracer is the best after-shave lotion around. Because it cools rather than burns. Because it helps heal shaving nicks and scrapes. Because it helps prevent blemishes.

So who can blame them if Bracer's crisp, long-lasting aroma just happens to affect women so remarkably?

Of course, some men may use Mennen Skin Bracer because of this effect.

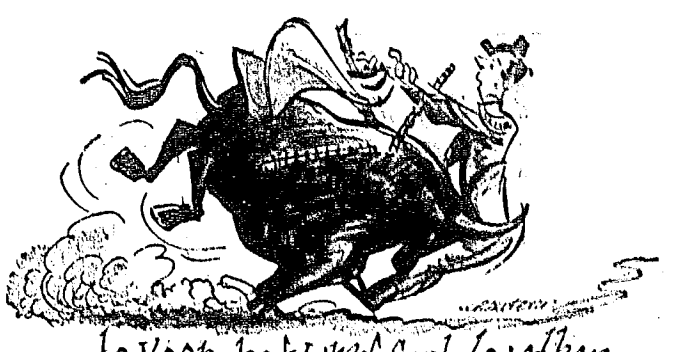

How intelligent!

HOW TO SEE EUROPE FOR ONLY $300 A DAY: NO. 3

When all of you go to Europe during your summer vacation, you will certainly want to visit Spain, where the tall corn grows.

The first thing you will notice upon entering Spain is the absence of sibilants. In Spain "s" is pronounced "sh" and they hang a tale. Until the reign of Philip IV—or Guy Fawkes, as he was sometimes called—Spaniards said "s" just like everybody else. Philip IV, however, lisped, and Spaniards, having an ingrained sense of propriety and not wishing to embarrass their monarch, decided that everybody should lisp. This did indeed put Philip IV very much at his ease, but in the end it turned out to be a very bad thing for Spain. It wrecked the saffron industry—Spain's principal source of revenue—and reduced the nation to a second-class power.

to keep body and soul together

As a result, Spaniards were all forced to turn to bull fighting in order to keep body and soul together. Today, wherever you go in Spain—in Madrid, in Barcelona, in Toledo, in Cleveland—you will see bulls being fought. For many years the bulls have sought to arbitrate this long-standing dispute, but the Spaniards, a proud people who use nothing but Castile soap, have rejected all overtures.

It is therefore necessary for me to explain bull fighting to anyone who is going to Spain. It is also necessary for me to say a few words about Marlboro Cigarettes because they pay me for writing this column, and they are inclined to pout if I ignore their product. In truth, it is no chore for me to sing the praises of Marlboro Cigarettes, for I am one who fairly swoons with delight when I come upon a cigarette which gives you the full, rich taste of good tobacco plus the pure white Selectate filter, and Marlboro is the only smoke I have found that fulfills both requirements. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! The flavor reaches you without stint or diminution. You, even as I, will find these statements to be happily true when once you light a Marlboro. Marlboros come to you in soft pack or Flip-Top box, and are made only by the makers of Marlboro.

But I digress. Let us return to bull fighting. Bulls are by nature bellicose creatures who will keep fighting till the cows come home. Then they like to put on pipe and slippers and listen to the "Farm and Home Hour." However, the Spaniards will not allow the bulls any surcease. They keep attacking the bull and making veronians—a corn meal pancake filled with ground meat. Bulls, being vegetarians, reject the veronians and then, believe you me, the fur starts to fly!

To be perfectly honest, many Spaniards have grown weary of this incessant struggle and have left their homeland. Columbus, for example, took off in three little ships—the Patti, the Musee, and the Laverne—and discovered Ohio. Magellan later discovered Columbus. Balboa also sailed to the New World, but he was silent on a peak in Darien, so it is difficult to know what he discovered.

Well sir, I guess that's all you need to know about Spain. So now, as the setting sun casts its rosy fingers over El Greco, let us take our reluctant leave of Spain—or Perfidious Albion, as it is jocularly called. Aloha, Spain or Perfidious Albion, aloha!

Let us not, however, take our leave of smoking pleasure. Let us keep enjoying those fine Marlboro Cigarettes—rich, golden tobacco—pure white Selectate filter—soft pack or Flip-Top box—available in all fifty States of the Union.

Vandals Lose, 13-8, As Ducks Score Five In 11th

The Oregon Ducks turned four walks, a sacrifice and two singles into five runs to end an 11-inning slugfest here yesterday afternoon to beat the Vandals 13 to 8.

The loss was the Vandals' seventh straight in Northern Division play and it pushed them further into the cellar.

The Vandals, 2 and 7 in ND play, won their openers against Washington here but have gone winless since. Idaho is 9-13 for the season.

The Oregon win was the first in the last three starts for the Ducks. They dropped a pair to Washington State last weekend.

To Play Again

Idaho and Oregon play again today at 3 p.m. The Vandals host Oregon State Friday and Saturday.

Three straight walks followed by Dick Knapp's and pitcher Mike Glenn's singles gave the Vandals a 2 run lead in the second inning. Idaho added three runs in the fourth on Fred Thomas' single, Glenn's second home run of the year, Herb Dehning's walk and Tom Hoagland's single.

Two of Idaho's six errors and a pair of singles gave Oregon two runs in the fourth. Jeff McQueeney, Mike Mayne and Mike Stowe combined singles for two Idaho runs in the seventh for a pair of runs and Mayne scored on an error in the eighth after being hit by a pitched ball.

Oregon, however, had exploded for five runs in the seventh and the second of short-stop Chuck White's three errors, relief pitcher Jon Dreps' wild pitch, a walk, two singles, and a pair of doubles.

The Vandals left baserunners in the 9th and 10th innings. A double play ended the ninth. Jim Snow struck out the side in the tenth after Vandal Hoagland had singled. Snow fanned Mayne and Stove to end the game.

Oregon batted around and scored five runs to break an 8-8 tie in the 11th.

White Team Downs Blacks To Take Picnic Bowl Lead

The White squad took an eight point lead in Idaho's Picnic Bowl competition Saturday when it defeated the Black squad 15-8 in the first of two game scrimmages that will end the 1963 spring football season.

The White squad, coached by John Easterbrook, combined good defense and the employment of some timely breaks to down Coach Dick Monroe's Black team.

The Vandals will hold the final game of the Picnic Bowl battle Saturday at 9:30 p.m. If the Black team wins to tie up the win-loss mark, total points will be used to determine the winner.

First TD

The White squad scored first in the opening quarter and never trailed. Halfback Wade Thomas intercepted a pass on the Black 30 to get his team rolling. Three plays later, halfback Rich Nacarrato carried the ball down to the six-inch line.

Fullback Dale Meyer carried it in from there. Quarterback Gary Mires was dropped for a loss when he tried for a two-point conversion.

The White squad scored again in the second quarter when guard Denny Almqvist blocked a Black team punt and fell on it in the end zone for a two-point safety.

Black Team Scores

The Black's only scoring effort of the day came in the second quarter when halfback Mike Jordan ripped through the Whiteline and romped 76 yards for a touchdown. Black signal caller Gary Gagnon passed into the coffin corner to end Bob Basset for the two-point conversion effort.

The White squad was deep in Black territory late in the first half, but time ran out on them.

The Whites won the contest in the final minutes of the fourth quarter when Mires went six yards around end on a fullback fake for the TD. Mires' run capped an 80 yard scoring drive.

Led by Meyer, Thomas and Nacarrato, the White team engineered their drive without benefit of a pass.

Rookie guard Jerry Campbell booted the extra point.

Tracksters Downed By Washington State Team

Washington State's Cougars swept all but one event on their way to smashing the Idaho Vandals 116-39 in a dual track meet held Saturday afternoon at Pullman.

Vandal weightman Larry Johnson picked up the lone Idaho first place when he won the shot put with a heave of 47 feet, 9 1/4 inches. In addition, two meet records that had been held by the Vandals were broken by Cougar thinclads.

defeated Idaho's Paul Henden in a feature race in the two-mile. The winning effort erased former Vandal Frank Wyatt's record for the event with a 9:11.1 clocking.

Henden was clocked in 9:11.8 for the distance, which was far below Wyatt's 1957 meet mark of 9:28.5. The times also bested the old Rogers Field record for the two-mile.

Tracksters Downed By Washington State Team

Another Record

WSU's 440 relay team ran the distance in 41.6 to shatter a mark that Idaho had set last year. The old standard was 42.8. Glenn Wolf, Clarence Williams, Herm McKee and John Chaplin combined talents to lead the Cougars to their record.

The Cougars set meet records in the pole vault and the 330 intermediate hurdles, in addition to the others.

Nick Carnefix went down to defeat in his 440 race. Carnefix finished second to Cougar Clarence Williams. Butch Hubbard captured third.

Nils Yebsen ran a 1:56.8 half-mile but finished second to WSU distance runner Jan Bentzon. Bentzon toured the distance in 1:56.6. Rolf Prydz took second in both the broad and the javelin.

Gus Johnson, improving meet by meet, nabbed second in the high jump. Johnson soared 6-1, but WSU jumper Kent Swanson went 6-4 1/4.

At a rodeo at Utah State University, Logan, Utah, Tom Buxton, off-campus, placed 2nd in one go-round, of bareback riding and third over-all, and 6th in saddle bronc riding.

Placing in these events wins points toward the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association finals in Denver, Colorado. The national rodeo will be televised over Columbia Broadcasting Company's "Wide World of Sports" in June.

This weekend the Vandal Riders are competing at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah.

Scheduled rodeos remaining this season are at Utah State University May 17-18, Idaho State College May 18-19, and Eastern Montana College of Education at Dillon, Mont.

Golfers Beat Gonzaga, Tie Cougars

Idaho's golf team finished the dual meet season with a 3-3-3 record by downing Gonzaga and splitting with WSU at Clarkston Friday.

Ros Rogstad shot even par 74 as the three-way meet was held on Clarkston's par 37 back nine. That was good for two points against both WSU and Gonzaga.

The WSU score was 9-9 and the win over Gonzaga was by a 14-4 margin. Rick Jensen tallied a 76 for two points against both foes, and Terry Gustavel scored three points in each match with his 77.

Bill Ballantyne also had a 77, which was good for 1/2 point against WSU and 3 against Gonzaga with a 78, while Bill Goss picked up but one point, that against Gonzaga with a 78.

Idaho's golfers now travel to Corvallis for the Far West Championship on May 17-18.

Fresh Win Again

The frosh squad made it two-for-two with another win over the WSU frosh on the Idaho course. Dick Trail was medalist for the match with a 77, followed closely by Dave Driscoll.

Doug Harper and Chuck Walton each had 81s and Joe Kinney and Ken Johnson followed with 90 and 100, respectively. Trail, Driscoll, and Harper were all able to pick up 3 points in their individual matches.

Walton, Kinney and Johnson all got 1/2 points, respectively. The Trail-Harper duo scored 3 points on best ball, Walton and Discoll picked up 2, and Kinney and Johnson failed to score, in the 15 1/2 to 11 1/2 victory.

JV's Win

A five man junior varsity squad also defeated WSU on the home course. Chick Cutler picked up 3 points with his medalist 72. He was followed by Ralph Nelson with 2 1/2 points and a 77, John Bowen with a 78 and 2 1/2 points, Glen Johannsen with an 81 and 2 points and Bob Mooney with 82 and 1/2 points.

The final score was 14 1/2-6 1/2 as the Cutler-Bowen combination scored 3 points and the Johannsen-Mooney team picked up another point. This was the second win for the junior varsity over WSU.
