

10 Coeds Vie For Miss U-I Title Friday

The third annual Davids' style show featuring Miss U of I contestants and a tea party for contestants and judges are the two final events before Friday's Miss U of I pageant.

Key Meeting Set For May 20

Women who intend to use the senior key privilege next year are required to attend an indoctrination meeting, 7 p.m., May 20 in the Student Union Ballroom.

Spurs Tap 34 Frosh For Group

Thirty-four freshmen women were awakened at 6 a.m. Saturday morning to be tapped for Spurs, women's service honorary.

During the style show last Saturday in Davids' Department Store window, Mrs. Wayne Anderson narrated the hour-long show featuring the 10 semi-finalists.

Pirouetting in the window were Judy Stuebbe, Campbell; Margie Brunn and Dolores Cook, Pi Phi; Karen Lee, Alpha Chi; Joanne Myers and Pat Folz, Thetas; Kalle Jergensen, Leslie Ensign and Nickie McDonnell, Kappas; and Lorraine Bean, Hays.

These coeds will perform Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom in swim suit, talent and evening gown competition. The five finalists will also answer questions for the judges.

During the swim suit and evening gown divisions, the 10 coeds will model on a long ramp stretched through the middle of the Ballroom.

Entertainment between the main competition and the questioning of the finalists will be provided by Moscow's Junior Miss Idaho, Carole Farley, a vocalist.

John Mix of KRPL will narrate throughout the pageant. Climax of the evening will be crowning of the new Miss U of I by Idora Lee Moore Eldred, last year's winner.

Judges include Pullman Chamber of Commerce Secretary Irma Moser, dance instructor Joann Kising, Moscow lawyer William O'Meara and University accountant John Ikeda.

The judges will meet with the contestants at a tea tonight in the Student Union. The public will not be allowed to attend the tea.

Graduate Scholarship Is Available

Graduating seniors who will be entering a full-time graduate program in the fall of 1964 and who have at least a 3.0 accumulative grade point over the last two years are eligible for a scholarship, according to Joan Anderson, Kappa, senior class treasurer.

The $200 scholarship represents the balance remaining in the Senior Class fund, she said.

The winner of the scholarship award and an alternate will be announced in June. Payment of the scholarship will be made upon registration for graduate school in the fall of 1964.

Seniors must submit an application with a short autobiography including background, activities and future plans in addition to grade point. Applications should be taken to the Office of Student Affairs in the annex of the Administration Building before May 18.

Selection of the student winning the scholarship will be made by the University Scholarship Committee.

Anyone having questions should contact Joan Anderson at TU 2-8021 or TU 2-1310.

100 Students In 2 Bands Plan Concert Thursday

A hundred students in two bands will join forces at 8 p.m. Thursday night in the University Auditorium to play works of nine composers from the time of Handel to today's West Side Story by Bernstein.

The bands are the University Symphony Band under the direction of Phillip Coffman, and the University Concert Band, directed by David E. Seiler, both instructors of music.

Both bands recently returned from a two-day tour of Central Idaho.

The performance will mark the end of the season. The concert will feature "The

Foreign Students Will Interview

Students interested in the Foreign Student Committee interviews should sign up in the ASUI office before Wednesday. The interviews will be held in the Executive Board office of the Student Union 7 p.m. Wednesday.

The committee is not just for foreign students. Ninety per cent of the members will be American students.

Sophs Give $2,600 To Charity

A total of $2,600 obtained at the Sophomore Campus Chest will be given to charities throughout the State of Idaho and the United States according to Barbara Suter, Campbell, class treasurer.

The charities are the 1965 March of Dimes, $100; the American Red Cross, $200; American Cancer Society, $200; CARE, $100; Idaho Crippled Children, $250; the Idaho Heart Association, $250; and the Easter Seal Society, $100.

Others are Muscular Dystrophy, $100; Moscow Opportunity School, $200; the Nampa State School, $350; Red Cross Alaskan Earthquake Fund, $200; Booth Memorial Hospital of Boise, $200; World University Service, $50; and the Experiment of International Living, $150.

Board Decided Miss Suter said that the class extended board made the decision on which charity should get what amount of money.

She pointed out that the class had set a goal of $2,500. Last year the Campus Chest netted $2,100 for the charitable organizations.

"The Nampa State School was the big charity this year," she said.

"The members of the extended board could bring up any charity they wanted to receive money and then the board voted on the charities."

Commenting on the success of the Campus Chest, she said that the house auction of this year had a great deal to do with the attaining of the large amount of money.

The Ugly Man contest took in over $100, and the Can-Can contest, $120.

C. of C. Aviation Tour

11 Towns Get Flying Stops

Five planes bearing 18 Moscow Chamber of Commerce members are traveling through southern Idaho as part of an aviation tour to promote Moscow, the University and common interests throughout the state.

The three-day, eleven-community tour is a first for the Moscow chamber, according to Chamber Manager Troy Bussey, and will probably be followed next fall with a tour of northern Idaho towns.

The Chamber team left Moscow yesterday at 1 p.m. and had dinner at Boise with Gov. Robert E. Smylie, Don I. Walker, director of the budget and administration of Idaho; E. L. Mathes, assistant state highway engineer; Chet Moulton, director of the Idaho Department of Aeronautics; Rep. W. L. Mills, Ada County; and Roger McGinnis, executive vice president of the Boise Chamber.

After spending the night at Boise, the men left early this morning for breakfast with the Idaho Falls Chamber. Today's stops include Blackfoot, Pocatello, Burley, Rupert and Twin Falls.

Tomorrow the men travel to Nampa, Caldwell, Emmett, Payette, Weiser and return to Moscow.

At each stop, Chamber President Russell Short is presenting a framed certificate signed by the 18-man team as a memento. Each of the 18 men has an assignment at each stop, Bussey said.

is promoting increased use of private planes within the state to supplement West Coast Airlines service.

A primary task is encouraging the Chambers of southern Idaho to participate more fully in promotion of legislation on both the Idaho and national levels, Bussey said.

University of Idaho representatives on the team are Jim Lyle, alumni secretary; James D. Goddard, basketball coach, and Gordon Law, head of the Department of Communications. Law will show a new movie about the University, "Keystone to the Future," at each stop.

The movie, prepared by the Department of Communications, is a 15-minute, full-color, sound film which will be used extensively to recruit students and explain the University to Idahoans.

Also accompanying the Chamber members will be Rep. Harold Snow and Sen. Harold Lough Latah County state legislators.

Bussey said Snow and Lough plan visits with their southern Idaho counterparts during the tour.

Happy Slaves, by Arriaga; 'Conzong,' Mennin; 'Dramatic Essay,' Williams; 'The Royal Fireworks Music,' Mendel; 'Russian Sailor's Dance,' Gioro; 'Moorside March,' Holst; 'An Outdoor Overture,' Copland; 'West Side Story,' Bernstein; and 'King Cotton,' Sousa.

JoAnn Slade, Kappa, will be featured as cornet soloist. Miss Slade is a freshman from Moscow majoring in music.

Lee, formerly of Rigby, was graduated cum laude in 1936 from the University of Idaho with a major in agricultural economics. He also did work at the University leading to a master's degree. Mrs. Lee, the former Lillian Carlson of Pocatello, was graduated from the University of Idaho in 1933.

Since May 27, 1961, Lee has been governor of American Samoa, and in that period has undertaken imaginative programs to revitalize the economy of the South Pacific territory and to provide modern standards of education and health.

Long a backwater of American territorial administration, the territory's economy was on a subsistence level, barely adequate education was provided in totally inadequate facilities, and health services were handicapped by a dilapidated hospital with insufficient equipment.

Lee's career since graduating from the University has included organizing 4-H Club program work in Idaho. In 1942, he joined the War Relocation Authority, eventually becoming chief of the relocation division and responsible for the relocation of more than 77,000 Japanese-American evacuees of World War II. In 1949, Lee served as consultant to the United Nations on the Arab refugee problem created by the Israeli-Arab war.

From 1950 until his appointment as governor of American Samoa, Lee served as associate commissioner and subsequently as deputy commissioner of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Dr. Chaffee, president of Boise Junior College since 1936, is one of the Northwest's best known educators. He started teaching at the college in 1932, and has served it ever since.

The college has grown until it now has 92 faculty members, approximately 1,600 full-time day students and almost 2,700 night students.

Widely recognized outside the state, Chaffee has been elected

The Golden Fleece
By Jason

Why is it that the people who do the most griping about what others don't do for them, do things for others of a negative type?

Too often Jason hears the complaint that the town doesn't do anything for the students; that the students are taken advantage of; or that the Moscow citizens don't like University people. It's unwarranted.

The wonder is that the community does as much for us as it does, when one of our contributions to the area is a stunt like throwing bottles into farmers' fields.

While this may seem an odd topic for a "Fleece," look at it this way: if a bottle is heaved into a field and equipment runs over it, tires get slashed. If it stays until harvest, the equipment picks up the glass with the peas, lentils, or wheat (mostly peas) and gets caught in the machinery.

So what? So this—glass splinters, spread through the harvested crop in the equipment, and the value of the peas go down. When the peas get to the processing plant, splinters won't all come out mechanically, and to avoid losing the entire load of peas, workers have to be hired to pluck out the splinters by hand. It's expensive.

And we contribute again negatively this time to Moscow's economy. Granted, we do spend some three million dollars here every year, but that doesn't give us license to ruin crops. Besides which, pitching our empties is impolite.

Seriously speaking, think about what the town is trying to do to improve relations with the campus—KRPL strives to support campus activities of all kinds with special coverage; businesses buy ads in the Arg even though the students are a captive buying public; Davids' Department Store sponsors a style show to give the Miss U of I contestants a larger viewing audience and publicize Friday's pageant; the Chamber of Commerce sponsors dances, provides dinners and housing for the international students programs, and provides moral support. These are random samplings of what the town does for us—hopefully the rest who have helped us will understand why there isn't room to print a full list.

Speaking of the Chamber, it is currently touring the southern end of the state to inform Idahoans down yonder about Moscow, the University, and economic problems affecting the entire state. Note the "informing" about the University.

And who gave the University the carillon? A Moscow family, the Davids.

Perhaps you still aren't convinced of the unflattering image those beer bottles in farmers' fields lend us. Convinced or not, the bottles are there. Granted, students probably didn't put all of them in the fields, but chances are they helped.

Compliment for the day: Tory Nelson for his outstanding work with Independent living groups, his leadership in campus politics, and his attitude toward his University.

Carillon Dedication Tops Off Mothers' Weekend

Through the wind and the rain University students and people of Moscow heard the dedication concert of the David Memorial Carillon Sunday.

This was a gift to the University from the David family of Moscow in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. David. Professor Hall M. Macklin, head of the Music Department, presided at the dedication ceremonies.

Homer David made the presentation on behalf of the Davids. He said

David Presents
"The David family is indebted to the University for many years. Originally, our father and mother were influenced in settling in Moscow in 1889 because it was to become the home of the University of Idaho. The first of the children, my sister Verna, enrolled at the University in 1896."

"With children's children entering the University, there were Davids at the institution for 45 years. We are proud of the University and its record of achievement."

In accepting the carillon on behalf of the University, President D. R. Theophilus, pointed out that the "outstanding memorial would not only be of lasting enjoyment to those of the University community but to all the people of Moscow — as far as the sounds of the bells carry."

Klein Plays
John Klein, Princeton, N.J., one of the world's best known carillonists, gave the recital for the dedication ceremonies. Klein, who was the official carillonist for the Seattle World's Fair, played three recitals daily on the world's largest carillon, the 538-bell Schulermerich "Carillon Americana" located on the Space Needle.

The bells at the University every hour from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Sundays.

Hourly Chiming
The hourly chiming starts with the Westminster peal which is emitted by Big Ben in London, then the University's carillon strokes the hour. At the end of each day, the Alma Mater is played.

The David Memorial Carillon is a modern musical instrument with three sets of bells. One set of 61 bells is tuned to European Flemish standards, one set to Harp standards and the third set includes 61 Celesta bells. The carillon had been practiced with earlier in the week to determine its tone quality from the speakers in the Administration Building tower.

"Can I help it if our Spring cruise fund is low?"

Are They Worth It?

A question that arises every year on the Idaho campus is "Are class officers really necessary?"

There is only one answer to this question—yes.

A recent announcement by the Sophomore Class stated that the class had obtained $2,600 to be given to charity. This money was obtained through the Sophomore-sponsored Campus Chest.

Possibly a committee appointed by the Executive Board could have done the same fine job as the Sophomore class officers, but the element of time would have taken its toll of the effectiveness of such a body.

The Sophomores were planning this event from the beginning of the school year. A lot of time and effort went into it. They were elected by the students in their class to perform this function, they saw the responsibility, met the challenge and won.

A class officer is more than just a figurehead. He or she does have a responsibility. This responsibility is not only to the class and the University but to the officer himself.

The training for this responsibility does not start when he takes office, it occurs long before then.

First there is the campaign for the office. Challenges are met. They are sometimes won; sometimes lost. But the leadership and training is still taking place.

Then here is the election, and the attaining of the position. A new challenge is approaching. The classes have specific events to run. The Sophomore Campus Chest is just one of many such events.

We are at the University for an education. Since when is not the attaining of leadership part of our college education?

But there is one point to ponder. Should the Freshman Class elect officers the first semester? Statistics show that the Freshmen officers have a tendency to flunk out of their officerships.

In 1961 all four of the frosh officers were removed from office due to poor grades. One of the officers missed the required 2.2 by eight tenths of a grade point, but he was removed. This year two of the officers were removed.

The ASUI Executive Board would have to make some type of ruling on this if anything were to be done. A petition could also be sent around with ten per cent of the students signing it to amend the ASUI constitution, but that was tried once and the student body defeated the proposed amendment on the ballot.

Last year the student body showed that they thought class officers were necessary. Every year during the political campaigns the issue comes up, but except for last year nothing is done about it.

Even though the student body did pass an amendment stating that there will be a combined secretary-treasurer, the officers remain, and rightfully so. J. F.

Us And Them

Lodge won over Johnson — again. Last weekend, as at the University of Idaho in March, U.S. Ambassador to South Vietnam Henry Cabot Lodge defeated President Lyndon Baines Johnson for the number one spot on a bipartisan ticket. Site of this convention was Washington State University.

However, Lodge won at the U of I on the second ballot by 647 to 548. At WSU he acquired 553 on the sixth ballot — just six more than the 547 required to win.

At WSU time ran out before they got to nominating a vice presidential candidate. At Idaho time ran out, but the convention kept moving and nominated Republican Minority Leader Everett S. Dirksen. Dirksen wasn't nominated at all at WSU.

Other WSU candidates were Richard Nixon, Senators Barry Goldwater and Margaret Chase Smith, Governors Nelson A. Rockefeller, William Scranton and Edmund Brown, and Hugh M. Hefner, editor of "Playboy".

The Hefner incident (he was nominated as a progressive liberal) was one of the more entertaining moments of the convention—especially the five-foot banner of a nude and "Playboy" fold-outs. The fellow making the nominating speech was escorted by two bunnies in costume.

We lacked bunnies, but perhaps we were better off for not having them. Entertaining though they may be, they have little place at a national convention to nominate a President.

On the whole, however, the WSU convention was a better done job than that of the U of I.

They started organizing theirs last fall with meetings of national committees for physical arrangements and sneakers, plus starting on platform planks. By semester time, they were ready for the resolutions committee to begin serious meetings. They wound up with individual sub-committees for each plank.

Especially on the platform end of it, Idaho got off to a somewhat later start. We wound up with general bull sessions the couple of weeks before the convention to formulate a platform. The complexity of the WSU platform as contrasted with ours shows the results.

The U of I platform called for a balanced budget, strongly manned military force, Medicare, limited federal aid to education, and continued price supports.

The WSU platform, here listed only in sketch form, included planks recommending Federal aid to education, war on poverty, continued efficiency in the budget, income tax reduction, selective free trade, a decrease in Federal control on modes of transportation, more regularity in the National Labor Relations Board, support of the Taft-Hartley bill, extension of the fields covered by the minimum wage law, cooperation among the Federal, state and local government in conservation, federal flood control, return to a free farm market as rapidly as possible, support of the United Nations, and favor of disarmament.

The three major items voted out of the final WSU platform were Medicare, increased recognition of Red China, and continuation of the current farm policy.

However, both schools' organizational groups for the conventions did a good job overall. Each had to overcome the unrealistic situation of a bi-partisan convention in which Republican was pitted against Democrat for the Presidential slot. Each gave its students a chance to feel, see, and hear a political convention. Each was necessary. K.P.

On Music Box

On The Other Hand...
by Jim Faucher

This week the Music Box will feature Kalle Jergensen, Kappa, playing the saxophone. There will also be a jazz group called the Jaguars.

Also performing for the show on KUID-TV at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday will be a folk singing trio called the "Unnamed Ones."

After the Music Box there will be a show entitled "Progressive Norway."

Ring a ding, bong a dong, and bong bong (if its 2 p.m.), the carillons are ringing.

Ever since these electronic marvels were installed at the top of the Administration Building people have griped, praised and some have even written about them.

The biggest controversy that has arisen is that they are annoying for anyone wishing to study on the hours the bells start to peal. Given a little more time, it would be a safe bet that the students studying won't even hear them.

The David Memorial Carillon adds a touch to this campus that it has lacked for many years. The sound of bells, even though transmitted electronically, adds that touch called the "Ivy League Look."

This carillon get-up, set-up, or whatever you really want to call it, is the second largest in the Northwest. Only the carillon at the Seattle World's Fair surpasses ours. Now, doesn't that make you feel important?

Everything from Harp bells, and Flemish standard bells to Celesta bells are included. I wonder if they have any tinker bells?

"Oh, they just send chills up and down my spine!" remarked an Idaho coed. That may be true, but they also have some people climbing the walls.

Hall M. Macklin, head of the Department of Music told this reporter that the atmosphere has a great deal to do with the carrying of the fine tones of the bells to the world. Macklin said that the wind is the greatest factor which can distort the tones.

All in all, the carillons are a

Theodore Prichard Elected As Fellow
By American Institute Of Architects

Professor Theodore J. Prichard, head of the Department of Art and Architecture, was recently elected to the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Architects.

The honor, the highest bestowed on corporate members, was granted for service to the field of education. Citations are made in several areas — to the institute, to education, public service and in design.

The college, an organization within the parent organization, is made up of elected fellows. Investiture will take place at the final banquet of the institute at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel, St. Louis, June 18.

Minnesota Grad

Prichard was graduated from the University of Minnesota, and took four years of graduate work in the Graduate School of Design at Harvard. He holds the master's degree in architecture from that university. ### Lady Ag Editor Will Tell U-I Journalists Of Job 'Fun'

Mrs. Elmer H. Erickson, extension information specialist at Washington State University, will tell journalists how to select a job that is "fun" at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Russet Room of the Student Union Building.

She is being sponsored by the Idaho chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism society, as one of a series of speakers on journalism and related fields.

Same As Dick
"I do the same thing at WSU as Dick d'Easum (his official title is assistant extension editor) does at the University of Idaho," Mrs. Erickson said in a telephone interview Monday, "which is to say that I write news releases and news letters which go out to extension agents and news media. The releases contain news of findings in agriculture, statistics and other information of interest to farmers."

Mrs. Erickson, a member of the WSU chapter of Theta Sig, graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 1938 with a master's degree in journalism. Her undergraduate work was in English and French. She was born in Arkansas and grew up in Oklahoma.

'A Natural Step'
"I've been writing agriculture, home economics and 4-H stories since 1939," she said, "when I became the assistant educational extension agent in Little Rock, Ark. I grew up on a farm, so it seemed like a natural step."

Her work there included both newspaper and radio work. In 1944, she became an information specialist for the United States Department of Agriculture where she worked until she came to Washington in 1947.

"Her lecture is open to the public," Kip Peterson, Theta Sig president said Monday, "and the Theta Sigs extend a special invitation to members of Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary."

Tri Deltas Hold Initiation, Sneak

Newly initiated members of Theta Tau chapter of Delta Delta Delta are Betty Lou Bensen, Joanna Hunkel Galagher, Margaret A. Rohrman, and Carol Sue Werry.

Tri Delta housemother Mrs. Kathleen Zweck was initiated into membership upon the recommendation of the national office of Delta Delta Delta.

Tri Delta pledges held a sneak Wednesday, going to the arboretum for a hot dog roast and later to a movie.

A mother-daughter fireside was held Friday evening after Song Fest.

A white candle entwined with red rose buds was passed a mother's fireside at the Pi Phi house Saturday evening. After Sally Jo Isaacson read a poem, Mrs. Isaacson announced the engagement of her daughter to Paul Henden, Phi Tau.

HERRON-LOFHOLM
A white candle entwined with red carnations with a ring was passed at Wednesday evening dress dinner at Campbell Hall. Becky Tridle, Alpha Phi, announced the engagement of Judy Herron, Campbell, to Larry Lofholm, Shoup.

An early September wedding is planned.

MANNING-ALLEN
"We met last summer in Alaska, vacationed and were secretly pinned in Florida over spring vacation and were engaged today in New Hampshire," said Hugh Allen, Beta in announcing his engagement to Carol Manning of Littleton, New Hampshire.

WHITE-WALLACE
A pink candle entwined with pink and white carnations was passed at a recent Campbell house meeting. Lynda Telcher, Campbell, then announced the pinning to Carol White, Campbell, to Howard Wallace, Lindley.

Shakespeare's 'Henry V' Is SUB Film

"Henry V" will be this weekend's SUB film at the Borah Theater, according to Robert Andery, SUB film committee chairman.

Movement Art Demonstrated By 2 Groups

Movement as an art was demonstrated by two University groups over the Mother's Day weekend. The Orchesis dance team and the Helldivers swim group presented a total of five shows of rhythmic movement.

The three shows of the Helldivers were attended by about 300 people each. The displays of synchronized swimming featured a human fish, complete with fins and a bride in a bridal gown.

The theme of the show was "Swimming Through the Year." Each of the nine acts portrayed an event associated with a month of the year. Some of the ideas used in the show were added by the group after a visit to the Seattle Aquatics Arts Festival.

The Orchesis program was called "Out of the Subconscious." The two shows Saturday night were presented through the combined efforts of the members of Orchesis, Pre-Orchesis, and the advanced dance class.

Thirteen dances were included in the program using various themes, moods, and patterns.

AN OPEN LETTER

TO THE YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN OF SOUTHAMPTON'S DEBUTANTE PARTY

WE READ A STATEMENT in the press made by one of the young defendants after the court case involving alleged damages at a debutante party in Southampton, Long Island: "Everyone knows there is too much drinking in this country, but what can you do about it? Everybody knows the morals of this country are going down the drain."

WE THE UNDERSIGNED believe we have the answer to the young man's question. We believe it is time our generation stopped self-righteously deploring this state of the nation or irresponsibly contributing to it. The time has come to change it.

WE REPRESENT hundreds of young Americans across the nation who have committed their lives to create a new society in America and the world with the global program of Moral Re-Armament.

WE ARE IN REVOLT against a society which creates the climate of immaturity that leads to such a debacle and to such a cynical statement. We have got to stop it.

WE ARE IN REVOLT against the gutlessness of "good" Americans who lack the courage to explode the corruption existing in all levels of our society, who sit silently while one woman forces God out of our schools, who permit men committed to atheism and anti-God to proceed unchecked, who proclaim one set of standards and live another.

WE ARE IN REVOLT against the line of the "new morality" which is forced down our throats by books, magazines, television, films, professors and some churchmen. Sex, violence, lust and godlessness are taking over the nation. When venereal disease among young Americans rises 130% between the years 1956 and 1961, when 13,000,000 children come from broken homes—who is responsible? We are.

WHERE ARE THE YOUNG AMERICANS who will pay the price in their own lives to stand up for what is right in the country? Where are the fighting Americans who will cure the hatred, bitterness, impurity and selfishness which divide families, destroy races, deaden youth, split nations?

THE FREE WORLD looks to us for leadership. The captive world looks to us to make freedom a reality again. We know that if America fails the world fails.

WE ARE OUT TO BUILD A NATION where families teach mankind how to live together, where industry—management and labor—teach the whole world how to work together, where all races, colors and classes learn together with all nations how to lead the whole world forward. We are out to create a force of young Americans more dedicated to building a world that works than any Communist or materialist. We will create an America to whom the whole world will turn and say, "That is the way men are meant to live."

WE BELIEVE IN MODERN AMERICA. We believe she will rise to the challenge of the times. We believe she will demonstrate the great reality that free men will accept of their own accord the discipline to be governed by God, so that millions on the earth will never be ruled by tyrants.

THE CHALLENGE facing the American youth is not to go backward to the decadence that destroyed the Roman Empire, but to go forward to the revolution of Moral Re-Armament.

WE CAN REBUILD THE MODERN WORLD. Let us go forward to absolute moral standards for all men everywhere: absolute honesty, purity, unselfishness and love, not as an end in themselves, but as a means for giving us the energy, the maturity, the responsibility, the clarity that will take humanity forward to the next stage in human evolution.

THREE THOUSAND OF US are meeting this summer in a Conference for Tomorrow's America at the Moral Re-Armament Center, Mackinac Island, Michigan, to shoulder that task together. We invite every young American who has the courage and spirit to care for his nation and the future of mankind to join us.

Stickmen Face Busy Week Against Ducks

It will be a busy week for the Idaho baseball Vandals as they compete in two leagues with at least four games billed in four days this week. Coach Wayne Anderson's charges host Oregon on Wednesday and Thursday in Northern Division play. With softball in its third week of competition and horseshoes in its second week, the ATOs have taken over top intramural position by a lead of one-half point over the next highest group, Willis Sweet Hall.

The ATOs, with 157½ points, hold the lead over Willis Sweet with 157 points. In third position is Sigma Alpha Epsilon with 154 points and Beta Theta Pi holds fourth with 152 points.

In Monday's softball action, second place Willis Sweet edged Borah Hall 6-5; Lindley Hall downed Gault Hall two 19-4, and Willis Sweet two batted out an 18-7 victory over Borah Hall two.

Winners in Monday's horseshoes were Johnstone, Chrisman Hall; Dewey, LDS House; Sterns, Sigma Chi; Bower, Kappa Sig; Vernon, Campus Club; Corrigan, Fji and Havorka, SAE.

In Thursday's horseshoe competition, winners were Sharp, Fji; Mattin, ATO; Fridley, Kappa Sig; Fong, Upham; Mabe, Willis Sweet; Peterson, Gault; Barclay, Beta and Wolf, SAE.

Intramural softball is scheduled to end May 26.

Championships

U-I Golfers, Baseballers Favored

Idaho will shoot for four Big Sky conference championships this weekend when the Vandals invade Missoula for the first annual spring sports conference championships.

The Vandals will be favored in baseball and golf, but the track and tennis teams will be in a battle to pick up any hardware. Coach Wayne Anderson's baseball team swept to an 8-0 record against Montana and Gonzaga and will meet the winner of the Idaho State-Weber State series on Friday afternoon and Saturday in a best of three playoffs.

The golf team has dumped Gonzaga and Montana and will be putting a 10-2 season mark on the line. Coach Dick Snyder's swingers tune up on the Montana course in a match with the host Silvertips on Thursday.

The track team has split in two meets against Big Sky foes. They beat Montana and were tipped by Montana State. One heavy favorite will be Max Leetow in the discus. The Los Altos, Calif., strongboy tossed the platter 196-9 in a meet last weekend.

Tennis

Coach Marsh Reynolds sends a green net squad into action in the championships. The Vandals, with fresh playing the first and second spots, have beaten Montana, but lost twice to Gonzaga in a Big Sky play.

The conference playoffs end the track season, but the golfers have two more matches. The tennis crew hosts the Far West playoffs, and the baseball crew has a pair against Washington State remaining.

A LITTLE GLORY — A lineman seldom gets the glory of the backs, but Head Football Coach Dee Andros and members of his staff praised the efforts of 6 foot, 190 pound junior guard Dave Triplett for his action Saturday in the third full scale Vandal scrimmage.

Vandals Begin Next-To-Final Practice Week

The Idaho Vandals went into the next to the last week of spring football practice with passes filling the air.

Coach Dee Andros topped his two-hour scrimmage session with a 20-minute intrasquad passing game. The defense was called on to cover the passing game as quarterbacks Mike Monahan, Joe Rodriguez, John Foruria, Jerry Ahlin and Larry Sappington fired the ball to ends and halfbacks.

Andros plans to split his squad by Thursday for the annual Picnic Bowl series that begins Saturday morning.

The squad will be divided into two teams under the direction of assistants Dick Monroe and John Easterbrook. They will play a two-game series and the team scoring the most points will be the guest of the losers following the May 23 game. Monroe has lost the last two clashes.

Andros plans to hold a regular workout on Wednesday, but Thursday the teams will begin to practice as units and will

Vandals Score Net Turn-about

A doubles victory by Lee Takahashi and Scott Rustay was the lone win for the Vandals in net action against the Washington Huskies, here Saturday.

Rustay and Takahashi defeated Nick Uaylin and Mike Green 7-5 and 6-3 in a bit of turnaround play. Lapin defeated Rustay and Green defeated Takahashi earlier in the day in the singles play.

The Washington team took the meet 8-1.

Tracksters Downed By WSU

A new meet record in the discus was one of the few bright spots for the Idaho track squad as it lost a dual meet to Washington State University 110-35 Saturday.

Junior Max Leetow sailed the discus 169 feet 9 inches and broke the old WSU record of 156 feet set in 1956 by WSU's Steve Frye.

Leetow's record throw was the only victory for the Idaho squad but Coach Doug MacFarlane noted that six of his Vandal tracksters made their best efforts of the year.

Among those bettering previous efforts were Joe Chapman with 22 feet 8½ in the broad jump for third, Zura Goodpaster with a second place 15.5 seconds in the high hurdles and third place 440 hurdle time of 58.8.

Nils Jebson turned in his best effort of the year in the 880 finishing the race in 1 minute 53.6 seconds for second place. Nick Carnefix and Dick Borneman also bettered earlier times. Carnefix came home in 22.1 seconds in the 220 for second place and Borneman took second in the 440 hurdles with 55.3.

Regional Track Here Saturday

Wallace High School is expected to post the best mark in the North Idaho Regional track meet here Saturday, according to University of Idaho Track Coach Doug MacFarlane.

Expected to pace the Wallace team is Jim Schiller who was a three-way winner in the District 1 meet Saturday at Coeur d'Alene. Schiller won the 100 yard dash in 10 seconds, the 220 in 22 flat and the 440 in 50.4.

North Idaho high schools from areas north of Grangeville will compete in the meet. Individual winners will qualify for the State meet later this month. Meet time is 12:30 p.m.

Big Sky Championships

Sports wise this weekend is one of the biggest of the year for the Vandals. Big Sky Conference championships will draw Idaho baseball, golf, tennis and track teams to Missoula.

In baseball and golf, we're favored over our Big Sky opponents. The Vandal linksters meet Montana State University Thursday and Friday on the Missoula course to decide the title. As of yet our opponent in the baseball contest Saturday is undecided.

Idaho State and Weber were scheduled to play a play-off double header Saturday at Ogden. The weather saw that they didn't. The game is rescheduled for tomorrow. If the two southern area teams split the deciding game will be played in Pocatello Thursday.

For A Picnic

Also this weekend is the beginning of the third annual picnic bowl football series. The picnic Bowl replaced the annual spring alumni game when Dee Andros came to Idaho.

Andros innovated the two game series between the two halves of the football lineup for several reasons. Among them, expense and possible injury to a returning alum.

The Bowl offers tangible rewards to the winning side and a chance for Vandal fans to see how next fall's team will look. Winning coaches and team are the guests of the losing coaches and team at a steak fry and bean feed. The losing side prepares the meal for the more fortunate winners.

Spring practice this week Andros will divide his squad into two teams for the annual contest.

Even The Coach

When the track team was in Boise two weeks ago the weather and a case of the measles fouled them up. Even the coaches aren't immune to letting illness slow them down. Last night tennis coach Marsh Reynolds spent the night in the infirmary. Reynolds is expected to be released today.

Two Gridders Sign For '64

A pair of talented gridders will don the silver and gold of Idaho this fall, Coach Dee Andros said today.

All-state quarterback Paul Gentle of Boise will enroll as a freshman this fall. Tackle Kent Smith from undefeated Columbia Basin college in Pasco will join the varsity this fall as a junior.

- I've decided on the kind of job I want when I graduate.
- I hadn't thought of those specifically. What I had in mind was a job where they give you a lot of assistants. I think that would be nice.
- Well, I did run an extremely successful Nickel-a-Pickle sale.
- You think maybe I should lower my sights a little.
- I'd be willing to settle for a vice-presidency.
- You really have a way of seeing through a problem.

Knowing you, I'd guess it to be something modest—like Secretary of State or President of GE.

Very nice. Maybe they could start you off at a hundred grand a year.

Look—why don't you see if you can qualify for one of Equitable's executive training programs. The work is interesting, the pay is good. And if you prove you have the ability, you may very well end up with a title and a couple of assistants.
