LBJ Signs Pay Raise For ROTC

University of Idaho ROTC officials received formal notification yesterday that a bill authorizing a pay raise and a ROTC scholarship program has been signed by President Johnson.

The bill provides for advanced course retainer pay of not less than $40 or more than $50 per month for the period of enrollment, not to exceed twenty months. Retainer pay for the Army and Air Force is now 90 cents per day.

The bill, pertaining to Army, Navy and Air Force units, requires that the students involved enlist in a reserve component for a period prescribed by the Secretary of their respective services.

Programs are provided on both a two and four-year basis, to be decided by the units and institutions involved. A scholarship program similar to the Navy regular program is available to specially selected students in the four-year programs, and these students may be appointed cadets in a Reserve component. Scholarship students must agree to serve on active duty for four years or more.

Summer camp pay of $120.60 per month, the rate prescribed for cadets and midshipmen at the service academies is authorized, as well as pay at the basic camp for the two-year course of $78.00 per month.

Col. James Rimlinger, Professor of Military Science at the University said that the Board of Regents and the academic council will have to decide whether the two or four program, or both, will be offered at Idaho.

"Personally, I am an advocate of the four year program," Rimlinger said. "However, I am very happy to see the two year program instigated, as it will provide an opportunity for transfer students and others who did not participate in ROTC during their first two years in college to enroll in the program," he added.

President Johnson, in announcing his signing of the "Reserve Officers Training Corps revitalization act of 1963," said that the ROTC program dates back more than a century, and has trained many, many thousands of our young men in the leadership so necessary in the three major conflicts in (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

WWFC Tea Draws 230

A tea sponsored by the Woodrow Wilson Scholarship Fellowship Committee was attended by 230 students and faculty members, Sunday, according to Dr. Boyd A. Martin, Dean of the College of Letters and Sciences and chairman of the committee.

The students, from L & S and related fields, have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better.

Faculty members invited were advisors, chairmen, and department heads of all the academic fields and their wives, as well as President and Mrs. D. R. Theophilus and Vice-President for Academic Affairs and Mrs. H. Walter Steffens.

Also present were Dr. Gladys I. Bellinger, head of the Home Economics Department, and Mrs. Theodore J. Pritchard.

Dr. Martin spoke briefly to the group, pointing out the importance of education in "depth and breadth." His subject was preparation for graduate school and for excellence in future work.

The tea was held Sunday at 4 p.m. in the north ballroom of the SUB.

Dr. Martin said he was "very pleased" with the number of students present. Out of approximately 1845 students in L & S, 250 were eligible for the tea this year, he said.

New Party Organizes, C-CAP Unveils Program

C-CAP, A second but as yet unofficial campus party met Sunday afternoon to organize and introduce living groups to its program, according to Pat Cobb, Hays, temporary chairman.

Twenty living groups were represented at the first meeting of the Cross-Campus Alliance Party, as it has tentatively been named.

C-Cap, Cross-Campus Alliance Party, as the party has been tentatively named, will vote itself into being at a meeting Thursday, according to Pat Cobb, Hays, temporary party chairman.

Not Reviving United
"We are interested in forming a new cross-campus political party which will include segments from as many living groups as possible," said Miss Cobb. "This is not an attempt to revive the old United Party (dissolved last year from lack of support) nor is it being organized to attack Campus Union Party, but we know that to generate interest and activity in campus politics a second party is a necessity.

We have Greek support, for they are without a political home," Miss Cobb said, "but members of the fraternity-sorority system do not want another completely Greek party. Our major goal at this time is to gain additional independent strength," she said.

Anyone interested in the new party is invited to attend the meeting Thursday night in the Borah Theatre at 7:30 p.m., said Miss Cobb.

New Officers

The meeting Sunday also selected Gary Mahn, Sigma Nu, vice chairman; Jan Wendler, Gamma Phi, secretary; and Larry French, Lindley, and Warren Yeakel, Lambda Chi and Kent Taylor, Beta.

A constitution, convention and membership committee were also appointed. Sue Rasmussen, Kappa, will head the constitution committee. Larry French is chairman of the membership committee.

The convention committee members are Mary Gladhart, Gamma Phi; Jeff Anderson, Lindley; Pat Bair, Alpha Phi; Warren Yeakel, Lambda Chi and Kent Taylor, Beta.

Class Elections Set — J. Council Rules Oct. 28

Class elections were set for Oct. 28, Wednesday, when Judicial Council ruled that the constitutional requirement that elections be held five weeks after the opening of school meant five weeks after classes began.

The case, brought before the Council because of confusion as to the legal date of elections, was argued by Bill Longeteig and Tom Lynch, both second year law students.

Longeteig, arguing for Larry Nye, ASUI vice president, said that the beginning of school should be counted from the first Monday after classes began. He cited four court cases to show that a partial week did not normally count as a week, and that a week normally began on a Monday.

Lynch, representing Nancy Grubb, Executive Board member, said that the beginning of school should be counted from the first official day of school according to the academic calendar, which set the first day of school as the day before registration begins.

The ASUI Constitution, in section four, clause 1, under article five, says that "Election date for class officers shall be the fifth week following the beginning of fall semester."

If Lynch and Miss Grubb had won their case, the elections would have to have been held Oct. 21, one week earlier.

Partisanship Is Subject Of Democratic Candidate

Partisanship in local elections is more important than most people realize, said Peter Leriget, Moscow Democratic candidate for Latah County Prosecuting Attorney, at the Young Democrats' meeting last week.

Leriget spoke to members of the campus organization at their weekly meeting.

The group is making preparations for campus activities during the remainder of the election campaign.

We tend to associate party stands with national issues, he said, while these stands must come from the "grassroots," or local level, where the effects of the vote are more keenly felt.

He told the group that in our "zeal for national politics," we often ignore local issues where the vote has the most influence.

Two university members of the organization, Roy Haney and Wayne Cornell, Gault, have been elected to the office of vice president of districts one and three, respectively, in the state Young Democrats organization.

The club has pledged its assistance in disseminating campaign literature in conjunction with the party's Central Committee.

Pep Rally Is Set For Fri. At 7

First introduction of the new Homecoming queen will be Friday, 7 p.m. at a pep rally at MacLean Field.

The traditional pep rally, which kicks off Homecoming weekend celebration this year, will also feature 100 freshman girls, who will make their initial appearance as the Idaho Century Club.

The Century Club will provide card sections, welcomes for visiting teams and work with Vandal Rally Committee throughout the year.

Additional billing for the pep rally includes Dee Andros and the Vandals. Each of the starters and the coaching staff will be introduced. Also on hand will be Dean Miller, alumni president.

Fireworks and a twirling fire performance by the three varsity twirlers are planned to add to the night show. In addition, competition between living groups for the best cheering section is planned at the rally.

The rally, traditionally held on the corner by the baseball bleachers, at MacLean Field, will be shifted to the southeast corner near the radio-TV center. The baseball bleachers were removed during the summer and the area where they had been located has been seeded with grass.

Preceding the rally, Spurs and pom pom girls will lead freshmen women through men's living groups in the annual pajama parade.

ASAE to Hold Region Meet

Pacific Northwest region of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers will hold its annual convention Wednesday through Saturday at Vancouver, B.C.

Those attending from the University include John Dixon, associate professor of agricultural engineering; C. E. Lampman, professor of poultry science; and five agricultural engineering students, all juniors: Bob Haynes and Ed Stains, off-campus; John Brune, Gault; Merle Gibbons, Upham; and Al Vernon, Campus Club.

The convention will be held next year at the University of Idaho under the chairmanship of Dixon.

BLOW THAT HORN — Johnny Reitz will be playing his trumpet Saturday at 9:00 p.m. in the SUB Ballroom as he and his orchestra play for Moonlight Over Idaho, the 1964 Homecoming Dance.

Idaho, WSU To Discuss Fifth Quarter Activities

The problem of possible fifth quarter activities will be taken up by the Executive Board and Washington State University's Board of Control at a dinner meeting tonight in the SUB Gold Room.

Discussions on how to prevent possible fifth quarter activities will be led by Jim Johnston, ASUI president and Dave Warren, ASWSU president.

"This year we are especially interested in preventing such activities with Idaho's excellent chances of winning," Johnston said.

He pointed out that it has been several years since fifth quarter activities have been added to the annual battle of the Palouse. But it is always a possibility and a problem to be prevented in advance, he said.

38 From WSU

About 38 representatives from WSU and Idaho are expected to attend the meeting, including 14 of WSU's 17 member Board of Control members and at least three WSU faculty personnel.

Faculty advisors from WSU who will attend include Dr. Matthew Carey, Compton Union director, and Dr. Murray Markland and Dr. Henry Reitan, BOC advisors, according to Warren. Warren also said that Washington State Dean of Men, J. C. Clevinger, may also attend.

Idaho will be represented by the 11 executive board members and AWS president Carol Hussa, Hays, and Argonaut editor Fred Freeman. Sigma Chi, Faculty representatives from Idaho will be Maun Rudisill, ASUI program director; Dr. Arthur Gittins, Executive Board advisor; Gale Mix, ASUI general manager and Mrs. Richard Farnsworth, SUB assistant manager.

The meeting will take the place of the regular executive board meeting.

"100" Club Begins Work

The newly organized Century Club, athletic representative, finished interviews late last night, with a total of 175 applicants, according to Bob Stanfield, Campus Club, Activities Council Public Relations Director.

Acting as an over-all representative, the club, which will be narrowed to 70 members, plans to serve as a nucleus to arouse student interest in athletics on campus, Stanfield said.

It already plans to be prepared to function during this football season; sitting in a section at the games as a pep club and card section.

The club will also serve to arouse interest in pre-game Vandal Rallies, going from house to house to make announcements and gain support.

As well as major sports, such as football and basketball, the club also plans to focus attention upon the little known campus sports such as tennis, swimming, track and skiing.

Blue Key Forms Deadline Today

Applications for membership in Blue Key are due today by 4 p.m. in the ASUI office for a membership committee meeting.

A number of people have already applied for the honorary organization, but the tapping date will not be decided until all applications are in, according to Jim Faucher, Sigma Chi, member of the membership committee.

RHA Interviewing For Disciplinary Board

Residence Hall Association of officers will be interviewing at 7 o'clock for members of the new Residence Hall Association Disciplinary Board, Bob Marley, vice president, said Monday.

Interviews will be in the RHA office in the Wallace Complex. Questions, he said, will center around past activities of the applicant, and on the Disciplinary Board By-Laws, which have been printed and sent to each hall.

Two women and two men will be selected to serve as regular members of the Disciplinary Board. Two alternate members will also be appointed. Board chairman will be RHA vice president. The four regular members will have votes, and the chairman will vote in case of a tie.

The body, which is intended to review and decide disputes between two or more residence halls, to hear individual disciplinary problems relating to general hall regulations, and to review all appeals of disciplinary decisions of individual residence hall judicial bodies, also plans to hear cases referred to it by the Dean of Women or by the Head Counsellor of Men's Residence Halls.

Appeals of decisions made by the group will be handled by Student Judicial Council.

Membership requirements include: junior or senior standing, a minimum cumulative grade point of 2.20, and residence in a hall when selected.

The terms of office are for one year.

'U' Royalty To Attend Pep Rally

The name of the new Homecoming queen will be announced Friday in the Homecoming edition of the Argonaut. She will be making her first appearance as royalty Friday at 7 p.m. at the rally at MacLean Field.

Voting was conducted in the men's living groups Monday and in the SUB lobby from 12:15 to 1 p.m. for off campus men.

The new monarch and her court will ride the Alpha Chi and Upham float in the parade Saturday morning. That afternoon she and her court will be introduced during half-time of the football game.

Music and pageantry will be featured in the plans for half time. Two bands will provide entertainment for the parents, alumni, and students attending the game. As guests, the Washington State Band will play first, followed by the performance of the University Marching Band under the direction of Philip Coffman. The varsity twirlers will twirl as the band presents its numbers. Jim Johnston, ASUI president, FarmHouse, will welcome participants in Homecoming and introduce the Homecoming chairman.

The 1964 Homecoming Queen will be introduced by Dean Miller, alumni president who will be introduced by Homecoming Chairman, Joyce Arthur, Tri Delta. The alumni president will crown the queen with a tiara which is handed over from year to year. The queen and her court will be presented an arm bouquet of red roses and driven around the football field in convertibles. Other presentations which will be made are the presentation of the I Blanket to the Outstanding Vandal Booster, which will precede the crowning of the queen.

The queen will make her last appearance at the Homecoming Dance "Moonlight Over Idaho" beginning 9:00 to 1:00 a.m. Coeds have been granted permission by Dean Marjorie Neely due to the dance program.

He and his group will present a four-hour show consisting of various kinds of music during which he will use special lighting effects. Tickets for this dance can be obtained in the ASUI office and Spors and IK will be visiting living groups today and Wednesday to advertise the dance and to sell tickets. Price of the tickets are $2 per couple. During intermission of the dance, the Homecoming queen and her court will be presented their individual trophies, and the queen will receive the alumni traveling trophy and a trophy for her living group. The three winners of the float competition will be presented trophies during intermission.

Pre-game activities will add both youth and maturity to the Homecoming agenda. The University men's Marching Group, the Vandalettes will perform, led by Pat Cobb, Drill Master.

Hays, followed by the welcome of the alumni who attended Idaho when the Vandals won the last games with WSU in 1954, 1924, 1925, and 1926.

Voter Responsibility?

Arguments for lowering the voting age to 18 don't sound too convincing when people realize the political lethargy common among college-age students.

Alfred Balk, in a book showing recent voter trends, provided statistics that only 52 per cent of people in their 20's cast a ballot in a recent presidential election. This compared with a total vote of 82 per cent of eligible American voters in their 60's casting their ballot.

But such is not surprising. Yesterday, in a quick poll of one of the campus living groups, nearly 75 percent of the residents did not know who their state legislators were from their own counties.

In a poll, covering a broader field at Montana State University last week, even more amazing results were uncovered. Of 30 people interviewed, 12 did not know the name of the Republican vice presidential nominee, and 11 did not know that Hubert Humphrey was the Democratic choice for the second spot.

Shocking results? At least it seems to indicate that our leaders of tomorrow are not well prepared to accept the responsibility of their positions. Why?

We are not pointing an accusing finger at Idaho because we are not fully armed with the statistics on how the University fits into the pattern. Idaho as a state has indeed shown very well on the percentage of votes cast in recent elections. But as we near the election time statistics like these should remind us all of the job that still lies ahead.

As students we often become too engrossed in academic, extracurricular and social activities. Too often we lose sight of state, national and world issues affecting our every-day lives. It seems that too few of us take the time to thoroughly read our daily newspapers each day.

With the presidential election only three weeks away, it's time that we more carefully prepared to exercise our responsibility.

"Today, this vital program constitutes the largest single source of trained officers not just for the Reserves, but for the regular forces as well," said Johnson.

"I am convinced that the bill I have approved today will bring about a marked improvement in the ROTC programs being conducted in our colleges and universities, and I congratulate the Congress for the changes it has made to this end," Johnson said.

Forum Topic

Difficulties in public education in high schools in Idaho will be the subject of the Phi Delta Kappa Forum on Education at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Moscow Jr. High School.

A film on financial and information on education in Idaho will be shown with a panel of Latah County Legislative candidates commenting on the recommendations of the film.

The local Phi Delta Kappa chapter, League of Women voters and several PTA groups were issued a special invitation to attend. All interested persons are invited by Captain Dave project manager.

"While this particular discussion is primarily directed to public school systems throughout the state of Idaho, it is perfectly clear that any gains made in the area of educational support in Idaho will reflect favorably into the support of the university system," Capt. Davey said.

"Financial support of schools is bound to be improved and the capabilities of incoming students will be better if education is improved in public schools," he said.

YR Asks Resolution

Young Republicans Executive Board passed a resolution favoring the extension of Idaho's county sheriffs' terms to 4 years over the existing 2 years Sunday.

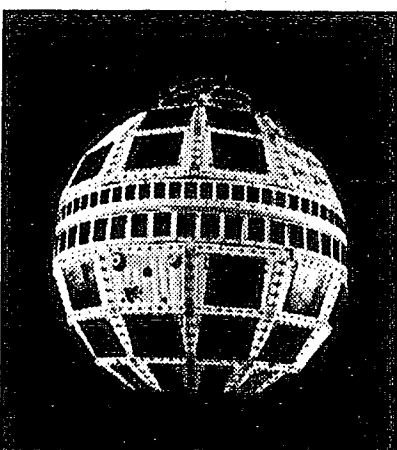

This amendment is also supported by the Idaho Sheriffs Association.

Dairy Team Takes Third In Contest

The University junior dairy cattle judging team won third place trophy at the Pacific International Intercollegiate Judging contest at Portland.

The Idaho team won first in Ayrshire and Guernsey cattle judging and third in Holsteins.

"We would like to have done better with the Holsteins," commented Idaho judging coach Floyd C. Gephart. "But overall the boys made a fine showing. They worked with some of the finest herds in the Boise Valley in preparation for this meet."

The combined scores of the team gave the Idahoans third place for overall judging and third place in reasoning behind their placings.

Competing with the Idaho Judging team were students from Oregon State, Washington State, and California Polytechnic — first place winner, Chico State — second place winner, and Fresno State.

Men competing on the Idaho team included Karl Nelson and Ray Miller, Borah; Virgil Stevens, and Dennis Woodruff — alternate, both off-campus.

Stevens won the individual high award in judging Guernseys at the contest. Miller was second high individual in the Ayrshire class. Nelson came out fourth high in Holsteins, and won third place in the intercollegiate judging for his judging reasons.

U-I Miss Wool Poses With Ram

"When they told me about taking publicity pictures with a sheep, I imagined a cuddly little lamb, and instead I was posing with a big ram," said Ellen Osthellor, who was chosen University of Idaho Miss Wool, Thursday.

The ram, about 600 pound Rambouillet, a University prize winning animal himself, stood about as tall as her waist, she said, and kept trying to get away Friday when the photographer, Prof. Roy Bell, tried to snap pictures.

"One time he got away and the sheep herder had to lasso him. He was too big to catch any other way," she said.

"Imagine me trying to hold him; stand close to those huge horns, and try to smile at the same time," she said. "It was something else."

The panel's decision will be returned to members of ATO who will announce the winner at the Esquire Dance which is tentatively scheduled for December 12.

Vandals Drop 4th Close Decision; OSU Wins 10-7

WSU Next On List, Vandals Ready To Go

By JERRY BROWN
 CORVALLIS, Ore.—The Idaho Vandals 10-7 loss to Oregon State Saturday was a hard one for them to take. The loss was the Vandals' fourth by a narrow margin. More than that, Saturday was Head Coach Dee Andros' birthday.

To some Idaho fans, the 43 yard punt return for a touchdown by Beaver Dan Espalin, which decided the game nine plays after the Vandals had pushed across a 7-3 lead, brought back memories of a kick return a year before.

Like Last Year
 The return a year before came after the Vandals had just gone out in front of the Washington State Cougars 10-7 on a field goal. Then Cougar Eddie Gaskins returned the Vandal kick and gave WSU the win.

Saturday when the Vandals face the Cougars in the Homecoming battle, they will have Gaskins to contend with once again, along with Clarence Williams, the Cougar running and scoring ace who has established himself as one of the best halfbacks in the West.

Last Saturday's game at Corvallis also was to some extent a repeat of the game week before last with the Oregon Webfoots from Eugene.

The Beavers outscored the Vandals on all areas except passing the first half. Idaho gained 64 yards in the first half against the Beavers 206 yards.

The score didn't tell all of the story as the Beavers lost one touchdown on an illegal procedure penalty with about ten minutes left in the first half. On the next play Beaver punting specialist Dick Clark, put the ball between the crossbars and the Beavers went ahead 3-0.

Defense Digs In
 A strong Vandal defense dug in when the Beavers threatened close to the goal line and kept them out of the end zone. The Beavers quarterback, Paul Brothers, never got his vaunted passing offense off the ground as he completed only two of eight for a total of 14 yards.

Vandal quarterback, Mike Monahan, completed 4 passes out of 9 attempts for a total of 22 yards.

Big Ray McDonald was held to 36 yards in the first half. These 36 accounted for more than half of the Vandal yardage in the first half. Idaho had the ball only a little over 10 minutes in the first half and put the responsibility of containing the Beavers on their defensive unit.

Catch Fire
 The second half opened with a big Vandal drive that saw five first downs in as many minutes as the Vandals drove from their 38 yard line to the Beaver goal line and McDonald went over easily from the two yard line and Campbell completed the extra point.

Idaho's offense came to the front and equalled the defense as "Mack Truck" McDonald exploded time after time dragging three or four Beavers as he romped toward the goal line. The Beavers keying more on McDonald enabled Morris and Nacarrato to gain more yardage than they had in the first half. Toward the end of the fourth quarter the Vandal offense was held at the Beaver 18 yard line and the field goal attempt fell just short.

With 1:40 left in the game, the Beavers kept possession and ran out the clock.

Great Game
 According to head coach Dee Andros, the team played a great game but just "missed their chances." Andros continued: "I'm proud as I can be of our team. They made a great effort . . . but we fell a little short."

Espalin's punt return late in the third quarter cinched the game for Oregon State.

Espalin said: "That punt return for a touchdown wasn't a planned play. I fumbled the ball, picked it up . . . and then cut to the left. I just followed my blockers after that."

ROLLS OUT — Mike Monahan (with ball) gets away from OSU tackler and rolls out to pass, while Tom Morris (40) swings out as safety man. Doug John (77) closes in on Monahan.

WSU Wins 5th Idaho Invitational, John Valiant Sets Course Record

John Valiant shaved 22 seconds off of the course record to lead Washington State University to victory in the fifth running of the Idaho Invitational crosscountry track meet last Saturday.

The Cougars also won the frosh division of the annual classic and Rogers High School of Spokane chalked up its second straight trophy in the 14 school high school event.

Valiant posted a 20:02.1 time over the four-mile rolling race course set up on the University golf course. Valiant's mark and that of runnerup Chris Wesleyman, also of Washington State, were under the old four-mile mark of 20:24.8 set last year during the Big Sky Crosscountry Championships by Doug Brown of Montana State University.

Second For WSU
 Saturday's win was the second in a row for the Cougars over the Vandals. WSU beat about the same field last week in Pullman. But the Cougars had a tougher time of it Saturday. WSU placed the first five finishers last week in Pullman.

Two Whitman runners, Laurin McKnight and Laurine Minnick, tied for third Saturday and Idaho.

ho's Nils Jebesen was fifth. The resulting score was WSU 28 and Idaho and Whitworth, 52 each. "We did much better this time," Coach Doug MacFarlane said. "We are getting better each time out. But we're still not up to where we should be."

Quirk Takes 7th
 Ted Quirk finished seventh for Idaho followed by veteran Paul Henden. Quirk's time was 21:43 and Henden ran a 21:47. Jebesen ran a faster 21:34, just three seconds off third place.

Other Idaho places were Chuck Fleiger, 13th at 22:24; Bruce Swayne, 19th at 23:18, and Bernie O'Connell, 22nd at 23:42.

Idaho travels to Missoula for its first Big Sky Conference test on Friday against Montana State University.

The Cougar Frosh edged Columbia Basin Junior College by a single point, 27 to 28. Gonzaga competed but did not have a full team.

Idaho ran its freshmen with the varsity.

Gary Benson won the frosh run for the Cougars with a 9:58 time over the two-mile frosh course. His teammate Ron Dahl was second.

Rogers Posts 25

Rogers easily won the high school event. Rogers had 25 points while Shadle High School, also of Spokane, was second with 83. North Central, another Spokane high school, was third with 121 followed by Clarkston, 131. Kennewick and East Valley of Spokane tied for fifth with 159 each.

Clark Tops
 Dan Clark of University high school in Spokane valley topped the 100 runner field with a 10:16.9 over the two-mile course.

However, two Shadle runners who were leading the pack missed part of the course and had to retrace part of their course. A Rogers high school lad got mixed up on his directions and ran the four-mile varsity course.

Army Defeats Rival Navy

Another page has been written in the annals of Army-Navy history. The Army ROTC defeated the Navy unit on the gridiron in a mock-up of the annual West-point-Annapolis clash by a single penetration, after a 7-7 tie.

Vandal Finmen Set Four Records In Winning 17 Medals At Spokane

The University of Idaho swimming team set four records on the way to winning 17 medals at the AAU Invitational Meet at Fairchild Air Force Base in Spokane, Saturday.

Leading the way for the Vandals was Karl Von Tagen, who was chosen outstanding swimmer in the open division of the meet.

Von Tagen set a new meet record in the 100 meter free-style with a time of 59.3 seconds, surpassing the old mark of 1:02.5 by nearly half a minute. Von Tagen also led two relay teams to victory and new meet records. The Vandal 400 meter medly relay team set a meet mark of 4:59.7 minutes which betters the old record of 5:00.8.

In the 400 meter free-style relay, Idaho set a record of 4:20.5 which was 1.4 seconds faster than the previous mark.

Bill Stillmaker gave Idaho the fourth record of the day with his time of 1:20.4 in the 100 meter breaststroke. The old meet record was 1:25.5.

The outstanding team contribution of the meet was the brother combination of Fritz and Karl Von Tagen who collected nine medals between them.

Besides setting the 100 meter free-style mark, Karl won the 100 meter backstroke, in which Idaho swept the first three places. He took second in the 100 meter breaststroke.

Fritz won the 100 meter butterfly with a time of 1:12.2, swam on the record setting medly and free-style relay teams, and won third in the 100 meter free-style.

Teams at the meet represented Washington, Montana, Oregon, British Columbia, and Idaho. Most areas had more than one team in the meet.

This meet, swimming coach John Cramer said, was mainly experimental. "It was to give the team something to go for," he added.

The Vandal season opens in December and may include some water polo matches late in November.

IM Football In 4th Week

Intramural touch football entered into its fourth week of action yesterday as 10 teams met on a perfect fall gridiron according to Clem Parberry, Intramural Director.

Scores
 The results of yesterday's play were Borah-2 over TMA-2 by forfeit; McConnell over Upham-2 by forfeit; and TMA and Borah double forfeited.

In games played, it was Willis Sweet-2 over Shoup, 9-0; Chrsmen over Lindley, 2-0; Lindley-2 over Chrsmen-2, 3 penetrations to 0; Upham over McConnell, 2 penetrations to 1; and Willis Sweet over Campus Club, 38-0. (There were no games played last Friday.)

Three students went to a motel and paid ten dollars each for a room. After they left, the clerk realized they should have a discount and sent the bell-hop to their room with five dollars. To simplify the situation they gave the bell-hop two dollars and each took one. Now they had paid nine each and gave the bell-hop two — this totals twenty-nine dollars — what happened to the other one?
