C-CAP Overtakes CUP To Win 7 Class Offices

Turnout of 2,236 Lowest In Three Years

'Undecided Votes Are Important'

The importance of the undecided voters as late as one day before the presidential election was illustrated in a survey of three Moscow precincts compiled by the political parties class at the University Tuesday.

The survey of precincts 3, 4, 10 in Moscow which normally are strong Republican precincts showed 46.3 per cent of the voters in favor of President Johnson, 41.4 per cent Goldwater, and 10.2 per cent undecided.

"This survey showed larger undecided vote just before the election than in any election I've seen before," said Dr. Boyd A. Martin, Dean of the College of Letters and Science, and advisor to the surveying group.

Republican Congressional candidate John Matmiller was given 45.8 per cent of the vote to Democrat Compton White's 38 per cent, but 12 per cent of the voters were undecided.

Even though the GOP vice presidential nominee William Miller is Catholic, the survey indicated that religion was not as prevalent a factor as in the 1960 presidential election.

President Johnson was the choice of 45.6 per cent of Catholics surveyed with 37 per cent preferring Goldwater. Protestants gave Johnson 42 per cent, and Goldwater, 44 per cent. Members of the Mormon church voted 54 per cent for Goldwater and 23 per cent for Johnson. Others gave Johnson 48 per cent and Goldwater 43 per cent.

Goldwater's most support came from the 50 through 59 age group, with strong support from the over-60 age category. Johnson's widest margin was from the 40-through-49 age group where he received 57 per cent of the vote to Goldwater's 35 per cent.

Cross-Campus Alliance Party (C-CAP) the newcomer on the campus political scene overtook the strong Campus Union Party organization and claimed victories in seven class officer races, including all but the senior class president contest, today.

The C-CAP showing apparently even surprised party leaders as they had predicted the election to be a building period for them when the party was formed two weeks ago.

"I am generally pleased with the majority of the return election votes. It would seem that the Independent vote is somewhat smaller than the Greek vote, and I would like to see more people vote at the next election. The work isn't over for C-CAP now. We have seen what we can do, but we must work hard to keep the party running smoothly and offer a good slate of candidates next spring," said Pat Cobb, C-CAP President, after the election.

Dave Grieve, CUP President, was not available for comment. The new party claimed victories in the freshman, sophomore and junior class presidencies; the junior vice presidency and all but junior class secretary-treasurers.

Turnout Poor
Turnout for the election was the lowest in the last three years. A total of 2,236 votes were cast compared with 2,446 last year and 2,750 in 1962. The most marked decline showed in the freshman class race which brought 763 voters to the polls, 207 less than last year.

Junior and senior elections brought more participants than last year, however. A total of 353 seniors voted today where 330 voted last year. Junior votes totaled 506 today, an increase of 22 votes over last year.

Both parties drew a number of straight ticket ballots. A total of 596 CUP votes did not cross party lines and 488 C-CAP supporters voted for their party candidates all the way through.

Amendments Pass
Both of the two amendments to the ASUI Constitution passed. Election Board ruled that 1,509 votes was the necessary two-thirds to pass.

The amendment to authorize only members of the class concerned to sign nominating petitions for class officers, passed at the end of the counting of junior ballots. (Freshman ballots were counted first with sophomore, junior and senior ballots following in that order.)

The amendment setting a deadline for petitions to change election dates passed with senior ballot counting. The amendment set the deadline as the Monday of the week before regularly scheduled elections.

Total votes on the amendments were not available.

Seniors
In the Senior Class officer race, Carl Johannesen, CUP, defeated Chuck Kozak, C-CAP, 255-81. Seventeen other votes were cast. For the senior vice presidency, Jerry Howard, CUP, barely took the majority of the votes as he defeated Jim Berry, C-CAP, 178-162, with 13 other votes cast. Kathy Hostetler, C-CAP, won the secretary-treasurer spot from Claudine Becker, CUP, 187-148.

Juniors
Bob Dutton, C-CAP, took the junior class presidency from Glen Atchley, CUP, 265 to 209. Ron Twilegar, C-CAP, claimed the junior second spot with 241 votes, a scant three-vote lead over Dick Owen, CUP. In this race, 15 ballots were unmarked and 13 write-ins were issued.

Carolyn Stephens, CUP, stopped a C-CAP sweep in the class with a 283-201 victory over Lou Benoit.

Sophomores
Dick Rush, C-CAP, claimed the sophomore president spot with 398 votes to his CUP opponent Jeff Anderson's 218. CUP's John Cooksey won the vice presidency, 370 to 234, for Judy Rice, Brooke Clifford, C-CAP, won the secretary-treasurer race from Margie Felton, CUP, 309-219. Gail Lechner, an unaffiliated candidate for secretary-treasurer, polled 98 votes.

Freshmen
C-CAP took the presidency and the secretary-treasurer spots in the freshman class as Gary Vest defeated his CUP opponent Roger "Speedy" Gonzales, 333-249; and Sue Cairns polled 335 to CUP's Pat McCollister's 325 and Linda Larson, an unaffiliated candidate, 86. Dave Schmirler took CUP's only place in the freshman class by claiming the vice presidency 373, to C-CAP's Jan Harm's 358. Jeff Flynn, whose name appeared as an unaffiliated candidate after he had withdrawn, polled 75 votes, and Ayers, a write-in, gathered 88 votes for freshman president.

Cougars Will Walk Wednesday

Idaho will play host to the Cougars Wednesday, when the defeated WSU fans take to the road to pay their debt of honor.

The traditional walk is taken each year by the school defeated in the annual Idaho-Washington football clash.

ASUI officers expect the foot-sore Cougars to arrive at the Student Union between 4:15 and 4:30 Wednesday afternoon. Plans for the welcome include a "foot washing" ceremony, songs by the Idaho Marching Band, and donuts and hot cider for both the Cougar and the Vandal fans.

As is traditional, Idaho students will have cars to drive the WSU students back to Pullman.

Jim Johnston, ASUI president, said Tuesday that he expected about 500 football fans from the two schools, and that he encouraged students with cars to be there to give the walkers a ride after their nine mile hike.

Idaho Students To Attend Business Symposium

Twenty-eight University of Idaho students will attend the Second Annual Business Symposium in Boise November 13.

The students will leave the University Thursday afternoon and will be housed in the Hotel Boise courtesy of the Boise Chamber of Commerce.

Students attending are: Larry Grimes, Owen Pipal, Patrick Killien, and Gordon Taylor, all Betas.

Boise Destination Of Band; Student Train Is Doubtful

BULLETIN
The Activities Council voted to cancel the "Victory Train" Tuesday afternoon because only 37 students signed up.

Chances of the University Marching Band chartering Greyhound buses for the Nov. 14 Utah State-Idaho game are increasing as donations from interested students continue to be received.

Over half of the $860 needed to put the band on the bus has been raised or pledged and the remainder was expected to be seen by this noon, according to John Mix, station manager of KRPL.

Teams Attend Debate Meet

Three debate teams represented Idaho at the Centralia College Invitational Debate Tournament at Centralia, Wash., October 30 and 31.

The team of Paul Cacaness, TKE, and Brent Morgan, Kappa Eig, won three debates and lost two. Dan Williams, Delta Sig, and Ken Paynter, Delta, also won three and lost two. Coleen Ward, Kappa, and William Martin, Upsilon, won two and lost three.

Idaho competed but did not place in the individual extemporaneous and impromptu speaking and interpretive reading.

There were 110 teams representing 22 Northwest colleges.

'Student Prince' To Be Presented

"The Student Prince" will be presented in the Borah Theater of the SUB Friday and Sunday evenings.

Friday it will be shown at 7 and 9:15 p.m., and Sunday evening at 8. Admission is 35c a person and 60c a couple.

Others include Carl West, Ken Johnston, Larry Nye, all Phi Deltas; and Norma Benoit, Delta Gamma.

Off campus students attending are Millicent Batt, John Fairman, Craig MacPhee, Carl Johannesen, Wayne Wimer, Bruce Keithly, and Christopher Gibbs.

Others include Joseph McCollum, SAE; Samuel Taylor, Willis Sweet; Frederick Fancher, Delta; Carol Husa, Hays; Sue Rasmuson, Kappa; Catherine Lyons, Campbell; Bruce Simon, Upsilon, and Jim Johnston, FarmHouse.

Sigma Chi's going are Benny Blich, Fred Freeman, and David McClusky.

Sigma Nus attending included Gary Mann and John Dahl.

Subjects to be discussed at the conference are: economic growth, the international balance of payments, the European Common Market and the USA, unemployment and technology, and the role and size of profits.

Others include: sharing the productivity gains, inflation, the balanced budget, tariff policies and U.S. manufacturing abroad, and what to do about the senior citizens.

Power To Be Shut Off At P

Installation of larger regulators on a 13,000 volt distribution system will cause electricity to be shut off at the University and for most of Moscow between 2 a.m. and 4 a.m. Friday according to W. A. Lowry, Moscow District Manager for the Washington Water Power Company.

40 Schools Present At ACU Meet Here

Students from about 40 universities will meet here Thursday through Saturday in the Student Union Building for the Association of College Unions Region 14 Conference.

Approximately 150 students and 35 staff people are expected to attend, according to ASUI General Manager Gale Mix, who terms the Conference as "One of the most important meetings held at Idaho in some time."

Co-sponsored by Washington State University, the conference is the first meeting of Region 14 since its organization earlier this year.

Conference registration will be handled by the Spurs, and tours of the SUB will be conducted by the SUB Hospitality Committee from about 1 to 5 p.m. Thursday, according to Nancy Grubb, Houston, conference committee chairman.

Group discussions, meetings and lectures will be held throughout the conference for the benefit of the students, according to Miss Grubb. The delegates will also exchange ideas, student union programs, elect new officers, and select a site for the next conference.

One of the highlights of the conference is the Kickoff Banquet which is to be presided over by Miss Grubb, President D. R. Theophilus will be the keynote speaker, and entertainment will be provided by the Brown Mountain Four.

At the opening assembly at 9 a.m. Friday, Larry Nye, Phi Delta, vice president of ASUI, will preside at the opening assembly. Boyd A. Martin, Dean of the College of Letters and Science, will be the guest speaker.

Jim Johnston, FarmHouse, ASUI president, will address the luncheon Friday. Entertainment will be provided by the North Idaho Junior College Chorus.

A dinner dance will be held at the SUB Friday night. Si Ellington, University of Oregon, national president, will be the dinner speaker. The Three D's, Capitol recording artists, will entertain at the dance.

The conference will be adjourned at 2 p.m. Saturday.

'U' Chooses Goldwater In Election

University of Idaho students gave Senator Barry Goldwater a narrow victory Tuesday over President Johnson in a "mock" election sponsored by the Idaho Center for Education in Politics (ICEP).

Senator Goldwater won 52.4 per cent of the votes, receiving 1,067, to President Johnson's 47.6 per cent of the 2,036 votes cast in the election.

The 909 votes for Johnson were only 98 short of Goldwater's total, according to Sue Solomon, Theta, president of ICEP.

Jenkins For President?
Write-in candidates included a few surprises.

Walter Jenkins, President Johnson's aid arrested on moral charges recently, received 3 votes for president. One of his projected running mates included Sherman Adams, former President Eisenhower's aide, who resigned after charges of receiving gifts while holding that office, who registered 3 votes also.

Dr. Boyer of the psychology department at the University, received 1 vote.

TV Station Bid Entered

The University was another step on its way toward having its educational television station, Channel 12, on the air with the announcement Monday by Financial Vice President Kenneth A. Dick that Lande & Morrow, Moscow, had entered the low bid of $9,500 for a transmitter building. Construction is expected to start shortly.

The transmitter building, to be located on Paradise Ridge southeast of Moscow, will be of cinder block construction. The structure will require no heating equipment, because the transmitter itself will give off more than enough heat.

If good weather prevails, it is hoped that the building can be completed in about a month.

LOW TURNOUT - The lowest turnout in recent years marked the class officer elections today. Only 2,236 ballots were cast compared with 2,446 last year and 2,750 in 1962. For election board members Jean Cline, Gwen Tolmie and Sue Mortensen at the Student Union, voting came in spurts mostly between classes.

The Golden Fleece

By Jason

While much of Idaho's attention for the past few months has been focused on the election of the President and our two Congressional Representatives, perhaps too little of our attention has been given to the election of our State Legislature the body upon which Idaho higher education depends for its bread and butter. This year the Legislature will be the largest in Idaho's history. The composition of this group will be most important.

After the U. S. Supreme court ruling this year for state legislatures to reapportion, Idaho answered by increasing the House of Representatives to 79 members from 63. The State Senate remained at 44 members.

More From South Idaho

It is significant to note the geographical locals of these counties. Eight of the counties affected by reapportionment were Southern Idaho counties. They received 13 of the 16 new seats in the House. Ada County received the most new seats with three new ones bringing the total Ada County delegation in the House to nine. Neighboring Canyon county gained two seats for a total of six. On Ada's other side, Elmore gained one for a total of two representatives.

Farther east in the State, Bannock and Bonneville counties each gained two seats bringing both totals to five. Other Southern Idaho counties gaining one representative were Twin Falls for a total of four, Bingham for a total of three, and Cassia for two representatives.

In the northern part of the State, Kootenai and Nez Perce Counties each picked up an additional seat for three seats apiece. Bonner picked up one seat and now has two.

What For The University?

How might this effect the University? State Representative Harold Snow (R-Latah) who served on the reapportionment committee told the Argonaut yesterday that he didn't think that sectional battles and the increased numbers of Southern Idaho Legislators would be significant in the next Legislature. He also said that he thought that sectional battles were a thing of the past in Idaho.

We hope so. Still at least two major issues on higher education could arouse sectional interests.

University At Boise

The first will be the four year university at Boise, if it comes up. Rep. Snow says that he doesn't think that this will be a major issue this year. He noted the lack of present funds for such a university's creation.

But we can remember the last Legislative session when a lack of funds did not stop the Legislature from technically making Lewis-Clark Normal School a four-year institution. Admittedly LCNS was a political football and the Boise proposal may not be yet. Still the concentration of Legislators from the Boise-Ada County area and a major part of Southern Idaho could be a factor.

Appropriations

The other issue with possible sectional ramifications? Appropriations for the University and Idaho State University at Pocatello always present a problem. Facing up to the situation, Idaho State is located in a much more advantageous area population-wise—logically, a bigger share of the Legislators are from close to Pocatello. However, the University is still the larger and the older of the two institutions and constitutionally Idaho's center of higher education.

Idaho State received a 23 per cent increase over the previous biennium budget in the 1963 Legislature.

Last session the University received only a 14.6 per cent increase. This year we will ask (and we need) a larger appropriation.

"It is the responsibility of the Board of Regents to equalize the appropriation of both institutions," Snow said yesterday.

Still it is the Legislature which finally appropriates the funds for higher education in Idaho. Sectionalism won't take root? We can't afford it if it does.

Alums Visit For Game,

Approximately 9,000 to 10,000 University alumni returned to view the Idaho - Washington State Homecoming game, according to Jim Lyle, alumni secretary.

The alumni buffet in the Student Union Building cafeteria was attended by members of the classes of 1939, 1944, 1949, 1954, 1959, and others, he said. A large crowd turned out for the buffet and the SUB cafeterias were filled.

Other alumni banquets were held for the football squads which beat WSU in 1954, and 1923-26, and the original University Pep Band. The members of the original pep band of 1922 met at the Idaho Hotel Saturday for a banquet. Three of the alums holding jam session for the nine returning members of the band included Al Marineau of Hollywood, Calif., Hod Taylor of New York, N.Y., and J. R. Woods of Lewiston.

Lyle said that he'd seen every WSU-Idaho game since 1924 except for 1941-45 and one during the '30's, and this was the first time he'd seen such a difficulty in obtaining reserve tickets.

SMEAR!!

Smear campaigns, often noted in national elections, have taken on a different twist at the University of Idaho, as the smears seem to be not only in a verbal but also a physical sense. The verbal slander is not important here; but the physical smear, in this case with paint, shows more than lack of social dignity and respect for others and their property.

Some individuals, who should hope for their own sakes that they remain unknown, have demonstrated an obvious disinterest in campus politics and a total disregard for the rights of others.

By destroying campaign signs and the Campus Union Party billboard on Sixth Street, they have not only deprived good citizens of the right to know who is running for campus office and the right to make up their own minds for whom to vote but have reduced the lengthy and diligent works of many devoted people in both campus parties to unsightly derelicts cluttering the campus area.

It was hoped that with the formation of a second party on campus, interest in politics would be spurred, perhaps discouraging actions such as mentioned above and the anarchy which prompts students to disregard the work and rights of others might be curbed. Such was apparently not the case.

The play of a few students destroyed the work, pride and hours of many in the two University political parties.

It is the opinion of this writer that if the offenders are caught, they should be prosecuted "to the full extent of the law." Campus vandalism is not to be accepted at this election time any more than it is at any other time of the year. It is as much, if not more, of an insult to student intelligence now as any time.

It is only to be hoped now that the leaders elected in class elections today will help to guide the wayward in actions more befitting of college-age students. It is also to be hoped now that the leaders will be given more respect than were their poster and other campaign material.

S. S.

Apathy Strikes Again

If there is one thing the average Idaho student is it's apathetic. This is once again being demonstrated as two worthwhile projects are in danger of failing.

Band To Boise
 The first is the proposed sending of the Band to Boise. About $850 are needed to get the band to the game. As of this writing $493 have been collected.

Downtown merchants are interested enough to donate part of their proceeds to this cause. Yet in a campaign headed by radio station KRPL always a strong Vandal Boosters to obtain pledges of money or the money itself, 37 living groups have yet to respond with any money or pledges. Only five dollars apiece from each group would total $185 and go a long way toward sending the band to Boise.

While some students feel that sending the band to Boise should be done by the Athletic department or the Music Dept. the fact is that they aren't. And it isn't that the band doesn't want to go, they agreed to pay for all of their meals on the trip and thus eliminated about $300.

It would be a fitting and just tribute if an apathetic 5,000 couldn't raise $800. They spend that much on beer in one weekend.

Train to Boise
 The second project is as good as dead now. As of Monday noon there were 37 students signed to take the train to Boise. This is a project that has certain benefits and certain disadvantages. It does show school spirit but on the other hand if there is any alcohol or any rowdyism it could as easily turn into a nightmare in a public relations sense. We prefer to think that if the train went there would be no trouble, especially with chaperones on board.

The way it looks now there are going to be about as many chaperones as students. This is no fault of the planners. They have worked hard to get the train but it has been about as productive as fishing in Paradise creek. Perhaps there is something symbolic to the empty railroad depot on sixth street.

Once again the students of the University will have demonstrated that this school deserves its rightful place as the leading institution in the state.

Dear Jason's Students Decry Election Apathy

My first gripe at the University of Idaho has finally become too large to ignore. Many students are very concerned about student apathy, and are continually working to diminish this factor. I am very disappointed to hear that the other 75 per cent (a very low estimate) will not let these students help inform our own ASUI. Student apathy is mainly combated by information and arousing interest. In order to accomplish these goals, smears are held and posters are put out on campus during a campaign. This year, however, as in the past, a few people have managed to defeat these purposes. The smears, particularly those concerning the upperclassmen, are notoriously neglected. The candidates gain nothing from giving their views if no one is interested enough in student government to hear them. Many posters have been torn down and burned or have been defaced. I feel that if this defacing of property is continued, it will be necessary to bring the person(s) at fault before the Judicial Council. This last suggestion should only be used when extreme defacing of private property is done i.e. the billboard of Campus Union Party on 6th street. I think that defacing property or ignoring issues is not proper conduct for adults. The University of Idaho students who are engaging in these activities should grow up and act as what they are termed. Ruth Ann Knapp, Ethel Steel, Glen Atchley, Willis Sweet

Kappa Alpha Theta Picks Castle Casanova Finalists

Seven finalists have been chosen in the "Castle Casanova" contest by members of Kappa Alpha Theta. The new king will be crowned at the Theta pledge dance "Castle of My Dreams" Saturday night.

Five Selected In Interviews

Five members were picked to serve on the Publicity Committee following interviews Thursday, according to Bob Stanfield, publicity area director. New committee members are Mike Brassey, SAE; John Cooksey, Sigma Chi; Susie Smith, Ethel Steel; Dave McCune, Phi and Ron Douglas, Delta Sig.

The publicity committee is organized to publicize all Activities Council events, distribute publicity materials and serving as the main coordinating committee of the Publicity Area, according to Stanfield.

Student Opinion Bill Wilson, Delta Sig, was chosen to head the newly organized Student Opinion Poll Committee. The committee is organized to measure the success of Activities Council publicity and to provide a means for transmitting ideas from the student body to Activities Council, said Stanfield.

The committee head will determine how large his job is and how much help he needs before any new members are chosen for the Committee, Stanfield said.

Summary A summary of weekly survey polls on student opinion will be drawn up by members of the committee and presented to the Publicity Area Director and Activities Council, he said.

Need Activity? Try 'Argonaut'

Need an activity, why not try the Argonaut? So far this semester the Arg. has been short staffed and needs more hands to help meet deadlines. Only a few hours are required each week for both reporters and copy readers. Anyone who is interested, is asked to report to the Arg. office on either Mondays or Thursdays.

U-Thanksgiving Holiday Is Set

Thanksgiving holiday will be observed Nov. 26, according to President D. R. Theophilus. Nov. 27 will also be observed as a holiday in lieu of the Nov. 11 holiday which will not be taken, he said.

Finalists Selected
Finalists in the Casanova Contest are Jim Weaver, Phi; Wally Phifer, Phi Tau; Beaver Nelson, Beta; Joe Reid, Delta Sig; Denny (Sam) Mix, Phi Delt; Dick Plastino, Gault and Dave Sweetwood, FarmHouse. The finalists will attend a dress dinner Wednesday and a raunch dinner Thursday at the Theta house, according to Judy Rice, Theta.

Other Contestants

Department Sets Recital

Compositions of Franz Schubert will be presented by the music department Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Music Building.

Included in the repertoire are both vocal and instrumental ensembles.

Faculty members are Agnes Schuldt and Marian Frykman, pianists; Warren Bellis, clarinetist; Charles Walton, tenor, and David Whisner, double bass.

Two students, Judith Schoepflin, soprano, and James Schoepflin, pianist, both off campus, will open the program with a selection entitled "The Shepherd on the Rock."

A group of six songs, settings of poems by Heine will be sung by Walton, accompanied by Mrs. Schuldt on the piano.

Violinist Eleanor Mader and Phyllis Everest, cellist, both of Pullman, will assist George Skramstad, a student violinist, Whisner and Frykman in the "Trout" Quintet.

Lewis And Clark Route Is Traced In Prof's Report

An account, tracing of the route taken by the Lewis and Clark expedition, written by John J. Peebles, prof. of engineering, was recently published in the travel issue of "Idaho Yesterdays."

"Idaho Yesterdays" is a quarterly journal of the Idaho Historical society. In the journal, Peebles describes the course and campsites along the Salmon River section of Lewis and Clark's journey.

A former engineer with the Idaho Department of Highways, Peebles now teaches engineering at the University of Idaho. He began his research of the overland route of the western explorers while working for the State Highway department.

On the basis of personal knowledge of the country and a careful reading of the journals of the expedition, the author identified the route of Lewis and Clark from Lemhi pass to the head of the Bitterroot.

Identified Campsites From the journals of members of the expedition, Professor Peebles chose excerpts which tended to describe and identify the campsites and route along the Salmon. He also prepared the maps and took the pictures which illustrate the lengthy article.

A subsequent issue of the magazine will carry another portion of the historic journey. Professor Peebles next story is slated to cover the Lewis and Clark trip over the Lolo trail.

A graduate of the University of Idaho in 1947, Peebles obtained his master's degree in engineering from the University of Colorado in 1950.

Navy Color Girl Chosen

Gwen Tolmie, Gamma Phi, was crowned Navy Color Girl at the Navy Ball Friday in the SUB Ballroom.

Other finalists for the honor were Cheryl Moltki, Pi Phi; Stephanie Hull, DG; Pam Anderson, Kappa; and Carla Hennings, Alpha Chi.

Crowning Miss Tolmie was Commander Barton of the local Navy ROTC.

John Wozniak, Phi Kappa Tau, was photographer for the event.

Army Program Enlists Student

Cadet Stephen H. Young, Theta Chi, member of the Army ROTC at the University, was recently sworn into the Enlisted Reserve Corps by Lt. Col. James L. Rimlinger, Professor of Military Science.

Young thus became the first Idaho student to enter the program created under the ROTC pay raise bill.

The ceremony was witnessed by Cadet Young's father, H. Lloyd Young, Director of Vocational Rehabilitation for the state of Idaho.

Cadet Young is a civil engineering major at Idaho.

New Wallace Addition To Be Called Norman Willey

The six-story wing now being added to the Wallace Residence Center at the University of Idaho will carry the name of another pioneer Idaho governor—Norman B. Willey.

In keeping with the practice adopted several years ago of naming dormitory buildings after early governors, the Board of Regents today approved the name of Willey Residence for the addition.

The addition, which will serve 315 students, is needed to house the increased number of students expected next fall.

Willey was the second state governor of Idaho, serving from 1890 to 1893, and the first elected lieutenant governor. He succeeded George L. Shoup, who resigned as the first state governor to become United States senator.

A native of Guilford, N. Y., Willey traveled to California at 20 in 1855 to prospect for gold. In 1864, he trekked to Idaho, where new fields of adventure and exploration were being opened, and for more than 30 years he lived at Warrens in Idaho county.

His active participation in public life commenced with his election to the House of Representatives of the seventh session of the Territorial Legislature, 1872-73. He also held numerous county offices, and was again elected a member of the Council of the tenth session, in 1878-79, becoming president of that body.

Highlights of his term as governor included the adoption by Idaho of the Australian secret ballot system, to apply to all elections except those of school district. When the first riots in the Coeur d'Alene mining area broke out, Governor Willey called federal troops to maintain order. A joint committee of the House and Senate was appointed to solicit designs from which a state seal would be selected.

A bachelor, Willey spent his last days in Kansas, and died there in 1931.

SUB Series Offers Jazz

The first of the revised Jazz in the Bucket series will start this Friday with a varied mixture of talent.

Featured will be jazz, rock and roll, and folk music. Jazz in the Bucket is scheduling presentations every other week in the Blue Bucket or Dipper on Friday or Saturday evenings.

The first program will be held this Friday in the Dipper from 8 to 11 p.m.

Entertainment will include Jerry Tucker, Campus Club, guitar and folk music and a faculty jazz group known as "La Quintette," consisting of Lynn Beatty, piano; Don Sherman, tenor sax; Bill Anthis, alto sax; Lynn Anderson, drums, and Cub Lyon, base and trumpet, all off-campus.

The remainder of the evening will be dancing and music by the Shadows. There will be no charge for this event.

Future plans of the series will be an exchange with WSU.

GREEN FLANNEL SUIT WINS "The Man in the Green Flannel Suit," a satirical musical in two acts presented by the Red & White Revue of McGill University, Montreal, Canada, has been named winner of the fourth annual BMI Variety Show Competition.

IKs Planning Duchess Contest

Intercollegiate Knights are planning their annual IK Duchess Contest, according to John St. Clair, Phi Delt, chairman of the contest.

Sixteen girls from the various living groups on campus will compete, he said. Five finalists will be chosen on the basis of talent, charm, poise, and personality.

The five finalists will appear before all members of the organization for the final selection, said St. Clair.

The new 1964-65 Duchess will be announced Nov. 13 and will go to the Regional Convention of the Intercollegiate Knights for the regional contest.

Vandals Smash UOP Tigers 40-0 In One-Sided Clash

Vandals Take Tigers Tough Arizona Ahead

By JACK MARSHALL
Argonaut Sports Editor

STOCKTON—The Idaho Vandals struck quickly and relentlessly in the opening quarter of action against University of the Pacific Saturday night then eased off and coasted to a 40-0 victory with reserve units going most of the way, but next week's clash may be a different story.

Arizona Next
Andros had his Vandals out running on return from Stockton in preparation for the tough battle he predicted for next weekend against the Arizona Wildcats.

The Vandal coaching staff had an opportunity to scout the Wildcats by television while in California. Arizona put up a strong defensive show against the Air Force Academy, but made one mistake in the final minutes and lost 7-0 on a 50-yard pass play.

"There is no doubt that Arizona is going to be a tough one," Andros said, "but our chances are good if we play ball."

Away They Go
Idaho wasted little time in putting its overpowering offense in gear, as quarterback Mike Monahan fired Ray McDonald, Butch Slaughter, and Tom Morris through the line and around the ends on the first touchdown drive. Morris finally took it in from 20 yards out.

Over confidence, which had worried the Idaho coaching staff, made only one appearance, as Al Ford took Ray Miller's kick-off 87 yards back through the Vandal ranks for what looked like a touchdown, but was nullified by a penalty.

"From there on," Head Coach Dee Andros commented, "we played the game as we had planned — stopping drives through the lines and keeping Pacific's fine quarterback, Tom Strain, from hitting too many of his receivers."

New Records
As the Vandals marched to the third win of the season against four set-backs, they rolled up a new all-time record number of first downs by netting 27. The old mark was 25 set against Portland in 1948. The Vandals also managed to establish a new number of yards penalized mark by having 120 paces stepped off against them, 15 more than the old record set in 1949.

Scott Scuttles
"Scooter" Bill Scott cut down the Tigers' hopes of moving the ball via the air-ways by dragging in three enemy aeriels and running one back for a score. He tied the pass interception mark set by Ken Larsen in 1948.

Seeing action in only the first and part of the third quarters, the Vandals first offensive and defensive teams were spectators for the major part of the game.

Andros had his second and third units doing most of the work against the out-gunned Tigers. John Fouria threw 6-8 while guiding the second unit and kept Charlie Jenkins, Rice, and Joe McCollum bursting the seam for substantial gains.

Big Ray McDonald saw only limited service, which may have been a break for Pacific. He played only about 10 minutes and rolled up 121 yards in 13 carries.

"Mighty" McDonald has a total of 404 yards in 80 carries in the three games he has seen action in, with an average of 5.05 yards per carry.

Subs Steal Show
After Andros unleashed his Vandal power against the Tigers at the beginning of the third quarter, he sent replacements in for the regulars.

Following on a fourth down and four to go, Fouria passed to McCollum on a sideline pattern, McCollum had the ball but was hit hard and lost it. Tackle Ray Miller, a 240 pounder who also took over the kick-off duties for injured Tim Lavens, took the ball in the air and bulled his way for the first down.

Defensive quarterback Larry Strommeyer capitalized on his first opportunity to carry from the offensive side of the line by taking a pitch out from Joe Rodriguez and rambling 14 yards around left end. He came back for two yards around right end.

Idaho did not score in the final quarter, but played wide open football. The Vandal bench kept UOP hustling to stay in the game.

FIELD DAY — Against the University of the Pacific Saturday, the Vandals had a field day. Halfback Tom Morris (left), a senior, scored the first touchdown of his Varsity career as he made key plays leading to touchdowns but had never scored. At defensive end for injured Tim Lavens, Bill Scott (right) intercepted three Tiger passes, tying Idaho's interception record, as the Vandals romped for a 40-0 victory.

ATO Takes Intramural Race Lead By Topping Field In Turkey Trot

With the completion of the first three intramural fall sports, ATO is out in front of the pack with 384 points.

Phi Delta is not far behind in second place with 359.5 points and the Deltas are holding down third with 348, which is just enough to edge out SAE. They have 347 for fourth. Willis Sweet is in fifth with 344.

The Trot
ATO put itself into the IM lead Saturday by taking the annual Turkey Trot cross country with 33 points.

John Bloxom won the race for ATO with a time of 6:55.6. Sam Taylor ran the course last year in 6:33.3.

The win was a repeat for ATO. They won it last year with 53 points. The cut in this year's total was due to the fine performances of Bloxom, Jerry McKee, who took second, and Steve Richards, who finished fourth.

Big Sky Championship Meet Set For Harriers, Chances Rated 50-50

As the Big Sky cross country championship gets closer and closer, Track Coach Doug MacFarlane keeps working his harriers in hopes of protecting the title they won last season.

MacFarlane had most of his charges in fine shape last weekend as they captured third overall in the Inland Empire Amateur Athletic Union Junior National Cross Country championships.

Running against four full teams and parts of two more, the Vandals kept pace with more than 45 runners over the 10,000 meter or 6 1/4 mile course at Downriver golf club.

Henden Ready
Paul Henden, who is back in shape after experiencing bad luck injuries last spring, led the Vandals by knocking off ninth place in a field of 45.

Ted Quirk and John Mynott, two of MacFarlane's three new freshmen harriers, finished tenth and fourteenth. The other member of the trio MacFarlane is counting on heavily to lead the Vandals in the Big Sky race is Kirt Fleisher, who finished sixteenth over-all.

Leave Thursday
The cross country team will leave Thursday for Ogden, Utah, and the Big Sky championship which is to take place at Weber State College Saturday.

MacFarlane is taking Nils Jebesen, Henden, Quirk, Mynott, and Fleisher to Ogden.

Idaho's chances for retaining the Big Sky crown are about 50-50, according to the track coach. "We have a chance, a good chance, but Idaho State is going to be a tough nut to crack," he said, "they are really going to town down there and we barely beat them last year." The Vandals were only four points out in front of the Bengal bunch.

Good Shape

"The team is much more developed than last year, too," he added, "and we have tremendous potential." MacFarlane went on to say that our last man will decide whether or not we go home winners.

Montana and Montana State will be in the meet at Ogden, as will Weber and the Bengals. MacFarlane is not expecting too much of a threat from them, however. Idaho defeated the two Montana teams at Missoula two weeks ago.

Vandal Babes Miss Victory, As Cubs Boot Field Goal

Montana's freshmen scored on a 72-yard pass play in the last 43 seconds of play to tie the Idaho Frosh 16-16, Saturday, at Missoula.

The tying score was on a long pass play from quarterback Norm Quenzler to halfback Willie Jones. Tailback Dewey Allen ran for a two-point conversion to even the score as the game ended.

Montana scored first on a one-yard plunge by fullback Joe Campassi. Mike Walsh ran for the extra points.

Both Idaho scores were by Dennis McCanna in the first half. A 34-yard field goal and a conversion by Darrell Danielson accounted for the other Idaho points.

McCanna's first scoring run covered 20 yards. Idaho missed the conversion kick. The Idaho Frosh came right back by recovering a Montana fumble on the 19-yard line. An 18-yard pass from quarterback Mike Mitchell to Pat Davidson set up McCanna's one-yard touchdown plunge.

The Vandal Babes meet the Washington State Frosh in the fourth annual "Little Battle of the Palouse," this coming Friday afternoon at Rogers Field in Pullman. The Idaho Frosh will be out to keep their 3-0 record in the series. Last year they defeated the Cougar Babes 36-0. Last week's Frosh game at Pullman saw the Oregon State Rooks come from behind in the last period of play to defeat the Washington State Frosh 33-14.

The annual meeting is sponsored by the Calam Temple of the Shrine to benefit the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital in Spokane, which is just one of the 17 hospitals operated by the Shriner. The Calam Temple consists of seven clubs, including the Myrie Shrine Club, Panhandle Shrine Club, Kellogg Shrine Club, Coeur d'Alene Shrine Club, St. Maries Shrine Club, Moscow Shrine Club and Prairie Shrine Club.
