

Idaho Legislators Arrive Tomorrow

Over 80 per cent of Idaho's legislators will arrive in Moscow tomorrow evening at 8:30 to observe campus operations and attend various panel discussions in a program sponsored by the North Idaho Chamber of Commerce.

The purpose of the program is to acquaint the law makers with the problems of North Idaho and the University of Idaho.

93 Expected

Over 93 legislators will be given the opportunity for personal touch with the students when they eat breakfast at campus living groups Thursday morning from 7-9 a.m.

The newly elected legislators were invited to come to Moscow and other North Idaho communities at the expense of NICC and will participate in panel discussions including where appropriation money goes, resource planning of North Idaho, reapportionment, U. S. Highway 95 and the University.

President To Speak

Thursday afternoon at 1:30 University President Dr. D. R. Theophilus will address the legislators on "Your University" in the Student Union Building.

Sen. Len B. Jordan, will speak to the group at an informal banquet Thursday evening at Moscow Hotel.

In addition to their visit to the University and Moscow, the legislators will tour Dworshak Dam and State Hospital North, Lewis-Clark Normal School and Lewiston Port District.

Notices will be sent to living groups this afternoon to notify students assigned as hosts to legislators, who their Moscow businessman host will be, and whether their legislator is coming. Local businessmen will also attend breakfast with the legislators at the living groups.

International Days Are Scheduled

International Student Days, a new program at the University, will be held Nov. 21 and 22.

The international program will feature a Korean movie entitled "Wedding Day," a fashion show, United Nations model session, a volleyball game and variety show.

The purpose of the International Student Days program is to acquaint University students with foreign customs, attitudes and cultures, according to John Cotton, TKE, publicity director.

The fashion show Sat., Nov. 22 will have 20 exchange students modeling clothing from their respective countries, said Cotton.

UN Session

A United Nations model session with 50 countries represented will have members backed up by data from their foreign diplomats. Items to be discussed at the session include entry of Red China into the UN and South Africa, Cotton said.

A two hour variety show will be presented Sunday. Included on the program are folk dancing, songs, a magic act and three skits from different countries.

Displays by various exchange students will also be set up in the SUB during the two day program, Cotton said.

In succeeding years the program will be placed under the Activities Council and will become an annual event, Cotton said.

YD'S MEET

Young Democrats will hold an After Election Reorientation meeting in the Borah Theater at 7 o'clock tonight.

For 'Booster' Garland Kropp . . . Tucson Trip Was A Long Mistake

By FRED FREEMAN

TUCSON, Ariz.—For a Malta, Mont., man, the flight from Spokane to Great Falls last Friday morning was a bit longer than he expected.

The Idaho Vandal charter flight from Spokane to Tucson, Ariz., had been up in the air about fifteen minutes when Garland Kropp, a Malta automotive parts dealer, realized he was on the wrong plane. Adding to his woes, the flight was non-stop.

Shortly after the Vandals boarded the plane, it was apparent that someone had miscalculated. There was one seat too few on the capacity-filled flight.

One of the players who had left his seat found it taken when he returned. Unabashed, he went looking for another one. Nary a seat was empty. Then the plane took off.

Spokane was fogged in and the pilot couldn't turn back. To land at Boise or Salt Lake City meant dumping nearly 300 gallons of fuel.

No Choice

Kropp had no choice but to take the long way home.

His unfortunate situation was created by the confusion resulting from Spokane International Airport's being fogged in. Planes could not land or take off at Spokane until nearly 11 a.m. Friday.

The Northwest Airline flight that he should have been on was called at about the time the Vandal charter taxied up to the gate. Unaware that two planes were loading, airport officials directed him to get on the plane which passengers were boarding.

"I just joined the line where the crowd was getting on," Kropp told the Argonaut later.

But for his picking the wrong line, Kropp became somewhat of a celebrity.

The Idaho Vandal Boosters on the plane made the former Montana State College man an honorary member and presented him with a Vandal booster button.

"Something to Show"

"He'll need something to show to his wife to prove that it's all true," one of the boosters quipped.

The story reached the University of Arizona people, as well. At the Tucson airport, "Wrong-way Corrigan" as the Tucson Arizona Morning Star dubbed him in a front page article, was made an honorary member of the Arizona Blue Key Chapter (upperclassmen's service fraternity)

Someone even suggested that he be an honored guest at the Arizona Homecoming game with Idaho.

But Kropp had business in Minneapolis Sunday night and couldn't stay.

Getting back to Great Falls, Friday was still a problem. Around 10 p.m. he was headed for Los Angeles on his way home via Denver, Salt Lake and Missoula.

To show for his troubles . . . at the next meeting of the Great Falls Shrine Club, Kropp will be presented with a football signed by all the Vandals and plus his picture and the Star article pasted on it.

SUB Plans 'Fast' Dance

Two dances will be held this Saturday in the SUB from 8 to 11:30 p.m., according to the SUB Dance Committee.

A "fast" dance will take place in the Bucket with music by the Parados, a local group from Uplam.

The other, a "slow" dance, will be in the ballroom with music provided by the Ambassador Quartet from WSU.

The purpose of these dances is to promote stag attendance. Admission fee is 50 cents per person. A ticket obtained from it will admit anyone to both dances.

'I' Man In Spokane After Suicide Try

A 20-year-old University of Idaho Sophomore was rushed to Deaconess Hospital in Spokane at 1:25 p.m. yesterday in an attempt to save his life after he apparently shot himself yesterday morning in his dormitory room.

Blue Bucket 'Spots' Jazz Rock & Roll

Jazz in the Bucket featured jazz, rock and roll, and folk music in the Dipper last Friday between 8 and 11 p.m.

Entertainment was furnished by Jerry Tucker, Campus Club; guitar and folk music, and a faculty jazz group known as "La Quintette," consisting of Lynn Beatty, piano; Don Sherman, tenor sax; Bill Anthis, alto sax; Cub Lyon, base and trumpet, all off-campus.

Dancing and music was provided by the Shadows for the remainder of the evening. The event was free of charge.

Other Jazz in the Bucket presentations are scheduled every other week in the Blue Bucket or Dipper on Friday or Saturday evenings.

The next Jazz in the Bucket will be Nov. 21, according to Glen Atchley, Willis Sweet, chairman of Jazz in the Bucket Committee.

Members of the Jazz in the Bucket Committee are Elaine Jackson and Lois Grieve, French; Lynn Walker and Gretchen Evans, Theta; Mike Kurdy, Sigma Chi; and Ed Marohn, Fiji.

Tribunal Cancels Pledge Dances

Kappa Sigma and Phi Gamma Delta had their pledge dances suspended for an infraction of University regulations in recent action taken by the Inter-Fraternity Council Tribunal.

Student-Faculty Exchange Declining Says ACU Head

The amount of interchange between faculty members and students is lessening yearly, according to Si Ellingston, International Association of College Unions President in remarks made at the ACU banquet Friday evening.

Ellingston included as reasons the facts that higher education is becoming increasingly specialized and more vocationally oriented and the personal communications between undergraduates and faculty is often times nonexistent and is generally decreasing.

Ellingston spoke before approximately 100 students at the three day conference jointly sponsored by University of Idaho and Washington State University.

"College is the last formal attempt to educate people to the meaning of the responsibility of citizenship. The responsibility is especially heavy on college unions for this," Ellingston said.

ACU Purposes

He remarked that throughout history college unions have been in general agreement on the purposes of higher education, including the acquisition, preservation and transmission of knowledge and the building of character and development of values, with which the union is primarily concerned.

"The teaching of humanity is being left to the peer group. It is you operating within the union," Ellingston said.

In developing a picture of the "good" union, the speaker emphasized six main points.

Joint Venture

"The good union will be a joint venture of the students and staff," he said. "It will be the center of nonconformity, needed so we can learn that disagreement can be present without despising the holder."

He went on to say that the good union will "have a heart" — will concern itself with persons as well as people. "The good union will be full of ex-

KUOI Begins Broadcasting On New System Tomorrow

Radio station KUOI will begin regularly scheduled broadcasting tomorrow, according to Jim Kuehn, McConnell, head announcer.

The student station is changing to a "carrier current" system which sends the signal to receivers over a network of wires rather than over the airwaves. Most college radio stations are required to use this system by the Federal Communications Commission.

The station will broadcast Monday through Thursday from 4 to 11 p.m.; Friday, 4 p.m. to 1 a.m.; Saturday, 1 p.m. to 1 a.m.; and Sunday, 2 to 11 p.m., said Kuehn.

Campus Coverage Planned

KUOI groups able to receive the broadcasts through the new system include: Willis Sweet, Uplam, Gault, McConnell, and Shoup, according to Roger Lackey, McConnell, station engineer.

Wires have been laid to the Wallace Complex, said Lackey, but defects in a booster have interfered with reception.

KUOI is now trying to cover freshmen basketball games from the Memorial Gymnasium, this goal, said Kuehn, chief announcer.

Staff Meeting Tonight

Tonight the newly organized staff of KUOI will hold its organizational meeting in the Beso-ka Room of the Student Union Building at 8 p.m.

All personnel, including the announcing and engineering staff, are required to attend, said Jim Kuehn, McConnell, chief announcer. Anyone having a legitimate excuse should contact Kuehn.

Anyone interested in working on the office staff at KUOI is also invited to attend, said Kuehn.

Announcers Selected

Newly selected announcers include: Lyle Eliason, Gault; Dick Rice, Mike McCoy, Darryl Bybee, Bill McMahon, Mark DeVries, Claude McGill, Willard Gribble, Steve Peck, Frank Sawyer, Jim Kuehn, and Gary Morn, McConnell.

Others include: Dave Bodine, Borah; Jim England, Willis Sweet; Bill Hallock, Bob Matthews, Shoup; Melanie Wetter, Campbell; Jon Wells, Farm House; Jim Davis, TKE; Michael Seibert, Hays; Jolene Harshbarger, Emma Sawyer, Pine; Don Davis, Dorin Balls, off campus; Elaine Jackson, French.

'P' Miss Wool State Runner-up

Ellen Ostheiler, Pi Phi, was first runner-up in the Idaho State Miss Wool contest.

She and other coeds from Idaho colleges and universities were judged on the basis of a portfolio of photographs by the Women's Auxiliary, Idaho Wool Growers Association, in Boise.

Miss Ostheiler is a sophomore and a journalism major.

New University buildings under construction are going up on schedule but some recently constructed are experiencing troubles.

While the new buildings are going up, the library, physical science building and part of the new Wallace complex are having their difficulties.

Bricks have fallen from the side wall of the new Physical Science Building, the Library walls are cracking, and complaints have been heard that doors won't close on the men's side of the new Wallace Complex.

Tremor Causes?

George Gagon, University engineer, said that the brick on the wall of the Life Science building was a veneer and not critical to the building's stability. He said he did not know exactly what caused the brick to fall but guessed that it might have been an earth tremor. He indicated that the tremors frequently occur in this area.

Whatever it was, he said, it caused the story angles (the top angles supporting the brick) to shift and too much load was put on the bottom angles which were unable to hold the load. Steps are being taken now to restore the wall and correct the angles, he said.

Cracked Walls

Gagon said the cracks in the wall of the library were cracks in the plaster and that the walls were non load-bearing. He explained that this is not an infrequent occurrence and is generally caused by shrinkage resulting from temperature changes.

As to the doors not closing in the Wallace Complex, Gagon said that he had not heard anything about them and suspected that it was nothing more than loose hinges or something else not serious, that caused the door trouble.

Interviews Set For 'U' Seniors

Senior placement interviews have been announced for the week of Nov. 10 through 13, by Sidney W. Miller, placement coordinator. Interviews scheduled are:

Nov. 10 — Montana Power Company, Engineering; Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, Spokane, Wash., Placement office; United States Air Force, SUB; Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart Portland, Ore., Placement office; and Bureau of Public Roads, Engineering.

Nov. 12 — The Boeing Company, Engineering; Price Waterhouse & Co., Placement office; Phillips Petroleum Co., Placement office; Hooker Chemical Company, Engineering.

Nov. 13 — The Boeing Company, Engineering; Puget Sound Naval Yard, Engineering; State Farm Insurance Co., Salem, Ore., Placement office.

Discussion Of Students, Teachers Set

All Freshmen English students and teachers are invited to attend the Popcorn and English Teachers informal discussion hour tonight from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Blue Room of the Student Union Building.

All freshmen are urged to attend, and most English teachers have been invited, according to Jim Freeman, Sigma Chi, co-chairman of the Coffee and Forums Committee.

"The Forums Committee and the English Department feel it is a good chance for students to meet their teachers personally," said Freeman. "And, it is also especially important for students who are having problems with English," he said.

Entertainment will be provided during the evening by Bob Caron and Dexter Yates, Sigma Chi, who will present folk singing and piano music; and a group from Phi Kappa Tau, Tom, Wally and Dick, who will also present folk numbers.

Popcorn will be served throughout the evening.

Shubert Recital Presented At 'F'

Compositions by Franz Schubert were presented in a music department recital last Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Music Building.

Both vocal and piano solos were presented in the program. Faculty members who participated were Agnes Schult, Marian Frykman, pianists; Warren Bellis, clarinetist; Charles Walton, tenor; and David Whisner, double bass.

Two students, Judith Schoepflin, soprano, and James Schoepflin, pianist, both off campus, opened the program with a selection entitled "The Shepherd on the Rock."

A group of six songs, in settings of poems by Heine were sung by Walton, and accompanied by Mrs. Schult on the piano.

Violinist Eleanor Mader and Phyllis, cellist, both of Pullman, assisted George Skramstead, a student violinist, Whisner and Frykman in the "Trout" Quintet.

Singers Meet

University Singers will meet Tuesday, Nov. 10. "Messiahs" are at the bookstore.

The Golden Fleece

By Jason

The Idaho football team has represented us well this year.

Picked by the pre-season experts to be one of the West Coast's biggest surprises this year, they have done just that. In spite of a 3-5 record with two games left, the Vandals have shown that they are a match for some of the country's finest teams.

Of the five losses, only Utah won by a wide margin and there the stats show that the margin was not really as wide as the score.

Iowa, Oregon State and last week Arizona had to come back in the last quarter to save the game. Oregon almost couldn't hang on to victory.

In their victories, the Vandals have been stunning. They held San Jose to 70 yards gained. Everyone played—but the first string only 18 minutes—in a 40-0 rout over Pacific. And that 28-13 homecoming victory over the crimson and grey of neighboring Washington State is a game that will long live in the minds of Idaho fans everywhere.

Saturday, the Vandals play Utah State in the annual Boise game. Alumni, students and friends of the University will be on hand to show their pride in the Idaho team and coaches.

They should be proud, the team is. Even after barely losing four games in a row early in the season, the Vandals have come back to fight harder each weekend.

As the final two games are all that remain of this season, we'd like the team and the coaches to know that we're with them all the way.

Kampus Keys Sell Today

Kampus Keys are on sale this afternoon, according to Jim Faucher, Sigma Chi, distribution chairman.

The Keys have been distributed to members of Blue Key, Mortar Board and various house officers and will be sold by them.

The keys which list addresses of all students and phone numbers will be sold for 75 cents per book, according to Faucher.

The books will also be sold downtown, said Faucher. Anyone wishing a Kampus Key may contact Jim Faucher or Jim Berry, Delt.

JC's Aid Band Drive

The lunch mouths at the football games have helped eat a path to Boise for the Idaho Marching Band.

It wasn't really a planned campaign, on the part of the eaters, at least. But they unwittingly did their part in school spirit, even if yells were sometimes muffled because of full mouths.

The workers in the project were the Moscow Junior Chamber of Commerce members. They, as you may recall, are the men who sell fool and soft drink at the games. Selling hotdogs isn't the only thing they do to raise money, but it's one of their major activities.

This year's crowds at the two home games have been larger than expected. As a result of big crowds with bigger appetites buying better than ever before, the JC's, when asked, managed to dig up $100 to help send the band to Boise. Their donation was the largest of any single group.

Helping the University is not a new thing with the group. Each year they give 16 per cent of the profits on their money making projects to the school. This year they have already given $1,300 from hotdog profits, alone.

Ted Bailey, JC President, said that the group had a special reason for helping the band to Boise.

"We're doing everything we can to help the senior Chamber impress the legislator," he said. We're going to help host them while they are here, and we've donated individually to help entertain them. When half-time begins we want to show them that students here have the push to get the band there," he said, "even if we have to give them a push to do it."

A quick tally of the group shows that about two-thirds of the JC members are also Vandal Boosters.

The next big problem for the JC's to solve is to decide who should get the two plane tickets to Boise to watch the game. The group won them for putting up the most money to send the band.

Bailey said that the tickets will be raffled at the JC meeting Wednesday night.

The members, he said, haven't decided whether they should be given as a pair or be drawn separately. He didn't know, either, what would happen if the group gave the tickets separately and the men's wives couldn't get reservations on the plane.

We appreciate what the JC's have done for the band, but we can assume no responsibility for their sticking their necks out that way. L. B.

We Would Be Missed

It is quite possible that one reason the Band to Boise project was so hard to complete was a lack of enthusiasm on the part of the administration.

The Administration did not endorse the project. Being a non-official function they would hardly be expected to endorse the Band's forthcoming trip.

They could have shown some degree of enthusiasm or made some sort of gesture that would have indicated at the least a non-opposed attitude. No statement was made on their part to the Argonaut, KRPL or the Idahonian.

We were told that while it was against the wishes of the administration that funds be solicited from the students that in this case the administration just "sort of closed their eyes" because they felt it was worthwhile.

If it was that worthwhile why couldn't some statement of support have been made?

Or was it really worthwhile? We were also told that this would be the last trip of this sort unless money had been budgeted previously. According to Academic Vice President Walter Steffens, the band wouldn't have been missed anyway. Not with 17 other bands there.

No so. One primary reason the alumni and friends of the University attend the Boise game is not to see a football game, but to feel a sense of belonging to the University. The crowd, the action, the familiar school colors, and the marching band all contribute.

Who else has a fight song as stirring as the Vandal's? Who can do justice to that song? Certainly not the Utah State Band nor any high school band. No fault of theirs but you have to really "belong" to the University of Idaho to really put the feeling in that makes ours the greatest fight song.

Before the letters pour in let's hasten to say we can't back-up that statement with anything but faith and the experience of having heard the Vandal fight song often, but never without sending a shiver up and down our spine.

Ask any team member what the song means to him. Ask any alum if he ever fails to get a thrill from hearing the fight song. And nobody, but nobody, does it as well as the University of Idaho Marching Band. We are sure the administrators know this but in the pressing problems of preparing a budget and getting ready to host Idaho Legislators it must have slipped their minds.

Our grateful thanks to students, even some from WSU, and to townspeople, especially the Jaycess for putting this project over. And a special thanks to KRPL. Without them we wouldn't have made it. J. B.

Today's Question: Are You In Favor of a Sales Tax. Do You Think It Will be Supported in the Next Legislative Session? John Chapdelain, Sophomore, off campus; "I'm in favor of it, and hope it will be supported. Idaho loses a lot of money from people who travel throughout the state. If we could get more revenue from them we could improve our state, as to better highways, and decent schools."

Nina Jenkins, Junior, Kappa; "I think I would be in favor of it. We need some money somehow and need to do something, but I don't know if it will be supported or not. Lawrence McMinimem, Junior, off campus; "I'm against it because I don't live here and wouldn't see the benefits. I do think that it would help in the school programs."

Paul Freudenthal, Sophomore, Lambda Chi; "I'd say yes. It probably would be supported because Idaho is a tourist state and would bring in other than Idaho income. Just collecting tourist money would be worth it, Idaho needs the money." Rick Callender, Freshman, Gault; "I think the tax system in Idaho needs help, and help would come from sales tax. Issues haven't started to develop for the legislative session, so I don't know if it will come up or not."

Ron Luby, Sophomore, Sigma Nu; "Certainly I'm in favor of it, but I don't think it will be supported in the legislative session. The people in Idaho don't want it — don't want to spend their money like that." Anne Lund, Sophomore, Foreney; "I'm not in favor if we have to pay state income tax too. It's too much trouble, and I don't think it will be supported."

Mike Seibert, Sophomore, Hays; "I'll bet you any amount of money that they pass it this year. The University needs more funds to operate and that's the only way to get them." Steve Miller, Senior, off campus; "Yes I am in favor of it. It's hard to say whether or not it will be supported. If the legislators would wake up it would be supported. The state needs to cut property tax because it is penalizing property owners. Legislators should cut property tax and substitute sales tax."

Karen Hansen, Alpha Phi, sophomore; "No, I'm not in favor of sales tax because by the time you buy things and pay sales tax on them, you don't want to buy anything any more." Ron Cummings, Senior, off campus; "I'm opposed to it, but I know that there is growing support. It is being pushed by various groups; the Educational associations and from the southern part of the state. However, in northern Idaho there is little popular support. My principal objection is that it is a flat rate tax, which I don't consider to be an equitable method of revenue source."

Gary McLaughlin, and Mike Gallagher, Seniors, Sigma Nu; "I am definitely not for it if it is not initiated as a substitute for income tax. If it is not a substitute, the people of the state will have their personal income taxed twice. It probably will be supported." "I'm in favor of it if the money is put into highways and education and not just dumped into the general fund under administrative expenses. It will be supported."

Jim Dahl, Lambda Chi, Sophomore; "The only bad thing about a sales tax is that it would hurt people with lower incomes. I am in favor of it and think it will be supported." JoAnn Sanborn, Campbell, senior; "I'm not in favor of it but do think it is the only way we will balance the budget in the state of Idaho."

Howard Shaver, TKE, sophomore; "Yes, I am in favor of it. I believe it will be passed in the present legislature because the legislators aren't too happy with the present tax system. The sales tax would get people out of the state paying taxes and would tend to spread the tax burden around."

New officers are Marilyn Ramsey, house manager; Gail Lechner, assistant house manager; Margaret Hegler, activities; Diana Gray, song leader; Patty Dierker, recording secretary; and Mary Kay Spratt, publicity.

HOUSTON
During a dress dinner exchange with Gault last Wednesday, Jane Wenzel, Houston, received the "Girl of the Month" bracelet for her work on the Homecoming float.

A big and little sister party was held last week featuring a "Kangaroo Court." Four girls dressed as Beatles received prizes for best costumes.

DELTA DELTA DELTA
Dinner guests Sunday at the Tri Delta house were Mrs. D. R. Theophilus; Dr. H. Walter Steffens, academic vice president and Mrs. Steffens; and Charles Decker, dean of students, and Mrs. Decker.

The annual pledge dance was held last Friday with the theme "Crescent Carnival." Music was provided by the Statesmen.

SIGMA NU
The Sigma Nus held their annual pledge dance, "The Days of Wine and Romans" last Saturday. The dance was based on a Roman theme and Roman costumes were worn by the Sigma Nus and their dates.

Chaperones were Lt. Commander Mark H. Moore, assist. prof. of naval science and Mrs. Moore; Captain William L. Green, assist. prof. of Air Science and Mrs. Green; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fish, Moscow; and Mrs. Richard Farnsworth, assistant manager of the SUB.

Ron McKinstrey, formerly of McConnell, was recently pledged.

FARMHOUSE
Pledge class officers of Farmhouse are Rick Farnsworth, president; Ron Walters, vice president; Rick Ross, secretary and Dave Sweetwood, social chairman.

Farmhouse pledges have recently held exchanges with Ethel Steel and Forney.

"The Long Tall Texan" was the theme for the Farmhouse pledge dance held Oct. 31. The costumed dance was chaperoned by Dr. Leon Orme, assistant prof. of animal science, and Mrs. Orme; Dr. John Montoure, assistant prof. of dairy science, and Mrs. Montoure; Jim Goddard, basketball coach, and Mrs. Goddard.

PINE
"Paul Bunyan Ball" was the theme of Pine Hall's fall dance which was held last Saturday night. Babe the Blue Ox, pine needles, and a mural were among the decorations. Music was provided by the Flames.

SIGMA CHI
The theme of the Sigma Chi pledge dance which was held

Saturday night was "The House of the Rising Sun."

A funeral procession complete with mourners and hearse took place last week at the Kappa House. The reason was the annual Sigma Chi "Fly Burial."

Ray Givens gave a funeral oration and the Kappas, who were decked in black, were the principle mourners.

LINDLEY HALL
Lindley Hall held an exchange with Pine Hall last Wednesday after dinner.

PI PHI
Pi Phi held their annual pledge dance Saturday night, honoring their pledges and new initiate Susan Cross.

The theme of their dance was "Pi Phi Peanut Night." Decorations were posters of Peanuts Comic Strip characters depicting the pledges, and of hanging strings of peanuts. Music was by The Wanderers.

PHI DELT
Phi Deltas are hosting their National Traveling Secretary, Devon L. Weaver, from Hanover College, Indiana. He arrives Sunday and is expected to stay until mid-week.

Improving Image Of Fraternities Is IFC Goal, State New Officers

The Inter-Fraternity Council hopes to gain a better understanding with the general public and with the independents on campus through the new Greek Week and other projects during the coming year, said Mick Morfitt, SAE, new president of IFC elected Thursday at a meeting at Sigma Chi.

Other officers selected were: Bob Bartlett, Beta, vice president; Ron Twilegar, Fiji, rush chairman; Lynn Manus, TKE, secretary; Dennis Welch, Sigma Nu, treasurer; and Bob Thiessen, SAE, publicity chairman.

"One of our main goals this year is to improve the public image of the Idaho fraternity system," said Morfitt. "We hope to achieve this goal by publicizing the many beneficial projects carried out by the Idaho fraternities each year which otherwise would not be communicated to the general public."

"I feel that last year there was more co-operation between the two," he replied. "I'm sure that we will capitalize upon this step in the right direction as we all work together for a bigger and better University of Idaho."

"This past year was very interesting and rewarding for both myself and the IFC. I'd like to express my thanks to my fellow officers and the officers and men of the fraternity system," said Nye.

Special Thanks
He gave a special thanks to Guy Wicks, associate dean of students, and other members of the University administration, and to Janice Craig, Theta, president of PanHellenic, and the women of PanHellenic.

"I'm confident that the new slate of officers will do a fine job. I wish them the best of luck and as much enjoyment from their work as I have had. I'd like to wish every opportunity to the men of Pi Kappa Alpha," said Nye.

Outgoing Officers
Other outgoing officers include: Dick Mace, Lambda Chi, vice president; Mick Morfitt, SAE, secretary; Gary Mahn, Sigma Nu, rush chairman; Paul Henden, Phi Tau, treasurer; and Duayne Goicochea, Delt, publicity chairman.

Achievements of the past administration include: the annual Lewiston Retreat, changing the requirements for the all-house scholarship trophy to the full year, semester and fall rush of 360 men, and establishing a new colony at Idaho, according to Morfitt.

Future plans include a Greek Week. Activities under consideration for Greek Week are: exchange dinners, guest speakers and forums, an all-Greek project, and officer workshops, said Morfitt. Ken Johnson, Phi Delt, is chairman of Greek Week.

Rush chairman, Ron Twilegar, said he hoped to see that all prospective rushees are well informed of the rushing procedure at the University when they enter next fall.

Second Goal
Morfitt said that a second goal of IFC will be to continue the long tradition of co-operation and friendship among the various fraternities on campus.

IFC is composed of a representative and the president of each fraternity and one representative from Pi Kappa Alpha, the new colony.

The group schedules monthly dinner meetings at the various fraternities.

The vice president of IFC is the advisor of the Junior IFC, a service organization composed of representatives from each fraternity pledge class.

The newly elected officers will hold office until November of 1965.

IK's Select 5 'Queen' Finalists
Five finalists in the annual IK Duchess Contest were selected Sunday night.

They are Barbara Howard, Kappa; Dawn Sheppard, Gamma Phi; Virginia Miller, DG; Margie Brunn, Pi Phi; and Dorothy Baughmann, Houston.

The finalists were chosen on the basis of talent, charm, poise and personality. They will appear before the IK's Tuesday night for final judging.

John St. Clair, Phi Delt, chairman of the contest, said that the new 1964-65 Duchess will be announced Nov. 13 and will go to the Regional Convention of IKs.

Applications Deadline Set For Grants

The Stanford University Department of Communication is now receiving applications for graduate scholarships for the 1965-66 academic year.

The deadline for completing applications is Jan. 15. The scholarships carry stipends from $1,575 to $3,000.

The awards are for persons preparing for careers in editorial journalism, mass communications research, advertising and media research, and broadcasting and film.

These are grants, no assistantships, and no service is required of the recipient.

Some of the scholarships include: Charles Samuel Jackson, Jr. Fellowship, Melville Jacoby Fellowship, Stanley Stemmer Beaubaire Scholarship, Edd Johnson Memorial Scholarship, Advertising Research Fellowship, and University Fellowships and Scholarships.

Some research assistantships paying $2,000 to $2,500 are also available to students with some training in statistics.

Requests for particular information should be addressed to the Executive Head, Department of Communication, Stanford University, Stanford, Calif.

WAC Officer Schedules Visit

The Army WAC Officer Program will be explained to interested Idaho women by Lieutenant Helen L. Crawford, U.S. Army WAC Selection Officer, Friday in the Ee-da-hoo Room of the Student Union Building at 2:15 p.m.

The College Junior Program provides a four-week orientation at the WAC Center, Fort McClellan, Ala., for junior women from colleges and universities across the nation.

The program's purpose is to help these women learn about the life of a WAC Officer and opportunities available for qualified college graduates in varied career fields.

Lieutenant Crawford will also visit with faculty representatives.

Business Symposium Scheduled In Boise

"European Common Market and the USA" will be one of the subjects discussed at the Annual Business Symposium to be held in Boise, Friday.

Twenty-eight University students will leave Thursday for the conference and will be housed in the Boise Hotel, courtesy of the Boise Chamber of Commerce.

Other discussion subjects are economic growth, the international balance of payments, and unemployment.

The role and size of profits will be discussed; the sharing of productivity gains, inflation, the balanced budget, tariff policies and U.S. manufacturing abroad. The symposium will also consider the problem of American senior citizens.

Students attending are Larry

Grimes, Owen Pipal, Patrick Killien, and Gordon Taylor, all Betas.

Carl West, Ken Johnston, Larry Nye, all Phi Deltas; and Lou Benoit, DG.

Among the off campus students attending are Millicent Batt, John Fairman, Craig MacPhee, Carl Johannessen, Wayne Wimer, Bruce Keithly and Christopher Gibbs.

Other students include Joseph McCollum, SAE; Samuel Taylor, Willis Sweet; Frederick Fancher, Delt; Carol Hussa, Hays; Sue Rasmuson, Kappa; Catherine Lyons, Campbell; Bruce Simon, Upham, and Jim Johnston, Farmhouse.

Benny Blick, Fred Freeman, and David McClusky are the Sigma Chis planning to attend the meeting.

Sigma Nus attending include Gary Mann and John Dahl.

Marines Honor Oldest, Youngest King Chosen As Casanova

The Oldest Marine and the Youngest Marine were honored Saturday at the 1964 Marine Corps Ball.

The Oldest Marine was Lee R. Brannan, a retired Moscow Realtor, and the Youngest Marine was Bruce Yilek, off campus, a freshman attending the University of Idaho on the Navy Enlisted Scientific Education Program.

Navy Captain Harry E. Davey, Jr., Commander of the University Naval ROTC unit was the Guest of Honor.

A narration of the history of the Corps' History was given by Maj. R. E. Moore and GY-SGT B. B. Chapman.

Other special guests were Lt. Col. Robert C. Ogletree, Commander of the Airforce ROTC unit, and Col. Howard Cornutt, prof. of military science at Washington State University.

Maj. R. E. Moore said that the crowd of 160 "was a conglomeration of marines, ex-marines, and friends of marines."

The king of the "Castle Casanova" contest was crowned during the Kappa Alpha Theta pledge dance Saturday night.

Jim Weaver, Fiji, was crowned by Joanne Schaerli, Theta, contest chairman; and Gary Dalton, Phi Delt, last years Castle Casanova, during intermission of the annual dance.

Theme of the semi-formal dance was "Castle of My Dreams."

Other finalists for the contest were Wally Phifer, Phi Tau; Beaver Nelson, Beta; Joe Reid, Delta Sig; Denny (Sam) Mix, Phi Delt; Dick Plastino, Gault, and Dave Sweetwood, Farmhouse.

During the contest, finalists attended dress dinner and raunch fun night last week at the Theta house.

ISU Takes Title, Vandals Second

Idaho's harriers ran a tough race, but could not overcome the strong showing of Idaho State, as they lost the Big Sky cross country crown they won last year.

Swim Finals Due, VB Next

The swimming finals will put the wraps on the fifth intramural sport of the season tonight, as action begins at 7 p.m.

Beta is leading the swimming field with 103 points, going into tonight's finals. SAE is second with 98, Fiji third with 80, Phi Delta is fourth with 71, and Delta Chi fifth with 65.

The 50-yard free style will be the first event on the slate, followed by the 50-yard back stroke, 50-yard breast stroke, 100-yard free style, 50-yard butterfly, and diving.

Two relays will wind up the finals at 7:50 p.m. They are the 150 medley relay and the 200 free style relay.

Volleyball
Intramural volleyball is scheduled to start tomorrow night at 7 p.m. in Memorial Gym, according to Clem Parberry, IM director.

Rules, schedule, and instructions have been posted in all men's living groups and further information is available in the IM office located in the gym.

Wednesday's schedule is as follows:

- 7 p.m. Court
 - 1 CC vs. BH
 - 2 UH vs. TMA
 - 3 McH vs. CH
 - 4 LH vs. WSH

- 7:40
 - 1 SH vs. GH
 - 2 CC-2 vs. BH-2
 - 3 UH-2 vs. TMA-2
 - 4 McH-2 vs. CH-2

- 8:15
 - 1 LH-2 vs. WSH-2
 - 2 SH-2 vs. GH-2

first 10 places on the way to clinching the win with 30 points. Idaho, who beat ISU last year by four points, were second with 63. Montana State was third with 71.

Paul Henden gave the Vandals their best finish of the day, as he took sixth place in 20:05 minutes for the four mile course. John Mynott finished tenth in 21:03 and Ted Quirk was eleventh 21:05 to give Idaho its scoring punch. Charles Fleiger came in with a 21:15 time and the 17th place, followed by Nils Jabsen in 19th position.

Scott Scampers
Idaho State's Art Scott won the meet with a time of 19:26 over the Mount Ogden Park course. Doug Brown of Montana won the race last year with a time of 20:24.5. Henden was second with 20:33.9. Scott finished fourth with 21:47.

Weber State's Dave Trujillo was second in Ogden to cross the wire at 19:27, just one second off the pace. Fred Friesz placed third for Montana State with a 19:28 to make it a close three way race.

ISU also took fourth, fifth, seventh and 13th out of the first 15 places.

The Vandals managed their second place finish by bringing all five runners home in the top 20.

Tough Loss
Track Coach Doug MacFarlane said that he was disappointed in losing the title to ISU, but that he was very pleased with the performances of the team, especially the frosh.

"The only reason we lost the meet was because Idaho State was better," he said.

Last Meet
Idaho will finish the 1964 season this coming Saturday in Seattle at the Northwest AAU Championships.

MacFarlane will have the same team participating in the event as was in the Big Sky meet. Henden and Jabsen will probably see their last cross country or 10,000 meter competition as collegiate athletes in this meet.

Future Foe Tops Kansas

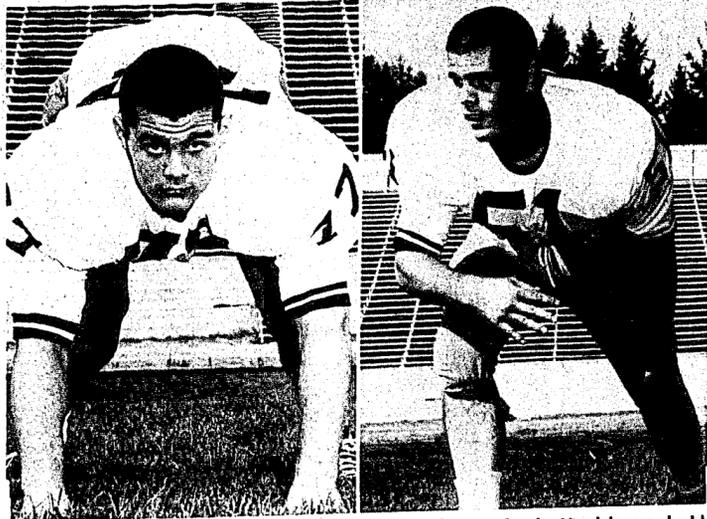

Quarterback John Torok paced his fellow Sun Devils to a 21-10 victory over the Kansas State gridders in a nonconference game played at Tempe last Saturday.

It was Torok's arm and a stubborn second half defense that led the Sun Devils to their sixth victory in seven games.

Torok was 13 for 23 in the passing department as he threw for a total of 193 yards and two touchdown passes to end Dewey Forrister.

The Vandals meet the Sun Devils in Tempe on Saturday Nov. 21 in what promises to be a battle for the airways.

If the Vandals are able to stop Torok's aerial attack and their next opponents, the Utah State Aggies, they will finish the season with a 5-3 record.

DOUBLE TROUBLE — Stan and Steve Buratto, tackle and center for the Vandals, are double trouble for the opposition as they fill up the center of the line. The twins both lettered last year for Dee Andros, and have been regular starters this season. Stan had trouble with an injury in '63, but came back and took over a tackle spot. Stan and Steve are from Clarkston, Wash.

Vandal Babes Clobber Coubabes In "Little Battle Of Palouse", 30-6

The Vandal Babes of Idaho capitalized on a series of Washington State Coubabe fumbles to romp to an easy 30-6 victory in the fourth annual "Little Battle of the Palouse" at Pullman Friday.

The game ended the Idaho season and left the Vandal Babes with a 2-1 record. They defeated Washington in addition to WSU, tied with the frosh from Montana State and were defeated at the hands of a tough Boise Junior College team.

Moved Well, But
The Coubabes moved the ball well, in the opening minutes of play. However, once the hard-hitting Idaho defense started to roll, they contracted a bad case of "fumble-itus".

WSU didn't get its touchdown until the final eight seconds of the game when Coubabe quarterback Dick Schreck pushed the pigskin across from inside the one yard line, climaxing the WSU's only sustained drive of the day. The conversion kick was wide.

Monahan Regains Lead In BSAC Total Offense

Mike Monahan, the Idaho Vandal's little spunky quarterback, who fell from the Big Sky Conference passing and total offense lead last week, was back on top of the heap this week.

The Vandal quarterback completed five for twelve tosses in Idaho's 14-7 loss to Arizona to push his individual total to 42 completions and 109 attempts for 688 passing yards to unseat Weber's Ron Haun. Monahan added another 98 yards in rushing to up his total offense to 783 to edge Idaho State's Billy Shaw in that department.

Haun and Shaw led the passing and total offense departments briefly last week. Shaw, whose Bengals fell 28-21 to North Dakota State, remained second in total offense with 739 yards. Shaw and Monahan each have 179 total offensive plays. The Bengal signal caller added another TD to his scoring output.

AF Shows Navy How

The University of Idaho Air Force ROTC football team rolled to an easy 13-0 victory over the Navy ROTC gridders in a game played Sunday on the Ad lawn.

Both Air Force scores came on long passes from quarterback Steve Whittell to end Jim Johnston.

The game was the last in a single elimination series between the Army, Navy and Air Force ROTC units here at Idaho. The tournament was the first in what is hoped will become an annual affair.

Utah State Next For Vandals Old Records Tumble As Vandals Roll

This is the year that the football record books are being rewritten at the University of Idaho.

Both as a team and as individuals the marks are being erased each game.

Newest mark in the book is a new career punting mark of 107 set by Mickey Rice one of the nation's top kickers. The old record of 100 was set by Jim Norton, now punting specialist for the Houston Oilers. Rice should also take the season and career marks of best average.

Ray Rumbles
Ray McDonald, the sensational Caldwell crasher, will wipe out a pair of season rushing marks next game. His 105 carries is only 11 short of Mike Mosoff's record set in 1961. His 507 yards is 71 short of Wilbur Garry's total in 1954. No one has been able to hold McDonald to less than 100 yards per game since he joined the squad.

Joe Chapman, the Coeur d'Alene bob catcher has a total of 366 yards receiving and could catch Reg Carolan's 498 with a couple of more long tosses from Mike Monahan. Monahan's four TD passes put him within range of Sil Vial's seven thrown in '60. His is also within four of Bill Williams' carrier mark of 10.

Rough Road Ahead
With a defensive minded pair of foes coming up in Utah State at Boise this Saturday and Arizona State at Tempe next week the Vandals will have their work cut out for them to hit the .500 mark for the season and smash several more records. But the printers are standing by to overhaul the books.

Fumbles Hurt
The Vandal Babes got off to a quick start in the second half as they recovered a WSU fumble and moved the ball 26 yards in two plays to set up a 32-yard field goal by Danielson.

The longest Idaho score of the day came on a 51-yard bomb from Mitchell to end Rick Toney. Danielson kicked the extra point and the score was 17-0. A Coubabe fumble on the next own 34-yard line set up the next Idaho scoring drive. Six plays later, Davidson skirted around left end on a pitchout from Mike Mitchell with 51 seconds left in the quarter and Idaho led 23-0.

The Vandal Babes capitalized on another WSU fumble late in the fourth quarter. A 19-yard pass from Paul Gentle to Rich Toney put the frosh in position for their final touchdown. Wingback Ron McKinstry took a pitchout from quarterback, Mitchell on the option play to give Idaho 29 points. Danielson's kick made it 30.

WRA Tie EWS In Field Hockey

The Women's Recreation Association field hockey team tied the Eastern Washington State College team 1-1 in a game played here last Friday.

The WRA field hockey team posted a 4-2 victory over the WSU team in a game played on Saturday.

The team will travel to Corvallis, Oregon, next Thursday to compete in the Northwest Field Hockey Tournament.

All girls interested in joining the University women's ski team are asked to attend a meeting to be held this Wednesday evening at 6:45 in the Women's Gymnasium.

Utah State Next For Vandals Old Records Tumble As Vandals Roll

TUCSON, Ariz.—A blocked field goal attempt which took a 24-yard Arizona bounce and a halfback pass play which failed for the Wildcats the week before against Air Force cost the Idaho Vandals their chances of pulling out their second winning season since 1938, Saturday at Tucson.

For the Vandals it was a hot, heartbreaking afternoon which saw them lead in statistics 294 yards to Arizona's 277 and hold a 7-7 tie until only 44 seconds remained.

"Any time two teams so evenly matched play, the big play wins," Idaho Head Coach Dee Andros said yesterday. "For us the big play was that field goal when we were on the Arizona 11. We were in perfect field goal position, and I felt that 10-7 was the surest way to win. But we put the ball deeper than we should have, and the outside kid came in," he said.

Then Arizona capitalized on their big play. After being hit hard by the Vandals and rocked back for an eight yard loss, the red, white and blue clad Arizona team set up its winning score. It was fourth and 18 on the Idaho 35 when Wildcat quarterback Eddie Bricker pitched out to halfback Ricky "the Flea" Harris who flipped a quick one to end John Fouse at the two. Two plays later Arizona fullback Preston Davis scored.

"USU—Even Matched"
It is just such big plays that Andros and the Vandals intend to keep back from the Utah State Aggies and the Sun Devils of Arizona State in the Vandals' final games. Andros has both of the Southwestern powers chalked up as even matches for the Vandals.

When the Vandals face Utah State at Boise Saturday, they'll crash with an explosive offense which has gained a 5-2-1 record.

After viewing the movies of Saturday's game, Andros said, "We played hard—the stats show that—but not as well as we did in the last three games. We were sluggish. The heat was 82 degrees."

Defensive Battle
Arizona was billed as a defensive team before the game. "Both defensive teams played the same kind of a game — between the 20's," Andros said noting that the lines stiffened when the other posed a scoring threat.

"The only time the Arizona fans cheered was when (halfback) Floyd Hudlow broke through for a few or when the Arizona defense stopped Ray (McDonald) for a two or three yard gain," he said with a pa.

Tryouts Set For Helldivers

Tryouts for Helldivers will be held Thursday night at 6:45 p.m. in the Memorial Gymnasium. Helldivers, synchronized swimming honorary, is open to any interested students except first semester freshmen women, according to Margie Felton, Kap-pa.
