Petitions Appealing Ruling Given President

Petitions appealing Judicial Council's "94 credit" ruling in the Jim Winger case were in the hands of President D. R. Theophilus yesterday, a day before the Council's official ruling was to have reached the President.

Council Deletes '94 Hours'

Theophilus said that he couldn't rule on the appeal until he had received the written ruling of the council. He promised, however, that once he had received the ruling he would take a stand in a few hours.

Over 1,000

A nine man delegation led by ASUI President Jim Johnston and including other ASUI elected and appointed officers presented petitions with more than 1,000 signatures on them to the President.

"We are appealing the council's right to arbitrarily set 94 credits as a definition of an incoming senior to be eligible to sit on Executive Board," Cathy Lyon, an E-Board member in the group told the President.

Judicial council members were meeting at 9 p.m. last night to write their formal ruling on the case they decided Thursday. Seward H. (Skip) French, who was to draft the decision, said that he expected to get the final decision to the President today.

The petition which was presented to the President was started Saturday evening after a meeting of a group of student leaders.

New Elections?

Friday a separate petition to ask for a new election was started by members of Upham and Gault Halls.

Winger, who won a write-in seat on the board and was ruled ineligible starting the drawn-out controversy, said that he did not know how far this petition had gone before it was dropped after the other petition was presented.

Opposition to the petitions was expressed in a letter to the Argonaut signed only "The Special Committee on Responsible Student Government."

The letter charged that the petitions were:

- (1) An open affront to responsible student government,
- (2) Another move to centralize control of our government in the Administration, and
- (3) a tangible sign of the inability of these students to work within the framework of their own constitution.

Campus Streets To Be Cleaned

Students who will not be using their cars over the vacation are asked to move them to the following parking areas: West Lot-Corner of Third and Line Streets; Lot east of SAE fraternity on Sweet avenue; lot north of McConnell Hall; and any other lot not black-top or concrete surfaced.

Cars left on the streets will be towed away and service charges billed to the owners, according to Wilson Rogers, chief of plant protection.

A ruling requiring that candidates for Executive Board not have 94 or more credits at the time of filing for election was discarded by Judicial Council in a meeting last night.

At the time of the formal decision Monday, the Council also called for a complete recount of all the ballots cast in the March 17 election. The council then presented a formal statement on the eligibility of Jim Winger.

"Winger, a write-in candidate in the March 17 election, was declared ineligible because he is a senior as classified by the University Registrar in his official capacity," according to Skip French, council member.

"Winger had filed for a degree to be conferred in June of 1965 and admitted he intended to take that degree," said French. Winger had earned 111 credits at the time of his declaration for candidacy, and is now carrying 18 credits making him eligible for a degree.

"On the basis of these facts, it cannot be asserted that Winger is an incoming senior as it is ordinarily used and understood," French said.

"We hold that Election Board recount all votes cast on March 17, 1965," French said. "This recount is being made in light of the decision of Winger versus Election Board."

Judicial Council also recommended that Executive Board adopt an amendment to determine the eligibility of other candidates if they are similar to Winger, French said.

Blue Key Seeking Members

Applications for Blue Key, upperclassmen's service honorary are available at the ASUI office.

The applications must be returned to the ASUI office by 5 p.m. on April 22.

Applicants must have junior standing and a grade point above the all men's average.

Blue Key, which is limited to 35 members, will judge the applications on the basis of activities and grade point.

The membership committee will study the applications and assign points to the applications according to a predetermined rate.

Each activity is assigned a certain number of points in order to compare each applicant's activities.

The total number of points is submitted along with the application by the committee to the entire membership for a vote.

McCann Returns To U of I

Bill McCann, ASUI president-elect traveled to Nashville Tennessee last week to attend a meeting with the thirteen national officers of the Associate Student Government at Vanderbilt University.

This national organization, which was formed last year, is an endeavor to promote the exchange of ideas between student governments, McCann said.

Charter Member

McCann was elected as chairman of region eight at the national convention last Thanksgiving at Oklahoma University. (Region eight includes Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming and Alaska.) He explained that Idaho became a charter member after an initial meeting at which Jim Johnston, ASUI president attended.

"At that time we were members of the National Student Association (NSA)," McCann said. "But this was a political organization that used our name in political matters. The ASG is non-political formed only for the betterment of student government and I think of more benefit to the University."

This meeting with the thirteen officers was to work out plans for the forthcoming annual national convention, McCann explained. The national officers include the President, three administrative vice presidents, treasurer and eight regional chairmen. The national convention is scheduled for October 14-16 at Purdue University.

"It was held in conjunction with the Vanderbilt impact symposium which dealt with the 'Democratic Responsibility,'" McCann said.

Applications Due For AC Directors

Applications for the seven new Activities Council Area directors must be turned into the Student Union office by 5 p.m. today, according to Dick Tracy, publicity area director of the Council.

The areas include publicity, recreational, Vandal rally, cultural - educational, services, and social and budget director.

The seven area directors organize and supervise committees in charge of such activities as coffee hours, New Student Days, the Calendar, SUB films, Blue Bucket Inn and Jazz-in-the-Bucket.

The directors will be selected in interviews tomorrow.

Various Duties
Tracy enumerated the various duties of the directors. He said the Educational - Cultural area director is charged with exhibits, coffee hours, and

Moscow-Pullman Can House 1,000

A maximum 1,000 students could be housed in the Moscow-Pullman area Troy Bussey, Moscow Chamber of Commerce manager, told the Argonaut yesterday.

Bussey's announcement followed last-week's decision by the Operations Council against Idaho's acting as host for the 1967 Model United Nations.

BIG SPLASH—The new Frosh Week activity, the tricycle race, made a big splash Saturday morning after the freshman-sophomore tug-of-war over Paradise Creek. The tricycle teams raced over a course marked out on the Beta-Gamma Phi parking lot and were deluged with water by the spectators the entire time.

Blood Drive To Be Competitive

Individual living groups will be pitted against each other on an individual basis in this year's Blood Drive, according to Bob Dutton, Delt, chairman.

Campus fraternities, sororities, and residence halls will compete with others of the same size, said Dutton.

As an example Campbell and Houston halls, about the same size, would compete against each other.

However, an over-all trophy will be awarded to the living group with the highest percentage out of the 42 residences on campus. Blood bottles will also be awarded.

Blood Usually Over Quota
Since the first blood drive, November, 1950, 16,485 pints of blood have come from the University of Idaho. Over the past 14 years the set quota has always been surpassed and this year's quota is 750 pints.

Idaho has the best blood drive record of any western school, according to E. F. Sestero, M.D., director of the Boise Regional Blood Center of American National Red Cross.

Need Parental Release
All donors under the age of 21 must have a release form from their parents. The IK's will distribute the forms this week so that students may take them home over spring break.

Blue Key Talents, Jokes Draw 1,800 Persons

Dancing, singing, clowning, satire, a near capacity crowd and Blue Key wrapped up its 19th annual talent show Friday night.

Performing before about 1,800 persons in the memorial Gymnasium were 16 varied acts of entertainment, three of them judged winners, and two received honorable mention.

The winners were: small group; Tom Eastman and Wally Pfeiffer, Phi Tau, folk singing group; and solo, Barbara Howard, Kappa, tap dance.

All House award went to the Kappa Sigs for their "James Bomb" number, a parody on the popular Ian Fleming adventure character.

Honorable mention went to The Ramblers, a group of Delt singers and Jean Tanner, Alpha Chi; and to Margaret Elder, off campus, vocal solo.

Jokes Popular
Much added entertainment was added by the Blue Key members and the masters of ceremony, and the jokes seemed to be very popular, according to Carl Johannessen, talent show general chairman.

Many of the jokes were related to the campus, such as a satire on the Diogenes Lantern

Without Fear, Favor

Function Of Free Press Outlined By Editor

The function of America's free press is to cover the news of public affairs, factually, fairly and fully, without fear or favor, some 400 high school journalists were told Friday morning.

William F. Johnston, managing editor of the Lewiston Morning Tribune and keynote speaker at the University's annual high school journalism conference, held Friday and Saturday, said that in journalism there lies something of vital importance that someone can do for his country.

"The function of the press is to express in editorial comments the newspaper's honest, responsible convictions about the meaning of the news. It is to guarantee that all who disagree shall have a forum for disagreement and debate in a press which is their free press, too," he said.

Critical Shortage

The keynote speaker went on to say that America's newspapers face "a critical shortage of writers and editors who are skilled enough, informed enough, determined and persevering enough" to fulfill journalism's basic responsibility of "informing the public about public affairs."

Following the basic theme of service to one's country, Johnston said, "We of the press have a solemn assignment in our democratic society. "It is the fundamental function of the press to circulate in the open market of public opinion the facts, the arguments and the conflicting convictions about public issues which the people must have if they are to decide those issues as free men and women."

Mrs. Powers
Mrs. Dorothy Rochon Powers, reporter and columnist for the Spokesman - Review, offered hope to girls interested in journalism in a speech at an evening banquet at the Student Union.

"There is no territory that could not be covered by women reporters of today," she said.

Mrs. Powers said she hoped to "lure into journalism" all those at the banquet.

"You couldn't possibly choose a more fitting or rewarding field," she said.

The conference ended with an awards luncheon Saturday noon, when honors were given to school papers rated by the University journalism department and individual awards were given in writing contests.

Honors Winners
Pocatello, Meridian and Meadow Valley high school papers won first-place plaques in their respective classes for general excellence.

Borah High School of Boise placed first in feature writing; Pocatello in news writing; Meadow Valley in a service campaign and Lewiston in sports.

Karen Wallace of Borah won the Idaho Press Women's award for the outstanding girl editor from among 12 candidates. Patty Blecha, Nampa, won the Theta Sigma essay contest award.

For individual feature and news writing contests, Farrell Phillips, Pocatello, placed first. Winning the sports writing contest was Bill Carter of Sandpoint.

KEYNOTER—William F. Johnston, managing editor of the Lewiston Tribune, was the keynote speaker Friday morning at the University High School Journalism Conference. The function of America's free press is to cover the news factually, fairly and fully, without fear or favor, he said.

The Golden Fleece

By Jason

"DON'T SIGN THAT PETITION," said the three-page note on my desk yesterday morning.

I've got news for your "friends," I helped pass that petition. (And the Argonaut dislikes anonymous letters—but sign 'em, we'll print 'em.)

Now I'll tell you why. Judicial Council's ruling Thursday (provided they haven't change it in view of opposition to it) eliminated a number of people who could be the most qualified to serve on Executive Board.

By saying that an "incoming senior" — in ASUI Constitutional terms—can not have more than 94 credit hours, Judicial Council would penalize ambitious souls who decide to run for E-Board their Junior year if they have gone to summer school or have taken 19 credits a semester.

The Long Wait

The petition to the President was one of two ways which students could take to change the ruling—and it was the shortest route. Judicial Council decisions are subject to review by the President.

The interval since the ASUI Election, March 17th, has already been one of the longest terms in the history of the ASUI before the outcome is definitely known.

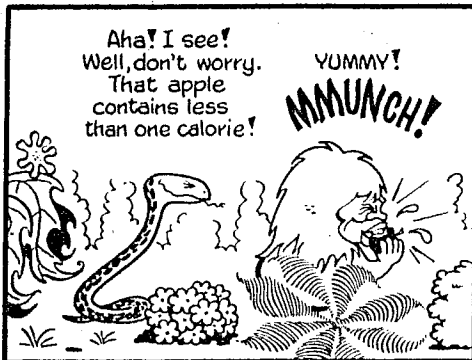

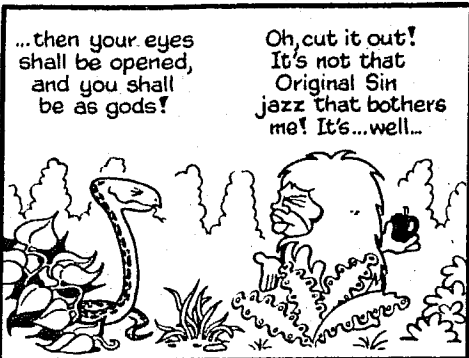

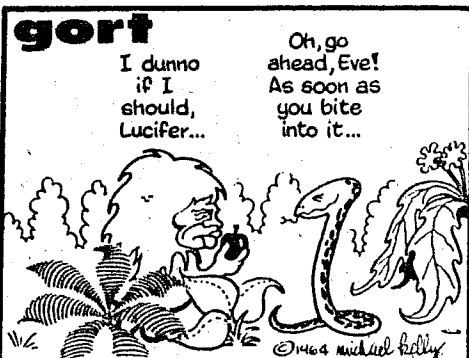

The second measure that students could take to change the Judicial Council decision involves the lengthy process of calling a referendum and holding the referendum election.

No New E-Board

To take this second choice, would mean that the installation of the new Executive Board could not possibly be held by the Constitutionally set April 20th date.

The "Special Committee on Responsible Student Government" which left the "Don't Sign" note on my desk seems to feel, why take any action at all.

It is not Judicial Council's place to arbitrarily set a 94 credit eligibility limit for E-Board candidates. If any arbitrary limit is to be set, it should come from a student supported amendment.

Ready, Set, Go Home

Ready, set, go... For Moscow students living on campus the shortest way home this weekend may be the Bovill Run. For others it may be the soft shoulders of Whitebird or the slender curves of Lewiston Hill.

Those choosing the longest route to Montana, should be aware of the fabulous points of historical interest along the way. The first "coffee" break is Coeur d'Alene where students can refuel for the long drive east. However, one must beware of a rough detour 40 miles farther on.

After a pleasant sojourn in the Wallace-Kellogg area students can usually take it easy to the border.

Orofino Detour
Going South this weekend ??? Take in our scenic State Hospital North Route—possibly you can rid yourself of a few passengers. At the foothills of the beautiful Orofino Mountain range, students may encounter another detour.

If students make it to McCall for a weekend of skiing or sheing, stand warned. We understand it is not safe to ski in the bathtub.

Regardless of the route home, we hope everyone arrives at his destination rejuvenated, relaxed and ready to enjoy six days of peace and quiet.—LPJ

P. S. We are taking our vacation early... there will be no Argonaut Friday.

Associated Foresters Scheduled To Elect New Officers Tonight

Election of new officers will head the agenda of the Associated Foresters meeting scheduled tonight at 7 p.m. in the Gold Room at the Student Union Building, announced vice president, Steve McCool, off-campus.

Also under discussion will be Forestry Week planned April 25 through May 1. Following elections, the film "Operation Whip" will be shown to the foresters.

President Those nominated for president are Dean Huber, Chrisman; Allen Kyle, Chrisman; Dale Bosworth, off campus and for vice president, Stony Yakovac, Upham; Keith Glover, off campus, Paul Graville, off campus.

Nominated for secretary are John Parker, off campus; Ken Schuster, off campus, for treasurer; Jon Wellner, Chrisman, Bill Boyes, off campus. Nominations for ranger, are Jim Rickard, Campus Club; Martin Clements, Chrisman; Russ Liddell, Chrisman; and for historian, Leslie Betts, Forney and Don Weatherhead, Gault.

Nominees

IFC Meeting Is Scheduled In Portland

The 18th annual Western Regional Interfraternity Council Conference will be held April 15-17 at the Portland Hilton Hotel, Mike Morfitt, IFC, vice-President, said yesterday.

This conference is designed to accelerate growth and spotlight fraternity systems on the campuses of the western United States, according to a recent release.

Representatives from Interfraternity Councils from colleges in 11 western states will attend the conference, Morfitt said.

Workshop

The conference is primarily an IFC workshop where panel discussion are held concerning programs, activities, and organizations.

Governor George Romney of Michigan will be the keynote speaker, Morfitt said.

Other speakers will include Governors Mark Hatfield of Oregon; Robert Smylie of Idaho, and Dee Andros, head football coach at Oregon State.

'99% Can Be Wrong'

Dear Jason:

I sympathize completely with the feelings of the hundreds of people who signed the petition asked for Dr. Theophilus to refuse to sign the decision of the judicial council.

However, I feel that the people who did this have overlooked an extremely important point. If we have to call upon the administration to solve our problems, a student government is not even necessary.

By not accepting the ruling of our judicial body, even at the request of 99 per cent of the student body, Dr. Theophilus will be taking an active hand in the management of student affairs.

I am sure that he does not want this. Where is our student leadership? Where is our integrity? Why can't we take the initiative to solve our own problems?

SUB Board Weighs Lounge Speakers

Speakers from the Stereo Room to the Vandal Lounge will be installed if the facilities are operating to full capacity, according to a recent decision by the Student Union Building Board.

Mike Martin, off campus, chairman of the Stereo Room Committee proposed allocating funds to place permanent speakers in the Vandal Lounge at an Activities Board meeting recently. The Board asked the Stereo Room Committee to conduct a survey of Idaho students and keep a log of the use of stereo facilities and the type of music played.

At this time the stereo room has portable speakers which can be moved into the Vandal Lounge at student request, but these speakers were not designed for this type of use and will in time become permanently damaged, said Martin. The portable speakers are constantly subject to theft and have in the past been tampered with by students.

SIGMA OMICRON BETA
Members of Sigma Omicron Beta hosted the annual post Blue Key Talent Show get-together Friday night. Approximately 35 Blue Key members and guests attended. Plans were made for next year's skit for the talent show and post function.

Finalists
The other finalists were: Susan Lee, Tri Delta; Penny Thornock, Alpha Chi; and Andee Kanta, Alpha Phi.

Guests of honor were Dr. Charles Simmons, instructor of history and faculty advisor, and Mrs. Simmons and Mr. George T. Watkins, alum advisor, and Mrs. Watkins, Pullman.

CO-ED NAMED DREAM GIRL
Lodi Stemmler, Forney, was named the University's first Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha at the fraternity's dance Saturday night.

John Tullif, colony president, presented her with the Pi Kappa Sweetheart pin during intermission ceremonies. She had been chosen from a group of four finalists.

Permanent speakers could be installed in the Vandal Lounge for as low as $35 apiece, said Martin, but these would be sub-quality and probably not worth the money spent. To install an adequate system would probably cost the Student Union about $175.

Martin stressed that the stereo lounge is in no way trying to compete with the Vandal Lounge.

Vandal Moundsmen Split Double-Header With CBC

Vandal Track Squad Breaks Five Records To Dump CWSC Crew

A dropped baton spelled the difference between victory and defeat last Saturday as Idaho's Vandal cindermen rolled to a 75-70 win over the highly rated Central Washington track squad in a dual track and field meet held at Ellensburg.

The Idaho crew picked up eleven first place finishes in the 17-event meet. Five Vandal finishes were good for Central Stadium records and one—by high jumper Dick Rambeau—smashed a four-year-old CWSC record and a 25-year-old University of Idaho record.

Vandal cinder coach, Doug MacFarland, said that he was "extremely pleased" with the performances of the Idaho squad.

Won the Close Ones
"They won all the close ones when it really counted," he said. "Several members of the team turned in times far better than I had expected or hoped for."

MacFarland noted that if any two of Idaho's first place finishes had been seconds instead — "and they might well have been as close as most of the times were" — the Vandals would have lost the meet.

"If anybody deserves credit for our win its Rambeau, Bryson, Jebson and Prydz," MacFarland added. "Rambeau's record-breaking jump was exceptional. It isn't often that someone clears a cross-bar set at 6-6 1/2, but he did."

Turning Point
"Bryson's first place finishes in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash might well have been the turning point in the meet," he continued.

Bryson's run in the 220 smashed the CWSC record. Both the 100 and 220-yard records

"Old Man Weather" played havoc with the Idaho sports slate last weekend when he blanketed the area with some more of that d—white stuff late Thursday night and early Friday morning.

That's Odd

It probably would have melted in time for the Vandal baseball squad to play their scheduled game with Columbia Basin, but cold wind and generally miserable conditions—that's odd for Moscow—left McLean field in anything but ideal playing conditions.

As it turned out, diamond mentor Wayne Anderson had to cancel both Friday and Saturday contests.

The Vandal diamond crew would have played Whitworth Saturday. However, the games have been rescheduled for today and tomorrow—weather permitting.

A double-header is slated for today and the remaining game will be played tomorrow, providing the moon-son season doesn't set in early this year.

Tennis Canceled

Baseball wasn't the only Idaho sport that suffered the wrath of "Old Man Weather." Coach Dick Douglas' tennis squad was forced to cancel a match with the Montana State squad.

"At present I don't know when we will reschedule the match," Douglas said. "I hope to meet with the Montana squad sometime after spring vacation. However, I haven't talked with them yet about rescheduling."

Praise Be

Oh well, praise be to the man who invented bowling as an inside sport. Otherwise, WRA probably would have had to cancel their tournament, too. Someone said that it was a good tournament except for that "fickle finger of fate" that put the Idaho squad in fifth place instead of first where they would have liked to have placed.

The team from the University of Oregon with the "Donald Duck" emblem on the back of their jerseys won. Walt Disney would have been proud of them. They posted a game score of 2,792 for the tournament.

CBC Squad

Columbia Basin's WRA squad followed in second place with a team score of 2,712. The Washington State women's team posted a 2,635 for the tournament and third place honors. Maybe they were trying to set a precedent for other Cougar sports. Sounds like a good idea.

Montana State University's team rolled a 2,577 score. It was good enough for fourth place.

Only one Idaho bowler was presented with a "200 pin." Bev Edwards rolled a 204. Nine other girls from area schools entered in the competition were presented with the pins.

for Idaho are held by Bob Johnson who was unable to make the trip to Ellensburg.

First place honors in the triple jump went to Idaho's Rolf Prydz.

His combined jump of 45-9 set a Central Washington record by a full seven inches over the previous mark established in 1961. Idaho gridders, Bill Scott placed third in the event.

Jebson Broke 800 Record

Another Vandal skier, Nils Jebson, also broke a CWSC record when he turned a 1:35.8 in the 800-yard dash. Idaho's Dick Korpinen finished third.

"I think the thing that is outstanding about the performances of Prydz and Jebson is that they've only been working out for about a week," MacFarland noted. "It's only been that long since both of them skied — and quite well I might add — in the NCAA finals at Crystal Mountain."

Vandal fullback, Ray McDonald added another record to his long list when he heaved the shot 51-4 to break a two-year-old Central mark. Vandal linemen, Ray Miller and Ron Porter, placed third and fourth, respectively, behind McDonald. Big Ray also placed first in the discus with a toss of 141 8/16.

Distance Men Broke Marks

Idaho's distance men also made their presence known in Saturday's meet when both the mile relay squad and the Vandal's three three-mile entrants smashed school records.

Vandal mile relay runners, Virgil Kearney, Dick Korpinen, Nils Jebson and Tim Lavens, cut nearly three seconds off the previous Central record.

Three Vandal freshmen, John Mynott, Ted Quirk and Ken Hann finished one, two and three, respectively in the three-mile run. Mynott's time of 15:15.8 was good for a new school record. Quirk finished first in the mile with a time of 4:28.8. Teammate Howard Foley placed second and Ken Hann followed in fourth place.

Fifth Inning Kills Idaho Crew In First; Make Comeback To Win Second In 6th

A bad sixth inning in the first game and an offsetting good time an inning earlier in the second game enabled Idaho's baseball Vandals to split a double-header with the Columbia Basin Hawks yesterday.

Columbia Basin downed Idaho in the first game 4-3, but the Idaho squad came back in the second contest to even the series with a 4-2 win over the Hawks. The Vandals now have a 4-5 season record.

First Game

Idaho scored first in the second inning when veteran catcher Tom Hoagland crossed the home plate on a triple by teammate Gary Johnson. Johnson scored from third on a sacrifice by Mike Everett.

Vandal Jim Carmichael rapped a homer in the third inning with no one to give the Idaho squad a 3-0 lead over the Hawks. Neither team was able to change the scoring column in the fourth inning.

The Columbia Basin crew had a field day in the sixth inning, as they came from behind to even the score and then surpass the Vandals. Fred Worthing was the first to score for the Pasco squad on a single in the sixth when Jim Naslund brought him home on a homer to left field. Naslund is a former Idaho from baseball and basketball player.

Bowman Doubled

A double by Hawk Dan Bowman set up the tying and winning runs for Columbia Basin. Bowman doubled both Don Smith and Al Courtner home after Smith had walked and Courtner singled.

Vandal baseball coach Wayne Anderson said that he didn't think the Idaho squad had hit well enough.

"I guess that if there has to be a reason for us not winning the game that would have to be it."

he noted. "We'll have to work on that in practice."

Good "Mileage"

Anderson explained that he thought that the Vandals had gotten good "mileage" off the hits they had but that they simply hadn't connected with the ball on enough occasions.

"If we had an overall problem our hitting would have to be it," he added. "I thought that we played well in the first game as far as defensive scramble was concerned. We ran the bases well and we improved considerably on our errors as compared to past games but, I said we didn't have enough RBI's"

Second Game

The second game was much the same as the first. All of the winning runs by the winning team were scored in a single inning.

Only this time the situation was reversed—Idaho won after scoring all of their runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

Vandal Tom Hoagland rapped a homer in the fourth inning to start the ball "flying" for the Idaho crew.

In the fifth inning first baseman John Barelli tripped and scored on pitcher Mike Lamb's single. In the same inning Carmichael singled and Lamb went to second. Gary Kaatz sacrificed Lamb home and Carmichael stole home to give Idaho its final point.

Scored In 6th

Columbia Basin scored in the sixth and seventh innings when Steve Bowman walked and scored on a fielder's choice and a single by Dick Hokanson.

Denny Sherer gave the Hawks their last point when he scored —walking to first, taking second on an error, moving to third on Jim Cox' single and walking home when John Nokes walked to first.

Coach Anderson credited a double play by Bardelli, Hoagland and Kaatz as the margin of victory in the second game.

"Bardelli, Hoagland and Kaatz combined on a real good delay double to save us in the second game after CBC had loaded the bases," he said.

Anderson explained that he thought that Columbia Basin was a better team than he had anticipated—especially in light of their previous performance.

"When we played them in Pasco, I wasn't too impressed with their brand of ball, in spite of the fact that we did split the series with them," he noted.

"However, after today, I've changed my opinion of them—they're pretty fair — a good solid ball club. They have a tough infield. That's where they made most of their plays," he said.
